TABLE OF CONTENTS

I. INTRODUCTION

A. ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS THIS BOOK WILL BRING AN ABUNDANCE OF SCRIPTURAL EVIDENCE TO PROVING

.B. DISCLAIMERS

1. DO AND CREW POST, “OUR POSITION AGAINST SUICIDE”

2. THERE IS NO CULT OR LEADERS AS TI AND DO ARE NO LONGER IN HUMAN FLESH BODIES

3. MY MOTIVATION FOR WRITING THIS BOOK

4. TI AND DO WERE NOT INTERESTED IN ATTRACTING FOLLOWERS - They were willing to accept anyone as a student but were choosy about who they thought could accomplish the task of overcoming the human condition. Public meetings were only held over two approximate nine month periods with about seventeen years of cloistered Overcoming “Classroom” in between, during which many gradually learned it wasn’t what they wanted so freely left the group and in many cases when the group had the capacity were given funds or an airline or bus ticket to go where they wanted to go

C. BIBLIOGRAPHY AND SCRIPTURE NOTATION

D. INTRODUCTION TO TI AND DO

1. THE NAMES AND TEMPORARY ORGANIZATIONS ASSOCIATED WITH TI AND DO

2. TI AND DO’S TERMINOLOGY CHANGES AND CONCEPT UPDATES

3. PRIMER OF TI AND DO’S INITIAL TEACHINGS

a. SUMMARY OF TI AND DO’S BEGINNING AND THEIR FIRST PUBLIC STATEMENT

II. JESUS PROPHECY OF THE RETURN OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD/HEAVEN

A. THE UNOBSERVABLE (THROUGH INSPECTION BY EYESIGHT), IN SECRET AS “A THIEF IN THE NIGHT” (UNDERCOVER)

RETURN OF THE FATHER, THE SON (LAMB), JESUS AND THEIR STUDENTS, THE “SAINTS” (ANGELS) IN FLESH (CARNAL) HUMAN BODIES

1. JESUS SAY’S “The kingdom of God cometh not with observation,” Luk 17:21
2. “SON OF MAN” IS A PHRASE THAT JESUS USED TO IDENTIFY HIMSELF IN ARAMAIC AS A CHILD (SON) KIN OF GOD (HIS HUSBAND) WHILE OF A MORTAL
3. JESUS SAID HE WOULD HAVE A NEW NAME AND THAT HIS FATHER WOULD HAVE A NAME AND THE CITY OF GOD THAT IS THE NEW JERUSALEM WOULD ALSO HAVE A NEW NAME UPON HIS RETURN
4. RESURRECTION - TO STAND UP OR RISE AGAIN - IN-CARNAL (FLESH) AGAIN - (REINCARNATION), BORN AGAIN OF WATER AND BORN OF SPIRIT/MIND
  - a. ACCORDING TO TI AND DO, “REINCARNATION” AS IT’S TAUGHT BY EASTERN RELIGIONS OF HINDU AND BUDDHIST ORIGINS IS NOT ACCURATE. IT INCLUDES STANDING UP AGAIN WHICH IS DEFINED AS PERFORMING SERVICE TO ONES OLDER MEMBER FROM THE NEXT LEVEL SHOWN AS THE DELIVERY OF PROPHECY
  - b. BORN OF WATER = BORN OF FLESH - WHICH IS A PROCESS OF “STANDING UP IN” (TAKING OVER) A HUMAN VEHICLE
  - c. WHAT CHRISTIANS SAY ABOUT BEING “BORN AGAIN” AND “SAVED” HAS IT’S APPLICATION BUT HAS BECOME SO DISTORTED IS NO LONGER REFLECTIVE OF FATHER AND JESUS MIND/SPIRIT INTENTION
  - d. JESUS HAVING A NEW NAME THUS HAVING A NEW “SON OF MAN” BODY IS ANOTHER PROOF THAT HE IS RESURRECTING, RE-INCARNATING
  - e. “GOD IS NOT THE GOD OF THE DEAD, BUT OF THE LIVING” and “GOD IS A SPIRIT”
  - f. JESUS SAID, “BEFORE ABRAHAM WAS I AM” AND INDICATED ABRAHAM WAS BACK TO SEE JESUS’ DAY
  - g. JOHN THE BAPTIST WAS A RETURNING ELDER STUDENT

SENT TO FULFILL THE ISAIAH PROPHECY OF A MESSENGER TO ANNOUNCE JESUS ARRIVAL BUT HAD NOT YET BECOME AN ADULT (AS OPPOSED TO A CHILD) MEMBER OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD

h. PAUL OF TARSUS, “RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD” EXPLANATION SEEMS FOUNDED UPON JESUS AND TI AND DO’S TEACHINGS THAT INCLUDES AN INTRODUCTION TO A NEXT LEVEL (CELESTIAL) “FLESH” BODY

i. JESUS SAYS “THE REST OF THE DEAD LIVED NOT AGAIN UNTIL THE THOUSAND YEARS WERE FINISHED” meaning these had their Souls saved, what Do called being “put on ice” (though not literal ice), which is in addition to those who gave their lives

j. OLD TESTAMENT PROPHET DANIEL IS TOLD OF HIS RETURN AND PEOPLE IN GRAVES RISING TO THEIR JUDGMENT

5. JESUS DESCRIBES HIS RETURN AND REVEALING TO INCLUDE HIS FATHER COMING WITH HIM INCARNATE SUBSTANTIATED FURTHER BY DISCIPLES JOHN, PETER AND THE OLD TESTAMENT PROPHET DANIEL

a. JESUS SAYS “WE WILL COME UNTO HIM AND MAKE OUR ABODE WITH HIM”

b. JESUS SAYS IN Joh 16:25 - UPON HIS RETURN HE DOES NOT SPEAK IN PARABLES AKA PROVERBS, OR STORIES. INSTEAD, DISCIPLES WILL BE SHOWN (SEE FOR THEMSELVES THE FATHER) WHEN FATHER AND SON TOGETHER SPEAK/ANNOUNCE INSTRUCTIONS (COMMANDS)

i. HOW JESUS IS REVEALED IN PROPHECY - CORRELATION OF 1TH 4:16-17 WITH REV 6:1-2 AND THE REV 5:1 “BOOK” WRITTEN WITHIN AND ON THE BACKSIDE, “WITHIN” BEING THE 7 ROAR/THUNDERS AND THE “LITTLE BOOK” (REV 10) BEING THE BACKSIDE AS IT COMES LATER AFTER TI AND DO AND FIRSTFRUIT CREW HAS EXITED THEIR INCARNATIONS AND IT’S CONTENT PERTAINS TO BIBLE PROPHECY FULFILLMENT AS PROOF THAT TI AND DO

WERE/ARE THE PROMISED INCARNATE RETURN

- ii. A SATAN IS AN ADVERSARIAL DISCARNATE “INFLUENCE”
THE NEXT LEVEL ASSIGNS TO STUDENTS TO TEST THEIR RESOLVE THAT TI AND DO CALLED BOOGERS
- iii. THE TWO WITNESSES ARE SUBDUED BY THE BEASTS MEDIA MOUTHPIECE
- iv. BOTH OF THE TWO WITNESSES ARE CHRISTS
- v. JESUS IS THE LION OF THE TRIBE OF JUDA, THE ROOT OF DAVID, WHO OPENS THE BOOK WHICH IS WHY WHAT HE SAYS IS DEPICTED AS A THUNDEROUS ROAR
- vi. THE “TWO EDGED SWORD OF HIS MOUTH” EXPLAINED
- vii. THE TRINITY IN DO’S WORDS AND JNNODY’S WORDS ON THE “HOLY SPIRIT,” OR “HOLY GHOST”
- viii. DO’S WORDS ON RELIGION, THE LUCIFERIAN SPACE ALIENS, GOD, PANTHEISM, THE SECOND COMING, MISINFORMATION OF HAVING A “HEAVEN ON EARTH,” FLOWING ROBE WEARING PEACE AND LOVE JESUS, HUMANS PRAYING TO ‘MASQUERADING “GODS”’ AND DEPENDENCE ON ONE’S OLDER MEMBER AS THE ONLY SOURCE OF UNLIMITED GROWTH AND KNOWLEDGE
- c. JESUS REFERS TO HIS RETURNING AS SON OF MAN (SON OF GOD IN FLESH) IN THE ACCOMPANIMENT OF HIS GLORY (VERY APPARENT TO THE EYES) FATHER AND THE HOLY ANGELS, HIS STUDENT CREW
- d. JESUS REFERS TO SON OF MAN SITTING ON THE RIGHT HAND OF POWER AND COMING IN CLOUDS DEPICTING TWO PHASES TO THE OVERALL RETURN, THE FIRST INCARNATE WITH HIS FATHER (POWER) FOR THE FIRSTFRUIT HARVEST AND THE SECOND PHASE NON INCARNATE, WHILE STATIONED IN HIS SPACECRAFT ARMADA, UNDERCOVER - CLOAKED - EVEN BY LITERAL CLOUDCOVER OVERSEEING AND STIMULATING THE “WINEPRESS” THAT RESULTS IN NEW BELIEVERS GIVING THEIR LIVES IN HIS/THEIR SERVICE THAT CAN RESULT IN THE LOSS OF THEIR PHYSICAL BODIES AS THEIR EXIT METHOD THEY ARE

REWARDED FOR

- e. ZECHARIAH TALKS OF SEEING TWO OLIVE TREES/LAMPSTANDS ANOINTED (CHRISTS) THAT STAND BY THE LORD OF THE WHOLE EARTH RELATING DIRECTLY TO THE TWO WITNESSES AS OLIVE TREES AND LAMPSTANDS AND THEREFORE BOTH CHRISTS THUS FATHER AND SON RETURNED
  - f. DANIEL 7:13 DESCRIBES THE OLDER MEMBER AS A SON ARRIVING TO BE WITH HIS OLDER MEMBER AND DANIEL 12's PROPHECY DESCRIBES JESUS STANDING (INCARNATE TO PROPHECY) AND THEN THE "END TIME" TWO (WITNESSES) STANDING (INCARNATE TO PROPHECY), WHO CAN ONLY BE THE SAME FATHER AND SON
  - g. REVELATIONS 12 DEPICTS THE FATHER'S RETURN INCARNATE IN A FEMALE (WOMAN'S) HUMAN VEHICLE TO BIRTH HIS "SON" (DO), (JESUS) TO THE THRONE TASK DEFINED AS REVELATION 11'S "TWO WITNESSES," THE SON THEN FOLLOWING THROUGH TO SPIRIT BIRTH THEIR STUDENT BODY, WHOSE SATAN (ADVERSARY) IS LITERALLY LUCIFER, THE DRAGON, WHOM HE BATTLED BEFORE THROUGH HIS INCARNATION AS JESUS AND BEFORE THEN THROUGH HIS INCARNATION AS MOSES. WHILE OUTSIDE HIS INCARNATIONS HE WAS REFERRED TO AS MICHAEL IN HIS COMMUNICATION WITH THE PROPHET DANIEL. LUCIFER AND THE THIRD WHO WERE THE "FALLEN ANGELS" ARE SOULS WHO THESE DAYS ARE THE SPACE ALIENS WHO ARE HUMAN EQUIVALENTS AND ARE NO LONGER ALLOWED TO TRAVERSE EVEN AS FAR INTO THE SPACE AS THE EARTH'S MOON
  - i. SHOWS HOW REV 12:16 DEPICTS THE WAY THE WOMAN (GENERATOR OF LIFE) (TI) EXITS HER VEHICLE BECAUSE OF HER OWN CHOICES RATHER THAN BEING KILLED, WHICH IS THE INACCURATE TRANSLATION OF "APOKTEINO AUTO" FOR THE METHOD OF EXIT BY THE TWO WITNESSES THAT SHE IS ONE OF
6. THE "TWO WITNESSES" DESCRIBED IN REVELATIONS 11:3-6

ARE TASKED TO DELIVER THEIR TESTIMONY (SACRIFICE THEIR LIVES STANDING UP FOR THE GOD OF THE EARTH) AS PROPHECY FOR 1260 DAYS REQUIRING PHYSICAL HUMAN BODIES TO SPEAK THROUGH

7. THE OLDER MEMBER FROM THE NEXT LEVEL WHO LAST PERFORMED THE TASK INCARNATE AS JESUS, THE LAMB, IS TASKED BY HIS OLDER MEMBER (FATHER) WHO COMES WITH HIM INCARNATE TO “GET HIM GOING” TO “OPEN THE FIRST SEAL” WITH A “ROAR (THUNDER)” AS IN REV 6:1, BEING THE “LION OF THE TRIBE OF JUDA” IN REV 5:5. THIS “OPENING” IS AKA HIS “REVEALING” ACCOMPLISHED BY SPEAKING - BRINGING UPDATES TO THE BIBLE AND PROPHECY FULFILLMENT AS THE TWO WITNESSES, WITH HIS HEAVENLY FATHER, INCARNATE IN A FEMALE VEHICLE (WOMAN), BIRTHING HIM TO THE THRONE BEFORE RETURNING (REV 12). HIS NEW VEHICLE IS DESCRIBED IN REV 6:2 AS A “WHITE HORSE,” A HUMAN VEHICLE (BORN OF FLESH) HE MAKES PURE (LIGHT/WHITE) TO SHOW HOW AND HIS “HEAD AND HAIR” ARE COMPARED TO “WOOL AND SNOW” IN REV 1:14. TO “SIT” ON HIS PREPARED “HORSE” IS TO USE IT TO PERFORM HIS TASK. HIS “BOW” REPRESENTS HIS LITER OF SOULS (RETURNING SAINTS/ANGELS) BEING BORN OF MIND/SPIRIT BY THEIR ADHERENCE TO THE COVENANTS BEGAN WITH MOSES AND STRENGTHEN WITH JESUS. HE CONQUERS AKA PREVAILS AGAINST, OVERCOMES HIS WHITE LUCIFERIAN PROGRAMMED “HORSE” AND THE HUMAN WORLD (THE DEFINITION OF A TRUE ISRAELI AS ONE WHO “PREVAILS AS JEHOVAH”) AND IN SO DOING SERVES AS THE “MIDWIFE” FOR EACH OF THE “SAINTS” TO ALSO CONQUER THEIR HUMANNESSE. THEREFORE, THESE VERSES ARE DEPICTING THE PART OF THE TASK THAT MARKS THE FIRST FRUIT HARVEST IN REV 14:15-16

B. WHERE ON THE EARTH THE RETURN IS MOST EVIDENCED

1. JESUS INDICATES THE KINGDOM OF GOD WILL BE GIVEN TO A NEW NATION (ETHNICITY) AND GEOGRAPHIC AREA

DESCRIBED NON-PHYSICALLY WITH SODOM, EGYPT AND WHERE THE LORD WAS CRUCIFIED

2. JESUS SAYS, “WHERE THE BODY IS THE EAGLES WILL BE GATHERED” - THE GEOGRAPHY OF THE TEMPLE AND ALTAR WHERE THE KINGDOM OF GOD/HEAVEN REPRESENTATIVES COME TO IN THE NEXT AGE
3. WHERE THE TWO WITNESSES COME INCARNATE INDICATES THE GEOGRAPHIC AREA ALSO DESCRIBED AS NON-PHYSICALLY; SODOM, EGYPT AND WHERE THE LORD WAS CRUCIFIED
4. THE GREAT CITY IS THE WOMAN NAMED AMERICA WITH IT’S PRINCIPAL TWO CAPITALS IN THE WOMAN NAMED LADY LIBERTY REPRESENTING NEW YORK CITY AND IT’S UNITED NATIONS NEW AGE ORDER AND WASHINGTON D.C. (DISTRICT OF (LADY) COLUMBIA). MYSTERY BABYLON IS THE U.S. SECRET GOVT DESCRIBED AS THE “BEAST” THAT CAME ABOUT FROM THE TEMPORARY RELEASE OF THE LUCIFERIAN SPACE ALIENS FROM THEIR “BOTTOMLESS PIT” PRISON. THE SOUTHWEST U.S. LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA VICINITY IS THE NEW NON-PHYSICAL (SPIRITUAL) JERUSALEM
5. WHAT TI AND DO SAID ABOUT HOW AND WHY THE U.S.A. WAS THE LOCATION FOR THEIR RETURN; WHAT LIFE IN THE NEW GEOGRAPHIC AREA WILL LOOK LIKE - I.E. NO WAR ON THEIR SOIL, GREAT PROSPERITY THAT ALL NATIONS ON EARTH LOOK TO AND PROFIT FROM, PROGRESS AND FREEDOMS IN ALL WAYS; EQUAL RIGHTS FOR RACES (ETHNICITY), WOMEN, BEHAVIORAL CHOICES, TECHNOLOGICAL ADVANCES, MORE FREEDOMS OF EXPRESSION (SPEECH IN RELIGION, POLITICS AND ENTERTAINMENT), SOCIAL ECONOMICS, HEALTH CONSCIOUSNESS, ALL TO PROVIDE A FULL FREE WILL OF CHOICES FOR ALL RETURNING SOULS TO BECOME EXACTLY WHAT THEY WANT TO BECOME, EVEN ALLOWING THEM TO GO AGAINST THE CREATORS OF THEIR ENTIRE REALITY OR TO GRADUATE INTO THE EVOLUTIONARY

LEVEL ABOVE HUMAN, THE KINGDOM OF GOD, KINGDOM OF HEAVEN. ADDITIONALLY, HOW UPON TI AND DO AND CREWS EXIT BY 1997 ALL OF PEACEFUL COEXISTENCE, SOCIAL EQUALITIES AND HEALTH, RELIGIOUS AND SPEECH FREEDOMS BEGIN TO REVERSE.

C. THE RETURN IS FOR THE HARVEST OF SOULS - REV 14.

THE KINGDOM OF GOD/HEAVEN'S QUALIFICATIONS TO GRADUATE THE HUMAN KINGDOM FOR THE 144 AND THE MYRIAD OF THOUSANDS. NO STUDENT'S PHYSICAL BODY WILL BE TAKEN AS THE "STALKS" ARE CUT DOWN. THE SONG'S OF MOSES, JESUS AND TI AND DO REFER TO EACH OF A THREE TRIMESTER MIND/SPIRIT AND SOUL BIRTH LESSON PLAN, WHERE THE FRUIT IS THE PRODUCT OF THE KERNEL/SEED OF GRAIN OF WHEAT AKA CORN, GROWN FROM THE HEAD/EAR (BRAIN) IN THE "STANDING UP" (GIVING) OF THE STALK (BODY) IN SERVICE TO THE CURRENT OLDER MEMBER

1. FIRST TRIMESTER: DEVELOPMENT/TAMING OF THE HUMAN BODY IN THE JEHOVAH/MOSES CLASSROOM DEPICTED AS THE GROWTH OF THE BLADE. LOOKING TO ONE'S OLDER MEMBER; MOSES, MAKING A COMMITMENT TO FOLLOW ALL THE COMMANDMENTS AND FOLLOWING ALL INSTRUCTIONS
2. SECOND TRIMESTER: DEFLATING THE HUMAN BALLOON (MIND), CUTTING ONE'S HUMAN ROOTS, GRAFTING TO ONES OLDER MEMBER; JESUS AND ONE'S NEW FAMILY OF FELLOW BELIEVERS; FURTHER UPDATING BEHAVIOR AND WAYS AND STANDING UP FOR JESUS KNOWING IT WOULD MEAN SACRIFICING ONE'S HUMAN LIFE
3. THIRD TRIMESTER: GIVING YOUR LIFE AND WILL TO THE INCARNATE OLDER MEMBERS WHO FULFILL THE TASK OF THE TWO WITNESSES. COMPLETING YOUR METAMORPHIC OVERCOMING OF THE HUMAN EVOLUTIONARY LEVEL BY SEPARATING FROM YOUR HUMAN ROOTS TO GIVE ALL YOUR HEART, MIND, SOUL AND STRENGTH TO YOUR OLDER MEMBERS. PUBLICLY STANDING UP FOR YOUR OLDER

MEMBERS, DISSEMINATING THEIR INFORMATION WILLING TO LOSE THE HUMAN BODY YOU OCCUPY BECAUSE OF. LAYING DOWN YOUR LIFE WHEN THE OLDER MEMBER DECIDES ITS THE INSTRUCTION TO EXIT TO COMPLETE ONE'S METAMORPHIC MIND/SPIRIT/SOUL BIRTH. THIS OVERCOMING/BIRTHING IS ALSO TERMED ONE'S CHRISTING OR CHRISTENING AS ONE IS BECOMING ANOINTED WITH THE OLDER MEMBERS MIND WHICH IS "LIGHT" THAT WHEN FILLING ONE'S ENTIRE VEHICLE YIELDS TRUE ENLIGHTENMENT

4. THE HARVEST IS IN TWO PHASES AND INCLUDES 144 AND A MYRIAD OF THOUSANDS. THOSE WHO ARE THE FIRST FRUIT EXIT FROM THEIR BODIES FIRST AND THE LAST SPOKEN OF AS THE REMNANT/REMAINING WHO BELIEVE IN THE CURRENTLY INCARNATE REPRESENTATIVES (THE TWO WITNESSES) AND STAND FOR THEM - EXIT THEIR BODIES DURING THE TRIBULATION PERIOD "WINEPRESS" THAT STARTS GRADUALLY WITH THE OPENING OF THE SECOND SEAL IN REV 6 THAT IS HEADLINED BY THE "RED HORSE" WHO IS PERMITTED TO WAGE AN ENDLESS WAR

a. THE 144 MYRIAD OF THOUSANDS SING A NEW SONG. THERE IS THE SONG OF MOSES, JESUS AND THE NEW SONG OF TI AND DO. THE SONG IS THE LESSON PLAN. TI REFERRED TO THEIR LESSON PLAN AS A "PIANO ROLL" COMPARED TO THE SONG "OLD MCDONALD'S FARM" ADDING ON STEPS WHILE STILL MAINTAINING PREVIOUS STEPS TO BUILD ONE COMPLETE SONG. THEIR NAMES CAME FROM THE NOTES FROM THE SCALE DO, RE, ME, FA, SO, LA, TI AS INTRODUCED IN THE THEATRICAL PRODUCTION AND MOVIE CALLED THE SOUND OF MUSIC THAT TI AND DO FELT WAS IN PART A NEXT LEVEL INSPIRED STORY LINE BLUEPRINT OF THEIR TASK OF TEACHING THEIR STUDENT BODY TO "SING"

i. SUMMARY OF THE (SONG) REQUIREMENTS OF THOSE WHO BECOME PART OF THE FIRST HARVEST; THEY FOLLOW THE LAMB (Older member) WHITHERSOEVER HE

GOETH. They RECOVER their VIRGINITY FOR CHRYSALIS (CHRISTING) SAKE - BREAKING COMMITMENTS (MARRIAGES, ETC.) TO ALL HUMANS - CHARACTERISTIC EACH OF THE OVERCOMERS (TRUE ORIGINAL ISRAELI'S) MUST HAVE. THEY HAVE NO GUILE (DECEIT) AND ARE WITHOUT FAULT. THEY HAVE WASHED THEIR ROBES ACCORDING TO THE INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE INCARNATE OLDER MEMBER THEY BOND TO

ii. THREE ANGELS HOLD THE DELIVERY OF THE "EVERLASTING GOSPEL" TO BE PREACHED THROUGHOUT THE WORLD THROUGH THE INTERNET, THE SECOND SHOWING THE "TWO FALLS" OF THE U.S. BEAST ESSENTIALLY INTO GLOBAL ENDLESS WAR AND GLOBAL ENDLESS FINANCIAL CRISIS AND THE THIRD THE JUDGMENT HOUR OF 40 YEARS WHERE PEOPLE ARE JUDGED BY WHO THEY SHOW THEIR ALLEGIANCE TO BETWEEN THE ONE TRUE KINGDOM OF GOD AND HUMAN OR HUMAN EQUIVALENT SPACE ALIEN (MAMMALIAN) FORMS OF WEALTH AND TREASURE

b. THE "FIRST" FRUIT HARVEST IS COMPLETED BY THE TIME OF FIRST OF SEVEN SEALS OF REV 6 AS A RESULT OF THE TWO WITNESSES PROPHECY PERIOD OF 1260 DAYS THAT SERVED TO GATHER THE FLOCK OR RETURNING SAINTS, TAGGED BY THE MEDIA AS THE UFO TWO, FOLLOWED BY A TOTAL OF ABOUT 21 YEARS OF CLASSROOM TIME ALL BEGAN IN MARCH OF 1972 WHEN TI AND DO'S HUMAN VEHICLES MET IN HOUSTON, TEXAS AND WAS PRIMARILY CONCLUDED BY MARCH OF 1997 WHEN DO AND 38 STUDENTS LAID DOWN THEIR BODIES AS THE HEAVEN'S GATE GROUP AT THE TIMING OF THE PERIHELION OF THE MYSTERIOUS HALE BOPP COMET

c. THE "LAST" HARVEST IS COMPARED TO A WINEPRESS AND IS THE TIME OF GREAT TRIBULATION AKA FINAL JUDGMENT THAT BEGINS GRADUALLY WITH THE SECOND OF THE SEVEN SEALS OF REV 6 AND CONTINUES UNTIL THE SEVENTH SEAL

III. THE TIME LINE THAT REVEALS THE RETURN OF THE EVOLUTIONARY LEVEL ABOVE HUMAN KINGDOM OF PHYSICAL BEINGS (GODS) FROM THE LITERAL HEAVENS (THEIR ENVIRONMENTS IN DEEP OUTER SPACE)

A. THE PREPARATIONS AS DEPICTED IN REVELATIONS CHAPTERS 1 TO 5

1. REVELATION 4: THE BRIEFING ON BOARD THE SPACECRAFT BEFORE THEY ARE TO STAND IN NEW HUMAN VEHICLES ON EARTH

VII. The Finish - Sawyer’s Final Statement

This “Little Book” provides detailed evidence from everything Jesus prophesied to show how and why those called, Ti (Tee) and Do (Doe) were the new incarnations of the Ones referred to as the Father and Jesus, who with Their Crew of Student “Saints,” were on earth again to fulfill the promised return of Their Kingdom during these “End Times,” through Their task recorded as the “Two Witnesses” in the Book of Revelations that was completed when they exited their incarnations in 1997 - seen in the world's news as Heaven's Gate.

Here is a tiny bit of the evidence of Their return that will be covered in these next pages in great detail, examining most every verse from the Book of Revelations, in context with both the Old and New Testaments and in consideration of the many translation options from the Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek and most importantly in how Ti and Do's teachings, behaviors, ways and lifestyle coincided, without Their trying to do so, as I, Sawyer witnessed as Their student for 19 years.

-Father and Son both reside, (dwell with, abode) with Their Students. (Joh 14:22-23)

-They both have new names and the One who was “Jesus” identifies His Father. (Rev 3:12, Rev 14:1)

-They come incarnate in the task of the Two Witnesses to speak publicly (prophesy) New Revealing about the reality of Their Kingdom, how and when it can be entered, that serves to gather Their returned “Saints,” the Souls who were their students with Jesus and Moses. (Luk 17:30, Mat 24:31).

-The Father incarnates into a female human body and “Mind/Spirit births” His Son to the Throne. (Rev 12)

-They are both Olive Trees, Lampstands, and are Anointed so are both Christs. (Rev 11:3-4, Zec 4:1-14)

-They speak plainly, (open, bold, confident), not in parables (Luk 12:2) and Students can ask the Father questions directly. (Joh 16:25-27)

-Their prophecy is focused in the West and Southwest U.S.A., described as the spiritual (symbolic) Sodom (scorched, desert) e.g. Las Vegas, Egypt (“two straights” (Streets, Ways (FIRST & LAST)) and New Jerusalem; California (Los Angeles) to Texas, (Rev 3:12), to a “new nation (people)”

(Mat 21:42-43), leaving Jerusalem in Palestine/Israel “desolate” (empty of Their Updated Mind/Spirit - Presence). (Rev 11:8, Mat 23:37-39)

-In 1975 They are subdued (overcome) by the U.S. national media, mouthpiece of the “Beast” - the Secret Govt (Mystery Babylon) formed because of the release of the Luciferian Space Aliens from their “bottomless pit” prison in the 1940's to 1950's during the 5th Angels Trumpet Sounding. (Rev 9, 11:7, 12:4, 17)

-The Father's incarnation Exit was seemingly “natural”- “Earth Opened Her Mouth.” in 1985. Do and Students Exited by laying (falling) down Their human bodies in 1997, shown by the comprehensive translation of the Greek “apokteino auto” as “to separate by dying Their selves.” (Rev 11:7,16, Rev 12:16)

-Their ascension, Jesus called a “spirit birth,” compared to wind, not seen as physical bodies going up. The “cloud” (of light) was the Hale-Bopp Comet with it's photographed “companion object.” (Rev 11:12, Joh 3:5-8)

-Do Comes Public as the return of “Jesus” in 1993, shown as sitting on a “white horse,” the human body He took named Marshall Applewhite, which He purifies to Recover Virginity. “Bow” represents the Covenant (rainbow) with the “litter/fold” He “births” by directing each Students own Overcoming of Humanness. (Rev 6:2)

-The Red/Ruddy “Horse” - G.W. Bush, et al, used the 9/11 WTC attacks - the “great earth(shaking)” (1st Fall of “Babylon”) to wield a great sword (military) for a perpetual “war on terror.” (Rev 6:3-4, 11:13, 14:8)

-Barack Obama, et al, was the Black/Deep Blue (jacinth) “Horse” presiding over the stabilizing of the Global Financial Crisis (2nd Fall of “Babylon”) manufactured to usher in the U.S. BEAST's riding the yolk of the New World Order (U.N.) (Rev 6:5-6, Rev 13, 14:8, 18:2)

-Sign of Opening of Temple of God in Heaven revealed by NASA Dawn spacecraft photos of dwarf planet Ceres' cityscape of lights with 5+ mile high crystal-like Tower as evidence of 2017 4th Seal Opening: Green (Space Alien tare (weed) harvest, NWO front promotion of human caused global warming) Horse (US President) agenda, accelerating death in Tribulation/Judgment Hour = LAST Harvest Wave (Rev 6:8, 11:19, 14:20, 15:5)

-Luciferian (restricted Space) Aliens are depicted as fowls, birds of prey, locusts(Mat 13:4;Rev 9:3,18:2, 19:17)

-Afterward, Do returns with His “Armada” of brightly shining (glorious)

Clouds of Light - “horses” (spacecrafts) for every eye to see, with His FIRST Fruit Graduate (Saints) all “wearing” Their new Kingdom of God “made” (grown to an adult on a vine, not born of woman) physical, biological bodies, with His being “like the Son of Man,” Jesus' “dipped in blood body (vesture).”(Rev 1:7,11:19,14:14,16:15,19:11-14, 1Co 15:39+)

This “Little Book” Provides the “Backside” Evidence Showing How All Jesus' Prophecy Revelations are Fulfilled by Those Who were Known as:

Ti and Do - The Father and “Jesus” - Heaven's Gate - UFO Two Witnesses

Evidence of these claims come from everything Jesus said in the four “gospel” records and throughout the Book of Revelations, cross referenced to the Moses and Old Testament (OT) Prophet's records, to reveal how and why Ti (pronounced Tee) and Do (pronounced Doe) fulfilled the task described as the “Two Witnesses,” Two Christs, the same Ones described as The Father in Heaven and His Son, (the One who came incarnate in the body named Jesus), returning this time, together, incarnate (in the flesh) as partners for the FIRST of a two WAVE “Harvest” conclusion of the experimental task They both began as recorded in the Book of Genesis as the Elohim and Adam and Enoch and then in the other OT records as Jehovah and Moses and Elijah.

It will be shown how and why these Two Witnesses were prophesied by Jesus to have New Names for Their New, “in-the-flesh” Return, (that has been called Jesus' “Second Coming”), to occur during the New Age, aka End Time, in a New geographical area (not to the Middle East/Israel), as a New Nation, (ethnic populous), described as the New Jerusalem (also having a New Name).

The New geographic area will be shown to be primarily in the Western U.S. from the Mississippi river to the Pacific, as the “Temple” area, where the FIRST Harvest WAVE is staged. The Southwest became the “Altar” area. Elder Students (Saints) gave their physical vehicle's lives, they'd received from giving their human lives in service to Jesus, by intentionally crashing primitive spacecrafts, called “UFOs” to release their Souls to incarnate into prepared human vehicles to rendezvous with their teachers to finish their Overcoming of humanness lessons.

It will be shown that; what these two individuals named Ti and Do taught, was exactly what Jesus, and before then Moses were teaching and demonstrating, (appropriate to Their student body's grade in Their school), but as with Jesus, brought updates and used new plain and direct generic, (non-religious) terminology, rather than speaking to most people in parables with hidden meanings. This was necessary due to the way the Lower Forces of the planet, headed by the Luciferian Space Alien Souls (fallen Angels) were permitted by the Kingdom in the Heavens to distort and dilute the truth Jesus (and before then, Moses) bore, by sowing seeds of misinformation that became organized into Religions and to date New Age Spirituality. These distortions were allowed to provide all humans 100% choice of what they want to become and in who they choose to serve, as Jesus said was between, “God (The Kingdom of God's Older Members (Deities)) and Mammon (treasure, wealth in all the Human forms). One of many misconceptions is that the Kingdom of God is a Spiritual realm. It is but is also physical and biological, just like throughout Their creation.

Some of the generic terminology Ti and Do used, described the Kingdom of God or Kingdom of Heaven as The Physical Evolutionary Kingdom Level Above Human, whose membership are not limited to any one planet. Membership have true freedom to circulate throughout the literal “heavens” (near or outer space) to perform their tasks. (Like Star Trek without human mammalian behaviors they have outgrown). The use of the term “Evolution” has nothing to do with Darwin's theories, but instead describes the way there exists four kingdom levels of life on earth; mineral, plant, animal and human. The human kingdom was designed to be a stepping stone (footstool) to deposit Souls (that are like seeds) within and then to nurture them to grow towards taking their Next Evolutionary Step into what They termed in shorthand as the Next Level.

Ti and Do indicated that Next Level members dwell within Spacecrafts, (even Planet Sized like Pluto, (and perhaps Saturn and/or Earth's Moon and/or dwarf planet Ceres and others), that serve as Laboratories for Their “Soul” growing Earth “Garden” experimental, (always improving and free willed), experiential “God Astronaut Training Program,” They design into Earth Civilizations They spawn and nurture to graduate new Members from, (as they have outgrown mammalian reproduction and are eternal so don't need new members but are joyed to provide what they have). They are from the future, the only one a human or human equivalent can attain to.

A big difference between the human and the other kingdom levels beneath it, is how a human does not automatically evolve into their next higher kingdom. It can only be accomplished with the direct assistance from an existing Older Member from the Next Level Above Human, who has accomplished the transition before, even many times, who comes into human flesh, thus “undercover,” to teach and demonstrate the Overcoming of Humanness Process in stages, that are like “trimesters” in a human baby's birth, over millenniums of time.

It is the Soul that is as a physical seed containing biological “programs”, like software that is deposited (planted) into a human vehicle (the biological body - genetic hardware) that can be grown into a Next Level Member. Ti and Do taught that the Next Level was many membered and referred to them as; Older Members (Jesus described as his Father in Heaven (who wasn't incarnate then)) and Younger Members like Archangels and those coming up who are provided degrees of service, while the Oldest Member they called the Chief of Chiefs.

Ti and Do taught that Souls were actually physical containers, like a pillow case or pocket, though less dense than the human flesh containers they are deposited within and it's that Soul, if grown to maturity, that becomes a body that is graduated (harvested) into the Next Level and is eternal thereafter. New graduate Souls are then provided with a more dense physical body (a vehicle to wear) appropriate to their new task assignments in their new Above Human Society. These new vehicles are grown on a vine in a laboratory by technicians, said in the Records (Bible) as “made” as opposed to “begotten” - born from mammalian reproductive methods.

It will be shown how Paul of Tarsus became one of the Luciferian's “best puppets.” Paul was never a disciple of Jesus and was the first Christian preachers used as a pawn to distort the formula Jesus taught and became Satan's best agent by having him infiltrate the young believers of the Jesus “cult.” It's not clear whether Paul was well meaning or a Roman agent but his main “blasphemy” (expressing to others things that are against the Next Level's true information) was saying that no one needs to change significantly to qualify to enter the Kingdom of Heaven but can be saved and enter Heaven by only having faith. Paul did not have an assigned task from Jesus and never quoted him or taught much of what he taught. His letters were influenced by the Luciferian Lower Forces, so can not be trusted and ended up being used to dilute and distort the truth, largely seen as today's Christianity.

This book will attempt to reveal how in the past, religions and the modern definition of spirituality can be stepping stones to the whole truth about how to become a member of the Kingdom of Heaven, but only when one begins to see through the ways organizations stifle open minded exploration of new ideas, concepts and perspectives, even on ancient records, can they remain open to what the Older Members say when they come incarnate to look for their “sheep”. Such belief systems today have become “killers of Souls,” due to their promotion of stagnated thinking, archaic concepts, ritualistic practices, less accurate or wrong definition of terms (often lost in translations), changing what was meant to be taken as literal into a figurative or “spiritual,” then diluted meaning and the soothing, even addicting affect that goes with feeling we belong to something higher than humans. If we become teachers in various religions we become easily captured to those mindsets and especially when it becomes popular. Do indicated that people “hardly stood a chance” of seeing the truth through the varied misinterpretations of scripture and those who portray themselves as teachers, guides and facilitators to Godliness.

Likewise, it will be shown how Atheism and any other human belief, non-belief, philosophy, path, practice or scientific study can also be used as steps towards the ultimate perspective of what is most true and thus most real about our reality as a Next Level school. Ti and Do said it best as, “All paths can lead to the top of the mountain, but there is only one way off.” In other words to paraphrase Jesus, the way to the highest truths and the Life he spoke of, will only come to those who ask to find, seek to know and knock on the doors of the Living Beings who Created everything, all the planets and all the life forms, whose “kingdom” is not of this world, but who exist throughout the literal Heavens. Becoming a member of the Next Level was always meant to be an individual endeavor. Being part of a group that refers to themselves as on a path to God has nothing to do with the relationship each could choose to form and maintain with an Older Member in the Next Level by projecting their asking far into the most distant stars (heavens) to ask how to become a prospective candidate for Membership. This is what Jesus meant by teaching to address the Father in Heaven with our prayers. “Heaven” is defined to include all the elevated areas above the earth, but especially where the planets and stars are seen and any and all points beyond.

It will be shown how the overall Return of the Next Level Kingdom was scheduled in Two Primary Harvest WAVES, the FIRST and the LAST:

The FIRST was presented when the Two Returning Older Members awakened their chosen and prepared human vehicles (bodies) in the early 1970's and then unknowingly began their 1260 day prophecy period in 1973, but attracted almost all their first students when they were invited to speak in the North Hollywood part of Los Angeles, California starting in March/April of 1975, that resulted in subsequent public meetings in the San Francisco Bay area and then in Waldport, Oregon, which was the meeting I, named by Do, Sawyer attended and joined from.

It was October of 1975 when Ti and Do, then going by the names Bo and Peep were propelled into the U.S. national, “town square” like spotlight, covered by all three network news stations, because 34 individuals left all behind after hearing Bo and Peep's information at the Waldport, Oregon meeting. At that meeting Ti and Do spoke of needing to leave all behind to begin to overcome the human world, that is like that start of a metamorphosis of a caterpillar into a butterfly. The caterpillar must leave it's world behind to begin it's chrysalis stage. The chrysalis was equivalent to a Christening or Christing that Jesus completed by the time of his Transfiguration. After Jesus voluntarily set up his capture, knowing the corrupt religious leadership wanted to kill him, he “layed down his body” on his Father's instruction, saying “no man takes it from me” (his human vehicles life). Then he healed that body over 3 days time, a characteristic of what he had metamorphosed into inside his human vehicle. He proceeded to prove to his disciples he was still flesh and bone, and was NOT a SPIRIT and could eat and drink and be touched, but could also appear and disappear and defy gravity at will, a characteristic of the “changed over” vehicle he had. After proving these things and many more to them for about 40 days, he took his changed over physical body with him into a “cloud” that humans today might call a UFO, but is actually in this case a cloud (covered) physical spacecraft.

Ti and Do's speaking (prophecy) period of 1260 days was geared primarily to the Souls who had completed their previous trimester of Overcoming of Humanness Lesson Plan, they began while in the flesh with Jesus and for some before then with Moses. It will be shown how these Souls were spoken of primarily as the Four Living Beings and the Four and Twenty Elders and I suspect the two groups referred to as 7 Angels each, equaling 42 who became the FIRST “Fruit” Harvested, the number of members of the Heaven's Gate group, (38 + 4).

Every harvest requires “leaps of faith” (so to speak, though they are not at all “blind”, though appear to be for those who don't recognize their calling). For Jesus' Apostles (at least, but perhaps for the 70 as well) they could have left behind family, houses and land to literally follow Jesus, which is one Edge of the Two Edged Instruction that becomes like a sword in how it cuts ties, and this is what was referred to as the “catching away”, actually being “caught” (like a fish), where the truth is the bait to catch the human vehicle by, as Jesus said to his first disciples he would make them “fishers of men”. This part of the Overcoming of Humanness Process was distorted into the idea of “rapture”. Ti and Do had the same requirement of those who chose to become their students.

Jesus, at his exit time, required his faithful Apostles (an assigned task to be His delegates to the world) to “give their life” in service to His (their Older Member's) instructions that would result in their Souls exit of their incarnation - the death of their human vehicle. For Jesus and His Apostles and other fully dedicated Students (Disciples), that meant speaking publically the truth Jesus provided which He knew would get them killed eventually. (As he said, if they hate me they will hate you). So He sent them to their human death but He knew their Soul would not be harmed and would enter into LIFE in the Next Level where they would be rewarded with a new Next Level vehicle, grown especially for each one of them. (The Next Level grows physical vehicles to full maturity on a vine, as mammalian reproduction is primitive to them and is the reason that desire for sexuality and procreation on the human level needs to be overcome as part of the qualifications for Next Level membership). For these 38+4 students with Do, after years of consideration (I witnessed the preparation for until September of 1994 when I left them), though they preferred to not need to do this, chose to exit their incarnations by ingesting a strong barbiturate mixture that put their vehicles into permanent sleep in what the world would see as a mass suicide. They were at that time referred to as Heaven's Gate so the headlines read with phrases like “Heaven's Gate Suicide cult”. This is NOT to say “suicide” is the answer for anyone, as we each actually can not grow unless we have a physical body. Suicide on the human level is most often a selfish act and a way to avoid learning difficult lessons in life. This LAST harvest WAVE comes with the overall instruction to Stand for Ti and Do, which will not be looked at kindly by those who are invested in misinformation.

Do certainly knew he and Ti's group was a “subculture” and in response to being labeled a cult by the media said they were the “cult of truth” and the “cult of cults.” It will be shown that Jesus and his disciples were just as much a “cult” in their day, in relationship to what had become the “normal” cultures of the mainstream religious, the governmental institutions and that society, that Jesus and Ti and Do had no allegiance to, though also didn't choose to fight against.

Ti and Do's information is shown to align with the prophecy as delivered via the Seven Thunders (Roars) by the Lion of the Tribe of Juda, the Seventh of which started when Do and his Crew compiled a Book they named, 'How and When “Heaven's Gate” (The Door to the Physical Kingdom Level Above Human) May Be Entered' (Purple Book). This Book that became the basis of their web site HeavensGate.com along with Their Exit Statements demonstrated the conclusion to the FIRST Hour shown in prophecy as the 1st Seal Opening - with Do “sitting” on His White “Horse” - the human vehicle He chose, that had even been last named “Applewhite”. White, mostly had to do with making that vehicle “pure”, though the vehicle's skin coloration is described in prophecy as, “His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow”. All racial consciousness, identifying oneself by their vehicles race, needs to be overcome to graduate into Membership in the Next Level.

The LAST “Harvest” WAVE pertains most to those recorded as the “remaining,” “remnant” or those “elected” and who elect to take their next step towards graduation when they get the calling. These are also Souls who were brought back by the Next Level to have the opportunity to take over a human vehicle the Next Level helped them prepare, to recognize their Heavenly Father in the incarnation named Do. That recognition would be of His teachings - the words and information He and Ti provided that constitute His (Holy) Mind aka Spirit and His characteristic behaviors and ways that He demonstrated while incarnate that required of his Students the same showing of allegiance to Him as Jesus required of those who chose to become His students. These will be faced with the lesson plan (song), that at the least entails believing Ti and Do represent that Kingdom that created the earth and all of it's occupants and are willing to stand in defense of that belief and maintain that stand until their departure - no matter what the consequences. This “standing” takes place primarily during what was prophesied as the “Time of great trouble not seen since the beginning of the world,” aka the Great Tribulation, starting largely during the 4th thru 6th Seal Openings that are upon us in 2017.

This time period has also been referred to in OT prophecy as the Judgment time period (day) or more specifically the Judgment Hour (approx. 40 years) that begins at the end of the FIRST Hour after Do and Crew exited in 1997, shown as beginning with the time of the 7th Angel's Trumpet Sounding.

That Sounding first took place by Do's coming public (without Ti's incarnate presence) in the 1990's by what can be seen as the “7 Thunders/Roars” of Revelations 10, the first of which started when He, with His Older Member - Ti, came public in 1975, that Do completed in 1988 by writing a booklet entitled “‘88 Update - The UFO Two and their Crew.” (To Ti and Do the acronym UFO simply referred to a “cloud of light” - a Next Level spacecraft hidden by a cloud covering as opposed to being a Space Alien craft).

Subsequent Roars/Thunders are shown as; the 1992 Beyond Human Video Tape Series Do and Crew made, the 1993 Info-Ad in USA Today, then the dozens of publications in alternative newspapers, the 1994 Student delivered public meeting schedule (as Do didn't give any further public meetings himself after doing so with Ti from 1975-1976), the 1995 posting to the World Wide Web the document 'Undercover “Jesus” Surfaces Before Departure,' where Do outlines most boldly how he was the return of the same Older Member who had been incarnate in the body named, “Jesus”. Jesus knew he wouldn't be returning incarnate in the same human vehicle he left with, which is why he said, “many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many” and finally in two phases of soundings, the 7th as the Heavens Gate Web site that provided an anthology of all their materials since 1975 followed less than a year later in the timing of the Hale Bopp Comet's very unusual display, scientists are still pondering, Their exit of their incarnations in 1997 and the Exit Statements They made.

As with all prophecy there are multiple interpretations and multiple manifestations in both the physical and mental/spiritual realms. Pertaining to things humans did, as I believe was set up by a Next Level crew to provide, came the 2009 National Geographic Channel's internet broadcast documentary entitled, “Final Report: Heaven's Gate” that was primarily a recap of the media frenzy and misinformation from their very public “laying down of their (human) lives”, except for suggesting as a question whether they, identified as “Heaven's Gate” (Ti and Do and Crew), were the anticipated “Second Coming of Jesus,” perhaps the first and biggest national media organization to voice such a perspective.

This time in 2017, as a part of this LAST “harvest” WAVE, includes what I believe is this “Little Book” that is also described in Rev 5:1 prophecy as the “backside” or “after” and/or the historic background “behind” (what was provided by Jehovah/Father and Moses/Jesus). The BOOK comprises the updates Ti and Do and crew brought that they had published that I refer to as the Purple Book, as it's said in prophecy to be “written from within the Throne” and Ti and Do were the Throne. (Most of the Purple Books contents can be found via links in the Appendix of this book).

This Little Book was said to become available and spoken about (prophesied) during the time of the 7th Angel's Trumpet Sounding that was scheduled to occur after the Two Witnesses and Crew have exited their incarnations and their Soul bodies invisibly ascended back into their heavenly abodes on Next Level Spacecrafts, from whence they came. It will be shown how the Two Witnesses and Crew perform all their incarnate tasks during the time described as the Sixth Angel's Trumpet Sounding.

Part of the Tribulation time will be marked by a great deal of shows put on by the Luciferian space aliens and/or those humans who have become their witting or unwitting slaves. Examples will be provided of how these show humans things recorded as “great wonders” to witness. A preview would seem to be what happened in Fatima where some young girls all saw an Image on a number of occasions that spoke to their minds, who they thought was the Virgin Mary, which was recorded as Our Lady at Fatima in 1916. Ti and Do talked about this and called these kinds of things tricks and indicated they were like holograms produced by the Lower Forces.

Further it will be covered, how the Revelations chapter 13 “Image” that “speaks” could be just such a hologram or of some equivalence and could deceive many because of. Perhaps it will be of Jesus according to some painters depiction, with flowing robes, barefoot and/or riding a white horse. It's interesting how Fatima's sighting and others like it occurred during a time when we know humans did not have the technology to produce holograms and by my calculations 1916 was during the 2nd Angel's Trumpet Sounding. Those Soundings purpose was essentially to announce the arrival of the participating Souls for the Harvest WAVESs, both from the Next Level and of the Luciferians and also announced things to come but were accompanied by examples (like Fatima) of how those things in the prophecy would be fulfilled during the 7th Trumpet Sounding.

While with Ti and Do's experiential classroom we saw a report from a book Bob Lazar was allowed to read while he was employed by Oppenheimer in Area 51, his job being to back engineer the engine from a recovered "UFO". In the book that allegedly space aliens wrote, they said they "created Jesus" and have film of him on the cross. Even if there is no truth to any of this, it is not uncommon to hear from various "contactees" the same kind of thing in relationship to Jesus, where even a number of contactees themselves say, indicate or imply they are the return of Jesus, which coordinates with what Jesus said would happen with his Kingdom's Return.

However, Jesus indicated his true believers would be shown signs in the Sun, Moon and Stars (which includes the planets) and any of the many bodies in space, e.g. dwarf planets, asteroids, meteors, comets. This is one of the ways we know such holographic like tricks are not generated by the Next Level as they occur on earth or in earth's atmosphere or very near to earth "space," where the Space Aliens are no longer allowed to traverse beyond. Next Level Signs occur in deep space, yet as close as the Moon. The space aliens and/or humans are also able to perform other events such as making "fire come down from the sky," perhaps like fireballs the Next Level used before 2016. I've seen two or three so far that may be these kinds of tricks as based on reports are near the earth. Jesus indicated on earth one would see "distress of nations" (wars and financial collapse), "perplexity, a (state of) quandary (many events that are confusing rendered into conspiracy theories to explain, UFO's and Space Alien abductions, Cattle mutilations, JFK, RFK, MLK assassinations, 9/11 attacks, war in Iraq, 2008 financial crisis) and "waves roaring," seen by the two large tsunami's in Sumatra and Japan (Fukushima) and in the U.S. by hurricane Katrina and Sandy during the time approaching the 2017 tribulation time, "earthquakes in diverse places" (significant increase around the Pacific rim known as the "ring of fire."

The Luciferian Space Aliens have manipulated humans from the start of the civilization, largely recorded in religious literature but more directly, according to reports, especially as of the 1940's and 1950's, through direct contact with government military and indirectly through contactees with displays of technology, they seek help from humans to develop and in perhaps the biggest way, by motivating discarnates (spirits of dead humans) to influence living humans to do things and/or respond in all ways that replaces their recognition of the Real True Kingdom Above Human and those who have been sent time and again to help some see through the illusion they pose. These Luciferians thereby insert themselves as a facsimili “god” - aka False God built upon misinformation.

It will be shown how “The Wrath of God,” actually the Next Level's generation of “agitation to stimulate movement” of allegiance towards the true Kingdom of God and any potential future, that includes the Next Level's “anger” against the Luciferian Space aliens who have used human, so called Christian religious leaders as puppets to foster an illusionary belief of having a “personal relationship” with Jesus, extends into the 6th and 7th Seal periods, having been demonstrated in comparably small degrees periodically up until this point. That agitation and anger is largely seen in the 7 Angels who pour out their Vials, (plagues and calamities) beginning to manifest undiluted during the 6th Seal Opening.

It will be shown how at the end of that conclusive time of Judgment, when the opportunities to change are “done,” Do will arrive in His Next Level made physical body, described as, “like the Son of Man,” (Rev 14:14), thus like Jesus' “dipped (baptized) in blood,” “glorified body,” returning this LAST time with his Armada of spacecrafts, piloted by those “Saints” who FIRST graduated, having their own new Next Level grown physical bodies to “wear.” This time their appearance will be more literally “For Every Eye to See,” because of their very apparent mass of spacecrafts and their brightness of light in the very near heavens so humans will be able to see/understand even with their naked eye and I imagine even for those who no eyes at all. I would say they will see it in their Mind's eye. However, if humans have not sought to align with Ti and Do's Mind by this time, they will not know what they are observing.

Secret Government (Mystery Babylon), BEAST (sly, deceitful human mammals), that formed in the 1950's to cover up the evidence of Space Aliens on earth, (who the Next Level released from their underground “bottomless pit” prison), working to some degree with or against certain space alien groups (Dragon), each would have secured the establishment of their New World Order relationship via having the equivalent of the 9/11 attacks on the NYC World Trade Center and Pentagon and the conspiracy to program humans as responsible for Global Warming (that prophecy indicates is Next Level generated) and through the Global Financial Crisis “hid themselves in the dens and rocks” (Rev 6:15) while preparing to fight, or escape the earth to escape this Armada and it's final judgment against them, that many will think are the “bad space aliens”.

Some in that Secret Governmental BEAST seem to believe that there are some Space Aliens who are “good” and that the ones they believe are coming to do them harm are the “bad aliens,” even Reptilians with slave greys, when the truth is that all the Space Aliens are related to Lucifer and his Associate Souls, who once had elementary (student level) service to the Next Level but fell away and became renegades against the Next Level and will try to steer humans in any direction but looking up to the Next Level. I suspect they themselves at this point believe those I am referring to as the Next Level are just another alien space race as they were/are. However, the Space Aliens are all human equivalents. None of them became Adult Members of the Next Level Above Human.

These Luciferians, once imprisoned under the earth, who initially had physical bodies that could live much longer than humans have ways of generating hybrid physical bodies from human DNA, eggs and sperm, they obtain from abductions. When the Next Level allowed them to circulate on the surface again, they sought to manipulate powerful humans to enact their agenda to escape the planet while capturing Souls to add to their ranks, which they hope can occur before an anticipated return to prison and subsequent recycling in the “Lake of Fire” thereafter.

The irony is that Ti and Do's Next Level Mothership and Armada are the only ones arriving from deep space to war against the BEASTS and the Luciferian Space Aliens and all those in their allegiance, which will be no contest at all but will result in Their casting these two Beasts (U.S. and E.U.) and the False Prophets (The religious leadership and perhaps especially the Vatican and LDS Mormon enclaves, etc.) and those in their allegiance into the Lake of Fire because they have become “weeds” in the Next Level's “garden” and have disturbed the usefulness of Their human kingdom and Their earth's production of “fruit” (new Membership). It is at that point the Luciferians will be re-locked up underground for 1000 years and it seems there might be a new stage of “overcoming classroom” to follow that 1000 year period, after the Luciferians are released for a time to wage another last battle against that “camp of the Saints.” At that time the Next Level will cast the Luciferians into the Lake of Fire to be with the Beasts and the False Prophets. This is followed by the judgment of those in the Book of Life and those who are not who are in the receptacles for the discarnate Spirits, referred to as “Death and Hell” who are also cast into the Lake of Fire.

Ti and Do brought the “new song” as described in Revelations chapter 14. Although in part They took those names from the Sound of Music song, “Doe a deer”, they described their names as a octave apart where Ti pushed Do to his next octave, if I recall correctly. According to prophecy the Older Member who was incarnate in the vehicle named Jesus upon return would, “write upon him (each student/disciple) the name of my God (Deity),” (Rev 3:12) and in Joh 16:25 “...but I shall shew ((announce, make known, report, speak, tell, declare)) you plainly of the Father.” In other words it was Do who revealed who His “Father” (Older Member) was to the student body. Ti didn't announce it. In fact Do had to learn it for himself in their first year or so of their awakening together to their task, by seeing how Ti's choices were always better than his which was hard for him to accept, he said. And it was Ti who told their students who Do was as “our Father” (Older Member) and that we each needed to make our “committal” to Him. And it was Ti who said in 1977 or 1978 that we the students “needed to give them our will, which Do later told us, she wondered if we'd lose half the class by saying that. As it turned out over half those initial student did drop out thereafter, for one reason or another that amounted to not wanting to yield their will 100%. Therefore Ti and Do were one another's “Witness” as said in Luk 10:22.

Ti and Do didn't teach from the Bible, nor quoted chapter and verse that I heard in my nineteen years their student, yet had an uncanny, thorough, direct to the point, non-academic, base understanding of it's core contents, that I only came to recognize mostly after I left their “classroom” in 1994 and began to study the scriptural records that with a lot of asking of Ti and Do for help and encouragement via dreams they were in, led to the focus for this book. Some of these understandings only surface when considering alternative translations to English from the Hebrew, Aramaic, Greek and sometimes Latin origins. Ti and Do said the Next Level worked very hard to preserve an accurate record of what Jesus said, as recorded in the four gospels, that years ago humans published as “Red Letter” editions, that we could rely on as a help to awaken more by and to draw clues from. This is not to say I got everything in this book the most right it could be. I know much could still be tweaked and realized but I think it's adequate to show the possibilities to anyone who seeks for the whole truth. I don't pretend this work is needed by anyone to have a relationship with the Next Level. Ti and Do taught that there would be a group of people who would never hear about Ti and Do and still be judged worthy of having their Souls and/or Spirits saved by the Next Level for a future “planting” some time after the recycling is finished.

The Next Level doesn't need new members but it's their joy to offer the opportunity to Consciously Evolve Beyond Human. That opportunity is still available by projecting our asking to Our “Father” in Heaven (deep outer space) and by showing Him our seriousness by beginning to adopt his behavior and ways and provision of service, according to the instructions of his most recent incarnate, Older Members, in the names Ti and Do.

There is not and will not be any legitimate group or cult to form or join.

There are no Older Members on Earth at this time or planned to be back before the Civilization is spaded. The information Ti and Do and Crew left behind in the many writings, video's and audio tapes are for personal absorption and application and are not intended by Do and Crew to become the basis of a “Religious Study Group”. They are to be used to help each of those who the information speaks to, further separate from the human evolutionary kingdom, though the speed in which that happens remains up to each of us to implement and the best way to start that is to speak directly to Do (in our heads, privately, as Jesus said, “in your closet”, never intending group prayer meetings, etc. which are part of the distortion in religions, however well intended.) Though I am told by some they believe in Ti and Do, I keep no lists or contact information on people and have no “groups” and provide no contact information with any former classmates. However there have been start-up groups and attempts to organize that I have been invited to and have declined. There have also been complete fraudulent news stories about Ti and Do.

I. INTRODUCTION

I.A. ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS THIS BOOK WILL BRING AN ABUNDANCE OF SCRIPTURAL EVIDENCE TO PROVING

- The Return Jesus spoke about was to be in two WAVESs (FIRST and LAST) both being characteristically “as a thief,” but the FIRST undercover, in secret (in a human vehicle) and thus not observable and discerned with one's eyes. Jesus' students (disciples), the Souls returning with Him, would recognize His “Holy Mind/Spirit,” as their “Shepherd” by what they have “within” their Souls from their last Trimester's Classrooms, when the human vehicles, prepped by and for them, hear what He says through his voice (disclosure), literal “words” that begin to be expressed during the 1260 day period described as the Two Witnesses Prophecy (speaking publically). When they recognize Him and literally leave all behind to follow with Him, as He requires to begin to show 100% all their “Heart, Mind, Soul, Strength” allegiance, staying with His program as an Active Student until They all Exit the human vehicles they “borrow,” they would be “Rising Again” (Resurrecting) to receive LIFE - to become a new Adult Member of the Kingdom of Heaven, to receive a Next Level physical vehicle that is non-mammalian and a “position” (seat) of significant service on He and His Older Member's (“Father's”) crew. (Luk 17:20-21, Jhn 5:25-29, Rev 11:3 (FIRST))
- For the LAST part of His overall return He would not be incarnate but would still be recognizable only by those He gives that recognition to, so in that sense still “as a thief” while apparent for “every eye to see” among the clouds, appearing with His FIRST “fruit” Graduate Students, who have their new physical Next Level “made” vehicles (bodies) and are all together as an Armada of brilliantly lighted “clouds of light” (spacecrafts, aka in this particular context as “horses”). This is described as taking place after He exits from his incarnation WAVE and at the end of the “Judgment Hour” and “Wrath of God” shown by the Seven Angels pouring out their Vials (calamities, plagues) to include the U.S. and Europe (to include the Middle East) as the two geographical areas, in particular, to receive “two fold” (double) the Next Level's payment for the sorrow and torment they heaped upon others and for elevating themselves above the Kingdom of God. (Joh 16:12,25-27, Rev 14:14, Rev 16, Rev 18, Rev 19:11)

- The One Jesus referred to as “The Father” or “Our Father in Heaven” comes incarnate with Him to assist Him to start His Task of taking the Throne (by himself incarnate) and then leaves His incarnation in a human woman's body, seemingly naturally (earth swallows Her vehicle), to better oversee the remainder of the Overcoming Process for each of Their students, from His Spacecraft. The overseeing includes setting up further tests to help some who are not showing the needed readiness to be “born of spirit” (a birth of the Soul Body, that is invisible) to decide to give their all to the Overcoming Process or leave that “classroom” group. (Joh 14:22-23, Rev 11,12).

- The Revelations “Two Witnesses,” are Both identified as “anointed,” the primary keyword related to the term Christ and what is meant by Their being Olive Trees and Candlesticks/Lampstands, all related to the Old Testament Prophets Jesus referenced. We know Jesus was a Christ so we can assume His Father (God) was Christened (anointed a King) before him, since the Father is who gives birth to the Son. (Rev 3:12 (Father is named and identified by the Son), 11:3-4, Rev 12:1-7, Rev 14:1 (Father has a name), Zec 4:1-14, Dan 12).

A “Christ” is an Older Member from the Kingdom of God/Heaven - Next Level, who has graduated the human evolutionary kingdom through a “Spirit/Mind Soul birth,” as a “Son” to His Older Member (Father) before, even many times, so is qualified to take others through the “Overcoming of Humanness Process.” The Process requires an incarnate Older Member's step by step direction and can not be accomplished at any other time when the Older Member is not incarnate and holding a “classroom,” though after an Older Member has left their incarnation for a time while their information is still available as they left it, so is accurate, new students can start to engage that Metamorphic Process by adhering to what that most current Older Member taught while incarnate, which will include separating from the human roots that hold them back and changing their behavior and ways as best they can in accordance with what the Older Members taught and by being of service to what the Older Member left for them to do which includes being willing to Stand Up for Them while accepting the consequences that will come from doing so until they exit their vehicles.

After the Older Members have exited their incarnations, the Luciferian Space Aliens step in right away to begin to twist, distort and dilute the truth and realism the Older Members provided, to make Their teachings into a spiritual endeavor to practice and promote the impression one is on the “path” by following. Those most targeted by the Luciferians are those that were students of those Older Members while they were incarnate, which includes me, which is why it's important to examine the material for oneself. I am open to such criticism but the ones mounting such criticism will also be targeted to make things up as the intention of the Luciferian Space Aliens is to do anything and everything they can do to distract, distort, dilute and confuse what the Older Members said, did and why. This seems to include getting those who had the personal experience to not express that experience. These attacks have been ongoing and will get worse for everyone that comes in this direction. We each need to seek the help of our Older Members to ward off attacks of this nature and should anything be said that is justifiable evidence of getting off track from what the Older Members intended, we then just need to make appropriate corrections.

However, it's via these Luciferian tactics that show how religions get started. Some people then become priests, nuns, monks, recluses, Rabbi's or Imams or have other titles to identify themselves as a devotee, leader or teacher and even with best intentions are actually deluding themselves, though if they keep seeking the Older Members Mind, all experiences can be converted into a positive just like getting into any human endeavor is something to “get out of,” when we see through it. In the case of religious or spiritual paths it can even become a greater lure away from the Next Level's reality and process because it gives one the “soothing,” but false impression they are holy or have it all figured out and will go to heaven when they die or are working for God when they bring others to believe as they do, which is not the way it works. No one brings someone else to God. The only way someone grows closer to the Next Level Older Members is by their own personal seeking of such a continuous relationship and puts into motion what the most current Older Member provided as instructions. For instance Jesus said to “love your neighbor as yourself” thus until we heard about an Older Member returning, being a humanitarian was about the best anyone could do, though they must be willing to change to what the new incarnate Older Member provides, as that's the next progression we must leap towards, separating from the human kingdom to become a Member of the Next Kingdom.

Actually, Christing is defined as an anointing from the process of “pressing the oil from the olive.” The “press” is one that requires force exerted and as Jesus say's includes violence. We are not to enact violence against anyone or ourselves, but because the Luciferians are provided to wage war against Souls who seek to take their next step, that they do so through motivating humans against, violence does become the prime way Souls eventually give their physical vehicles lives Standing Up for the current Older Members. It's the shell of the Olive that dies but the oil (fruit), as Holy Mind continues to live in all those who draw it and that becomes useful in service to the provision of light that others can be brought to see by engaging the same process. Upon completion, if they have pleased the incarnate Older Member they can qualify to become an adult Member of the Kingdom of God.

- Virtually all examples of the way in which the Kingdom of God communicates with human beings, that can be counted on as from Them, are through Their sent in-the-flesh (incarnate) Representatives. In all the records of Jesus prophecy, in the four gospel accounts and in the Book of Revelations, there are only four End Age/Time descriptions of someone literally “speaking inspired by God,” the primary definition of “to prophesy.” (Rev 10:11, Rev 11:3, Rev 14:6, Luk 12:2, Luk 17:30)

- The FIRST and primary delivery of prophecy - speaking words inspired by God (the Two Witnesses demonstrated) accomplishes the gathering of the returning Elder Student body of Souls who were slated to complete their Overcoming of their Human Kingdom behavior and ways through leaving all behind again to make their eye single in giving all their heart, mind, Soul and strength to these TWO who were acting as One Mind that in so doing would enable each to pass through their “spirit birth canal” to becoming New Adult Members in the Kingdom of God, Kingdom of Heaven. (Mat 19:27-30)

- The Second and LAST of the two descriptions of “speaking words inspired by God,” said as, to prophesy, will be shown to take place AFTER the Two Witnesses and their Elder graduate students have left their incarnate presence, which is during the time of the Seventh Angels Trumpet Sounding, through the delivery of the content of the “Little Book,” as depicted in Revelations chapter 10, where that schedule is announced (sounded). This LAST time period of information delivery also pertains to, and is shown in the timing as, the opening of seals 4=7 that is also described as the Backside of the Book, shown in Revelations chapter 5, referring to the final revealing of The Mystery of God as spoken by the Prophet Daniel. who Jesus referred to as taking place during the time of the Abomination that makes Desolation (waste) that is in progress as we speak. (Rev 10, Luk 20:33-36)

- These FIRST and LAST provisions of the truth that together set the records straight and reveal what has been shrouded in mystery, a Kingdom of God strategy that becomes the criteria for all who hear about it to decide to believe in or not, together with our actions, behaviors and ways, that determines which Souls and Spirits will go on further in their schooling, when they can be brought back at a future time after the current civilization is spaded under and the waste is recycled.

- Luk 13:30 And, behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.

It seemed to me among the ways Jesus could have meant this, it appears He might have been referring to those who think they are first in line to see him and recognize him and be taken into heaven by him - those who call themselves Christians who so far for many I've spoken to, can't imagine He's been here in the vehicle named Do (of Ti and Do). Nor can most imagine hardly anything I say in these pages is possible. But knowing of this Jesus saying about the FIRST and LAST and other supporting reasons is what made me choose to talk about the Two WAVES as the FIRST and LAST. Currently we are in the LAST Harvest WAVE and this one is geared towards Christians most of all since they as a group seem to have been the recipients of the most Luciferian disinformation attacks, evidenced by their, as a group paying little attention to what Jesus actually taught was required to become a Member of the Kingdom of Heaven. They instead paid most attention to what Paul wrote in his letters. Most of what Paul wrote serves to distort and dilute the truth Jesus bore. Yet the Next Level can use it as a positive separator of those with a “(computer like) chip of recognition” from those without that “chip.”

- Our individual judgment is established for each of us when we die, because it is through our life in the human kingdom, however short or long, that we make our choices and have the capacity to change and grow from or not. For the entire human kingdom on Earth, the Judgment time is finalized when the same Older Member from the Kingdom of God, who was incarnate as Jesus, who will be shown comes incarnate again in the new human body that becomes named Do, as one of the Two Witnesses, returns in his Kingdom of God physical body. That body is described as “like” the body he took with him 2000 years ago returning with his crew of Elder students that graduated (that made them, their Soul body eternal) and were awarded with new physical bodies grown on a vine (not by mammalian reproduction) by the Kingdom of God for their use. (Rev 3:12; Rev 11; 14:14; 19)

- Jesus referred to a “Spirit Birth” as an unseen birth into the Kingdom of Heaven, He compared to the way the wind had physicality, as we could feel it, yet was mostly invisible to our eyes and that it was through conquering/overcoming a “water” (flesh body from the earth waters that is born in a water sack) body that our physical Spirit Body is born, necessitating his disciples to be “born again of water” to accomplish.

Being “born again of water” is also a reference to Souls needing to enter into a flesh body again, but is not the same thing the Eastern Religions call reincarnation, as each body in the human kingdom has it's own Spirit, synonymous with “Mind” and can become a container to grow a Soul within ONLY IF the Kingdom of God deposits a Soul container into that human body and like a seed through the direct efforts of an incarnate Representative from the Kingdom of God helps the recipient think and do all they are given to “sprout” that “seed” deposit. What I'm calling sprouting has to do with the recipients choice to change their thinking, behavior and ways to their Older Members updated thinking, behavior and ways and by their providing service by delivering the Older Members new truth to humans that helps find other humans with Soul seeds that can stimulate them to recognize and then choose to engage their own separation from their humanness to even become a “tree” that yields further “fruit” as a new Student and/or Adult Member in the Kingdom of God. (Joh 3:3-8)

- The Kingdom of God membership do not propagate as humans (mammals) thus do not have sex and do not marry as humans do, thus the reason those characteristics must be overcome by all prospective members of the Kingdom of God before they can be awarded with a “glorified,” celestial, incorruptible, everlasting physical body. Initial laws provided by the Kingdom of God governing sexuality and marriage were lesson steps to establish order and teach self restraint to work up to disconnecting from entirely. (Mat 19:10-12, Mat 22:30, Rev 14:4)

- Members of the Kingdom of God, even the youngest Member are literally evolutionarily (not Darwinian evolution) “Above” even the greatest humans. (Mat 11:11)

- Upon return He would NOT BE SPEAKING IN STORY FORM (PARABLES) and He would have new things to share that even His disciples didn't understand when they were physically with Him. (Joh 16:25)

- The return would take place primarily in a new area of the world, apart from the Middle East, to a people (nation) who Jesus' disciples at the time didn't know of, that will be shown was to be in the geography of North America with a FIRST and LAST Harvest lesson plan application. Evidence will show how North America was divided into “two straights/streets (paths),” (one meaning of the symbolic “Egypt” in Rev 11:8), with the FIRST as the new “Temple/Altar” Students and area, that is brought manifest in the U.S. Southwest from the Mississippi River to California via the incarnations (Souls taking human vehicles) of Ti and Do and their Crew of returning “Saints” to finish their Overcoming of Humanness under the direction of Do. The LAST Harvest lesson plan application was to be held in the areas and for those “remaining” (after the FIRST Harvest) as the “Courtyard” outside that “Temple area” as the other of the Two Streets - paths students must STAND for Ti and Do upon as their lesson step towards being in a future FIRST Harvest “classroom” with the incarnate Older Member in a new millennium after the spading/recycling).

- The timing of return would take place after his gospel has been spread to every corner of the world, which he indicated would be accomplished by the time of the End Age, or End Time. (Mat 24:14)

- Members of the Kingdom of God, Kingdom of Heaven are physical, both as Souls and in their use of physical bodies they refer to being “wrapped around their Soul body” thus illustrated as clothing, raiment, robes, fine linen, that are their “vehicles” they perform tasks through in the denser physical environments. The human vehicle when They come to “borrow” one, said as borrow because they leave them behind when they finish their tasks so that they once again become part of the dust (elements) of the earth they arose from) is spoken of as an “incarnation” (in-carne (latin for flesh)). That's the context of the Rev 6 usage of “horses,” mammals, but with a Next Level Older Member sitting on the “white horse” while the Red/Ruddy, Black/Blue and Green/Pale horses are sat upon by a Luciferian Space Alien - Fallen angel. Now, in the context of Rev 19, the “horses” are spacecrafts in what I believe is the evidence of Do's (returned “Jesus”) Armada. (Zec 10:3 - The Lord makes his flock of Judah his “goodly horse in battle,” Jer 8:6 compares a horse to a man, Isa 63:13 with Moses compared to “a horse in the wilderness”).

- Members of the Kingdom of God, Kingdom of Heaven, use physical transportation, to interface with Their physical Creations, that to humans, if seen would be in modern times labeled “Unidentified Flying Objects” (UFO's), though in the records described as a “cloud of light” or a “swift cloud” or a “whirlwind of fire” or a “chariot of fire” or as a “white horse” or as a “Wheel Within a Wheel,” or Pillar or Column of Cloud that led Moses encampment in the wilderness, lighted up at night and even killed snakes and scorpions in their path, etc.

- Luciferian space aliens - the “fallen angels,” having an aborted Soul Body also seek to use human physical bodies to have function in and around the earth, but also travel in physical spacecrafts humans would call a UFO. These are not Kingdom of God spacecrafts and Ti and Do indicated they are primitive in comparison.

- The term “heaven” referred to the literal heavens - being all areas “elevated” above the earth, though where the Members of the Kingdom of God circulate was considered to be the Heaven of Heavens. The Luciferian space aliens really are no longer “space” aliens as they can not travel very far from the earth's surface - certainly not as far as the Moon, otherwise being “fallen” and restricted to earth, they could interfere with the Signs in the Sun, Moon and Planets and Stars - Jesus said would be as signs from the Kingdom of God.

- Heaven as the environment for the many members of the Kingdom of God to circulate in, Jesus said has within it “many abodes, dwelling places” or “mansions” which are actually spacecrafts that can be as large as a planet like Pluto and/or Ceres and/or the Earth's moon and/or virtually wherever the Kingdom of God chooses to make a base within, upon or around.

- Today's “space aliens” are Souls that were lured away from becoming Members of the Kingdom of God during a previous civilization on or off the earth, by those who were led by a former student member of the Kingdom of God named Lucifer who with others rebelled against the Kingdom of God to become known as the “fallen angels.” They take over human and human equivalent vehicles for their use, by directly or indirectly claiming to be the “gods.” They try to grow new human vehicles for their use by stealing DNA, eggs and sperm from humans to grow hybrid humans they can occupy and manipulate to their agenda. The Kingdom of God doesn't permit them to circulate very far away from earth and they are forced to go underground and under the sea when the Kingdom of God spades the earth's surface as evidenced by the records of a global flood and said to be occurring again soon, though not with water this time, but via fire, after the Kingdom of God is “done” with the Judgment Hour.

Ti and Do indicated in 1975, that during the “Seventh Closeness” (which was after they performed their prophecy and testimony period, they called the “Sixth Closeness,” (with 1st as Adam, 2nd as Enoch, 3rd as Moses, 4th as Elijah and 5th as Jesus, (aligned with the 12 grades in school analogy where Jesus brought the formula to graduate the 12th grade)), would include what Christians refer to as the “second coming” and “rapture” and “completion of the final prophecies in John's Book of Revelation,” when “the one who was Jesus will come in at close range, to receive the elect into his company.” They said, “those who are in the middle of their normal life span will easily live to see it's completion,” indicating the timing. (If someone was 35 at what looks like is the official start of the Seventh Closeness - perhaps 2007. they might be 75 by the time it's “done” around 2047 perhaps). There are a number of ways to work the numbers, but it's not within my capacity to nail it down more than that and I could be wrong about.

Ti and Do were not Bible scholars, yet even then knew the plan for what was to happen during the Seventh Closeness, during the time of the Seventh Trumpet Sounding. Do and Crew (38+4 Membered FIRST Fruit) set in motion the start to this last approach to this Seventh Closeness in 1992, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 - seen in prophecy as the 7 Thunders/Roars - public global scoped announcements of the One who was Jesus' arrival. Their Song (The Ti and Do design of the graduation lesson plan, Ti always called a “piano roll” was brought to it's crescendo as Their Heaven's Gate Exit of their incarnations that ushered in the remaining 6 Seals that would be finished by the time of the 7th Seal and 7th Vial being poured out when the younger Souls who showed allegiance to Ti and Do while still in their human vehicles are taken into safe keeping.

- The earth is a “garden” in the sense that humans are plants that can become the containers for Souls planted within them, to grow during “seasons” when the Older Member is incarnate, into Members of the Kingdom of God. In that way these Luciferian space aliens are allowed to influence humans to provide misinformation that planted Souls have the capacity, with help they request from the Older Members, to see through. This makes the Luciferian presence into a growth catalyst Student Souls can develop their “mind muscle” by fighting against.

- The content of what is spoken by these Two Witnesses is described as the OPENING OF THE SEAL ON THE BOOK THAT WAS WRITTEN FROM WITHIN BY THE THRONE, where Throne refers to the Two Witnesses that together in their performance of their Witnessing/Testifying task, They Give Their Lives to, become the First of SEVEN THUNDERS (ROARS), though the primary speaking task is through the literal voice of the One of the Two who was noted as the LION OF THE TRIBE OF JUDA, (a reference to the One who was incarnate as Jesus). (Rev 5, 10).

All these points and many more are in my opinion only able to be realized and related to all Jesus taught and his prophecy because of and through everything said and done by Ti and Do, who did not base what they said on the Bible, though certainly knew it contained the primary and most accurate records of the Kingdom of God's ongoing nurturing of their created (designed and developed) human kingdom in their “garden” on their Earth.

I think it safe to say Ti and Do didn't use the Bible to know what to think, say and do. They didn't try to justify what they thought by what was in the Bible. In other words, they didn't formulate what they said publically by particular bible verses nor use the Bible to build justification for what they were thinking. They did say the Bible content and especially the Jesus record helped them awaken and was used to provide clues that would verify information they were receiving from their Older Member in the Heavens. It seems clear that Jesus used the Old Testament records in the same kind of way. This book is hopefully providing some of the further revealing of what was intended by the prophecies in the past records.

Nor did Ti and Do try to fit what they thought, said and did to the parts that were considered to be prophecy. I never heard them quote chapter and verse or even quote and recite any one verse except for a few keywords or the paraphrasing of a certain story or saying. There is a considerable amount of evidence that the prophecy record was not their guideline to stick to and at times they seemed to intentionally not align with certain religio-spiritual “correctness” in the “Records” (as they most often referred to the Bible and other associated materials). For example one time Do asked the student body if they wanted to stop a fast that day or the next day that would have been day 40. I recall thinking 40 would be good but didn't really care, but that was because 40 was the number of days Jesus was reported as fasting before he came public with his ministry. And there were other references to 40 so that was appealing to my still remaining human religio-spiritual correctness. Some of the students at that time said it didn't matter to them and wanted to do what Do felt to do. We stopped on day 39.

Ti and Do said that the Next Level worked very hard to preserve the accuracy of what Jesus said, so we could count on the “red letters” of the four gospels. They said these Records, not limited to the Red Letters or the Bible, as for example they also provided us with publications of the Dead Sea Scroll and Nag Hammadi Library and books about those materials, to include the Essene Jewish sect, said to have stored some of those materials. They said these ancient records were provided by the Next Level to be used as tools for their own gradual awakening and as a help for parts of their student body's lesson plan, (Ti called a “piano roll”). They developed that lesson plan in steps and said they were only given steps one at a time ahead of the student body, often proceeding on a next step only when the students who were having the most trouble with the previous step either caught up or chose to leave the classroom. Further details are provided throughout this book.

I.B. DISCLAIMERS

In 1975 Ti and Do's group were tagged by the media, among other names, the "UFO Cult" and then twenty two years later the Heaven's Gate cult. There is no disputing that they were certainly a "subculture" and that they stood apart from all societal norms and resembled in some ways other groups also labeled as "cults." But over time it has been shown without much doubt, to an objective discerning mind, even by psychologists and social scientists, that when compared point by point to any other groups, they stood apart from all others, in many ways, though one will never know that if they don't delve into Their story and teachings, behaviors and ways to find out.

Despite the controversy of how they left this world, that I will show in this writing was completely voluntary, as shown in part by many "exit video tapes" (by those in the group of 38 members who wanted to make such a video), and by other proofs that show they each had to actually qualify to remain among them, though qualifying was never emphasized as if a ploy to get people to stay. For instance, the day after I met up with the group at the Colorado National Monument, in my first more personal meeting with Do, along with two other new students, he said to us something to the affect of it being unlikely we would all see the metamorphic "process" through to completion and graduation because of how difficult it would be. I recall not understanding what would be so difficult and yet Do's saying that didn't cause me to take it as a challenge either. I thought it strange but looking back Do obviously knew a ton about the process that I didn't. Now, having flunked out of that initial program the difficulty is very, very clear and coming clearer yet as time marches on. It was my choice to drop out entirely as it was to re-apply though had they not helped me re-apply I would never have even come this far and I'm not claiming to have anything in the bag as I need to have even harder tests since I flunked the first time.

Their exit of their physical bodies was mostly accomplished by ingesting a strong barbiturate mixed into applesauce or pudding and chased with some vodka designed to put their bodies to sleep gently and permanently and as insurance to not wake up or slip into a coma they put a plastic bag over their own heads. Thus the death of the vehicle was to be as gently self administered as was possible. There is nothing to suggest that kind of action would be appropriate for anyone to do now but nor am I in the position to say what's not. Do and his class of students posted their opposition to suicide though their interpretation of suicide was not the typical one, though there is significant evidence that it was the way Jesus thought about it, then called “laying down you life” for one's “Father” as he said his disciples must do to reap the reward of receiving a new physical body and eternal Life in his kingdom in the literal heavens, stationed upon one of their “mansions” (dwelling places) spacecraft/Labs. The evidence is that these students were not ordinary humans but had Souls who had been with Jesus during his ministry and accomplished all their lessons at that time so were given their next trimester's lessons towards their Spirit Birth by coming back and taking a new human body to overcome through Ti and Do's hands on direction.

I.B.1. DO AND CREW POST, “OUR POSITION AGAINST SUICIDE”

(I am putting their statement in my own words to avoid problems from those who hold the copyright to the material who are former students of Ti and Do and were given the logistical part of the task to maintain the web site, as they have done, but who repeatedly demonstrate changing what Ti and Do taught when they give interviews to bloggers, etc.. I have challenged them on each of their given public interviews I became aware of, to be found on my blog via links in the Appendix of this book. Therefore I'm playing it safe in case my saying this angers their influences into trying to stop the distribution of this material. I hope not, but in any case the original can be found at:

Our Position Against Suicide

<https://sawyerhg.wordpress.com/2016/11/23/our-position-against-suicide-by-do-and-crew-posted-on-heavensgate-com/>

Because some would read one document Do wrote and can easily misunderstand the context of the many things Do said about who could be saved from the recycling, I put this composite together. Overall, the Kingdom of God is open to everyone who reaches up to their Father in Heaven to give their will to, to help them separate from their human attachments and addictions, behaviors and ways - all the ways of the world.

Suicide is NOT a solution - All Souls Have A Chance To Choose Their Allegiance to God or Mammon

<https://sawyerhg.wordpress.com/2014/08/02/ti-and-dos-teachings-provide-opportunity-for-all-souls-to-choose-degrees-of-allegiance-to-the-kingdom-of->

Here is my paraphrased report of the document, “Our Position Against Suicide”:

Ti and Do indicated that to learn the needed lessons we each need a physical vehicle (body). It is also the way we provide service while incarnate in the human kingdom - we need a vehicle to do so. They indicate they keep them out of harms way and care for them well, so they can function the best they can for their task.

They went on to express when this was written in 1996, after they had been considering their exact method of exiting their vehicles since before I left, as early as August of 1994, how they would prefer and even anticipate entering a spacecraft with their bodies but were aware of several ways it could happen.

Before exit, some could lose their physical body which would be like a “recall,” even from an accident or because of an irate person. They knew that it was possible they could be jailed for some reason or be subject to some form of mental or physical torture, they compared to Ruby Ridge and Waco.

Its the Next Level way to look at all the possibilities to prepare for whatever happens. They used the example of Masada around 73 A.D., and talked about how they would exit in that situation rather than experience an animalistic murdering military assault.

Truly, the truest meaning of suicide is turning against the Level Above Human when leaving is offered. They felt they were focused on two tasks. First to make a last attempt to tell the truth about how to graduate into the Next Level so some humans could avoid “suicide” by remaining for the recycling of the civilization and of the spirits and souls who went against the Next Level or ignored Them. The second task they had was to take advantage of each day to work on overcoming and changing to be ready to become a member of the Kingdom of Heaven.

I.B.2. THERE IS NO CULT OR LEADERS AS TI AND DO ARE NO LONGER IN HUMAN FLESH BODIES and in my opinion there is no need or desire among the few former members that still believe in Ti and Do, of which I am one, to try to start one, even though several new believers have requested such. Among the former members there is no leader and we are hardly in contact with one another and each is living their lives in a somewhat normal fashion. I go by the name of Sawyer, a name Do gave me early on as I was the woodcutter for the Bedouin (no one place to lay our heads) styled commune we had that for several years existed outdoors in tents largely in the National Forests and private ranch lands we leased in Wyoming and Texas. My maintenance of several social media accounts is the only way I know of new believers as I don't actively look for any, nor concern myself with how much they do or don't believe and don't keep a list of those who tell me they believe. I simply try to answer questions and post commentary and recollections from my experiences with Ti and Do.

There are all sorts of charlatans on the Internet posing as the return of Do or claiming Do has returned and I suspect that will only grow. I am certain Do is not returning incarnate during this current civilization.

I.B.3. MY MOTIVATION FOR WRITING THIS BOOK

I could have made money long ago with my story if I had titled a book, "How I got out of the cult of cults" even though I suspect one reason no former members have written such a book that I'm aware of was because it was easy to get out. In fact many were made to leave, sometimes permanently and sometimes temporarily so they could see if they really wanted to be in Ti and Do's classroom. I wrote this book because I believe in Ti and Do and want to be in their service (which is still possible just as it has been possible to serve Jesus after he exited) and this is the service at this point I believe they have offered me even though I didn't leave to do this. I failed to make the grade but have another chance. They don't throw us away if we don't want to be thrown away. Should I succeed in "Standing for Ti and Do" and re-starting my metamorphic changeover, by adopting all their behaviors and ways, I have no idea whether when I drop this vehicle however it happens if I will be in Ti and Do's company or will be "put on ice" (so to speak) to be prepared for a future classroom to finish my overcoming when I can be with my Older Member for the entire program.

Nor do I claim that everything I have said in this book would meet with Ti and Do's approval. I think it's likely that there are many areas they would have had me leave out or qualify that I could be wrong about or re-write, but I do think I am mostly in the ballpark of what Ti and Do would have me do. I have received many corrective hints as I went. I do believe there are some of my classmates assigned to help me stay on track enough to not compromise what this may be able to do for others coming in this Ti and Do direction.

I'm not saying what I am saying here is needed by anyone but it has always been the way of Ti and Do to be very thorough in providing all the helps they can for each of the Souls they brought back to have this opportunity to see the truth and take over a human vehicle to engage their own metamorphosis and service Standing up for Ti and Do, asking them for help all along the way and giving their all to result in their "Mind/Spirit birth" graduation when Ti and Do determine each of us qualify.

I.B.4. TI AND DO WERE NOT INTERESTED IN ATTRACTING FOLLOWERS - They were willing to accept anyone as a student but were choosy about who they thought could accomplish the task of overcoming the human condition. Public meetings were only held over two approximate nine month periods with about seventeen years of cloistered Overcoming "Classroom" in between, during which many gradually learned it wasn't what they wanted so freely left the group and in many cases when the group had the capacity were given funds or an airline or bus ticket to go where they wanted to go

Even though I witnessed over and over how Ti and Do didn't want anyone to leave, in 1976 they still felt to tell nineteen students they weren't ready and arranged their separation from the larger body of believers, leaving a little more than seventy of us, who they said "made the first cut." About ten years later a couple of students were told to leave because they didn't want to abide by all of the procedures we had, that were geared to help us overcome the human world. At one point in the early 1990's Do offered a couple thousand dollars to anyone who wanted to leave, saying he didn't want our most comfortable life style or the fear of having to start over again in the world be a reason to stay. Over the years many left for one reason or another that had to do with things not panning out as they had hoped or because of a desire to have a human relationship or to return to the family they left behind when they joined or just to do something else. About every year or so, Ti and Do would require us to go someplace quite around the place we lived in and consciously think about whether there was something else in the world we wanted to do. Then when 20 minutes or so had passed they'd tell us to go back to blocking out such thoughts. Of course there were no monitors on our thoughts so we could always think about whatever we wanted to think about, but that classroom had a way of forcing things to the surface even if they were things that were years in the making. I realized that's what happened to me.

I.C. BIBLIOGRAPHY AND SCRIPTURE NOTATION

I only directly quote two data sources that are both in the public domain:

- The King James Bible
- The King James Bible with Strong's Dictionary has been placed under copyright © 2001-2002 by johnhurt.com, and is protected by United States and International Copyright Laws. All Rights Reserved.

NOTATIONS USED INSIDE KING JAMES SCRIPTURE QUOTES

- Single parentheses (...) inside of scriptures indicate words added by the original King James translators. Sometimes they are completely fabricated to allow for a grammatically flowing sentence, while at other times precedes the primary word but is necessary to formally translate it because often one Hebrew or Greek word requires multiple English words. Still other times words are added to fill a particular interpretation of the intended meaning.
- Two double parentheses ((...)) indicate additional and/or alternate translation options whether from Greek or Hebrew. Most times within these includes the Greek/Hebrew dictionary number at times with a G for Greek and an H for Hebrew which is listed ahead of the words translation followed by the Greek or Hebrew word, then an equal sign (=) and the additional keywords/phrases from that dictionary with this authors primary candidates at times put in UPPER CASE.
- Square brackets [...] within double parentheses, (([...text...])) contain my opinion of additions to the definition and/or interpretation.
- One or more asterisks (*) or an asterisk followed by a number are used for local footnotes that follow shortly after their usage as opposed to at the end of a page or section.

STRONGS GREEK/HEBREW DICTIONARY NOTATION:

+ (addition) denotes a rendering in the Authorized Version of one or more Greek words in connection with the one under consideration.

X (multiplication) denotes a rendering in the Authorized Version that results from an idiom peculiar to the Greek.

() (parenthesis), in the renderings from the Authorized Version, denotes a word or syllable sometimes given in connection with the principle word to which it is annexed.

I.D. INTRODUCTION TO TI AND DO

I.D.1. THE NAMES AND TEMPORARY ORGANIZATIONS ASSOCIATED WITH TI AND DO

From Ti and Do's official start on January 1, 1973, when they left Houston, Texas and their former family, friends, careers, possessions and human lifestyles behind, they went by a variety of names to include, "Guinea and Pig," "He (Do) and She (Ti)" and others until their first meetings were held in April of 1975 in the North Hollywood part of Los Angeles, California in the United States of America where they attracted a couple dozen who wanted to follow them and because of those new students, whom they initially didn't welcome the idea of, chose the names Bo (Do) and Peep (Ti) (from the nursery rhyme of shepherds of sheep). Throughout the remainder of this Book I will refer to them as Ti and Do, though they didn't select those names until around 1977.

In 1975 Ti and Do considered their mission identity as, "Human Individual Metamorphosis" (HIM), because humans were like caterpillars in that they had the capacity to change into a literal new creature inside, that once "born" would have new capabilities analogous to a Butterfly. When their public meeting efforts hit the national media in October of 1975, because students had designed a meeting announcement poster that was headlined with, "UFO's...", (which they didn't actually approve of because of how that acronym was so populist by then), they became referred to all over the U.S., (especially), as "The UFO Cult," or "The UFO Two." In addition to "Two" referring to both of them, it was also because they had come to realize they were fulfilling the prophecy task of the Two Witnesses of The Book of Revelations, chapter 11, though they didn't actually state that in their poster, nor their first "Statement One," nor at the two public meeting I heard them speak at in Waldport, Oregon and at Arapahoe Community College in Denver. They said they didn't want to focus on that prophecy because before becoming aware of that prophecy, they already knew their Souls had come from the Kingdom of God, what they called The Evolutionary Level Above Human, to perform a task that had to do with bringing “updates to the Bible” and to “fulfill prophecy.” Plus they felt as if it was a lure to say and they personally had always wanted to run the other way when they would hear of or meet someone who said they were the reincarnation of some well known biblical figure. They also became aware that there were others who had claimed to be the Two Witnesses. Nonetheless, they knew they were to fulfill that prophecy.

In 1977 they changed their names from Bo and Peep to Ti and Do, reversing the order of who was who. I have reasons to believe that order was reversed because Do knew well by then that Ti was his Older Member, in religious terms his Heavenly Father and they were performing their task together as a unit. Those particular names were in part stimulated by the movie musical, “The Sound of Music,” they felt was influenced by the Next Level Above Human, (in the Records, the Kingdom of God, Kingdom of Heaven, that they felt provided them a little outline of their mission. The names related to musical notes, as in the song in the musical entitled, “Do a deer” or as “Do-Re-Mi” that was using the Seven note scale, using the syllables, “Do re me fa so la Ti...Do.” Do told us how the choice of positions 1 and 7 demonstrated how Ti, from the previous octave pushes the emergence of Do in the next octave. I later realized that was reflective of the way the Woman gives birth to her Son - to the Throne seat/task in Revelations chapter 12.

What I didn't know at the time, because Ti and Do never talked about it to their “Classroom” (Student Body), was how their choice of “note” names was directly related to prophecy, that their students, eventually the 144,000 (or 144 and a myriad of thousands) were depicted as “singing... a new song before the Throne,” while referencing how there was the Song of Moses and the Song of the Lamb (Jesus) before then. (Rev 14:1-3, Rev 15:1-3, Rev 5:9)

Do had learned from experience that Ti was his Older Member aka Heavenly Father. Ti never talked that way. It was also Ti who told the student body that we needed to make our commitment to Do because Do was our Older Member (Father). That made Ti the equivalent of our “Grandfather” though we never referred to them in those terms. We either addressed them as Ti, or Do or if referring to them together, Ti and Do, or “Links” written as “Lnks” which they preferred because it didn't emphasize them except in the way they hoped to be Chain Links to their Older Members in the chain of Mind/Spirit to the Chief of Chiefs, the Oldest Member of the Next Level. They also talked about this as their wanting to be “pipes” that were so “clear” none of their Mind would dilute the Holy Mind they received from their Older Member in the Heavens.

Incidentally, it was documented that around the summer solstice of 1024 an Italian priest established what was called the solfege (do, re, mi, fa, so, la, ti, do) as a way to learn musical scales, which might be an example of how a Next Level crew was preparing for the fulfillment of prophecy at the return of the Older Members and student crew to be the name of the “song,” as was previously the “song of Moses” and the “song of Jesus.” Ti's vehicle was not a musician but she always compared the overcoming lesson plan they were administering to their student body to a “piano roll,” and to be like singing the song, Old McDonald's Farm, that went:

Old McDonald had a farm E I, E I, OH and on his farm he had a cow E I, E, I OH with a Moo Moo here and a Moo Moo there here a moo there a moo everywhere a moo moo

Old McDonald had a farm E I, E I, OH and on his farm he had a pig, E I, E, I OH with a Oink Oink here and a Oink Oink there here a Oink there a Oink everywhere a Oink Oink

This would continue adding more barn yard animal tones as parts of the overall Song, each of which were actually Lesson Steps being added to the list, not dropping the earlier lesson steps and continuing to practice them in the Overcoming Song. Say for instance a lesson was to only say, “yes, no or I don't know” while talking to one another, which was an early lesson step. Then lets say the next lesson step was to put “I could be wrong” in front of everything we say that requires a judgment to get us in the habit of losing self, as Jesus also taught as “deny self” and “thy will be done.” Students would continue applying these lesson steps until Ti and Do said to stop or gave an update so to change to, which with the “yes, no, I don't know” lesson step did change so we ceased saying only those responses if more words were needed to perform the task.

In 1987 (after Ti's exit of her incarnation to be explained later) when Do was examining going public again (by then over ten years since we had held a public meeting), he had us test the waters by briefly starting a project with the name, “Anonymous Sexaholics Celibate Church,” taken from the 12 Step programs geared to those who believed they were sex addicts. In around 1989 as part of the book we published called, “The Transfiguration Diet,” taken in part from the work of Dr. John Christopher's Mucous-less Diet System, we used the name, “Littlegreen, Inc. Think Tank.” Then around 1990 because of dietary experimentation with raw food diets for health - to get the most out of our vehicles Do said because we didn't know how long we would be on earth, and because of the need to buy vegetables in bulk for our population that was down to about 30 students, to help offset expenses, we started a company called, “Advanced Life Extension Research Team” (ALERT) and sold off surplus organic vegetables at a San Diego area farmers market.

In 1992 when Do started the project to make video tapes that became the series called, “Beyond Human - The Last Call” that was uploaded for satellite broadcast (before the Internet) to provide a way for people who had a satellite dish, who might see the video, a way to contact us, used the name, “Total Overcomers Anonymous” (TOA) and provided a Post Office box people could write to. Finally in March of 1997, 2 1/2 years after I left them, as the last part of their Seven, international in scope, public offerings of Ti and Do's information, they became known as “Heaven's Gate” and in much of the media “The Heavens Gate Cult.” Do and Crew understood and didn't object to being called a cult, but said they were actually the “Cult of Cults” and the “Cult of Truth,” definitely an ultimate subculture.

It's interesting to me that I am going through a final edit on this book during the time I have documented as the approaching Revelations 6:7-8 “opening” of the “Fourth Seal” that is depicted as the “Green horse” (in most Bible translations says “pale horse” which there is little evidence behind using that term, even though the human who fulfills that task on behalf of the Luciferian Space Aliens could be described best as “pale” that also relates to their name of “death.”) This all relates directly to the Ceres/Demeter “goddess of the Harvest,” where a goddess is the “bride of God,” which will be described in detail in the pages to come. But my point here is how I recently contracted Lyme disease from a tick bite and chose to treat the disease with the dietary regimen layed out in the “Transfiguration Diet,” the book Do and crew wrote while I was still with in Do's classroom. The wording of the books author was, “Little Green, Inc.” which is interesting given how Ti and Do always talked about how the Next Level Crew would even have fun interjecting little clues to their presence, through seeing to it that certain words became used or even popular. Even the word “Little” reflects on the same word used to describe what I believe is this book as shown in Revelations chapter 10.

I.D.2. TI AND DO'S TERMINOLOGY CHANGES AND CONCEPT UPDATES

Ti and Do changed a great deal of terminology. Granted some will see these and think, “brainwashing techniques” and they will be exactly right, except it was voluntarily washing of our own brains, (part of the real basis of Baptism - cleaning one's house under the instructions from the most currently incarnate Older Members) using the techniques and replacements of terms and ideas with those Ti and Do gave us. This is actually quite scriptural as Jesus required of his disciples to “deny themselves,” in other words give their life over to the Kingdom of God's hands 100%, also stated in the Lord's Prayer talking to “our Father who is in Heaven, saying, THY WILL BE DONE ON EARTH AS IT IS IN HEAVEN,” though when a Representative from that Kingdom is incarnate then for those feeling called to be with Him/Them, the process is to give Them charge of us - our will. There never has been any evidence that Ti and Do did the brainwashing for us. Do even said once that if he could do it for us, he would, but then it wouldn't work. Brainwashing was illustrated by Jesus as “washing our robes,” “sweeping out our house,” becoming “pure of heart,” “becoming as little children.” Now the religions certainly do plenty of brainwashing but with theirs some teach that Jesus did it for us and even will program people to think you are doing something wrong to try to mimic what he taught and did, as if you were “working” for the reward. That is complete misinformation like in James letters where he says, “faith is dead without works - service, making changes in thinking, and acting (repentance).

Ti and Do called their new terminology, “generic” (which I related to the Jesus prophecy that said upon He and His Father's return He would show us plainly about the Father and would no longer speak in parables). The use of new terms they provided impart a more accurate understanding than what our brains had become inundated with, thus because of that programming the new terms are actually more REAL and thus truthful to what the Kingdom of God/Heaven - Next Level Above Human really requires of it's prospective new members. That old terminology stemmed from what worked in the past to bring humans thinking closer to reality at that time but the translators who didn't have first hand experience with Jesus couldn't help but begin to distort the truth and especially when influenced by the Luciferian Space Alien Souls. They didn't really stand a chance not to distort much, nonetheless the Next Level helped them keep most quotes of Jesus still accurate. For instance Jesus use of “Father” (Greek Pater from the Hebrew Abba) was less mystical and prone to superstition than the previous name, Jehovah, which meant “I Exist” or “I Am.” Now one could relate to this individual in the way a child relates to their familial parent. So clearer yet is the phrase Ti and Do used, “Older Member.”

Terminology is important to our recognition of reality. We all have preconceived judgments when we hear certain terms. Heaven conjures up a relationship to religions and because of how they have become distorted institutions from what really happened, though founded on reality of what was provided to the human kingdom, turns many people off as they see the way religious think and act as archaic, superstitious and thereby understandably not grounded in as much reality. But this is what new Representatives come in part to do, that is, to upgrade our thinking to something closer to their reality so we can better have a chance to choose what to believe or not. There is nothing wrong with religious terminology until it becomes a limitation to what is most real and to what someone is willing to consider, because it wasn't stated in the terms they deem were from God, which will be according to what they were taught from the records in history they grew up with. Thus someone will refer to God as the Father or Jehovah or Allah or Vishnu or Buddha, etc. and all could be referring to the same “creators” of our reality but will often fight over whose terminology is better when they all lack the most accurate understanding which the new representatives then come to update.

Thus some of Ti and Do's new terms and updated definitions follow:

- THE EVOLUTIONARY LEVEL ABOVE HUMAN, or Physical Evolutionary Kingdom Level Above Human, also said as The LEVEL ABOVE HUMAN or The NEXT LEVEL which is equivalent to the Kingdom of God or Kingdom of Heaven also said as the Kingdom in the literal heavens.

The NEXT LEVEL in evolution in the stepwise evolutionary process. That's not Darwinian evolution. Darwin only recognized some of the built in adaptability in the species which later was recognized as genetic and even later was realized can be changed sometimes by a person's change of behavior and ways and even thinking. Ti and Do spoke about the various “kingdom levels” as the Mineral, Plant, Animal, Human and then the Next Level Above Human.

- GOD - A member of the Next Level is a God compared to any human because they have overcome the human kingdom and are now part of the Family that create humans and their environments to give them opportunities to grow towards their own membership in the Next Level. Jesus referred to this when he spoke about how John the Baptist, as among those born of women was the greatest human but that EVERYONE in the Kingdom of God/Heaven was greater than he. Also graduating members are referred to as “kings” who are given tasks that reign or rule over humans. It's not that these are control freaks, they simply work for the Older Members and therefore administer Their instructions that provide the criteria for who in the human kingdom is “coming up” (as a plant sprouting) and who is not. The membership have immense hearts, so to speak, and will do everything in their power, the powers that the Older Members give them, to help those that ask them for help. When Ti and Do were asked if there was “fun” in the Next Level, they said, “yes, but it's a different kind of fun” and they compared it to a “horse that has fun romping around the field.” It may not look like that much fun to a human but to them it is great fun.

- OLDER MEMBER = a Heavenly Father - because they are literally on a spacecraft in the near or outer literal heavens aka space. Their domain is not limited to a terrestrial domain though they can dwell on or inside a terrestrial

Do would be the Older Member to those coming up from the human evolutionary level. Do knew Ti to be his Older Member, the one that birthed him into the Next Level. Ti didn't tell him that. He learned it from working with Ti as they were awakening to their task and he saw that wherever decisions needed to be made, she summed up the circumstance faster and more accurately without having to experience it. It was the same for information and in other ways, students may not be aware of. He said he gave her a hard time for their initial wake up time together on the road before they eventually came public in 1975. He told the story of how at one point, Ti sat on the curb of the road and said she wasn't taking another step. Do did most of the talking in public and in meetings with the student body because he was closer to the student's ways of thinking so could serve them better where Ti would say things with a lot less words that students would often not know what she meant by. She also said from the beginning, "I'm here to get you started and then I'm going back." Do always silently wondered, "going back to what, your vehicle's family?," which didn't make any sense to him. When she left her physical body in 1985 ahead of him, he knew what she meant even though she didn't have that method of exit on her mind exactly either. There were just many things Ti knew that she couldn't explain the details of or how she knew it. She just did and often said what was on her mind. She told me once that I "looked green" and I asked her what she meant and she said, "You just look green to me." It was years later that I wondered if she could see the degree to which I was jealous of students that had more tasks to do directly with them.

- RECORD = The Bible and all related documents linked to Jesus, (i.e. Dead Sea Scrolls, etc.)

- VEHICLE = A human body - This is referred to in the records as "clothing" or "raiment" or a "robe" as Members of the Next Level WEAR a body. They are actually not that body. They are the pilot of the body they are assigned. Ti and Do talked about it as compared to the way a human puts on a diving suit to function underwater or a space suit to function outside the Earth's environment and the like. In the Next Level, individuals have different "clothing" that relates to their tasks. Ti and Do even said that if someone chose to enter the department of transportation they could be given a suit/body to occupy that is actually a living biological spacecraft that can do many things among the simple transport of crew members to their various assignments.

- MIND = SPIRIT = the information, programs, thinking, behaviors and ways. There are two types of mind, human and Next Level. Human mind consists of all things human beings think about and do that don't show a direct relationship to the Next Level. Human mind is mammalian. For instance, wanting to know the truth about where we as a species and our reality came from is Next Level related as mammals don't wonder such things unless they are stimulated to think such things. Feeling that you don't fit in anywhere in this world is a Next Level feeling stimulated by the fact that there is more to life than what can be found in the human kingdom. Believing it is wrong for a human being to kill another human being comes from Next Level instructions and is therefore Next Level thinking. Mammals don't have that kind of morality. The Next Level and their incarnate representatives are not held to the instructions they give to humans. However, nor do they use or abuse others. They provide a free will environment and when humans make choices, they do use those choices for the benefit of the entire garden like experiment. For instance those that interfere with the progress of those they are working to bring closer to the possibility of being born into Next Level membership, if it serves to do so could be killed before their time, so to speak. After all they designed humans with a limited life span, so at most they are accelerating the end of that life span for those they know have become weeds in their garden. Of course the weeds of the garden will be critical of the gardener's eradication of them and today the records of Jehovah/Moses "classroom" demonstrate a great deal of this kind of weeding out of the equivalent of tares among the wheat the Next Level plans to bring to harvest. This subject is further confused because of the Luciferian fallen angels and how they influence certain humans to think they are ordained to decide upon life and death of others who don't meet their criteria and follow their laws and/or their interpretation of the Next Level's laws, which Jesus came to upgrade that even many Christians cling to, largely ignoring what Jesus came to upgrade.

- NEXT LEVEL MIND = "holy Spirit," where holy refers to purity by the Next Level's standards, which relates to not containing any human mammalian mind/spirit. Jesus referred to Next Level Mind as "new wine" and at times as “blood” as it is the lifeblood of every member of the Next Level to share as every member only cares to be a link or pipe that Mind can flow through.

- SOUL (and it's content of MIND/SPIRIT) Do described as a “pillow case” or pocket or container that is given/gifted to a human being that Jesus referred to when it is first given, as a “seed” in the Parable of the Sower (Mat 13:3-23) and then once it is being grown to a “new bottle,” aka a leather bag or wineskin. (Mat 9:17). Do described a human vehicle as a glass vase whose mind/spirit (memory, “computer” was contained within, as if there was a balloon in the vase. He said, when a Soul pocket/container is given, that vase then has two balloons in it. However, a “Soul” actually has it's own “brain” or “hard drive” that accumulates only information of the Next Level - mundane as well as theoretical or philosophical) which is why Jesus talked about how it is Spirit/Mind that animates (quickens) the flesh but has no long term profit in it UNLESS one accepts his words (Mind/Spirit) because they are living because they yield life. (Joh 6:63). In other words what comes from the Older Member (Father) as Behaviors and Ways and Instructions, concepts, ideas, etc. are Life providing Spirit/Mind because we can only LIVE (beyond the grave) if we become changed by being filled with his Mind/Spirit - information. Using he words our Older Members give us, not like parrots, though nothing wrong with that when we know it's from them (as translations can lose a certain amount) helps us bond with that Older Member by following all the provided instructions that when maintained until we exit our vehicles will work towards our eventual graduation (harvest) into membership in the Next Level.

The Soul becomes part of the new creatures new physical. It is not often seen by humans. When a Soul is newly deposited, it is very small and contains only a small amount of data so is a Next Level kind of “fetus.” When it grows it must cause human mind to be aborted. That human mind is in a container right next to the soul container. Do compared the human body to a glass vase and the soul container and human mind container to balloons in that vase. At the start of the overcoming process referred to by Ti and Do as a literal metamorphosis, the human balloon is mostly full and the Next Level container is near empty. As we adopt the behavior and ways and instructions, examples, words, concepts provided by the most current Older Member (still pertains to Do even though he has exited his incarnation) the Soul grows larger and the human container smaller. When the soul is ready to be “born” the human balloon being deflated is discarded. At that point that Soul filled with it's Next Level mind had become a physical body in a new species and it will be rewarded with a new physical outer shell when they physically enter the Next Level. Entering the Next Level takes place by separating from the human vehicle/container that is seen by humans as death and that new Soul body will be helped to rendezvous in the “clouds,” what is actually a mothership for a briefing and journey to the Kingdom of the literal heavens.

Ti always said, referring to Next Level Mind/Spirit and Human mind/spirit, that “oil and water don't mix” to where the Oil was Next Level Mind and the Water was human mind. It was only years after I left and I began to study scripture that I saw the references to how Jesus talked about his disciples needing to be “born of water” (again) so they could be “born of spirit/mind,” by filling their Soul container with Next Level Mind/information that includes their behaviors and ways which have no human mammalian characteristics.

The PROCESS aka The OVERCOMING PROCESS that Ti and Do also described as an “ASTRONAUT TRAINING PROGRAM” to sufficiently get rid of ALL human mind (to the incarnate Older Member's standards as one's spirit birth midwife) to include:

- 1) THINKING ABOUT THE PAST (memories) in terms of relationships, pursuits, hobbies, habits, past times, likes and dislikes
- 2) BEHAVIORS - sensuality to include; sexuality, anger, ego, consuming food for pleasure verses to live, It's not that all pleasures are to be overcome. It's that one must accept ONLY the pleasures provided by the Older Members, that is when One wants to be in their program to graduate the human kingdom. And it's not that one would not enjoy what they eat, but part of the program is to even learn to enjoy or at least tolerate whatever the Older Member is given to give to the students. The Older Members don't abuse their students like by making them eat worms and things we see humans do on television. About the worse thing I tried to like was okra and it wasn't served for very long. I got to where I could tolerate it and not gag from eating it. No one stood over us to make sure we ate stuff. Most of what we did or didn't do was on the honor system. Our Older Member also does everything they expect us to do. For some students eating any flesh food was against their previous mindset which had to be overcome. But Ti and Do worked very hard to insure that what we consumed was well prepared and tasty and generally acceptable, though of course there was always someone who had a problem with certain foods (not like allergic reactions) and for them it was a greater challenge to fight against their programming that disliked something.

3) WAYS (deceit, competitiveness, being overly pleased with self, wanting to be seen as something special, self absorbed, gossipy, so one is deflating that balloon, which has no value to the Next Level unless that same human fills their “Soul” balloon with Next Level mind which is why a Next Level Older Member needs to be physically with those coming through this process to show them how by being their example by their getting rid of their human mind and filling up their vehicle with their Next Level mind, accomplishing the process once again which Jesus completed when he said he had “overcome the world.” (Joh 16:33).

On the Heavensgate.com web site one can still freely download a .zip file that contains two files, one of which is entitled, “The 17 Steps” which came early on in the classroom and then the “Major and Minor Offense List” that show the various standards in Ti and Do's classroom. All the files are also provided on my blog since I have nothing to do with the web site. Links to my blog and specific files are in my Appendix.

- To TAKE OVER or BORROW a human vehicle or even somewhat humorously, because of the related Science Fiction movie, “Body Snatcher” describes the way a Soul who is brought back to have another experience in flesh again, aka coming “in-carnal” - Latin “carne” meaning “flesh,” becomes “Incarnate” when that Soul has brought it's Next Level Mind into that new prepared vehicle, while the vehicles “Spirit” agrees to cooperate with giving their will to the Older Member. In the Record incarnating is also referred to as to “stand up” which is one of the meanings that was translated to Resurrection, with the “re” part reflective of “again,” so “Stand up Again.” Jesus referred to “fishing” for men and the term Rapture really means to be “caught away” from the world which is what happens when we awaken to our smelling salts and we join literally with the Older Member. Since the Older Members are no longer incarnate ones rapture would be when and if they separate from their human lives. That may not happen right away or to the full degree it needs to eventually, but as long as we are doing the best we can and know the formula and recognize our Older Members we can ask

Ti and Do said that reincarnation as it is taught by Eastern Religions is not accurate. Each human vehicle has it's own Mind/Spirit that develops as the vehicle grows and accepts or rejects various programming from their parents, families and society. That spirit does survive death of the vehicle but can never become the spirit of another body UNLESS it takes over that new body by convincing or overriding the mind of the new body. They said that humans were really time shared computer like systems and that what we really are is only the “decider” in that we can choose which thoughts, behaviors and ways to embrace and make our own or not accept or get rid of throughout life. They called dead humans, “Influences” because that's what they do when they come around any human. They try to influence them to their thoughts, behaviors and ways they accepted (believed in) while alive as that is the only way they can be. They can not change any longer. They can either help or hinder a human. It depends on what we allow. If we have bad thoughts, like of harming someone, the more we linger on those thoughts the more hold they have on us and the more we can find ourselves acting out those thoughts. Ti and Do said, we are not responsible for the thoughts that enter our consciousness but we are responsible for allowing those thoughts to stay with us and become part of our programming that become harder and harder to reverse and get rid of, to where we can even be more prone to act them out even though they once could have been thought abhorrent to act out.

I believe an example of how the current human society have accepted more and more thoughts that before now most would not have permitted to take hold of them, is in the huge increase of frequency of more or less random or spontaneous mass killings, seen mostly among youth.

Psychologists and law enforcement and educators come up with all sorts of reasons to include the way violence against others dominates much of the computer gaming world and is even realized and acted out in the military with drone strikes from a cubicle in Nevada terrorizing and bombing people in Pakistan, Afghanistan and Yemen and wherever the leadership decides. Young humans are being trained to accept these kinds of thoughts of justifications for horrendous crimes, which they are then more prone to act out when they become angry for any reason. They are literally being “possessed” by a mindset and what many don't understand is that for every mindset there are many, many discarnates that will gravitate to the human being that is willing to act upon it, further influencing them to do so, which used to be called being possessed by an evil spirit. And isn't it interesting that even in many of the spiritual and religious mindsets, the reality of these “discarnates” and the great influence they have over humans in ALL areas of life, both positive and negative, is largely ignored and disregarded, except in movies and such, so that anyone that suggests spirit possession is seen as a fanatic of some sort.

Of course in the U.S. this spirit/mind possession, no matter how one explains it or what they believe as a root cause will not stop it with gun laws or knife laws or curfews or banning of violent video gaming, though they will try because to some degree it can be happening in many human heads as the mindsets/discarnates that influence us can not be turned off except by each person's conscious effort to “just say no,” to repeat that popular phrase, but MUST go hand in hand with not justifying any violence or mental and physical abuses against fellow humans, as the Lord commanded. And frankly that's not going to happen as the great majority of the people who have the most power in this human world are possessed with justifications galore for murder and abuse of others, not knowing that they are literally under the spell of the Luciferian space alien fallen angels and all their billions of discarnate minions who believed what they programmed them to believe while living who are saturating every brain with their justifications and judgments and measure of others. And of course to most even mention of that name Lucifer and/or Space Aliens is laughed at as having no basis in reality, which is exactly the way those “fallen angels” want them to remain, so they can be used to forward their agenda of combating the Next Level and trying to get off this planet where they have been imprisoned for millennium.

Thus a huge part of the Overcoming Process is cleaning out our brain/mind of all our past associations and replacing that mind with the (Above human (holy)) Mind, the thoughts, behaviors and ways from our Older Members. Ti and Do said that in this civilization it took three periods of time, they referred to as “trimesters,” resembling the trimesters in a human birth to bring a Soul from it's first deposit into a human vehicle to harvest after at least two more experiences of that Soul taking over a human vehicle, which is called “overcoming the (human) world. This took place over thousands of human years.

- CLASSROOM = The experiential environment for learning Next Level behaviors and ways that included meetings where lesson material was introduced and then “labs” where lesson material was experienced. The environment was not constructed. It was simply using the same things any human being has to do to survive and thrive to include, eating, sleeping, cleaning, working jobs, maintenance, relaxation, exercise, fun, administrative, medical, etc. As we lived as a commune though at times in different houses in different parts of a city and even for brief periods in different states around the United States, though mostly all west of the Mississippi River, many of these activities were departmentalized and named as Labs, short for laboratory as Ti and Do said that's what the Next Level environments consist of...labs for various task like the Earth's weather or geographic systems, to name a few. In this way a house became called a “craft” short for spacecraft because wherever Next Level Members work, they are on some type of craft that can be as large as a planet. Some are as follows:

- Nutri Lab = Kitchen, as in Nutrition Lab. Before the group moved into houses we lived in little tent cities on leased ranch lands in Wyoming and Texas. We had two very large tents. One was green and it was used for what humans would call the mess hall. We had gas powered stove tops and an oven inside a little camper. Ti and Do had a tiny camper. The remaining 70 or less students lived two to a tent. This is when Ti and Do introduced food as “fuel” and the preparation as “experiments” with the recipe written as a formula, so that “MP + BR = body changes,” where MP stood for mashed potatoes and GB for green beans that together as a meal would bring about body changes, changing our (water/womb mammalian based) human mind out for Next Level Above Human Mind/Spirit that filled our Soul pocket which was the body that was changing though we didn't have these understandings of the differentiations between Mind, Spirit and Soul at that time.

- Yeast Lab - where bread and cinnamon rolls and other bakery goods were made.

- Fiber Lab = laundry.

- Impro Lab = I never did know for sure what this represented but the crew that were assigned tasks cleaned and maintained the fleet of automobiles, did carpentry, grounds keeping and such.

- Luciferian - First off Do said that there is nothing wrong with the name Lucifer or Lucy and that it is a beautiful name that from the Hebrew means. It comes from “light bearer,” or “brilliant star.”

However, a Luciferian is a fallen angel Soul. Any human or human equivalent space alien who took the opportunity offered by the Next Level Older Members to be in a third trimester Next Level classroom with an incarnate Older Member from the Next Level, whether on Earth or on an equivalent “garden,” and subsequently dropped out of believing in, following and serving that Older Member was choosing to disconnect to their Next Level source and thereby become a fallen angel.

Now in the case of this “fallen angel,” named Lucifer, he had advanced to a certain grade in the overall human overcoming school to where he was provided a physical body designed for him by the Next Level and some elementary service in a crew on board spacecrafts, as a “watcher,” that may have had similar characteristics as the vehicle provided that was named Adam (man). I say this in part because of things Ti and Do said in the Blackhawk audio tapes that also indicated that the experiment to test Adam as to subject other equivalent student level members of the Next Level to the same influence Lucifer fell because of, which Lucifer embodied in his Soul body. Thus I wondered if Adam's vehicle was a type of match for the vehicle Lucifer received so the test would be equivalent to what Lucifer chose to fall because of not conquering. Ti and Do didn't get into this to this detail so I could be wrong.

That vehicle named Adam received his Soul seed, when he received the “breath of life through his nostrils” from his Older Member, the seed giver. I believe that was addressing whatever kind of Soul “deposit” was put into Adam's Next Level vehicle. It wouldn't be an adult Next Level vehicle as my understanding is that such a vehicle didn't have the capacity to fall back into human mammalian behavior and ways as Adam did and the “watchers” Enoch listed did. Do said that Adams vehicle went through a type of reverse metamorphosis that didn't take very long to occur.

-Ti took a vehicle whose name was related to a plant that shoots it's seed into the air for distribution (Jesus says the seed is sown into one's heart - Mat 13:19)

Ti chose a human physical vehicle named, Bonnie Lu Nettles. The plant Nettles is a unique variety of plant form that stands apart from other plants in the way it spreads its seeds. It shoots its seeds out into the air which is why it's considered to be classified as an "artillery plant" as opposed to most of the plant species that distribute their seeds when the bees transport them or when the wind picks them up or an animal brushes against the flower or they fall to the ground around them. Do knew that Ti was his Older Member and part of the reason Jesus used the term "Father" was both to portray the parenting role they perform for new students but because the male shoots their sperm into the female egg of the human species to fertilize it, so I guess a human is an artillery plant. Ti and Do did say that humans were plants, even though one could not see their root system and there are many references in the New and Old Testaments to humans being as "grass" or as "leaves." Ti and Do also referred to humans as "seed bearing plants" and as "perennials" in how the leaf dies but then the same human tree provides new leaves (vehicles) and in that way, there is a method to literally evolve both physically and even more so mentally as all data is saved in the human gnome (brain) of each cell.

Ti once surprised me and probably other students by saying that "The Chief still loves Lucifer" though his actions to choose to turn potential students away from their only chance to evolve out of the human kingdom to be with those that created them is not approved of though it can be turned into a positive. Jesus spoke of this by saying it was necessary for "offenses, stumbling blocks, occasions to fall" to exist but woe to that man that brings those offenses. (Mat 18:7). The Next Level allows Lucifer to continue for a while as he then is presenting the option to even become like him and therefore those that choose to look to the Next Level Older Member's instructions and help may overcome his influence to strengthen their own Mind which is what is required for graduation into Next Level Membership.

The human civilization is literally run by all those who are known as the Luciferians while tricking humans into not even recognizing their influence or that they exist at all. They are the reason many humans think the Kingdom of God/Heaven is a spiritual realm where members float around among the clouds or have wings. Of course before the Next Level sends their representatives to provide the updates, it's understood to remain with that understanding however inaccurate. It's when the truth is provided and we reject it, that we are held responsible for rejecting it. Feeling challenged by the thinking and not feeling like it's believable is natural to experience. That is far different than absolutely denying the possibility with a willingness to allow it to become a reality in our consciousness. Do said that upon awakening not a day passed that he didn't wonder about his sanity and both Ti and Do said early on that if anyone could prove them wrong about anything they were saying, they wanted them to, so they could change. They also said that if they met someone who knew more than they knew about these matters, they would follow that individual for as long as they kept on learning from them.

- CHRIST - LIGHT - Jesus spoke of how one needed to make their eye single so that their entire body would be filled with light. Filling ones vessel/body containing it's gifted Soul="pocket/container" with "light" in it's primary application is the 'overcoming/"process" of the human world'.

This process consists of the consumption (eating) of the Older Member's (holy) Mind (spirit)," broken down to the practical "words/instructions/commandments" from the Older Members that when received (believed)(consumed/eaten) AND applied (acted upon) - given out, as Jesus said, putting one's LIGHT "on a candlestick showing it's "good" (utility) "works"(service) yields a "Mind/Spirit birth," the "metamorphic" transformation of a "caterpillar)" into a "butterfly," a new creature that has been lifted up (resurrected from it's previous lifestyle limitations.

Serving the Older Members is the mechanism of that metamorphosis. One who is believing in all that the Older Members say is literally filling their Soul pocket/container with "oil" but to produce "light" that "oil" needs to be utilized, "burned" - exhausted through the provision of the particular service the Next Level Older Members prescribe, otherwise nothing (darkness) comes from one's exhaustion of their "oil."

Jesus used the illustration of the "virgins" keeping oil in their lamps as the preparation to have the light (understanding/comprehension to recognize the Bridegroom they seek to wed. He used "virgins" as because those who are not giving their energy (oil) away, via procreative processes to include sexuality are keeping that oil in their lamps and they can literally SEE better because of doing so. This is why Jesus taught that in the regeneration upon his return, his disciples would not be marrying, which also meant they would not be procreating or giving away their energy/oil in sexuality or in any otherwise considered “normal” human passionate expressions. This is for his students (disciples). It doesn't mean these who become his students, before they become students will not be fully engaged in various human activities. It's once they commit to being a student that the Older Members will wean them from giving their “oil” away, while channeling it into serving the Next Level program they administer, which is both in overcoming their humanness, to include the desires for human relationships and expressions to even overcoming one's own ingrained sense of self preservation which is most evident when the students are sent to share the “light” they receive from their Older Members to a largely hostile to that light society. This is all “giving one's life” to the Older Members and literally results in the loss of one's human life, even in the physical sense by doing so that is actually a graduation requirement to lose, as Jesus also taught. (Jhn 10:15–18, Jhn 14:12, Mrk 13:20, Jhn 12:25, Rev 14:13)

METAMORPHOSIS FROM CATERPILLAR (HUMAN BEING) TO BUTTERFLY (ABOVE HUMAN BEING)

This is why “Christing” or “christening,” which means “one who is anointed with oil” is likened to the way the caterpillar enters the chrysalis. It is no longer operating in normal caterpillar ways. It's isolating itself and all it's energy is spent in it's metamorphosis into the butterfly and that cocoon that consists of it's old body is left behind when the butterfly with it's new and improved body emerges. Thus a “Christ” is anyone who comes through this equivalent metamorphic process BUT one can't come through such a process on their own and unless it's led by someone who has completed their own Christing, even many times before, it is not a genuine christening.

And there are stages and one can not bypass a stage and each stage is designed by the Older Member but the process goes like this:

A human hears the words of the Older Members and believes them. They are required by the Older Member to leave all they knew and believed in behind. Those things were not wrong to believe in and occupy themselves with before that but for someone who is drawn to conquer what amounts to their human root system, all those relationships and activities need to be cut off, that is IN THE WAY THE OLDER MEMBERS PRESCRIBE THOSE NEW PROSPECTIVE STUDENTS TO DO SO. Anyone at any time can cut themselves off from their human attachments and that may be to some benefit to their becoming ready to join in an Older Member's program but without the Older Member's physical hands on direction their efforts are wasted. And by “hands on” it applies whether the Older Members are still incarnate or not as when Older Members leave, they also leave their record that teaches the stage of the process. Obviously one can not leave the world to be with an Older Member that is no longer incarnate, but they can follow in every one of that Older Member's footsteps according to what the Older Member prescribed for them upon their exit and that will be the lessons they need at that time. If one is not abiding in the directions of the Older Member then they would not be getting the ingredients they most need that will find them in “good stead” with the Older Members when they do come incarnate again and the students Soul is brought back to have a chance to be in their classroom.

It becomes a facsimile overcoming chrysalis building process even if it's for a teacher/guru, UNLESS that teacher is sent from the Evolutionary Level Above Human.

SEEKERS CAN BECOME TRAPPED BY SPIRITUAL OR METAPHYSICAL AND/OR RELIGIOUS TEACHERS WHO ARE UNKNOWING PROMOTING A FACSIMILE OF A NEXT LEVEL OVERCOMING OF HUMANNESS PROGRAM.

What often happens to many is that they are among the humans that are responding to the presence of the “light” in the Earth's immediate atmosphere, before the Older Members have come incarnate. So they join this and that teacher of a metaphysical or spiritual belief and practice, and it yields an uplift to their consciousness because they are focusing the “light” through various techniques that can even include isolation from society and otherwise normal human behaviors and ways in the world as in monasteries and ashrams, etc. But then when the only true Older Members from the Next Level come, which when they come will bring updates to all that had been taught till then, with new terminology and concepts that separates them from all the spiritual/metaphysical teachers teachings (though will have many aspects in common, as that is where those other teachers originally got their ideas/teachings, however then distorted into a “path”). Like Ti and Do said, “all paths lead to the top of the mountain but there is only one way off” and that must be provided by someone who is off the mountain.

Each seeker if they remain a seeker will come to hear about the Older Members and when they do will be faced with whether to believe in them or not. This can take place many times through one's lifetime as the Older Members give all humans many chances to gravitate to them. But what takes place many times is that the seeker, having found a practice or group or teacher they have bonded to, fears the loss of what they have gained that they can feel is threatened by considering what these new teachers are saying so they justify not considering them further. However, generally speaking they have until they die to reconsider, though putting off the choice to believe or not, only makes it harder to change from what's become comfortable.

- SPACE ALIENS - Are all “fallen angels” - they are human equivalent beings that had their genetic origin either from a different planetary system or from a previous to the current civilization. The Next Level starts and stops civilizations as a matter of course. Ti and Do said they didn't know how many civilizations there have been on Earth but thought there were probably many, yet it didn't matter except to know that there was at least one before the current one. The Next Level allows some of the humans who lived in a previous civilization, at least on Earth, to physically survive the spading under of their civilization so they can be allowed to come out of their underground hiding places to provide an influence to those humans in their new garden human overcoming experiments. This way a human has the choice to even go against their own creators. However, they see to it that it's an even playing field and they give each human many opportunities to see the truth of the Next Level's existence.

I.D.3. PRIMER OF TI AND DO'S INITIAL TEACHINGS

Below is “Statement I” - written by Do between September of 1974 and March of 1975 that was mailed out to dozens of religious and spiritual leaders and their groups in March of 1975 that days later stimulated their first invitation to talk to a group. That first talk in Los Angeles resulted in several dozen prospective students, who left all behind to join with Ti and Do. This led to becoming a National (and to some degree International) “mystery” of a news story as no one knew where these dozens of people were vanishing to. This was their gathering of their sheep which technically lasted into June of 1976 to end their 1260 days of prophecy that began January 1, 1973. When Ti and Do wrote this, though through Do's hand, they thought students would be picked up by a spacecraft (cloud of light) before their physical death. Even before they exited by laying down their human bodies lives in 1997 they still prepared in such a way in case the Next Level (Kingdom of God/Heaven Older Member (Ti)) wanted to pick them up with their physical bodies and even do a resurrection demonstration.

There were a few ideas in this statement that Ti and then Do later updated. Their awakening was in stages and continued every day. It wasn't like you see in movies to where they are walking along or in a meditative trance and suddenly get hit by a lightning bolt of awareness as if they took LSD or something to where thereafter they understood everything about everything. That's an illusion and Jesus didn't experience that either. The proof of that is this. It was told that when Jesus was twelve years old he spent three days in the temple in Jerusalem amidst doctors listening to them and asking them questions. When his parents who had left Jerusalem realized he wasn't with them or kinsfolk and acquaintances they went back to find him and told him of their sorrow in not finding him, was documented in:

Luk 2:49 And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business?

If he knew everything why was he listening and asking questions? Then Luke goes on to report:

Luk 2:52 And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.

This was his awakening, actually not any different than any human being that is gradually coming into adulthood and all that brings with it, except he was special in that regard having been specially conceived. It's only in the last 30 or 40 years that humans have had success with artificial insemination to where one could imagine the Next Level's ability to bring about the inception of a baby by some alternatives to intercourse. There was certainly a function to Jesus' special conception however it was accomplished and with what seed. I have wondered if the Next Level kept some of Moses or Elijah's seed, the same way humans store sperm for just such a purpose. Ti and Do thought that Moses physical body was also taken. It just was not something the Next Level wanted to give anyone proof of. After all only Elisha got to experience

Elijah's physical body being taken up. And we don't know who might have witnessed Enoch's body being "taken." But considering the way we know genes change throughout life and how genes contain far more than just eye color in the chromosomes as was first thought but probably contain a full record of everything a human being experiences during life, using seed from one of the last servants from the Kingdom of God/Heaven might make some sense as otherwise there would be generations of experiences that say Joseph's strain might have had to cloud Jesus remembrances. Ti and Do never spoke to this that I was aware of, but that doesn't mean there can't be some accuracy to it. But accurate or not, it provides a way of thinking about something in a new way, at least it was new for me so sets us up to "wake up more" to what could have occurred in the past and to what is challenging to conceive of now and in the future as we all can always awaken to know more.

Ti and Do always said that they didn't know everything. They said they only knew what they needed to know to perform their task. They said there were many tasks the Next Level crew performs that they don't know about though sometimes get glimpses of. They also said they did know where to go to get answers to any question though they also talked about how some questions are not right for them to know answers to at certain times. They would ask questions and not get any response. They said sometimes their Older Member on their spacecraft/lab wasn't "picking up the phone" when they would ring them. They also said that on some questions they would re-examine what it was they wanted to know and would rephrase it or ask it at a later time but they wouldn't be pests about asking constantly and we have to provide time to receive the answers in the various ways in which they received answers. They never received answers by a voice in one's head or in some audible way but did come as thoughts but they didn't indicate answers coming to them in dreams, though I do recall both Ti and Do telling us about some of their dreams that did provide clues. They said all along that dream time is among other things a time when the Next Level can prepare someone for the next day's lessons but that the lower forces can also use dream time to try to influence us so they didn't trust dreams 100%. Nor did they trust every thought they had as the lower forces certainly can put thoughts into our heads. They said that is one of the reasons they both came this time, saying that the civilization had become so corrupted with the thoughts of the Luciferian space alien fallen angels that includes billions of discarnates that it was like a dense static that made it that much more difficult to think clearly, even though humans don't know any better about all that because the discarnates are all invisible and many don't have a clue as to how that world influences us all constantly.

Ti and Do said that humans were all like computer systems that allowed time sharing of their brain/body by whatever thought is sent to us via whatever method - discarnate or otherwise. They said we are only the “decider” as we choose what thoughts and actions to entertain and/or act upon to make our own. A big part of the overcoming process is to discard all thoughts of our past to have a chance to build a new database consisting of only what our Older Members give us. By our choosing which thoughts to entertain we build who we are and we can change who we are when we don't like what we have become. Examples of this are quitting nasty habits or disconnecting from people that we feel drag us down or into repeating past behaviors we don't want to continue in.

But regarding Jesus staged awakening, as was reported most of his Next Level mind came into his vehicle when he came out of the water John the Baptist poured over his head or submerged him under. Some actually saw a “bodily image” descend like a dove on him and heard audible words from the sky, apparently from the one who was called the Father saying this was his son whom he was well pleased with. And then finally another example was when he went up the mountain with James, John and Peter and was instructed that it was time to “lay down his life” to exit, even though he knew that was the plan - he didn't know when and perhaps exactly how to stimulate his exit. He certainly knew that many of the Jewish priests hated him and wanted him dead and gone as they tried to do a number of times.

In the same way Ti and Do were fed information and instructions step by step according to the capacity of the student body to receive certain information. Ti and Do always said when they brought us a new understanding that “this works for now and we will bring you updates as we get them.” I provide examples throughout this book.

The subject of space aliens was actually one of those examples that they gained clearer understanding of as time went on. For instance at first they thought that every non-human flying object was a Next Level spacecraft. It was only when they read the myriad of reports that were available and saw some of the behaviors of beings on board spacecrafts that Ti became concerned. I recall her saying that when she got back she will find out who was acting that way because that was not permitted. I believe she was referring to sexual activity reported on many of the abduction reports because there is no sex among Next Level members and they have no need to bring humans on a craft to mate them. That's what they have the human kingdom for. Later she realized that these were not Next Level members. They realized that these were the space aliens that came from those spoken of in the records as the fallen angels.

So with all that said, here is some of what Ti and Do had awakened to, to start their gathering of their sheep in Do's words but coming from both he and Ti's mind. After all Ti was Do's Older Member, which he had awakened to know by the time he wrote this Statement:

I.D.3.a. SUMMARY OF TI AND DO'S BEGINNING AND THEIR FIRST PUBLIC STATEMENT

Before the Statement, I, Sawyer who was present with Do for 19 years, (10 of which while Ti was incarnate), starting from September of 1975 when I was handed this Statement I at the meeting I attended in Waldport, Oregon where Ti and Do spoke that stimulated the global news story of them as the "UFO Two" am an eye witness to all they said to include this first Statement. I wanted to include this document just the way Do wrote it but because of the way Do's writings have been copyrighted by others who I can not trust would give me permission to include in my book, because of how they have changed things Ti and Do taught and because my book is for sale, (as the best way to distribute it most widely), to not infringe on those human laws I'm re-writing this document in my words. I will try very hard to stick to the equivalent words I heard Ti and Do say many times. I wish I didn't have to do this and the original document can be found contained within the greater document Do wrote about He and Ti's start, that I encourage everyone to read as there is nothing like reading Do's actual words in:

'88 Update - The UFO Two and Their Crew, By Do

<https://sawyerhg.wordpress.com/2010/03/02/88-update-the-ufo-two-and-their-crew/>

Summary of The 88 Update logistics that includes Statement I - (1972 to 1988):

Ti and Do are the names they last chose to be called. I will use those names though their physical human vehicles were born as Bonnie Lu Nettles (Ti) and Marshall Herf Applewhite (Do). They were each leading contented lives in Texas. Ti was working in the nursery of a Houston Hospital as a registered nurse and had a little amateur astrology practice on the side and had a husband and 4 children. Do had divorced and had several children but was not living with them anymore and was a professor in the University of St. Thomas teaching singing and music, while was also singing lead roles in the Houston Opera. They met when Do was visiting a sick friend in the hospital where Ti just so happened to be subbing for another nurse and their first conversation surrounded their astrological signs. Do had been interested in astrology. Both were Christians but had explored beyond what fundamentalists would approve of. In fact Do tried to go to seminary to follow in the footsteps of his Presbyterian minister dad and quit in the first year because they were too limiting what they could explore. Ti had been studying Blavatsky's materials and things like the Mahatma Letters and materials about the ascended masters.

Upon meeting Ti recognized that Do was someone she had something to do with and at first Do thought she was interested him in a human way and wasn't too keen on it, but also felt he wanted to pursue astrology, his chart and other things she was interested in. Soon they started the Christian Arts Center in the Christian University basement where Do worked but as they were exploring most anything spiritual, they were asked to leave. So they started another center called "KnowPlace" and had some participants while their friends and family and colleagues thought they were having an affair and were being detrimentally influenced by one another.

It got so bad that Ti's "husband" threatened Do and they got a court order against his coming near Do. They met in late March or early April of 1972. By January 1, 1973 they knew they had to leave all behind to find out what it was they had to do together as the only thing they really had in common was a close relationship with their Heavenly Father.

They went to a farmhouse in Boerne, Texas and that's where they spent a little less than 6 weeks studying everything they could get their hands on that was spiritual and is where they both started to get the same impressions independent of the other, when they were off in different directions. They never did have any physical relationship and were never “bed partners” at all. Neither were interested in the other in that way and both had no desire for that behavior at that time especially.

The impressions they got were that they had both, their souls, come from outer space and had some updates to the Bible and were here to fulfill prophecy. They began to write a book called, “I Can't Believe That But You Must” but didn't complete it and were having a hard time believing this about themselves so was a big painful adjustment to accept. They decided to travel to try to learn what prophecy they were to fulfill so they studied all the books they could find and some months later while camping on the Rogue River, at Gold Beach, Oregon they got the greater part of the picture into their heads. They knew that they were to fulfill the prophecy of the Two Witnesses in the Book of Revelations. They had a hard time accepting that because they always wanted to run the other way when someone would tell them they were the reincarnation of Cleopatra or some other Biblical figure.

They traveled across the U.S. leaving little notes for preachers saying, “the two witnesses were here” and then running out the door before having to talk to anyone. They went to a new age center to talk to the centers leaders and were told the centers leaders were the Two Witnesses so they couldn't be. That threw them for a loop and they didn't say that anymore.

Back when they had Knowplace, they had a student of sorts and they would occasionally meet this person in their travels and she offered them the use of a gasoline credit card which they used a bit. They had been working odd jobs to live off of. When they were in St. Louis on Christmas night their car broke down and Do pulled out one of his old credit cards that he knew was still good and used it to rent a car. They drove it quite a bit and ended up keeping it beyond the agreed upon time and they would write to the rental car company telling them they would pay for it and were taking good care of it. However, the car company reported the car stolen.

Ti and Do were in Brownsville, Texas when they decided to break their story to the press. They called a reporter and told them they had a big story for him and told them where they were in a motel. The reporter thought it had to do with drug trafficking so called the police and they surrounded the motel. Ti and Do were already a little paranoid so tried to drive away and were apprehended and it was discovered that they had warrants for both their arrests as the gasoline credit card was reported stolen by the husband of the student who gave it to them. They were both in jail. Ti got out after about a month as the charges were dropped. Do's charges were dropped as well but the St. Louis prosecutor, knowing of Ti and Do's strange story decided to prosecute to make points towards his next election bid. As it ended up Do was in jail for 6 months when he was offered a plea of guilty that would be for time served or he could go to trial and take his chances. Since he wanted to get out, he pleaded guilty though he never stole anything though he and Ti did consider their choice to use the credit cards a mistake.

The benefit of Do being in jail was his writing what became their first statement of beliefs as follows:

=== STATEMENT I synopsis ===

What religions have sought to explain and lead us to believe in, has to do with what is above the human kingdom and what's been said about how to attain that kingdom. Some teach to adore a savior as about all there is to gaining the promised rewards which Ti and Do say is inaccurate, and they compare the "Process" of gaining entrance to "heaven" with the metamorphosis of a caterpillar to a butterfly. The caterpillar in this analogy is equivalent to a human being that is stimulated to separate from it's caterpillar world to isolate itself by spinning a cocoon, within which it is then dedicating all it's time and energy to changing into a butterfly that when it emerges is a new creature with totally new capabilities - it can now fly so is no longer limited to it's previous environment and even looks like it has taken an evolutionary step to a more advanced creature. Likewise they said, that a human who seeks only to become a member of the Next Evolutionary Kingdom must also complete a metamorphic changeover to become that new creature before it dies.

They went on to say that in the case of humans the opportunity to willfully evolve into a member of their Next Evolutionary Step comes in stages with about two thousand years in between and that the last stage was when Jesus, who was already a Member of this Next Level Above Human, was incarnate - in the flesh to teach and demonstrate how to give all one's energy to his "Father" in that kingdom through him, which he was sent to be the link to.

They said that the One who was a Member of that Next Kingdom forfeited his body of that Kingdom to enter a human female's womb to take over the body named Jesus to use to interface with those Souls who were nearing being born into his Kingdom, to show them and even provide them with proof, that when he overcame all aspects of the human world, his body had changed into a new creature that could even overcome being killed. (I'll add that he was killed by those who felt threatened by his presence and what he taught because a religion had formed around his previous incarnation in the body named Moses and that religion became in large part a dilution and distortion of the truth). They said that Jesus even stayed around for about 40 days after his resurrection from the dead to demonstrate his new changed over body's new attributes, i.e. appearing and disappearing (changing his vibrations) before their eyes while letting some touch his new body (so they knew it was still physical). This would be like the butterfly dwelling among caterpillars for a short while to show them what they could look forward to if they separated from their caterpillar like world to go through the metamorphosis. Jesus left them in a cloud of light (what humans call UFO's) to show how he travels and would return.

Then they explained that there were two individuals here now who also came from the Kingdom Above Human, incarnate again and who had awakened to their task to demonstrate the same proof of overcoming death. They said they were sent from that Above Human Kingdom by the "Father" to provide the same truth that was Jesus' but this time by two individuals from that Kingdom, to restate the truth Jesus took on that became his burden to endure, restore that meaning that had been since rendered inaccurate and show how any individual can become a member in their kingdom by the same process. They said this re-statement process or the demonstration would happen within months. They indicated they would also recover from their "death," aka to resurrect and would exit the earth's surface via a UFO so were telling the truth so anyone left behind will comprehend the formula.

They closed the statement by saying those who can believe this process and do it will be "lifted up" and "saved" from death literally and that if someone seeks these two while they are here they will fill you in on the details and assist those who wish to follow this "path."

=== end of Statement I synopsis ===

When Do was in jail, Ti got a nurses job back in Houston and saved enough to buy a car and they got back together and decided to mail out Statement One to New ages centers in California. One was sent to a meditation group in North Hollywood, California. The groups leader sent two of his students to meet with Ti and Do and in doing so invited them to come speak to their group. When they did, to a crowd of over a hundred in a house several dozen wanted to follow them which took them by surprise as they didn't think they were going to have followers and didn't really want them but decided they had to go with the flow. That's when they took the names, Bo and Peep because now they had some sheep.

They went to a campground and met with the couple dozen and others that came with them and spent some weeks meeting several times a day and after a few months decided to take their talk to others up the coast to the San Francisco bay area. The students held a meeting at Stanford and it was packed so they then held a meeting at Canada College and filled an auditorium twice and gained some more followers.

Students were required by Ti and Do to leave all behind to join with them. They said to not leave a mess but to wrap things up in 2-3 days and meet them at a campground where they would then go to the next area to hold a meeting. That next area was Waldport, Oregon where I had been living for several years. I attended the meeting and knew I wanted to join. I went around telling my friends I felt like I sat in front of the equivalent of Jesus. They never said they were Jesus because Jesus was the name of the physical vehicle an Older Member from the Next Level took to perform that task. They said they were from the same family as Jesus and bore the same truth and it was to be a type of repeat performance of dying and resurrecting that they called the “demonstration.”

Some 34 people joined from the Waldport meeting and because some had arranged for their two children to live with their biological father who lives in Portland area, the police were told the kids were being abandoned and that started an investigation and involved the press. This was September of 1975 and by October it hit the national news talking about the mysterious two people who were leading some to believe if they left everything they would rendezvous with a spacecraft, (a cloud of light), a UFO to go to Heaven by.

For a week or so there was a push to learn who these two were and finally they found their human names and that Do had been a convicted felon. Walter Cronkite announced it and Ti and Do who were in Las Vegas at the time felt “shot down by the press” and felt now that their reputations were ruined there was no sense going on. However after a couple days feeling subdued, they felt they got instruction from their Heavenly Father to keep going, so they went to their students who now were up to about 70 and told them the “two witnesses demonstration of death and resurrection” was canceled and they would understand if they didn't want to follow them anymore, since their demonstration of that proof was a big basis of their mission statement.

Well that didn't seem to phase any students. It didn't phase me as I didn't join based on seeing that proof. I simply knew this was for me, when all the other spiritual things I'd investigated since I was 16 and was now 24 didn't make any sense to me but this did.

The 70 of us were all camping at the Chain of Lakes camping area north of Chicago, where Ti and Do had sent us from the Colorado area where we'd held about 6-7 meetings and gained some more followers. When that news broke and Ti and Do decided to go on they traveled to Chicago to talk to us and in the process learned that two of our numbers were imposters who were writing a thesis on cults so infiltrated our group. Anyway it was pretty clear that being in a big group now that it was in every newspaper in the country was not going to work so Ti and Do split us up and sent us in different directions to hold more meetings. A number of us lost touch with Ti and Do for months but in strange ways managed to get back together. I had travel to Vermont and Boston to hold meetings with my partner and when our car broke down hitchhiked around holding meetings and went down to Brownsville and finally in a desperate attempt to know what to do I sort of screamed to my Heavenly Father and the next day or so ran into Ti and Do and their little group of 6 students who traveled with them in Oklahoma City where we saw a familiar poster at the library. Being on the road in the winter, libraries were a great place to stop and get warm and read the news, etc as we were still thinking we might get a signal that Ti and Do were still going to perform the demonstration.

So we were back with a group they assigned us to and held some more meetings until Ti said, “the harvest is over” on April 21, 1976. They told us to finish up the meetings we had scheduled and then by July 4th we had all been called to gather in Wyoming at the Veedavou rustic camping area in the Medicine Bow National forest just east of Laramie, Wyoming.

There were about 100 students who stayed in the group. Three were probably at least double that who initially joined but dropped out for one reason or another. That ended our “recruitment” period and Ti and Do said it was time to get down to the business of the “overcoming of humanness process.” Before that winter Ti and Do sent 19 students away from the larger group and told us who remained we made the “first cut.”

We spend the next 3 or so years living outdoors between Wyoming in the spring to summer and in south Texas in the fall and winter. We had a tent city at one point with generators for lights and lived mostly in the last couple years on ranch lands Ti and Do would arrange to lease. When the money ran out that had been gathered when people joined and had something to donate, that paid for 100 of us for food, gas, toiletries, etc. some of us were instructed by Ti and Do to get jobs, but not to do something we'd done before so not to relate to the past. We needed to put our past behind us in order to begin to put all our energy into our changing ourselves into the new creature, the “butterfly.”

We moved into houses and people would drop out ever so often, leaving in the middle of the night usually. No one was held against their will. There were no children and no relationships and no sexuality and no drugs or alcohol or smoking or music or anything we did before, but we had pleasures - they just needed to be pleasures Ti and Do designed for us. Every year or so Ti and Do would require each of us to spend some time evaluating if there was something in the world we still wanted.

Ti left her vehicle in 1985. It was diagnosed as cancer in her liver. Two years before her exit she had an eye removed that was cancerous. When she left it was a surprise and some were put to the test of whether they still believed in who they were and their overcoming process. To the core believers it didn't shake their faith. Do said that Ti's human vehicle burnt out dealing with all the negativity from those in the world who we students left behind who blamed Them for. There was a lot of truth to that as before Ti left she had us visit with those that were stressed at our absence from their lives. I traveled to NYC area and visited for the first time since I joined and it was a good visit over a weekend. Ti and Do flew us all over the country. The task was to help relieve the anxiety others had at our absence. There was a lot of anxiety we learned as there was a network of parents set up to try to learn where we were. And there were several private investigators sent out to find us but who failed. As it turned out we'd move to another city just in time to miss when an investigator got to the town we were in. We learned this from our visits.

Then in 1987 while our numbers were down to the 30's Do felt like we "needed to be who we are" - in other words he needed to stand up for being the return of the same soul who had been incarnate in the vehicle named Jesus and the students needed to stand up for being the Souls who had been Jesus' students. However, Do didn't know how we were to do this so he began to explore. That's when we began to study the material that was coming out about the UFO and Space Alien phenomena. It was 1988 while living north of Dallas, Texas in a ranch house on a cattle ranch that Do felt to write what would be called the "88 Update - The UFO Two and Their Crew" that was to "set the record straight" as there was so much misinformation about Ti and Do from 1975 and thereafter.

I'm going to end this little summary there. Do's 88update provides a great deal more to see and understand and throughout this book I also fill in many details that include what took place until they exited in 1997 and thereafter to date.

I contend and offer significant evidence that Ti and Do were unlike all others who are considered by the mainstream community to be so called typical "cult leaders." One huge evidence was how they only had us provide Their information to the public in a face to face way via public meetings for two approximate nine-month periods with about seventeen years in between, unlike most every other organization who were constantly recruiting:

Ti and Do only spoke at public meetings for about nine months from August of 1975 to April of 1976. (Students held publically advertised meetings a little before then and until June of 1976). Before that they were criss-crossing the country telling people the Information they were receiving and digesting that included knowing who they were for the delivery and application of that Information and how their task was described in the Book of Revelations as the Two Witnesses. Starting in July of 1976 they took those who had joined and began the serious "Overcoming Process," which also ended up looking like a vetting of the seriousness of each student.

Before 1976, the first thing Do told a group of four students, including myself, literally days after leaving our world behind, was that it would be unlikely that all of us would make it. When I heard that, part of me thought I could do it but it wasn't like I was bent on proving that at that moment and another part of me wondered why, so I just logged it. I believe I was the only one of those four who stayed the course, though I too dropped out in 1994, though it's not over for anyone if they seek to petition the Next Level for their own stepwise process to engage their separation from and overcoming of the human kingdom.

Now it's time for the scriptural evidence that Ti and Do were the return of the Ones called the Father and Jehovah and the One who was incarnate as Adam, Enoch, Moses, Elijah, Jesus and then Do as prophesied:

II. JESUS PROPHECY OF THE RETURN OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD/HEAVEN

II.A. THE UNOBSERVABLE (THROUGH INSPECTION BY EYESIGHT), IN SECRET AS “A THIEF IN THE NIGHT” (UNDERCOVER) RETURN OF THE FATHER, THE SON (LAMB), JESUS AND THEIR STUDENTS, THE “SAINTS” (ANGELS) IN FLESH (CARNAL) HUMAN BODIES

II.A.1. JESUS SAY’S “The kingdom of God cometh not with observation,” Luk 17:21

Jesus was very clear that the return is not observable through inspection or analysis implying it won't be visibly detected because that's perhaps the biggest way humans experience reality. Those who see his coming do so by seeing from within themselves if they are prepared and watching.

Luk 17:20 And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation:

Luk 17:21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you.

However he told his disciples who he did explain some of the mysteries of the Kingdom of God to, rather than talking in parables that they, speaking to their minds, as their vehicles would die, SHALL SEE HIM, which is the eyesight seeing, but includes understanding what they are seeing because they would know their shepherd's voice - that entails recognizing the same way of thinking their Souls had experienced while incarnate with Jesus. In other words he would be in the flesh and what he said to them would make sense to them while others will think it absurd or insane or naive or over complicated.

That is because the return is of individuals encompasses taking a human body for the task as Jesus did and as Moses said would be the case in the One he said would be coming next, after he had exited.

The signs of his coming are what are observable with our eyes and mind that includes what we witness happening in the sky and heaven's and with world events that involve people and their nation states and in terms of geological events such as shaking up of the literal Earth (earthquakes) as well as shaking up of nations and people's lives (wars, famines, etc.).

However, another misinterpretation is thinking that the entire Kingdom of God can be WITHIN any one person. Jesus used the illustration of a Kingdom, not only to describe the authority they have over the human kingdom but because as with a human kingdom, it's "MANY MEMBERED" and the members have physical bodies, the reason Jesus told his disciples shortly before he instigated his own capture and execution that when he left he would "prepare a place for you" in one of the "many dwelling places" (mansions) that are all considered to be his "Father's house" as he also said. Within meant that you would recognize the Kingdom of God/Heaven's return because you have their "holy Mind, aka Spirit" in you, not because of what you see with your eyes that might inform you that it's the Kingdom of God you are observing.

II.A.2. "SON OF MAN" IS A PHRASE THAT JESUS USED TO IDENTIFY HIMSELF IN ARAMAIC AS A CHILD (SON) KIN OF GOD (HIS HUSBAND) WHILE OF A MORTAL

"Son of Man" is how Jesus referred to himself while incarnate and in his return and in certain passages in Revelations regarding He and his Kingdom's return and revealing. Here is one of many quotes of Jesus referring to his return as the Son of Man's return in a third party way, because he knew it was a task that would require another incarnation to fulfill. Sometimes when a Member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven comes to teach a new “experiential classroom” they, as Do would say, put their existing Next Level physical body “in a closet” so they, as an EXISTING SOUL can, in that “undercover” way, invisible to humans, enter into a human vehicle they prepared (tagged) for their usage, which is what a SON (CHILD/KIN) OF MAN (EXIST/HUSBAND) VIA (HU)MAN INCARNATION describes as the setting at the time when life on earth is compared to the story of Lot at Sodom and Gomorrah:

Luk 17:28 Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded;

Luk 17:29 But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

Luk 17:30 Even thus shall it be in the day ((time, (judgment) day, return event)) when the Son of man is revealed ((601 apokalupto from apo 575 and kalupto 2572; to take off the cover, i.e. disclose))

It's not coincidental that it is through the Book of Revelations that describes how the Son of Man is uncovered, disclosed (revealed) as said in:

Rev 1:1 The Revelation ((602 apokalupsis from apokalupto 601; disclosure, appearing, coming, lighten, manifestation, be revealed, revelation.)) of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:

This disclosure, revealing, uncovering of the truth is what the Seven Seals are provided to time-stamp as they occur. It's important to note the progression and how and when the Seals apply, as the Prophecy time of the Two Witnesses is not during one of the Seal Openings, but are before and are the lead up and foundation to the First Seal Opening in Rev 6:1-2, which is the primary “revealing of the Son of Man.”

In fact, the Son of Man Revealing is exactly what the Two Witnesses are providing their Testimony in words (prophecy) of. As Ti said to Do, a number of times while they were awakening in 1973+, before they had students, (that Do was always puzzled to hear), that I Sawyer recall Do describing (and is probably on an audio meeting tape), “I'm here to get you started and then I'm going back.” Do said he couldn't imagine Ti was talking about going back to her human vehicle's family and life, yet thought then they would be leaving together, which was only updated for sure when Ti left her vehicle on June 19, 1985.

At Ti's exit of the human vehicle he took, the period of birthing Do to the Throne, that began when they met in 1972 and served on the Throne together as a team was completed. (Rev 12). It was Ti who provided Witness Testimony to their Student body that Do was the return of the same Older Member Soul who had served in the vehicle named Jesus, while it was Do who provided Witness Testimony that Ti was his Older Member, Heavenly Father, the one who birthed him into their Kingdom of Heaven - Level Above Human during a previous order (civilization). (Jhn 17:5). In other words, Do told us that he realized that Ti was his Older Member (Father). Ti never said that. And it was Ti who told us, their students who Do was and instructed us to make our "commitment" to him.

As Jesus taught, one who comes to testify of himself is not a true witness (Jhn 5:31) which goes along with needing two witnesses to accuse someone of anything that goes back to the Jehovah/Moses first trimester "classroom" lessons. Note that for each trimester there were two in the flesh testifying of one another like check partners. There was Aaron and Moses and then John the Baptist and Jesus for the second trimester and finally Ti and Do for the third trimester that continues to date. Yet, Jesus knew that John the Baptist was still a student level Member of the Next Level - spoken of as a "man" in Joh 5:31-36. Jesus said to the Jews who sought to kill him that for them, his "work, business, task" given to him by the Father was to be witness of him and that the Father sent him because they hadn't heard the Father's voice nor seen the Father's shape. (Joh 5). But some of Jesus Students did hear the Father's voice on several occasions say "this is my son in whom I am well pleased" that some others standing around just heard as thunder. Some may have even seen the Father's shape on the Transfiguration mount when Jesus was instructed to bring his task to a close.

But in terms of the revealing of the Son of Man that Ti started by witnessing to Do as the one who was in the task of Jesus before, it would be nearly two years after Ti exited his vehicle, when half the classroom lived up the Boulder Canyon in Colorado on Lost Angel road, with Do's quarters over an old gold mine, that Do said to the whole Student body, "we need to be who we are” as the return of the one who was incarnate in the vehicle named Jesus and their Students who were with him then. That began the start of the examination of the book UFO Crash at Aztec which taught us a great deal about the crashes and the physiology of the occupants recovered in that crash that was said to have up to 18 bodies.

Do then began a Video project. A team of students, Lggody, Jwnody and Dncody were sent to an Arkansas UFO conference to interview on tape some of the speakers at the conference and to also contact certain popular figures in what became known as UFOlogy, like Linda Moulton Howe who specialized in the rash of Cattle mutilations in Colorado mostly in the 1970's. Bill English, Whitney Strieber and Bill Lear and others.

Then by October of 1988, having moved about 20 miles north of Dallas, Texas to a large ranch, Do had us self publish a little booklet entitled, “88 Update - The UFO Two and Their Crew” that Do said was to “set the record straight” from all the misinformation that had been written in the media about he and Ti - when they were going by the names Bo and Peep and in the press “The UFO Two.”

After that we moved to another location in Dallas where we began a health diet program taylored off of Dr. Christopher's mucousless diet that with additional study and application of variations became a book we published entitled, “Transfiguration Diet” under the name, “littlegreen inc.'s think tank” that described how diet and positive thinking could re-program genetic characteristics. (I'm actually using that diet right now to treat Lyme's disease I contracted from a tick bite, and so far it's keeping the disease symptoms that crippled me at bay. It's basically a gluten free, sugar free, vegan diet with a majority of raw fruits and vegetables and slow cooked grains and lots of garlic, extra virgin olive oil and supplements I am especially feeling are helping, drinking Cayenne water three times a day, working up to a teaspoon of Cayenne to about 8 ounces of water for each dosage, followed by 1 tablespoon of unfiltered Apple Cider Vinegar and 1 teaspoon of unsulphered Black strap or equivalent molasses also three times a day.

Then in late 1991-1992 the “Son of Man” (Do) began a 12 hour video series called, “Beyond Human - The Last Call” where students, including my face were used as helpers for Do. I believe these were the remainder of the Seven Thunders (Rev 6, 10) which began with Ti and Do's witness testimony as the first thunder.

On May 27, 1993 a third of a page Ad/Statement packed in small type was placed in the national and international editions of the newspaper USA Today entitled, "'UFO CULT" RESURFACES WITH FINAL OFFER' with similar ads put in twenty-three alternative New Age styled periodicals in the U.S., Canada, England, Scotland, Australia and New Zealand.

Starting in 1994 the classroom Students held 75 public meetings in most every big western U.S. City and in Colorado to Texas to Maine and Florida - 63 locations over about nine months - I believe was the 5th Thunder.

As the Sixth Thunder Do wrote a document published to 95 specific newsgroups on the Internet entitled, 'UNDERCOVER "JESUS" SURFACES BEFORE DEPARTURE' where Do first states directly that he was the "return" of Jesus. The name is put in quotes because he's not wearing the same vehicle that was named "Jesus."

The Seventh Thunder was their publish of a book that is an anthology of all their materials entitled, "How and When "Heaven's Gate" (The Door to the Physical Kingdom Level Above Human) May Be Entered," (Purple Book), which also became a web site, still available at Heavensgate.com (though I caution you from looking to the two former classmates who are the webmasters as they have regularly given interviews where they have made up things that Ti and Do didn't teach. These two were actually cast out of the classroom in 1987 because they didn't want to abide by all the instructions, with a focus on the "I could be wrong" lesson step, but they stayed in touch and wanted to serve from their home so Do and Crew took them up on it and gave them the logistical things to manage, which they have since seemed to make into the start of a new watered down religion telling the press things like "There is no Heaven or Hell" that Ti and Do would never have said or approved of. I'm not their judge and I have spoke out against the many inaccuracies they have given to various press organizations so we are not on the best of terms but as long as they live they still have the option to correct the misinformation seeds they have sown. The last part of the Seventh Thunder was their voluntary exit of their human vehicles by March 23, 1997 seen by the world as the Heaven's Gate Cult.

Their exit from their vehicles and shortly thereafter from the near earth vicinity marks their graduation from the Human Kingdom, aka their Overcoming or Conquering of the human World as described headed by Do as their “Spirit Birth” “midwife” in Rev 6:1-2. The Bow represents the covenant (rainbow) and the “litter of souls” He ushers through their birth canal into Membership in the Level Above Human - Kingdom of Heaven.

The “backside” (history as in the Bible) revealing continues with this Little Book to reveal the meaning to all Jesus prophecy and the Book of Revelations to begin the opening of the fourth SEAL as of 2017 to uncover all that was kept secret before now.)

The following usages of the return of the Son of Man seem to have certain different time frame applications described with each example.

These next two verse are interesting in light of how Ti and Do's vehicles' picture was on the NY Times Magazine cover on Feb 29, 1976 (with the article inside entitled, “Looking for the Next World” by James S. Phelan that showed Ti (Peep) sitting and Do was standing to Ti's RIGHT side. That was exactly a fulfillment of the literal part of these prophecies. These verses seem to announce the opening of the Heaven's gate. Then saying the Son of Man is “standing” besides it's literal standing refers to how to “stand up again” is one of several related meaning of “resurrection” which they were doing by speaking publicly (prophecy) - “Standing up again” as Representatives from the Evolutionary Level Above Human aka The Kingdom of God, Kingdom of Heaven:

Act 7:56 And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God.

Luk 22:69 Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

These next two verses are not in chronological order.

Mrk 14:62 And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

This verse seems to depict two parts to the return. The first as the Son of Man sitting meaning having the position or task - work as right hand man to “power” which is also referred to as God the Father. The second part indicates the same Son of Man coming in the clouds of/from Heaven which seems to point to the return (Rev 6:16, 14:14 and 19:11-14) where he is not incarnate but is seen in a way Do described as being possible to be the showing of an “Armada of spacecrafts”, “by the thousands”, even “coming in shifts”, I believe in apparent view with one's naked eyes (as opposed to through a telescope, or NASA images).

Mrk 13:26 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.

This depicts the comet Sign's that are visible with the naked eye in the western hemisphere that accompany His/Their return and exit:

Luk 17:24 For as the lightning, that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall also the Son of man be in his day.

Mat 24:27 For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

Again the reference to the incarnate time and the “in the heaven's” view:

Mat 26:64 Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

Coming in his glory would not be a reference to the incarnate time as he gets not glory at that time (except from his students) but also his Angels at this point are also sitting on the Throne with him which refers to how that graduate angels become assistants in the judgment and pulling up of the Tares which is not the incarnate time:

Mat 25:31 When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory:

This seems to depict the great comet sign, in this case perhaps Hale Bopp which did stimulate a type of “mourning” at the voluntary laying down of the lives of Do and 38 students plus 4 in the next few months. This event is followed years later by that return while staying visible in the near heavens:

Mat 24:30 And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

This is referring to the judgment time when the rewards are given out so is not during the incarnate stage:

Mat 16:27 For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

This phrase was used before Jesus used it such as in:

Dan 7:13 I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.

The Ancient of Days is Jehovah, the Elohim, the One who Jesus called his Father in Heaven, because he wasn't incarnate then and who is evidenced as being Ti (Rev 12) throughout, shown in the rest of this book.

Dan 8:17 So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the vision.

Ezekiel received many communications from the Lord and was referred to by the Lord as “son of man.” That was because that's what they were. They were human beings born of woman as Jesus was also even though in Jesus case Do thought his vehicles mother Mary was inseminated without “fornication” - intercourse probably on board a spacecraft, (though not to be confused with the way the space aliens are doing the same kind of thing with the many insemination abduction reports. The space aliens are doing it as a facsimile of what the Next Level occasionally does, though it seems to be similar, though by the alien reports they largely still use mammalian sexual intercourse to facilitate where the Next Level wouldn't as there is a different result from different methods. This is not saying Jesus remained a human or was even ever a human who did the same things humans do throughout his vehicles upbringing and early adulthood before fully awakening, (his Next Level Mind/Spirit coming into the vehicle completely). Do indicated that the special preparation of the vehicle named Jesus helped him identify more closely with his Older Member who was operating from a heavenly abode, a nearby spacecraft.

There is a distinction between the English and Hebrew/Aramaic usage of the word “man.” I believe originally Ti and Do indicated a “man” was a Next Level Being. For instance Ti and Do said that Adam's vehicle was a Next Level Vehicle and Adam has among it's definitions “man” as in “human.” A distinction of the usage of “man” is shown here:

Numbers 23:19 God is not a man ((man = 376 'iysh= root meaning to be extant= existing)), that he should lie; neither the son of man ((120/119 Adam= be (dyed, made) red (ruddy))), that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good?

Rev 1:13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

Rev 14:14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

To clarify this further:

Gen 6:1 And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them,

Gen 6:2 That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose.

Gen 6:3 And the LORD said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years.

These verses depict the Fallen Angels impregnating the daughters of men (Adam= mankind) which is provided with more evidence in the Book of Enoch. Hare are therefore sons who are righteous before God and sons that are not. These “sons of God” are not referred to as “sons of man” because they are not incarnate. They have physical bodies provided to them by the Kingdom of God, but they are physical bodies that are still capable of reverse metamorphosis, as Adams was also. Thus “son” for Jesus and Ezekiel and Daniel meant “Son of God in flesh” because they all had human flesh vehicles as incarnation comes from the Latin “carne” which means “flesh” but were giving themselves in service to their God so were righteous.

This is also expressed here:

Luk 3:38 Which was the son of Enos, which was the son of Seth, which was the son of Adam, which was the son of God.

II.A.3. JESUS SAID HE WOULD HAVE A NEW NAME AND THAT HIS FATHER WOULD HAVE A NAME AND THE CITY OF GOD THAT IS THE NEW JERUSALEM WOULD ALSO HAVE A NEW NAME UPON HIS RETURN

Rev 3:12 Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.

He wasn't saying the actual new name of the “city of my God” would be “new Jerusalem.” He was saying the new name would be the new geographic location that would serve as the focal point for his gathering of his returning students, the “Saints” where they would also be taking new human bodies from. This ended up being a point of prophecy fulfillment #1 as Ti and Do gave their first talk to a group in Los Angeles, more specifically in North Hollywood (One of Isaiah's depictions of Jerusalem was the “valley of vision,” extended to the End Time, perhaps a reference to the Hollywood motion picture studios) in early April of 1975 where Do wrote that “several dozen” ended up leaving their lives behind to join with them as a result.

Members of the Kingdom of God give us names as an actual new “address” that will be useful after they exit as well when we want/need their help. The literal word itself is important but that together with knowing that they went back to their dwelling in the near or far literal heavens is knowing the location (area code) and/or phone number where they can be reached. Someone just calling out the name Jesus may be meaningless without knowing we are sending that call into the literal heavens and actually Jesus only told his disciples who knew him personally to call on his name, while in general saying call on the Father in Heaven.

It seems the Next Level gives names at times, even when not coming incarnate to help students recognize their individual reality and for an interface to make connections into the future, as the Souls keep being brought back by the Next Level to have their next lesson step. For instance, the Archangel Gabriel told Daniel that name and later was the One who delivered the messages to Mary and Zecharias re: the upcoming births of their offspring with a clue of who they would represent, as those vehicles grew up to serve as Jesus the Christ and John the Baptist. Incidentally, the same angel Gabriel was believed to be Muhammad's source for the 96th chapter of the Qur'an. That reminds me of how Jesus said he had “other sheep...not of this fold” to “also bring” who shall “hear my voice and there shall be one fold, one shepherd”; (Joh 10:16). Do spoke positively about both the core teachings in Buddhism, that to him sounded like it came from the Next Level, because of the renunciation of the world to include separation from one's human family to give their all to God and regarding Islam in their having more modesty in their clothing, which seemed a lot more reflective of Next Level teaching standards.

We know Jesus said, “For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many”(Mat 24:5). And as it says above, only those who are in the process of overcoming get his “God's” name written upon them. “God” to Jesus was a general title to identify Older Members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven, while “Father,” “Pater” in the Greek, but “Abba” in the Aramaic was the “name” of the specific person he was working for that had the task of parenting him to also becoming a “Father” to their students, Jesus said his Father gave him.

So “Father” became the English translation but Jesus, when he taught his disciples to “pray” - (petition help and understanding and to be in the service of), indicated we should use the address of the literal heaven's - the elevated areas of the star scape in our minds image. (When you pray, say Our Father who is in the Heaven). This is exactly what Ti and Do taught us (at first) saying to send our prayers to the same Heavenly Father and explained that to avoid having that communication intercepted by all the discarnates that are eager to be “God” or “Jesus” to you we should be sure to have in our image our communication being sent as far away from Earth as one can imagine - the literal outer space heavens.

Do later said that the space aliens really were not “space” aliens as they actually can only travel a very small distance away from Earth, that is once they were allowed to arrive to the Earth vicinity. That is speaking to those that came from nearby star systems originally, whenever it was that took place, which Ti and Do did indicate occurred. Ti and Do said that those that were permitted to come to this area were given the choice by the Next Level to give up their current physical bodies to join them on the surface of the planet in the “overcoming of humanness classroom” they were about to continue in it's next “trimester” of the overall Mind/spirit (Soul) birthing process. It seemed to me possible that these space aliens had student model Next Level grown vehicles.

Jesus said that every member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven is greater than the greatest human. Ti and Do said every member of the Next Level was a “God” to a human but they also said that there were older and younger members in the Next Level and that there was a Chief of Chiefs, as the greatest member of the Next Level. They also said, we would only be able to better understand where the Chief came from when we became members of the Next Level because our human brains were just not equip to understand it.

II.A.4. RESURRECTION - TO STAND UP OR RISE AGAIN - INCARNAL (FLESH) AGAIN - (REINCARNATION), BORN AGAIN OF WATER AND BORN OF SPIRIT/MIND

Here are the main scriptural records that describe the fact that there is a reality to Souls returning to “stand up again” in a new human body and what that actually entails.

Resurrection is an English term that according to Strongs Greek to English dictionary comes from the Greek:

386 anastasis from anistemi 450; A STANDING UP AGAIN, i.e. (literally) a resurrection from death (individual, genitive case or by implication, (its author)), or (as a figure) a (moral) recovery (of spiritual truth)= RAISED TO LIFE AGAIN, resurrection, rise from the dead, that should rise, rising again.

This is then the opposite of “laying down one's life” - falling prostrate.

II.A.4.a. ACCORDING TO TI AND DO, “REINCARNATION” AS IT’S

TAUGHT BY EASTERN RELIGIONS OF HINDU AND BUDDHIST ORIGINS IS NOT ACCURATE. IT INCLUDES STANDING UP AGAIN WHICH IS DEFINED AS PERFORMING SERVICE TO ONES OLDER MEMBER FROM THE NEXT LEVEL SHOWN AS THE DELIVERY OF PROPHECY

Incarnate, is from the Latin “carne” which means “flesh,” thus saying someone is to be incarnate is to say their essence whether Soul or Spirit seeks to embed itself into a FLESH BODY. The word “incarnate” in any form is not to be found in the New or Old Testaments. The words that were used were translated to Resurrect - become ERECT AGAIN, or to “STAND UP AGAIN” as opposed to lying down dead, spoken of sometimes as a sleep state.

As Paul of Tarsus also stated accurately, each human body has it's own developing spirit, Ti and Do called the vehicles mind, that they said was synonymous with spirit. A Soul on the other hand is different altogether. It is a specially designed “container” Do first called a “pillow case” or “pocket” that has some Next Level Kingdom of God/Heaven mind “programs” pre-installed, just like a seed comes with pre-installed “genetic code” that instructs it's development possibilities given the supportive environment. This is thereby related to the parable Jesus gave that illustrated the Kingdom of God/Heaven as seeders where the devil is also seeding, the difference not apparent except to the angelic harvesters at the end of the age, who eventually remove the TARES and leave the WHEAT to be harvested into the barn later. I believe this process is in motion now but will escalate with the fourth horse of the apocalypse, as it's called in Rev 6, the “GREEN” horse that is translated in most Bibles to “Pale Horse” inaccurately.

TI AND DO SAID THAT A SOUL CONTAINER WAS A GIFT and they said these were “deposited” in a human vehicle that can then become awakened by an incarnate Older Member's voice/words when they are talking publicly (prophecy) - the Two Witnesses, though the students of the Two Witnesses also carry the Two's prophecy.

TO PROPHECY REQUIRES HAVING A PHYSICAL BODY TO SPEAK THROUGH as just illustrated the biggest delivery of words inspired by the Next Level is evident as performed by the Two Witnesses. Another primary depiction of someone delivering prophecy is described in Rev 10 that speaks of the Little Book being prophesied:

Rev 10:11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

This is described as occurring after the Two Witnesses and Crew have ascended, during the time of the Seventh Angels sounding. Another delivery of Prophecy is stated as “to preach” to those that dwell on earth which requires a human physical vehicle to implement (and angels don't have human physical vehicles), so this is showing the provision of the information to speak about, the timing of which is after the FIRST Fruit was redeemed - the graduation of Ti and Do's students in 1997:

Note it's in the midheaven that this gospel is preached. I believe that indicates primarily what today is the internet that is international.

Rev 14:6 And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach ((euaggeliz= bring, declare good or glad tidings/news)) unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,

Rev 14:7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

Yet a third indication of the delivery of prophecy that is defined specifically as a testimony of Jesus, thus indicating showing light, bringing out of obscurity the real teachings of Jesus that had morphed into a false Jesus represented by in large by Christianity. (Note that John is implemented as a deliverer of this prophecy in Rev 10:7-11 and in Rev 19:10, which shows a task as opposed to being the same disciple of Jesus who was named John who was given these Revelations prophecies to write down):

Rev 19:10 And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

II.A.4.b. BORN OF WATER = BORN OF FLESH - WHICH IS A PROCESS OF “STANDING UP IN” (TAKING OVER) A HUMAN VEHICLE

According to Jesus and Ti and Do, a Soul needs to have a repeated human experience to overcome/conquer, aka prevail against their human mammalian characteristics, roots and desires. Jesus spoke of this new human experience as the need for a “water birth” in order to have a “spirit/mind or Soul birth.” (spirit and mind and Soul are often said using the same Greek word, pneuma).

WHAT “BORN AGAIN” REALLY MEANT - Jesus told his disciples they must be literally born of flesh again in order to be BORN OF SPIRIT/MIND, SOUL - NOT ONLY A STATE OF MIND

Joh 3:3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

Joh 3:4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

Joh 3:5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

BORN OF WATER MEANT TO BE BORN INTO A HUMAN FLESH WOMB THAT IS SUSPENDED IN WATER. Water was also representative of the human kingdom.

Born of water also means that one uses a human body to accomplish being born of Mind/Spirit. In other words, to be born of Mind/Spirit one must Overcome the human world by taking full control over our human flesh body, not allowing it to do anything our Older Members instruct us to not do which is compounded each time a Representative from the Kingdom of God/Heaven comes incarnate and adds to the program coursework requirements.

TI AND DO SAID THIS PROCESS IS VERY MUCH LIKE AN ASTRONAUT TRAINING PROGRAM, except the astronauts will cease to be human when they are done as to be useful and trusted on a spacecraft means they have to prove themselves before they pass the course and they are given many opportunities to pass the course, which encompasses thousands of human/Earth years.

TI AND DO ALSO COMPARED THE “BORN OF WATER” TO THAT OF THE WAY A HUMAN IS LIKE A CATERPILLAR who at the appointed time, that in this case is set by the Next Level's arrival of Representatives incarnate that announce their arrival and the program criteria, starts to spin it's cocoon. In doing so it is removing and isolating itself from the former world they had circulated in to focus all their energy on changing into a new creature. This is comparable to the Older Members when offering their overcoming process, by the strength and truth of their offer, attracting those human vehicles they previously had prepared, by giving them a “deposit” (seed) of Their MIND that they then nurture when they hear about or meet up with them and eventually become their full time students.

Ti and Do took the body of believers to the wilderness as it states in Rev 12, which was in Wyoming in the summer to escape the heat and in Texas in the winter to escape the harsh Wyoming winter. That was for the first 3 years or so. Then the environment shifted to suburban houses largely in Texas and Colorado and then New Mexico, Arizona and California. (The overall New Temple area of the world.) They compared the chrysalis condition, the process of metamorphosis of a caterpillar to a butterfly to “body changes” in their students. The students were taught in detail how to change their human body and brain into obedient instruments of their New Mind/spirit (provided to them word by word from their Older Members) they were filling into their Soul bodies by adhering to the teachers instructed Next Level behaviors and ways necessary to accomplish the program.

Jesus clarifies that he is talking about a flesh body they were going to be required to have again as it's necessary to this process, the Kingdom of God/Heaven set up, to accomplish their form of birthing of new members into their Evolutionary (not Darwinian) Level Above Human.

Joh 3:6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

Joh 3:7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

Then because they were puzzled understandably, he reiterates what he is talking about by comparing “Spirit” with the wind. We know the wind exists. We can feel it and see how it affects solid matter around us, yet we have no idea what stimulates it and whether it's going to shift (which as any weather reporter will tell you they see over and over again). So he's simply saying that one born of Spirit is still physical but you just won't be able to see them.

Joh 3:8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

Thus Jesus' disciples are coming back to have a new flesh experience to be BORN OF SPIRIT from.

Ti and Do said that all Souls who have had any significant relationship with the Next Level in times past would be returning at this time to take their next step towards graduation.

II.A.4.c. WHAT CHRISTIANS SAY ABOUT BEING “BORN AGAIN” AND “SAVED” HAS IT’S APPLICATION BUT HAS BECOME SO DISTORTED IS NO LONGER REFLECTIVE OF FATHER AND JESUS MIND/SPIRIT INTENTION

Many Christians will say that born of spirit means it's a mental birth accomplished by accepting Jesus as one's Lord and Savior, confessing that before fellow humans and repenting of one's sins and allowing themselves to be “saved” by that because Jesus did the work part by dying on the cross for us.

I don't disagree with any of this as “accepting Jesus” is belief in him and that is a mental choice. Confessing before others is not the Catholic confession and that's actually not the best word but it has to do with giving service to Jesus by telling others about him, thus the evangelical movement, though they don't actually tell others about the real Jesus except in general ways. Most quote scripture which is not a bad thing except if it's not relating to people the real nuts and bolts of overcoming the human world through his teachings so it then serves to turn people away from the truth.

Many Christian Evangelical movements are largely out to covert people and it's even seen as a type of sport - the more converts the more they think of themselves as successful, when to the Kingdom of God/Heaven it's never been about numbers and believers at any cost. So much of what Jesus said is forgotten, ignored, avoided, misconstrued to not be meant literal when the evidence is that he was mostly literal when speaking to his disciples and at other times communicated in figures or by telling a story (parable, proverb).

Furthermore, repenting of one's sins is correct but repentance means to “change your mind” where your mind is the way you think and of course what you do from what you think that needs to change. That's why Jesus said, if you love me you will keep my sayings. Thus those that say they love Jesus really need to examine all of his sayings and see how they can “change their mind” to his mind, but that becomes harder and harder to even consider let alone do when one has become entrenched in their ideas and the CONFIDENCE they are already on the fast track to the Kingdom of God/Heaven.

Ti and Do indicated that Christianity is more or less a “country club religion.” (That's not to say it or any religion or spiritual group participation has no value. It's simply that one can and must outgrow - see through the inaccuracies in what such organizations offer, that is in terms of teachings about the One True Kingdom of Gods in the literal Heavens. The organization that forms around the teachings of a former incarnate member of the Next Level becomes a distortion and dilution of what that Older Member taught, gradually making it more and more attractive to make into a path more and more people can easily follow. The hierarchies of these organizations can't actually advance their own overcoming of humanness and most often just fill themselves with that boog-a-boo called, “liking to feel special,” what Jesus spoke about the priests in Judaic sects that loved wearing the special garments and sitting in certain chairs set up for them and getting the greetings in the marketplace, being looked up to by those who were “lessor” because they hadn't joined the priesthood. Then they think it's their duty to protect parishioners from those they deem charlatans, heretics or false prophets when the true teachings are delivered. That's the same condition we are about to engage in the provision of this Little Book as some will seek to put a stop to their parishioners getting a hold of it. This is the lesson step for those who Stand for Ti and Do to endure until they exit and be rewarded for so doing, just as Jesus said, about how the religious would be those who seek to kill you, (speaking to his disciples) as they have the most to lose.

So one is a member of a religion and is taught their standards and various interpretations and then assume they will be “saved” and/or will be among the first to recognize Jesus return and to reap the promised rewards in heaven, while missing nearly the entire picture Jesus was actually portraying. Being “Saved” is because of beginning to graft to one who can put your name so to speak in the book of life. However, that doesn't insure you will stay in the book of life. You will as far as the Kingdom of God is concerned but if you become someone who clings to the last lesson plans when the new lesson plan is being shown, you won't be able to “rise out of” your old mindset and ways. Rising out of the old mindset is not showing disregard for them as the new mindset being presented when the genuine Older Members return incorporates all the thinking, behavior and ways of the old mindset. It's like Moses was teaching to crawl, Jesus to walk and start to run and Ti and Do to run giving it all you got.

Belief in the last sent incarnate Representative from the Kingdom of God/Heaven is crucial to the first steps towards graduation into the Kingdom of Heaven but if belief doesn't become service in the form of “doing the things required by them to be their student/disciple then one's belief becomes of little consequence and thus would not reap the promised rewards either. Granted one has to recognize the current representatives physical incarnate presence during or after they have left by the teachings they leave behind, but if we are so convinced he must come in certain ways that are not reflective of how he has come before, saying things or not saying things representatives said before and requiring of us what they required of their students before then how can we expect to know HE/THEY have come? That's why Jesus said to keep lamps full with oil that enables us to SEE by. That's what standing watch for the bridegroom meant then and means now.

Now in case someone is reading this that thinks belief is all about getting the rewards as if Jesus or Ti and Do were holding a carrot in front of our eyes, they are sadly mistaken. I can't speak for everyone of course but I don't think anyone who chooses to believe because they hope for the reward will be able to stand the tests. In fact, this is exactly why Ti and Do said and did things that really faced students with whether they really felt the needed connection to them. If anyone thinks it's at all easy to literally give your mind away consciously day by day with minimal gratifications or human justifications along the way, they simply don't have that experience, nor would I expect them to, as I certainly didn't have it and it took me 19 years with Ti and Do's process and then 10 years after that to clearly identify my resistance yet Ti told me the three things I needed to conquer before I would be permitted on the spacecraft.

She wrote in a note to me that I was

1) “A little too pleased with self”

- 2) “Likes to be seen as special”
- 3) “Sarcastic with humans”

Use of the word, “humans” applied to those who were not in our overcoming of humanness classroom at the jobs we worked over the years. Mostly in the early years I was a cook, a waiter, baker and pastry maker for about five years before Ti and Do encouraged us to seek office jobs so we would all have weekends free and earn more “sticks” (money) for our labor as we were not supported by donations except in the first 5-6 years when certain students were able to secure trust funds. When the head cooks on the line would get stressed sometimes they would let off steam with expletives or yelling at the wait staff and/or at me and I would try to coach them on keeping their cool and I'm sure the way I did that, sarcastically, as if I was this superior being who could maintain control and they weren't and couldn't infuriated them even more. This happened at three jobs if I recall and one of them I was let go from because of how the cook I was tangling with was the head Chef's son. The chef liked me and even offered me a chef's job at another country club so his son wouldn't have me around with my squeaky clean ways, but it was too far away from the classroom to commute so I turned it down and he later told me he had to let me go because it was either supporting me or his son. That was in Amarillo, Texas. I suspect I learned that lesson but one can never be confident that a stronger test will not come along at any moment. Actually it has come up dealing with my teen age daughter and her friends at times though it's not exactly the same. The point is I lacked the self control to not lash out or give advise that would be seen as lashing out, however subtly.

The other two areas became apparent as well and still are but I'll save them for another time. I have posted on this subject on my blog:

Sawyer's Blog.

<http://www.sawyerhg.wordpress.com/>

So belief is just a very first step and it has to be belief in the current representative for there to be continued harvest-ability potential. Someone who believes in the real Jesus will if they give themselves a chance SEE all the same characteristics in Ti and Do and they won't see ALL those characteristics in anyone else on the planet since Jesus. By characteristics I am not talking about performing miracles because remember Jesus said that it would be the false Christs that show the signs and wonders upon his return.

A FALSE Christ IS ANYONE WHO DOESN'T TEACH THE REAL JESUS MESSAGE IN IT'S ENTIRETY. It isn't just someone who would claim to be a "Christ" or to be Jesus himself returning, but would also be a false Christ if they believe in and/or teach something different than what Jesus actually said/taught even though they think they are teaching what he said and did or are teaching parts of what he said and did and using the name Jesus or Lord in the process. Those are all false Christs and though I'm not trying to offend anyone most Christians have bought a false idea of the real Jesus which will become more and more apparent by reading the rest of this book, whether you believe in Ti and Do or not. Now, whether you believe in a false image of Jesus Christ or not, it's not too late to see the real deal. If you are a person that wants to know the truth then you will be willing to "change your mind" (repent) though it will be challenging to do, though perhaps if you are reading this book, you have already come a long way in getting rid of old mind so that much of what's being shared here sounds familiar because of.

II.A.4.d. JESUS HAVING A NEW NAME THUS HAVING A NEW "SON OF MAN" BODY IS ANOTHER PROOF THAT HE IS RESURRECTING, RE-INCARNATING

That phrase "Son of Man" is a reference to being a "Son of God in flesh" from Adam's genetic strain while it also refers to Man as an Older Member from the Kingdom of God/Heaven where human is a hue, or shade of that "man."

Rev 3:12 Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.

So if Jesus WAS before he was Jesus he is an example of proof that members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven when they return take a new physical body.

It's true that once someone has formed a bond with their Older Member by sticking with the Older Member's program, that is always a constant progression of behavior and ways, the final result will grow to make one's "eye single" as Jesus said and therefore "one's (Soul) body is at that point "full of light" and is thereby technically "enlightened," which is having become a "Christ" (anointed one). Then they will be TAKEN OUT of the “perennial” life/death cycle of the human genetic strain, the human tree which is taught by both Hindu and Buddhists. Where those religions have become distorted from their origins that initially came from the same Kingdom of God/Heaven is that to be “taken out” one literally needs to catch the eye of someone who has on a previous occasion on a garden equivalent to Earth overcome their human condition.

Overcoming can only be accomplished to completion when the Older Member is present aka incarnate to take each student through it as they must give their all to that true Teacher. That teacher is in communication with their Older Member (Their Teacher) who is on a spacecraft who then decides whether each student has sufficiently overcome and bonded with their incarnate Older Member. If they have bonded they are given a final exam of laying down their human vehicle according to the Older Members instruction which could be in the Jesus case by telling the truth to those who hate to hear it. When they lose their human vehicles life, their Soul container separates from the human vehicle and is met by Next Level invisible helpers to take them to their craft and new position of service in their new Next Level family.

This Overcoming Christing Process can not be done at home or with any human group as humans don't know what to teach and they all end up showing hypocrisy because even though some appear enlightened, they haven't met the criteria of giving themselves to another Being and importantly in non-religious and non-spiritual ways because even religion and spirituality are distortions of the unvarnished truth, even though they have many of the core truth still in place in their practice.

I could go point by point with this as I know there are many who subscribe to certain forms of Buddhist and/or Hindu practice that will believe they are or have overcome their humanness just like there are Christians that believe they are ready to leave all behind when Jesus comes or in the case of some Muslims when the Mahdi comes or for some Buddhists, the Maitreya and for some Jews, the Messiah, etc. And these may be ready but will they recognize the true highest masters voice when they hear it? It's being sounded now as the voice/words (song) from Ti and Do.

But the idea that human beings require a Soul to make a physical body live is a distortion of the fact that it is required that a Soul is given to any human being so that being can have the possibility of living eternally as a new Kingdom of God/Heaven member. That's not to say the Kingdom of God/heaven can not give a human being a "Soul pocket/container" at any time. I don't know if there are restrictions of when a Soul can be given another. However, anyone who gets upset with thinking that this makes people elitist to say some have Souls and some don't is not seeing the reality of this as no one in a human vehicle knows who has a Soul and who doesn't, even if their behavior and ways seem to indicate they do or don't. Also, a Soul as it can be given, can also be taken away (or perhaps it just atrophies or goes dormant) so even if someone seems to have had one, we don't know if it's grown much at all because they would still be left with their mind/spirit (memories) of what they learned when they had one.

II.A.4.e. "GOD IS NOT THE GOD OF THE DEAD, BUT OF THE LIVING" and "GOD IS A SPIRIT"

Jesus is posed a question. Moses issued instruction and procedure that states if a husband dies without having produced an offspring with his wife, his brother can marry the wife to produce offspring in his name. So the question was what if there were seven brothers and the one dies with no offspring and each of the brothers marry the widow but produce no offspring and they all die too and then the woman dies. In the Resurrection (return again and Standing up for the Next Level in new human vehicle) which of the seven will be the husband to that woman as all seven had her.

Mat 22:29 Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.

Mat 22:30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.

Mat 22:31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying,

Mat 22:32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

In Jesus mind there are two kinds of resurrection. One for the LIVING and one for the DEAD. The LIVING are all those who die, as they say, "in the Lord," as Paul said were the "dead in Christ," which means they died STANDING UP FOR THE LAST INCARNATE OLDER MEMBER as that is always what threatens the existing religious that are largely worshipping a false idea of a Christ (anointed one), who then seek to silence those who challenge their illusion with the greater truths. The LIVING are only living because they were given “Soul deposits,” the SEED and “container” that only holds Kingdom of God/Heaven (holy) Mind/Spirit in it but is literally equip with a type of homing device so the Kingdom of God/Heaven crew assigned to monitor all with such a deposit and take them into their safe keeping whether they still have a physical vehicle or not, thus they are saved from the fate of all that don't have that deposit, thus are LIVING, at least for the time being as they will encounter further testing when they are brought to their next “classroom” in which they will have the instruction to “take over” - stand up in a human vehicle that is prepared for them and is a “match” for what they still need to overcome which varies Soul to Soul.

These returning Souls don't marry because they only “stand up again” in their new vehicle because the Older Member who has also come standing up again in their newly prepared human vehicle has come public with their updated truth about where they are from and why they are here, which these returning Souls hear through the ears of the vehicles they had previously started an invisible relationship with, to be prepared for this moment. The human with a Soul can understand what's being said, even though it's being said in a different language from the vehicle they had their birth in because it's the quality and kinds of things they say that they recognize is the truth as it's in their Soul's (genetic) memory. For these there is no marriage as they have decided to follow this incarnate Older Member and that entails becoming the equivalent of a “spouse” to the Older Member who is depicted as their “bridegroom.” If they had married another human before they committed to the Older Member then they are separating from that previous human commitment to “recover their virginity” and thus bride status. Virginity doesn't mean never having had intercourse or being married. It's a chosen condition of no longer giving oneself to any other besides one's Older Member, whether he is incarnate or not at the time.

The second type of resurrection Jesus refers to is the “resurrection of the dead” which are all those who are not LIVING because even though they too might have received a Soul deposit because of their choices to not follow the incarnate Older Member their “seed” was never germinated for various reasons that Jesus outlines in the parable of the tares. So the Kingdom of God/Heaven also brings them back to the new location in the new time and like all who are dead, lets them find vehicles they can influence to believe or disbelieve, think and act in whatever way they had when they were in their birth human vehicle, which makes them adversaries of those that are becoming disciples and may even join up with them because of also having a recognition of the information but from a negative perspective that they had to accept to justify not following with the Older Member last time they were incarnate. The Father and Jesus as Ti and Do are NOT these returnees “God.” They are only the “God” (Older Member from the Next Level) to those that are LIVING because as long as these disciples continue bonding with their Older Member they are insured an eternal life which is the only kind of LIFE the Next Level identifies as true LIFE.

This is not to say those whose seed never germinated were totally lost at that time. It's very much a Next Level way to give repeated opportunities no matter what a Soul has chose.

Joh 5:28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

Joh 5:29 And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection* (of) life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection* (of) damnation.

Mat 22:30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.

Act 24:15 And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

GOD IS A SPIRIT

Joh 4:24 God ((A Deity)) is a Spirit*((Above Human Mind)): and they that worship ((work for, give service to as a right hand man)) him must worship him in spirit ((having the same mind)) and in truth ((225 aletheia/alethes= to be true to and unconcealed, forward)).

* Spirit = Above Human Mind

Spirit = 4151 pneuma= from pneo 4154; a current of air, i.e. breath (blast) or a breeze; by analogy or as a figure, a spirit, i.e. (human) the rational Soul, (by implication) vital principle, mental disposition, etc., or (superhuman) an angel, demon, or (divine) God, Christ's spirit, the Holy Spirit= ghost, life, spirit(-ual, -ually), mind.

Jesus compared Spirit when he spoke about being “born of spirit” in the way we see things affected by the air currents, but we can't see where they are coming from and where they are going because the it's content is invisible to our eyes. Ti and Do spoke of a Member of the Level Above Human as a Physical Mind, but as a physical being/mind/spirit that a human could feel if they allowed us to touch them when they are in our midst. Mind is listed as a synonym of the Greek pneuma and is also compared to being, an angel, demon or ghost, all of which are generally thought of as invisible. However that does not mean that all of these examples are non-physical.

That term vibration wasn't simply a California new age concoction. As we can easily prove now a great deal can exist and be unseen and untouchable yet have significant structure. After all there are packets of information literally going through us all at all times anymore with the advent of wireless communications. What exists in the unseen world is only a matter of what we are prepared to understand and consider. Everything in the unseen world in terms of frequency structures are not equal. For instance the VLF and ELF waves (very low frequencies and Extra Low Frequencies), some of which are used to communicate with submarines in the sea on the opposite sides of the planet. Certain vibrations can shatter glass and others made into lasers or shake the ground as experienced by bass sub woofers. We have no excuse anymore for not being willing to at the very least consider that there can be entities that can even be living but are able to cloak themselves to our limited vision when we know of technologies in certain paints that render physical objects invisible to certain rays of the light spectrum our eyes and technologies are geared towards.

Ti and Do even felt that there could be an entire population of human equivalents living on the surface of a celestial body that if we were able to photograph would show nothing there because it all has to do with the design of the structures and what their frequency range is, whether the light spectrum we experience will enter our eye and be computed to exist.

Shortly before I joined with Ti and Do in 1975, I began some study of spirits. I had about 6 years after high school where I read a bunch of new age books and for some reason believed in the possibility of all I read, except for the Hobbit trilogy. I knew that was fiction. Then when I joined up with Ti and Do and they wrote of the existence of discarnates they called “influences,” it made perfect sense to me. Throughout my 19 years with them, I thought I might have seen things out of the corner of my eye but we weren't trying to see things even though Ti taught us a technique to see more. You would focus your eye sight on something very specific and then broaden your peripheral vision to take in everything around that object and then go back to focusing on just that object and repeat for as long as you want. I can't say I saw anything from that, except like I said, thought I saw things move or thought I saw a ripple in the air a time or two but nothing I could really know I saw. Some years after I left the group and then after they exited I was somewhat re-awakened to them and though it was a long road, came to want to be in their service again after a long series of awakening type dreams of Do and Ti and certain class members as if I was among them and they were answering my questions.

Then one night I awoke from a rare dream that Ti was visiting with me and I sat up on the side of my bed and there was just enough light in the room that I could see the furniture and a very dark figure glided by me for about a 2-3 second view. The figure looked like the size of a 7 year old child with a black sheet over it's head so I could only see the shape of a head and the shoulders. Following that I awoke and saw a woman from the waist up hovering over my x-partners side of the bed with her long black hair blowing in the wind that didn't exist in the room and she was laughing at me and it looked just like a woman that I knew who really was laughing at me, but that at the time I didn't know about. I looked away and then back and she was still there laughing away but I don't recall hearing anything. It was just the her mouth and teeth showing and vibration that told me she was laughing. Then there were many times I saw faint figures in various places in my room. I would see them before I fell asleep in a dimly lit room. I wasn't groggy when I would see these. It was immediately upon turning off the main lights so that the only light was from the computer and telephone and outlet strips and star or moon light. This happened maybe 5-6 times around that same time year ago and then stopped and I haven't seen anything like that since. I believe Ti had her crew arrange for me to have that experience so I could write about it.

I believe what we see depends upon the density of their vibration and our capacity to translate it which in most cases we need to be prepared to see before we can see more. Believing is preparation but actually only comes about because of prior experience from a past human experience because the leaves on our individual branch on the human genetic tree are the “past lives” whose experiences are all stored in the equivalent of a trunk and only surface in each leaf as a subconscious memory summarized as belief or not. On top of that we get what we are raised with that brings out or suppresses those subconscious memories and finally what we do in life does the same. Ti and Do said we are all composites of these three sources; genetic mind, what's passed on to us as we grow up and what we gravitate to after becoming an adult.

A member of the Next Level is not etheric just as the wind is not etheric. As we all know the wind has physical substance that can even knock down buildings. But I do believe human discarnates, those who came from human vehicles that were never given a Soul container or didn't germinate their Soul by believing in an incarnate Older Member when they received the chance and subsequently drew more of the Older member's mind into their own Soul container, are etheric, meaning they can pass right through dense physical objects like wireless devise waveforms do. Do actually compared discarnate spirits to sound saying they were “echos.”

Additionally using the Greek word, pneuma would not be the way one would describe a non-physical or non-carnal being. That would be the Greek, pneumatikos in one of it's two forms.

Do said that worship actually meant “work for.” Here's how I arrived at that via scripture interpretation:

The Greek Pros comes from Pro which means “fore,” or forward as in move towards or near to or accession to, or be among and act on behalf of or because of, for. This includes “falling down” for which is another way of saying, like Jesus said a disciple must “deny self” as in “thy will be done,” or giving your life for is a falling down for which is hand in hand with doing reverence to, adoring and prostrating oneself in homage.

When I looked at the “kuneo” part of proskuneo it referred only to “kuon” referencing a dog. But as I generally do I look for other Greek usage of that spelling and pronunciation for further clues when there is such a limited definition. After all Strongs said it was “a probable derivative of “kuon” and I wasn't satisfied until I found Do's definition more clearly stated. So I saw, the next word listed under kuon being kolon. They don't look that similar in these transliterations since we're not using the Greek alphabet here, but they actually do resemble one another in pronunciation and kolon means, “a limb of the body” which putting it together with Pro's “fore” became like “forearm” and knowing that we do become like a part of the Older Members body if we graft to him, and how the term “right hand” is common as a way of depicting someone giving another their service, so all of a sudden, it seemed to fit and doesn't take away anything in doing so.

worship= 4352 proskuneo= from pros 4314 and a probable derivative of kuon 2965 (meaning to kiss, like a dog licking his master's hand); to fawn or crouch to, i.e. (literally or as a figure) prostrate oneself in homage (do reverence to, adore)= worship.

4314 pros= a strengthened form of pro - pro 4253; a preposition of direction; forward to, i.e. toward (with the genitive case, the side of, i.e. pertaining to; with the dative case, by the side of, i.e. near to; usually with the accusative case, the place, time, occasion, or respect, which is the destination of the relation, i.e. whither or for which it is predicated)= about, according to, against, among, at, because of, before, between, (where-)by, for, X at thy house, in, for intent, nigh unto, of, which pertain to, that, to (the end that), X together, to (you) -ward, unto, with(-in). In the comparative case, it denotes essentially the same applications, namely, motion towards, accession to, or nearness at.

4253 pro= a primary preposition; “fore,” i.e. in front of, prior (as a figure, superior) to= above, ago, before, or ever. In the comparative, it retains the same significations.

2965 kuon= a primary word; a dog (“hound”) (literally or as a figure)= dog or seemingly a better fit and nearly the same pronunciation of kolon:

2966 kolon= from the base of kolazo 2849; a limb of the body (as if lopped)= carcase.

II.A.4.f. JESUS SAID, “BEFORE ABRAHAM WAS I AM” AND INDICATED ABRAHAM WAS BACK TO SEE JESUS’ DAY

Joh 8:56 Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad.

Joh 8:57 Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham?

Joh 8:58 Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am.

I suspect Jesus was indicating Abraham was the same Soul who was performing the task of John the Baptist who I suspect was the same Soul who performed the task of Aaron with Moses and perhaps Elisha with Elijah and finally one of the students of Ti and Do. Whenever I think of who that might have been, Lggody comes to mind but I certainly don't know that to be accurate. Ti said that Do was the same Soul who was known as Adam, Enoch, Moses, Elijah and Jesus.

II.A.4.g. JOHN THE BAPTIST WAS A RETURNING ELDER STUDENT SENT TO FULFILL THE ISAIAH PROPHECY OF A MESSENGER TO ANNOUNCE JESUS ARRIVAL BUT HAD NOT YET BECOME AN ADULT (AS OPPOSED TO A CHILD) MEMBER OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD

Luk 3:4 As it is written in the book of the words of Esaias the prophet, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

Luk 7:27 This is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

Luk 7:28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

Ti and Do called those who Jesus is referring to as “least in the kingdom of God,” “Younger Members of the Next Level.” These are individuals that graduated from the human evolutionary kingdom level into The Evolutionary Level Above Human. That graduation for the current civilization, which is the most recent garden experiment, at least in this part of the Universe has just occurred for, I would guess at least 24 of the 38 that layed down their lives with and for Do in 1997.

Do had indicated that some of those 38 would still have to have additional overcoming experience in the human kingdom, presumably during a future classroom in a new civilization. I believe all who laid down their lives, which I also believe all who “give their lives” in service to Ti and Do, as was the case for those who gave their lives in service to Jesus, the real Jesus, will according to scripture receive a new physical body prepared for them spoken of as a “white robe” sometime after they exit their human vehicle. With that new physical body they will also be assigned tasks to work in crews under the direction of Do who will have either taken his last body back to use or also received a new one, more appropriate to his new station.

Ti and Do said that in the Next Level all members are constantly seeking to grow to have tasks of service to their Older Members. However, Do at one point did say that he thought he had put the vehicle he had before coming to Earth for this last trimester “in a closet” on board a Next Level spacecraft. (Remember these are not space aliens - space aliens are the dropouts, the Souls who didn't graduate but went against the Older Members who were providing the classroom to at that time and of course their descendants that are represented in Genesis 6 as the Nephilim, that many humans may be descendants of).

Now Do said this about his closeting his Next Level vehicle, long before He and Ti realized that some of the crashes of spacecrafts were staged by the Next Level, which was the way it seemed they chose to arrive and detach from their existing physical bodies to free up their Soul Body and yet leave record of their other worldliness to start the human BEAST (secret government) to cover up and to locate a human vehicle to perform their “spirit birthing” tasks through.

Thus I would surmise that Do may not have sacrificed a Next Level body when he came, if he too came in a staged crash. I suppose it's possible that both could have been the case as who knows how many Next Level Adult or Child/Student level physical vehicles can be kept in “wardrobe.” I know this sounds very strange and science fiction like, but it's a fact that Ti and Do and the Book of Revelations speaks about physical vehicles as clothing. Ti and Do once said we could think of these Next Level vehicles in the same way a human puts on a spacesuit to perform tasks in space and a divers suit to perform tasks underwater. The big difference is of course that Next Level vehicles are living bodies, though perhaps being in a closet is like putting the vehicle to sleep in cold storage of some sort.

Now the graduate students that will not need to come back for another human overcoming classroom will receive a body made for them that is what Ti and Do called a “Next Level Body.” A Next Level body has no “plumbing,” the term Ti and Do used for a human's digestive and reproductive organ systems. Therefore that Being in that vehicle can never engage in human mammalian behavior and is therefore referred to in certain scripture as incorruptible.

WATCHERS ARE FALLEN ANGELS WHO WERE SONS OF GOD TI AND DO CALLED DOMESTICS IN THE NEXT LEVEL STUDENTS WHO HAD RECEIVED NURTURING FROM OLDER MEMBERS AND WERE AWARDED A TEMPORARY BODY BUT WHO FELL AWAY FROM COMPLETING THEIR OVERCOMING OF HUMANNESS TASK.

The ones depicted as the Watchers and fallen angels in the Book of Enoch and the “Sons of God” in Genesis 6 did not have Next Level ADULT bodies or they would not have been able to “fall” or inseminate mortal humans with their seed as Jesus also indicated they did in the parable of the Sower.

Mortals are those humans who had not received a Soul deposit, thus to the Next Level are strictly “plants.” Son's of God are the humans who were given Soul deposits to where those deposits germinated to some degree evidenced by their beginning to bond with an incarnate Older Member. For the ones spoken about by Enoch, that bonding would have occurred in the previous civilization on Earth and/or potentially on another planet. But becoming a son doesn't guarantee their becoming an adult though it will not be the Next Level Older Member that abandons their offspring (son) until it's clear by many opportunities that the former offspring no longer has any desire or even ability to reconnect once they have disconnected and especially when they have gone against their Older Member's teachings and gone so far as to try to influence humans away from the Next Level and their teachings.

Ti and Do said that some who do become their children, when the human vehicle they were born in dies, if they have shown their graft to be strong by “giving their life” while in service to that Older Member, as was the case with Moses and Jesus for their disciples, then these could be awarded a body designed for them by the Next Level but one that still has the capacity of reverting to human mammalian behaviors. Do called these “domestics” and when they received their physical vehicle they would also be assigned tasks that were “elementary” tasks to further prove their desire to bond further with their Older Member. When the next overcoming classroom was to start these were given the opportunity to sacrifice that vehicle to earn an Adult Next Level vehicle. And that is what occurred in the late 1940's and possibly early 1950's in some of the UFO Crashes. Do also indicated some from other planets were also given the same choice to sacrifice the body they had been given by the Next Level. I don't know if their receipt of a student model Next Level grown vehicle was provided because they had bonded with an Older Member on their home "garden" planet. I know it could have been different for them as Ti also indicated the bar would be raised to get into Adult Membership in the Net Level because of Lucifer and his associates' fall.

I believe Do said the space aliens were all "fallen angel" Souls, so have surmised that it is because they chose not to enter this latest overcoming of humanness classroom with Ti and Do that became their latest "fall," which may be the same condition of those humans who did join with Ti and Do's classroom and dropped out, IF they stayed dropped out. It is in that way that even a "son of God" can lose their potential eternal "LIFE," though Ti said that all who came with them would go back, that I believe she said relative to those who had dropped out.

In Rev 6:11 and Rev 7:9 we see how some are granted and then have "white robes." Robe is defined as equipment. These are granted to all who give their lives in service to the current Older Member, in this case Do. The task is to stand up for He and Ti which means as Jesus said, let your light be seen by fellow humans instead of "hiding it under a bushel basket." Do indicated the service to him is to believe in all he and Ti said and did and to disseminate that information to others and accept the consequences. Thus those who prove themselves to Ti and Do in this way may receive a new physical body, but it will not be an adult model Next Level body until they are given the opportunity to finish their overcoming.

I don't know exactly when they will finish their overcoming or whether Do will come incarnate again at that time, though there is some indication of a "camp of the saints" with Next Level Members dwelling with them sometime after a 1000 earth years has passed which I think would be after significant recycling. However, those who are granted a "white robe" new body will have service on a spacecraft in a crew with the Older Member and will be literally with him on his spacecraft depicted as the "Holy City," a New

Incidentally by calling humans plants is not a put down as the Next Level values all they create. However just as in the animal kingdom there is no future for those creatures beyond their temporary life span and that goes for their spirit as well, unless the Next Level decides to intercede.

There are indications in the scriptural record of a use for human “spirits” and Ti and Do did briefly talk about how a domesticated dog's spirit/mind, if it bonds with it's human masters can advance in some way and come into the vehicle of a new born human in that same household. They said this can be seen as some who are born “retarded” - their being first timers in the human kingdom, while also saying this isn't the only reason a human is born “retarded.” I haven't seen any evidence that this was ever updated or expanded upon by Do later in the classroom, during the 2 1/2 years I wasn't in Do's classroom, as they always knew there was more to be understood, though seldom would negate what they said but usually involved adding to what they first thought. In fact many times when they would sit with the student body to bring up new information they had received, they would preface what they would talk about with an acknowledgment that “this [understanding] works for now.” However, I have found that there has been truth to everything they said. What is more the case is that there is almost always more to know about most things.

Ti and Do were not “know it alls” but they did know what they didn't know and they did know where to go to learn about what they didn't know. They did have an uncanny ability to troubleshoot any problem. For instance a number of times we'd be having car trouble and Do knew nothing about car mechanics yet when he would tune into the problem as reported by the students he would get ideas and especially if he went and looked at the engine. In fact this was a lesson for one of the students who had been a knowledgeable car mechanic in the world before joining with Ti and Do and who was assigned the task of overseeing the maintenance of our little fleet. On several occasions he thought he knew what was causing a problem or what was not causing a problem and didn't think Do's suggestion had any merit, only to learn when he investigated more or took the car to a professional mechanic that Do was exactly right in his diagnosis of the problem.

HOW TI AND DO RECEIVED INFORMATION

Ti and Do said they started to awaken about a year or so before they met in the spring of 1972 evidenced in part by their individual pursuits of truth and how aspects of their human lives were falling apart and they were not finding satisfaction with human pursuits. Do was unhappy with relationships. He was looking for a committed relationship and wasn't finding any. I'll report more on that later. But when they met Ti instigated their relations that were platonic - non-physical, non-sexual which their friends and family didn't comprehend when they started some projects together. They first knew they had something to do together and they both shared only one thing - a close love for their Heavenly Father thought through unconventional channels but with Jesus as a focal point.

When they finally felt they had to leave the Houston area and went to Boerne, Texas the flood gates of information started to come into their consciousness and they knew their souls had come from the Kingdom of God which they thought of as "outer space" and that they were to bring updates to the bible and fulfill prophecy though they didn't know all the specifics but were getting many ideas independently of one another but ended up being the same ideas that were new ways of thinking that they were both receiving at the same time that they would only learn was the same information when they began to talk about it. In that way they used one another as "check partners" and began to search all religious and spiritual information they could find to learn what prophecies they were to fulfill and what the updates were.

Months after they left Boerne they were in Gold Beach, Oregon when they received another big chunk of information that included realizing they were to fulfill the tasks described as the Two Witnesses in the Book of Revelations.

After that period often, their students questions and responses during and/or after a meeting helped them to further clarify what they received. They didn't receive information in the way of a human channeler or psychic, nor generally from dreams, though Ti and Do both shared dreams with the students on a few occasions in the 19 years I was in their group. And they did feel value to those dreams but were never the basis of their giving us instructions or taking action. In fact, they always said they had a "checklist" they would run down to test any new information they felt was coming to them, in case it was a Luciferian infiltration to try to get them off the straight and narrow. They even compared their seeking to understand new instructions and concepts to a type of radar. By their thirst they were “pulling” in the information. If the student body weren't thirsty for next steps they didn't get next steps because what they were fed by those who were their support crew on board spacecrafts was geared to what the students needed and were ready for. Ti and Do said they felt like they were both microphones and movie cameras for the Next Level as well as thought transmitters to the human kingdom and not just to their immediate student body but that could be available to anyone who sought the truth about the Next Level's reality and what it took to make application to become a Member of the Next Level.

II.A.4.h. PAUL OF TARSUS, “RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD” EXPLANATION SEEMS FOUNDED UPON JESUS AND TI AND DO’S TEACHINGS THAT INCLUDES AN INTRODUCTION TO A NEXT LEVEL (CELESTIAL) “FLESH” BODY

1Co 15:42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

1Co 15:43 It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

1Co 15:44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

Here Paul is referring to the resurrection as the harvest itself as it is not until Souls have overcome their humanness that they are fully raised “in incorruption.” They must become incorruptible in that they will not listen to any thoughts or engage in any behavior the Older Members have deemed requirements of the first fruit harvest. Now this “spiritual body” he refers to is what Ti and Do referred to as one's Next Level Mind, where Mind is synonymous with Spirit and is actually the content of one's consciousness that came from the Next Level Older Members.

Thus practically speaking, someone who believes with all their heart in the commandments Jehovah gave to Moses for the young student body to commit to following are literally accumulating Next Level behaviors and ways. And this process is advanced like a school through the grades coming to Jesus' “classroom” where you draw to your mind Next Level Mind every time you restrain anger at your brother that was without a cause or when you forgive your brother the things they do against you, or turn the other cheek to offenses against you or resist the desire to accumulate wealth on the backs of others as is usually the case or don't charge interest on what you lend or give to others or give charity in such a way that it's invisible to others and not even planned for by you, or when you keep your prayer private and resist cheapening prayer by using a lot of words or by vain repetitions or when you extend your friendly respectful love and giving to all as you would want them to do towards you.

The more we adhere to the behavior and ways provided us the more of that Holy Mind we literally fill our Soul with that is pleasing to our Older Members because this is the stuff that forms our graft to the Older Member's vine. As that graft strengthens we better recognize the quality of Their Mind, thoughts and words to where you could literally hear them say some equivalent of, "follow me" and you would, while others think you're naive or mad for doing so. In other words Next Level information that is always "true" will make sense to you. This accumulation of Next Level (holy) Mind is genetically carried forth over generations which is what prepares the new leaves of the human tree to identify the behavior and ways of the Next Level when we see/hear them. This is the reason, people come into life knowing that under any circumstances it is wrong by the Kingdom of God/Heaven's standards to take the life away from another human being. However, the provided Luciferian Souls presence and influence on us then distorts and dilutes and distracts from the clear Next Level instructions. For example, for some now the unborn human vehicles are in essence of more value than living humans. For instance there will be people who claim to be Christians who will base their vote for a political candidate on whether or not they are anti abortion, but when it comes to the death penalty or waging war will sing a different tune when one is clearly against that Next Level commandment and the other is not nearly that clear.

Ti and Do were not for or against abortion. They believed in choice, which is not saying choosing to have an abortion is a choice they would have us make. They also believed the individual had the right to decide whether they wanted to live or die, so were in favor of euthanasia as a choice. After all there are no scriptures that indicate one is sinning to take their own life, though that's not suggesting an approval of suicide, though it can be argued that the way Jesus chose to die was certainly a suicide mission to begin with just like a lot of what I'm saying can be seen as suicidal because it's certainly not going to yield popularity for me and will probably excite rage among some because frankly the truth hurts if we are afraid of it.

Do and Crew wrote that suicide was not taking the opportunity to grow closer to an Older Member when such is offered to you. That's because you will die and not ever know what you were giving up. Neither suicide or abortion are the “murder” Jehovah commanded for humans not to do. Murder is only defined as something you do to another. It's against God's law because a human doesn't have the judgment nor right to end that other humans opportunity to grow closer to the Kingdom of God/Heaven that can only happen while they are alive. Granted a fetus is alive but so is the egg before it's fertilized. I suspect it's being played by the Luciferians who want both sides of the fence to fight among themselves over this issue.

Ti and Do said that when a human ceases to be able to “grow,” meaning mentally, making choices, seeking to learn new things, engaged in life, they are more or less dead already even though the vehicle can still function as if it's alive. With that thinking, should a human be born in a coma would it be the Next Levels intention to keep that baby alive indefinitely in case it came out of coma. Though many will not agree with me, human bodies to the Next Level are easy to grow and doesn't take many for the Next Level to have a classroom of overcomers. Ti and Do said that the Next Level was only populated in the thousands not in the millions or billions as in the lower kingdom levels. However once born and thriving, to take away that infants life I believe would be breaking Jehovah/Moses commandment.

If one is a Christian they can hardly use what Moses said and did as their absolute authority when Jesus brought updates to those lessons. That's like insisting on applying the same guidelines given to toddlers to teenagers that Jesus was in some ways the teacher of.

“Sown in corruption” from the Next Level perspective is the way a human vehicle is used to advance one's overcoming of the human behavior and ways. Participation in the human mammalian reproductive process is a corrupt behavior and way for a committed Active Student of a Next Level Older Member to engage because such a student must conquer any desire to act in human ways, of which reproductive activity is monumental. In part this is because reproducing and sexual activity are the primary ways the Luciferians promote to keep humans GIVING AWAY THEIR FORCE that in degrees keeps them blind to the realities of the Next Level, reducing their common sense and continues the propagation of their roots to the human kingdom instead of severing those roots, as is absolutely necessary to graft to the Older Member's family vine. One can not graft to two different vines - have Two Masters (as Jesus said). Ti used to say, “oil and water don't mix” and she'd also say that acting in human ways and Next Level ways is like walking down a street with “one foot in the gutter and the other on the curb” - up and down.

Here is why in one of the things Paul understood, Paul writes how the new body is “raised in incorruption” because by conquering human behaviors and ways entirely, to the qualifications of the present Older Members, (to include while their teachings are still available unadulterated and are directly connected to the last time the Older Member was present incarnate), upon graduation a new body is issued that doesn't have that human biology, so it literally can't function in that human capacity and is therefore “incorruptible.”

However, this is also why we need to abort all desires for such human behaviors and ways in order that we can have a Mind that is compatible with the new body. If we didn't have that compatibility, Ti and Do said we would not be “viable” and theoretically if the Next Level allowed us to receive that new incorruptible body we would experience an abortion - in other words the body would reject the incoming Mind, though that's not going to happen as this is why it's so hard to graduate. The Older Members want to insure you are a “match” (Ti and Do called it) so they put each Active Student through all sorts of tests that give them reasons to justify giving up to go back into the human world. In fact the Next Level is so intent on being sure each student is honestly, and realistically consciously motivated and engaged, so will use their incarnate representative Older Members to say and do things that will give the students justifications to discontinue their participation. They don't want them to discontinue their participation but they don't want them to be involved under false pretenses either and it's hard to know where someone's head is at, unless they are put to the tests.

Examples of big tests were all the things Ti and Do said in the beginning that they changed as time went on. Others were when they set up pick up dates that didn't happen. When Ti left her vehicle that was a big test in that such was not anticipated. Humans look at all this history and think they are just signs that they were charlatans or misguided or insane or were playing out their sexual frustrations as one psychologist surmises was the case with Do and the way he, before he awakened to his task with Ti was genuinely frustrated with his lack of a committed same sex relationship. His vehicle, named Marshall Herf Applewhite was reported to have said that he didn't want sexual relationships wanting a platonic relationship and then months later he met Bonnie Lu Truesdale Nettles and that's what he got in Ti, thus rather than his frustration being a big sign of his instability, that perhaps millions of people experience in degrees every day, it was a sign that in his case the Next Level Mind was beginning to come in stronger in preparation for his awakening. Awakening a human vehicle isn't exactly "normal" anymore than taking a wild animal into a human's home would be. There has to be a familiarizing first and for the human vehicle making the kind of step his human vehicle was to make a great deal of preparation would be needed. Do talked and wrote about this. He said not a day went by that he didn't question his sanity. He thought this was why Ti came to awaken him. The psychologists don't really like to look at how Ti was the driving force in Do's awakening. Do wondered if he needed that help because of how complicated the human level had become.

But Rob Balch, the University of Montana professor considered by many to be the academic authority on Ti and Do and their group, reported that because of Marshall Applewhite's frustration with his sexuality from before his awakening and then Ti's exit of her vehicle without his exit at the same time, as they first thought would happen, as well as the way in which Ti left, diagnosed with cancer in her liver that started two years earlier with cancer in her eye, that because of, she had removed at that time, it brought him to consider his and his students exit in a new light. What Rob failed to see or express was that Ti and Do all along had been considering a number of angles to how, where, when and who would exit, even as early as 1976 when they felt instruction came to them to cancel the "demonstration."

The demonstration might have been the only thing they took from scripture as a prophecy they needed to fulfill as opposed to feeling it was information they were being fed them directly from the Next Level crew tending to their task progress. Nevertheless when they got instruction to "cancel their being killed and risen," (Rev 11:7-12), even though they didn't know the more accurate translation options (have their bodies subdued (overcome) and then sometime later separated/exited/completed their task by DYING THEMSELVES, (to be documented thoroughly in the section on the Two Witnesses), they also began to wonder how they were going to exit. It was years before Ti exited her incarnation (occurred in 1985 and documented in Rev 12:16) that Ti and Do met with the student body and suggested they might both leave before the student body, which was another change from their original message and yet a change they had no benefit making, unlike the way their canceling of the demonstration could easily be seen as trying to justify either their desire to live or that no one was going to take them seriously enough to want to kill them. After all Rev 11 doesn't blatantly show there to be followers of the Two Witnesses nor their exit, nor a spacecraft picking them up, which goes to show that they were not being led by scriptural prophecy.

When they brought up the prospect of their exiting first, it was a new thought because all along they had thought they would all be picked up by a spacecraft together. As it turned out there is no way to know if they were all picked up together, because it was an invisible exit as also prophesied. Even Paul addressed it, which the Christian rapture believers should take notice when he said:

1Co 15:50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

Are not human vehicles flesh and blood. And this also goes hand in hand with:

Joh 3:13 And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

Incidentally since the Two Witnesses exit by ascending into heaven I guess they came from heaven. In fact this is saying NO ONE ascends into heaven unless they came down from heaven. This would then imply that new souls don't go to heaven, at least not the same location in heaven that Jesus and his Father abide in, which introduces what was meant by "paradise" aka "Abraham's bosom" or purgatory as an in between heaven and hell condition. Do called it being put "on ice" though not literally speaking. But this also means that the first fruit harvest is a harvest of souls not physical bodies.

Of course Rob Balch as an academic and an authority needs to draw a conclusion which is certainly not going to be in favor of the least popular idea, that Ti and Do could have very well been exactly who they said they were, so instead came up with a feasible (to other academics at least) theory that links Applewhite's sex life (not seeing the Applewhite named vehicle as his chosen instrument to overcome to help Students overcome theirs) to his decision to lay down their lives. Hence Rob Balch is quoted over and over by fellow academics and students too and will go down in history with his idea's being "gospel" when at best they are a vague wild shot in the dark with little to no basis in real evidence, that is compared to the mountain of evidence that they were who they said they were. Of course I am aware that what Jesus and Moses and the Old Testament Prophets and Enoch and virtually all the religions and spiritual ideas and science of mind and UFO related evidence isn't really counted as contributions to the evidence, whether secular or non-secular mindsets.

Paul is accurately describing how Jesus taught that the raised spiritual body, aka a glorified body comes about through the sowing of Next Level seed, (a Soul deposit) in the "natural" (human physical "water birth" body).

ADAM AND EVE BECAME THE FIRST TEST SUBJECTS OF THE NEW CIVILIZATION

The human body is a corrupted body. We all came to be as a result of Adam and Eve's giving in to a manipulation. We are thus the product of a deceit which was a corruption of reality. Ti and Do said the whole event was a setup to test Adam and Eve. Since Lucifer and a third of their "class" were rewarded with a "white robe" (not a "fine linen clean and white" garment (physical body) that the graduates of the human kingdom are issued) and provided with primitive spacecraft models (by Next Level standards) and the more elementary (though still valuable) tasks of "watching," that they decided to abandon to try to start their own experiment they could be the "gods" to humans in, the Next Level decided to put others of equivalent rank to the test. So the Next Level created a vehicle (white robe) that still had the facility if chosen to activate what Do called a "reverse metamorphosis." The trigger was simply the instruction to not consume fruit off a certain tree.

How much of this could have been symbolic is beside the point. The setup was real and had Adam and Eve passed that test, Ti and Do said the Next Level would have kept providing tests by subjecting them to further influence from the deceitful Luciferian fallen angel who had some physical presence then or was operating through a discarnate state. Genesis 1 indicates there were homosapians created that multiplied as animals at that time, so perhaps they were present and a discarnate Luciferian was operating through them the same way they operate through humans all the time to date. There are billions of discarnates, (one for each human that has lived since last recycling) and it is the norm for some to influence us all day and every day of our lives.

DISCARNATE INFLUENCES TIME SHARE OUR BRAIN AND BODY

Virtually every human has some mixture of their mammalian rooted human mind and Next Level Above Human (holy) mind regardless of the ratio. The tests we all go through whether we know it or not is identifying which of those two types of Mind we want to continue to manifest in our lives as according to Ti and Do, that is all we are, the decider. All the discarnates “influences” interested in our human vehicles, to use to feel through, not having any other way to feel anything, influence us and thereby among one another literally share time using our brain and body. Schizophrenia is when two or more of these discarnates that show distinct differences or conflicts in their personalities are vying for control even at the same time and the weaker mind of that human is unable to push one or the other out. Thus the idea of being possessed is actually the norm in the human kingdom though few know it because of how we each settle on what influences we want and don't want.

OVERCOMING/CONQUERING ADDICTIONS IS A MODERN DESCRIPTION OF EXORCISING EVIL SPIRITS

For instance, say we had become an alcoholic Somewhere down the line we attracted influences that were also alcoholic when they were alive, so we became programmed to reach for a drink for this or that reason. However at some point say we recognize the destructive nature of the disease and become determined to change, so we enter a program that fosters changing that program and we sober up. From that point on, if we are determined not to repeat the same choices then whenever we hear the thought or get the feeling of wanting a drink, we put in that thought or feelings place a different thought. We are reprogramming our own computer (brain). Ti was referring to our brain as a computer in the early 1980's before computers were owned by nearly every family and person. Thus whenever that person has a thought to return to the old programming, it is a combination of that discarnate knocking on their door and the habit they formed of giving into that knocking. Believe it or not, this is how everything in the human kingdom works. We are simply computer systems that are choosing the programs we want to run. Being a “chooser” is significant.

This is why “repentance” really means to “change your mind.” You are literally swapping out one mindset for another, human for Next Level programming that is down to every thought. This is evident when Jesus raised the bar on what was considered “adultery,” that Do said was “not becoming an adult” speaking to those that were married as adultery was being married and having intercourse with someone you were not married to:

Mat 5:27 Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery:

Mat 5:28 But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

So overcoming the (human) world means to literally get rid of all the “evil” or trouble making discarnate influences and the programs we accepted to develop our “computer” and from any manifestation of that programming and replacing such with new programs from the Older Members (holy) Mind (thoughts, behaviors and ways). I remember watching a video documentary where a former member of Ti and Do's classroom criticized the way it became PROCEDURE for a male to shave with the razor going in a certain direction, he implied was as an example of how controlling Ti and Do were. Yet what the former classmate doesn't explain and/or it wasn't presented in the video how that procedure came about. It was in response to a question from him or from another student who was having some problem shaving, in which Do told what he did that seemed to create less irritation to the skin. I'm not actually sure it got written into the many “procedure books” we had but if it did and he had a problem with doing it, in that case I suspect Do would have said to do it the way it works best for you. Nevertheless, there were no cameras or monitors in the bath chambers where people did their shaving so it was up to the student to do it the way of the procedure or not. And there were no punishments for breaking those kinds of procedures so how controlling is that really? However, why not do it the way your teacher who you say you believe in, does it? There were no locks on the doors so that someone couldn't get out from the inside and if you wanted to leave if you were up front about it, the preferred choice, Ti and Do always sought to assist if they could with a airplane or bus ticket to where you wanted to go and some money to get started with again as they evidenced many, many times and even with that very same former class member when he wanted to leave.

There absolutely was a form of “control” in the group as the entire pretense was to “get control over your vehicle” and following procedures and instructions the Older Members gave us was almost everything in that, with procedures a big part of the tool-chest of overcoming as they were replacing our old way of doing things (mind) with new way of doing things as provided step by step from our Older Members as things would come up or they would instigate a new step in that direction. After all, one would certainly look at all the many procedures in the Jehovah/Moses encampment and see things they might consider petty or trivial to be so adhering to. For instance men were required to trim their beards by squaring the corners as opposed to rounding them or making a pointed beard. Remember Adam and Eve fell because they rebelled from following instructions so to test subsequent generations from them one must give them equivalent challenges to rise above.

Ti and Do once explained, if your Older Member said they saw s tent as polka dotted, even if you disagreed you would want to believe it is polka dotted and that you would have to raise your vibrations to see it as they see it.

It is “brain washing” one's self as Older Members will do nothing of the sort as it wouldn't be of value for them to brainwash us as then we'd be robots to their will. If they wanted robots they would just create robots instead of humans who are given free will to choose what they want to become in thought and deed. This thinking taught by Ti and Do brings more light to the verse:

Mat 12:43-45 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none. Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.

Cleaning your house means getting rid of all the discarnate influences which includes those that are allowed to linger in one's head perhaps never expressed. However, what we think we tend to be prone to eventually act out and does shape our beliefs, no matter the subject. Ti and Do said we are not responsible for the thoughts that come into our heads but are responsible for allowing them to remain.

So all the discarnate influences that are enacting their thoughts and behaviors on humans, to the overcomer become “evil” - trouble for their completion of the process that yields being accepted into the Next Level family.

ILLUSIONS ABOUND FOR CHRISTIANS, RELIGIONISTS, SPIRITUALISTS AND ATHEISTS ALIKE.

Christians would often tell me that my description of this sounds like I'm trying to earn my way into the kingdom and they felt that's going against God because that's why he sent his son. With the way people have become brainwashed to believe that it's no wonder atheist movements have flourished, largely populated by x-Christians who couldn't stand the hypocrisy of what they repeatedly saw among the so called “believers” or “saved” or “born-againers.” At the same time they would often do what I call, “throw the baby out with the bathwater,” the baby being all the evidence that the Kingdom of God/Heaven is quite real and instead coming to believe yet another illusion that all this came from nothing without any conscious intelligent direction, which is like believing that all those cars rolling off the assembly line at General Motors plants somehow put themselves together without any conscious intelligently driven design and development.

Thinking Jesus “did it for us” (overcame the world) so we don't have to and even finding fault with those who want to TRY is about as logical as setting up a school to teach kids what they don't need to learn to do for themselves because the teacher will always be there to do it for them. Many of these who believe this are brainwashed yet have no idea of it. There certainly exists a mindset that one can earn salvation and/or enlightenment among Hindus, Buddhist and Christians alike. So people dress the part and pray or meditate day and night and count their rosaries and go through all sorts of disciplines that are mostly for naught, though up to the Next Level how they may help each person. But that's where the idea of not earning your way to heaven came from, which is true. Works are all about doing the specific types of service the most currently incarnate Older Member gave us to do evidenced by:

Joh 14:15 If ye love me, keep my commandments.

Joh 14:23 Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

Joh 14:24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.

Yet in all the religions one sees how they have morphed into doing all manner of things they consider “worship,” which Do said really meant “to serve,” that their founder did not instigate. Overcoming our human ways is service to the Next Level as they are the ones who set the overcoming standards to reach up to.

PAUL DESCRIBES DIFFERENT FLESH BODIES FOR MEN, BEASTS, FISHES, TERRESTRIAL AND CELESTIAL EACH HAVING THEIR OWN GLORY (APPARENCY)

Paul comes very close to describing how a Next Level body is also a type of flesh body comparing it to other physical bodies:

1Co 15:38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

1Co 15:40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

1Co 15:41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

The spiritual body Paul is talking about is by primary definition a “non-carnal” or non-physical body but he seems to talk about it as related to the body that Jesus transformed or had transformed for him while he was in the tomb. This is apparently what gave rise to the thinking that during the judgment time even the dead bodies in the graves would come out of their graves because Jesus' did.

Though he may not have known it, The Sun can be equated with representing the Father and the Moon the Son and stars with students who grafted enough to be granted a “white robe” body. Ti and Do did say that first time members may get a body that would still need to eat a little, like by taking a pill or passing under some kind of light.

Once the human kingdom has been overcome, there is no death for that individual. A Next Level member can put on or take off a vehicle in any number of ways to include purposely, as a task, as in crashing the spacecraft they were in, that served various functions in the upcoming harvest phase of their experiment or allowing humans to murder them, as in the case of Jesus when he received instructions of the Transfiguration mount pertaining to how and when to exit by “laying down his body,” allowing himself to be murdered, what can certainly be considered a suicide mission to go into consciously as he did. Even though it was still very hard for him because his physical vehicle wasn't going to enjoy it, he overrode his vehicle.

When any student, young or Older Member of the Next Level has ceased to fear death of their vehicle and have adopted the behavior and ways of the Next Level that includes having disconnected from all their human root systems then they have “Overcome the human world” aka said as “conquered” in Rev 6 which is also said as “having prevailed as Jehovah,” actually the Hebrew meaning of the word Israel that Jacob received when he prevailed against the Luciferian fallen angel. They are also at that time a “Christ,” having pressed the oil from the body olive aka refined the gold or as Ti would say, 1Co 15:53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

1Co 15:54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

1Co 15:55 O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

II.A.4.i. JESUS SAYS “THE REST OF THE DEAD LIVED NOT AGAIN UNTIL THE THOUSAND YEARS WERE FINISHED” meaning these had their Souls saved, what Do called being “put on ice” (though not literal ice), which is in addition to those who gave their lives

Rev 20:4 And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshiped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.
Rev 20:5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

Rev 20:6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

In March of 1994, three months after Do and the student body began their second wave of public meetings since the first wave in 1975-6, He referred to the new students who joined as a “second resurrection.”

This is very interesting to think about in relationship to Do also saying in 1996 and/or 1997 that some of those who were in his classroom at the time of their voluntary exit of their human vehicles would still need to have additional experience overcoming the human world, as some had only been in the “classroom” since 1994. This is not to say this applied only to those who joined in 1994. Do was not specific as to which individuals needed to return to the human testing ground to secure an adult Next Level body and a seat on Ti's crew, as he sometimes referred to their graduation as.

Do said those who joined in 1994, in a sense had an easier time to come up to speed in the behaviors and ways of the classroom because those before them laid the groundwork for them. There is a certain kind of testing that takes place through the acquisition of tenacity - dealing with the attacks from discarnate influences for a longer time while not getting concrete proof of one's chosen direction. Time alone is not the factor but it does have a bearing just like it takes a certain amount of time for a human baby to be born naturally, as with all species of life on Earth. Being born out of the human kingdom and into the Next Level Above Human kingdom is just as much a part of the overall design and in fact the ultimate purpose to the design of all the kingdom levels.

There is no reference in the scriptural records to a “second resurrection” but going by Rev 20, there is to be a 1000 year period before the first resurrection had completed. From that it seems that the 1000 years separated the harvests so that for those Souls if they were saved they would be qualifying as being among those in the “First Resurrection.”

II.A.4.j. OLD TESTAMENT PROPHET DANIEL IS TOLD OF HIS RETURN AND PEOPLE IN GRAVES RISING TO THEIR JUDGMENT

Dan 12:13 But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou shalt rest, and stand in thy lot at the end of the days.

Dan 12:2 And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

II.A.5. JESUS DESCRIBES HIS RETURN AND REVEALING TO INCLUDE HIS FATHER COMING WITH HIM INCARNATE SUBSTANTIATED FURTHER BY DISCIPLES JOHN, PETER AND THE OLD TESTAMENT PROPHET DANIEL

II.A.5.a. JESUS SAYS “WE WILL COME UNTO HIM AND MAKE OUR ABODE WITH HIM”

Joh 14:19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also.

The human world will not see him anymore, which includes his disciples yet they would see him but that is not to what kind of seeing he is referring. He is preparing them for the time of his incarnate return. His coming from the grave as a “glorified body” as it has come to be called is the proof of who he is in this first coming. This comes out more in the next verse:

Joh 14:20 At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.

So they will “at that day” know better how this all works to where all are within one another as it's a mind/spirit connection that is as literal as a genetic root system among humans seen by many evidences in humans of the same family that have similar ways their brains work and think and act alike or at least have a preponderance of like behaviors and ways, though they often diversify as the offspring grows up and adopts others behaviors and ways, making them their own.

Joh 14:21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest* myself to him.

*manifest= 1718 emphanizo em-fan-id'-zo from emfanhV - emphanes 1717; to exhibit (in person) or disclose (by words)= appear, declare (plainly), inform, (will) manifest, shew, signify.

1717 emphanes em-fan-ace' from a compound of en - en 1722 and fainw - phaino 5316; apparent in self= manifest, openly

The criteria in which he will exhibit, appear, declare, inform, shew himself entails keeping the goals he set for them to abide in. That is the way love is shown.

Joh 14:22 Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

This is why most are not aware that the Two Witnesses were the Father and Jesus return. They were not make ready to receive it until now as it wasn't their time. That is offensive to some to consider as they think they are such good Christians that God would certainly not come and not include them. Remember what Jesus said to the Jews who thought they were the ones who would recognize the Messiah by their criteria.

Jesus is speaking to some scribes and Pharisees calling them hypocrites as the children of those who killed the prophets.

Mat 23:37 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!

Mat 23:38 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.

Mat 23:39 For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

In other words, they will be tested to accept someone coming in the name of the Lord RATHER than the Lord coming directly to them again.

Their "house" the house of Israel will be left desolate (as waste) because of how the tribes to date constantly killed all the ones sent to them, as Jesus addresses in the verses leading up to this section of Mat 23:37. And it is also for the reason of their rejection of him and those sent before him that they wouldn't recognize him anyway as upon his return he again comes "undercover," in a way not observable visually for certain because he is incarnate again and talks in terms they have not become open to accepting, having not accepted him then, and because all this modus operandi of his return is described "as a thief" - secretly, even though he shouts out his message publicly, as a trumpet announcement. However, if one is not prepared for this sounding by being open to his arrival and gifted with the ability to see, the result of receipt of a "tag" or "deposit" from the Next Level before his coming public then there is no way to recognize his coming until he provides that avenue. He does provide that avenue by his departure and the seven roars (thunders) he provides that are also public announcements that go throughout the world, though is largely ignored by many, combated and squelched by others. Jesus also says it will be given in a new tongue (language) in a NEW land (Jerusalem), as well as to a new ethnic melting pot that is shown by many proves, (in another section of this book) to be the United States of America.

Finally, a direct reference to the Father's return with him incarnate as the word "abode" means in most applications throughout the four gospels as, "to dwell" or "reside" with. Many Christians who are falsely programmed would rather believe it was a "spiritual" abiding just the way the Luciferians want them to believe so they will miss seeing the manifestation of the return:

Joh 14:23 Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

FALSE CHRISTS ARE FALSE PROPHETS ARE TWO PERSPECTIVES OF WHO JESUS CALLED THE "TARES":

Mar 13:22 For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect.

After all, if a false Christ was only someone who claimed to be a Christ or a Maitreya in the Buddhist tradition, wouldn't they also be a false Prophet? So why state both. I don't find Jesus used any words casually. I believe a False Christ is a false overcomer, where a false prophet is someone who is teaching a false doctrine, no matter their religious or spiritual affiliations or titles. Now someone that doesn't know better is not in the same category, as far as the Kingdom of God/heaven is concerned, as someone who can know better.

Joh 15:22 If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloak for their sin.

This also applies today. Those that were not prepared to receive Ti and Do as who they really are not held accountable by the Next Level until they are presented with the clear choice. Then if they reject him, they no longer have a cloak for their choice to “sin” (miss the mark, not seek the goal provided by, in this case now, by believing in and standing up for Ti and Do that will not bode well for them as far as their relationships with those who don't. For those that never hear about Ti and Do, it's yet potentially a different scenario but when it comes right down to it, it's a person by person CHOICE AND JUDGMENT not to be determined by anyone in a human vehicle, as we, believers or not in Ti and Do don't have the capacity to know what each human being has been up against and whether or not they may change before they die in such a way that Ti and Do's crew will take their Soul/spirit and save it for a future opportunity to “overcome” after the garden is recycled and a new garden experiment is begun.

Thus a true christian at this time would be someone who seeks to embrace everything Jesus provided to his students to think, say and do while he was incarnate. Christing is a process and it requires the physically present (incarnate) Older Member, “Our Father,” to give ourselves, our will to in order to complete. This would include asking the Father in Heaven for His will for us and it would require “watching” - observing all that happens in the world making special note of things that happen in or related to the literal heavens for clues of his re-arrival. Then one would recognize when we learn of someone who is teaching the exact same things which will always entail separating from all our ties and bonds to this world.

UPON THE OLDER MEMBERS RETURN as is all shown to students by that Older Member who is someone who has accomplished the “separating/overcoming process” because a big part of it is to give one's SELF away and that needs to be done to complete the “metamorphic,” twinkle of an eye,” CHANGE entailed by having someone physically with us to give ourselves (our will) to.

There are many facsimiles of this “overcoming process” throughout all the religions that teach aspects of this, even as separating from otherwise normal human life pathways so various devotees do overcome many human characteristics. The problem is that without the genuine Older Member to give us what He is instructed to give students/disciples, what is really happening with the religious and/or spiritual devotees is they are performing some of the works of overcoming but not bonding with a genuine member from the Kingdom of God/Heaven's “Next Level” so it becomes yet another human addiction to only the idea of overcoming/enlightenment that has them think they are outgrowing their humanness and excelling to a higher state of consciousness.

As simple as it sounds, it's missing the midwife who NEEDS to be in the birthing, who brings the student into the realistic thinking and why's for the process to begin with. A Luciferian fallen angel knows a lot of this process so they teach it to be that facsimile, so when the genuine Older Member comes incarnate, many who could have been ready to drop all and follow with this genuine representative don't because they think they are already on the “path to enlightenment” as the highest state of mankind when it's not. Thus the Luciferian space alien fallen angels paths are all “dead end paths,” if they don't give them up in recognition of the whole truth and nothing but the truth that ONLY a Next Level member can provide.

One huge difference between who is a genuine Member of the Next Level and who is a charlatan operating through humans they have brainwashed, which also has it's facsimile, is that an Older Member from the Next Level will never indicate that you are giving enough by staying in your human life while having a part time relationship with them. And they will never allow children to join them because a child can not choose to give up what they have not tasted.

This is why the human kingdom is a “footstool,” or “stepping stone” into the Next Level. One must have human experiences that they then need to shed in thought, word and deed. And what they are choosing to do by leaving behind everything can never be seen by really any in the human kingdom as a “good choice” because all those who choose not to follow with the Older Member are either not ready at that time or are opposed to the idea entirely which sets up part of the friction a student needs to overcome being drawn back into the world by. They they will always be seen as subscribing to the teachings of a dangerous cult and their leader will be hated in degrees by most. Of course many will just say, it's not for them so will not have much emotion associated, that is often until their departure and it seems unbelievable and even evil as they won't relate to what all the students went through to arrive at a voluntary exit.

I know Do said that the scripture about the “days being shortened for the elect” he was referencing as their choice to exit before their human lives had run their course to die by whatever means, but as with all things Jesus said, there are a number of degrees of accurate application to them. As I was writing this it occurred to me that it could also mean that for the remnant, being those of the second fruit harvest they too would have their days shortened because when they stand up for Ti and Do they will be hated for doing so and many will be killed for doing so. This may seem a fantasy as after all it's been many years since Ti and Do's group left and people like myself have been standing up in degrees for them among our vehicle's families and friends and through various social media sites and chat rooms, etc. and no one is after us/them to kill us/them. But that is because the truth as it relates to scripture has not been laid out in this straight forward way before.

This book, by it's publish will get into the hands of many who can see that Christianity or any of the religions or spiritual pursuits doesn't satisfy them or resemble much of what Jesus taught and demonstrated. This writing spells out why and some will come to believe in Ti and Do and the church leaders and families of those new believers in Ti and Do will be enraged that this “cult,” organized or not, was influencing their loved ones in that way and will want to put a stop to it in all ways they can.

Anyone that knows the detail of the Jesus story will recognize that the reason he was sought after to kill, a good while before he facilitated their doing so by his instruction from his Father, was because of the fear that the hierarchy of the religious institutions would lose their influence and standing with their congregations and thus with the state. There simply would be no reason to follow the religious and so the religious would become the ones who seek to kill off those that are the bearers of the updated truth and that becomes the ticket for the ones standing up for the Next Level Older Member to get on that “chariot” after they exit their physical body. All will exit their physical bodies eventually. The Next Level will once again see to it that these “time will be shortened” as well.

So the religious and spiritual pathways, though Ti and Do said they were paths to the top of the mountain, thus of service to the overall schoolroom on Earth by this time, to put it in somewhat modern terms is a “head trip.” Many that have followed these pathways are/were seekers and that was their thirst for the truth that took them away from traditional belief systems, thus a good thing relative to the Next Level overcoming process. But many grew tired of what many alternatives offered and settled down in more or less normal human lives taking various ideas as their personal spiritual practice with or without a support group or institutional membership. These and others often built their ego into becoming someone who is fulfilling their path to enlightenment even while living a completely full human life, with careers, building families, becoming a humanitarian and/or environmentalist, so feel they are doing their part to fulfill what started as a quest for the truth.

Some of these came to become teachers of various paths they learned and mastered, whether it was yoga, meditation, healing and other art forms, and became part of the new age industry of the idea of satisfaction and fulfillment from certain “practice” and/or just “being” the “god within” (adopted from a couple things Jesus said and misunderstood while also largely ignoring dozens of other things he taught), again another twist on “not having to DO anything to earn one's “wings,” so to speak, that many Christians also teach. All are missing the fact that the Next Level is real and physical and in real physical life you don't get something that's really good for nothing. In any human organization, if you don't work to make it work and if enough don't work to make it work, it fails.

In the Next Level organization, they don't even let you in unless you prove to them beyond a shadow of a doubt that you want it more than anything else and maintain that frame of mind for years over multiple in-carnal experiences taking over a human vehicle and training it to abide by the current Older Member's instructions. And yet the Next Level keeps a balance of positive and negatives so we each stand a chance.

As Ti and Do said and shocked many of us into reality, “the Next Level doesn't NEED you,” it is their joy to offer what they have and know is extraordinarily special and everlasting and beyond the human kingdom, but the offer has steep requirements to accept, that they will help you with as long as you are asking for it in some ways. In some ways they help even when people are so asleep they don't think to ask for their help. These are seen as both man made and natural disasters. They don't stimulate the man made ones except by their presence that is like making the ants in the anthill get a bit frantic if they have not become accustomed to their higher impossible to detect as from their energy, output.

Even though all these things are part of the human experience so are not right or wrong to engage, some by their various success as “spiritual leaders” become looked up to by one's fellow humans, even though there are rivalries among the spiritual and religious and even among sects of the same forms but within their ranks are looked up to and/or assume they have become masters or the mouthpiece of Jesus or God to humans or even just the ones who are “saved” or going to heaven, or to join the spiritual hierarchy of ascended masters, yet no one has left the planet except the tiny bit they do when they leave their body and are then floating about continuing in whatever belief they had before they died.

For instance a friend has a friend who claims to channel John Lennon's spirit and was doing so somewhere in Amsterdam at some concert and said that John said to her that “all you need is love” and something about being very at peace where he was. No one can dispute that Jesus taught and instructed his disciples to “love your neighbors as yourself” and how the greatest love is laying down one's life for their friend that Jesus said he was to his disciples at that time, not being his servants.

Jesus said to love your enemies and bless them that use or abuse you, because they don't know any better or they wouldn't do what they do. But that was all part of the training program to be willing to sacrifice our human comfort and even very life for one's Older Member who sacrifices his life for you to show you the example, NOT to do it for you, so you don't have to as some misguided Christians seem to believe.

Even though “peace” was a description of kind and gentle behavior Jesus said it was the rule of acting among one another, while he said that in the world these would have trouble and turmoil because they would be hated if they stood for what their Older Member stood for. So it would appear John got what he wanted and I'm not going to guess whether or not his Soul or spirit will be taken by the Next Level, saved for a future overcoming of humanness opportunity. If he had overcome a significant amount of his humanness, before he died he would have tried to join up with Ti and Do to finish up his overcoming. If he was a seeker and was in his own way communicating with an Older Member in his privacy, he would have been led to see one of the seven roars that were very public from 1975 to 1997+.

But in Joh 14:23 “abode” is translated from the Greek, “meno”=a staying, residence, abode, mansion, dwelling. When Jesus wasn't speaking in story form he was talking literally. Like said, if upon his return he would have the same kind of relationship he had with his Father then, he wouldn't need to suggest some other more concrete relationship. But as is the Next Level way, it's each of our choice to believe what we want from it.

II.A.5.b.i. HOW JESUS IS REVEALED IN PROPHECY - CORRELATION OF 1TH 4:16-17 WITH REV 6:1-2 AND THE REV
5:1 “BOOK” WRITTEN WITHIN AND ON THE BACKSIDE, “WITHIN” BEING THE 7 ROAR/THUNDERS AND THE “LITTLE BOOK” (REV 10) BEING THE BACKSIDE AS IT COMES LATER AFTER TI AND DO AND FIRSTFRUIT CREW HAS EXITED THEIR INCARNATIONS AND IT’S CONTENT PERTAINS TO BIBLE PROPHECY FULFILLMENT AS PROOF THAT TI AND DO
WERE/ARE THE PROMISED INCARNATE RETURN

Speaking is talking, uttering, preaching and relates to NOT telling parables, suppositions, adages, illustrations that instead REVEAL (Luk 17:30), and OPEN THE SEAL (Rev 6:1) on what was previously HIDDEN/SEALED (Dan 12:4, Rev 10:4) AND were a mystery to everyone until then. Much remains a mystery for most until after the Two Witnesses have exited their incarnation with their first fruit students. These are the “dead in Christ, meaning Souls who during their experience serving Jesus the Christ gave their lives disseminating all Jesus taught that they also became hated for. That is their “christening” experience, though not the last one as the ultimate christening is when one has “overcome the human world/evolutionary mammalian condition,” as JESUS SAID HE DID which is according to the direction of an in-carnal Older Member again. Thus these “dead in Christ,” do rise first as Paul writes:

1Th 4:16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice ((5456 phone= disclosure, sound, tone, noise)) of the archangel ((captain of angels)), and with the trump ((4536 salpigx= through the idea of quavering or reverberation)) of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:
1Th 4:17 Then we which are alive and remain ((4035 perileipo= leave over, to survive)) shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

Note how these verses correlate with:

Rev 6:1 And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise ((5456 phone= disclosure, sound, tone, noise)) of thunder ((1027 bronte= akin to bremo= to roar)), one of the four beasts ((Living Beings NOT beasts)) saying, Come and see.

Rev 6:2 And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

Considering the names Ti and Do took were “tonal” names that they actually felt were stimulated by the movie the Sound of Music's (Do, Re, Me, Fa, So, La, Ti...Do - the beginning of the next octave that Ti stimulates Do to become - Rev 12:2-5, born to the role of the Older Member on the Throne) which they said was given to humans to make a movie from because of how the story line outlined Ti and Do's awakening and birthing of their children from the evil predator satans (adversaries). And it was Captain Von Trapp that needed to be awakened to his role with his “Children,” the student body.

An archangel is considered to be a CAPTAIN of angels and Jesus was considered to be the same Soul who was named Michael in Daniel's prophecies that correlates with much that John wrote down in the Book of Revelations. The “roar/thunder” is the sound a lion makes and Jesus was considered to be the Lion of Juda who Opens the Seal on the part of the Rev 5:1 BOOK described as “written from within the Throne” - with the BACKSIDE written AFTER the FRONT. Thus the One “sitting on the white horse (physical human vehicle) is the same Older Member Soul who was last incarnate in the vehicle named Jesus.

Ti and Do's vehicles were raised and awakened in Texas and a “texas” is of a Mexican etymology that identifies the upper deck of a Mississippi riverboat that is where the CAPTAIN'S ABODE (dwelling) is, thus Ti and Do both chose human vehicles from and made their dwelling in the U.S. State of Texas as the Admiral and CAPTAIN of the New Jerusalem spacecraft in EAST most part of the geography of the western U.S., that was to be the new Temple area for their return just like the position they held in the Moses encampment (on the East side which led their trek through the desert.

Do's vehicle had been born, Marshall Herf Applewhite and a horse in that context was meant to represent a human vehicle the Next Level Older Member would “sit on” (a task position) to use to demonstrate conquering the human kingdom (aka overcoming the world) by and for the “bow” he had with him - the Covenant with the Student body who were also learning to Conquer their Humanness through him. More on this later in the section on the 7 seals, this being the start of the First Seal following the exit of Ti from her vehicle as they planned ahead for.

But returning to 1Th 4:16-17:

They resurrect (stand up again) in new physical human bodies FIRST among all slated to return for their next opportunity and they are also FIRST to be “harvested” which requires once again their self sacrifice of their human lives in two stages - the FIRST application of the Two Edged Sword of His Mouth. The first Edge was when the Students were gathered by the Older Member who requires them to “leave all behind and disconnect from their human families and relationships” - cutting their roots with those words) that is IF they want to come with them (The Two Witnesses), as Jesus also required of some. This doesn't mean everyone cuts this root system at that time. The second stage of the two edged sword is when they are instructed to exit their human bodies. During Jesus' second trimester of three “experiential classroom” that instruction was to go out and tell all which HE knew if they did they would meet the death of their vehicles. The Luciferian Space Alien Souls, as devils and adversaries (Satans) by their opposition to these students and the Older Members become a big part of the footstool to their next station towards harvest/graduation.

Thus those that “REMAIN” as Paul writes in...:

1Co 15:52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

...can be anyone who believed during the time of the “dead in Christ's rising” stages AND those who come to believe in these most recent Representatives from the Kingdom of God/Heaven, the Two Witnesses and demonstrate that belief by “taking a stand” for Ti and Do and all they taught, which in so doing will become subject to the “winepress” styled “second harvest” in which they too lose their physical bodies while in service to these TWO's teachings as these TWO are hated as much as Jesus is hated. That's just the way it works. Humans that have little to no Next Level mind in them see what those with growing Next Level mind in them as a threat to their comfort levels because the real truth strikes a chord that becomes an antagonist though those spreading Ti and Do's teachings don't intend it to be. It's the nature of growth. Humans have to be stimulated to change, especially when they have been provided the opportunity to have a comfortable and fruitful life as a human. These are the ones who come to hate the Teachings of the two, not the dissidents who see through some of the illusions, at least enough to be against them.

The winepress is how the next level describes the “last” harvest time period during which there is a great deal of bloodshed of those who don't give their allegiance to the Beast whose souls are thereby saved by the Next Level for a future planting.

John is told in Rev 10:11 that he (representing the TASK, NOT necessarily the same Soul who wrote Revelations) would have to prophecy (speak to those who were still not able to understand fully because it hadn't been spelled out precisely in their appropriately expected “christian terms,” that is, referencing scriptural records yet), “during the time of the seventh and last trumpets sounding which I believe is evidenced as now that I will show the documentation a little further into this book.

I suspect that John, being one of Jesus assigned delegates (apostles) became thoroughly studied of the Old Testament Prophet, Daniel's visions/prophecy which made him a key choice for the Father and Jesus to provide the Book of Revelations to. The brain of any human being needs to be prepped to become a useful instrument, so students at times are encouraged to study scripture during each new incarnation of the Next Level Older Member.

Here is where Daniel was told to seal up the vision he experienced:

Dan 12:4 But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

And then John was told to “seal up” (don't write down then) what the “seven roars had uttered their voices” about, that was going to be the greater part of the the content of the “front side of the book” that the returning Older Member, Do would provide, headed by Ti and then backed up by Ti upon her earlier exit of her incarnation (Rev as this was Do's task to take the throne position of.

Rev 10:4 And when the seven thunders ((roars)) had uttered their voices ((disclosures (revealings))), I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

Thus the unsealed part that remains to REVEAL AFTER the Two Witnesses deliver the Seven Roars ending with their incarnation exit, with the first fruit souls harvest is depicted as the “backside” of the Book* as is IN REGARDS to the END of what comes before it, that is the main content of the Book that is “written from within.”

Do and Crew published their Book which they described as “An Anthology of Our Materials.” It was therefore written from within, from among them, from all Ti and Do taught over their 25 combined years incarnate. The name of that book is: “How and When “Heaven's Gate” (The Door to the Physical Kingdom Level Above Human) May Be Entered,” (Purple Book). The “Backside” is in REGARD to this Source that is written afterward and “on the back” - the subject matter being the history that led up to the Source for it all - from Ti and Do's Next Level Minds.

Rev 5:1 And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside ((3693 opisthen= from opis (regard, from 3700) with enclitic of source, adjective, from behind, on the back, behind, after)), sealed with seven seals.

And this interpretation of what the “backside” of the book is referring to pulls from:

Rev 10:1 And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire:

Rev 10:2 And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,

The time frame is given when this “little book” will be the the finish of the revealing of what was before then still a mystery to most.

Rev 10:7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

This seventh angel has what he is describing the content of a “little book,” which in Greek is “974 bibliaridion.” This content to the one writing it as well as to anyone who believes it's content and how it relates to the front of the book whose content I propose is the seven roars causes these responses:

Rev 10:8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

Rev 10:9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

Rev 10:10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

This backside, coming AFTER as a “little book” seems to be referring to what happened in the past, the back story to what Ti and Do shared that was the current “written from within” primary book, in the way the verse pertains to how the days of the seventh angels disclosure will provide for the how and when the “mystery of God should be finished” noting the description of it's content, “as he hath declared to his servants the prophets,” none other than all who served the Next Level by speaking the truth in times past. This seems to refer to all Jesus, Daniel, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Zechariah, Moses, Enoch, Joel, etc. said about the “end time.” In other words this little book (backside) will provide understanding wherever there is still mystery and is not what the Two Witnesses and Crew focus on because for them that was not anything new. They didn't need to see the correlations of Ti and Do with all the many scriptural passages in order to believe in Ti and Do. They were all the product of that past as they each had souls who had lived during those times and were probably among the Seventy disciples who Jesus had as followers at one point. This Little book is for those who needed to see the truth spelled out to believe which is NOT a put down at all. Everyone needs help to grow towards Next Level graduation just like every baby needs help to become a child who needs help to become an good adult.

Do said, Ti came possibly because as he said, “perhaps I needed that help,” because of how complicated everything in this world had become. He said “perhaps there are many in the Next Level that could perform this task” he had. He said he didn't care about any of that.

This section about the “little book” concludes with:

Now this would seem like I am saying, I am John and am doing the prophesy since this was talking to John. But that's human thinking. This is a task and the Next Level can give it to whomever they choose. And one might also say, “so your saying you are a prophet.” Well if I am speaking the information given by the Next Level Older Members, to include past to present, to the public, then that makes this vehicle the instrument of prophecy and in fact anyone who does the same by repeating things Ti and Do said and did, and relates them to what Jesus and the Old Testament Prophets said is also performing that prophecy. Publishing this everywhere it can go is performing that prophecy before many people, nations and tongues. The internet accomplishes that and anyone who helps with it's distribution is also therefore a prophet.

That word “prophet,” was even made into a title. Look at how the Mormon, Latter Day Saints even refer to their leadership as “prophets” - (with names like Prophet Amos and Prophet Jeremiah, etc.). That's what Jesus was so opposed to when he said refer to no human as your “Father” and yet all these priests have succumb to putting themselves on the pedestal as if they can forgive sins and speak for God, which is an abomination for the Next Level Members to witness. These are false Christians and false prophets. False prophets are those that say things the Lord did not give them to say as if they were speaking for God.

I am not coming up with anything new, though the nature of the task is such that I am trying to show what was most intended as those understandings were kept hidden on purpose for revealing at this time. But if I can't tie them to something that doesn't require guesswork, it's better that I don't say anything about it. I have had to catch myself at times and no doubt some of it may be in these pages but if so I doubt they are points of much consequence or that can't be used by the Next Level to sort of filter out the more serious seekers from. This book has been a huge learning experience so what comes in the later part is often clearer and more accurately stated than in earlier parts.

And this is sweet to my mouth to see all this and yet I know my time is limited because shortly after it's published my task will be completed and the Next Level will allow the lower forces to seek this vehicle out to do it in. I have accepted that though I can't say I look forward to it, but hope to just get it over with quickly. But for whatever it's worth, I don't believe this Soul that is trying to take over this vehicle is the same Soul who used the vehicle named John to write the book of Revelations. I believe that Soul has graduated, but it really doesn't matter at all as there is no glory in who we were. It's who we are NOW that counts. Do always felt sickened by the bumper sticker he'd see that said something to the affect of "Jesus the same yesterday, today and tomorrow" as if the Older Member Soul that was using the vehicle named Jesus didn't grow. Plus whenever Ti and Do heard people talking up being the reincarnation of this or that historic figure, Cleopatra, Jesus, etc. as if that raised their stature, the thought it sad that they wanted to related to being someone in the past to boost who they are now. It is for this reason Ti and Do were upset with knowing they would have to say they were the fulfillment of the tasks described as the Revelations Two Witnesses, because it looked like they were doing that same thing, while they knew, even well before they realized they were to fulfill the Two Witnesses prophecy that they had come from the Next Level in outer space to bring updates to the Bible and fulfill prophecy.

TI REMEMBERS THE BRIEFING

Rev 5 is outlining the "briefing" PREPARATION for the return. I believe this is what Ti had described only as a "briefing on board a spacecraft" that she said she "remembered." I can't think of any other thing she said like that, that she "remembered." Ti said she recalled being on a spacecraft and there were some that had physical bodies with them and there were many around the back of the meeting area without physical bodies.

Do later wrote in a book, the group printed, bound and distributed so was never officially published, entitled: “88 UPDATE - THE UFO TWO AND THEIR CREW, A Brief Synopsis,” he authored on October 18, 1988:

“They were briefed as a crew aboard a spacecraft about how they would incarnate into human vehicles in order to do a task. They left their Kingdom “world” and came into this 'world' beginning in the late 1940's. They feel that some left their Next Level bodies via so-called UFO 'crashes.' However, they believe that the crashes were not accidental, as they appeared to be to the humans who witnessed the remains and recovered some of the bodies.”

While researching for this book, I came upon a description of the Laredo, Texas crash that was actually right on the border, even on the Mexico side of the border in 1945 or 1946 that had one body found in the wreckage. In this case this UFO really seemed to go out of it's way to be seen by military and air traffic controllers as it zig-zagged around which certainly appeared to be a deliberate crash.

Ti and Do never spoke in story form that I ever heard or read. They were always very direct and to the point while not claiming to know everything about things that were not related to their task. They started out with a legal size typewritten page they called “Statement One” or “Statement I.” By October of 1975 they had written two more Statements and a prospective candidate letter. All told, their story was quite well “roared” all over the planet but primarily to the U.S. and anyone who had access and read the New York Times as Ti and Do's picture was the cover of the magazine section with their story inside. Ti and Do felt it was the most objective account of what their mission was about that they had seen. They gave the interviews to Mr Phelan and the article is easy to find on the internet published in 1976.

There were also articles in Time, Newsweek and Psychology today ran a couple and virtually every newspaper in the U.S. probably ran some sort of a story about Bo and Peep, the UFO Two Witnesses and the people who vanished from Waldport, Oregon in September of 1975, which I was one of. Thus this entailed the “first roar” that also became a very distorted movie that was trying link Ti and Do's group to the Jonestown murder/mass suicides that was really NOTHING LIKE they way Ti and Do's group exited by laying down their lives. That movie was called, “The Mysterious Two.” Ti and Do are portrayed as wearing long white robes which they never did. They always wore, green or some related color/shade matching windbreakers and never talked in a flowery spiritual sounding way nor like a preacher or evangelist nor salesman nor self empowerment speaker. They always spoke very matter a fact though after the public meetings ended in 1976, for 17 years we gave no public meetings nor had any form of recruiting, Ti and Do at times certainly spoke to the student body with urgency in their voice to as Ti would say, “get your mind into your vehicles.” She was talking to the returning souls/minds who were trying to take over our human vehicles to complete their overcoming through.

TI AND DO SPEAK OF “BODY CHANGES” THAT WOULD START WITHIN EACH STUDENT

The changes students would experience from taking in more Next Level Mind Ti and Do called “body change” compared to what happens with the caterpillars body changing into a butterfly (not flying body) analogy. Students were literally drawing in Ti and Do's mind as information and it's application in behaviors and ways into their human vehicles Mind that was compared to filling a balloon with Mind then in the process also deflates the human mind balloon, both of which are contained by the human vessel (body).

SPEAKING BECOMES THE UTTERING OF THE SEVEN ROARS (THUNDERS)

Thus this one statement by Jesus, listed as Joh 16:25 that correlates with the UTTERING OF THE SEVEN ROARS (THUNDERS) (Rev 10:3-4) which take place during the time of the 6th Angel with Trumpet sounding, starting in Rev 9:13, which is right after the bottomless pit is opened at the 5th angel's sounding.

THE “BEAST” IS the USA and it's loyal supporters, regardless of differentiation who mostly unknowingly are forwarding the agenda of the “Dragon” (Lucifer) and his associate fallen angels, who become most evident as the Space Aliens when they are let out of the “BOTTOMLESS PIT” to the U.S. arena in the 1940's and 1950's and perhaps thereafter.

Ti and Do said the Next Level put out the call to gather from different planetary gardens individuals that needed to face the test of whether or not they would give their allegiance to the Next Level or choose to side with the Luciferian fallen angels against the Next Level, thus these who decided to side with the Luciferian space aliens constitute the Souls who found themselves forced underground with any hybridized human equivalent vehicles who then emerged from that prison cell, perhaps in the sea, even under Antarctica when the Next Level opened their “pit.”

They are all those who Jesus said would make “mammon” their “master” regardless of their participation in government agendas and their associated agencies, institutions, universities, corporations, etc. and regardless of beliefs termed religious, spiritual, pagan, agnostic or non-belief belief as in atheist and new age that often includes parts of everything. Mammon comes from Greek mammonous which is most directly defined as “wealth and treasure” but I suspect includes those as Jesus indicated are intellectual (learned), scientific, philosophical and artistic when they ultimately don't look to some idea of Creators regardless of the terminology they use. Everyone is under the Luciferian influence but all don't have to continue when they are provided with avenues to see the difference.

These who were shut up underground and/or under the seas, I believe are most current physical vehicles those recorded as the fallen angels aka Enoch's “Watchers” took over/propagated who it seems survived the flood depicted in Genesis chapter 6 by escaping underground and/or undersea then and while underground continued to try to propagate new vehicles by whatever means to use when theirs expired. They were able to continuously influence humans via their discarnate condition as their descendents, those with physical bodies they groomed for their use were grounded, meaning they couldn't get off the planet or for that matter out of their underground bases.

While their physical bodied offspring were still restricted to their underground facilities, as discarnates these Luciferian Space Aliens fallen Souls still sought to influence humans on the surface hoping to teach them how to generate technologies they could then use to try to get off the planet with. The Next Level allowed this but set up boundaries around those human vehicles they didn't want to subject these Luciferian fallen angels to, that is until the incarnate Older Members had gathered the human vehicles chosen for the returning students metamorphic overcoming “classroom” with the Older Members. Then some would be allowed to provide adversarial degrees of influence over students to help strengthen them.

II.A.5.b.ii. A SATAN IS AN ADVERSARIAL DISCARNATE “INFLUENCE” THE NEXT LEVEL ASSIGNS TO STUDENTS TO TEST THEIR RESOLVE THAT TI AND DO CALLED BOOGERS

Ti and Do said each of their students were assigned an “adversary,” one of these now discarnate fallen angels who they called, “boogers.” They would constantly “bombard” these students with reasons to either give up on their overcoming or slip (what Ti and Do called what was termed “sin” - actually simply a “missing of the mark,” the mark being the goal set by the Older Members for their students to meet to qualify to be awarded a seat on their crew once they exited and were assigned tasks on board spacecrafts. These tasks would initially be to help with the sorting of the “sheep” from the “goats” and they would also be engaged in the “pulling up of the tares” since upon their graduation there was no longer a threat of disturbing the first fruits.

The reason the U.S. had a long run of peace and prosperity on it's soil was because the Next Level was setting that area up for this newest “classroom” of overcoming humanness so wanted to make it hard to want to break away from a rather pleasant and rewarding environment unless you were prepared and were a thirsty Mind and were given the gift of recognition of the Older Members so you would be ready to leave all behind to follow them when they blew their trumpet - their prophecy delivery and also called the first ROAR as depicted in Rev 6:1 that sums up the entire time period of the Ti getting Do started and thus Do's conquering of the human kingdom again and using his example to help his first fruit students to conquer the remaining humanness they hadn't yet conquered to be graduated into full adult membership in the Next Level to receive an incorruptible Next Level physical body that is not propagated by mammalian means. It is grown on a vine.

THE MAINSTREAM MEDIA WHICH INCLUDES ALL THE CORPORATE MEDIA PLUS IS THE PRIME MOUTHPIECE FOR THE “BEAST”

It is this “beasts” mouthpiece as the media that subdues (overcomes) the Two, REJECTING HIM/THEM (Luk 17:25) and his/their claim of being from the Kingdom of God/Heaven by pointing to their reputations as “thieves” on National Television, the public square/street, before nations and kindred and tongues - largely the melting pot United States of America.

II.A.5.b.iii. THE TWO WITNESSES ARE SUBDUED BY THE BEASTS MEDIA MOUTHPIECE

When the media subdued them, they had by then already gathered about 70 students. From then until Ti announced the “harvest is closed” on April 21, 1976 at their last public meeting the number had rose to around 100 and among them many were not nearly as serious as they needed to be to overcome their humanness so Ti and Do facilitated their departure from the group and over the next 17 years the number reduced to 24 before allowing some who dropped away to return.

II.A.5.b.iv. BOTH OF THE TWO WITNESSES ARE CHRISTS

These Two Witnesses were described in a number of ways that show them to BOTH be “Christ.” A Christ is someone who has overcome the human world, even many times, so can teach the “process” to someone else when they are assigned the task by their Older Member. It always needs to be accomplished in stages while physically with an incarnate Older Member. We can't do it by ourselves. However, that doesn't mean anyone can't grow very fast by taking to heart all the Older Members teach. The more they overcome now the less they will have to do later and/or the easier it will be, though it is always a hard task even for the Older Member as the human vehicle isn't really naturally desirous of losing all that is meaningful to it, chasing something that is not concretely beneficial to what it considers to it's benefit. We simply learn to override the vehicle's desires, still the most difficult task a human can undertake, believe it or not.

II.A.5.b.v. JESUS IS THE LION OF THE TRIBE OF JUDA, THE ROOT OF DAVID, WHO OPENS THE BOOK WHICH IS WHY WHAT HE SAYS IS DEPICTED AS A THUNDEROUS ROAR

The SPEAKING Jesus says he does upon return is yet another proof he comes incarnate and not depicted anywhere else as clearly as in the Rev 11 Two Witnesses. The seven roars (thunders) are also described as being “uttered” by “voices,” compared to a Lion that correlates with THE LION OF THE TRIBE OF JUDA, THE ROOT OF DAVID, as Jesus is referred, who opens the book and loosens the seven seals and is shown to have completed his task of birthing the first fruit who all conquered their human world as described in Rev 6:1-2 where this same returned Jesus (Do) opens the first seal to release the mysteries of the Kingdom of God/Heaven's realities. This individual in Rev 6:2 has a "bow" which represents the covenant (commitment) he (as Moses and then as Jesus) and his Father (as Jehovah) have with those they are "spirit birthing" (first of two harvest times (Rev 14:14-16)) that required their "overcoming of their human worlds" that the One sitting on the white horse facilitates and is written as conquering. Overcoming, conquering and prevailing are all the same Greek word. And the actual definition of the Hebrew word israel means to "prevail as Jehovah," given to Jacob when he beat back the Luciferian fallen angel. Horse in Rev 6 depicts the human vehicle the Older Member who was Jesus takes that has a white head and white hair and to dot the eye on fulfillment of prophecy fits the bill as Marshall (the sheriff) AppleWHITE, the vehicle that Do took for his task.

II.A.5.b.vi. THE "TWO EDGED SWORD OF HIS MOUTH" EXPLAINED

Examples of how the two edged sword is his mouth. It has two edges. There are several ways to look at this and as is seen with most all prophecy all can apply.

First off, the two edges of his cutting implement are describing the result of the use of his mouth to speak words through. This is how the Older Member does battle because it is the truth that they speak that would be students are prepared to choose to respond to or not. By responding with belief and subsequent action, that truth always ends up "cutting roots" as the battle is not for the life of the souls to which the Older Member speaks. To follow with the incarnate Older Member means leaving all behind which includes their human family and friends and activities, behaviors and ways. That is what the first of the two edges accomplishes IF the student chooses to be "caught away," the real meaning of "rapture," illustrated by Jesus as caught as a fish is caught. Jesus said he would make his disciples "fishers of men."

As Ti and Do said, the relations to the new student can come but they will no longer maintain those old relationships. They will become fellow students like Jesus said about his vehicle's relations:

Mat 12:50 For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

The second edge is commissioning his student to GIVE THE NEXT LEVEL THE LIFE OF THE PHYSICAL BODY THEY HAVE OR ARE IN PROGRESS OF OVERCOMING WHICH IS IN SERVICE TO THE NEXT LEVEL THROUGH THEIR OLDER MEMBER WHETHER IT IS DURING THAT OLDER MEMBERS INCARNATION OR AFTER.

For the students/disciples of Ti and Do that remained til the end, when they laid down their lives in March of 1997, they were giving their lives by literally “laying them down,” as Jesus said he was doing by his own choice in his service to his Older Member (Father):

Joh 10:17 Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

Joh 10:18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father.

By Jesus choice and description of why he was laying down his life - because he was COMMANDED to do so, which is the same as if one's Admiral told a Captain they needed a suicide mission to save lives, he was teaching what they too must do. In this case the lives to be saved are the Souls who without giving that service would not graduate to their next station in their metamorphosis into an Above Human New Being. They were not ready for graduation yet. They had to return yet again to take a “body born of water” away from it's otherwise normal human pathway and then GIVE IT'S LIFE IN WHATEVER WAY THE RETURNED OLDER MEMBERS CHOSE FOR THEM, which again by their so doing, was providing SERVICE so that others could witness their choice to have the opportunity to Believe and begin to serve by starting their own metamorphosis out of the human kingdom.

No matter how it happens, by another's hand or by one's own hand, the loss of the physical life of the vehicle the student has taken over at least enough to be willing to lose their human life on the INSTRUCTION FROM THE ONE THEY RECOGNIZE AS THEIR OLDER MEMBER FROM THE KINGDOM OF GOD, KINGDOM OF HEAVEN, NEXT EVOLUTIONARY LEVEL ABOVE HUMAN is a final severing of their roots. That instruction to perform whatever the service is that will result in the loss of their vehicle's life is the back EDGE of the sword from their Older Member's Mouth/Words. If this takes place after the Older Member was incarnate, I believe they will still have to come back and have another incarnation in a human vehicle to finish up whatever overcoming they have left, which must be done when the Older Member is present with them. It can not be fully accomplished without the Older Member's presence.

For those that come to believe in the incarnate Older Member AFTER that Older Member has left their incarnation (or took their body with them in the case of Jesus), the instruction is to “STAND UP FOR” ALL THE OLDER MEMBER(S) (Ti and Do) SAID AND DID. This means putting one's light received from Them on the hilltop rather than as Jesus said, hiding it under a bushel basket as if it is hidden it can not serve as a beacon that others can see and choose to believe in or not. The STANDING STUDENT is not concerned whether others believe or not. Actually they want them to, because they know the truth about what it can lead to, so for their sakes they want them to believe. But whether some believe or not, that task is to STAND, thus they are performing the task of the first edge of the two edged sword of their mouth, which is an extension of their Older Member's mouth (providing they share the SAME THINGS THE OLDER MEMBER SHARED).

When new ones believe they are also faced with cutting their own roots and in so doing some of those left behind who don't believe may see it as a dangerous cult taking their loved ones and may seek to put a stop to it and that can result in the loss of One's physical vehicle used to STAND by which accelerates that Soul to their next station in their metamorphic process. Their souls will be met by invisible members of the Next Level who will take them to be with their Older Member on board the nearby spacecraft and as it says in prophecy, will be issued a new clean white “garment” to wear. Those that never heard of Ti and Do but are separating from their human world in their own way, whatever way that is, when they lose their human vehicle by whatever means could be “saved” - “put on ice” (not literally). In either case they will be given further opportunities to take over a new “born of water” body at a time when the Older Member is incarnate to be in their next most appropriate to their growth needs, “experiential classroom,” literally with the incarnate Older Member.

These who give their lives in this “Christing” process, for their Older

Member who has demonstrated that same “Christing” process, which with overcoming all aspects of the human condition is what makes them anointed and enlightened is what Paul of Tarsus was calling the “dead in Christ” the rise first. They are the first fruits.

Here are some further descriptions of the TWO EDGED SWORD of his mouth:

Rev 1:16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp ((KEEN, SWIFT, POINTED))* two edged** sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

Rev 2:12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith he which hath the sharp ((KEEN, SWIFT, POINTED [possibly related to being more “plain, bold” talk as another prophecy points out]))* sword with two edges ((MOUTHS-LANGUAGES and/or TERMINOLOGIES))**;

*sharp= 3691 oxus probably akin to the base of akmen 188 (“acid”); keen; by analogy, rapid= sharp, swift.

188 akmen= accusative case of a noun (“acme”) akin to ake (a point) and meaning the same; adverbially, just now, i.e. still= yet.

**two edged = 1366 distomos= from dis 1364 and stoma 4750; double-edged= with two edges, two-edged.

1364 dis adverb from duo 1417; twice= again, twice.

1417 duo, a primary numeral; “two”= both, twain, two.

mouth= 4750 stoma probably strengthened from a presumed derivative of the base of tomeros 5114; the mouth (as if a gash in the face); by implication, language (and its relations); as a figure, an opening (in the earth); specially, the front or edge (of a weapon)= edge, face, mouth.

5114 tomeros, comparative of a derivative of the primary temno (to cut; more comprehensive or decisive than kopto 2875, as if by a single stroke; whereas that implies repeated blows, like hacking); more keen= sharper.

It's interesting that the root meaning of “two edged,” is having “two or a double mouth.” Another potential simultaneous meanings behind this prophecy can be seen in the way there were literally two “raptures” in the mission of Ti and Do. The first was when they went public in 1975 (though they began their prophecy in 1973 in which they both spoke as one but Do spoke some 90% of the time as Ti always said she came to “get you [Do] started”) and over nine months of public meetings gathered about 100 initial students before as Ti said, “the harvest is closed” on April 21, 1976.

No public meetings were held again until 9 years after Ti left her vehicle (the earth opened up her mouth) again lasting for nine months starting on January 1, 1994, when Do and his 24 elder students with about a dozen returnee students who had dropped out over those years, went public face to face again in 1994 and gathered another dozen students. (About half of those ended up dropping out in the next few years until there were 38 remaining who laid down their lives, the other interpretation of the second edge for all of them. (4 who had been in the group also laid down their lives in the next few years after the March 1997 event, bringing the total for the first fruit harvest to 42. For those that dropped out over those years or were asked to leave the group by Ti and/or by Do, their second edge is yet to come, that is IF they STAND for Ti and Do til their end no matter the consequences.

Yet another simultaneous interpretation of the TWO mouths (edges) would be in the way that both the Father and Son came incarnate together this time as though Do did most of the talking during most of their public meetings in 1975-6, and even in the private meetings held in the group over the next 9 years until Ti left her vehicle on June 19, 1985 Ti did plenty of talking. It's not at all about the amount of talking anyway and who is the primary deliverer, but for the sake of showing this correlation, they certainly were literally Two Mouths delivering at least the FIRST EDGE of their joint “mouth” being their words/language, the true information about the Next Level and the overcoming metamorphic process required for membership.

In being thorough, there is yet one more aspect to TWO Mouths and that has to do with terminology. It was always a challenge to talk about the Next Level as the previous information delivery by the Older Member incarnate as Jesus was written down and passed on in the resulting religion called Christianity so is seen as religious words and ideas. After all, a religion is actually defined as a “belief system.” It's very clear that once a belief in something becomes organized and is subject to distortions and exaggerations and misinformation infiltration it gradually ceases demonstrating the truth about what it was founded upon. In the case of Christianity as it doesn't teach the Overcoming of humanness Process that is the Christing Process all must experience to reap the promised rewards, it has thus become a false belief system and a “false Christ.” However, each individual that believes themselves to be a follower of Jesus and identify that belief as coming through Christianity is not judged by what has become false UNTIL they hear the truth and ignore or deny or speak out against it. Even then, if they change their mind (repent) before they die in their vehicle, depending on the judgment of the Next Level crew overseeing us all, could still get right with their Older Member, the one who was incarnate as Jesus by asking his forgiveness in the name of the new vehicle he took, which was called Do during the current incarnation.

It is largely for the sake of those who identify themselves as believers in Jesus and who think of themselves as Christians that this book has been tasked to become available as it is written largely in the terminology of the records. Ti and Do and their Crew always spoke in both terms (tongues), meaning using terms they felt were more clinical, objective and that they referred to as “generic” and thus more realistically truthful, because of how religious terms had become a dilution and distortion of that same truth. In their sixth roar/thunder, they spoke in both vernaculars, thus “two mouths” entitled: 'UNDERCOVER “JESUS” SURFACES BEFORE DEPARTURE' and in the more generic objective terms, “95 STATEMENT BY AN E.T. PRESENTLY INCARNATE.” This latter version is still posted on Heavensgate.com, while I have included the former.

Finally, the use of the idea of the Older Members having a “mouth” that is “a sharp sword” is shown in the way their revealed truth ends up striking that non-believers, who at this time include many religionists and Christians because of how they have come to accept the “false gods” doctrines. They are pained to hear the truth and because of it become enraged by it and thus become the instruments of the “winepress.” They end up trampling over the believers in Ti and Do and actually any who are separating from the ways of the Luciferian run human world:

Rev 19:15 And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations ((*Gentiles - non believing people** (non-“REAL Jesus' teachings” category of Christians, other religious, spiritual or Atheist)): and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

*1484 ethnos= a race (as of the same habit), i.e. a tribe; specially, a foreign (non-Jewish) one (usually, by implication, pagan)= Gentile, heathen, nation, people.

** Originally these were of the ethnicity of Israel, which meant “overcomer” ((prevail over our human mammalian nature as Jehovah had and teaches us to do)), but that was taken away from the land mass and people that today are called Jews initially from today's country named Israel, according to Jesus because they rejected He whom they said they were waiting for, resulting in a new geography and ethnicity that stemmed from that once chosen ethnicity.

Here are some key scriptures that support the interpretation just stated. Note how Jesus use of the word “works” in one, is directly applicable to abiding by ALL the commandments/instructions, behaviors and ways provided by his Father, with the most application given to what Jesus was receiving then and there to give to them, rather than trying to put into affect all the lessor instructions Moses gave that were for the last trimester. It's not that all those lessons Moses gave were not applicable. It's just recognizing that Jesus was bringing updates so if we insist on following the letter of the law Moses gave, we will then be missing the next lesson step and thereby not recognize that it's the same teacher in a new human suit(vehicle/robe), who wasn't going to spend any time on the equivalent of adding and subtracting math lessons when they needed multiplication and division, to be prepared for trig and calculus in the third trimester. (where this analogy breaks down is that the more and more advanced someone gets, the less and less complicated the lessons, because the Next Level has no need for mathematicians trained on the human level, and giving up all the ego from acquiring all that complicated skill-set builds one's mind muscle in a way that can then apply to learning what all young Next Level members will want to grow into performing.

There may be tasks in the Next Level that could be equated with what we think of as a math equivalent, which one would then learn. But first one must learn to drive a Next Level body (vehicle) that doesn't go on it's own the way a human vehicle does. Thus one's mind power must increase and that is accomplished by keeping our focus on what our directors give us to focus on which is what Jesus referred to as “making your eye single.” This is NOT the awakening of the Kundalini or a path to human enlightenment. Sure the technique can be used to develop what Ti and Do called “tricks” using the spirit world and such, but then all those masters die and float around for a time before being eventually recycled. Those that develop this “making eye single” under their Older Members guidelines, when they die, have their Soul picked up and taken to an area of their spacecraft, referred to as “heaven” but not yet the location in the very large craft where the Older Members dwell.

-Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again. No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father. Joh 10:15—18

-He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also: Joh 14:12

-And except that the Lord shorten those days, none shall be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom He has chosen, He hath shortened the days. MARK 13:20

-He who loves his life will lose it, and he who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Joh 12:25

-Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord. Rev 14:13

II.A.5.b.vii. THE TRINITY IN DO'S WORDS AND JNNODY'S WORDS ON THE “HOLY SPIRIT,” OR “HOLY GHOST”

At some point after Jesus physically exited the planet, this notion began to creep in that mutated Jesus' KINGDOM OF GOD, The KINGDOM IN THE LITERAL HEAVENS to be populated by One Member who had three parts, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost or Holy Spirit, referred to as The Trinity by Catholics. This idea of a trinity has a structural resemblance to the way the Older Members in the Next Level work in teams with Younger Members to where the younger members are adopting the same behavior and ways as their Older Member and carrying out instructions (commands) as One Mind/Spirit with two or more parts which serves to groom the younger member to perform the tasks demonstrated by their Older Member, that is, relative to the department one is given the opportunity for service in.

Ti and Do said, each Young Member is given choices of departments to serve in. They said Their department was “headquarters,” so they choose who among their graduating students they want to offer the chance to work in their department and then give them the appropriate opportunities within the civilization to gain the needed experience that also shows whether they are up to the task.

Here are two paraphrased excerpts from the video series Do and Crew began to make public in 1992 called, “Beyond Human - The Last Call,” from Sessions 4 and 5 of 12 total and the links to the original transcripts from the videos:

Summarized paraphrased excerpts re: “The “two containers” and the Trinity:

Do describes how a Member of the Next Level is within themselves a “trinity” even if they are visiting or on a task in the human kingdom. A member of the Next Level is made up of two containers - and Mind, Holy Spirit or aka the Holy Ghost.

The Physical body they have is one container, human or a Next Level grown physical body. Contained within it, (though is actually larger than the physical body) is the 2nd container called the Soul aka a “pillowcase” or “pocket” or “deposit.”

Within the Soul is the Mind aka Spirit which is True Information that connects one with all Members of the Next Level and leads any recipient to Next Level Membership if they seek to grow that Mind in their Soul through a personal relationship with one's Older Member assigned to them, most recently Do but as a team Ti and Do.

So Do as a member of the Next Level was assigned the task to take a vehicle in the human kingdom, awaken in that vehicle by bringing His Next Level Soul's Mind into the human container, to speak the truth and gather those vehicles with associated returning Souls to bring them through the “spirit birth canal” to their graduation into membership in the Next Level. And that task makes Do a Father to those students. And since Ti was Do's Father that makes Ti like a Grandfather (in that analogy) to those same students.

So that makes Do, Ti's "son" and since their vehicle contains a Soul that contains Next Level Mind then they are also a Holy Mind/Spirit.

A little more info on the Holy Spirit from Session 5:

Holy or pure Spirit is the Mind that comes from Members of the Next Level. When we receive some of it by hearing, reading, seeing, and beginning to act on what we received the more of that Mind fills our Soul "pocket," aka pillowcase, aka deposit, (all terms Do used to describe the Soul). When the content is over 50% so that on any issue, the good rules no matter the battle, then that "mind Substance" aka Spirit that is occupying that space in a Soul is "Holy" and "Pure" and is in control over the vehicle it is contained within. (By the way Do felt like the Soul container actually occupied more space than the physical vehicle).

And here is a paraphrased excerpt from the document, "Incarnating and Discarnating" written by Jnnody, one of Ti and Do's students who worked for both Ti and Do as a "helper" and Overseer of Overseers. I was present with Jnnody to hear many of these points. Here is the Link to Jnnody's original document:

Incarnating and Discarnating by Jnnody

<http://sawyerhg.wordpress.com/2013/12/20/incarnating-and-discarnating/>

Here is my paraphrased version:

The Holy Spirit/Ghost part of the Trinity refers to the mind which in it's most understandable application is the Information, the Truth or facts from the Next Level. That Information is whatever came from the Older Member's Mind, which is what makes its quality pure (holy) so includes instructions as in the Old Testament said as "commandments" and procedures appropriate to Their Kingdom in the Heavens.

But when those who call themselves Christians in these days say they are filled with the Holy Spirit, to the Next Level - Kingdom of God, Kingdom of Heaven Membership it is almost what has been called "blasphemous" meaning they were visited by one or more discarnate spirits who are bound to the earth and are nothing more than "showmen."

But this idea of the “trinity” is certainly not a reflection of how many Younger or Older Members there are in their Evolutionary Kingdom Level of Life. For this reason even Ti and Do's saying it was a “many membered” kingdom was a new understanding to think of that way, even though there had always been plenty of evidence of many members as angels (an elementary student level membership as “watchers” - observers) or messengers (a more responsible task), archangels (a captain of angels), and some sent to earth to serve as “prophets” (speakers of what is provided them by the Next Level), with the Older Members serving in a “Fathering” task (i.e. Elohim, Jehovah, Father in Heaven) or as an apprentice (Begotten (incarnate) Son) to a Fathering task (i.e. Moses, Jesus, Do until he completed His task of “spirit birthing” He and Ti's students). These words that are made religious and spiritual are really only “task descriptions.” Ti and Do said that in the Next Level they don't have titles and they don't wear special clothing or insignias that show their experience or accomplishments, though one would know an Older Member, yours or another's. I believe Ti and Do did say that upon becoming a member of the Next Level, you would meet other Older Members though you would always have a unique connection to the Older Members who midwifed your birth into their Kingdom.

II.A.5.b.viii. DO’S WORDS ON RELIGION, THE LUCIFERIAN SPACE ALIENS, GOD, PANTHEISM, THE SECOND COMING, MISINFORMATION OF HAVING A “HEAVEN ON EARTH,” FLOWING ROBE WEARING PEACE AND LOVE JESUS, HUMANS PRAYING TO ‘MASQUERADING “GODS”’ AND DEPENDENCE ON ONE’S OLDER MEMBER AS THE ONLY SOURCE OF UNLIMITED GROWTH AND KNOWLEDGE

Here is a paraphrased excerpt from the document written by Do that was originally posted to the World Wide Web on October 11, 1995 and then was slightly edited by Do and Crew in January 1997, entitled, “’95 STATEMENT BY AN E.T. PRESENTLY INCARNATE,” which is the more generic language of the September '95 post that was retitled in January of '97 to 'Undercover “Jesus” Surfaces Before Departure' (I didn't need to read this document to obtain these thoughts from Do as he and Ti spoke about most of the points that I was therefore a first hand witness to:

(From point 19): The space aliens have instigated major distortions of the truth to build religions to totally confuse humans' concept of “God” or of “Deity.” They begin this directly after a visitation from the Next Level. The religions bind humans to the human kingdom so the Next Level abhors them. They do so by a combination of misinformation mixed with ideas described as a universal or cosmic consciousness of the Creation, when they know nothing about it. Some Christians believe that God came incarnate - named Jesus and that sounds like they are one and the same individual when Jesus indicated often that His Father was clearly a separate entity though knew that it was His Father's Mind that was flowing through Him.

Christians and humans with other religions have some of their prayers or requests answered by Luciferians. One can tell the difference by what the human asks for. When it's to promote enriching their human lives it's not a prayer the Next Level has an interest in answering. Humans that want Heaven to be on Earth is abominable to the Kingdom of God.

It's a Luciferian promotion of misinformation to convince humans that Jesus promoted family values.

Becoming a better human wasn't even in Jesus teachings. Nor was there any desire for humans to establish religious institutions. Many Christians have been brainwashed to think of Jesus and his Second Coming as his wearing a flowing robe, spreading peace-and-love - often with their image coming from artist depictions.

Most religious think to talk about the Kingdom as many membered means you are being a “pantheist” when the fact is that any member of the Next Level when assigned a task in relationship with human is a “God” to those humans they relate with, though there is one who is a “Chief of Chiefs” so is “Supreme” over all.

Luciferians influence humans to elevate one's feeling spiritual around the word “God” which Members of the Next Level don't identify with.

So humans end up unknowingly praying to space aliens who portray themselves as greater than humans and who thus give humans the impression they are “Gods,” so they become the pantheists when they are only “gods” because they appointed themselves to that identity.

The space alien - Luciferian souls that hybridize their needed physical bodies from human DNA are strictly remnants from a previous civilizations. The Next Level only allows them to exist to provide humans and the potential new members of the Next Level, as student souls to have the choice of whose mind to fill oneself with. The Next Level regulates the balance of presences, both positive and negative for a full range of options we each can choose from.

The Next Level is not into making a show of Their stature so have no rituals. The upcoming members do learn to be respectful of their Older Members and learn of their wisdom and look to them to receive tasks that are of service.

A student can slip into thinking they can progress towards Next Level membership on their own while the truth is they must become dependent on their Older Member for everything (as Moses and Jesus taught).

'95 Statement By and ET Presently Incarnate, By Do

<http://sawyerhg.wordpress.com/2013/12/20/95-statement-by-an-e-t-presently-incarnate-by-do-of-ti-and-do/>

***end of paraphrased excerpt***

The “holy spirit” part is really a depiction of how the Mind aka spirit of each Member is common to them all. That doesn't mean that there are not specialties on tasks. The Mind however is like their blood as it is the carrier of the knowledge that includes thirst to improve upon themselves in relationship to their Older Members Mind. Ti and Do described the relationship as each younger member wanting to be a puppet for their Older Member while the last thing the Older Member would have would be a puppet though they too want to be the puppet of their Older Member. If puppet is too hard to swallow, think of it as being a vessel or instrument for someone you really love in the world. You love and/or respect them so much their wish is your command. Many humans look up to their spouse or parents in that way and this is why the Next Level gave instructions early on to “honor one's father and mother,” which meant pay attention to what they say, give respect to their wishes and be honest with them, though like all things it is a stage toward transferring that paying attention to, respect and honesty towards your Older Member that will eventually become a total disconnect from one's human family tree, if they continued in that growth direction. That too would be honoring them as there is no greater honor than giving your all to your Heavenly Father from the Next Level.

Incidentally, that giving of self to our Heavenly Father is falsely defined as joining a religious or spiritual organization or order and/or by becoming a pastor, or priest or reverend or rabbi, spiritual teacher or even a monk or nun in whatever equivalent terms in whatever culture. All those who join such orders can certainly become their pathways to their own personal relationship with a genuine Older Member from the Kingdom of God, Kingdom in the literal Heavens, but can also be a trap as it tends to instill in us that we are connecting with our Heavenly Father just by our talk and participation in the organization that declares that intention to where one may not remain diligent to seek out and examine additional and new information about the reality of the Kingdom of God when it becomes available. And of course the same thing can happen to those who consider themselves pagan or atheist or agnostic or secular humanists. As Jesus said, many are called, which translates to many feeling called, but “few are chosen” which also translates to “few choosing” to follow when the Older Members announce their incarnate arrival to gather their student body to make the transition from the human kingdom to the Evolutionary Level Above Human.

However, in the second and third trimesters towards “spirit/mind birth” into the Kingdom of Heaven, when each student is required to separate from their human relationships, including parents, even though all students are in their own right adults, as the Older Members don't permit children to join them as their students, some parents don't see that separation as what is required because the true information about the Kingdom of Heaven wasn't taught them or they never allowed their offspring to choose their own pathway in life, often acting as if they “own” their offspring so are always their children, regardless of their age and experience on their own.

THE HOLY SPIRIT/MIND IS DEPICTED AS THE WAY THE TELEVISION SHOW STAR TREK'S BORG HAVE A HIVE MENTALITY, THOUGH THEIR BEHAVIOR AND DEPICTION AS ROBOTS ARE NOTHING LIKE MEMBERS OF THE NEXT LEVEL EXCEPT FOR THEIR DEDICATION.

Even though I enjoyed thinking of myself as a “puppet” for my Older

Member, I was still thinking of it in a spiritual way. This really hit home with me one day, that I only came to terms with years later after I left the group, when Do said something to the affect of how the Star Trek movie's, "Borg" with their "hive mind" was like the Next Level. He indicated it was related to their NEED for their Older Member connection, as represented by their having to go back to their mother-ship to sort of plug into their power source that even seemed to be a transference of information that helped them tackle their next challenge better. It was like they were being recharged and they had tremendous focus and thus strength and power because of their dedication and "single eye mindedness." I just felt uncomfortable with the idea of being so robotic appearing, which was really a discarnate influence with me. It's the same influence that wanted me to desire to "be seen as special," as Ti pointed out to me when she gave each student a list of their characteristics that would keep them off their spacecraft. Even though I was uncomfortable with the idea, it didn't stop me from wanting to and feeling really good about being of one mind with my Older Member, pleasing them and following all their instructions and procedures.

This was simply a subtle voice in my head that reflected humanness I still needed to conquer having exist in my head even though I didn't linger on it consciously. It seems I was given many "special seeming tasks" by Do, not so much because I was good at them necessarily, but because they were what I needed to surface what I needed most to overcome an attachment to. I'm not going to say there isn't a type of service that is practical while we are also being put to the greatest tests. It's the way of the Next Level to have their students provide service as they are learning the lessons they need most. I have many, many examples of this and believe I still have those lessons to learn, though recognizing them is a big step to conquering them.

But the primary way to learn one's lessons is to put into effect the current instructions of service to the Older Members. When Jesus left it was:

Joh 15:12 This is my commandment ((1781 entellomai= given goal)), That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

Joh 15:13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Joh 15:14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command ((give you as a goal)) you.

Joh 15:15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

Joh 15:16 Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

Joh 15:17 These things I command you, that ye love one another.

This “love” is the Greek “agapao” related close to phileo= to welcome, to entertain, to be fond of, seemingly related to divine selfless and in this context “friendly” love regardless of whether someone loves them back. This is not the same love as the Greek “eros” referring more to what we think of as a chemical physical attraction. After all in Jesus usage, to lay down your life for another is the ultimate show of the type of love he is issuing as their goal to reach for upon his absence. While he was with them, though he many not have said it directly, they were to give all their “love” to him rather than to one another. This isn't because he needs their love. He doesn't. A member of the Next Level only needs the love of their Older Member and an Older Member loves those who produce fruit for the kingdom, which is new membership. By produce fruit it's not meant to win converts. It's the act of giving out the “seeds” of the truth to others that our Older Members see as our show of love for them and the Next Level, regardless of whether anyone accepts those seeds of the truth. This is the way the humans often act, thinking they are winning souls to God or their particular denomination. Jesus warned the Jews that proselytized in how they were creating duplicates of themselves as being far from the Kingdom of God in their hearts.

As said, Ti and Do said they were from “Headquarters” and when they looked up into the heavens felt most attracted to the area of the constellation Orion. Incidentally, there's been plenty of speculation that the so called grey space aliens were from Orion, so suggesting they are actually robots who work for the Reptilian Space Aliens. There may be clones or robots that look like some grays, but that doesn't mean these are Next Level members.

Members of the Next Level are not grey colored. The one picture Ti helped their student, Ollody draw and paint of an Older Member had a white body and compared to humans, a slightly larger forehead and eyes, small nose and lips, with the mouth closed and no ear appendage though a slight protrusion around an ear cavity, wearing a one piece suit that was a turtleneck and this being has a very pleasant slight smile.

So, from the later half of Joh 16:25, I am suggesting Jesus is indicating during the “end times” when he won't be talking in parables he would “show [them] the Father” so they can see him for themselves as opposed to seeing him through his being the Father's instrument.

This was to be a new way the disciples would experience the Father. Otherwise why even bring it up if it was going to be the same arrangement. And come to think about it, it was Do that told the student body that Ti was his Older Member (heavenly Father). Do was therefore “showing us the Father.” Ti never told us that or even implied it in the hundreds of formal and informal face to face meetings, we experienced. And it was Ti that told us how we NEEDED to make our committal to Do. She even said that Do was not comfortable asking for your commitment so asked that she tell us. Some psychologists tend to want to leave Ti out of the equation when they try to explain Do's facilitating the students laying down their lives for him. That's the Luciferians not wanting humans to see the truth that Ti was the driving force of all our forward motion, though through Do and in which Do was her partner in the task they operated as one mind. It was Ti that told the student body to “give us your will.” It was Ti that said to us, “if you don't love us don't tell us about it.” It was very, very apparent that Ti was demonstrating her trust in Do and that we needed to put our trust in Do, so now anyone could believe Do changed the course they had started is frankly Luciferian space alien fallen angel misinformation being sown that many buy because they must justify their own choice to see them as anything but who they showed themselves to be.

II.A.5.c. JESUS REFERS TO HIS RETURNING AS SON OF MAN (SON OF GOD IN FLESH) IN THE ACCOMPANIMENT OF HIS GLORY (VERY APPARENT TO THE EYES) FATHER AND THE HOLY ANGELS, HIS STUDENT CREW

Mrk 8:38 Whosoever therefore (shall be) ashamed (of) me and (of) my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; (of) him also shall (the) Son (of) man (be) ashamed, when (he) cometh ((G2064 erchomai= ACCOMPANY, APPEAR, BRING)) in ((1722 en= with)) (the) glory ((G1391 doxa, from 1380 dokeo and of same meaning as 1166 deiknuo= VERY APPARENT (Exposed/Obvious to the EYES/Sight), ACCOUNTING, OF OWN PLEASURE, TO GIVE EVIDENCE OR PROOF, SHOWN BY THINKING, WORDS, TEACHING, OPINION, JUDGMENT, VIEWPOINT)) (of) his Father with ((3326 META= AMID/AMONG (AFTER) (with))) (the) holy angels ((G0032 aggelos= MESSENGER)).

Here is the key section I'm addressing re-written with expanded translation options:

Sawyer's version: Mrk 8:38 ...Son of Man (Son of God in flesh) accompanies, appears, BRINGS WITH HIM THE VERY APPARENT TO THE EYES and shown as evidence and proof by way of the thinking, words, teachings, opinions, judgment, viewpoint, The FATHER AMID/AMONG the purified student crew.

The “glory” is the most obvious keyword here, which in this context especially is “VERY APPARENT TO THE EYES,” but also spelled out as APPARENT PROOF OF WHAT THE FATHER SAYS, ETC. It won't be proof for those that were not prepared, speaking of the human vehicles they and the returning CREW (Saints) must take over to finish their overcoming through. It will be the job of the Saints in Soul form to convince the human vehicles they are taking over to follow with these Two and stay in their program til graduation. The human vehicles themselves were prepared as in each of their genetic heritage would show experience with an incarnate Older Member; Jesus, Elijah, Moses and/or Enoch and Adam.

It is all the show of their thinking, words, teachings, opinions, etc. that become the biggest proof of who they announce they are as the Two Witnesses who are shown to both be Christs. When it says these two, Son and Father perform their “return” they are followed “AFTER” with the purified crew of students performing their demonstration of the proof of who the Two Witnesses are as they would have spent time with them so each had many examples to cite.

This is the way it worked with Ti and Do. First Ti and Do came incarnate and from 1973 to 1976 gave their prophecy using the students they were gathering over that 1260 days whose first task was naturally to spread the word of their arrival and teachings. In the press they became known as “The UFO Two,” Bo and Peep, etc. Ti called the harvest over on April 21, 1976 and it was time for the students to show their seriousness. This would be the start of the overcoming process “classroom.” This time period in the “wilderness” lasted 3-4 years to where the group moved into a suburban house in Wheatridge, Colorado. Ti left her vehicle on June 19, 1985 while living on White Rock Lake, in Dallas, Texas. After a short adjustment period to Ti's departure Do started to get instructions to start a second wave of information dissemination that started in the early 1990's and by 1994 the students went public for nine months holding public meetings again. So Ti and Do only went public for one time period and although Do headed the task, didn't make any public appearances so it can be said that the Students did the gathering of new believers. This is how the students are seen as coming “After” the TWO.

GLORY IS SOMETIMES AN ACTUAL VISUAL BRILLIANCE OF LIGHT

In some context glory can be defined as an “very apparent brilliance” in terms of the amount of light/energy given off by members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven, angels and others, (if they allow humans to see it) each with their own levels of brilliance, as depicted by paintings including halo's and in this case actually illuminating “shone round about” some which made whoever was viewing them quite in awe. However, this wouldn't be depicted as so apparent through an incarnate Representative Older Member of the Next Level as they don't want to stand out, otherwise there would be no test. Humans would simply be in awe of them and will have an easy time, (at least for a short while) convincing their human vehicle that this was someone very special and worthy of following. Instead members of the Next Level make the playing field level, so to speak by coming looking like everyone else which therefore requires the student that feels drawn to them, by what they say, initially to continue to deal with doubts and getting their vehicle to stay in the Older Members classroom, which isn't like belonging to a country club, the way religions have become. One actually must prove their worthiness to the Older Member by instigating changes in their behavior and ways in thought and deed as the Older Members point out what they need to change. In so doing changing our behaviors and ways draws more of the Older Members mind to them which strengthens their resolve and capacity to perceive more of the reality the Older Member represent to them, which is called “faith.” On one of the “Beyond Human - The Last Call” video tapes that Do used me as a type of teleprompter for, along with Jwnody (June in the tape), Do had me quote something in one of Paul's letters that defined faith as “the evidence of things unseen.” True faith isn't blind to reality, it simply sees more of what's real (true).

Luk 2:9 And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about((illuminated)) them: and they were sore afraid.

Additional indications his return is as an Son of God in flesh... are found in both Mat 24:27 and Luk 17:24, both of which are re-translated in section III.B.3.

II.A.5.d. JESUS REFERS TO SON OF MAN SITTING ON THE RIGHT HAND OF POWER AND COMING IN CLOUDS DEPICTING TWO PHASES TO THE OVERALL RETURN, THE FIRST INCARNATE WITH HIS FATHER (POWER) FOR THE FIRSTFRUIT HARVEST AND THE SECOND PHASE NON INCARNATE, WHILE STATIONED IN HIS SPACECRAFT ARMADA, UNDERCOVER - CLOAKED - EVEN BY LITERAL CLOUDCOVER OVERSEEING AND STIMULATING THE “WINEPRESS” THAT RESULTS IN NEW BELIEVERS GIVING THEIR LIVES IN HIS/THEIR SERVICE THAT CAN RESULT IN THE LOSS OF THEIR PHYSICAL BODIES AS THEIR EXIT METHOD THEY ARE REWARDED FOR

Jesus had arranged for his own capture having received instruction from his Father through two messenger beings witnessed by John, James and Peter on what was called the Transfiguration mount about his “decease,” the way he would EXIT his task. Later he prayed to the Father asking “if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt,” the cup representing the task and his drinking the cup, taking the task. (Mat 26:39). It was reported that during this seeking of help from his Father, “his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling.” It was no easy thing to come to terms with. He knew he was well hated and would not be treated well. According to Luke's time line, he had already arranged for his capture, so it appears he was looking for a potential change in plans. It was reported that an angel “appeared” “from heaven that strengthened him.” This series of events, his arranging for his capture and going through with it was actually a voluntary suicidal action to instigate. He acknowledges this by saying, referring to his “life” as “it” in:

Joh 10:18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father.

And he also acknowledged that his Father loves him because of his laying down his life:

Joh 10:17 Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

Thus after his capture he is standing before the high priest, who at the time was Caiaphas, who asks him if he is, “the Christ, the Son of God” to which he responds:

Mat 26:64 Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the son of man ((Son of God in flesh)) sitting ((SITTING DOWN/BY OR REMAINING, RESIDING, DWELLING)) on ((BY, FOR, WITH)) the right hand ((AND IN ACCEPTANCE/RECEIPT, TAKING AND A FEMININE HAND) (of) power ((BE ABLE OR POSSIBLE, CAN DO, A MIRACULOUS POWER, MIGHTY DEED, WORKER OF MIRACLE(S))), and coming ((accompanying, appearing, falling out)) in ((OF)) the clouds ((A CLOUD OR CLOUDINESS)) of heaven ((THE SKY TO AMONG STARS)).

The setting of his response is in the “hear-after,” which is “after the present,” not referring to the spirit world after death, and also evidenced by his not returning in the clouds of heaven at that time. As shown previously Jesus didn't think of his rising that crucified vehicle from it's dead state as the RETURN in his prophecy.

Caiaphas would “SEE THE SON OF MAN” meant he would see the Soul Jesus knew that he really was in a new human vehicle because that's the only way they come for these tasks of taking a class through to their graduation. And he knew even those that opposed him would be brought back in spirit form to once again provide the adversarial role and to receive what he has coming to him in the final judgment which would take place following his next return when some would “stand up again to “everlasting fire.” He had already shown that the leaders of these sects of Judaism had the “devil” as their Father, according to Jesus which meant that their physical body was both the genetic leaf from the human tree planted by the fallen angels, as a “tare” to try to put stumbling blocks before the children of the kingdom and that vehicle's spirit after death would still gravitate to acting out the same opposition to the Kingdom of God/Heaven even though the new “leaf” they are influencing won't think that's what they are doing.

Also Caiaphas being the Jewish chief priest who saw to it that Jesus was apprehended (as Jesus set up for him to do) was therefore One who “pierced him” which reflects directly to:

Rev 1:7 Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

Jesus had told his disciples that it would be the religious that killed them thinking they were doing so for God as they saw God as their doctrine so if anyone said anything not able to be directly related to even the exact terminology of their doctrine they considered them blasphemous and the penalty Moses provided was death, then by stoning, (which there is but one account of actually taking place in the Moses encampment). About that stoning, what Jews thereafter lost sight of was how they weren't in the position Moses was in to make a determination of who was interfering with others growth by spreading misinformational behavior and ways, acting in renegade ways against the Kingdom of God/Heaven's commandments.

By saying he will be seen “Sitting” depicts his accepting a task position which is described as on, by, for and/or with the “Right Hand of POWER.” Here is another reference to sitting with Jesus in his throne/seat:

Rev 3:21 To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

The Kingdom of God/Heaven doesn't miss a trick. The real deal, the one's who are from that Kingdom know exactly what they communicated that became prophecy, so they fulfill it. As the Kingdom of God/Heaven provides multifaceted and even multidimensional answers (physical and mental), I would say when some actually witness his physical presence they will see him LITERALLY SITTING AND TALKING TO THEM, LIKE AT A MEETING, even literally not standing and talking to them.

I say this about “sitting” because in all three of the meetings I attended where Ti and Do spoke to the public, they were always sitting throughout. And I can say the same thing for the hundreds of internal group meetings I attended, they were always sitting. There were tiny exceptions when they just wanted to pass something on quickly where they by themselves or together but mostly by themselves would start literally standing. For instance Ti might come to the Yeast Lab where I worked a lot to answer a note related to bread making, as we did for many years. She would walk into the room in the large house we called a “craft” and begin to address the note. She as the students would be standing throughout and because sometimes it would extend into talking about related topics or even seeming unrelated topics it could go on for a hour. Often times, she would say to keep up with your lab duties while she talked. After she would leave someone who might have been taking notes would write up all she addressed related to the bread making and that would be read first thing when someone came on duty for the next shift and a copy would be written up to send to Ti and Do so they could see how it registered and if they felt they left anything out.

When we see the many evidences of fulfillment of every detail of prophecy like this I am fairly certain the Older Members demonstration of such detail is NOT because they studied those records and were thereby intentionally carrying them out to appear as their fulfillment. If that had been the case Ti and Do would never have “stood” with us as since there are so many references to “sitting.” They would have treated it like the grooming instructions from Moses, to square off the end of one's beard that there are Jews today who insist upon doing and believe they are following the Lords instructions by doing. To that tiny degree they are following the Lord in that way but those were the instructions for the toddlers and for that particular camp and it's not that it would be wrong to keep on following those procedures, but to do so and all but ignore larger commandments while largely ignoring the updates brought by the next incarnate representative becomes a much larger “missing of the mark” (sin) because the Next Level continuously raises the bar.

Jesus addressed the way the Jews insisted on following their interpretations of Moses instructions as “swinging at a gnat and swallowing a camel” or trying to “remove the twig in another eye when there is a log in one's own eye.”

For the genuine Older Member from the Next Level, the reason they end up fulfilling prophecy is because they, before coming incarnate were the source of the prophecy so that's in their Minds though not consciously in the brain/mind of the human vehicle they take to perform their task through. This can be thought of as their intuition. I believe Ti and Do called that sense of what is right or wrong to do, when it's not something conscious as the development of their vehicle's "feeler" that they associated with the solar plexus area of the human body just below the joining of the breast bones of the rib cage. That feeler is in actuality is developed by seeking help with how to make choices our heavenly Father would make, the application of desiring that "thy will be done." The Lords Prayer was a personal petitioning to learn the will of one's Father in the heavens. It wasn't asking that the Father's will take place on the Earth or for all humans. That's going to happen regardless of whether we ask for it or not and we don't have any judgment in what to ask for in regards to others anyway.

Now to examine the usage of, "right hand." The phrase indicates being in service to someone else you are trusted by with the application of the use of the body part, "hand," people most use to take or receive something from another, the right one. In the Old Testament, in Genesis the Right Hand was considered to be the hand ones Father laid on top one's head when they were giving a special blessing to a first born, where they would use the left hand for the blessing of a second born, at least in one example I found. One does not sit at the right hand of an idea. So Jesus is going to sit and serve another's "right hand" and that can only be the One who he referred to as his "Father."

Here are some examples applicable to the hereafter of how the One who served as Jesus serves in the POSITION (SEAT) of the RIGHT HAND of the ONE SITTING ON THE THRONE, HIS FATHER.

The setting: John is "in the spirit," I would guess a dream state, and hears a great voice as a trumpet that instructs him to write in a book and send it to the "seven churches" which were specific groups of believers in cities in Asia. John turns to see the voice and sees "seven golden candlesticks" which are described as seven groups of believers in Jesus (churches): In the middle of or among these groups of believers (churches) he sees (one) LIKE ((similar (in appearance or character), + manner)) to the "Son of Man":

Rev 1:13 And in (the) midst ((middle, among, before)) (of the) seven candlesticks ((lampstands, churches)) (one) like ((similar (in appearance or character), + manner.)) (unto the) Son ((offspring, pupil, (male))) of man ((444 anthropos= countenance, man-faced, human, (descendant of Adam))), clothed (with a) garment ((sinking into, invested in, arrayed with, endued in, have (put) on)) (down to the) foot ((4158 poderes= reaching feet)), and girt ((fasten on one's belt)) about ((against, because of, for)) (the) paps ((3149 mastos= from massaomai 3145, (formally, female) breast (as if kneaded up)) (with a) golden ((utility of the metal, gold)) girdle ((belt, by implication, a pocket, purse)).

To girt ones paps would mean to restrain the nature of the human “mammalian” vehicle to propagate. The Greek word “mastos, from massaomai is translated to “paps,” as breasts, directly relates to how mammary glands, (breasts) are derived from the same language origin that Jesus relates as “mammon” as in to whom/what we make our master, The Kingdom of God Older Members or Mammon. By restraining that nature of the human vehicle one is recovering their virginity that this one who has a human physical vehicle that is LIKE the one Jesus had, which is also like the original “son of man” Adam. Thus this is indicating that the One speaking behind John in Rev 1:12 is that same Older Member from the Next Level described in Rev 1:11 as the Alpha and Omega. In other words it is the same one who was incarnate in the vehicle named Jesus.

It's most interesting how Do chose a vehicle that at some point in it's life began to be attracted to other male vehicles. Ti said that Do's vehicle was prepared before He awakened in it so He could identify and help all the students conquer their own equivalent human behaviors and ways. For instance, Do said that someone who is gay, as in a male vehicle who becomes attracted to other males has overcome their vehicles gender programming, though they still may not have overcome their sexual reproductive programming. Among several things, this verse could be showing how He was to come incarnate in just such a vehicle (as he did) as the Greek word poderes, from pous, translated to “foot” is equally translated to “dress” and refers to a garment that reaches down to the ankles - feet. As we see in language there is often the evidence of the origin of words that lends itself to translating this to “put on” (clothed with a garment) a “dress down to the foot.”

Rev 1:14 His head and his hairs were white like ((about, as if)) wool, as ((about)) white ((light)) as ((about)) snow; and his eyes were as ((about)) a flame ((flash, blaze)) of fire ((lightning));

Rev 1:15 And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.

This seemed to me to be nearly a verbatim description of the Ancient of Days as well as the Son of Man who was Jesus in:

Dan 7:9 I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire.

Now I suspect that the “thrones were cast down” is referring to the way the Next Level planned to arrive in the new temple/altar area of the world, the USA, by intentionally sacrificing their existing physical bodies and some of their more primitive spacecrafts. And saying the Ancient of days did sit is saying this individual has a task position to fill. A garment is a way of describing the physical vehicle that these two Older Members will put on aka take over, become in-the carnal flesh of thus incarnate into. This vehicle is a white one, compared to snow. The vehicle has hair, which Ti and Do indicated the vehicles adult members of the Next Level “wear” don't have. I don't know whether the student model Next Level made vehicles have hair but I doubt it, unless they re-stimulated human mammalian behavior (as Adam did) to generate a “reverse metamorphosis” Ti and Do spoke about in the Blackhawk tapes. Thus these vehicles described here are human vehicles - born from human propagation as opposed to being “made” by the Next Level. Ti and Do considered space aliens as human equivalents as they have not conquered their humanness yet, which can only be completed when one is literally dwelling with an incarnate present Older Member from the Next Level.

Rev 1:16 And he had in his right hand seven stars ((angels of the seven churches)): and out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

Now this individual is described as LIKE the Son of Man and has a “countenance as the sun shineth” which seems to be related to the “woman clothed with the Sun” who Do said was depicting Ti, his Older Member the Father and Ancient of Days:

Rev 12:1 And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:

Then where it says this individual, “laid his right hand on me,” considering that his “right hand” is his “son” the one who served as the Lamb who will open and read the book and lose the seven seals, which is clear to see when one chooses a different translation to “laid”:

Rev 1:17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid ((2007 epitithemi= to impose, add to, right hand surname, adviser, appointee, commitment, bow, conceive)) his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last:

Which then makes sense to this next verse that indicates it's the one appointed to advise John that is the “right hand” of the Father who:

Rev 1:18 I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death.

As far as we know the Father hasn't come incarnate during this garden experiment until of late thus this is the One who was Jesus talking.

Thus the Father is in this section first described as like or similar in appearance or character/manner to the designated, “son of man,” which shows that he comes incarnate and then correlates with his being the one depicted as having the one who was Jesus as his right hand “son.”

Next we see that the one sitting on the throne has a book:

Rev 5:1 And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals.

It is determined in Rev 5:5 that the One who was “the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David opens the book to loose the seven seals and that is the One who last served as the Lamb who sacrificed his own physical body as the example of what all who came to follow him would have to do as well should they desire to be with him in his kingdom. Thus this was the same Older Member who served as Jesus the Christ who takes the book from the right hand of the one sitting on the throne, his Father:

Rev 5:7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne. Ti is on the throne and Do takes the task Ti gives him which involves being her “right hand” that opens and reads to those souls he was given 2000 years earlier who are back trying to get in their human vehicles with their Next Level consciousness.

Here are further indicators that Jesus is the Father's right hand:

Hebrews 12:2 Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

1Peter 3:22 Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

I believe there is further evidence that POWER can be a way to talk about his Father, without his saying so absolutely as he doesn't know what his Heavenly Father will do necessarily evidenced by his saying no one knows the time of his return but the Father, so he would only give clues in terms of events.(Acts 1:7) It depends on what his Heavenly Father wants to reveal to him as he said, he only shared what his Father gave him to share.(Joh 14:24)

And if the Father is represented by the POWER, then he's the RIGHT HAND of that POWER (Father) and it's interesting that the Greek word, erchomai's primary meaning listed is ACCOMPANY, APPEAR, FALLING OUT that one could build a case for all three being applicable to both, what's being termed POWER and/or “COMING IN/FROM/BY THE CLOUDS/CLOUDINESS COVERING OF/BY/FROM [THE LITERAL] HEAVEN.”

Jesus could be accompanied by the Father, appear with the Father, and both fall out of the clouds together or at that appointed time for each of them according to the Kingdom of God/Heaven's strategy. And while I'm at it, the long shot that it is, but it is also interesting that the word Hand as in right hand is particularly associated with the feminine in it's grammatical structure, which I take special note of as in Rev. 12 there is considerable mention of a Woman giving birth to a male child, (Son of God) who himself is given a crown and throne. The “right hand,” if it's referring to the Father, using the word “POWER” would then be the Father's right hand, so that would make this returned Father taking a female body.

The evidence of whenever Jesus talks about the Kingdom of God/Heaven and its' POWER does so in a personified way. In other words, it is people, in tasks that are the instruments to the delivery of that POWER. For example, Jesus said he could have called a legion of angels to help him while he was nailed to the tree to physically die. He could have said, he could call on POWER to help him. When he was in the garden contemplating his giving himself to the Jewish priests who he knew well wanted to kill him (as they'd tried to stone him on a number of occasions), he called on his “Father (in the heavens)” for help dealing. Why didn't he call on his POWER?

Jesus said it was his Father that enabled the miracles to occur through him. He said all things are possible with his Father and how his Father was greater than he. If we leave this verse with the word POWER, sort of the way many New Agers would think of as indicative of a universal power or cosmic consciousness or higher power or force of nature of some sort, then we are giving into a spiritualization of the reality of the Kingdom of God/Heaven that is many membered and exists throughout the Universe but functions as well as it does because of all the many hands on workers, elders and young and old members that keep it well greased, so to speak.

But what about the use of POWER in this verse? If he meant the Father, why didn't he say it, that he was to SIT ON THE RIGHT HAND OF THE FATHER, take the co-pilot's seat as the hands-on captain. Wasn't he at the time sitting at the right hand of the Father and thus the Father's power?

By “power” he could have meant, having the authority, the anointing that made him a “Christ” and that would have been true. However, Jesus was very clear that this Power he is speaking of is personified through his Father. His Father is who he was the right hand person for. His Father provided him with the CAN DO, ABILITY AND THE MIRACLES, THE WORK and WORKS (miracles) according to the definition of Greek dunamis translated to English “Power.”

“Nothing comes from nothing, nothing ever will,” a favorite lyric in “The Sound of Music” musical highlights the fact that all we take for granted in the Earth and life upon it took an amazing amount of hands on work to design, develop, grow, maintain, regulate and tend the fruit produced and this is all accomplished by people, but Above Human people in crews with Older Membership taking the lead in The Evolutionarily Level Above Human as Ti and Do referred to the Kingdom of God, Kingdom in the literal heavens.

Now, my saying “evolution” does not refer to Darwinian evolutionary theory. It's the evidence of progress, the only way there is progress and development as each of us humans can witness day in and day out in our lives, so since we are the creatures, created by others, do we think they would create us to be less or just different than they (in the way it really counts) OR with the hope that we would grow to be more like them, the way human parents want their offspring to be at least mimics of what we consider our best qualities while hoping for them to excel to be all we can be. (Of course in the human condition where even parents many times mimic the way they were raised seek to stifle their offspring, not all that consciously, but because they often see change as a degradation. For instance how many of us have become well informed on the subject of nutrition to solve many of our health concerns, while if you don't have a doctor label after your name, you have no credibility, even though most doctors have very small coursework in nutrition as the best medicine, just like Hypocrites, the “father of medicine” taught and the very same doctors quote, saying “let your food be to you as medicine.”

In any case my point is that the creators want to give us the best opportunity to CHOOSE to become like them, so they are never going to mislead us or try to stop us from exploring and we can assume that those qualities we've been taught to think were admirable came to us only because they are admirable. And one of the biggest differences that exists between the human evolutionary kingdom and the Kingdom of God/Heaven, what is an above human evolutionary kingdom is along the lines of SELF vs SELFLESS. Self, for an animal is ingrained, instinctive and necessary for survival. Animals will help one another but not to the degree a human can choose to help others. This is why one of the main criteria of the Kingdom of God/Heaven to become a member in their Family unit is to lose that sense of SELF by giving oneself to someone who has outgrown that human self, the way Jesus gave his life to his Father's will and put that in the Lords prayer saying, ...“I want YOUR WILL for my life.” In this light we can understand that the Kingdom of God/Heaven members are not self promoters. They promote their Heavenly Father, actually the person who helped them become a member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven way back when and that process extends to not throwing our two cents into something without a sense of what our “Father” would say/do about it. In this vein one could understand why Jesus would say that... “the TASK is what will be coming back,” the “Son of Man” task in this case. And exactly who will come and who will come with him or in what kind of physical manifestation they will be revealed is something to leave open ended which in so doing provides a framework of options to their Father.

Again, wondering why Jesus didn't say in this forecast that he would be sitting on the right hand of the FATHER, who we have lots and lots of evidence in many things he said in a number of different ways, re: the miracles and his teachings and who he was actually laying down his life for, was for all intents and purposes his POWER?

Well, I could be wrong about this but I suspect Jesus indicated the Father as his “power” because that's what his Father gave him to say. Perhaps it's hard to believe that every word Jesus used came to him as with his Father's approval or not but even Jesus indicated he had said all that the Father gave him to say. It's not that every word is given but every idea certainly is and it's not to say he didn't come with an abundance of ideas already in his Mind. But as is the way of the Next Level on a task like this, the Older Member while talking would be tuned into their Father's mind seeking to be a puppet for his Father while the Father doesn't allow him to be a puppet, so the Father simply corrects things he says that might not be exactly what will best serve that part of the task. Thus Jesus would have either been sensitive to what to say before he said it or he would have corrected himself with his disciples if he felt like his Father was giving him an update, either on the spot or at some point later. They are not reading a script. It's very dynamic and requires a great deal of honing of one's "receiver/feeler" to stay in tune with one's Older Member in such a distant interface.

With that said, here is a shot at why he could have received the wording of "power"; In none of the forecasts of his own return did he say, I, Jesus would be returning. As I indicated before, there are plenty of examples where he did refer to himself and he went so far as to say anyone who came saying they were Jesus and the anointed one (Christ) is NOT to be believed or followed as they are then a false Christ/Prophet. Thus wouldn't it stand to reason if he had forecast his Father's return using the "name" being "Father" (again more interested in portraying the role's returning rather than a specific person), then how many people would be saying now that they must come in the name of the Father so we'd see people saying they were The Father. Thus this may have been a counter strategy as those who would be prepared ahead of time would have been expecting the Father OR would come to see the sense and fulfillment of prophecy in the Father coming incarnate, while those not prepared would not even have a place in their brain for it, it would seem so strange an idea.

Luk 22:69 Hereafter shall the son of man sit on the right hand of the power of god ((a Deity)).

Why didn't he think he was sitting on the right hand of the POWER of God when he said this? I say it was because when he was incarnate as Jesus the One called the Father was not incarnate then.

Finally, here is yet an additional way to look at those verses that take this form as shown most clearly in:

Mar 14:62 And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

Even though all already spoken of can apply, it can also apply that he was talking about TWO phases to his overall RETURN, the FIRST being sitting at the right hand of power, his Father as both incarnate as the Two Witnesses and then the LAST after they both exit with their first fruits the return as detailed in:

Rev 19:11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

Rev 19:12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself.

Rev 19:13 And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God.

Rev 19:14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

In these verses, it is again the same One who was known to us as sitting on the “white horse” and has MANY CROWNS as depicted in Rev 6:2, but that this time he's with his “army” that also have “white horses” as they also purified the human vehicles they incarnated into that is the return to execute what was called the JUDGMENT of the living and the dead.

II.A.5.e. ZECHARIAH TALKS OF SEEING TWO OLIVE TREES/LAMPSTANDS ANOINTED (CHRISTS) THAT STAND BY THE LORD OF THE WHOLE EARTH RELATING DIRECTLY TO THE TWO WITNESSES AS OLIVE TREES AND LAMPSTANDS AND THEREFORE BOTH CHRISTS THUS FATHER AND SON RETURNED

Jesus referred to Zechariah (Luk 11:51) as a prophet who was slain by the ancestral “fathers” of those he was addressing who were interpreters and teachers of the Mosaic law who Jesus said “lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.”

I believe these Old Testament prophecies that relate directly to the prophecies in the Book of Revelations and to the many references to the Jehovah/Moses “classroom” are to help some now recognize Ti and Do for who they are, that is if that is something they want to do and to be able to share these solved mysteries with others to make up their own mind about as well.

Since Jesus referred to him, his prophecy can be counted upon to provide further interpretations of other prophecy as the Next Level gives us prophecy to help us see the consistency of their modus operandi to serve as evidence of who is fulfilling that prophecy. Regarding this provision of evidence that the Father comes incarnate with the new incarnation of Jesus, serving as the Two Witnesses, the description of these Two is of particular importance to seeing them for who they really are:

Rev 11:4 These are the two olive trees, and the two candlesticks ((3087 luchnia from 3088 luchnos= a lamp(light)-stand)) standing ((2476 histemi= abide, appointed, present, set up)) before ((1799 enopion= from 1722 en= in the presence or sight or face of)) (the) God ((2316 theos= a deity)) of the earth.

Now Olive trees and Candlesticks both have significance stemming from the Jehovah/Moses classroom but here in Zechariah's experience we see both a clear description of there being TWO Olive trees. Trees are used to depict plants but also genetic lineage which is interwoven with the lineage of mind or spirit. Thus there are two Trees being described and they provide service through our repentance which means changing out our mind to get rid of human mind/spirit (allegiance to humans and their information, behaviors and ways) and replacing it by receiving (at first as belief and application) Next Level Mind/Spirit (allegiance to Above Human Older Members from the Next Level, and their information, behavior and ways) aka purifying the gold that is what atonement consists of doing which produces the golden oil provided as service to the lampstand (candlestick) to provide "light" to potentially produce new fruit, members of the Next Level as their form of reproduction.

This process is called overcoming the human condition/world (evolutionary kingdom) and anyone who completes the entire process and is rewarded with an adult Next Level physical vehicle that is everlasting among it's many qualities is a "Christ" and is synonymous with having been "anointed" by their oil production pressed from the olive that leaves the body (olive) behind.

Thus these two Olive Trees represent the Vine Jesus spoke about that students needed to graft/bond to/with to become new branches, graduates of the Next Level overcoming of humanness classroom.

Zec 4:1 And the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep.

Zec 4:2 And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick ((m@nowrah= lampstand)) all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof:

Zec 4:3 And two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof.

Zec 4:11 Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof?

Zec 4:12 And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves?

Zec 4:13 And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

Zec 4:14 Then said he, These are the two anointed ones ((3323 yitshar= fresh oil, shining (pure) oil, aka “Christs”)), that stand by the LORD of the whole earth.

Since these two are both “Christs” and there are no other “Christs” in the picture, they must be the ones who were serving all along as Jehovah and Moses, the Father and Jesus and to date Ti and Do.

The Lampstand they are feeding their oil into is the Lord of the whole Earth. Do said this was actually Ti as she didn't need to bring all her Next Level Mind with her to perform her tasks and that her Next Level Mind was so large/great/powerful that she had more than one physical vehicle she could operate, where Do felt that he needed to put his previous Next Level vehicle in a closet become coming.

Ti and Do said all they wanted to be for the Next Level were clear “pipes.” What was meant by that is their wanting none of themselves to interfere with providing us with exactly what was intended. They didn't want any coloration added. However, Ti agreed that Do was better able to communicate with the student body as he was closer to the ways in which the student body would take things they said. The students didn't know what to make of some of the things Ti said so he would round them out and approach them in different ways. Ti came to get Do started. At one point in their “classroom” they took the name, “Lnks” (Links) as all they felt they were and wanted to be were links in the chain of Mind from Older Member to Older Member to the Chief of Chiefs.

II.A.5.f. DANIEL 7:13 DESCRIBES THE OLDER MEMBER AS A SON ARRIVING TO BE WITH HIS OLDER MEMBER AND DANIEL 12's PROPHECY DESCRIBES JESUS STANDING (INCARNATE TO PROPHECY) AND THEN THE "END TIME" TWO (WITNESSES) STANDING (INCARNATE TO PROPHECY), WHO CAN ONLY BE THE SAME FATHER AND SON

Dan 7:13 I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came ((4291 mta' apparently corresponding to 'matsa" (4672) in the intransitive sense of being found present; to arrive, extend or happen= come, reach)) to ((5705 'ad= X and, at, for, (hither-)to, on till, (un-)to, until, with(in))) the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.

A “Son of Man” as it's used by Jesus and Ezekiel and Daniel all boils down to a way to say someone who comes from the Kingdom of God in Soul form who takes a human vehicle, born of woman, born of “water.” Son also means “kin or child of God incarnate” and “man” means a human. Now this would apply for any Member of the Next Level who comes incarnate to perform a task. Ezekiel and Daniel weren't Older Members in the Next Level. Jesus said that those that are taken with their physical body are from the Kingdom of God. That would apply to Enoch, Moses, Elijah and Jesus. Thus Ezekiel and Daniel were students, perhaps one of the “four living beings” or one or more of the 24 Elders that were called “prophets” because they provided the truth about the Kingdom of God/Heaven by speaking. Jehovah one of these who prophesy referring to Miriam as different from Moses. To Moses, Jehovah speaks directly to. To Miriam or anyone who is a true “prophet” they get their things to say through “dreams.” (Not saying that anyone who has a dream is a prophet if they express it and it has something to do with an understanding or future event. That's why there are “false prophets” as well.

Daniel was therefore a “son of man” seeing in this “night vision” (dream) another he knew to be a “son of man.” The word “like” is actually a prefix to “Son” that can also be “as” or “as if.” When employing the re-translation choices to “came to” in regards to the Ancient of Days, who is clearly a different person and seems to be Jehovah/Father and Ti, can be “arrive with” he is “brought to.” Do did come to Ti. Ti's vehicle was working as a nurse in a Houston Hospital and Do's vehicle went there to visit a sick friend who Ti was filling in to take care of and met Ti that started their awakening to work together.

Dan 12:1 And at that time shall Michael stand up ((5975 'amad= abide, appoint, arise, confirm, dwell, be employed, establish, make, ordain, raise up, repair, serve)), the great prince ((8269 sar= head person, captain, chief, lord, ruler, steward)) which standeth ((5975 'amad)) for the children of thy people ((are the “overcomers,” the meaning of the word/name Israel as “who prevails as/according to the instructions (commandments) from Jehovah)): and there shall be a time ((6256 'eth= season)) of trouble ((6869 tsarah= adversary (satanic), adversity, affliction, anguish, distress, tribulation)), such as never was ((1961 hayah= exist, come to pass)) since there was a nation ((1471 gowy= massing of a foreign nation (gentiles), or a flight of locusts)) even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered ((4422 malat= saved, released, rescued, bring forth)), every one that shall be found ((4672 matsa'= be able, attain, ready, present, suffice, be enough)) written ((3789 kathab= graven, subscribed, prescribed)) in the book ((5612 cepher= who evidence learning)).

To stand up is unique to prophecy as depicting someone coming incarnate as to abide or dwell with humans requires a physical body, the reason all who come from the Kingdom of God/Heaven with tasks either show up looking physical to others (e.g. Two with Lot, Two at Jesus tomb, Two at transfiguration, Two at ascension) OR are undercover operating through a human body they chose for the event, as Enoch, (Teacher/student in training); Moses and Aaron, Elijah and Elisha, Jesus and John the Baptist. These names are the ones who were either witnessed as TAKEN by the Kingdom of God/Heaven, which Jesus said was evidence that they also CAME FROM THE KINGDOM OF GOD/HEAVEN and who Ti said were actually the same Older Member from the Next Level who most recently served as Do.

TI AND DO FELT THAT MOSES' PHYSICAL VEHICLE WAS TAKEN INTO THE NEXT LEVEL

Among scholars (scribes) it is generally accepted that Moses literally died, though no body or bones or grave was ever found and no human witnessed it that we know of. It's a controversy because it is in Deuteronomy 33, one of the five books of the Torah, holy to Jews, Christians and Muslims alike, that as best I can tell everyone agrees was written by Moses that talks about his death as if it was a certainty. In the account Moses “ascends” (Hebrew 5927 'alah (Kal Future)) (from the) “plains” (6160 'arabah= desert, wilderness, heaven). That could be an account of his being “taken” by Heaven or to heaven and as it goes on to describe there shown Jericho, the “promised land.” Some say Joshua might have written this part of Deuteronomy but as it goes on to say, he died and was buried in a valley or gorge, I guess he got down from that mountain before he died. Of course for all we know Joshua went with him and was sworn to secrecy about his departure to leave it a mystery since it also states “no sepulcher” was ever seen by a human. We have precedent for that after the Two beings were seen by James, John and Peter on the Transfiguration mount where Jesus got his exit instructions. Otherwise why wouldn't whoever wrote this explain the circumstances. Another idea is that Moses was told of his exit ahead of time and wrote this before he walked off. It doesn't really matter as there is plenty of evidence that Moses was the incarnate representative from the Kingdom of God/Heaven at that time.

But as for the contention the archangel Michael had with the “devil” over Moses body as stated in Jude 1:9, the only insight I have about that at this time is this;

Since Moses was the name of the body an Older Member of the Next Level took, as described in Moses awakening at the “burning bush” and thereafter, Michael, being a “prince of hosts” and thus a “captain of angels” and as I have shown or will show eventually in this writing, a “Christ,” because being a “prince” and given the task of overseeing the “children of Israel” as various records describe, you don't get to that stature unless you have proved to your Older Member you no longer have any interest in the human kingdom. A Christ in short is someone who has Overcome the human kingdom, even many times, as tasks for their Older Member to show students how it's done. However, that's not to say each incarnation doesn't present significant challenges to even an Older Member coming incarnate.

So Michael was therefore the Existing One (as all adult members of the Next Level are) who “took over” the vehicle named Moses and from what Ti and Do said, “Lucifer was his adversary” at least, I believe, during this civilizational experiment (garden planting), that started with the One who was Do incarnate first as Adam which puts a new look to his being the “first and the last” as in first letter/word Alpha and last letter/word Omega as there will be no further incarnations during this civilization.

However this same Older Member does return One last time with power and glory after his crew has separated the sheep from the goats in the great tribulation that has begun but will be escalating significantly over the next few years to offer proof that all Ti and Do said is the “whole truth and nothing but the truth” that puts us all to the test of rising to their allegiance or staying with our allegiance to anyone or anything else. The way we show allegiance is “standing for” Them. How? By revealing all they said to others so they too can have a chance to wake up to their reality. When? I would say, ASAP would be the way Ti and Do taught their students but as with all things with thought and careful compassion and consideration of how hard it is to rise to their service in this illusionary world. The degree in which we “stand” is up to each of us and our relationship with Ti and Do who are waiting for us to ask to be in their service and to receive help/strength from. No one who asks will be turned away and all who are genuine will have a sense they have heard their petitioning for service. Like I said in the introduction, there is no group or human or believer in Ti and Do to look to, though those of us who attempting to be in their service who have more experience with what they said and taught and did, are always willing to help with questions but they don't become leaders.

Ti and Do said that the Next Level's plan for this garden experiment was to subject some that had advanced to a certain degree of membership in the Next Level to greater tests because of how Lucifer and a third of those that aligned with him “fell” away from their allegiance to their Older Member (who I believe was the One who we now call Ti). So Adam and Eve were being tested and they flunked by giving into the “serpent/dragon's” influence and breaking the instruction they were given. Therefore every time that same One came back to incarnate again, he was subject literally to the same discarnate fallen angel known as Lucifer and the Next Level saw to it that those that became “children of God” because they became students of the incarnate member were also subject to Luciferian equivalents, the other fallen angels as if they could overcome their influence over them, they would then have proved they had conquered the human kingdom as these fallen angels would do everything in their power to turn their eyes away from the Next Level and it's Older Members.

TI SAID, BUT DO EXPLAINED HOW HE ONCE SAW LUCIFER IN A BOOK STORE. I suspect it was in Portland, Oregon, perhaps around the time they stayed at the Ananda Marga house. Do said, it was frightening They didn't say more about it that I ever heard. They could have actually saw Lucifer in the same way I feel I was shown my “adversary” one night after I awoke from a dream with Ti in it.

SAWYER'S DREAM OF TI THAT ALERTED HIM TO HIS DISCARNATE ADVERSARY'S PRESENCE:

It was 2003, having consciously decided by then to “stand up” for Ti and Do again, “giving my life” as Do had instructed me in a dream in response to my asking if I needed to prepare to lay down my vehicle as they did. In the middle of the one night, I sat up in bed and was aware of the room that was very dimly lit by little computer lights and a clock and perhaps some star and/or moon light through the shades. A figure glided by me, visible to my left side but very apparent and almost close enough to touch and it was out of sight in 2 seconds down the hallway. It was unmistakably something of substance rather than a shadow or something seen out of the corner of one's eye, so that you weren't sure you saw something or not. It looked like a black sheet had been draped over an average 10 year old's head/body so that it was just a shape of a head that broadened into shoulders. I say it glided because that was the impression. There was no sense of walking or running and no sound associated with it. I thought for a few seconds and then stood up and turned on a light and wondered if it was my 7 year old daughter so I checked and it was neither her or her older sister as they were still upstairs in bed. I looked around the house and found the basement door opened which was never left open and it was at that point my hair stood up on the back of my neck and I wasn't going to go looking for it further.

ABOUT THE ARCHANGEL MICHEAL'S NAME:

Now I don't know when Michael got his name but it was apparently before he came incarnate as Enoch because Enoch mentions him. One might wonder why Enoch would talk about Michael if Enoch was Michael. The human vehicle only is fed what it needs and can handle relative to the students. Plus it's not the way of a member of the Next Level to put any stock in claiming to be someone in the past. Michael might have been the name chosen when that individual became a student that first graduated out of the human kingdom. At that time perhaps in their “experiential classroom” each was given a last name of “el” as the English transliteration of the Hebrew word which would be kin to the way members of Ti and Do's classroom were at one point given the “ody” extension. When Ti and Do gave out those names they took our existing names, many of which we chose for ourselves when we joined and shortened it and added, “ody.” At that time they also said, when we had “matured,” as we were still “children” then, the “y” would be dropped so we would then be of the family of “od,” a funny twist because one has to be very odd relative to the rest of the humans to be drawn to and to follow through with developing a graft to the Next Level through their Older Member. But of course it looks like it was taken from “God” as each who becomes an adult member of the Next Level as compared to a human in the human evolutionary kingdom they are a “God” which simply referred to any member of the Evolutionary Level Above Human, or Kingdom of God. To be more accurate in talking about that Kingdom, it would be the “Kingdom of Gods from the literal Heavens” but since that conjures up the idea that it's a pagan “many god's” belief and has all these religious connotations anyway, so Ti and Do instead said it was the Evolutionary Level Above Human, or Next Level for short because the human kingdom was a stepping stone into their Next Level.

MICHAEL BATTLES WITH LUCIFER AS DEPICTED BY ENOCH

Therefore, Michael also had battles with Lucifer while He was incarnate as Enoch and then as Moses. Ti and Do felt that Moses physical body was taken. That's enough for me but that perspective can also be seen in the way it doesn't make any sense that there would be a battle over a dead body, if Moses had left his body behind. As one Christian commentator suggested; perhaps the Lord didn't want anyone to find Moses body as they would no doubt build a shrine to it and worship his image as they always do. What we can know is that there was a plan in the way it came about. Now the way there can be a contention over the body called Moses would be over his living body, only in the sense of who one gives our allegiance to, between the Kingdom of God/Heaven and Mammon as Jesus described, where mammon is basically the human mammalian evolutionary kingdom.

In other words just as Jesus was tempted in the wilderness after he had experienced a major phase of awakening (as it's always ongoing), according to Luke's description, Moses at that time may have also gone through a similar test that might have entailed some “doubts” about who he was and or what he was to do with what he knew he was receiving, whether to use it to heighten himself or his Older Member. That would be a contention with the devil - to deal with doubts or a temptation to build self into somebody others would look up to, instead of about who he was in relationship to his Older Member, then called Jehovah. That's what an adversary is assigned to student to do, whether it's a new student or an existing Older Member that is performing a task for their Older Member to show students how and what needs overcoming but that will also advance their stature in the Next Level. So Michael was doing the battling and the battleground was the brain and body of Moses. “Standing up” in a human body also means, “taking it over” which means taking the reins, as if it was a horse and directing it's every move by the instructions, behaviors and ways of the Next Level received through their incarnate Older Members.

This verse is talking about the time when the One called Michael took over the vehicle that was named Jesus, having a task definition of “savior” (deliverer), and how he provides the criteria to become his disciple, being to abide in his love which is defined as keeping all his sayings and commandments, the greatest one he gave right before he ascended, to “love your neighbor/friends as yourself.”

I believe the biggest show of love is through “giving” in all ways, which is a way to teach humans to get out of their “selves” which becomes integral to giving our all to our Older Member when he comes incarnate but starts at any time by seeking a real relationship with the most current Older Member's through his last human incarnation that I believe was Do. To try to have a real relationship with the name given for the last incarnation of the Older Member, by the time of the next coming is nearly or perhaps entirely obsolete because of the illusion so many have about that person and because of all the many discarnate influences that died believing or disbelieving in that name, even in the illusion of him that are glad to come to anyone calling his name to try to be the intercessor as they often were while living as a Priest or Rabbi or Imam or some other religious title. This is why, Jesus taught to talk to the Older Member by addressing Him as “Our Father in heaven,” the literal heavens.

Ti and Do taught to project your asking as far from the planet as you can imagine and to the highest being you can imagine which would be a safeguard for avoiding discarnates and space alien interference though the fastest “telephone line” is to use the words Ti and Do. But at this time we can talk directly to Ti and Do for the best results.

Dan 12:2 And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

This verse skips forward to the “end time” as Jesus prophecy addressed the same ideas of those who were in the graves* (sleep in the dust of the earth), thus physically dead, but not spiritually dead. Jesus said they would “hear his voice.” They have to have a physical body to hear a voice which is why he says they will “resurrect” which is their “awakening” in the new human vehicles they would be attempting to take over and is also described as “standing up.” Resurrection means to “rise, to stand up (again)” and just like in the parable of the seeds of wheat planted where the enemy (devil) plants his seeds, the tares, alongside the Next Level's planting of their seeds, not all seeds are germinated by his “voice,” the public speaking that the returning One who was incarnate as Jesus does, as the voice of the shepherd. Again the place this is represented most in prophecy is in that of the Two Witnesses and the reason it's so important to see all the indications that the Father is also incarnate with Him, though just to get him started in a world where the truth has been corrupted and hidden til now.

Joh 5:29 And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

So some rise to LIFE and others to their own damning of themselves by their choices to reject and even work against the Next Level which sorts them into an eventual recycling in the “Lake of Fire.”

Thus this is the resurrection of the just and the unjust and their judgment time Jesus prophesy about that is depicted as taking place during and after the various stages of his/their returns, incarnate and then for the final battle spoken of as at Armageddon which is NOT incarnate but is the same person and is recognized by his believers at that point.

Now Jesus talks about how even the high priest Caiaphas who condemned him to death would return in the end time to see him (though it would be doubtful he will see him then any differently than he saw him while he was incarnate as Jesus). And Jesus said many would resurrect in the end time, some to everlasting life and some to everlasting fires of damnation - the Lake of Fire, second death of the spirit/souls.

DANIELS PROPHECY OF WHAT JESUS REFERRED TO AS THE RESURRECTION TO "LIFE":

Dan 12:3 And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever.

But this will not be told with nearly this degree of clarity until it's in progress, as had it been laid out in advance it would have given the Luciferian space alien fallen angel, LOWER FORCES too much time to build their misinformation and distortions into the human records and thus consciousness rendering them incapable of seeing the truth when it appears through the incarnate Jesus and then the Two Witnesses:

Dan 12:4 But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many ((7227 rab= captain, elder, great one, officer, prince)) shall (run to and) fro ((7751 shuwt= to push forth, to lash, go, mariner, rower)), and knowledge shall be increased.

Knowledge increased is evident in the end times starting with widespread implementations of electricity, especially in the early 1900's and especially in the United States of America. And we all know the history of developments and space travel and all manner of technologies that came from the use of electricity (light), so knowledge was certainly increased over that time more than at any time prior in any country during this current civilization.

To say "many shall run to and fro" is confusing so I have re-translated "shuwt" to, "to push forth," to be a rower, etc. indicating the effort needed to become a member of the Next Level. Ti and Do always talked about “pushing” and in some records it states the effort as a “press,” even with a type of violence against the unseen lower forces that bring on the battle.

DANIEL IS SHOWN TWO IN THE END TIME THAT TO STAND, MEANS TO INCARNATE AND TO SPEAK ABOUT THE KINGDOM OF GOD/HEAVEN WHICH IS WHAT PROPHECY MEANS. PROPHECY DOESN'T JUST REFER TO WHAT IS GIVEN IN DREAMS OR VISIONARY EXPERIENCES. IT MUST BE DELIVERED THROUGH THE SPOKEN WORD AS THAT IS HOW HUMANS ARE DESIGNED TO MOST ACCURATELY COMMUNICATE.

Dan 12:5 (Then I) DANIEL LOOKED, (and, behold, there) stood ((5975 'amad= ABIDE, APPOINT, ARISE, CONFIRM, CONTINUE, DWELL, BE EMPLOYED, establish, (be) present (self), raise up, remain, repair, SERVE, set)) other ((312 'acher= hinder; next, other)) two, (the) one ((259 'echad= united, (as one), first, alike, altogether, a certain)) (on this) side ((2008 hennah= this (that) way)) (of the) bank ((8193 saphah= language, lip, speech, talk, words)) (of the) river ((2975 y'or= stream)), (and the) other (((on that) side ((this (that) way)) (of the) bank ((language, lip, speech, talk, words)) (of the) river ((flood, stream))).

This verse seems to outline the general idea of a geographical area in which these TWO act united, as one to STAND (talk/prophecy) and a description of the WAY/SIDE their talk/prophecy takes and the timing of their STAND that in the next verse shows the application OVER/ABOVE (Upon) the people (waters) that makeup the “stream” (river).

The translation of Greek “hennah” to “side” relative to their “standing” in terms of language indicates the two edges of the sword of their mouth - each edge being a “side.” The sword is used to depict how what they say “cuts” through both illusion about the truth about the Level Above Human and because of, also cuts at a human beings root system as humans are naturally attached. Those roots need to be severed to graft to the new “vine” of the Older Member's family tree that is above human.

Ti and Do stood (resurrect) in a mix of two terminologies though largely more generic in a mix thought of as scientific and new age religio-spiritual. They brought updates of concepts as in calling the Overcoming Process a “Human Individual Metamorphosis” (HIM) and the Kingdom of God termed

“The Evolutionary Level Above Human,” or short as The Next Level whose many physical members domain was throughout outer space (the literal heavens) who used spacecrafts, aka UFO's (clouds of light) for transport. One's brain was a biological computer (genes). The Space Aliens were the dropouts from a previous Next Level “Astronaut Training Program” who were the “fallen angels” descendents and contactees (disciples). They spoke of light as a frequency and Mind has two forms, as information and programming on the human kingdom level spoken of as spirit and when outside the body/brain (computer) a discarnate “influence.”

Ti and Do's task was comprised of two stages that were each an “edge to the sword of the mouth” as Jesus spoke about and as recorded in the Book of Revelations. The first was spoken from 1973-76, the 1260 days of the Two Witnesses prophecy period. This period was clearly directed to the entire United States as the “City” with the first focal geography and “Temple” area best outlined as west of the Mississippi River (thought extended north into Canada to the latitude of Edmonton, Canada. The “temple's” “altar” grounds would be the U.S. Southwest to include Texas, New Mexico and Arizona and Southern California where the first sacrifice occurred in the so called UFO Crashes in the 1940's and 1950's. The “Street” of the city is where the information was provided which was like the “town square” in the City which is a designation of a geographic area or space that makes for an enclosure and in certain context a broadcast area as the “Street” of the enclosure (city).

This geographic enclosure termed the “temple” is roughly the size of the New Jerusalem spacecraft of Rev 21 described to have a measurement of about 1378-1420 miles on each of it's three dimensions thus a cube. That is the area for the biggest “face to face” interface they provided during two 9 month periods with 17 years of silence in between. The language they used for this first phase was what Ti and Do described as “generic,” meaning it had little religious and spiritual related terminology. This first “side of the bank (lip/language/border) was continued in phase two by Do without Ti's physical presence as she only came to get Do started and though it continued the generic terminology they began with, Do felt instructed to open it up to use of the religious/spiritual perspective for the sake of those that were prepped and thus in line to receive the truth through what is today called Christian and thus it would describe the “Second Coming of Jesus,” the position he told the student body in 1987 he/they must take as he described it to, “be who we are.”

This should not be confused with being the same vehicles as Jesus and his disciples as they were all, with the exception of Jesus, dead. Only Jesus vehicle was preserved and underwent a transformation into a type of Next Level vehicle.

For this second phase that began to build in the 1990's that peaked with face to face meetings for the second period of public interface time that lasted from January to September of '94 (though involved two test meetings in November of '93 in Denver, Colorado and Dallas, Texas) the titles of the posters varied but said things like, “He's Back, They're Back” and then talking about how they were fulfilling the “second coming of Jesus with his Saints.” Even though both public phases of this first return were the same project, this second phase added more of what had become Christian terminology, geared to “speak in tongues” in that sense, there was still no deceit or manipulation in doing so. The Next Level NEVER needs to manipulate the way the lower forces and humans always do to try to sell what they want to sell. However, the Next Level must always come part way to be able to give humans the ultimate opportunity to “see” who they are in the most accurate light.

There are two harvest WAVES to the overall Second Coming termed FIRST and LAST with both Two Witnesses incarnate for the FIRST and One incarnate for the start of the LAST WAVE that is completed at His arrival with his Armada, so not incarnate. Both of these WAVES are described as “straights” or Streets, referring to a PATH to membership in the Next Level - as the symbolic reference to Egypt describes but is also described as occurring primarily in the TEMPLE grounds in the description of the geography as two banks of a River - the Mississippi Ti and Do said was a dividing line of sorts. So the Temple area is primarily west of that river and that Courtyard are east of the river extending throughout the rest of the world but primarily to English speaking areas because that is the language in which the Two Witnesses came incarnate to voice their updates and fulfillments of prophecy. Rev 11:2 shows the Courtyard as separate from the Temple areas where LAST WAVE believers may be most found:

Rev 11:2 But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months.

To “stand” always includes SPEAKING UP for what it is you “stand for,” as Jesus said of anyone who has the LIGHT would do to provide fruit for their Older Member, through the sharing of the “truth” provided. In other words, as Jesus said in several ways, one's light received shouldn't be “hidden under a bushel basket.” He also described in the parable of the talents how that “light” needs to be spent/invested thus used to bring about more fruit to potentially realize the highest purpose in it's receipt. (This has been bastardized by many Christian leaders into proselytizing to where they count converts like a gunslinger puts notches on their belt of how many they have killed, often not a bad analogy as Jesus indicated, among the Jewish leaders, he called “blind guides,” who then became the blind leading the blind and often even twice the abomination than themselves, thus destined for the same end result of being recycled, while thinking they are “saved,” like some guarantee they have no right to promise others. Many simply quote Jesus in Joh 3:16 about how “belief” MIGHT bring them salvation from Soul/spirit disposal, hardly ever spelling out the WAY of KEEPING ALL JESUS TAUGHT ABOUT THE NEED TO SEPARATE FROM THE WORLD AND ALL IT'S WORLDLINESS. Instead they often teach “abundance” and so called “spiritual gifts” and “saved by grace” without any real understanding of what was actually meant by some of those promises.

In this case THESE TWO CLEARLY SEEM TO BE THE SAME TWO WHO ARE DEPICTED AS THE TWO OLIVE TREES aka LAMPSTANDS OR CANDLESTICKS WHO ARE “ANOINTED ONES (Christs), THAT STAND BY THE LORD OF THE WHOLE EARTH” in Zec 4:14, as also depicted in Dan 12:7 as COMMITTED, COVENANTED WITH (SWORN) to “HIM THAT LIVETH FOR EVER,” their Older Member in the literal heavens.

Ti and Do met and began to STAND (take over human vehicles aka incarnate, rise up, abide, dwell, speak up for) in Houston, Texas which borders the Gulf of Mexico. At first they were trying to figure out what they had to do together, as they had no recognizable attraction to one another nor no apparent commonality except in their own ways both had a strong love for their Heavenly Father.

TEST TIME - IN CHANGING ONES MIND (REPENTANCE) - TRADEMARKS OF TI AND DO'S OVERCOMING OF HUMANNESS CLASSROOM.

This next thing I will say may test some people but that's actually part of the point to this writing, to tell the truth and let each person who chooses to see it through then decide what they do or don't believe. There will always be points that for some will be “deal breakers” on their belief and the Next Level wants there to be as it serves to separate out those with some of their mind in them from those without their mind in them. No one has to take offense with my saying that because if someone doesn't believe this is the truth they simply don't believe and they aren't expected to believe and then most of this doesn't apply to them, at least at this time. What the Next Level has said through their Older Members and Active Students (Elders, etc.) is a caution to not be “hasty” in deciding for or against Ti and Do. Take your time. Let it sit with you. When you feel overwhelmed by certain ideas, don't force them and it's always advisable to keep an open phone line to whoever one thinks of as their “highest power” for help to discern the truth. The highest truths are simply what reveal the greatest view of what's real which come from our Older Members by their mouth and writings, etc.

Before Ti had awakened to her task with Do, she was a seeker and experimented with a number of things that would be considered New Age, to include Theosophy, Astrology and some attempts at communication with spirits through a Ouija board. For instance if someone learned that she did astrological charts and asked her to do their chart, Ti wouldn't take them seriously until they asked three times and wouldn't tell people that. I don't know for a fact whether she accepted compensation for her astrological work, but it wouldn't seem to make any sense in this light.

Ti also said that she had a “spirit guide” she called, “brother Francis” who she would look to for help to find the vein to take blood from or insert an IV into as her career was as a registered nurse that mostly worked in the premature baby ward of the Houston hospital system.

After Ti and Do had awakened to their Mind that came from the Next Level they saw all these beliefs and practices that would come under the umbrella of “spirituality,” to include religion and even non-religion (atheism or agnosticism) as OPPORTUNITIES TO GROW THROUGH. In other words they were all legitimate pathways to learn from but if one stayed in any one and began to reduce their openness and thirst to look for the highest truths, they were then limiting their growth.

The Luciferians spread misinformation picked up by those who called themselves Christians used to persecute anyone who sought to understand the greater realities around us. That was never the intention of the Next Level though using these discoveries to enhance one's stature or to make into a career corrupts the user so the Next Level warned against their embrace. But to broaden one's awareness of our realities make them useful tools on the path to the truth about the Evolutionary Level Above Human's reality.

Ti and Do said, “all paths lead to the top of the mountain, but only one get's you off the mountain.” The mountain is the human kingdom rooted to the earth. They also said that it's “not what you get into while in the human kingdom, it's what you get out of” that is important to Next Level membership. They said the human kingdom was like 12 grades in school. The first six brought a human to the pinnacle of success in virtually all ways and from there if they are to proceed to grow needed to remove everything that went to build their successful stature. This was part of what they called the overcoming “process.”

So with that preface, though I didn't hear this directly from Ti or Do, though don't doubt it either, Ti was reported to have received a psychic reading sometime before she met Do that described her meeting a man. I don't recall the description but it was reported when Ti met Do she identified that man as Do. Do on the other hand didn't have anything like that but was reported to have said that he was looking for a “platonic relationship.” I never heard him say that, but he did tell the student body on several occasions and first insinuated in his booklet entitled, “'88 Update, the UFO Two and Crew” that he had been in relationships with men before meeting Ti, so was “gay” but that he was frustrated at not finding more of a committed relationship and he also reported that shortly before meeting Ti, if I recall correctly he had ceased sexual activity altogether. Some of these points were reported by Rob Balch in the video, “Heaven's Gate, The Day After.”

Ti and Do's first efforts to learn more about why they felt so strongly they needed to work together were realized by their starting two discussion groups. Each only lasted a couple months. One they called the “Christian Arts Center” which they held in the basement of the University of St. Thomas where Do once worked as music director. They were told they couldn't continue because they weren't sticking to Christian teachings. So they started another endeavor they called “Know Place.” It wasn't but a couple months after that began that they felt forced to leave Houston, the area they had spent many of their years, near to family, friends and careers, etc., because it became apparent they were both equally compelled to continue drawing and digesting a new but familiar stream of information.

Although they got big chunks of understanding throughout 1973 and traveled all around the U.S. and Canada for most of that year sharing the information, they gave their first meetings in 1975 in the greater Los Angeles (city of angels) and San Francisco Bay areas, closely followed by the infamous Waldport, Oregon meeting that brought their story national. In the upcoming section on the Two Witnesses I will go into verse by verse detail of everything that happened regarding this major “standing up.” But suffice to the relationship to this verse in Daniel is some description of the meaning of these TWO STANDING ON ONE AND THE OTHER BANKS OF THE RIVER.

As is evidenced in all prophecy I have re-interpreted and re-translated to date there are at least two ways I tend to view this verse. One pertains to the physical location where they would perform their “standing” and the other showing that their standing was related to the actual words, speech/language they used and perhaps with some insinuation of when. Starting on the “where”:

The most direct indication is found in where the Two Witnesses Bodies (the ones they took over) were to be first subdued/overcome which in Rev 11:8 was “in the street of the great city” U.S., which as said is spiritually (symbolically, mystically, figuratively, prophetically); Sodom (parched, desert area), Egypt (a Nation of Two Straights/Streets, Banks) and “where also our Lord was crucified” - Jerusalem. By including the nation Egypt in the prophecy, it seems to be indicating a sizable country/nation that has the characteristics of Sodom, Egypt and Jerusalem.

Taking that prophecy together with the Old Testament prophet Isaiah's description of Jerusalem as in the “valley of vision,” Hollywood's movie studio industry seemed most telling, together with where Ti and Do were first invited to speak, in the North Hollywood suburb of Los Angeles - the City of Angeles, after sending out a mailing to new age centers from Ojai, California. Further type of confirmation of this comes from seeing how the people in Sodom had a reputation for being arrogantly proud, haughty, gluttonous and satiated with themselves and their sensual pleasures that is quite applicable to many places in the world to include the United States and especially on both coasts and quite prevalent in the Los Angeles, San Francisco, Las Vegas, California and Nevada areas (thought admittedly all over the US and Europe), but I'm building the case with Ti and Do's circumstances. Lastly of these three areas mentioned is Egypt which is defined in Greek as Aiguptos, "the land of the Nile" or "double straits," "two banks" all of which relate to bodies of water and water is used in Revelations and many applications as pertaining to "people." Two Straights or Street or banks could geographically refer to the Nile as one and to the Mediterranean or Red Sea as the other and in the U.S. to the Pacific and the Atlantic or the Pacific and the Colorado River or the Pacific and the Mississippi River.

Ti and Do had long felt like the "mighty Mississippi" river was a type of general border or "wall of the great city" for the area they were to do most of their "standing up" in, which meant both - taking a physical body and standing up for what they had awakened to, shown by their coming public and holding the overcoming classroom afterward. As shown the overcoming classroom part started with the time the group of about a hundred stopped doing anything public and started living outdoors in the wilderness (outdoors in remote areas of southern Wyoming east of Laramie in the Veedavou (earth born) rustic camping area of Medicine Bow National Forest and south Texas near Austin and San Antonio. The group moved to avoid the harsher times of the weather in each part of the country.

The great Mississippi and Colorado rivers seem to be of some equivalent to the Great Euphrates/Nile Rivers. There are many correlations between the Middle East, where the Kingdom of God/heaven was last based, for the start of the garden experiment's first two trimesters towards the "spirit/mind birth" and the U.S. as the "Brave New World" with all it's biblical names repeated throughout. I don't think the actual River is important but the fact that a great river is involved, whether it is Euphrates or Nile or Missouri or Mississippi. With prophecy as shown, time and again, there are a number of applications so I am trying to fit one to Ti and Do's history. In that sense one bank could be the Pacific ocean and the other bank the Colorado River that forms the border of California from Las Vegas (symbolic Sodom) south to Mexico. After all this is outlining an area in the "Great City," U.S., which again has "two banks" with a Great River dividing it into two parts, one for the primary territory of the FIRST Harvest testing area and the other (east of the Mississippi) the setting for the LAST Harvest testing area where most Christians are, where the Christians are like those Souls/Spirits who were using vehicles during the time of Jesus, but in Jewish vehicles then - that came out of Egypt and by the way may have just largely elected Donald Trump president for the start of the Great Tribulation that could become their test by the content of this book.

It is also interesting that the Colorado River goes through the Grand Canyon (and starts in the Rocky Mountains of Colorado), where Ti was taken by "two wings of a great eagle" - to Blackhawk, Colorado shown in Rev 12:14, while outlining the area to it's south where Ti and Do spent most all their time with their classroom. It is also interesting that there seems to be significant documentation through the Smithsonian Institute from discoveries in the late 1800's that there were Egyptians in America around 1700 BC. They built shrines, smelted gold, built pyramids and brass statues and at least one "tunnel city" with man made rooms, one of which had a wall full of mummy's for their dead and many artifacts were found all throughout the Grand Canyon, in Illinois, Ohio and Georgia. Another word for Egypt is Memphis. There are also ties to the Old Testament records and may be where Jesus was saying he was going when he was leaving and told his disciples he was going to tend to his "other fold" that I sort of thought might have been in India where Buddhism sprang up with some of the same teachings as he brought, but could have included a stop in the in the Americas. The Hopi Indians knew a lot of the Egyptian names for shrines and the depicted pharaohs in statues, etc. That puts another light on the Two Witnesses being "ruined" and even exiting from the vicinity of this new symbolic "Egypt."

<https://sites.google.com/site/ancientegyptiansinamerica/home>

In Daniel as in Isaiah, Zechariah, Amos and others "water" meant people and a river was both spoken of as the literal river but also equated with wealth because it was through the rivers that wealth could be realized in shipping, etc. With that in mind the USA certainly demonstrates huge wealth from having a land bordering the two biggest oceans of the world which is where most of the population (waters) reside. And of course the Mississippi was the key to great prosperity throughout the entire country. With this in mind we see all sorts of examples of how the USA is the “brave new world,” the New Empire for the return that I will spend more time on in another section. I don't think it's a coincidence that the North American continent stretches between two “seas” as even described in the song “America the Beautiful” that ends with “from sea to shining sea.” The Next Level Crews do a great deal of legwork to suggest things to humans that are looking for help, even in simple ways of coming up with song lyrics, that could provide added evidence for the later fulfillment of the prophecy they also design.

For the record, Ti and Do's first literal widespread “Standing” took place from the city of Ojai, California in March of 1975 about the time of the spring solstice when many of their related events began. They mailed out many copies of “Statement One” (provided in the introduction) to new age groups and within a couple days they were contacted and received a subsequent visit from two members of a spiritually minded new age styled meditation/seeker group in North Hollywood, California. This led to Ti and Do's visit to a North Hollywood residence where about 100 people showed up to hear them speak about the content of the Statement. As a result they had another meeting in the same house the next day and as a result about two dozen chose to follow Ti and Do. They spent the next few weeks in a nearby camping area meeting with each prospective student and some they advised not to join with them while others there seemed to be no question in their minds.

They didn't have names yet and didn't expect to have followers and were really not that desirous of followers but since it was happening went with it and said their names were Bo and Peep because they apparently had found their lost sheep. After some months living in campgrounds that took them back to Gold Beach, Oregon they decided to examine holding a public meeting in the San Francisco bay area. Some of the students held the first public meeting in Stanford College and the interest was certainly there so they held their first public meeting at Canada College that had so many people they held back to back meetings in the auditorium. So it seems accurate to say they first STOOD UP in Ojai where the waters (people) of that channel or river on the Pacific ocean evidenced great wealth monetarily and in open mindedness and actually brings in another prophecy (Rev 13:1) that says John stood upon the sand of the sea when he saw a beast rise up out of the sea, which I believe is depicting the rise of the American Empire it was fulfilling this prophecy from Daniel as well. The American Empire is a conglomerate of primarily three empires before it, the fourth of Daniels 7's four Empires (beasts) that lead up to the end times to be detailed later.

Dan 12:6 (And one) said (to the) man ((376 'iysh= man or mortal man or “to be extant(in existence),” One, a Person)) clothed ((3847 labesh= wrap around)) (in) linen ((906 bad= perhaps from 909 badad= SEPARATED (in the sense of DIVIDED fibers), flaxen thread or yarn)), (which was) upon ((4605 ma'al=upper part, above, exceeding, on high, over)) (the) waters (of the) river, (How long shall it be to the) end (of these) wonders ((6382 pele'= from pala'= a MIRACLE: marvelous thing, wonder)))?

Since these Two are obviously not ordinary mortals, 'iysh would seem to be referring to someone “who exists” which like the name given to Moses when he asked... “Jehovah,” meant, “existing one” or “I Am,” which is because to the Next Level humans don't exist in the same way because they are just temporary life forms, physically and mental/spiritually, they create with the periodic opportunities to BE COME into existence. Even the spirit world is temporary though lasts longer than physical bodies. Some people believe that being “in spirit” is a destination that is even desired. That's a twist that came from the Luciferians who are in that state and would rather promote than have us believe what the Kingdom of God/Heaven teaches. So there are people that believe when they die they become free for the first time and can travel to other planets and help others. Why they would want to go to other planets where there are no humans as we know humans to be is beyond me, when there would be nothing to do there and don't forget, spirits are moreorless just programmatic entities acting out what they became programmed to want and do when they were part of a human body.

The only future for a spirits is when during their alive time they had shown the Next Level they wanted to be in their favor which because of, when their physical body dies, the Next Level, having tagged that body while living, takes that spirit or Soul to be somewhere of their keeping. That's called being "saved." One hasn't graduated into Membership in the Next Level by being saved. They do however get another opportunity to LIVE as the Next Level defines Live - taking over a human vehicle at a time when an Older Member is incarnate to take them through a stage in the overcoming classroom.

CLOTHING IN PROPHECY REFERS TO THE PHYSICAL BODY A NEXT LEVEL SOUL "WRAPS AROUND" THEIR SELF.

When clothing is depicted in prophecy it is generally never referring to actual apparel like socks and shirts and such. Next Level members have physical bodies but are still living if they take off that physical body as Ti and Do said they wear a physical body sort of the way a human wears a special suit, like a space suit for traveling in space or a diving suit to travel underwater. It's not that Members of the Next Level take their bodies on and off all the time. To the contrary, it's more like they wear one body that's awarded/assigned them until they have a task need to either "temporarily hang up one body," as Do suggested he did with his existing Next Level body, or to put on another or to discard a body to be awarded a more functional model for accomplishing a new challenging task.

Do said that Next Level bodies were "grown on a vine." They don't come from mammalian styled reproduction of sperm inseminating an egg to produce a baby vehicle like in the human and other mammalian styled reproductive systems. That's considered primitive and beneath them and even dirty just like we would think of living the way a dog or other mammal lives as dirty and beneath us, even though for them as with humans it's natural. But that's the point to the Next Level's program - it is to provide an avenue, a stepping stone to have the opportunity to outgrow and literally step up out of the human mammalian condition to be born into a new Kingdom Level that is Above and Beyond all human behaviors and ways, though humans are being taught their basic behavior and ways in the programs they administer though their incarnate Older Members and student representatives (Some of the Old Testament prophets and others may have been Elder Students getting lesson time incarnate in a human vehicle to serve in messenger type tasks).

So this clothing is speaking about the "vehicle" they are wearing and to describe it as "linen," baring the human definition of flaxen thread, the premise that this one is clothed with a divided styled mortal vehicle matches what we know best. Both of these have vehicles that were divided from their otherwise normal mortal human lives. The Existing Ones, their Soul bodies that took over their “clothing” - the human vehicles in doing so caused them to separate from other mortal human's and the path those vehicles were on before they took them over. Separation is another primary meaning to Hebrew “badad” that seems to be at the root of “bad” as the definition of “linen.”

As two are depicted, Daniel is being shown and there are two of them who I would suggest are both more accurately stated as, “ABOVE” not “upon” the waters (all the water birth purely human flesh bodies that don't have a higher mind taking them over). (verse 6 and 7 both depict an “existing one” wrapping around their Soul bodies with a mortal human body for their incarnate task. Incarnation is the same thing as to “stand up” and the same thing as to “take over” that body. Do apologized for saying this on the exit video he made in 1997 days before they laid their bodies down, when he said they were “body snatchers,” from the sci-fi movie of that name. He didn't really meant to be humorous about it, not wanting to offend anyone more than they were already offended by him and his leadership of the student body to follow in his footsteps.

By the way, Ti and Do's student body were anything but “blind sheep” following him, any more than a soldier that is willing to give their life for their country, taking on what they know is a suicide mission with the idea of saving others would be blind to the ramifications. Of course in that example it's common place to think of soldiers that die for their comrades and/or country as heroes, regardless of whether they were led to do so by false pretenses or not, but since God is hard to get a concrete sense about who is or who is not actually serving the real Kingdom of God, it seems to most to be fanatical to treat it the same way and especially when there have been so many false Christs and false prophets over the millennium.

The first EXISTING ONE is asking a question of the other one of several indications one is the elder of the other as in “Father and Son,” proposing this is the younger of the two Older Members (to us), thus Do.

Dan 12:7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and swore by him that liveth for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter ((5310 naphats= overspread, dispersed)) the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished.

THE SEVEN ROARS (THUNDERS) ARE THE CONTENT OF THE BOOK OF REV 5 AND THE POWER OF THE HOLY PEOPLE, SYNONYMOUS WITH THE MIND OF THEIR OLDER MEMBERS - IT IS ONLY THROUGH THE APPLICATION OF ALL THE INCARNATE OLDER MEMBER'S "WORDS" THAT WE HAVE POWER. Christians know this and the word for them are the teachings of Jesus, which if taken to heart prepares them for and are consistent with his/their incarnate return as demonstrated in Ti and Do's words. Each who hears their "voice" and is drawn to have more needs to study their words while desiring understanding from their heavenly father, the highest being they can reach with their thoughts who abides in the far distant from earth heavens. Ti and Do and crew will be where such requests go but it's understandable to find it difficult to try to talk to them directly because of how the lower forces, the Luciferian space alien fallen angels.

As said, that "power of the holy people," is the Mind in word/data form from the Older Members, thus their Holy Mind/Spirit and thus the information that Ti and Do and their Student Crew (returned angels/saints) revealed as the Seven Roars (of the Lion of the tribe of Juda) (Thunders) of Rev 10 as follows:

- THE FIRST ROAR was delivered publicly starting in March 1975, in their first "statement" and effort spoken of by Ti and Do as one's "Human Individual Metamorphosis," analogous to a caterpillar becoming a butterfly after leaving it's caterpillar world to put all their effort to changing their caterpillar body into a new creature, from the inside out that Ti and Do initially called "body changes," a students "inside body" later understood to be the Soul container/body and a type of sprouting of the gifted "seed," Jesus spoke of spreading and bringing to harvest.

Ti and Do actually began their "standing" - speaking about the Next Level, in stages as a part of their awakening, most officially when they left their old lives and relationships and activities behind in Houston, Texas on January 1, 1973. However it was a process that began upon their physically meeting in March of 1972 and it extended to April of 1976, while their public efforts, though their committed student body gathered during that time continued into mid June of 1976, when the last public meetings ended by their instruction. This is the Rev 11 Two Witnesses prophecy period of 1260 days. As with the fulfillment of all prophecy, it is always able to be explained away by those who don't want to believe, in this case by trying to be so specific as to the start and stop time when all dates and times are given for us, as with all the laws, not for the sake of the laws themselves. In other words, the option always exists to choose not to believe which is exactly as the Next Level intends as then the full choice exists for each of us to become exactly what we want to become.

This “roar” as with all roars are ongoing, just as Moses and Jesus teachings/words are ongoing, though the most recent teachings/words are what we need to apply most, which are consistent with the former incarnate representatives, though more “plainly” or “generically” able to be understood in the words of the most current incarnate Older Members, extended to after their exit of their incarnation.

With that said, it is apparent that the media extended this first “roar” some seven years to 1982 with the portrayal of Bo and Peep's group as equivalent to the Jim Jones murders and clearly manipulated forced suicides that the audio/visual recordings and eye witnesses attested to. This portrayal of Bo and Peep and their drawing of the “lost sheep” was presented in the grade B, nearly totally fictional movie, “The Mysterious Two.” This was very interesting to see because Ti and Do, still as Peep and Bo still didn't at that time think we would exit/drop our physical human vehicles to gain access to the Next Level spacecraft and especially didn't think we would take it upon ourselves to exit. The cover of the movie promotion showed people lying around dead while the Two stood by. It was clearly a Luciferian influenced movie to attempt to equate Bo and Peep with the Jim Jones massacre so people wouldn't look at the details. One huge detail was that in Ti and Do's group there were never any children permitted to join, even with their families and disciples that were related ceased to act with one another as they had before joining, plus there was to be no communication with those who each student left behind in the world, that is unless the Older Members instigated such, which did occur in a number of circumstance and specifically by two optional visits to those left behind in 1985 and 1987, each for a weekend time period and unchaperoned so could easily have become an easy way to leave the group, (though leaving was always easy and helped by Ti and Do, with transportation and funds if a student chose to leave).

On October 18, 1988, Do's booklet entitled, "88 Update: The UFO Two and Their Crew" which closed the first ROAR as it set the record straight after the media blitz had spread all manner of misinformation was distributed to key organizations and individuals, like MUFON - The Mutual Unidentified Flying Object Network organizer Walt Andrus.

- THE SECOND ROAR started in late 1991 and then on January 11, 1992 with the 12 hour series of video tapes of Do talking called, "Beyond Human, The Last Call." These were uploaded to Satellite TV.

- THE THIRD ROAR was the "USA Today" 1/3 page small print info/ad entitled, "'UFO Cult' Resurfaces with Final Offer' that cost about $30,000.00, (the group had saved by half the group working jobs) in it's national and international editions on May 27, 1993.

- THE FOURTH ROAR was an ad like the USA Today ad that was entitled, "Last Chance to Advance Beyond Human" also published as an info/ad in 49 new age styled magazines in the U.S. and Canada, England, Scotland, Australia and New Zealand.

- THE FIFTH ROAR began officially Jan. 1, 1994 in the face to face public meetings that lasted for nine months across the U.S. and Canada.

- THE SIXTH ROAR was in two phases on Usenet WWW postings first in September 25-26, 1995 entitled, 'Undercover "Jesus" Surfaces Before Departure', posted to 95 Usenet News groups on the internet that millions might see and then in their "speaking in tongues," on October 11, 1995 they posted a higher more generic worded translation entitled, "95 Statement by an E.T. Presently Incarnate."

- THE SEVENTH ROAR had two phases, the first phase was dated to April of 1996 in the publish of the book entitled, 'How and When "Heaven's Gate" (The Door to the Physical Kingdom Level Above Human) May Be Entered,' (Purple Book), that was made into The Heaven's Gate web site that the group described as "An Anthology of Our Materials" since 1975.

These documents as of this writing in 2014 remain freely and widely available via the original website Do and Crew designed, still named Heavensgate.com that has remained virtually unchanged which is maintained via Do's instructions to some former students who wanted to serve. One can freely download a .zip file that has the text content of most of the book that contains the “seven roars” though doesn't use that terminology. Plus it contains the transcripts of the Beyond Human video series. Without that information available, primarily on the internet relatively few would have access to it and thereby anyone who does believe in Ti and Do, following their exit of their incarnate period that is sharing that information with others is less powerful. However when that information is no longer available it will have been plenty of time for all those who were to become interested to have many chances to see the information and have their own copies to draw from. I don't know for how long it will be easily available but when it's not “all things will be finished” soon thereafter as prophecy indicates. All the scoffers and debunkers and promoters of misinformation, the just and the unjust will at that time with or without bodies be held accountable by Ti and Do and crew.

This second EXISTING ONE in Dan 12:7 is showing their favour of the first EXISTING ONE by holding up their right hand. This is the way the early Jews blessed their first born children. They used their “right hand,” which this seems to be depicting as she (Ti) commits to her “Son” a Younger Member of the Kingdom than “she.” Also her “left” hand held up to heaven is showing she is the “right hand” of her Older Member.

Her response to her Son's question about “how long till the end of the wonders” is generally described in:

Rev 12:14 And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

The wings are both her/their (as the Son is her “throne” partner by this time) CREW who were I believe circulating in their spacecrafts cloaked from visibility and were essentially of the “mothering” nature of a bird with her young.

Thus first there would be these time periods, “a time, and times, and a half (or partial) time.” I suspect a “time” could be whatever length the Next Level wants to make it. It's a variable length. When I look at Ti and Do's mission I definitely see some patterns that can show what numbers the Next Level puts to those variables. Here is one strong contender:

TIME AND TIMES AND HALF/PARTIAL TIME:

Ti was incarnate for nearly exactly 12 years, from sometime after they met in March of 1972 and awakened to being the fulfillment of the Two Witnesses prophecy somewhere very close to June of 1973 until her exit of her vehicle on June 19, 1985, perhaps exactly 12 years. So let's say 12 is a TIME. The first time passed with Ti's exit. Then two of those TIMES would be 24 years which takes us to 2009 which is when the last documentary exclusively about the Heaven's Gate group was broadcast on National Geographic's channel's "final report: Heavens Gate" that is where they allowed me to suggest that Ti and Do were the "second coming" of Jesus and his Father. I suspect that was the start of the seventh and last trumpet blast that was worldwide as it was broadcast on the internet and to whoever subscribes to that channel which I'm sure circulates to millions of people. Then the half or partial "time" is any part of 12 but probably at least 6 years later (half of 12) which brings us to a range of 2015-2020 (6-11 years later so still a partial TIME of 12). And it just so happens the new presidential inauguration is in January of 2017 to which June of that year is half way in that range. According to prophecy calculations that I got some verifications of from Do and crew, it would be the time of the "Green (pale) Horse" and the name of the one "sitting" on this "horse" is "death" with "hell" following or accompanying. Death would mean no chance for life, a condition of both the loss of one's physical human body as that ends one's choice to grow towards further LIFE AND the loss, elimination of the Soul's option to LIVE. If the Next Level allowed the Luciferian fallen angel space aliens full access to most humans on the planet, by accepting their mindset they would be killing themselves because their souls could not grow. They would be dying to any future opportunity to live in the Next Level (Heaven). Until this time period they (those providing and choosing that "death" are still being held back from influencing some humans).

During these times the "nourishment" of Rev 12:14 is accomplished by being in the company of the Two Older Members and applying their teachings that allows their souls to grow while they through that cloaked crew are regulating just how much influence the Luciferian fallen angels are permitted to exercise against, in a face to face (though unseen) way upon the student body (the liter of the returning saints that came to take over human vehicles to overcome their humanness). If the Next Level didn't regulate their influence, many more would fall.

ABOUT SAWYER'S FALL, THOUGH NEVER RESULTED IN DIRECT DISBELIEF OR THINKING OR SPEAKING AGAINST TI AND DO OR ANYTHING THEY TAUGHT:

I feel like I fell because I unconsciously let myself get too puffed up about all I received from Ti and Do to where I asked in my silence to Ti who was outside her vehicle to step up my lesson steps and give me a task like Do had. That task was clearly too big for my britches, so to speak, a naive request, to say the least. It surfaced how much ego I still had even after 18 years. As a result I feel Ti gave me what I asked for and released an influence that was closer to what Do dealt with and because I hadn't overcome my ego (self reliance) didn't ask for help to stand a chance of resisting. I not making an excuse but it is the way things work which Ti and Do taught. They said that each of the students was assigned one of these fallen angels to become our “adversary” which we called our “booger.” By overcoming the influences of that booger we would get a passing grade. I was acting as if I had overcome my booger when I hadn't.

I could have been far less permissive of tiny thoughts and actions that were small ways of giving into sensuality for a few seconds here or there in thought or with what my eyes would linger on. It could be taking a glance down a females blouse when they bent over which I was around during jobs in the world or looking at a female's hind end when they'd bend over. I didn't have to have thoughts or feelings any further than that, as in extending the thought and images to seeing someone naked or even wanting to see more or have some sexual activity. It was just enough thought to where my vehicle would at times get a “sensuous buzz” (a literal type of internal shiver), not even the start of an erection but over time would accumulate to further stimulus and a nocturnal emission (loosing fluids at night during “down time” (sleep)).

We had procedures to deal with such emissions. One was not to pay it any mind if we did nothing to stimulate it. So they were not considered “slippages.” I wasn't aware of stimulating them until those last days after asking Ti for a more challenging task. But then honestly speaking I was stimulating them by being permissive of those tiny glances however short lived. And then when I'd have the emission during sleep, I felt guilty and because of that didn't follow the procedure for cleaning up afterward. There were a stack of washcloths in the bath chambers with a sign out sheet. We were to sign one out and use it and that was it. By not using the washcloth I was hiding (like Adam and Eve did) so was breaking procedure and that was a "slippage" (sin, aka missing the mark/goal provided us) and actually a major one as it entailed being dishonest as I didn't then report (expose) that I broke that procedure as well. I'm not saying that many classmates didn't experience the same types of slippages. And for some it became the reason they left the group.

It's easy to think, all these tiny detailed procedures were so controlling but that's a discarnate's "lower forces" thought. I WANTED TO BE IN TI AND DO'S PROGRAM AND WANTED TO ABIDE BY ALL THEIR RULES. It would be tantamount to wanting to be a NASA astronaut but deciding this or that procedure didn't need to be adhered to. Of course lower forces would never see these two as equally related as the lower forces don't believe Ti and Do were from the Next Level Kingdom of God/Heaven.

THE FATHER INCARNATE IS THE GREAT WONDER/MIRACLE

This Older Member, Ti incarnate in a "woman" body literally takes her "new born (to throne) Son and their children" into the Wyoming Wilderness starting in July of 1976. She bore her son, not this time to his first time Next Level Membership, but to his new task to sit on the throne that would not be fully implemented until she left the throne. Thus she was providing Do with an apprentice throne task. The miracle/wonder is Do having his Older Member incarnate with him. Below one can see how "great wonder" can also be translated to GREAT MIRACLE in this Greek usage. Do certainly spoke of having Ti with him incarnate for those 12 years as a "great wonder."

Rev 12:1 And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:

Incidentally, it was from July of 1976 to approx 1980 that the group lived outdoors often in Wyoming during the summer months and traveled down to south Texas in the winter months. This was after spending about 9 months giving public meetings all over the U.S. We all had tents that slept two people, cots to get us off the ground and foam pads as a little cushioning. We had two burner unleaded gas stoves to cook on and we hauled water from nearby filling stations or rest areas. We buried our waste in this high chaparral terrain desert. It really is a desolate area and we had no facilities besides what I described and Do said we numbered around 100 then.

Another big difference between Ti and Do's leadership and most if not all other cults - Ti and Do chose to filter out those they thought wouldn't make it. (However, this might be compared to when the Lord refused Cains (of Cain and Abel's) gift/sacrifice in how it could have stimulated Cain to try harder, meaning he was actually more "blessed").

When the snows started in the fall of 1976 in Wyoming, Ti and Do had us caravan our 20 or so largely beat up cars south. But because Ti and Do didn't feel some of the 100 were ready for what they knew this overcoming of humanness task would require, they arranged for 19 of the students to move to a different camping area than the larger student body. They then told us in the larger body, "you all made the first cut." I had no idea I could be cut. Not long before that Ti and Do had learned that some were having sex and smoking pot. They gave those a chance to recognize that such human behaviors would not be tolerated in their overcoming classroom. I'm not suggesting all 19 were engaged in those behaviors or even any of them. Ti and Do didn't share any details with the entire group. They did arrange for each student to meet with some who were assigned as their "helpers" to get a sense of what they wanted and whether they knew what would be expected of them to stay on. After that they held a meeting where they talked to everyone about the same things. It seemed like weeks later that we moved.

Those 19 eventually went back into the world, that is except for 3-4 who continued to want to be with Ti and Do and eventually found their way back about 5+ years later by what seemed like coincidental connections but I'd wager were no coincidence at all. Drrody had been looking for the group for about five years. One day he walked into the Amarillo, Texas hospital where both Nrrrody and Sngody were working as by then we'd moved into houses, got jobs, saved enough money to buy travel trailers and were living in three large fifth wheelers in a campground. He recognized Sngody and she recognized him and that led to inviting Drrody to rejoin, which he was thrilled to do. Stlody had told him if he ever found the group again to let him know as he wanted to rejoin too, so Stlody was informed and rejoined as well. Later Dymody found his way back and in 1995 Oscody found his way back. There were no public meetings nor any forms of so called “recruiting” from mid June of 1976 to the early 1990's that will be described in the section outlining the Seven Thunders(Roars). But they only held public meetings again for the first 9 months of 1994 for a second realistic “rapture” wave.

This 5310 naphats= “cause to be discharged, dispersed, be overspread, scattering” of the power of the holy people” hasn't fully taken place yet. First off, as already shown this is during the time of the end, the time of the Two Witnesses, being after Michael stood up as the Messiah - Jesus 2000 years ago.

Even though I think “scatter” is not the most accurate translation of naphats in this context, Ti and Do and student crew were scattered in October of 1976 when Walter Cronkite broke the news story to reveal the human identities of the former “mysterious two” who claimed to be taking some to outer space on a UFO. But that wasn't the time of the end exactly. Sure it was a temporary subduing (overcoming) of their “bodies” reputations that was already “unquestionably questionable” as Do wrote about that time, but they still proceeded with public meetings for another six months with news stories galore. Then 20 years later they showed even more of their POWER. Even that coming back public in the 1990's, that peaked at their exit of their physical bodies in what was termed by the media the “Heaven's Gate suicides,” was like their “resurrection from the dead,” in the sense of “standing up again,” as they ended up going public face to face for a second time in 1994 for 9 months duration all over the U.S. and some in Canada.

Sawyers task of “craft” overseer (a “craft” is what we called the building (house) we lived in). Tasks were assigned by instruction that Ti and Do received not because of merit necessarily. In other words being assigned an Overseer doesn't mean that individual was an elder or more advanced in Next Level behavior and ways. After the fact one can see that some had more to overcome if they were assigned tasks that challenged their overcoming of their ego.

Even though some will see me as “tooting my horn” in this regard, I need to state the facts of my involvement. It is part of my “standing up” and so it's apparent I am not just chronicling history.

In late 1993 when Do and Crew decided to go public face to face for a second time that was led up to from 1987 when Do said, “we needed to be who we are” as the returning Souls that were with Jesus, we were divided up into four groups plus Do and his two “helpers,” Jnnody and Lvbody. We sold the trailers we had been living in and discontinued the lease of the warehouses we parked the trailers inside of in Laguna Hills and San Clemente, California. Do and helpers were in San Clemente but nearly every day were at the main “craft” in Laguna Hills.

Each group was assigned “overseers” which I was one. During that nine month period I served as “overseer” with Chkody at first then Mllody and then Evnody. Jwnody and Srrody were overseers of another group (and perhaps Jwnody and Alxody) that did most of the California meetings. Lggody and Nrrody were overseers in yet another group. Chkody and Mllody were also overseers of the fourth group. Before then I had been assigned as a “craft overseer” for a number of years. There were overseers of each “lab” department; “Nutri-Lab, Yeast-Lab, Fiber-Lab, Impro-Lab.

So with the money from the sales of trailers and with a handful of jobs we outfitted ourselves with vans and camping equipment; two person tents you could stand up in, cots, foam pads, Coleman stoves and a Compaq portable computer and tiny portable printer for each group to use to print out a master poster to then take to a copy place. There were no businesses then that provided computers to design posters with. Each group also had a cell phone, though they were very big and clumsy and had very limited access. We also had a credit card phone card. As it was our way, to have two people on phone calls with Do's helpers, we had a way to hook up a listening device to a public or motel phone. We also had a portable telephone with us as we would rewire hotel rooms so we could hook in to have two phones so partners could listen in at the same time and we also had a speaker phone so the whole group could hear what was being said. Each group was given some cash as well, but it ran out after the first couple meetings that took about a months time to organized and move on to. At that time Do asked us if we wanted to go on or not and we unanimously wanted to keep going by way of seeking help from businesses for all our needs. We would go to any business but mostly retailers in food, gasoline and lodging and for poster printing and ask for help. And we'd go to churches or temples and in all these places we'd also ask to work for help though not so much that it would reduce our effectiveness in the work we were doing for Do and Ti. We ended up staying in a number of Christian Camps in Oregon, Montana and a Shaker camp in Maine while organizing meetings in those areas, in which case we would work for our keep at the camp. They always wanted us to stay because we all worked on anything and did tasks thoroughly and thoughtfully and didn't say much about Ti and Do unless conversations led in that direction. The only times we told it like it was, was at the public meetings. We also did media interviews and got some free television coverage in Dallas and Phoenix and Tucson and other places.

While the group I was with were in Missoula, Montana, Do asked me to visit with Professor of Sociology Rob Balch to see if I could help him with anything. He was right in the middle of supplying a chapter about Bo and Peep, the UFO Two and Human Individual Metamorphosis for another's book, so I edited his chapter and went over my edits with Rob. I kept a copy and sent it to Do and helpers to double check what I had written. My partner at the time didn't have that much experience with the information and had only been in the group for less than a year by then. Her vehicle was the sister of Stlody's vehicle. Stlody, even though he had initially joined in 1975-6 was one of the 19 Ti and Do sent away from the group in late 1976 but had returned in 1984-5 when Drrody found us in Amarillo. I don't recall the particulars but in about 1989-92 a number of students were determined to need a different experience to forward their overcoming of humanness so were sent to Dallas, Texas where Brnody and Anyody had already had a Do and Crew monitored residence. Stlody, Cddody, Sngody, Alxody, Tllody were additions, though had another apartment or two. Sngody and Alxody were offered to return a short time later but the others were there for over a year until we put the Beyond Human video tape series on satellite television in 1992. They all had jobs and some had girlfriends (Tllody and I believer Stlody) and Stlody was in touch with his vehicle's family, which is where he ended up seeing his sister. All but Cddody eventually returned by and during the nine months doing meetings in 1994, to include Rkkody, Jstody, Slvody, though Rkkody and Jstody left soon thereafter again as Rkkody was out of the group when I left in September of 1994.

While we were in Chicago, as we were having trouble with our portable phones, Do gave the instruction to all the members that designated Jwnody, Lggody and Swyody as final decision makers in their respective groups, that is in the event Do and his two “Helpers,” Lvody and Innody were unable to be reached and an important decision needed to be made. Even still, I was at the time not true to my covenants. I was still giving into sensuality with myself and hiding it, breaking two “major offenses.” When we were in Connecticut I even called Do and told him I think I needed to leave because I was still slipping from my self control over my vehicle. I was so close to my vehicles family in NY, not that I wanted to see any of them or anyone else or do anything else. It just seemed like I was a big hypocrite. Do suggested I wait til we get back to California as it was about that time that we were going to wrap up the public meeting tasks. It was at that time that Do took me off of the “overseer” task. I was still committed to Ti and Do but had this influence I seemed to have no strength to conquer and even included not asking Ti and Do silently or in person with Do to help me conquer. Soon after we got back to California it became apparent that I was still not succeeding Do called and instructed me to perform a task for him of overseer again, partnered with Mllody and it was at that time that I had to refuse, saying I was a hypocrite and had to leave. He said, “you want to get more objective” and instructed the group to not try to talk me out of it. The next day I was given a plane ticket to where I wanted to go and $600.00. I went to stay with Mrcody and Srfody, who were in another type of half way situation, but after a couple weeks with them moved into my own apartment and then some months later back to NY where I rekindled family and former friend relationships.

Though I could be wrong, I think 2017 is a big date that begins a new stage of the Rev 6:7-8 Green (Pale) horse, that will show itself as more of the time of great trouble not seen since the beginning of our civilization as forecast that will also lead into the time of the “7 angels who pour out their vials” that stimulate various “plagues” as medicine to try to help humans wake up to the reality of the Next Level so they can have one last chance to choose who to give their allegiance to, The One true God - as represented by Ti and Do or human mammalians and all human behaviors and ways that have become “treasures,” whether; materially, intellectually, socially or spiritually.

Dan 12:8 And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things?

Dan 12:9 And he said, Go thy way, Daniel: for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end.

Obviously the “words” that are “closed up and sealed” are not these prophecies as we wouldn't see them recorded here. What is sealed is the same words that were spoken of as sealed in:

Rev 5:1 And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals.

The Book is the body of information in words that are being kept back til the end. It's the Lion from the tribe of Juda who opens the seals as depicted starting in Rev 6:1, which is both the prophecy of the Two Witnesses and the “7 thunders (roars).” The end time isn't when Jesus comes as Jesus also talks of returning in the end time. There is no other portrayal of Dan 12:10 Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand.

Jesus indicated that the eleven disciples were “clean.”

Joh 13:10 Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all.

Joh 13:11 For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

Joh 15:3 Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

But Daniel is being shown the period AFTER Jesus is incarnate when more are MADE CLEAN - through abiding by his WORDS as the words alone are the instrument, the song, the details that perform the cleaning when received by the student, as one would drink from a fountain or consume bread, except not through the mouth but through one's mind as that nourishment comes through the vehicle's eyes and ears.

This verse depicts the “cleaning” of those who graduated the second trimester under the incarnate Older Member Jesus' administration of the Overcoming program:

Rev 4:4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

They don't get to be “clothed in white raiment” and receive a “crown of gold” unless they GAVE THEIR LIVES IN their Older Member, in this example, in the SERVICE of the lamb who was incarnate as JESUS. That service entails as Jesus said, “DENY SELF” (give up your will), “TAKE UP YOUR CROSS” (perform service of telling the truth even knowing you will lose your life in doing so), and “FOLLOW ME” (literally if he is incarnate, and by ABIDING BY ALL HE TAUGHT WHILE INCARNATE, which applies equally after he has exited his incarnation or physical presence. At the point that they have satisfied the Older Members (The “overcoming of humanness” LAB INSTRUCTORS, for the second trimester standards), at the death of the human vehicle these are “crowned.” In other words, they become “kings” relative to the human kingdom as even as Jesus said, “the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than the greatest in the human kingdom.” And from prophecy it appears these will also be issued a new physical body, that is not yet an adult Next Level eternal body as they only are issued that “model” when they have graduated the human evolutionary kingdom which takes place during their “final exam” 3rd and last trimester, also known as “spirit/mind birth.”

This verse according to it's timing, as part of the SIXTH SEAL (“book” (backside) opening and establishment of who has sought to show their allegiance to the Next Level by not accepting the “mark” of the human bestial establishment's hold on us, by not being in service to them (mark on the hand) and/or not being of one mind with them (mark on the head))) shows who have “given their lives” in what is called the “winepress,” that only gets underway at and during the 4th seal of the Green/Pale (yellowish shoot) “horse,” who in showing the Next Level their allegiance become “purified” (by the current Next Level standards for that grade in school determined person by person).

I suspect the phrase used as “blood of the lamb” is referring to the kind of sacrifice Jesus and his disciples demonstrated, that of telling the truth when doing so would become so hated by moreorless everyone who didn't have some Next Level mind in them that they “die in that service” as opposed to the way the first fruits, who had gone through the “blood of the lamb” sacrifice “gave their lives” by “laying them down most voluntarily” rather than because of being under duress (the winepress). Jesus was demonstrating both ways of “giving one's life,” first by telling the truth and being hated by the religious Jewish leaders so much so that they plotted to find him and kill him (as they tried a number of times before he was ready to go) and then demonstrated the “laying down of his life” phase because he didn't have to arrange for his own capture knowing it was committing “suicide.” For the second fruit harvest it's about the “winepress” description of how we are to “give our lives” to show that allegiance, together with the degree to which we “wash our robe (vehicle)” of it's human behaviors and ways.

Rev 7:14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

Here “she” is referring to ALL those who seek to make themselves the “bride” of the Older Member who demonstrated his sacrifice of Self, so these could choose to follow suit in their due time to which the reward (so to speak, as it's not like the carrot put before the rabbit to motivate him to chase it, as there is not “carrot” the human vehicles we wear would recognize as a carrot) is depicted as the “righteousness of saints” meaning the Greek dikaionoma= decision as in to be judged, worthy by the Older Members to qualify to be “arrayed in fine linen,” a new vehicle that by the Next Level's determination is the appropriate “model” for the degree of one's graduation:

Rev 19:8 And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

This next depiction of those who have received these “fine linen, white and clean” new vehicles, whether an adult Next Level vehicle or an intermediary model, because they still have overcoming to qualify for the adult model, all come with him again to provide the dividing of the wheat from the chaff, which stimulates the “winepress” as this returning Older Member and Crew's very closeness has with it many signs in the sun and the moon and in the weather (seas roaring, etc.) that is like increasing the pressure in the cooker that forces each human being to “be who/what they have become.”

In other words, people can't help but bring out of hiding what means the most to them to include the ways they must show it as they will no longer be satisfied with the status quo or hiding what it is they think and feel and want. Because of that all bias will increase dramatically from any time past and all the problems of the past will be back again but in greater numbers and severity and in particular also in the geography where these Two Witnesses had returned, the U.S. which demonstrate even a greater “fall” for what once was seen as the “greatest government on Earth” now rendered as par with all the others but perhaps even worse as many of the people will still think they are righteous in their misdeeds. (This is most apparent in the numbers of people in the U.S. that polls report are in favor of increased “bombing” of Iraq but don't favor ground troops to combat the group of late called ISIS, some who are said to want an Islamic Independent State and are militaristically taking over Iraq, which is taking it back from the co-conspirator to western US, Great Britain.

At current, Egypt, Syria, Libya, Sudan, Ukraine and to a slightly lessor degree, Turkey, Lebanon, and certainly Israel and Palestine, with various factions in Saudi Arabia and Yemen and for that matter the entire middle east are experiencing degrees of all out war, with only more to come. All those who support these kinds of abominations are showing their allegiance to what is called the BEAST. This clear difference in mindset that allows for rampant murder all over the planet will continue to also manifest in the home turf of the various governments that demonstrate those mindsets which will create new civil wars and revolutions.

But this verse below additionally shows in the context the return of the first fruit graduates with Do (the white horse) on the throne to divide the wheat from the tares by taking out the tares which the tares are actually unwittingly assisting with as they kill one another off. It's the spading time of the garden in preparation to take the second batch of fruit (as souls) into Next Level safe keeping and this is also related to the “battle at Armageddon” that will also be spoken of in more detail to come.

Rev 19:14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

THE TIMING OF WHEN THE ABOMINATION THAT MAKETH DESOLATE IS SET UP

Dan 12:11 And from the time ((6256 'eth from ad= time/season, after, when evening, more correctly, between the two evenings)) that the daily (sacrifice) ((8548 tamiyd= to stretch, continuance, constant, regular sacrifice, continual employment)) shall be taken away ((turned off, be-head, call back, depart, leave undone, be past, pluck away, remove, turn (aside, away), withdraw, be without)), and the abomination ((shiqquwts= disgusting, idolatrous, abominable filth, detestable (thing), polluted)) that maketh desolate ((shamem= stun, grow numb, stupefy, destroy (self), lay or make waste, wonder)) set up ((add, apply, appoint, ascribe, assign, bring forth, cast, cause, charge, grant, let (out), pour, shoot forth)), there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

The Daily sacrifice took place initially as an instruction from Jehovah to Moses for the students to perform a burnt offering sacrifice of two lambs every day, in the name of the overcomers (Israelites) on the great altar. The first offering was at dawn and the second at the evening or more correctly “between the two evenings.”

Relative to Daniel's End Time prophecy timing, there is no other depiction of Two sacrifices except for that of the Revelations 11 Two Witnesses who sacrifice their human vehicles (mammal (lambs)) lives to serve their Older Members in the Heavens as their task to serve the needs of the Student body (the returned souls who were the overcomers initially from the Moses encampment). To qualify how I can consider that student body part of the Moses encampment I can point to 1992 when Do gave each of the remaining students, (who numbered 24-26 at the most, considering that Pmmody left in about 1992 and Andody left in 1993, so I don't know if they were there then), a name he said was who they (the Soul) was in the Moses classroom. No one was to see the name they were given by Do and they were to throw out the piece of paper we each received, but Do said to look up that name in the Old Testament and then don't dwell on it further. The name Do gave me was Bezaleel of the tribe of Juda who had something to do with the task of building the Arc of the Covenant and more detailed a little later.

The Two Witnesses were to give their lives right from their start. Thus relative to Ti and Do as the Two Witnesses, the FIRST DAWN SACRIFICE would seem to be when Ti left her vehicle on June 19, 1985. The SECOND SACRIFICE occurs between the TWO EVENINGS (or end points) of this End Time Period. It seems to me there were two general stages to the overall Return, the incarnate stage and the return “in his Glory” as he certainly receives no glory anytime during the incarnate stage.

So The FIRST EVENING would then be at the conclusion of the incarnate stage - an evening being the end of a day or time period. He left his incarnation and concluded that stage AFTER publically revealing that he was the same Soul who had served incarnate in the vehicle named Jesus then. The human authorities determined that Do left his vehicle on March 23rd 1997 in between the overall three days of exit of the entire student body which was again after the first day's Evening but before the last day's Evening. Yet there is another way to count these Evenings considering that the end of their task isn't completed until the third Evening when He is slated to return with his Armada of spacecrafts - including the graduates who received Next Level Vehicles, said as the Angels who would be involved in the final judgment that takes place AFTER their Armada apparency, as described in Rev 19:11-14, visible by the naked eye for “every eye to see” and not only see but to face and realize who they are seeing which is why it was stated as returning is in His Glory. (Mat 19:28).

The things that are an “abomination” to the Next Level are all the ways humans serve “false idols.” Even the Christian view of Jesus is mostly a false view of the real Jesus, thus a “false Christ” and thus has become a “false idol” since Jesus is believed to be their idol (Lord and Master). I would say second in line would be those who consider themselves believers in Jesus as one of the many so called, “ascended masters,” teaching only the characteristics among believers of “peace and love” without recognizing the very hard overcoming of the human kingdom he also taught that included cutting all of one's roots and giving one's life to the service of their Older Members who are in the literal Heavens (though they have all that sort of worked out as a facsimile). But essentially they preach there will be “heaven on Earth” which is impossible in the way they talk about it as like a utopian society or Shangri la.

I'm not saying there won't be a time when the bad behaviors we see all around us now are mostly absent. That is indicated after the 1000 years of recycling and after the Luciferians are cast into the Lake of Fire, their Second (and final) Death (of their Soul). But that's not the same as graduating into the Kingdom of Heaven though it will be a time of peace and the wiping dry of tears from the pasts trials and tribulations. And there may be Members of the Next Level apparent and even occasionally dwelling nearby, but they won't be living in the same house or tent helping people raise their children, etc. One who is living at that time may see their spacecrafts and know what it's occupants look like. Ti and Do did indicate such a possibility but didn't spell it out exactly but called the earth a “heavenly body” if the Next Level decided to use the earth as a type of Next Level base, perhaps to start a garden nearby.

Actually though all beliefs have their value if only to get out of the least accurate ones when the real deal comes around, at this time in particular, the entire human kingdom becomes a type of “false idol” as Jesus said one can only have “one master” either “God” (the Father) or “Mammon” which is all that humans value as their treasure as in the end, especially, it keeps them from showing their allegiance to the Next Level. (However, there are degrees of ways of showing the Next Level that we wish to make them our “master,” but we can never assume we are showing them enough as many religionists fall into thinking and believing).

Before this End Time that was prepped for in degrees over centuries of human time, which I'd say began officially with the Two Witnesses Prophecy Period in the early 1970's, allegiance to the Next Level was shown primarily in the way humans treated fellow humans, giving to one another, for instance, showing love for one's neighbor as oneself as Jesus instructed before leaving. When the Older Member is present as in incarnate the focus for those who are called is to grow to give all their love to that Older Member. That will not be the grade in school for everyone at the same time as there are different times in that calling in the schedule with some being in the FIRST calling and others in the SECOND calling. The Older Member is present for as long as we can see his face and hear his words and as long as there are Active Students who bear witness to that presence to help point out where the distortions are developing and before further distortions and dilutions occur as with language mistranslations and various opinions about what was meant, as occurred after Moses left and after Jesus left.

The Next Level Members do not need anyone to give them our love. It's simply a requirement that proves to them whether we identify with their family of mind/thinking, behavior and ways and will “give our lives” to their service. The Earth and it's human kingdom is a “stepping stone” into the Next Evolutionary Kingdom Above Human, so it needs to be outgrown to obtain. Once in the Next Level we see the human kingdom largely the way humans see the animal kingdom.

Humans are not looked down upon by Next Level Members as inferior though they are. Instead they simply see humans as on a different level with the potential to arrive at where they are at, if they respond to the various opportunities presented by incarnate members. It's like in school. If a college student looks down on someone in high school they are showing their negativity and distorted view of what they are. All humans are equivalent according to a Next Level observer though some are “coming up” to different degrees while others are “weeds” who are used as a stimulus for choices to also become a “weed” or to rise above, to make us stronger and draw in more “Holy” Mind (From and through the Next Level Older Members).

The “Desolation” is the fact that all these who at the end show their allegiance to the human kingdom will on a person by person basis be judged to either be recycled or saved for a future garden planting after the civilization is wiped clean to restart. So the desolate are the “waste” and what Jesus referred to as the “tares” planted by the “devil” that are burnt as chaff while the true “wheat” are gathered and stored into the Next Level's “barn.”

By this measure, Ti and Do were both gone from their incarnate time by March 24, 1997 so is when they the Daily Sacrifice is taken away. Then to add 1290 days enters into October of 2000 which brings us near the election time for the U.S. president which is when G.W. Bush was actually decreed elected by the Supreme Court when they overrode the Florida supreme court who had hours before ruled to recount the Florida votes as the irregularities were many and that was the deciding state for the electoral college count in Bush's favor.

Having secured the election results desired, the Humans in power, under the influence of the Luciferian Space alien souls and hybrid physical presences was SET UP as Daniel was given to see would occur.

Bush then evidences being the fulfillment of the Red (Ruddy - blood in face (Adamic)) race of human (horse) that follows the White horse (Do sitting on his vehicle last named, “Applewhite” of Rev 6:2, that concluded the FIRST fruit harvest), who brought ENDLESS GLOBAL WAR (a great sword/military might) as prophesied in Rev 6:4, to be deciphered in detail in section: IV.

Dan 12:12 Blessed ((835 'esher from 833 ashar', to be straight, level, right, happy)) is he that waiteth ((02442 chakah= pierced, adhere to, long for)), and ((also)) cometh ((5060 naga'= to touch, beat to join, reach up to defeat, draw near to arrive/acquire)) (to the) thousand ((505 and/or 504 'eleph= the family, company, troop [the overcomers=Israeli] who are yolking or taming the human beast (mammalian as in a cow or ox))) three ((7969 shalowsh= third fork, three pronged, third time, triad [trimester])) hundred and five and thirty days ((3117 yowm= to be hot; age, elder)).

“Days” in this context means “to be hot” - the warm hours, whether a 12 or 24 hour periods. I could be considered as a figure as a “space of time,” or season or age, but there is no evidence I've seen that it is meant to be translated as representative of years as some Christian researchers do with Daniel's prophecy. After all, this vision/dream prophecy in these specific verses apply to the “time of the end” according to verse 9 so to start counting off from Daniel's time with any representation of what day could mean is just not common sense to this context though there are most always ways to see things in a way to make it work out. But that's why the most accurate interpretation is said in the prophecy to be kept secret until that time of the end. Therefore I believe these two periods are speaking of literal 1290 and 1235 twenty-four hour periods each rather than one major time period (1290) made to look as if one makes it to 45 days later, they are “blessed.”

Note how “blessed” actually means BECOMING STRAIGHT or at least getting/staying on that STRAIGHT PATH as Jesus said was the way to eternal life with him in the literal heaven's in his kingdom. It also never made sense that those who “waited” were the blessed as waiting is not really a characteristic of a student of the Next Level to wait as if they were doing nothing. I'm not saying there isn't an aspect of waiting but why state it that way unless one doesn't know better as one can be pressing into the Next Level via being in Their service according to the most recent incarnate Older Members instruction and simultaneously be waiting for certain events to occur.

Thus that Hebrew word translated to “wait” also can be translated; “to adhere through the idea of piercing (related to carving or to delineate) or to long for, await, tarry (which is where “wait” seems to come from), but when used in the Greek for “wait” is ekdechomai that includes “look for, receive, accept, expect” which is hardly simply “waiting” for something to happen. To observe something has an active component, is work to engage, like the virgins who worked to earn the oil in their lamps that in so doing allowed them to SEE/understand how to recognize their groom, in the example Jesus gave in Mat 25:1-13. Adherence relative to piercing suggests serving the Next Level by giving one's life, even physically by telling the truth that can result in being treated as Jesus was treated - being “pierced,” the way it's stated in Rev 1:7 that every eye will see him come, even though “which pierced him” - a reference to the way he was killed by “pricking” his flesh - nailed to a stake.

Giving one's life is illustrated by the “two edged sword of (our incarnate Older Members) mouth/words” where some are challenged to kill off our “self” that starts when the Older Member blows his trumpet - sounds his Mind through words that says the Kingdom is at hand because he is incarnate and if his words seem to make sense to some, it's time for them to choose to drop everything they are doing to literally follow with that Older Member to completely “deny self” as Jesus said was needed to be his disciple. The second edge of the sword of his mouth is when the Older Member instructs a disciple to “drink the same cup” they drink which has to do with whatever way they will choose to exit their incarnation that to date has entailed laying down one's physical vehicle's life to adhere to - again according to the Older Member's example and/or the instructions they leave behind when they leave, which from Jesus entailed “spreading the good news of the Kingdom far and wide that would be met with the same hatred that got him killed, and with Ti and Do for those that were ready then, laying down their vehicles lives by the gentlest method one could imagine - moreorless putting the vehicles to sleep permanently with the instruction for those that followed to give their lives much in the way Jesus disciples did by telling the truth about in this case Ti and Do.

Also, Jesus spoke of adhering to all the commandments, both of Moses and his updates as additional criteria to show you loved him (his Mind (aka Holy Spirit) and were therefore his disciple. And “longing for” is also kin to “thirsting” for the truth and to be with ones Older Members and for the needed lessons to overcome the human world. (I know these things are not generally taught to Christians, even by those theologians that know them, because they have largely bought the Paul distortions of “he did it for us” so we mouth the holy words that claim our reaping of the rewards as if they can literally be bought by words alone which makes us worthless to the Kingdom of God/Heaven because we never amounted to becoming someone to work side by side with them to continue their gardening tasks.

It also doesn't at all square with having to “drink the same cup” Jesus drank - the way he spoke about “laying down his life for his sheep” upon his Father's instruction. Many Christians can talk about this, even knowing that Jesus disciples had that commission to drink that same “cup,” but then not making the connection that this would be required of all who want to become a disciple (student). In it's place the Luciferians influenced Paul and others with him and who came after him, that largely becomes the hierarchy of the “church” to make a category of monks and nuns that were attempting to deny self in some ways while it others not at all for they didn't face the opposition by telling others of this formula and they became largely complacent in the routine of the monastery and the thinking that they were serving God in being there and so built their ego as one of the spiritual elite.

Those that become priests and chaplains can fall into another trap of being looked up to for all things spiritual. Pretty soon if one has a problem instead of asking God for help, they might go talk to the priest and come away with thinking his advise was advise from God. It may be but it also may not be but many don't ever consider that it may not be as they had come to equate the church and it's hierarchy with God. Paul started this too, as he also started this departmentalizing of what he called “gifts of the spirit,” saying that some who didn't have the gift of prophecy had the gift of some other task. But Jesus taught that all his disciples needed to become prophets in the genuine definition of the word as someone who “speaks about the teachings provided by God provided by the incarnate Older Members.”

When Jesus sent out the 70 that's what they did and when Moses assigned 70 to be the elders of the camp they were to be as “helpers” in that classroom context. And this is what Ti and Do had students do in 1975 and then again in 1994 and is what Do and Crew said was the overriding instruction for those that want to begin their metamorphosis - to “take a stand for Ti and Do and accept the ramifications” which will always be negative to their human well being because only a few will recognize the truth in what is shared while others will recognize it but become very troubled by hearing it knowing that they too would be required to adopt the same program if they want to move ahead and will often have strong ties to whatever they are doing so can even become negative about it all as an excuse for not taking that step closer to their Older Members Mind. While others can become enraged that even takes the shape of laughing you out of town or literally running you out of their establishment if you happen to be taking that stand in their church, for instance.

Taking such leaps of faith by standing up for one's recognized Older Member is the name of the game, so to speak. By telling others about Ti and Do, we are beginning to “lay down our human life for the Older Members future sheep” because it will not benefit our humanness to do so. New believers are not to become sheep to those who were coming up before them.

Students don't have students. That's only a Luciferian facsimile of the Next Level that we patterned all over the planet. That doesn't mean some students can't offer help to other students as I am attempting to do now because I had the experience with the Older Members and want to be in their service in this way and Do made clear was to be our task going forward - to STAND for TI and Do. Of course that word “sheep” has been rendered a negative by the lower forces over time as if humans aren't all sheep whether they acknowledge it or not, except it's who your shepherd is that distinguishes between having a human kingdom master (mammon) or a Next Level Above Human Master.

Then in verse 12 “cometh” makes more sense as the “overcoming process” that entails “beating the opposition” that is only accomplished by reaching up for help to one's Older Members, which takes the shape of asking them in our privacy and looking to what they taught when they were incarnate. Those that do engage this “battle” which is fought using the tools given, by understanding and perseverance and building one's armor against the bombardment of lower forces thoughts and behaviors and ways that are against the Kingdom of God/Heaven's commandments, behaviors and ways.

I listened to a sermon from a Christian pastor that added in his list of who to pray for; “military chaplains.” First off that's not even a person. I believe Ti and Do indicated the Next Level doesn't give blanket group help except in how their help of specific people who ask for help could in turn help a group. And further what is a military chaplain, but a person that tries to help soldiers who are sent to kill others or support those doing the killing find solace in their killing while it was an early grade in school that commanded us not to murder/kill other humans. Of course the Luciferians twisted that to mean to kill oneself was murder of self which is impossible as murder is defined as taking ANOTHER'S life. None of us are to ourselves "another." These who I observe leading their congregations in such prayers are Christians and therefore can't find any example from Jesus that justified killing another human, so they go to the Old Testament examples when "eye for an eye" was the lesson plan though I suspect as a preliminary step to help some arrive at "thou shall not kill" which many were rebelling from adhering to. Today, it's about justification in self defense that of course has most often been a lie to begin with like the Iraq and Afganistan wars.

There are perhaps millions of American Christians who have loved ones fighting in those foreign invasions who in various ways support the U.S. killing machine and many don't hardly care to consider what Jesus would have them do and the examples he gave because then they'd have to look in the mirror and think about their sons and daughters, spouses, etc. who have made it their career to be part of that killing machine, often because it's been the way for generations in their families and/or because of the benefits package.

Thus this second time period of 1335 days seems to be referring to a span of days Do referred to as the time when some could still go with him which would have meant to be with him on his same spacecraft/base. Adding those days to the October 2000 end of the 1290 days brings the date to June of 2004 using a 30 day per month Hebrew model. I don't know if this is what is meant but it is about the time I had a dream with Lggody where he said nothing but then Jwnody told me "it was worth it" and showed me some others that it seemed were on earth serving Ti and Do and a message I got was that they were leaving, I presumed to go get their Next Level vehicles. That would mean they remained in the vicinity of earth, perhaps on the spacecraft that seems to be docked on top of the area of the U.S. Western states from Texas to California, where Ti and Do always felt they had that sense of the Next Level's presence which they lost when they traveled away from. They did have instructions at times to travel outside that area, even with the classroom on two occasions. We arrived in Atlanta area in the late 1980's and stayed for two weeks before Do was saying he couldn't feel Ti's presence with him. Ti left her vehicle in 1985. It wasn't long after that that I had more dreams.

Dan 12:13 But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou shalt rest, and stand in thy lot at the end of the days.

Yet another indication that Souls in human vehicles are slated to return to "stand," meaning have a physical body to overcome. Daniel is clearly a student, otherwise he wouldn't "stand in his lot." The way the Next Level operates is to use the service from their students to work their garden and that's done from spacecrafts and from and during their own incarnations, even over thousands of years earth/human time.

II.A.5.g. REVELATIONS 12 DEPICTS THE FATHER'S RETURN INCARNATE IN A FEMALE (WOMAN'S) HUMAN VEHICLE TO BIRTH HIS "SON" (DO), (JESUS) TO THE THRONE TASK DEFINED AS REVELATION 11'S "TWO WITNESSES," THE SON THEN FOLLOWING THROUGH TO SPIRIT BIRTH THEIR STUDENT BODY, WHOSE SATAN (ADVERSARY) IS LITERALLY LUCIFER, THE DRAGON, WHOM HE BATTLED BEFORE THROUGH HIS INCARNATION AS JESUS AND BEFORE THEN THROUGH HIS INCARNATION AS MOSES. WHILE OUTSIDE HIS INCARNATIONS HE WAS REFERRED TO AS MICHAEL IN HIS COMMUNICATION WITH THE PROPHET DANIEL. LUCIFER AND THE THIRD WHO WERE THE "FALLEN ANGELS" ARE SOULS WHO THESE DAYS ARE THE SPACE ALIENS WHO ARE HUMAN EQUIVALENTS AND ARE NO LONGER ALLOWED TO TRAVERSE EVEN AS FAR INTO THE SPACE AS THE EARTH'S MOON

First off, one day not too long before Ti left her vehicle, Do called a meeting that only he spoke at, which was very rare. In fact I can't think of another general meeting he gave by himself while Ti was incarnate. This meeting had two rarities to it, in that it was also rare that the meeting would be pertaining to the record book, the Bible and in particular Revelations chapter 12. During those first ten years I can't recall any other Bible study. They would reference things Jesus said and taught and did somewhat regularly but this was different. Do started with Rev 12:1 and had someone read the verse and then he talked about the meaning he saw in the verse. I don't think we got more than two or three verses in and I can't actually recall any of what he said except that these verses were describing Ti's incarnation into a human woman's body.

Speaking about their reference to the "record," as they called the Bible, since 1973, they had maintained their fulfillment of the prophecy of the Rev 11 Two Witnesses, even though when the media broke with the discovery of their human vehicles names, after a few days, believed that was the "killing in the street" depicted in Rev 11:7, feeling their "mission was dead." But other than that there was never any word by word and/or verse by verse or even idea by idea discussion of the verses that led up to or came after that key verse, though they did believe they would not remain dead and would ascend as it depicts a few verses further. It was never discussed in any detailed way except wondering how their exit would happen, whether by another's hand or by the Next Level taking our vehicles and transferring our Soul bodies into our new vehicle in a lab.

To the contrary, what they said after that media broke the second time over those couple of weeks, the first beginning the mystery of what happened to the Waldport, Oregon 20+, instead of sticking to the Revelations script as they understood it, they said their instruction changed and there would be no “demonstration” (at least at that time) feeling the way they were to be “killed” instead was meant as a figure by the hand of the media.

When they realized this new interpretation, they simply thought it was a change of instruction as they never based who they knew they were on that or any other Bible passage even though they knew that changing what they were saying could challenge some of their students, even reporting that they felt students had every right to discontinue their belief in them. This change may have been the reason some or even many dropped away in those early years. As it ended up there would be two more major changes in what they said that would easily serve as the criteria to discontinue following them. The next one was when Ti scheduled the spacecraft pick up date and no pick up occurred. All I recall being told was, when Do said without Ti present that Ti felt she had “egg on her face.”

Note, Ti nor Do made up any excuse for the no show. We all too often have seen preachers claim something is going to happen on such and such a date that then doesn't occur and they say it was a miscalculation or it's because the student's didn't have enough faith or something like that, to take away from the fact they just got it wrong. Ti and Do did state the date that was around the winter of 1980 and we all prepared to exit that night. Even with the “demonstration” they simply said their instruction changed, though I feel I recall even years later that Ti indicate we might have left at that time but weren't ready. How easy would it have been to say the students weren't ready, at the time of their feeling shot down by the media as some who don't consider them who they said they were would expect to try to save face. They didn't try to save face and there were many changes that occurred.

But none of these changes affected me at all though no doubt some did leave because of them as well as after Ti left her vehicle without Do, which was not supposed to be the way it was to happen, so surprised Do as much as we the student body. Some, whether they recognized it or not were following them based on these things they said and that was understandable, but as it turned out for a core group, nothing changed their mind. Sure some might have wondered but such doubts were part of what needed to be overcome to stay the course, though I can't recall Ti and Do ever saying at the time of these kinds of events that this didn't happen because it's how you need to be tested.

Whether a student did overcome their doubts or not, was up to the student and their resolve. From a continued believers perspective the Next Level was using Ti and Do as instruments to do the vetting of believers, to continue with only those who had the conviction and stamina to go the distance required. Years after Ti left her incarnation Do spoke how the irony was that it was probably Ti that designed the vetting criteria before she came incarnate so their task actually required of them to be seen as wrong or misguided or to have “egg on their faces.” Of course those who never believed in them at all are going to say those who believe after all these things they said changed have some psychological malady keeping them engaged and in a sense that's actually true. The malady is they literally share enough of the same Mind as Ti and Do, to where these changes were just part of the course of following the leaders as a program to consciously evolve beyond the human kingdom.

However, even with the changes of interpretation of the “demonstration,” and not being picked up by a spacecraft Ti and Do never ceased examining when, where and how they and the student body would exit the Earth and the human bodies they prepared for their use. In that way, they certainly had what some humans would call a “death wish” yet they never actually looked forward to the way in which they would go until they knew it was part of the Next Level plan, just as evidenced by Jesus, as to them it really only meant taking off an old worn out suit to put on a far more advanced Next Level model suit. Still, they preferred not having it removed from them by some irate religious zealot, any more than Jesus enjoyed the idea of being tortured and savagely murdered. It's no different for those that STAND FOR TI AND DO'S TRUTH from here out, though like the disciples after Jesus left, the grade in school these who remain are subscribing to could exit their vehicles by some equivalent to an irate religious zealot or angry family member of one who begins to believe in Ti and Do, while to date, based on the harassment I increasingly get that irate religious zealot might end up being an atheist with an ax to grind against anyone who even looks like a religionist, as they often don't see any differences.

Do felt atheism could also be a healthy mindset to embrace but like all human mindsets, becomes detrimental to future Next Level membership when clung to and turned into the absolute truth while negating much of the overall evidences of beings that are significantly above human. Most tend to think space aliens are of the imagination and certainly not “among us” and talk of spirits illusionary and that any records that imply truth to these, myth, as made up stories developed to entrap people by. It's interesting how it's true. What today is said about Jesus with a few accurate generalities is largely a made up story so that a “false Christ” is actually a Christian because they never talk about the emphasis of separating from the human world in every way from family roots to otherwise thought normal behavior and ways. A Christian preacher I was listening to recently talked Islam as “false religion” while I could have called him on almost every point he made in his sermon, with many verses from the records he counts as his truth as proof that he too has a “false belief,” belief being the meaning of “religion” as a “system of beliefs.” I didn't call him on his points because he wasn't asking my opinion, though I made some notes and slipped the paper into the Bible provided in the seats.

Ti and Do when they first began their prophecy period would go into a church and put a calling card of sorts into a Bible or on the pulpit and then as they said would, “run out.” It's not our way to force this information onto people but it is our way to not hide it either. This same preacher took what Jesus said about not putting one's “light” underneath the bushel basket as meaning that we should not hide our light so to render us groping in the dark when the entire point of Jesus saying that was so others would have a chance to see by it, as if we have the “light” and hide it, we are not serving the Next Level.

To follow the re-translation and re-interpretation of Rev 12 that becomes substantial evidence that Ti was in fact the “Father” who also returned incarnate to, as Ti said, “get you [Do] started” and also said afterward she would “go back,” which Do always wondered about what she meant as he couldn't imagine she meant, to go back to her vehicle's human family. When she exited her vehicle in 1985 Do was clear what she meant even though she didn't evidence having that conscious understanding when she said it.

*1 Moon - referenced to being a female (mothering - giving birth to - generator) deity that relates to Daniels prophecy of TWO in the end times:

The Pistis Sophia is today the title of a record dated to the 4th century of Jesus communicating to 12 male disciples and 7 female disciples, after his resurrection, but before his ascension. The first copy was found in Egypt in 1773 but four more that were close to it were found in the Nag Hammadi collection in December of 1945. From 1773 it was considered heretical and outlawed by the orthodox Christian (Catholic church) so its spread was done in secret and was part of the ancient religion of Gnosticism that is largely of Christian content.

Pista is Greek for Faith and Sophia for Wisdom though the way these terms are used in the text it's identifying the female divine being with a name related to the Moon having many aspects and names. She is sometimes identified with the Holy Spirit itself but, according to her various capacities, is also the; SHE-OF-THE-LEFT-HAND (AS OPPOSED TO CHRIST, UNDERSTOOD AS HER HUSBAND AND HE OF THE RIGHT HAND)*, as the Luxurious One, the Womb, the Virgin, the Wife of the Male, the Revealer of Perfect Mysteries, the Holy Dove of the Spirit, the Heavenly Mother, the Wandering One, or Elena (that is, Selene, the Moon). She was envisaged as the Psyche of the world and the female aspect of Logos - the word/knowledge.

* note this is the depiction of TWO beings in Daniel's dream of the end time. The first being is asking a question of the second being, who answers below but has their LEFT HAND as HEAVEN while their RIGHT HAND RAISED UP, which is what this "Woman" does in birthing her Son to the throne. Plus in this same verse from Daniel there is the reference to "time, times and an half" and the ONLY other place any kind of time description is like that is here in Rev 12:14 pertaining to the Woman:

Dan 12:7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when HE HELD UP HIS RIGHT HAND AND HIS LEFT HAND UNTO HEAVEN, and swore by him that liveth for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished.

Previously I have shown how the One returning who was Jesus said he will sit at the Right Hand of Power. In meetings and in pictures Do sat or stood to the right of Ti. Even after Ti left her vehicle when Do gave meetings he'd have us set up a chair for Ti, to his left. He never explained to us why that side and I have a weak memory that he may have experimented with both sides at first which is a way of a Next Level member to do to find what "feels" like what their Older Member would choose. (Ti and Do early on taught us to "pull" from their minds and develop our "feeler," thought to be related to the solar plexus part of the body, right below the ribcage.) Even if they think there is something in the records about something, they don't assume it's the right thing to do so they try it and see how it feels as they are asking their Older Member at the same time, which is all done in silence. Jesus sometimes did talk out loud to the Father but I believe that was to give the disciples an example of how he spoke to his Heavenly Father. He told them to go into private when they spoke to his/their heavenly Father which we see disregarded all the time in countless Christian gatherings.

Here is a little section of Jesus disciples asking him a question in the Pistis Sophia:

“Again, his disciples said: Tell us clearly how they came down from the invisibilities, from the immortal to the world that dies?

The perfect Savior said: Son of Man consented with Sophia, his consort, and revealed a great androgynous light. Its male name is designated 'Savior, begetter of all things'. Its female name is designated 'All-beget-tress Sophia'. Some call her 'Pistis'.”

Although much of the gnostic materials are very “spiritual” sounding and in reading some of it, questionable as to their origin, as in at least one account, a type of light Being came to the disciples before the “ascension” and answered questions yet all the questions and answers seemed to be very philosophical and intellectual rather than the straight forward way Jesus communicated with the disciples before he left. This largely philosophical way is closer to the manner in which Paul of Tarsus wrote. I doubt Jesus would spend all that time incarnate and giving straight talk and then follow it with what sounds like hokus pokus talk. One would have to examine it for themselves to see to what I am referring. It's not like the visions/dreams understandings given to the disciple John. However with that said, I can't discount it out of hand. Like Paul's materials, if there are things that can be confirmed to relate to the the gospels that Ti and Do said the Next Level worked very hard to see to it's preservation, that is, enough to serve them and us now, then I will include those pieces of information. I have done this to date in reference to the Father taking a woman's body as related to the astrological depiction of a moon as a mother, to also include the androgynous aspect.

Seeing the moon in this verse as the mother would be in line with seeing the Father's “son” or Next Level birthed offspring as his (Father's) “wife” (bride) and “mother” to their litter of new Soul graduates (fruit) into the Next Level Kingdom in the heavens. Ti and Do did talk about how it was both their task to be the “midwives” to their student body (classroom) but that Ti's task was to “get Do started” and then to return leaving Do to finish the birthing, bringing each student to their overcoming of their humanness sufficiently to his Older Member (Ti's) standards.

In this way then the Moon as the lessor luminary is the Father's instrument to birthing and being on the ground incarnate at her “FEET,” though never literally as in human relationships of Kings (Father) to any Prince. The moon is further shown as a faithful witness and prince to the Sun which represents the throne:

Psa 89:36 His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before me.

Psa 89:37 It shall be established for ever as the moon, and as a faithful witness ((5707 'ed= from 'uwd testimony, a recorder, a prince)) in heaven. Selah.

Ti and Do said in the Next Level there are no male and female, as is also said in the Gospel of Thomas, but that both characteristics we think of as male and female are combined into one, though without mammalian organs or behaviors of course:

Gospel of Thomas, recovered:

22 Jesus saw some babies nursing. He said to his disciples, “These nursing babies are like those who enter the kingdom.”

They said to him, “Then shall we enter the kingdom as babies?”

Jesus said to them, “When you make the two into one, and when you make the inner like the outer and the outer like the inner, and the upper like the lower, and when you make male and female into a single one, so that the male will not be male nor the female be female, when you make eyes in place of an eye, a hand in place of a hand, a foot in place of a foot, an image in place of an image, then you will enter [the kingdom].”

Note, Ti and Do always said we were building a new body inside of us and that they didn't want to exit before every student had built their body to be “viable” as a human baby becomes at a certain point if it is healthy to be able to maintain it's life.

I'm using this because of the consistency with things Jesus said about new members to the Kingdom of Heaven being like children and because of what Ti and Do said about it and how it also corresponds to the idea that there is no marriage among the prospective new members to the Kingdom of God/Heaven, being that the purpose for marriage was a way to keep a control over the way humans propagated their branch of the human species, and to learn the lessons of working with a partner and to learn how to have a commitment, which are qualities of members of the Next Level, except for the propagation, for the Next Level propagation is by producing fruit in this Next Level way, accomplished to start by spreading the information the Older Members provide that can become a “spirit/mind birth” if it's pursued and built upon.

HERE ARE POINTS THAT DEFINE WHY THIS WOMAN MIGHT BE DEPICTING THE RETURN OF THE FATHER, the one who was also Jehovah, and the One to whom Elohim referred, who ran the crew to design and develop and maintain planetary “garden” systems and of course in our history began the current Earth garden experiment. Therefore it is a very great and a very special miracle that this individual took over a human body (incarnate) as one of these Two Witnesses, to help get her “Son,” the one who was Jesus, Elijah, Moses, Enoch and initially serving as Adam STARTED in the fulfillment of his task to “spirit/Soul birth” a litter of Souls, termed Saints, who gave their lives beforehand, thus would be returning to be harvested into their own Kingship in the Kingdom of God/Heaven:

1. The appearance of this woman is a MIRACLE, a sign, mark, token, prodigy, portent, UNUSUAL OCCURRENCE.
2. This woman has a body (clothed) that in every respect is represented by the rays of the Sun*, as Jesus said a body that is full of light because her eye is single**. No other being has been described with this kind of unique importance and power, except for the one who performed the Lamb task, named Jesus.

*Mat 17:2 And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

Rev 21:23 And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

**Luke 11:34 The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

3. Incarnate into a woman gendered physical human body, she demonstrates being the genuine “generator of Life.”
4. One way to look at this verse, having seen varied viewpoints of the total picture presented; She (as The Father in/from the Kingdom of God/Heaven) may actually have a physical but cloaked base of operations on or IN the Moon. In fact in the first of three internal classroom meeting tapes Ti and Do gave at Blackhawk, Colorado, Do said he and Ti thought the Moon was a spacecraft.

Simultaneously, the moon has always been considered a great attraction, not speaking astrologically but scientifically. Everything about the Kingdom of God/Heaven IS scientific. It's simply a matter of whether humans can see or identify their level of technology and/or interpret it. We know the moon has magnetic qualities, as do all physical bodies and elements thus draws to itself and puts off it's frequencies that has it's affects upon the Earth magnetic field and therefore environment, since it is in orbit around the Earth. For instance it's been proven to affect Earth's oceans with tides, so can be considered to also have a certain affect, however slight or undetected upon virtually everything, whether we can document it or not. This woman is not just a woman as the body being worn (clothed) reveals, but is a high ranking officer, (to look at Them more objectively in terms humans can better identify with), who directs with instructions many who are part of her crew. Their presence even just within the proximity of the Moon, but with her mind coming to Earth's surface to take over a physical body, together (with her Son, who is also an officer in her crew) provides an enormous energy that actually provides all life forms the chance to uplift - in other words, she draws all lifeforms to rise to their next evolutionary level though we are mostly concerned with how it applies to humans. Ti and Do said their Kingdom's coming closer provides for all life forms to advance. The other kingdom levels of life, animal, plant, mineral seem to have a more automatic way of advancing but for those who follow stories about animals there are some even in the wild who are helping one another in ways that don't seem all that automatic. The OT prophet Isaiah talked about a time when the lion would lay down with the lamb and I've actually seen video of just such activity. It's the development of "goodness" that the planet is engulfed with for a time when the Older Members are close. At this time, in their absence it's like humans as a society are going backward.

Use of the term evolution is not indicating congruence with Darwinian evolutionary observations and theories, though I suppose Darwin did observe some of how the various species have built in mechanisms to adapt and change in a type of hierarchical order. It's simply foolish to think everything arose to be the way it is now, from the most basic of organisms by pre-programmed (genetic) adaptation and change ALONE, to somehow physically and magically jump into a totally new species and kingdom level as between mineral, plant, animal and human, without Kingdom of God/Heaven direction and experimentation with new designs. For instance, how they introduce stimuli and what becomes that stimuli is also within Their direction. But this is in part one department amidst many that members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven can apply to once they become “adult” members.

5. Finally, having a crown of twelve stars is a huge indication of exactly who is behind this Being that is incarnate in a human woman's body. There is no other depiction of such a crown having twelve stars. There are some that are given crowns for joining the program of an incarnate “officer” and staying with it til their exit (death) of their physical body. Then there are some that have a golden crown that seems to be for the Elders who have joined with an incarnate “officer” and overcome the world within their program, that also includes overcoming their mammalian desire for physical and/or mental self preservation.

When an Older Member provides the needed program instructions and examples to their student body, thereby actually “midwifing” them through their own Spirit/Soul birth, are adding “stars”* to their own crown. I suspect this reference pertains to the twelve Souls who became Apostles in service to Jesus as they belonged to Jesus' Father who he said gave them to him to “keep”:

Joh 17:12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.

This sounds like he lost one to fulfill scripture which would hardly be fair. I think the way it probably worked was that Jesus knew Judas was among them somewhat dishonestly. In other words he was infiltrating he may not have been that conscious of it. At one point Jesus said to the twelve that one of them “had a devil” - in other words was entertaining thoughts and feelings against Him. But Jesus allowed him to be among them anyway, I would say because his Father didn't indicate to him otherwise and perhaps was giving Judas the chance to conquer his demons - the discarnates and Luciferian space aliens who were their adversaries (satans). Ti and Do said the Next Level assigned every student such a Luciferian “adversary” they called, “boogers.” But by the time of Jesus' exit he knew Judas had succumb to those Lower Forces. Here is the verse Jesus seems to be referring to:

Psa 41:9 Yea, mine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, which did eat of my bread, hath lifted up his heel against me.

*crew leaders (overseers), even “archangels” depicted by the term “stars”:
Rev 1:16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

Rev 1:20 The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches ((body of believers/doer's (as “belief without work/deeds/actions is dead”))).

So referring to this “woman's” son being “caught up to his throne,” this refers to the Soul who performed the task of Jesus, who would be her partner in the Two Witnesses “throne” task. She would get him going and then it's said later in chapter 12 that she exits by an earth based means - the Earth swallows her vehicle so He then manages the Throne by himself, that is alone “in the flesh” while His Father takes a greater overview than she could have while incarnate.

The same conclusion can be drawn from the way Rev 12:5's “man child” is the one who was Jesus as he RULES ALL NATIONS (that's human people's, because he SETS THE STANDARD TO BE INCLUDED IN HIS FATHER'S TEAM) and for other reasons and in this related verse, to the particular THRONE of his Father, saying specifically that he, because he had “overcome” had been granted to “set down with my Father in his throne,” what his students could then also expect to need to do (engage their overcoming) to be with him:

Rev 3:21 To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

Note, when He says, “set down with my Father in his throne” the throne is a seat, but actually not a physical chair as human kings have, but a position of authority He had earned from his Older Member (Father). Thus to sit with one's Father, in this context and given the Two Witnesses are evidenced to be the return of the Father and Son both incarnate, the one who was Jesus is saying he gets to literally and as a figure, as his task assignment to “sit” with his Father as they both teach their students who are preparing to graduate, from the human kingdom into the Kingdom Above Human.

Note how this one being born is given a crown:

Rev 6:2 And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

This is because every time Members of the Next Level do an incarnate task they have to overcome aka conquer aka prevail over their vehicle's human nature and they get a crown because in doing so they become a “king,” even if they have done so many times before.

Ti and Do described themselves as “midwives” though Do was the actual midwife for this litter, those he is now fully Fathering, having been born into his next seat, termed a Throne. Birthing in this context, since the Father's Son is already an Older Member in the Next Level, has to do with his being promoted to his next station in the Next Level organization, that of completing the fathering of offspring that began at the start of the current civilization.

Those Christians who teach that this “woman” is the church, defined as the “body of believers” (regardless of what they believe about Jesus or how they adhere to the ways he taught, as the only evidence of loving him*) are not looking at the context, as the believers have not yet been “born of spirit” into the Kingdom of Heaven before the completed their 'third trimester” incarnate, so they are not “Christs” and therefore can not bear their own young as this “woman” is doing for her offspring. Plus how is it that the believers, as allegedly represented as the Woman, are giving birth to their subsequent offspring that are to “rule all nations(people).” The new graduates do eventually “judge the twelve tribes of Israel” but that is not the same as becoming the rule giver on the throne. They first have to go through the equivalent of what Moses and Jesus experienced and did to be born to the throne. True once born they are “kings” relative to humans but that doesn't give them a “captain” (archangel), Older Member task capacity yet.

Therefore, these believers can't provide (beget, birth) someone else to the receipt of the crown. If that could be done, there would be no need for Older Member “Christs” to come incarnate. Now in another verse the Church, body of believers are described as bride. Perhaps this is where the translators found reference, but it's misaligned.

*how Jesus would know someone loves him:

Joh 14:21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

Joh 14:22 Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest* thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

Joh 14:23 Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

Joh 14:24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.

*manifest: According to this disciple named John, Jesus doesn't “manifest” ((1718 emphanizo = exhibit to view, show one's self, appear, disclose, declare, make known)) himself TO THE WORLD ((2889 kosmos= most likely from the base of komizw - komizo 2865; orderly arrangement, i.e. decoration; by implication, the world (in a wide or narrow sense, including its inhabitants, literally or as a figure (morally))= adorning, world.)).

The NAMES OF THOSE HUMAN BODIES, Ti and Do said they “took over” reflect fulfillment of prophecy in this referenced verse. (Of course had they not fulfilled all other characteristics of prophecy, these names alone would not provide any fulfillment).

It is reasonable to consider that the name of the human body a Member from the Kingdom of God/Heaven incarnates into (borrows to overcome and use as a vehicle to perform service through) will in a number of respects reflect who they are and the nature of their task, as the name “Jesus” does as “One who brings/offers, shows the way to deliverance, salvation and victory over our human, carnal nature, through Jehovah, (the “I Am,” aka The Existing One of the Old Testament), Jesus' Father.

Marshall Herf AppleWHITE, was the name of the human body Do incarnated

Do said, he and Ti “tagged” human vehicles at their birth and that they would have died had they not tagged them for their later usage. Note: Marshall is another word for a sheriff and Jesus upon return is depicted as being the law giver/upholder/judge of what others do on the planet. Note also how the first officially chosen name Do took after he and Ti left their former lives behind was “Bo,” as in Bo and Peep. It may be a coincidental play on words that the white horse rider has a “bow” in his right hand which is the “covenant” with the student body to birth their developed Soul bodies into the Kingdom of God/Heaven as it's related to the “rainbow.” Ti and Do's entire mission was to lead their students through their overcoming process, the same as conquering the Luciferian space alien's influences and “prevailing as Jehovah” the true meaning of an Israeli, Do said meant “overcomer.”

Ti (pronounced as tea) took a female human body with the name of “Bonnie Lu Truesdale Nettles.” Do took a male human body with the name of “Marshall Herf Applewhite.” Nettles became a registered nurse who worked in the preemie baby ward of a Houston, Texas Hospital. She was from Corpus Christi*, Texas. Applewhite was the son of a Presbyterian church builder throughout Texas who was born and raised largely in Spur, Texas. In his early adult years he dropped out of seminary and became a professional teacher/director of voice/music and a theatrical, operatic performing artist with the Houston Opera. Note how music is depicted throughout the book of Revelations as what the Lamb's students would learn to sing.

*Corpus Christi = Corpus means a body, even a dead body. A human that is not given a chance to LIVE eternally, is a dead body to the Kingdom of God/Heaven because it will die and it's spirit, though will exist for a time will never LIVE again UNLESS the Kingdom of God/Heaven takes that spirit into their keeping, what Ti and Do called being “put on ice,” though said it wasn't meant literally. The word Christ has to do with the process of “pressing the oil from the olives” that results in the olive's death, while the oil goes on as it's fruit to provide service. The oil is the energy source that generates “light” from the lamp (the eye as the window to the Soul) when one changes the way they spend their oil (energy source).

When any human changes their behaviors from human to Next Level behaviors and ways they are in degrees increasing their “oil.” The press is actually the pressure applied on the human vehicle (the olive) to no longer go with the overall human flow. For instance it's not the way of the world's mammalian human species to as Jesus last instructed to:

Joh 13:33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you.

Joh 13:34 A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love ((26 agape= brotherly love, affection, good will, love, benevolence (kindness, giving))) one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

Joh 13:35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

That is far less self centered than mammals tend to be. All humans, whether with Next Level Mind in them or not tend to give to their own families and kind. Jesus was expanding that to showing kindness and giving to everyone and even those who choose to be one's enemy, something that really sets apart Next Level students from non-Next Level students.

Mat 5:43 Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love ((25 agapao= of persons, to welcome)) thy neighbour ((4139 plesion= near, close by)), and hate ((3404 miseo= detest, love less)) thine enemy.

Mat 5:44 But I say unto you, Love your enemies ((2190 echthros= those who are haters, odious or actively hostile, an adversary, foe)), bless them that curse you, do good ((2570 kalos= virtuous, moral things)), to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;

Mat 5:45 That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

Mat 5:46 For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?

Mat 5:47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so?

Mat 5:48 Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

However, that “love” is not a pseudo or even really a spiritual love. It's strictly treating people with kindness and without judgments against them. It's forgiving what they might do to harm us. It's not human love as human love would not forgive people for harming us because a human mostly thinks of themselves as their body, not recognizing that they can become more than that body. But this has been distorted as have all things, into a belief that entering the spirit world is an advance. This is a facsimile to distract from the fact that the only way one can advance to be more than the body is while in a body and seeking to have a relationship with the designers of our entire reality who are spoken of in the records as the One True Kingdom of God, Kingdom in/from the literal Heavens where the non-religious one named Jesus came from to teach the WAY to form a graft with him that will insure, when the body dies, the Soul or spirit will be “saved” for the next lesson opportunity to overcome the human condition.

Those that have not heard about Ti and Do are held to a different standard for having their spirits saved for a future opportunity to outgrow the human kingdom. But one of the ways to show the Older Members of the Kingdom of God, we want to graft with their family/vine is to abide by their instructions aka commandments that are qualifications as there is no automatic saving program and even just belief in the current Representatives is not enough to be considered to have begun that graft. One must “stand” for Ti and Do, which in the records is related to not accepting the “mark” of allegiance to humanity in any of it's forms. Jesus called that allegiance as who one's master is between “God and Mammon”:

Mat 6:24 No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

So when we treat even those who hate us (making us their enemy) just as we would anyone else, recognizing that even if they harm our physical body they can't harm our Soul, we can know that they are acting that way simply because they don't know any better:

Luke 23:34 Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

Thus even if they act in such a way that causes us to exit our body/vehicle then they have simply accelerated our graft to our Older Members from the Next Level who will be waiting for that one to take their Soul to their next station of service for demonstrating their allegiance to Them even in the face of the loss of their vehicle's life.

However, until that occurs, we still try to stay out of the way of those that can keep us from performing our task for the Next Level that includes our service in overcoming our humanness and sharing the Older Members information with others.

Mat 5:25 Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

Mat 5:26 Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

I'm not saying there would be something wrong with even laying down one's life for Ti and Do in the way that they did, but that's between each individual and Ti and Do to determine as each individual needs to have begun a regular communication with Them.

Since they are no longer incarnate, the lower forces will try everything to persuade you to not serve Them. They could even encourage you to lay down your life before Ti and Do would approve doing so, though if your intention is in the right place, according to Ti and Do's judgment, I believe, if they didn't stop you, you would be in their keeping after you exit. The point of the lesson plan is to “give your life” to your Older Members. Thus if in doubt about how and when the general rule Ti and Do taught was “don't” and especially when it's an irreversible action as the exit of one's vehicle is.

It's a different situation when we are in the physical company of our Older Member while they are incarnate. Then we simply ask them what we can do to accelerate our learning our lessons and they will provide that acceleration according to the timing and direction they get when they check with their Older Member. In the case of Ti's exit before Do, in Do's regular asking for direction from Ti, regarding each students needs to complete their overcoming, he would be provided with the steps to take to perform his task according to his Older Member's direction, keeping in mind the same general rule of not acting on something irreversible until he is sure his Older Member approves.

The example that Do left was that even in the way they laid down their physical human vehicles, they were prepared for whatever Ti might want to do to even include taking them into the spacecraft with their physical bodies to be removed from those bodies on the spacecraft or assigned another task with those physical bodies. This was evidenced by their each having packed a travel bag and their passport and each had a little money, $5.75 which seemed to be a largely symbolic amount based on the fee Mark Twain wrote about for boarding the comet in “Captain Stormfield’s Visit to Heaven.” However $5.00 was also the amount we each took with us when we did tasks outside our “craft” (house) and at one time before the amount was $5 we had a couple quarters for a phone call. That was when there were still phone booths and 50 cents would be enough to at the least make a collect call. That changed to $5 in case we needed something else in an emergency situation as otherwise we carried no money, unless we had a task to buy something or get a car fixed or the like.

So that “oil” is increased in us the more we become single minded in terms of giving our lives in service to our Older Members from the Next Level.

Mat 6:22 The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

Mat 6:23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

This single mindedness comes from restraining the human vehicles various ways of spending their energy (oil) in all the forms of sensuality but primarily on sexuality and propagation and support of one's human family. These are of course natural to the human being, so are not a negative but the species is being prepared to evolve beyond the human mammal so are given the tools to change their mindset. The tools provide ways to lose SELF and the notion of independence to build crew mindedness and dependance on the Next Level. The human mammals don't know that there is no real independence though because of the humans that suppress others, any desire for independence is a positive because it's part of breaking away from the mammalian mindset. The Next Level doesn't suppress anyone. Even their members are free to do whatever they want. But because they know the value of what their Older Members have provided, they want to be dependent on them as they are dependable.

Human vehicles are all energy generators that we can think of as our “force.” However, the more Next Level mind we have in our vehicles the more “force” we have and the more that translates to “passion” but it's always our choice how, when and where to SPEND that force. A human can spend it on attracting a mate and building a family and/or on the pursuit of a career and/or on various forms of building ourselves up, even in religious, spiritual and/or altruistic ways. We can give it to civic organizations or to social or environmental activism. Or we can give it away seeking fun and adventure as entertainment. Sexuality is a huge way to give our force away. In regularly giving our force away to such human endeavors, though one may find happiness, satisfaction and contentment, if they never break out of those forms of spending, they simply die never having known what more there is that they could give their force to. However, this is the reason the Next Level builds into the human condition adversity.

In this way discontent can become a positive though it doesn't look that way to most in the human kingdom who see it as someone who has just not found themselves or found their niche or path or ultimate purpose. But to the Next Level discontent is a symptom that they are still thirsty for what the Next Level can only offer and that they will be led to find IF they keep up the search for what more there is in life. People that are discontent aren't always obvious. Many still go through the same motions as others. They simply don't feel as attached to those directions or paths as those who are content. They are often seen as positive minded, non judgmental people with all the same kinds of skills, likes and dislikes as others. They generally have a big conscience and compassion while simply hating much of what they see in the world, even to the tune of becoming active against it. As a part of their general discontent they often try many different things and can even believe they are depressed because many things they do don't satisfy them and they are often taught to think there is something wrong with that. Their discontent can also take the form of having disrespect for all the human systems of government and their laws and can result in their breaking the laws and ending up behind bars. For some, one day they may run off with what is seen as a “cult” or abandon their family and even kids to look for something they feel lacks in their life and may even engage in this or that risky behavior with substances and/or in relationships. Ti and Do didn't condone abandoning children we were responsible for, but when the incarnate Older Member puts out the call and we “hear” it, if we have children then, we would need to ask the Next Level's help for a way their children can be well cared for, so we can give ourselves to our Older Members service 100%. Some opportunity will present itself and though it could still be very hard for all involved it would become a positive outcome that would even result in others left behind having a closer relationship to those Older Members, though that still depends on their choices.

Thus Corpus Christi represents the “sacrifice” of the physical body (all human behaviors and ways of the human kingdom) to bring about a NEW HEAVENLY BODY, what Ti and Do called a metamorphosis likening one's human body to a caterpillar that is removed from it's caterpillar world (caught away from, the real meaning of “rapture”), as Jesus disciples were required to do to be with Jesus as his full time students, that made them in their day a “cult.” Then the environment is constructed by the Older Members who are the ones catching away their student body which becomes the beginning of the cocoon as these are taught to isolate themselves from all worldliness in thought, and deed, thus even the cutting off of their memories of their past, etc.

Luk 9:61 And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.

Luk 9:62 And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

This allows for their total energy as depicted by:

Mar 12:29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord:

Mar 12:30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy Soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

As far as I know this giving our all to complete the overcoming process must be accomplished in it's entirety when an Older Member representative from the Kingdom of God/Heaven is physically incarnate to lead us through it. However, this is not implying that one can not demonstrate that degree of devotion when a representative is not incarnate, as is the case now after Ti and Do have exited their incarnations. We have no idea what exceptions could be made for someone showing that much desire to be bonded with their Older Member.

Regarding Ti's vehicle that was first named: "Bonnie," it comes from the Scottish to mean, "attractive or pretty" but before that from middle French "bon" meaning "good." "Lu" comes from Louise for a female (Louis) for a male and means "fame and war" but shows it's beginning with St. Louise de Marillac, who was born in France in 1591 and devoted her life to caring for the sick as did Bonnie Lu Truesdale Nettles as a registered nurse in Houston.

Truesdale is of English origin and means: "Faithful ones homestead." That was the name her vehicle acquired by marriage.

"Nettles" - it is the name of a family of plants that are classified as "artillery plants," a Pilea Microphylla, all of which have stamens that with sunshine, male (Fathering?) flowers use to shoot out their pollen as a canon, thus the term "artillery." The stamen is actually bowed down or prostrate and when the flower opens, it suddenly stands up straight literally flicking out it's pollen into the air spreading it's seed to spawn offspring. The Greek word phylon from micro-phylla is rooted in the idea of a kingdom, division of species, a race, stock, and is related to phyle, a tribe or clan and phylein which means to "bring forth" as in bring forth a birth, which is what is indicated later in Rev 12 that this "woman" does to bring forth a male child to his throne.

It is interesting that this description of the stamen of this Nettles flower being inside the flower in a bent over, prostrate position, known as one of humility and supplication (giving of service (worship) to the creators) has it's resemblance to the human, mammalian penis as it starts off flaccid, until it is stimulated (by heat (of passion) (kin to sunlight), in which it then projects it's seed in a burst at climax to inseminate/fertilize the receiver's egg as in mammal reproduction. Perhaps even the word phylla shows in it's root an etymology to phallic, the adjective that describes the phallus (erection of the stamen).

In other words it's the job of this individual who takes this "Nettles" female vehicle to fulfill the role/task of the parental Father (seed giving role, as what a "father" is). The Father is everything to the Son, to Jesus and will also continue in the Two Witnesses task which Do evidenced significantly throughout the 19 years I was in their observation and participation.

On yet another vantage-point, the vehicle named Bonnie Lu Truesdale Nettles was also a Baptist by birth and became an investigator of all things spiritual as enveloped in Theosophy*. She was reported by her daughter to have experimented with the recognition of spirits (discarnate, disembodied) among us - those humans who have died, but never became someone who made a practice or business of doing so. It would appear it was purely exploratory. She also experimented with and studied and practiced in an amateur capacity, the science of Astrology that academically trained scientists would probably call a pseudo-science.

In a published interview in The Houston Post in 1972, Ti through her vehicle Bonnie Nettles said she received astrological help from a long ago deceased monk named Brother Francis, "He stands beside me when I interpret the charts," she said. "There can be several meanings to them, and if I'm wrong, he will correct me." I think it was Do who first told the class that Ti's "brother Francis" her work at the hospital. She was usually assigned to work in the preemie baby ward but sometimes would work in a different ward and would have to draw blood from a patient and she wanted to be sure she always hit the vein on the first try, so she'd ask Brother Francis to help her and felt He did and she always succeeded.

Do reported, that she only did someone's astrological chart if they asked her three times and she didn't tell them that was her criteria as she wanted to know they were serious.

Now regarding the astrological reference. Some who might read this may think that the practice of Astrology is Satanic, of the Devil, so how could someone who is considered to have fulfilled the prophecy of the Two Witnesses, and be The Father be an astrologer?

Well, there is a great deal to say about this, but essentially it's all debatable except one point. Jesus was not quoted to have said anything about astrology or even practices of fortune telling, soothsaying, etc. yet did talk about the literal "heavens," the stars the Earth, the times as ages and seasons, comparing the heavens with the Earth growing cycles as reflected in the way the Kingdom of God/Heaven tends the garden. He spoke of his coming in/with/through and/or covered (cloaked) by clouds and told future regenerations to "watch," "observe" all things, so to not be taken by surprise as a thief would take someone by surprise.

I suppose some would say, "watching" for signs and tokens in the heaven's would be superstitious, but he said it. Plus if he didn't feel to enact the law against adultery with the woman caught “in the act” being prosecuted on the spot why would he choose to condemn someone who experimented with gaming of the astrological sort? However, if this fact about Ti's astrological activity turns one from believing in them then they are probably not someone that could get through the overcoming classroom, thus Ti and Do are indirectly giving some an out as they did for so many over the years they were each incarnate.

Jesus didn't talk about “astrology” and there certainly were astrologers in his day. But he did say that even lusting in one's heart/mind after another woman while married is adultery, upping the standards, another reason they hated to hear him speak. Thus one should be sure to include that in their list of sins and do so before they cast stones at others for. After all, who has more weight for Christians, what Moses taught or what Jesus taught? I'm not suggesting they aren't both representatives from the Kingdom of God/Heaven. I believe they are, but it is very apparent that Jesus brought updates so for Christians to refer mostly to what Moses taught instead of focusing on what Jesus taught (though Jesus said to abide by all Moses taught, the ten commandments, etc.) is avoiding their own lesson plan they must embrace to abide in Jesus love. And Paul is in no way a replacement of Jesus.

Sadly many of the things that seem to be among the highest concerns to some Christians nowadays don't resemble anything Jesus talked about. It's like his teachings are avoided like the plague and replaced with what Paul wrote, while Paul, not having any experience with Jesus, so not privy to anything first hand essentially used the name Jesus but talked about Old Testament laws, some of the very laws Jesus was hung for not abiding by as the high priests insisted he should. Of course they didn't think he was the messiah so why would they think he had something new to offer them.

Well, it's a fact that each and every time a member from the Kingdom of God/Heaven comes incarnate they will bring new information and new standards and a new sense of Their reality to convey that will challenge all the existing mindsets. The comparison would be like a teacher of elementary school (Moses/Aaron) returning for the next school year and teaching the old grade level, or teaching the new grade level and having the students complain because they weren't teaching the old grade level. That's what religion fosters

- stagnation, though it does keep the ideas alive for future generation to refer to and ponder that prepare one for the next grade lesson plan because they are all building blocks.

With that said, here is a little synopsis on astrology in the bible:

Moses certainly received laws that sought to teach people to avoid what today might be called the “Spiritual Arts” and the statements of some of the Old Testament prophets do express as a negative (sin) ways of applying the positions of the planets and stars to a forecast of what one can expect from life. Those indications do exist in Isaiah and Moses' book Deuteronomy. The bottom line is, it depends on how things are experienced. For someone to be curious about spirits, or astrology or anything for that matter, is not the same thing as practicing these crafts as if one was an intermediary for God in doing so. Then it's a different story. In other words God can teach us through dreams, yet some Christians would say that dream interpreters are in the same category with witches or enchanters and are forbidden while there are examples of God's prophets receiving a great deal of their prophecy through dreams. Thus perhaps it's not for us to judge another in this regard, but to set up shop as a dream interpreter selling that service may be over the edge where the Kingdom of God/Heaven is concerned if in doing so, a person looks to their interpreter instead of first asking our Heavenly Father what the dreams mean and then watching to see who and what opportunities open up that provide an answer. The entire point is that our Heavenly Fathers want us to look to Them, not because They need us to, like for some ego or power and control trip as humans do, but because They know the only way they will allow any of us on Their spacecraft, and in their laboratories and on or inside their planetary bases, performing tasks in support of their projects is if we can make the grade and a big part of that grade is “Can you follow my instructions,” of which one was, “don't put others in my place” - false idols, false gods, mammon masters.

In other words, don't start giving service to (worshipping) aka “working for” yourself and/or other humans as your master as you can only have, according to Jesus One Master and that's one's Heavenly Father, a member of the Kingdom of God in circulation among the literal heavens. And of course there is nothing wrong with working for yourself or fellow humans. Just putting self or them on a pedestal equivalent in all practicality to one's Father in the Heavens (when one is not incarnate) is actually cutting oneself off from the relationship one could have with their real living “Father” in/from the literal heavens. And anyone who fosters another's cutting off of that relationship is guilty of an unforgivable sin, that is if they don't wise up and change before they die, which is why Jehovah, through Moses and Isaiah expressed dismay upon anyone who were using what amounts to “tricks” in the name of helping someone, when often money exchanged hands, so it became a business just like the religions with their tithing and donations and tax exemptions that Jesus spoke against. He said, if you use the money, then pay the tax that comes with the use of the money under that government, yet look at all the religious exceptions and ownership and profitable business arrangements with nearly 100% of the religious and some spiritual organizations, yet one doesn't see Catholics out in the street protesting their use of funds for things other than feeding the poor as Jesus spoke to doing while he was absent physically - “loving one's neighbor as oneself.”

Explorations are a part of being a seeker. That doesn't mean everyone needs to explore everything. Many just know what they are not interested in, but all in all usually pursue equivalent mindsets and practices while trying to find the ultimate. One may think they have found the ultimate but should never actually settle in. If one isn't being challenged to change and upgrade one's thinking AND behavior AND service (in alignment with that upgraded thinking) then they are stagnating and will likely not be open minded enough when the ultimate comes around again incarnate and blows their trumpet as has been the case with Ti and Do in my opinion.

Being taught to be afraid of new information with new terminology and new concepts is being taught to be dead to life when it's offered. It can be tricky but the key is, when in doubt seek one's Heavenly Father's guidance and then take a chance on a positive while not making any decision you can't reverse, that is until you know you have your Heavenly Father's approval, which needs to be confirmed in some in person face to face relationship as while our Heavenly Father, or in the the case of the Two Witnesses incarnate, when They are both incarnate or through teachings they left behind after they were incarnate that you know came from them. The only other time I believe we can be confident in taking what would seem to be irreversible actions are through a visit by two or more physical beings we know are not human and won't have human characteristics either (that by the way space aliens I have seen artist renditions of have), as we saw on what was called the Transfiguration Mount when and where Jesus was given his go ahead to put into motion the laying down of his life, as instructed by his Father, for his Father that his Father wanted him to do for their sheep. That confirmation needed to come before Jesus could be sure he was understanding the instruction that when enacted could not be reversed - his putting himself in the hands of all those chief priests who hated him and wanted to kill him many times but who Jesus' Father would not allow them to until they determined it was time. Now it's possible Jesus could have known about that timing without the visit on that mountain. That experience could have been mainly for the three disciples to witness and tell others about after he had his physical body killed.

But if we are overly guarded from hearing and considering new ideas in new terms then we will not be able to hear what any returned member from the Kingdom of God/Heaven will have to say when they are again incarnate. We would then be following suite the religious leaders of Jesus day who called him a lunatic or possessed by a devil and/or a heretic or blasphemer, which is primarily why he was framed to be executed by the Jewish leadership who said they feared the people were listening to what he had to say and would abandon them as their leaders:

Joh 11:47 Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.

Joh 11:48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation.

The problem though with the so called “spiritual arts” is they can become a trap just as much as anything and everything in the human kingdom can become a trap. By trap I am referring to that which keeps one away from seeking a deeper and more real relationship with one's Heavenly Father. And the spiritual arts so to speak do tend to attract us to those practices and when we see how they work in certain ways or as we accumulate the ability to talk about them fluently and we mingle with others of like mindedness and form groups and clubs and some of these become income streams, we find we think we have “found it.” If we ever feel we have arrived at our spiritual place or with the religious belief system that we feel is the ultimate to where we don't take a look at anything knew for fear, subtle or not, admitted to or not, that we could be influenced to change directions some or even entirely, then we go into fear mode which is manifest in a fight or flight response, and even both. We will combat whatever it is that is knocking on our door with our views and in a last ditch effort will run away from further talk or investigation, feeling like we don't want to open that door of instability that we probably once had, again. It would upset my partner or parents or the people where I work or at the club I attend, if they knew I was entertaining this strange idea or practice, even if that practice was to “stop” certain activities that I may wonder if are really healthy for me in terms of what I might be able to become in relationship to the creators of the planet. We tend to shape our beliefs around our practices so most often there is no longer room for Creator Beings. That becomes too weird For many the opposite is true. The idea of there being spirits like ghosts is too much to consider. To others the idea of space aliens is fine but among us is just too hot to handle. One can be aware of government shenanigans but fear looking at the conspiracy theories.

So the spiritual arts can all have their traps and astrology can be linked in with them, but does that mean to consider that the planet's and Sun and Moon and stars can't have an influence on human beings and all things on planet Earth? Well, for many there can be no influence from outside the Earth, yet science proves that is not correct. In fact Earth and all that lives on it is greatly influenced in many ways by objects outside the Earth. Solar flares, sun spots, moon gravity, meteors, asteroids and comet debris fields that shower the Earth all evidence their delivery of charged mineral particles to the Earth. The list can go on and on and on and science has taught us that just because something is invisible doesn't mean it doesn't exist and even have a complex description. We see the moon affect the tides and if light can get to us from all the bodies in space that enables us to see them with the naked eye, why wouldn't we at least consider that what can come to Earth with that light can be more than some twinkle in the sky at night. Like light from the Sun, it comes with a huge spectrum of frequencies that have varied wave lengths and that humans have a limited capacity to see, feel and understand much about. Thus it's altogether possible that everything in the solar system works as a system and has some relationship to the function and environment of the Earth being it appears to be the only inhabited planet. Thus given many of us believe the Earth was created, then why would we think or say the planets weren't part of that creation and could well be affecting us in ways that are not readily apparent but that this passed down body of information simply became called “astrology,” the study of the stars and their affects on humans. Understandably, like religion and spirituality it became a business and like even religion it can be used for anything but what it appears to exist because of.

But lets look at a couple of the only nine scriptures I found that actually use any word that starts with astro:

There are 8 verses in the book of Daniel that use the Aramaic word:

0826 'ashshaph (Aramaic) ash-shawf' - conjurer, enchanter, (CLBL) necromancer for “astrologer” while in the definition shows nothing to do with the sky, heaven's, stars, planets, Sun nor Moon. The Chaldeans were known to have astronomical skills, so that's perhaps related here:

Dan 2:10 The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean.

But they could have easily been “enchanters” who would be people who cast spells on people and conjure up forecasts and performances to try to fascinate their audience with various tricks.

Now a necromancer was someone who made predictions by trying to communicate with discarnates (spirits).

If none of these had anything to do with the stars why is “astro” in the English word 'ashshaph was translated to. A clue may be found here:

The only other instance of the use of the English word: “astrologer” is here including it's context:

Isa 47:11 Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know from whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to put it off: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know.

Isa 47:12 Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

Isa 47:13 Thou art wearied ((tired, disgusted, loathed, faint) in the multitude ((abundance)) of thy counsels ((advise)). Let now the astrologers, the stargazers ((seers)), the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

Ti and Do called these “enchantments,” “tricks.”

These tricks included incantations and spells also falling under the general term sorcery.

Here is the other instance of the word astrologer that uses a different Hebrew word:

One definition source for Hebrew “habar” indicates “to be a horoscopist yet there is nothing in the word that suggests this meaning. This one also says, “(astro) loger.” Another suggests Hebrew “habar” means “to divide.” That's the most concrete definition so far.

And again no reference to the Sun, moon, or stars. In fact in the verse it singles out “stargazers” as different from astrologers. Is there something wrong with even looking at the stars? Sure Moses got instruction to not worship the Sun and Moon and Stars. But to look at them? So it must be talking about another way of looking at them, thus as a prognosticator.

And if an astrologer is a “astro” log-er, is that like someone who logs (keeps a record) of things he/she sees in the sky/outer space, the literal heavens? If so then how different is that from “star gazer”?

Actually what is being listed in English as Stargazer is over 90% of the time translated to “seer,” having something to do with someone who has a vision, a seer, thus someone who puts their ideas to what they are observing, and then the reference to month to month does imply a forecast linked to a moon cycle.

And this forecast of the future is what in part it seems Jehovah was against propagating among humans.

Star-gazer = 2374 chozeh kho-zeh' active participle of 'chazah' (2372); a beholder in vision; also a compact (as looked upon with approval)= agreement, prophet, see that, seer, (star-)gazer.

But to treat anyone who calculates star positions and looks for relationships to handed down ideas that came from every culture with a curiosity and a degree of application, doesn't sit with scripture as something that is a trap and thus evil to do.

If it was a problem to see in the heavens:

Genesis 1:14 And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years:

So the Lord is saying the lights in the sky are for “signs” and those signs were not signs of spring, etc as seasons are also mentioned and they are not for any times periods. What signs are left?

Isn't it said that the Lord comes back from being in the literal heavens? Doesn't he say we MUST watch for him? Yes!

Thus this evaluation of “astrology” in the bible leaves quite a sketchy argument that today's astrology is related to what these verses suggest.

Now to continue with talking about:

Bonnie Nettles as the preemie baby nurse helped prematurely born babies survive and thrive. Thus she was right there on the front lines of playing the role of “savior” a task that the Father is the instigator of, having also performed that task many times themselves in any one or more of the planet's she became a Father for, as this prophecy seems to indicate were twelve (or was referring to twelve Souls who she birthed into the Next Level).

* Theosophy, Greek theosophia, from theos, divine + sophia, wisdom; literally “divine wisdom.” Esoteric philosophy concerning, or the investigation and seeking of knowledge of that which is mysterious pertaining to human being existence and nature, but particularly concerning the nature of divinity. Theosophy is considered a part of field of study and exploration known as esotericism, which refers to knowledge or wisdom that is largely hidden, thus from the process of discovery offers an individual enlightenment and salvation. A theosophist seeks to understand the mysteries of the universe and the bonds that unite the universe, humanity and the divine.

Now, the vehicle that Do chose to take, that was prepared for his taking, as was the case for Jesus, was given a first name of “Marshall” (as in a sheriff, a keeper of the peace, a law enforcer, laws, referenced in scripture as the rod, (the stiff straight and narrow standard) as the administrator of those instructions from his Father that needed to be met by students/disciples to qualify to graduate (be fruit that's harvestable). He is thereby the heavenly realm's gatekeeper having the key, which is the WAY that He DEMONSTRATES to humanity (repeatedly since the beginning of the civilization) what WE MUST ALSO DO TO be graphed to the branch of His/Their lineage, that is “Above the human kingdom in circulation throughout the literal heavens.

Do's vehicle's last name of, “AppleWhite” is a clear reference to the beginning of his task, stemming from the genus that had become known as the choices (tests) that led to the disobeying of the Kingdom of God/Heaven's instructions on what they could or couldn't eat in their gifted environment. And then the “White” part of that name, among other things, taking that negative (relative to their prospective advancement towards Kingdom of God/Heaven membership) of breaking one's heavenly parents rules and depicting a transformation into a positive (again relative to Kingdom of God/Heaven membership) by starting a “classroom” to include their human genetic strain, in which They could learn for themselves the value and reality of the Kingdom of God/Heaven by experience fending for themselves with the periodic influence of those who were in prison on the Earth, the Luciferians, as a general designation of former students who turned against the Kingdom of God/Heaven Older Members.

The WAY in which those first MADE (not begotten) humans with that potential to graduate out of their human limitations, (not the first human beings on the Earth) could learn their lessons would be by establishing covenants/agreements with the Kingdom of God/Heaven representatives incarnate or not, that were directly related to behaviors - what to do and what not to do in thought, word and deed, to SHOW their desire and implementation of the beginning of that required graft, that by sticking it out in what can be seen as an overcoming/victory of/over the human mammalian condition of life that is forwarded by each students instigation of the “Ways” taught by each subsequent incarnate member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven, as they come and go, that enables humans to wipe clean that ancestral and genetically imprinted on the mind and flesh, “missing of the mark” (aka sin) as represented in the word “White” and it's nature of being a pure light, not tainted or shaded by anything other vibrations, literally and as a figure.

Rev 12:2 And (she) being ((G2192 echo= to hold as in possession of, to be able, ACCOMPANYING*1, be returned)) with ((1722 en= among, for sake of, give self wholly to, because of)) child*2 ((G1064 gaster= womb)) cried*3 ((G2896 krazo= call aloud, shriek, exclaim, entreat, scream, cry out)), (travailing in) birth ((G5605 odino= experiencing the pains of the PROCESS of labor and delivery in the birth)), and pained*4 ((G928 basanizo= toil/hard work, also from basanos= goes to the bottom (to incarnate as human is like a human deciding to live among snakes and dogs and cats, who would largely hate them))) (to be) delivered*5 ((G5088 tikto= to produce from seed as a mother, bear, bring forth)).

*1 accompanying = (connotes a “return” in accompaniment usage here in place of “being” has strong implications of the intended meaning in this verse in relationship to:

Mat 26:64 Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power**1, and coming**2 ((2064 erchomai= accompanying**3, appear before public, falling in or out)) in ((G1909 epi= of, with, upon, among, in charge of, on behalf of)) the clouds ((G3507 nephele= a cloud (cloaked spacecraft) or cloudiness)) of heaven ((the sky to among stars)).

**1 power = 1411 dunamis= 1) strength power, ability 1a) inherent power, power residing in a thing by virtue of its nature, or which a person or thing exerts and puts forth 1b) power for performing miracles 1c) moral power and excellence of Soul 1d) the power and influence which belong to riches and wealth 1e) power and resources arising from numbers 1f) power consisting in or resting upon armies, forces, hosts

In this context we see these definitions of dunamis closely correlating to the definitions of the Rev. 12:1 .’..appeared a great WONDER in heaven...,” but in this case more specific to the personification and that of someone with a female gender. Could it be that Jesus didn't want to describe the Father more specifically, so not to impose types of limitations to the way in which his Father could plan on the return. After all these prophecies are given within a free willed system that is designed to provide maximum opportunity for the recipients to respond favorably, when this will all be twisted and turned by the Luciferians in the meantime, forcing those with significant thirst to know, to seek out the truth (facts), thus one (on the ground/incarnate at the time) doesn't want to make it overly difficult by getting too specific, though that was probably not a problem as the Father would regulate everything He gives Jesus to say, so he doesn't have to discern what may or may not interfere with future plans.

**2 coming = G2064 erchomai er'-khom-ahee middle voice of a primary verb (used only in the present and imperfect tenses, the others being supplied by a kindred (middle voice) eleuthomai el-yoo'-thom-ahee, or (active) eltho el'-tho, which do not otherwise occur) to come or go (in a great variety of applications, literally and as a figure)= accompany, appear, bring, come, enter, fall out, go, grow, X light, X next, pass, resort, be set.

**3 accompanying: Who or what is he accompanying or is he accompanied by the cloud or the “Power.” The order is important here and we know to work with it is appropriate as there was no sentence punctuation in the papyrus and manuscripts that were used for these initial translations, and the order of nouns, verbs can often be the opposite in languages other than English. If he is “sitting” that's a position, literal and/or figurative. Power is not something nebulous, or inanimate as in a computer. That would be like a pilot of a powerful jet saying he was coming as the right hand man for that jet's powerful engine and computer systems that are only tools of his usage built by fellow humans. One doesn't talk that way ever, not in terms of being someone “right hand” to a device. But then why didn't he say, “sitting at the right hand of my Father,” the only likely candidate for Jesus to talk that way about?

*3 cried = Greek 2896 krazo= a primary verb; formally, to “croak” (as a raven) or scream, i.e. (genitive case) to call aloud (shriek, exclaim, appeal (to), beseech, besiege, conjure, beg, implore, importune, petition, plead (to), pray, solicit, supplicate

*4 pained = Greek 928 basanizo= 1) to test (metals) by the touchstone, which is a black siliceous stone used to test the purity of gold or silver by the color of the streak produced on it by rubbing it with either metal 2) to question by applying torture 3) to torture 4) to vex with grievous pains (of body or mind), to torment 5) to be harassed, distressed 5a) of those who at sea are struggling with a head wind

*5 delivered = Greek 5088 tikto= 1) to bring forth, bear, produce (fruit from the seed) 1a) of a woman giving birth 1b) of the earth bringing forth its fruits 1c) metaphor; to bear, bring forth

This Older Member (Father) is incarnate to provide hands on assistance to her protege in the midwifing of Their “litter” of Souls (Saints, due to their having returned from their receipt of crowns by giving their lives in support of the very unpopular Jesus). Remember Jesus said he worked for his Father. He said his Father gave him the “men out of the world”*, and that he'd done all that his Father had commanded him to say and do, even turning himself into the authorities that were being controlled by the religious leaders, the “high priests” of the Jewish hierarchy in Jerusalem, the wolves in sheep's clothing to have him eliminated.

*Joh 17:6 I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.

Joh 17:12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.

Note here how Jesus, when talking to his disciples about his nearing departure and return used the illustration of a woman giving birth which is exactly the way the Father is depicted in this verse as giving birth to her son, because of how he was to be awakened by her (his Father) to his task of taking the throne from her to then fully birth the liter of souls the Father had initially given him to midwife the “spirit birth” of:

Joh 16:21 A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

Ti and Do taught that Birth into the Kingdom of God/Heaven was kin to a metamorphic process where the human body receives a deposit (seed) of Kingdom of God/Heaven Mind/aka Spirit that when activated by a present incarnate Older Member who had been through the metamorphic process before, even many times. They used words like, “trimester,” “viable birth” in reference to parts of this process that can take having an interface with a human vehicles several times (but NOT reincarnation as that is commonly taught), but always does involve getting one's MIND into a human being's Soul pocket/container, by their drawing it voluntarily, which for the human recipient then becomes their mind. Ti and Do spoke in terms of Three Trimester til one's spirit or Soul birth. Upon being “born” one is able to be issued a Next Level physical vehicle(body) what requires a certain strength of mind to pilot.

Rev 12:3 And (there) appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold (a) great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.

With new translation options:

Rev 12:3 And (there) appeared ((optanomai=observed)) another ((allos= different)) wonder ((semeion= sign, mark, token, prodigy, portent, unusual occurrence, (supernatural) miracle)) in ((en= for the sake of, by, before, of (from))) heaven ((ouranos= elevation(up), sky, outer space)); and behold ((idou=see, be aware of)) (a) great ((megas= pride, arrogance, derogatory towards God, overstepping province of a created being, splendid, prepared on a grand scale, external appearance, might, stature, age)) of red ((purros= fire like, color of fire, red aka ruddy, blood in one's face and potentially a physical racial characteristic color of skin/appearance, [genetic bloodline])) dragon ((who fascinate)) having ((echo= having control of, a hold on, in possession of)) seven heads ((kephale= taken, held, seized)) and ten horns ((keras= fruit, seed, gain, winnings of the head)), and seven crowns (diadema= symbol of having one's head/mind bound) upon ((epi= among, as touching, beside, have charge of)) his ((auto= its, their)) heads ((kephale=seeds (souls?), taken, held, seized)).

The new translation and interpretation of Rev 12:3 might be:

There was OBSERVED a DIFFERENT SUPERNATURAL SIGN in/from the sky/outer space to become aware of, the Luciferian Space Aliens, as agents of destruction of the Soul. They are described as being FIRE/RED, because allegiance to them (conscious of who they are or not and knowingly in their allegiance or not) leads one to the Lake of Fire that is the agent to literally dissolve one's Soul, or their Spirit, (for those who never received a Soul). (A Soul is an actual container designed to implant in/on a human body that is designed to only hold the Mind/Knowledge of ones Heavenly Father according to how much one draws while a student with them face to face. A spirit body, as in the case of a human being who was not given a Soul implant is the accumulation of human quality of information/experience identified as their Mind (largely their conscious and subconscious (genetically passed on) memories.) This Lake of Fire is a destruction of both a Soul and/or Spirit body, termed Hell because once sent, there is no longer any potential for life in any form thereafter.

As said, these agents of Soul destruction are the Luciferian space aliens, the fallen angel's descendants from an Earth origin whether from a previous to the current civilization, where they hid from the floods by going underground in the seas using the spacecrafts they had assisted humans to build), or from other planetary systems relatively near to Earth that that Kingdom of God/Heaven provided a highway from, what might be thought of as a wormhole that bends time/space together so vast distances can be traversed immediately upon entering one. These have been depicted as dragons and serpents and linked to the Reptilian species of space alien. They are also known by the names, Satan and the Devil (adversaries - assigned to the Saints (four and Twenty Elder Students) and younger student overcomers to conquer their human mammalian condition by working against. Those thought of as "Satan" are referencing the ones who no longer have physical bodies but who work to influence humans from an unseen vantage-point with subtle suggestions (serpent= hisser, sly, deceiver).

These Luciferian space aliens and their discarnate counterparts don't all know they are from a Luciferian blood line, due to their "falling" away from service to the Kingdom of God/Heaven, depicted as the Nephilim in Genesis chapter six and the book of Enoch and other places in Sumerian records. Some believe they are helping humans with their environment and life systems, because they have need of those systems themselves to survive by, and that also entails helping human build space crafts and underground facilities as they anticipate having to retreat into again as they have heard rumors among their kind that their time is short before yet what they suppose is another alien group, not unlike themselves, but with more power than they return to re-stimulate the end of the current civilization.

And it's true that the Kingdom of God/Heaven are coming to do just that and they are the weeds that are destroying the earth's function for the Kingdom of God in the Heavens seed to grow to fruition so these have alerted governments to prepare to do battle with these others, the reason for many of the ways in which governments are sucking monies out of their economies and building their militaristic security states at an alarming pace compared to all times past.

The “Dragon” is described as being “fabulous and fascinating” as the entire UFO and space alien phenomena is to those humans who are drawn to consider them a reality among us. They come across to humans in an awesome way. They are represented by the color “red,” as depicted by the one sitting on the Red horse in Rev 6 that brings endless global war that began with the shaking of the human kingdom with the 9/11 fiery attack on the World Trade Center and Washington D.C. Pentagon (primary seat of the controlled human U.S. dominated one world financial center and government). Americans in their tribal roots (Amer. Indians) are a genus of red skins, of a ruddy “blood faced” genealogy that is perhaps the same human tree branch that began in the current civilization with Adam and Eve that was not just a silly story, though is not understood by many, that made their way to the American continent.

The Kingdom of God members don't ordinarily use as transport the kinds of metallic looking spacecraft they provide to their student level members, listed in Enoch's record as “watchers,” the elementary level task Lucifer and a crew were performing. The Next Level Older Members did use some of these kinds of primitive spacecrafts to intentionally crash to show humans their physicality that also served to deliver the Older Members (Father and Son) and returning student members to the geographic area of the U.S. southwest, from which they would locate and tag human vehicles to incarnate into to perform their tasks by. The Older Members were to awaken to their fulfillment of prophecy as the Two Witnesses and their students were to become the first fruit graduates into the Kingdom of Heaven (adult membership, thus above the stage the Luciferians had arrived at). These students, like in the case of the Luciferians had also been assigned new bodies upon graduating their second trimester with Jesus though needed to complete their overcoming of their remaining humanness.

The depiction of Seven heads is referring to seven groupings of humans the Luciferian Space Aliens have taken control over, because of having some advanced technologies and overview of the way the garden is grown, having in their heritage seen it before. In addition to these groups of humans, the use of “head” terminology represents the part of the body of the humans these space aliens have taken over, namely their minds. The depiction of “horns” as what has grown from these heads, hair as an outcropping, but in terms of things counted as treasures to humans; financial, intellectual, artistic, military power, spirituality and even humanitarian and environmental “wealth” (mammon), as represented by various global wide organizations, in the new world order, i.e. G7 as the US, UK, France, Germany, Italy, Canada, and Japan, for instance. But of course there are also additions to these, like who can deny that China, Russia and India are not significant global financial and military powers as well as Brazil and Venezuela and many others.

We can get all caught up in trying to label who represent the seven mountains aka kings/kingdoms but it's not really very relevant except in seeing where the new Babylon must be and how they are operating in a bestial way while the false prophets are clearly all who within these Kingdoms leverage their religious and spiritual beliefs and/or non-beliefs, who are not representing the One True Kingdom of Gods from/in the literal heavens. Of course identifying who is who, can be confusing to decipher, hence this book. However with that said before moving on, regarding the identification of the seven mountain/kingdoms this might be more of what the Kingdom of God/Heaven is referring to that the word “mountain” works better to depict after all, as there are thought to be seven landmasses, spoken of as continents described as:

Africa, North America, South America, Antarctica, Asia, Australia/Oceania, and Europe. But what doesn't correlate with the idea that these are also Kingdoms is with Antarctica that hardly has anyone living on, while Europe is not a separate land mass from Asia really. Yet there is one thing that we have seen forming more and more - blocks or alliances. We have the North American Union, The African Union, The European Union, The Union of South American Nations, Various Arab Union, Russian and Southeast Asian unions of nations.

A side note on the use of the name Luciferians here: I am not saying this as if to call certain people Luciferian (devils). The facts as I have been given to see is that all humans are a result of the Luciferian influence on the population of the Earth. That's why Christians say we are a "fallen species" and needed to be redeemed, but I'm not going into all that at this moment as it has its accuracy but not entirely the way I've seen most Christians talk about it. However, with this in mind we can start to choose to see how that manifests and then choose to abort the Luciferian mindset that has become "normal" for all of us to embrace. To date, the only way it is possible for anyone to abort Luciferian programming is through the teachings of these Two Witnesses for whoever chooses to gravitate to the information they bring and leave behind when they exit their incarnation. That actually sums up the judgment criteria. We make the choice and then live with that choice and when we die that choice is final for us and the Kingdom of God/Heaven under the direction of these Two and their crew of students who were literally following them while they were incarnate will select those souls they wish to save for their next opportunity to overcome their humanness after the recycling refurbishes the surface of the planet to start a new civilization and new Soul growing garden like experiment.

Therefore, like the appearance of the Woman (Father) is a "wonder" and can be described by all the additional keywords surrounding the Greek term "semeion," it can apply to these Luciferian Space Aliens as well. The Luciferians were "prodigies" - loved students by the Kingdom of God/Heaven Older Members who at one time worked hard to help bring them to their station. The Kingdom of God/Heaven membership don't give up on any of the Souls they planted and nurtured, but once a Soul in a Body dies, it remains in allegiance to what it died believing and supporting with that belief and the only way it can change and/or grow from there is if they while living found favor with an Older Member from the Kingdom of God/Heaven so they would literally “save” that Soul for a future opportunity to grow to produce fruit (service as a member of their family tree).

They are called Luciferian because regardless of their origin (Sol, the Earth star, or another star system in the constellations, Orion, Arcturus, Andromeda, Pleiades, Draco, etc.) they came to exist from the seed and manipulation of individuals who were once “Children of God,” who advanced towards full maturity (adulthood) in a significant enough way, to where they were “kept” or “saved” by the Kingdom of God/Heaven after they showed their loyalty to one or more incarnate representatives from the Kingdom of God/Heaven on Earth during this current or a previous civilization and/or on an Earth equivalent “garden.” Because of their show of allegiance to the Kingdom of God/Heaven, when they died (their physical body) their Soul was given a new suit of clothing (body), some of which may have quite an extended lifetime, perhaps even 1000 or more years. During their time with such a body, they were given certain tasks to perform for the Kingdom of God/Heaven, that would be serviceable while also providing them with certain tests of their loyalty to the Older Members who oversaw their crew which included space crafts. They were called “Watchers” because of their assignment to literally watch/observe certain humans at certain times in which they would report their observations to their crew leader, termed Archangel who would report to an Older Member, someone who ushered/parented into their Kingdom/Family new adult members into their ranks. Thus these Older Members are each a “Father” but in actuality of a high rank because of their experience and Mind Power they have accumulated since they themselves were first born into Kingdom of God/Heaven adult membership.

These “watchers,” one in which was named Lucifer that Enoch and Moses wrote about (though that name isn't among the ones Enoch spoke about, so may have come before this other group or had a different name) at some point decided to go his own way and a number in his crew decided to side with him, which in so doing broke off their connection to the Kingdom of God/Heaven Older Member they got their new body and assignment from, thinking their Older Member didn't have anything they couldn't obtain on their own. They began to have interface with humans on Earth which was not their instruction, thus they were consciously breaking the instruction, something the Older Members are strict about because of how they can't trust them, making them undesirable on one of their crews and because of how it can affect the growth of their “children,” the Souls they plant and the genetic strain they nurture to be vehicle's for those Souls towards their own birth into adult membership.

As it says in Genesis 6, these then “fallen angels/watchers” had sexual relations with the daughters of humans, what Jesus called the evil one sowing of the tares among the wheat (the “Soul” seeds the Kingdom of God/Heaven plants).

The Adam/Eve experiment was a way for the Kingdom of God/Heaven (membership = The Elohim) to test prospective new members before they are issued a new “Celestial model,” non-mammalian, non-seed bearing, non-perennial physical body, spoken of as being “incorruptible” because they don't have a way to revert back to human mammalian reproductive behavior. So they designed a body that could if it chose revert back to mammalian biological entities or could choose not to simply by following simple instructions. Thus the Kingdom of God/Heaven set up the experiment in the location on the planet where they knew these rebel Luciferians were propagating and allowed them to influence this new “made” (not begotten) body, human (Hebrew = adam) and his partner genetically taken from his body as “eve.” Thus it was a setup.

The Luciferian, whether it was Lucifer or not or one of his offspring didn't matter as whoever it was sought to turn the eyes of these beings away from the Kingdom of God/Heaven and did so in a sly, cunning way that was telling the truth but the ramifications of which were breaking the instruction which means they then are not trustworthy in a Kingdom of God/Heaven crew. This way of this Luciferian being tricky and deceitful is where a large part of the depiction of the Luciferian as a serpent (dragon) came from, as the word in Genesis used for this individual was a “hisser” and an enchanter, enticing others to their desires/agendas.

Though interestingly, over the last 60 years, and especially in the western United States, where the UFO crashes began in earnest actually starting in Texas in 1897 there has been a plethora of information leaked and divulged and accidentally exposed or outright reported by those who experienced relationships with what are called space aliens or extraterrestrial biological entities (EBE's) and other terms that entail a description of some of these beings as being humanoid yet having a lizard looking head/face and being originally from the constellation "Draco," thus the term "dragon" or "serpent race." Some of these have begun relationships with certain humans. One case in point may be with the person who goes by the name Rael who formed the group called the Raelians. In his book, if I understood it right, he talks about being taken somewhere by some beings who were wearing disguises that they said were "so not to frighten him." They then said they were the Elohim who created humans but later told him they don't create planets, thus are not one and the same with the Genesis account written by Moses' Elohim. They even had members in their space alien group named Satan and another named Lucifer and they talk about there being a battle of sorts between them. Rael, this Frenchman has a large organization of believers who tithe, have rituals and promise eternal life, based on Rael's claiming to be the returned Christ though he uses the term Maitreya of late, a Buddhist term for a Christ or anointed or enlightened one, "one whose entire body is full of light" (in Jesus words).

Yet another person from Africa, named Credo Mutwa claims to have been abducted by reptilian looking beings who forced him to have sex in the cave where he was taken, with a reptilian looking being. He was told that they lived underground and would abduct humans from the surface for food and that they lived off of fresh blood.

Yet another individual named David Icke claimed to be the "Son of the Godhead," interpreting "Godhead" as the "Infinite Mind" and that the world was going to end in 1997 and that Reptilians control the military of the United States. He talks about good and bad space aliens. I could have it wrong but believe he says that the bad ones are the Reptilians who are coming to Earth to destroy the Earth. It is said they are coming with robots that are short like children, grey skinned or suited, with larger than normal human heads and eyes sort of like the depiction in the movie "Close Encounters of the Third Kind" by Steven Spielberg though some depict them in grotesque ways as in Whitley Strieber and Travis Walton contact descriptions that were made into horror movies (which from the behavior depicted, with the human being tested and having sperm and or eggs removed or fertilized by alien beings, etc. they in no way are representatives from the Kingdom of God/Heaven, because the Kingdom of God/Heaven membership don't have such needs for such human DNA and or allegiance, to make of them contactees of a sort. Those depictions are performed by Luciferian Space Aliens which includes all space alien groups even if they never had someone actually named Lucifer among them or in their own planetary history.

The reason they think these small “greys” are robots is because of the Roswell, New Mexico UFO crash in July of 1947 where among the wreckage were four small bodies that were witnessed by a hiking party before the U.S. government hauled the wreckage and the bodies away. Eventually there was a leaked autopsy report by Leonard Stringfield that described one of the bodies as having no discernible human like organs, while another had what looked like atrophied sexual organs. Thus the one with no organs was considered to be a robot as they did not know how it would have operated. Apparently one being from another crash lived for a while in U.S. government captivity but there is no information about their body makeup.

There is information available for consideration that says the crashes were staged by the Kingdom of God/Heaven as a way for Members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven and those who were elder students working towards full adult membership (Saints) to enter the unseen, so called “spirit world” in the area of the planet termed the “Temple” with their Soul Bodies that required the loss of the physical bodies they had. Thus they were sacrificing their physical body for Heaven's sake, as a task for the Kingdom of God/Heaven and for their own future membership in the Kingdom of God/Heaven where a physical body, though very important and the normal way in which members operate is expendable if the task requires laying it down because they have an eternal Soul that can earn a more advanced model. Some of these who were among the crashes were apparently individuals at the growth level of the Luciferians, who were given this opportunity to try for adult membership in the Kingdom of God/Heaven, thus they needed to be subject to the Luciferian influence that had become prevalent throughout the entire planet, to where the Luciferian teachings were held in high esteem by the religious and spiritual and science communities as they are responsible for teaching the technologies they had become privy to, to the humans, which is depicted in the Book of Enoch.

The Luciferian space aliens fallen angel (Dragon)'s agendas are human. They essentially need all the same things humans need. They need healthy new members who have the same desires they have. They want humans to have a healthy environment in which to thrive so the green agenda is a Luciferian agenda as toxicity taints the species that they need to propagate to have human eggs, sperm, hormones, organ systems, etc for their hybridization programs. They want a space program for the spacecrafts, energy/propulsion, life support systems that come from the program, so they promote cooperation among governments that can help one another in this agenda. They want to be able to either harvest materials from other bodies in space and/or find life thriving environments they can use to build their own human species, the way they observed the Kingdom of God/Heaven doing, though for the most part that's in their ancestral memory/records that as on Earth became very distorted and manipulated, as a big part of the Luciferian agenda is to fight against those they rebelled against and the only way they can do that is to interfere with the “overcoming classroom” they know from the Earth human records during this current civilization will periodically start. Their hatred of the Kingdom of God/Heaven, whom they see as yet another space alien group, rather than an evolutionarily (not Darwinian) strata or level Above Human, just like human is above animal and animal above plant and plant above mineral kingdom levels.

These Luciferians are not simply against the Kingdom of God/Heaven out of spite at the isolation to the planet and it's near space environment but desperate for having such short periods of time to influence humans to their agendas due to being forced to escape global recycling programs by going underground or under the sea. They actually know that they can best extend their agenda by capturing those human's who are given Soul pocket (body) biologically compatible implants (not to be confused with the Luciferian and/or human implantation) as these Souls, have more life force, so if directed to their agenda's can better influence those humans who don't have that seed implant. The way in which they can capture one of these Souls is to get it to abort their student/teacher relationship with the incarnate Older Member from the Kingdom of God/Heaven. These, having acquired some degree of Kingdom of God/Heaven mind (teachings, concept understandings, behaviors and ways) naturally attract those humans who had been tagged to potentially receive a Soul that can expand their influence upon others. This is what we saw happen after Jesus left, which became Christianity that has moreoverless conquered the globe while the actual behavior and ways of so called Christians doesn't resemble what Jesus taught. But at this time, the new religion will have a broader scope of magnetism spoken of as one's Spirituality or "new age" that draw from a few things Jesus said and some the Buddha said and some Krishna said and some Mohammad said and some various so called "ascended masters" purport. They teach the followers to worship those who the Luciferian Space Aliens nurture, who influence governments, because many in government and high finance are the ancestors of Luciferians when they propagated their seed with human women. They form agencies and clubs and doctrines and agenda's and become the largely unseen directors of all that happens in the world.

Ti and Do indicated that at some point the Next Level gathered individuals from different planetary systems to the earth system to offer them the opportunity to finish their overcoming by entering into their program on earth when their Older Member was to come incarnate. They said this was needed because of Lucifer and his associates fall - to raise the bar on even getting to that "student level" of Next Level Membership as these apparently had all accomplished before then. I believe they said some took them up on the opportunity and others didn't. They didn't say which star systems different ones were from.

I believe Ti and Do indicated that each of these Luciferian Space Aliens - speaking of the ones who did not take Them up on Their offer, were grounded to earth but not without having many chances to redeem themselves but at some point reached a point of no return for them. (I guess the percentage Do spoke about of Next Level Mind that occupied their Soul pocket/pillowcase, container went below 50% so their decisions began to digress more and more from their Older Members choices.

But once in the earth vicinity when the Next Level didn't lock them underground and/or under the sea they sought to influence humans to their agenda. I believe Ti and Do indicated they were even in competition with one another, though some may have cooperation.

(UPDATE as of the New Horizon's and Dawn spacecraft missions to Pluto and Ceres respectively provides evidence that Pluto is the laboratory, perhaps inside and out, and "headquarters" for Ti and Do, while the dwarf planet Ceres, appearing to have city like lights photographed extensively may be a base to show humans as we enter the LAST Harvest WAVE, the meaning of the name of the Roman goddess Ceres or in Greek, Demeter having some representation of Ti as the Lord of the Harvest who took a female vehicle for the task on earth to get her “son,” Do started to birthing their liter of souls to membership in the Next Level(See this link for pictures: <https://sawyerhg.wordpress.com/2016/11/27/jesus-said-there-would-be-signs-in-the-sun-moon-stars-planets-comets/>)).

Rev 12:4 And his tail* ((false prophet that teaches lies that includes heightening of human mammals self absorption, accomplishments, propagation and all forms of sensuality and a preoccupation with sexuality)) drew ((4951 suro= to trail, drag, draw, hale)) the third (part) of the stars** ((4766 stronnumi= those who are in the position to graduate into having significant positions of service to the Next Level), making their abode (bed) among the stars)) of ((because of)) heaven ((Next level Kingdom in their outer space environments)), and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour ((destroy)) her child as soon as it was born.

Isa 9:15 The ancient and honourable, he is the head; and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail.

Isa 9:16 For the leaders of this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.

** stars:

star= 792 aster most likely from the base of stronnumi 4766 (make bed, furnish, spread, strew, positing); akin to stereos 4731 (stiff, i.e. solid, stable, steadfast, strong, sure) from histemi 2476 (abide, appoint, bring, continue, covenant, establish, hold up, lay, present, set (up), stanch, stand (by, forth, still, up))

Putting all these pieces of this figurative interpretation of the usage of “stars”= Those who make their “bed,” furnish service to the Next Level, spread, strew their Older Members Mind/information that in doing so establishes their position as solid, stable, steadfast, strong, sure in their abiding, appointments, continue to establish, hold up, lay, present stand by and up, to bring forth for others sake their covenant (commitment) to their Next Level Older Members.

The Luciferian Space Aliens or their discarnates or human acting on their behalf whether in coordination with some of them or not, thus knowing who and what they may be working with or not, don't have any ability to literally cause literal stars of heaven to be cast, thrown to Earth.

Again, the Dragon depicts all the Luciferian Space Aliens. What they say are lies to the Kingdom of God/Heaven. These lies are the “tail.” Thus some of those who were considered “stars,” who were positioned to become part of the upcoming undercover overcoming program, as put on by the Two Witnesses when they blow the trumpet, announce their arrival publicly, were lured away by the lies to where instead of giving themselves to the Kingdom of God/Heaven by joining with the Two Witnesses, they didn't recognize the truths being revealed by the Two Witnesses or they had become so secure in their various human endeavors, families, friends, businesses....human lives that it wasn't in their interest to consider what these Two were saying as it was more comfortable or interesting to their own thoughts and ideas to put their energy into whatever they were doing - what Jesus called the their seed being swallowed up by the cares of the world.

Deuteronomy 28:13 And the LORD shall make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them:

The “lies” are not blatant except to those who know the truth. For instance if we are told that Jesus was a space alien, who was a crew member on a team that genetically engineered the human race and his teachings when applied to the world would bring “heaven on earth,” saying that was his intention, then they are using the name “Jesus” and some of what he said to justify their agenda that is an earth based agenda.

The facts are that Jesus was LIKE a space alien only in the sense that he, with his Crew use physical spacecrafts as laboratories and for transportation and circulate among the stars, but to equate them by not going into more detail is to mislead, because nothing Jesus said promotes “heaven on earth.” His intention was to take some away from the earth. He said his Kingdom was NOT of this world, the Earth. He said where he comes from there are “many dwelling places (mansions)” and he needed to prepare places (positions) to those who were in line to graduate, be harvested into, to reap the promised rewards of an eternal life working with him in his Kingdom.

The lies also say that once someone dies, they are not dead. again misleading, because once dead, though the spirit continues to exist it's NOT life. Life is the way we think/experience Life while human - physical, so to make it sound like being a spirit is the goal is like telling the hardware of the computer that lasts for years they'd rather be the software program that only exists when the hardware is on. And, what they don't understand is that even that spirit existence has an end point, that is according to scripture. They are trying to appear to conform to Jesus, because they know he made some huge impressions, so they take the rewards he promised for those who adhered to his rules and convince others they get those rewarded without the rules or with just the most convenient one's to follow. All the while their real agenda is a competitive and even vengeful one, to attract believers they can use to bring other humans to their flock to reap their DNA.

Since the Kingdom of God/Heaven doesn't force their hand on people, allowing them to choose their pathways, a significant amount of those they were offering their membership to, fell away. However, this “third” translation may not refer to an exact number who fell away because of the Dragon (Luciferian space aliens) “tail” lure, yet it might. In examining the Greek “tritos”* that was translated to “third part” we can see it's used as an adverb potentially translated to “third time” or just “third” (as part can mislead) which could easily refer to the fact that the “stars” (those who were working in some elementary task assignments in the Kingdom of God/Heaven's student part of their program) were offered to engage in their “third time” or the way Ti and Do would say, “third trimester” towards their potential “mind/spirit birth” into full adult membership in the Kingdom of God, Kingdom in the literal Heavens. And where “third part” could equally apply is by referring to the “3rd quarter of the earth” which is where the Kingdom of God (The Two Older Members and their crew) geographically return to for their administration of the third trimester.

* 5154 tritos= ordinal from treis 5140; third; neuter (as noun) a third part, or (as adverb) a (or the) third time, thirdly= third(-ly).

The dragon “stood” could refer to their “taking a stand,” having more visibility among humans, picking up humans and because of their high tech abilities tricking humans to thinking of them as “gods” to humans, even though they would say they are “space brothers.” This is not to say these space aliens are consciously lying. They would justify their half truths. It's like politicians who have a strategy to say just so much, even thinking that it's for the public's own good, that they couldn't handle the unvarnished truth. I believe Do indicated that some space aliens don't even know the truth about the existence of the Next Level. Like Earth humans they have in their history books or rumors depictions of "gods," but largely think of becoming one of them as a spiritual progression accomplished by repeating incarnations. Thus they have their facsimile Kingdom of God/Heaven program in which they end up mimicking certain of the techniques the Kingdom of God/Heaven taught their ancestors, but are also in the records of virtually all the religious and spiritual minded systems. Those who gravitate most to that program become known as the spiritual hierarchy of the planet yet they are living a complete illusion, spoken of in Hindi as "maya" and of course they have parallel ideas, beliefs and practices with most every religion and spiritual grouping to include Christianity with their set of equivalent delusions.

Ti and Do had said that the Next Level had gathered every Soul who had had a relationship with an incarnate Older Member to give them the opportunity to come to this "third part" location to enter into their "third trimester" overcoming of their remaining humanness process. Do even spoke a little about their being gathered from other planetary systems. Thus it's possible approximately a third or even exactly a third had chose not to engage in their overcoming as it would have required their giving up whatever literal service they had in certain parts of the heavens, though by refusing were choosing who their real master had become spoken of here as the Dragon and because of that choice they were once again cast to the Earth. In other words they still became restricted to the earth environment, regardless of how far they could traverse away from the earth. They ceased to really be space aliens. They were grounded to Earth and those that knew it was the doing of the Next Level became angry and resentful.

Some people like Carl Sagan, a once popular scientist/astronomer who has since died used to lead the pack of popular talk about the possibility of extraterrestrials. He would say it was altogether logical for them to exist never saying anything about the myriad of reports since humans have records. But he always used the argument that for them to travel to earth from any different star system would take so long it couldn't be done in one lifetime of the occupants. Even though it's easy to see through that argument many buy it because that's the easiest way to not have to consider too much of the prospect of space aliens in our midst. However, just today, 11/20/2015 I saw an article that NASA was reporting having seen for the first time an object coming out of a black hole when they had always thought objects could only go into a black hole. In the 1970's Ti and Do had said that there were "highways" in the heavens. I would suspect then that the aliens from another star system could have found a black hole the same way humans today are looking at them and portrayed sending a mission into one in the movie, "Contact" that came out several decades ago. But what if the black hole "highway" these who became fallen angels came through was a one way highway that left them in this part of the universe where their only choice to live or hope to return to their home planet would be if they could benefit from what humans are capable of doing for them and their agenda, thus became like "gods" to humans in past civilizations as allowed by the Next Level to use them to put other student level young members of the Next Level to the test of overcoming the influence of the ones who had fallen so they wouldn't be able to also fall. They would become on solid ground with their covenant.

If the space aliens can stop this "birth" of the "son" they would have their idea of a grand prize. This depiction of the Woman (Father) giving birth (promotion) to their Son is similar to how Jesus said he was tempted by Satan (the adversary, Luciferian Space Aliens) right before he formally announced his task to the public. These Two Witnesses will also have to face the same tests, because in process they are exemplifying what their students would also need to learn to do and they could describe the details of what they experienced and how they dealt with it, something had they not come incarnate would not be nearly the same. It might seem that the Kingdom of God/Heaven could just announce their rules, as a booming voice from the sky and people would recognize these as superior beings so would... Without practical examples and an opportunity for regular interface with the Older Members it would be all but impossible to see through all the very subtle lies humans become barraged with and even begin to think of as their norms in behaviors and ways.

Rev 12:5 And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

Curiously: Nostradamus, whom I actually consider to be mostly a pseudo prophet, in that he was probably a decent medium for whatever Luciferian or Spirit chose to use him, which could be the case here since Revelations 12 was around long before he came along and the Luciferians were surely aware of it's content, so he predicts a “Mother of the throne” as in a type of pregnancy in sync with Revelations 12's woman giving birth to her male child, to his throne. Of course there are plenty of mothers who give birth to a human male king.

Ti chose in incarnate into a human woman's body named Bonnie Lu Truesdale Nettles. She said she, “came to get [Do] going and am then going back,” which is the birth part - birthing Him, her Next Level type of offspring to the THRONE, she was, until this “birth” showing Him the way to manage the task in this exceedingly corrupted human kingdom, so he could take it over completely at the exit of her incarnation, providing him the opportunity to become the sole Older Member Heavenly Father to the liter of students “she” initially gave to him as he said while incarnate in the vehicle named Jesus in:

Jhn 17:9 I pray for them: I pray not for the world ((humans)), but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

The Next Level can use any human seeking truth as a tool to forward further truth through, though in this case it seems to be a Luciferian facsimile to equate Nostradamus with Next Level prophets. Thus curiously, here is the portion from the Nostradamus materials called a quatrain, with someone's interpretation in parentheses:

Quatrain 8,75 The (Cause of the) Father and Son will be harmed by, The prefecture (papacy) within his pavilion (The Vatican). The mother of the Overturns (of the Throne - Eze 21:26-27 - Queen Teia Tephi) overturns (the Throne) by the Son (Christ) she will have in her swollen belly; which is a grassy chest (at Tara) with little pieces of paper in it (inside The Ark of The Covenant).

Note the name Teia Tephi - not necessarily a coincidence as the Next Level gives those humans that can become influential to show further truth of the Next Level's real existence ideas that can certainly amount to the choice of names and of people who in their own way seek truth.

I'm not going to spend much time on this but perhaps “Overturns” can mean to “turn over” the throne to her Son whom she gave birth into the Next Level who is to be incarnate in a male (grassy chest) vehicle to overturn the Luciferian rule.

With additional translation options:

Rev 12:5 And (she brought) forth ((5088 tikto= delivered or BROUGHT FORTH, BEAR, PRODUCE, GIVE BIRTH TO)) a man ((730 arrhen or arsen= MALE MAN)) child ((5207 huios= SON, kinship, foal)), who was ((3195 mello= to be about, to be on the point of doing or suffering something, to intend, have in mind, think to)) (to) rule ((4165 poimaino= to tend as a shepherd of, feed, supervise)) all ((3956 pas= manner of, means, any (one), as many as, whosoever)) nations ((1484 ethnos= tribe, nation, people, group)) with ((1722 en= give self wholly to, or sake of, because, by all means)) a rod ((4464 rhabdos= a staff - one's body and use it as an instrument to overcome and be of service to one's Older Member)) of iron ((4603 sidereos= (strength of iron)): and her ((846 autos + 848 hautou (as a contraction) as shown in Thayers= their own)) child ((5043 teknon= offspring, children)) (was) caught up ((726 harpazo= from a derivative of haireomai 138= to seize, catch (away, up), pluck, pull, take (by force))) unto God ((2316 theos= a deity, supreme divinity, fig. a magistrate)), and to his ((846 autos + 848 hautou (as a contraction) as shown in Thayers= their own)) throne ((2362 thronos= from thrao (to sit), a stately seat)).

There are two translations to “child” that use a different Greek word. One has the adjective “man” which is really “male man (human)” and in that case “Son” is the primary definition of Greek “huios.” This is further clarified to be the same one who was Jesus as that is who was designated to “rule all nations (people) with a rod of iron” which is also reflected directly in Rev 2:27 as instruction given from the “Son of God” (Rev 2:18) but there referring to those who “overcome.”.. then, “ruling the nations with a rod of iron,” “even as I received of my Father” and in Rev 19:14-15, stating that his “armies in heaven followed him upon white horses (spacecrafts), clothed in fine linen, white and clean (the new Next Level vehicles made for them to wear and use as their vehicles) who have a “sharp sword... going out of THEIR MOUTHS to smite the nations with and “rule them with a rod of iron” treading the winepress of the fierceness of their Older Member, even the Chief of Chiefs (Almighty God) which is referring to this happening during the tribulation period after the Two Witnesses and first fruit saints have exited their human incarnation.

Thus the second usage of “child” should be “children or offspring” referring to their own children as the Son of God the Father (incarnate in a woman's human body) is already on the Throne with his Older Member getting him started upon completing the birth of their student body.

To rule goes with the Throne task, which has to do with taking each member of the student body, his/their litter through their individual “birth canal,” the overcoming of their human behaviors and ways to include GIVING THEIR LIVES to include as a type of self sacrifice of their human flesh body in service to their Older Member, as first taught in the Moses encampment by the sacrifice of animal flesh.

The Luciferian space aliens have seen to it that this premise that human flesh is anything but a temporary condition is forced upon humans to where it seems like a barbaric consideration to talk about self sacrifice of one's flesh body. Where the Luciferians have also programmed many humans to think sacrificing one's flesh is NOT a barbaric action, but is a heroic action is when it is for a fellow human or for the government or even for a spiritual idea, like to protest war or injustice or as one's duty to protect one's family and country as in wars, even aggressive wars not even in clearly defensive waring, a different thing altogether. Thus the difference is whether one's sacrifice is for the real Kingdom of God/Heaven or for anything else, but essentially of the human kingdom. With this said the Kingdom of God/Heaven does teach humans to prepare to give their all to the Older Member assigned them by their provision of service, even to the degree of giving ones life for one's neighbor as Jesus indicated and gave such instruction as he was exiting that incarnation as it was clear to him none of his students at that time were ready to be “born.” He said they needed to be born (of flesh) again, in order to be born of spirit (Soul) later upon his return.

Jesus said his angels would return and do the gathering out of the kingdom all that offend. These are the first fruit Souls who were harvested returning as said in Rev 19:14-15 but here as well:

Mat 13:41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; Mat 13:42 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

This furnace of fire is the same as the Lake of Fire which doesn't happen until after all have had a chance to decide who to give their allegiance to. Today as humans kill humans they are assisting the Next Level with gathering out the offenders and those who do iniquity. Killing humans is iniquity of the first order. Humans have no right to kill another human.

Do addresses this in the USA Today Info Ad published on May 27, 1993
(paraphrased to avoid copyright laws):

Do says humans had an instruction that they shall not kill other humans. He says doing so claiming “defense” is no excuse. Also killing because they believe they are in the right is not an excuse. Do indicates that the world's governmental systems continue to make rules to permit breaking Gods laws.
He says that weapons designed to kill others is inexcusable. He says there are a number of ways to control someone who is acting violently. They don't have to be murdered. However he says the killers end up sending their victims to where they want to go - what they believe they will get when they die regardless of how illusionary it is. He says humans determine which “heaven” they go to by their desires and attachments or by the desires and attachments they don't have (like to the Next Level) - what they don't wish to overcome.

Mat 13:43 Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

The English phrase, “Caught up”* in all it's 13 usages, has zero evidence that the application of this catching up is a synonym for a student's physical body ascension as has become popularized among certain Christians, spoken of as “rapture,” based on Paul's usage:

1Th 4:17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

A far more accurate meaning and in context of the way this phrase is used refers to the Kingdom of God/Heaven's procedure for “catching” a human vehicle that was prepared ahead in unseen ways, to become a host for the incarnation, which is the process of taking over such a human vehicle for their task. In a sense the Kingdom of God/Heaven Older Members are like ranchers who are looking for horses they can offer training to, that would enable them to be in their service. So, for instance, they would capture or catch x amount of wild horses and try to tame them and for the ones that respond well to the taming, train them for their service, letting the others return to their herd.

Jesus refers to this “catching” as “fishing for men (humans)” to make what the catch become the vehicles the present student Souls are to take to advance to their next grade in school.

This equally applies to the way the returning saints (students who passed their last grade in the overcoming classroom, as those with Jesus) must take over human vehicles to bring themselves to harvest by the hands on teachings of the incarnate Older Members midwife like/harvesters (Two Witnesses).

In this verse, the “woman,” the Father, has the task to be the primary instrument of helping her chosen partner, the Older Member Soul that was last named Jesus to incarnate into the human vehicle they chose. An incarnation is actually like capturing that human vehicle. The vehicle needs to have some preparation to receive such an Older Member's Mind. Their invisible presence around that vehicle before the awakening is scheduled familiarizes the vehicle for the time when they need to become fully awakened.

That awakening is like giving that human vehicle smelling salts to awaken the combination of it's genetic memory together with it's learned conscious memory so that it will begin to recognize the same quality that all Minds from the Kingdom of God/Heaven have in common. In this plan, the Soul, the Father, was barely occupying her chosen human vehicle, a woman who then becomes the primary instrument to facilitate bringing her “son” into his awakening that they would then complete together as it takes time to awaken and not fry the vehicle's circuits with truth. But the reference to being caught is not being stated again. It refers to their children/offspring needing to be caught. These Two Older Members caught themselves away from their world. They didn't have anyone catch them away.

So Ti and Do as is the plan also must leave their former human lives behind so in that way are also “caught away” from their worldliness. The entire task is to be the examples of the same stages their students must also make happen. Ti's vehicle had a husband and three children and a career as a registered nurse and other normal human activities. Do, though he had been divorced years before that had a career in music and teaching among being very active socially in Houston's high society. After a great deal of difficulty dealing with the changes going on in their own heads and in relationship to all the humans they associated with and knew in friends, family, children, spouses, employers, etc. it was like being caught away by a whirlwind of fire I would imagine. On January 1, 1973 they left and never looked back, except Ti kept in touch with her oldest daughter Terri by way of three letters over 12 years, but perhaps more Terri didn't talk about.

Rev 3:21 To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

This is literal in that Jesus is saying those who overcome get to sit with him just as he sits with his Father. This an certainly have a literal nature to it. They might literally all sit around a table together on board a spacecraft or in a meeting/conference room the same way humans do in offices when they have something to hold a briefing or strategy session about. But to sit on a throne is to say they are a king, which Jesus is saying all who overcome become.

Do spoke of Ti as his “Father” not as a title, never as her name, but in reference to her being his Older Member:

From Beyond Human, The Last Call - Session 12: Do said: (paraphrased to not conflict with copyright laws):

Do speaks of his Father (Ti) coming with him as an unbelievable privilege. He indicates how Ti awakened him, set things up to get started and helped him when he encountered rough spots in what had become a very complicated world. He said he didn't know why Ti came to help him at first, saying maybe he needed to have his help. He didn't know if Jesus didn't need help to perform that task. Do said he was suspicious that Jesus may have had a physical relationship with his Father that was never recorded in the Bible. He remembered in their first few weeks together Ti said as a question having the feeling that she was to give him something and then go back. Do didn't know what she meant then but then when she left her vehicle he understood what she was feeling. He expressed how Ti's exit ahead of him was difficult but it was for his benefit as this task was also his growth opportunity so he is thankful for it. He said that is the formula for growth for everyone who wants to get closer to the Next Level. They have a problem that's difficult to deal with. That can be in the getting rid of misinformation or other human thinking that if we persist to move forward from yields “overcoming.”

Thus Their Own Children are with these Two right from the start after they first awaken.

Rev 12:6 And the woman fled ((G5343 pheugo= to vanish, escaped)) into the wilderness*1 ((G2048 eremos from chora from chasma= solitary, lonely, desolate, uninhabited, as a noun, a place, a desert, a wilderness, deserted places, uncultivated region fit for pasturage)) where she hath ((2192 echo= to hold, be(able, hold, possessed with), accompany, begin to amend, conceive, count)) a place ((5117 topos= a spot, rock, condition, opportunity, a scabbard)) prepared ((2090 hetoimazo= to prepare, make ready)) of ((575 apo= away [from humans/world], because of, for, with)) God*2 ((2316 theos= a deity [Older Member in the Next Level])), that ((2443 hina= (demonstrative idea), in order that)) (they should) feed*3 ((5142 trepho= rear, bring up, nourish, stiffen, fatten, pamper)) her ((846 autos= them [their flock/student body])) there a thousand two hundred and threescore days ((2250 hemera= to sit for a period)).

*1 wilderness 2048 (adjective) eremos= of uncertain affinity; lonesome, i.e. (by implication) waste (usually as a noun, chora 5561 being implied)= desert, desolate, solitary, wilderness.

5561 chora= feminine of a derivative of the base of chasma 5490 through the idea of empty expanse; room, i.e. a space of territory (more or less extensive; often including its inhabitants)= coast, county, fields, ground, land, region.

5490 chasma= from a form of an obsolete primary chao (to “gape” or “yawn”); a “chasm” or vacancy (impassable interval)= gulf.

In Isa 21:1, “The burden of the desert/wilderness of the sea” describes Babylon as a place of discipline to God's people who are gathered amidst tribulations (times of trouble)**1 further born out by Ezekiel where the “wilderness”**2 areas, the uninhabited areas become the geography in which the student body has a “face to face,” pleading**3 relationship with the human incarnate representative from the Kingdom of God, as was the case in this context referring to Moses in Egypt.**4 This wilderness area is where the chosen are taken by the Lord's Rep to deliver their lesson plan to help them keep the covenant**5 they want to keep that enables their eventual SPIRIT BIRTH that Jesus spoke of and that Revelations Chapter 14 depicts in “harvest” terminology. That “way” or process, (passing under the rod/rules instructions) in it's early stage of a complete overcoming of human ways to replace them with Kingdom of God ways entails a significant amount of self discipline (mind over body - but not distorted into feats of sport or entertainment or shows of physical strength or for any human cause, but according to what is given by the incarnate Older Members who teach and demonstrate taking over of one's vehicle, making it as a trained horse for the service of the Soul occupier by conquering human behavior and ways - pride, passions, etc.) of the participants**6 and in that process purges out those who are rebellious**7 as they are geared to re-establish previous covenants, agreements that in so doing deepens one's commitment to Kingdom of God crew mentality and service.

**1 Eze 20:33 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out, will I rule over you: Eze 20:34 And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out.

**2 Eze 20:35 And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there will I plead with you face to face.

**3,**4 Eze 20:36 Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord GOD.

**5,**6 Eze 20:37 And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant:

**7 Eze 20:38 And I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me: I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

Note that these terms “wilderness,” or “dry area,” as “uninhabited areas” refers to different geographic areas, depending on where the student body are being brought to.

In the Old Testament with Moses, wilderness referred to the Arabian Sinai desert and then the next time in the area around Judea where Jesus primarily circulated. Thus the idea that during the new age Jesus spoke of it would naturally follow to a new location as it's geared to be where the Souls taking human bodies to overcome them would be taken to by the Older Members to experience what Ti and Do called an accelerated next lesson step.

Since there is significant evidence of the United States being that new nation with it's largely migrant genetic stock of people, naturally this would be where the Two Witnesses would primarily circulate during their time of their delivery of their prophecy. That period is what Ezekiel is recording as the Lord's “gathering” and where Jesus said he was looking for the Lost sheep of the house of Israel (those who seek to “prevail as Jehovah,” aka Israelis that Do said meant, “those who become overcomers”).

*2 God - This “wilderness” area seems to correspond to a part of the area called the “Temple” as an area “prepared of God” or perhaps better translated to SPOT OR ROCK (earth) TO MAKE READY, AWAY from the World of Humans BECAUSE OF, FOR, WITH OLDER MEMBERS IN THE NEXT LEVEL in order to DEMONSTRATE...

*3 feed = through the idea of convolution; formally, TO STIFFEN, I.E. FATTEN (BY IMPLICATION, TO CHERISH (WITH FOOD, ETC.), PAMPER, REAR)= BRING UP, FEED, NOURISH.

Again we can see how this translation works in how the Next Level must feed the “woman” (and her newly born to the throne, thus partner on the throne “son”) but not for them but for the flock of students they are “rearing.” These two Older Members are not on Earth for a vacation. They sort of get that after they're done with their incarnate task. They are here to bring their students to their graduation, termed the Harvest which is why one of the most pertinent words in the list of definitions of the Greek “trepho” is “rear” as in rearing young.

These Two Older Members provide nourishment from the content of their Mind/Spirit in practical/applicable instructional information (the word) step by step that shows how they are going to conquer their root system of human attachments and addictions to human affection, sexuality, pleasures, self importance, substances, being right and correct, responsibilities, even to humanitarian, environmental, spiritual (self improvement), religiosity, etc. because even though all these characteristics and activities were good to get them to this point, but needed to be shed from their energy expenditure. Their energy needed to be directed to their Older Members by adhering, abiding by every “jot and tittle” of what Ti and Do called “procedures,” behaviors and ways (laws, commandments, covenants) as they were provided. Not every student needed every particular way of detaching their energy flow from their previous human kingdom expenditure but by following all they are given they continue to strengthen their new attachment to their Next Level “vine” (Family), what Ti and Do spoke of as a “graft.”

The desert like area is less inhabited by humans and thus less inhabited by discarnates - spirits, who gravitate to living humans and such would present even bigger tests to the student body's success, before they would have taken a firm stand. The students, having left their human lives behind to follow with these Two had enough on their plates as each one had their own discarnates that had attached to them in degrees since the birth of their human vehicles. This is normal for all humans that they actually become like host computer servers for discarnate programs, (spirits) that seek to feel alive by playing their programmed wants, needs, beliefs or unbeliefs through a living human being.

When the Kingdom of God/Heaven tags a human being, seeing it as a possible host for a returning elder student (saint)'s Soul, that human begins to make decisions about all areas of their life that are based less on tradition and the way they were raised and more on what they learn and understand and recognize as progress, in both behaviors and ways. Of course this would translate in all different ways for each one, that could also include becoming rebellious of any authority (parents, teachers, government, etc.) and even engaging in various criminality. In other words, their dissatisfactions can lead them into all sorts of circumstances. However, even if they fall or fail in various ways, if they continue to seek Next Level help in whatever terminology, they are given additional chances to rise out of their circumstances so they can advance their relationship with the Next Level. For those that find themselves in prison that might take the shape of getting out early on parole for good behavior and even serving the Next Level from within the prison walls.

When Do had made the Beyond Human video tapes and then put the 1/3 page info-ad into both the national and international edition of USA Today that was packed with information in tiny print that was titled, "UFO CULT" RESURFACES WITH FINAL OFFER' on May 27, 1993 and then come June to September published a version of this same info/ad in 20 weekly and monthly alternative newspapers that circulated in 49 U.S., Canadian, Australian, New Zealand, England and Scotland cities, a post office box was included that readers could write to if they wanted more information. I would venture to guess over a hundred people wrote for more information and the more serious among them were sent Beyond Human tapes for free and a list of guidelines for those seriously considering joining our "class." Do and crew wrote in the "blue" and "purple" books they published after 1996 (these two books are nearly identical) that, "This particular type of classroom experience is no longer offered." However at that time as it turned out we corresponded with several who were in maximum security prisons, sometimes saying for nothing more than a non-violent drug offense. And there were quite a number of queries for more information from Australia in particular. I can picture the Next Level crew who were not incarnate but were involved in implementing this step, being aware of those in prison that in their own way were seeking closeness from the Next Level, suggesting to the wardens to provide certain newspapers to their prisoners and then when this info/ad came along, making sure those who were asking for help got a chance to see it. For the same reason, the Next Level could stimulate the recent push to release non-violent prisoners and change the sentencing patterns that impose very harsh sentences with no exceptions, taking away a judges discretion on what kind of sentence might be fitting for the context of the crime.

The first task of the students that choose to be with these Two is to "leave all behind" which is a huge step that they get a lot of help from the invisible Next Level Helper Crew to do. However, the next step is for each of them to disseminate the information brought by these TWO. The third is to "clean their house," in other words get rid of all the discarnates that would continue to try to express themselves and thereby "influence" their behavior and ways. This is actually where the idea of "baptism" came from. Water represents our flesh body and it is by use of that “water” body that we cleanse our Mind/Spirit of our human behaviors and ways that includes all the discarnate spirits that cohabit with all humans in a time share kind of way based on what each of us decides to make our own by enacting in thought, word and deed. When we first awaken, as portrayed when each disciple comes into physical contact with their Older Member, it's like a smelling salt. The Next Level is blessing us with the help to clean our slate to start fresh. Jesus stimulated that type of ceremony because it helps the vehicle to have something to do associated with the lesson to be learned. There are more of these kinds of ceremonies for the younger souls to grow by as seen in the Jehovah/Moses Classroom. By the time of Ti and Do's classroom, there were no ceremonies as the students didn't need to do things as representations to adopt further Next Level behaviors and ways. This is why those humans who are coming awake look at the religious and even political pomp and ceremony and representations as primitive. These gravitate to what's most real, though that can include understanding what a ceremony or festival or practice was given to help humans stimulate in the Next Level school.

TI (WOMAN) AND HER SON, DO (SHE BIRTHED TO THE THRONE) AND THOSE THEY ARE TO “REAR” ENTER THE WYOMING WILDERNESS IN JULY 1976 AND LEAVE WILDERNESS LIVING ABOUT 1260 DAYS LATER AS PROPHESED.

After Ti and Do left the Houston, Texas vicinity on January 1, 1973 they traveled the U.S. and Canada for about 17 months before speaking to a group in North Hollywood, Los Angeles, California in April of 1975. A couple dozen who were among over a hundred who attended the private meetings asked to accept them as students which they reluctantly accepted to start their student body and also became the start of giving public meetings that same August 24th at Canada College in Redwood City, California. The auditorium was filled to capacity for two back-to-back meetings. (The Students had given a meeting on August 13th at Stanford University in Palo Alto and before that some smaller meetings). With their new students increasing with each meeting, that were primarily in cities west of the Mississippi River and the meetings all over the U.S. that student groups gave, they all eventually ceased giving meetings when Ti announced at the Manhattan, Kansas meeting on April 21, 1976 that “The Harvest is over” that brought their 1260 day prophecy period to a close. They had about a hundred remaining students that had survived the previous months on the road who were organized by then into 4 - 6 groups. (I was separated from any groups from late October of 1975 til around March of 1976, when I so called accidentally went to a library in Oklahoma City, where Ti and Do were speaking at a meeting. I, with my partner who used the name Dandy and later became Dndody (but who left the group some years later, never to return thereafter) had been hitchhiking all over the mid west from Brownsville, Texas to Madison, Wisconsin and Denver, Colorado to Montpelier, Vermont and all states in between, so didn't know there were organized groups).

When the groups finished their meeting schedules sometime in May to early June there was a brief couple weeks of inactivity Ti and Do called “tomb time” when each student was instructed to spend most of their time alone in their tent seeking private communion with the Level Above Human, expressing their desire to become purified. We were to be quite and contemplative about the process we had engaged by joining with Ti and Do. There was no dogma or paraphernalia or out loud talking or mantras or positions to sit in or talismans to focus on or words to say.

Students went about their daily chores though also were to spend considerable time alone whether in their tent or in the woods alone to not have other distractions, which is where it seems the idea of being in a type of “tomb” came in. Looking back however, it seems “tomb” could have referred to the fact that the entire endeavor according to Ti and Do was likened to a caterpillar (human) becoming a butterfly (Member of the Next Level) and how that process was actually killing off our humanness to include disconnecting from all our root systems. I remember Ti and Do saying that humans were plants that had root systems, even though one can't see them, and only generally understanding it, though now see all kinds of examples, especially when my vehicle became a daddy.

My now x-human partner and I worked together on the birth with a midwife in our home in Carmel, New York. When our daughter was born she was set on my chest with her umbilical chord still attached. The next day I was holding her and it hit me like a ton of bricks that the idea of reincarnation was what I was seeing before my eyes AND that it included seeing myself in her. That was the beginning of really coming to understand that root system. Detaching from her as Ti and Do are invisibly and gradually allowing me to do is quite painful but I know it must be. It has helped to remind myself that all humans must detach at some point either from our own death or theirs, so it becomes a matter of how and when and most importantly why. If we leave it to nature we don't really learn to overpower the emotion that comes from the disconnect. We may survive it as it often happens in stages as they grow up and begin to have their own life direction that many times takes them to far away lands. But if/when we detach so to give more of our life (energy, time, love) to service to our Older Members, it's still painful but there couldn't be a better use for that pain for both ourselves and for our offspring as they as part of our root system can benefit in their relationship with the Next Level. I have not raised my daughter to believe in any of this but I have tried to help her as she asks questions. The other day she asked me if she was a Christian. I had introduced her to a Christian group where she made some friends. I didn't agree with a lot of what they taught but then again it was well meaning so I figured it will give her the opportunity to choose what to believe by being exposed to what they taught. I ended up showing her that having a relationship with "God" has nothing to do with going to church, though for those that do so, can be the best way they know how to foster their relationship with the Next Level creators, thus better than nothing. Of course it can also become a trap but then that's where choice comes in and whether or not we remain a seeker of the Next Level's will for us or not. If we begin to think that most all of our communion with "God" comes from reading the records of his incarnate presences, then we missed the essential communication that only comes by privately seeking our Next Level Older Member's Mind/Spirit by the only real "prayer" that involves asking for help to know the truth about something and help to grow closer by learning what "His" will is for each of us day by day.

LITERALLY GATHERING IN THE WILDERNESS:

After about two weeks of "Tomb Time" Ti and Do issued the instruction for the groups to gather in the area called Medicine Bow National Forest which is situated on National Forest lands east of Laramie, Wyoming, just off of Interstate 80, in a rough, no facility area where rustic camping was permitted that was called Vedauwoo campground. This was totally undeveloped land where no one lived anywhere close to. There were no water supplies, no outhouses or toilets, no canteens, no signage, no trails - just raw land with a few dirt roads.

The terrain was more or less a high desert plateau, with swaths of small timber evergreens, bushes and large protruding rock formations scattered about the slightly rolling dry landscape. And it was dry - there were no creeks that had water to be found. We had to drive a number of miles to a filling station to fill up their 5-6 gallon water jugs. We had tents and when the snows came we traveled south to Texas, where Ti and Do's vehicle's came from and found areas on BLM and National Forest and sometime private ranch-lands they could arrange or lease for the group. Then when spring came around we'd travel as a convoy back to either Wyoming or Northern Colorado, in the same general vicinity. During that time frame we also spent a brief amount of time once in Mississippi and one time in Kansas, two times in Utah generally south of Salt Lake City in the mountains above Toole, Utah and a couple years later in the mountains above Provo, Utah and a brief time in New Mexico totally 3-4 years in "wilderness" areas before eventually moving into houses in suburban areas of large cities where there were jobs. Since I remember arriving at Veedavou in Wyoming by July 4, 1976 and we were living in houses before I took my first job in Kerrville, Texas around late in 1980 it seems very, very close to having spent 1260 days, the timing given in this prophecy, in the wilderness areas, living in tents in wide open ranch lands and in National Forests and BLM land.

"VEDAUWOO" (Earth Born) CAMPGROUND IN "MEDICINE BOW NATIONAL FOREST," "wilderness" area, names that have prophetic implications, no doubt planned ahead of time by the Next Level Crew:

RE: "Medicine Bow":

Ti and Do often talked about the students being given "medicine." Medicine was information and tasks that tested a student's choices of resolve and self control over the content of their brain/mind and subsequent behavior and ways. A student who had left all behind to be with Ti and Do was expected to cut off all their thoughts of their past, whether they were positives or negatives didn't matter. This way, the student would have a fresh start in which to build their new mind by "pulling" from the minds of their teachers, Ti and Do. Pulling from their minds was following their instructions while asking for and learning specific ways in which they would deal with problems or how to do something as well as how they would think about anything.

Ti and Do would come to their student body with new material they would call a “lesson step” to absorb. It could be a new concept, a correction of a behavior and/or way that was unlike a member of the Next Level or a task that might be challenging to some who might not see it's value for them to do, thus testing whose mind they wanted to follow. A student was taught how to listen - not allowing one's mind to wander elsewhere but hanging on their teacher's every word instead of determining as one hears the words what they believe and what they don't or having side stories play in one's “computer” (brain) while in meeting with them, that all diminishes totally listening. Ti and Do took the position that they were the teachers and the students there wanted to be in their classroom, thus students needed to adhere to all that they required of them, or they were free to not be in their classroom. They were not authoritarian about this but if they saw a student's eyes wander, they might bring it up in general at the meeting so not to put anyone on the spot but allow all the students to examine themselves or they might bring it up to a student privately at some time after the meeting or might have assigned student helpers bring it up to another student. Part of medicine was taking criticism from teachers but more regularly from one's partner, another student they'd assigned to work with. A partner becomes an essential instrument to accelerate one's growth by forcing a circumstance of working together, often with someone we would have not normally wanted to spend much time with. A partner in this context is not for comradeship but to be as a “mirror” showing each the areas of their behavior and ways that may not be as the teachers demonstrated themselves and taught was part of the lesson plan.

Partners were required and encouraged to regularly ask their partner to help them by pointing out to them ANYTHING AND EVERYTHING they see no matter how small or trivial looking, that might differ from what Ti and Do taught. Over the years partners would report to Ti and Do what one another brought up as it was often the subject of a question as to whether or not it actually was a Ti and Do Next Level behavior and/or way. In this way, Ti and Do would answer the question and instruct the ones with the question to place an entry in a steno book called a “procedure book” so the entire class could benefit as the answer given then became a “procedure.” For instance, say a partner, when they made scrambled eggs liked them wet, while the other liked them dry. If this was never covered by Ti and Do then they could write it as a question to Ti and Do that could get to them daily. Ti and Do would take all the questions and reports they asked for and decide whether to have someone else answer the question for them, giving them a “messenger task,” also part of learning lessons to follow instructions without adding one's own interpretation answer it themselves in person or call a meeting to go over a number of questions with the entire group. It often didn't matter to Ti and Do how someone liked their eggs but since this task was to “follow the leader,” so to speak as that was the idea of how to take in their mind, they would establish a procedure to scramble the eggs to the consistency they felt to do, which in this case ended up being totally dry but not browned. Sometimes they would say “it doesn't matter” and then it became a test of accepting that. Every human who has been in a serious relationship, marriage or living together circumstance knows how we can easily be annoyed by what others do or don't do regardless of how big or small it is. Being annoyed needed to be overcome. Being too much a stickler for how others follow instructions can even be a lesson. For instance, it was procedure to treat ingredients we had in our “Nutri-lab” (kitchen) as if there was no limitless supply and putting together of “experiment formulas” (recipes for a meal) required precise measurements, etc. as if it was far more important than making a stew or something. So even scraping a bowl out became a lesson in being thorough but getting every tiny morsel would be an extreme that some had a hard time differentiating between. Everything we did day and night thereby became under scrutiny from our partners and some had a pleasant and tolerant attitude while others were so disturbed by another's lack of attention to detail they are almost angry bringing up a question to the other.

Over the years there were hundreds of procedures and these not only taught someone to conform to another but taught how to cooperate with another and how to learn the teachers standards and approach to any task as these tasks ended up being seen as a preparation to be on a Next Level spacecraft doing tasks in a laboratory like environment working with substances and procedures that were critical to get right, and not blow up the spacecraft because of taking a chance, for instance.

Ti compared the lesson steps they gave us to a “piano roll” to where each lesson was like a note that was added to the previous notes. A student that abides by all the lessons was playing the entire piano roll of notes, not dropping any or adding to what they were given.

Sometimes lessons were simply tests of our resolve and commitment and energy overriding various vehicular discomforts. We might have an instruction to move the camp and it might be very hot or very cold so was hard to get going or not be short tempered under stress. We could have tents being blown down and some would just stay in their sleeping bag in their tent while they knew others were trying to keep tents from collapsing. There were no obvious rewards to those that put out more effort but it did show who was giving into their vehicle and it's comfort level and who wasn't.

There were situations of flooding and blizzards, intense heat and intense cold, yet each student was expected to take a sponge bath every day washing their vehicle from head to toe. It wasn't that bad as most times we had a Coleman stove to heat the tent and the water. No one actually watched us take these baths. Along with using the commode, it was one of the only times we had absolute privacy so it also became a time when we could choose to shortcut certain procedures or do things we knew were not according to procedure. Deceit, giving into sexuality and/or knowingly breaking a procedure were all considered to be a "major offenses" and grounds to be asked to leave the classroom. We were expected to move quickly but with gentleness, be keen in our observations. There was no social life. No chit chatting and gossip was also an offense. Do said that Ti was very quick yet to observe her you wouldn't know she was being quick because the reason she was quick was because of no wasted motion. It can seem that this was very military like but there was no sternness or abrasive or angry vibration ever from Ti and Do. I saw Ti what I would call frustrated a time or two during a few meetings but never in the midst of day to day activity. Her frustration came from not knowing how to motivate us when some were not showing their intent to move quickly in their growth.

All these little hardships were medicine. If the students swallowed the medicine gladly they did their tasks and did not complain and always tried to improve upon what they did before. None were so hard that anyone's life or physical or mental well being was in jeopardy but it could certainly be a challenge if one was tired or rebellious feeling. If they overcame those responses and didn't have any outbursts or try to hide from certain chores and sought to correct their less than ideal behavior and ways, as no one was perfect, then they were absorbing the medicine and it would aid their changeover to the new "butterfly" like being that was described as the new body growing within their human vehicle.

THE TERM BOW HAS TO DO WITH THE COVENANT (AGREEMENT) THE LORD MADE EARLY ON WITH THE “CHILDREN OF ISRAEL” AND WITH ABRAHAM BEFORE THAT. Such a covenant was also made between the Lord and Noah not to destroy the earth again by flood. (The next time would be by heat as spading the Earth, disposing of weeds, re-tilling the soil and planting new seeds is a regular task for the Kingdom of God/Heaven.)

VEDANTA, the name of the rustic camping area we first lived within, I learned while writhing this book means, “Earth Born.” Thus together with Medicine Bow it would mean that through the taking of their medicine (lessons to overcome by) they will have satisfied the covenant (rain-bow) to be born of Soul/Spirit from the Earth's human kingdom into the Next Level Kingdom in the heavens.

Rev 12:7 And there was ((1096 ginomai= to be, continue, come/brought to pass, befall, arise the generation)) war ((4171 polemos= from pelomai= to bustle, battle, fight)) in ((1722 en= about, against, before, because of, for the sake of, under)) heaven ((3772 ouranos= their Older Members, their graduation into the Kingdom of Heaven located in the elevated areas from the sky to outer space where the membership circulate)): Michael* ((4317 miyka'el= who is like God, guardian angel of the Israeli's (overcomers))) and his angels ((32 aggelos= messengers, envoys)) fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,

Rev 12:8 And prevailed ((2480 ischuo from ischus 2579= to have (or exercise) force much work; be able, avail, can do, be good, might, be of strength, be whole)) not; neither was their place ((5117 topos= a spot, or space with limited occupancy, fig. condition, opportunity, license)) found ((2147 heurisko= obtainable, get, perceive, see)) any more in heaven.

FIRST OF ALL THE “WAR” OR “BATTLE” SPOKEN OF HERE IS A FIGHT OVER SOULS. Saying it's fought in the heavens seems to potentially include all perspectives of “heaven” - the “elevated areas” as in the sky and the heights, from the perspective of elevation, from the Hebrew _shamayim which is a plural form and other usages of “heaven” including the “starry heavens in Deut 17:3 and Mat 24:29, the “heaven of heavens” aka “the third

(and highest) heaven” according to the Jewish Talmud, the word of mouth teachings that sometimes provide some interesting perspectives.

That first heaven includes what takes place in the heads/mind of all those who seek to be included in the “harvest” whether they are fully conscious of it or not. We are each doing that every time we choose not to participate in behavior and ways that are against what the Next Level has taught. For instance believing in there being any right time for a human to kill another human. This would include manipulating others to kill for us as in the military, etc. Ti and Do did not feel that euthanasia was killing someone. If someone wants to die they should be allowed to die though that's not to say we shouldn't try to help someone who may think they want to die to reconsider doing so. The situation Ti and Do referred to was when someone was on their physical deathbed or facing their remaining life in bed, pumped full of drugs to manage pain and not about someone who is distraught with the direction their life is going.

Ti and Do did talk about how as some get older and the vehicle is breaking down, losing it's memory and/or physical facilities their “influences,” since that vehicle can no longer function for their needs/desires will leave. When they leave it, also a good deal of the motivation to live leaves with the influence. But the overview I got from what they said about this was that once the vehicle ceases to have the capacity to grow towards future Next Level membership, that requires having experiences and interactions with other, making choices, seeking to improve the ways we fall short, raising our standards, etc., then that vehicle may not have the potential to come out of that mindset. Thus if they want to die, it may be both the compassionate thing to let them go rather than using technologies to keep them alive indefinitely for our benefit. However, I don't believe Ti and Do would approve of someone else taking their life, yet they might not consider it a “missing of the mark/goal” (sin) should someone out of true compassion for another facilitating another's exit. I don't know and I don't think Ti and Do even felt they could make that decision while incarnate as it's irreversible in one way and Ti and Do always said to not make irreversible decisions until we were totally sure. Though they would not wait to be sure. They would take reversible steps and see how they feel.

Do is called a murderer by some who think he manipulated his 38 student to end their human lives. I know there is no evidence of any manipulation. Of course those who believed what he said can appear to others who don't believe as being manipulated. That was the same as it was with Jesus and any of the incarnations of Members of the Next Level during an experiment, because those who are not prepared to believe don't stand much of a chance if any to believe in the same way those who were prepared can. That's why there are stages to graduation. Some at this time may still be able to graduate the twelfth grade in the 12 grade scenario but many more are probably working on getting to the twelfth grade though as Ti and Do taught, they don't hold anyone back from giving all they want to give.

Also what many don't know is how carefully scrutinized each student with Ti and Do were over the years and especially after Ti left - she still remained integral to the completion of the harvest of the first fruits students. Rev 12:14 shows this, but I'll wait to get to it before expanding that viewpoint.

Our enemy in that war are discarnate spirits that Ti and Do called "influences" and the "lower forces." It's the "spirit world" and also the areas where the space aliens circulate in the sky and possibly includes the upper atmosphere. Do said they were limited and were not really "space aliens" because they can't travel into the parts of space where Next Level members circulate.

The war is in our minds as a battle of what we do or don't believe along with how much of the formula of overcoming we can adopt that the lower forces will always try to reduce in us. The Next Level Older Members are tolerant and forgiving but from our point of view we must not assume so. What we can be assured of is that the Older Members will give us many opportunities to show them our resolve, but if we never do we can't expect to be kept by them for a future opportunity to overcome our humanness. Ti and Do said the formula to be born into the Next Level Kingdom was first provided by Jesus though the groundwork was laid starting with those called Adam and Eve.

The students that are being fought over are primarily the returned "saints" and the human bodies Do later said they "borrowed" to complete their overcoming through.

MICHAEL - To be detailed below, this is the name of the "Son of God" before he was incarnate as Jesus and perhaps before any of his incarnations.

It means “he who like God (Almighty)”

Evidence that the Archangel Michael (First/Reigning of Jehovah's Crew), Jehovah's Son (Prince), Lucifer's rival, Assigned Guardian of Israelites Covenant and Anointed (Christ/Jesus) whose voice (trumpet) gives rise to the resurrection (incarnation) of the Saints in the Last Day with the Father (“Woman”) giving Voice to Their Prophecy as the Two Witnesses (True Martyrs as those who give their lives in the Next Level's service as opposed to heightening a “spiritual ego”):

Why was the name “Michael” given here instead of telling us directly that this was the Lamb? Notice also that throughout the Book of Revelations the name Jesus is only used twice. The Next Level is not particularly interested in promoting any one of their members. The names they choose are “task names.” According to Do, they are not the names they refer to one another by when they are on their spacecrafts and/or laboratories. The ones who come incarnate are not told the names they had before they were incarnate, which is their true self. The incarnations are all temporary and names associated with them are also temporary, given so the incarnate representatives, to include the student returnees can have clues to help them see the overall plan and future plans and to be able to help others see all the correlations as are being provided many of now.

In particular, Michael, the name used here is given to help us, in the Last Day, (the reason for these prophecies) to understand the former relationships in the scriptural records pertaining to the main rivalry of this particular individual, then named Michael against Lucifer (Satan, the Devil). That record indicates Michael as the Son of God (Jehovah's Prince) has the assigned task position of Archangel, (first or Chief or captain of the angels) on Jehovah/The Father's crew in the nurturing of the overcomers (Israelis - those who prevail as Jehovah) in the covenant they formed with Jehovah administered through the incarnation as Moses.

Jesus said he was the first and the last, which can be found to have a number of applications:

Rev 22:13 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

There are a number of scriptures that indicate that this one called Michael was working for his Older Member to be groomed to have his own offspring, thus to become a parent for the first time which is why his name was at that time “who is LIKE God,” “God” being, his Older Member parent who ushered/birthing him into Adult Next Level Membership. No telling when He received the name Michael but I have reason suspect it was in a prior civilization on Earth, well before the flood and the start of the experiment known as the Adam and Eve events.

I know there are Christians who abhor any hint that Jesus was also growing or that he was a created being. They have become hung up in thinking that makes Jesus lessor when it doesn't imply that in any way. Adam was a created being. Eve was taken from Adam. The humans that existed before Adam was created were not “created” in the same way that describes. They came about via reproduction of their species. Where did the first two come from is not without our capacity to understand. But not understanding that doesn't negate all we have been given to understand. So Adam didn't come about by a reproductive process. Perhaps it was a laboratory. Perhaps his physical body was “grown” on a vine as Do indicated was the case. But according to Ti and Do all Older and Younger Members of the Next Level are always growing and what that means is related to the tasks they can now perform in their gardening tasks. So it seems that Michael was the name a very advanced Member of the Next Level had at one time, perhaps at the start of the civilization with Adam, who forfeited whatever kind of physical body he had to try to start a relationship with the new created vehicle named Adam. And he failed that setup task but then was restored to his position as an Older Member of the Next Level to exit as Enoch in being “taken” because he “Walked with his Older Member (God).” Perhaps after he exited each incarnation he went back to being called Michael at least in the records.

Here are some of those scriptures:

Jesus said it would be his voice that raises the dead in the hour that's coming as was also happening when he was incarnate:

Joh 5:25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.
Joh 5:26 For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

Joh 5:27 And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man.

Joh 5:28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

Joh 5:29 And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

Paul indicates the same things in 1Th 4:16-17 which is why it can be counted upon from Paul, as there are many things he says that don't correlate to something Jesus was quoted to have said by those who were first hand witnesses:

1Th 4:16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

1Th 4:17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

This is depicting the two harvest WAVES but is interesting as Lord can be referring to God the Father who descends using his Son, His Prince the younger of the Two Witnesses, but both being our Lords or better termed Older Member's "voice," thus he is in charge of the delivery of the prophecy during the time They are incarnate while the content of his voice is according to the instruction of God the Father via the depiction of a trumpet. And it's those who had died previously in service to the Christ, the task performed by the Older Member in the name of Jesus that are the saints returning that rise first as the first fruits of harvest.

Then it seems Paul assumed this would either happen then while his vehicle was still alive or that he would be in a vehicle at the time that this was to happen, to where he would be caught up into the clouds, but he was missing the point that it is always a "spirit/mind birth" FOR NEW BIRTHS, depicted by Jesus comparing spirit/mind to the wind's invisibility yet still can be felt to know it's there and therefore has physical qualities we just can't see which can be compared to a Soul. The translators often interchanged Soul and Spirit and Mind (is rarely used, though it's part of the translation options for Greek pneuma.

Ti and Do equated Mind with Spirit and spoke of a Soul as the container given to some that is like a seed that is germinated by exposure to the most recent Older Member's information and choosing to follow that Older Member's teachings and instructions that brings more of Their Mind/Spirit into our Soul container and which is what is born into the Next Level at the death of the human (caterpillar like) vehicle. A Mind/Spirit without that container can't be born into the Next Level in that way, to that degree though it seems from what Do has said that human Minds/Spirits can also be saved by the Next Level for their future opportunity though I don't know the mechanics of how that works.

One's Spirit is the human body's emanation of mind so is filled with human attachments to mammalian, appropriate to human kingdom behavior and ways...species propagation and various forms of sensuality; sexuality, family roots, human pleasures and pursuits not found in the Kingdom of God/Heaven that need to be overcome/conquered to be awarded adult membership in the Kingdom but is provided as a gradual lesson plan to rise up to.

In any case this seems to be the same “voice of the Archangel” and as shown Michael is tied to being that Archangel - the “voice of the son of god” in Joh 5:25.

Jud 1:9 Yet Michael the archangel ((743 archaggelos= chief angel, first in rank and power, reign (rule) over)), when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.

This indicates this angel is in a primary task as “first angel” with reign and rule, which is said of a Christ's role as well and no one else, but is a function of whoever has the task of taking the Throne that as we see Jehovah/Father's Son (Jesus, the lamb) is caught to. The Throne is essentially the representation of “headquarters” on the ground.

And then in Daniel there are a number of references to Michael being the Prince and the Prince being the Christ. (See section II.A.5.g for the evaluation of Dan 12 for many prophecy fulfillment cross references.)

Dan 12:6-7 And one said to the man clothed ((3847 labash= the physical body they wrap around their Soul)) in linen ((fine quality vehicle)), which was upon the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders? And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and swore by him that liveth for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished to SCATTER THE POWER OF THE HOLY PEOPLE, all these things shall be finished.

- “clothed” - a way of depicting that this individual has a PHYSICAL BODY as to the Kingdom of God/Heaven they as a Soul are actually physical though can change their VIBRATIONS (implicated by the reports of Jesus disappearing, reappearing and yet able to be touched “handled,” by His disciple, Thomas who Jesus told to touch his still visible wounds as further proof. After some 40 days of such proves to included hovering over a stormy sea's waves, upon his exit the 11+ disciples then all at the same time witnessed his physical body rising up into the sky to be received by a cloud. This was a demonstration of his metamorphosis from a purely terrestrial physical body, like the caterpillar into a flesh body with new properties (in this case some new mechanism) equivalent in function to the wings a butterfly has.

The realization that members of the Next Level, once they change over their body, still have a physical body, but with a new capacity, is reflected in something Paul of Tarsus wrote. He could have only come to understand this from his relationship to one or more of those, like Peter who witnessed all Jesus demonstrated about his physicality. Paul had no physical relationship with Jesus at all yet knew about the different type of body Jesus had upon rising from the dead, which was shown when he wrote about the celestial verses terrestrial body having it's own “light” (very apparent (glory), brightness). (1Co 15:39-40)

re: PHYSICAL BODY:

Luk 24:36 And as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

Luk 24:37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

Luk 24:38 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

Luk 24:39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

re: VIBRATIONS:

Luk 24:30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.

Luk 24:31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.

re: SCATTER POWER (breaking up)

Rev 13:7 And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations

Here a Luciferian is magnifying himself to the Prince of the host. That host represents the host of angels the Prince is in charge of. Thus Lucifer is in competition with the one who was Jesus, the Messiah.

Dan 8:11 Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of the sanctuary was cast down.

It is very evident that as prophecy has multiple applications and can even be seen as having multiple times and periods of application that Saul/Paul of Tarsus first fulfilled this Daniel prophecy. For instance there have been many times the Luciferians have “magnified themselves as if to step in place of the “prince of host” (Michael, incarnate as Moses, incarnate as Jesus and of late in my opinion of Do. And the same can be said of the “daily sacrifice.” That can be considered to be Jesus in that he was sacrificing himself to this primitive world every day he was incarnate and the place of the sanctuary was thrown down after Jesus exited just as it will be thrown down in it's new location at some similar time period after Ti and Do and crew exited which is depicted in Rev 14 saying Babylon is Fallen, even twice.

But regarding Paul's probable unknowing fulfillment in becoming the instrument of the Luciferians are these few examples: In the verses that follow, he calls these new believers his “sons” and their “father” saying he gave them their “birth” (begotten) and they should “be ye followers of me.” Then he indicated Timotheus as his “son” who would help these Corinthians he was writing to, remember HIS ways which he ascertains are in line with what the “Christ” said. He made himself the teacher and now we see how the first Pope was called Paul and they are all referred to as “Holy Father's” and 'vicar of Christ' which means 'instead of Christ' that is inscribed on their tiaras (their diadem wrongly associated with the same “crown” Jesus harvest graduates receive upon overcoming the human world as told in Revelations prophecy), while all priests in Catholicism take the title “Father” because of:

1Co 4:14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you.

1Co 4:15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.

1Co 4:16 Wherefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me.

1Co 4:17 For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church.

However Paul's fulfillment of trying to steal the role of Jesus became continuous and unbeknown to those that came later and believed in Jesus so they are not to necessarily be faulted but if they choose to deny the truth when it's available well then they are answerable to the Older Members.

I believe the Daily Sacrifice that is most evident IS the miracle/wonder of the incarnation of the One who was described in the Book of Genesis as the Elohim, who later awakens Moses by the “burning bush” choosing the name, Jehovah (Existing One/I Am) and then spoken of by Jesus as “The Father” (in Heaven) and to date Ti but can equally apply, as said to Jesus but then to Do and Their graduate Students. They were all continuously sacrificing what they had in the Next Level before coming to earth incarnate, though for the Students it was necessary to their having a genuine “spirit/mind (Soul) birth.”

As I've already shown Do felt it was a huge honor to have his Older Member with him incarnate. And the place of the sanctuary is the U.S. and it is in the process of being cast/thrown down from within and without.

The Daily Sacrifice that was taken away seems to be referring to the instruction Jehovah gave Moses and Aaron and the classroom to sacrifice a lamb “between the two evenings.” A day began at about 6 o'clock - at sunset so in between two of these evenings would be the dawn, roughly at 6am 12 hours and thus half way into the day. So the Daily Sacrifice took place 12 hours into the first day. Ti as one of two “lambs” as in the way Jesus is referred to as the Lamb of God, left her vehicle on the 12th year after they began to work together at the start of 1973, with their 3rd stage of awakening occurring somewhere very close to June of 1973 when they'd completely awakened, which began the literal first half of their task together because Ti exited her vehicle in June of 1985 twelve years later.

Once in their classroom, (which in whatever trimester means being with their Older Members (under their direct tutoring), they will talk to their students as needed but the work and thus growth can only occur as the students apply the lesson material they are provided. The lessons consist of putting one's vehicular past behind them and ceasing to identify with that history as “who they are.” Then simultaneously opening up to totally trusting their Older Member(s), not because they are told, but because in living with them or near them, but as a part of their followers who are together 24/7 in receipt of their instructions for all day to day activities, a student begins to absorb their example which involves accepting correction from them and from fellow students. Note the way Jesus told his disciples to not shoo the children away, using their presence to illustrate the kind of trust they must emulate. And when some complained that a woman was anointing Jesus with oil, sighting how oil was expensive and it could be sold and helped the poor with, Jesus said this action was not to be criticized, because he said, they would always have the poor, he, they would not always have and the number one instruction aka commandment Moses and Jesus taught was to give your ALL to the Lord. (That has become morphed into joining the clergy of a religious institution, which of course is an option, but to stay with such an organization would become impossible for a genuine seeker of truth and service to the Next Level because of how they end up watering down the teachings of, in this case Jesus.

In this war just as there are a number of students, there are a number of those who are by their nature adversaries (satans). These are the same as what Jesus called the “children of the wicked one”:

Mat 13:36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

Mat 13:37 He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man;

Mat 13:38 The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one;

Mat 13:39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

Mat 13:40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

Mat 13:41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity;

These tares are allowed to remain while the wheat is growing because they are then used to be like sparing partners to the one's seeking to overcome. Thus that is the battle the dragon and his angel's will cause, the angels in this case are those that side with the dragon whether they are themselves kin to the space aliens or humans who have consciously or not become kin in mindset to the space aliens.

The war will have several fronts. The biggest front is in the unseen world. The Luciferian Space Aliens are actually provided with a certain amount of access to each of the students of these Older Members. They will literally be present in spirit form and thereby allowed to transmit their thoughts and desires as temptations/influences to the students to try to entice them to fall away from their behavior and ways goals and ultimate allegiance to the Older Member's and their graduation classroom prerequisites. If the Kingdom of God/Heaven didn't monitor the situation, more students might fall away. They provide a balance while not allowing their program to become easy. They want to challenge the students to do their best but it's not up to the students to decide what their best is. The Older Members decide but the effort must come from the student to meet each challenge. Effort does go hand in hand with accomplishments, the performance of tasks for the Older Members by doing their assigned tasks in the way they are guided by the Older Members by example and by having written procedures.

Even with some who become exceedingly good at accomplishing lots of tasks, it's not necessarily evidence of a students program completion readiness because it has to do with not only the obvious performance but in how they think and the relationship with their Older Member they are building. This relationship actually becomes a loving one with their Older

Member which is why the students although individuals are together compared to as a bride, with the Older Member the groom though it never includes human behaviors that go with human marriages. They will never have sex, no kisses on the mouth, nor much show of affection and little touching as those things stimulate the wrong kind of relationship that the Older Member has zero interest in, having overcome that human nature, even each time they did such an incarnate task.

But in terms of caring for the other, there is no limitation or restriction. A successful student will literally love their Older Member with all their heart (emotions, feelings), all their mind (thoughts), all their Soul (allegiance to the behavior and ways of the Kingdom of God/Heaven that they were taught, they drew to themselves and are proud to emanate) and all their strength (their efforts and recognition where they can go for help with any circumstance).

HOW THE BATTLE (WAR) IS SURFACED IN TI AND DO'S “CLASSROOM” IN THE WILDERNESS:

Thus as students are cooking and cleaning and fixing cars and working jobs if need be, and occasionally going to the movies, which was one pleasure the Older Members instigated, as it's not a classroom situation with zero pleasure - it's simply part of being a student to be happy with whatever pleasures the Older Members design and how often, while not expecting or needing them. It is during all these ordinary circumstances that lessons come up. For instance, one lesson was to reduce our talk to “yes or no,” as Jesus illustrated in:

Mat 5:37 But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil.

This would present particular challenges to working with others, even to make food, but would also teach us to not be so chit chatty as is common to human households but in the Kingdom of God/Heaven where they don't talk as they communicate by thought, each thought if it's not purposeful is moreorless static. Can you imagine a computer system that said things 20 ways because it liked to hear itself talk. It would be less functional and in the Kingdom of God/Heaven labs function is very important. It's not that the members of the crew don't enjoy one another's company, they just don't have a need to show that or demand attention for themselves by being overly wordy or talkative. It's simply not the way of the Kingdom of God/Heaven which is why Jesus, in part gave that lesson and one could expect that lesson to be in the overcoming program of these TWO. This is not to say, such a lesson would have indefinite duration. It would in the principle but once the student body learned the lesson, took it seriously and considered it their norm to reduce their talk, then the Older Members could choose to relax the lesson to see if the students would at that point keep their talk to a minimum and not talk to pass the time or to gossip, another behavior absent from Kingdom of God/Heaven membership.

The other big ploy the Luciferian space aliens (Dragon and his angels) play against the Older Members and students (angels) is to instigate thoughts of doubt in the student's chosen direction, doubt that their Older Members really are from the Next Level Kingdom of God/Heaven, and/or doubt that they can maintain their self disciplines over their vehicles (Mind and Body) to graduation. Then there are lures of other things they (the students) might want to do, especially with the power of their new found Mind's focus as when one does begin to focus their heart and mind on only their Older Members and they restrain giving away their energy via sexuality and/or human relationships and pursuits of career, family, building self into something seen as special, regardless of whether through secular, religious or spiritual endeavors and pleasures, they are increasing their own "power" within themselves.

This is where the idea of the Hindu Kundalini force came from, which is a facsimile of the focus the Kingdom of God/Heaven overcoming program teaches and requires. For instance, stimulating one's sexuality, only to stop the loss of one's energy by not having an orgasm, instead redirecting that force through meditation on the chakras to envision it moving up to the seventh chakra, the said "godhead," thinking they are bringing themselves into a state of enlightenment is no matter what they achieve and feel from doing so, a HEIGHTENING OF SELF. This is the opposite of not stimulating the vehicles sexuality at all and thus not expelling that energy with one's focus on our Older Member's thinking, behaviors, ways in adherence to their overcoming program requirements that includes being of service in the ways they have given for us to do so.

The Luciferian Space Aliens so hate the idea of giving one's will to someone who would take us away from our humanness, they instigate facsimiles of the Kingdom of God/Heaven program, with the object of our affection being to ourselves and/or to another human in whatever form that takes; spouse, parent, relative, friend, teacher/leader; spiritual, religious, intellectual, scientific, humanitarian, etc. in place of a genuine Older Member who was last incarnate. When the Older Member isn't or hasn't been incarnate during our lifetime so we can still get first hand information about what they taught, then the best we can do is to follow those who did have that physical relationship. That type of following wouldn't be by becoming their student as they would not be replacing the Older Member. They however, will have things to share and perspectives we can grow from hearing about though not essential to one's growth. What is essential is seeking that bond with that Older Member through our regular picking up of their phone line (so to speak) and listening for their response which comes as a feeling and a sense of a step to take. It's not usually in direct words unless through a dream in certain cases but even still needs to be received with caution knowing the lower forces can try to slip into such communications. You will know that no communication will ever compel you to action. For that they need to be with you physically and even so wouldn't be an action they have taught against doing.

When the Older Members have been absent physically and any that had a real face to face communication with them are also absent then about the best we can do is to look to the record of their last incarnation, again in combination with our regular and frequent seeking to know their mind and will for us. Humans that become part of organized belief systems with titles that distinguish them as intermediaries to the Next Level Older members can be of value but only as stepping stones to outgrow. When one takes on such a position they may have also become entrapped in the human rewards they get from being seen and looked to by other humans. Anyone that is a genuine student of an Older Member will refrain from adopting a title, such as, a Priest, Father, Guru, Teacher, "Ascended Master," Imam, Rabbi, Master, Yogi, Swami, etc. and garb, affiliation and air of some elevated status. They will instead know that the best they can do is to become a pipeline of their Older Member's mind the same as any student would desire to be and they would seek to keep their mind out of embellishing what they had received from the Next Level.

The humans influenced by the Luciferians may even teach some of the same self disciplines that can also then become a trap. For instance, some will even teach non-sexuality but without an incarnate genuine Older Member it's usually affiliated with the appearance of being holy so again simply shifts the benefit to themselves as they get it's reward as they often dress the part and receive glory from one another and those who are considered the "lay" (non-priestly caste). They are seen as holy or enlightened. Jesus addressed this in many ways that the Jews had adopted. They would put ashes on their head when fasting and/or wear certain clothing and/or take the upper seats in the temple.

On the other hand if someone gave up their sexuality but did so to express their sole devotion to their Older Member incarnate or not, and they keep it to themselves and they as Jesus said don't make any pretense of being special or holy or enlightened for others to observe then they will be adopting their Older Member's mind. I remember while in Ti and Do's we became aware of a man who had removed his penis so he couldn't perform sexually. Do kind of cringed at the thought but still felt this individual did so for his Lord so was fond of his desire. (I don't know what this individual did about his continued testosterone buildup as it's the testicles of the male that produce this chemical that results in the organ's arousal. Do did say that if one did not get rid of these fluids through the normal channel, they would be emptied out of the body in another way - if I recall correctly through the anus somehow but I am not sure I got that right. This way one would not be continuing in what becomes an addictive pattern that reduces one's perception of the Next Level realities. This wasn't the only way of "raising our vibrations." All our thoughts and behaviors contribute, but when we narrow them all down to that one focus on Next Level Mind we would enable SEEING what is otherwise hidden - thus Next Level members with physical bodies in our midst.

So in this way, the Kingdom of God/Heaven does observe those who do choose to restrain themselves from sexuality and applauds their efforts, along with other selfless efforts, like coming to another's aid when it's dangerous for self to do so, or to give to another even when one has little themselves, wanting others to be taken care of knowing (having faith) they'll have their needs taken care of, all because of what they know is their relationship with their “Father” from the Heavens, though in whatever terms. These are observed (one of the tasks new or prospective new members are given) and when they lose their physical vehicle their Spirits/Souls are kept from being lost in the spirit world, where the idea of “saved” came in, for a time when there will be one or more incarnate Older Members. Thus no one who to whatever degree wants to please their Heavenly Father is forsaken. But just calling on the name of one of the past incarnate representatives without offering service in the way they were given to offer service and doing the kinds of things the last incarnate member from the Kingdom of God/Heaven gave to do, and not repeating the formula of overcoming as the main teachings that Older Member represented puts into question whether they really do want to serve and join that Kingdom of God/Heaven family. But the proof is in the pudding, so the saying goes, as one might be doing the best they can, something not for another human to determine, but will prove itself when the Older Member returns and they have a hard or even seeming impossible time even considering they are the same person they were praying to, preaching for, healing for and abstaining from various behaviors and ways for. That is then the Judgment Day for that person. It's their judgment of who is representing the Kingdom of God/Heaven to them and who in their judgment is not. By not learning that “formula of overcoming” that is within the modus operandi of the Representatives each time they incarnate and can be found throughout all the records of the Kingdom of God/Heaven's interaction with the human kingdom, of course presented in stages (trimesters) and even to different cultures, one is building a wall between them the Next Level to where they will not recognize the genuine next incarnate Representative by their voice/words because they don't really know them. Then when both harvests are over, what remains that choose to not have anything to do with the Kingdom of God/Heaven is of no value to the next garden, so it's all plowed under to include the spirit world containing all those spirits who had no interest in the real members of the kingdom of God while last in a human vehicle. After all, at that point they are simply a set of programs, the master program makers determine to be outdated and phased out and thus without “LIFE.”

As will be shown, the Rev 12:8 verse indicates the dragon and all his angels, by the time this verse is played out, had both lost their (elementary, in between human and adult Next Level) employ (even as “fertilizer” to stimulate the growth of the new fruit (souls) and/or as former “watchers”) and “place” in heaven. Referring to them as angels verify these are souls, rather than mortals (those without the gifted and grown Soul pocket/container).

As a result of this war, the dragon and his angels solidified their allegiance against the Kingdom of God/Heaven through their actions to sway the overcoming students from making their graduation/harvest. Some before this current time may have still had a position of some employ, perhaps as a watcher, but as of this experience lost it, showing that they lost their ability to still obtain that Kingdom, that is if they changed their mind, and with that goes even the perception of the existence of the Next Level as the Creators Kingdom. I believe it was at this time that any that may have still had a chance to change shifted to thinking of the Next Level as just another alien group/race like themselves but who had technologies they hadn't yet come to have access to, but were in the process of trying to obtain through their influence on humans.

The dragon and his angels are cast out just like they or their equivalents were cast out before as depicted in Genesis chapter 6. The difference now is that it's the end of the cycle of birth and a time that not only will the surface of the planet experience a plowing under/spading that is completed within 1000 years. After that is when these get their sentence. They are no longer able to hide underground but will be cast into the lake of fire (Rev 20:14) that will include the dissolving of the spirit world. (Rev 20:14).

To verify that Rev 12, by talking about the Woman (Father) and Son (who had the body named Jesus last time) includes the students, the Saints, we see the term “brethren” used (Rev 12:10), which is Greek adelphos= “having connection or commonality in the womb,” in this case the womb being their having been adopted by the Kingdom of God/Heaven, because of their desire and action to be an active student in the incarnate representatives “classroom.” Jesus spoke of who were his family and it wasn't those that birth his vehicle, nor any sibling relationships. He said they were no longer his family, that only those that did the will of his Father were his family. And these are of course the ones the dragon, aka the devil, aka Satan, as plaintiffs (accuser*) bring accusations** “complaints” against and/or “look down upon.”

*2723 kategoreo from kategoros 2725; to be a plaintiff, i.e. to charge with some offense= accuse, object.

**2725 accuser = kategoros from kata 2596 and agora 58; against one in the assembly, i.e. a complainant at law; specially, Satan= accuser.

Rev 12:9 And the great dragon was cast out ((906 ballo= to throw dung, arise, send, strike)), that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out ((906 ballo= to throw/send dung)) into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

Rev 12:10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power ((1849 exousia from 1832 exesti= (in the sense of ability); privilege, authority, token of control, superhuman, jurisdiction, liberty, right)) of his ((846 autos= her)) Christ ((5547 Christos from 5548 chrío= through the idea of contact, anointed (consecrate to an office), [Officer])): for the accuser of our ((2257 genitive case plural of 1473 ego= of (or from) us, our (company), us, we)) brethren ((80 adelphos from a 1 (as a connective particle) and delphus (the womb); a brother (literally or as a figure) near or remote (much like 1))) is cast down, which ((3588 ho= to)) accused ((2725 kategoros from 2596 and 58 agora= against each one in the assembly, a complainant at law; specially Satan (adversary [booger]))) them (846 autos= the same)) before ((1799 enopion= in the face, presence (sight) of (literally or as a figure))) our ((2257 genitive case plural of 1473 ego= of (or from) us, our (company), us, we)) God day and night.

This verse clearly lays out the fact that the person of God is in the brethren and Christs SIGHT both as a figure and literally because of “DAY AND NIGHT.” This really substantiates this idea that THEY ARE ALL PHYSICALLY PRESENT as “day and night” only has to do with an earth time frame FROM THE PERSPECTIVE OF BEING ON THE PLANET SUBJECT TO THAT DAY AND NIGHT. This is also indicated by the “accuser” (Satan as an adversary to all of these) being shown to have been “cast/thrown down.” They are all on Earth together and the only way this happens in reality is by all being “incarnate” which includes the Luciferian “satans” who both operate via the unseen world of discarnates, using discarnate humans and via those of their descendents/comrades called the space aliens. Do indicated that the Luciferian space aliens do project their thoughts and agenda to humans so would certainly include the members of Ti and Do's classroom (the brethren). Brethren is not a sexist term. It refers to a fraternity of like minded people.

Attempting to place this verse in the Ti and Do time line I would say the introduction of “boogers” appears to be very high on the possibilities

Ti and Do took their 50 or so students who had stayed with them through the “wilderness” 3-4 years from 1976 to 1980 into suburban areas of Colorado and Texas at first. I can picture being in houses when we get the lesson step pertaining to “boogers.” Ti and Do said we each have an assigned “booger.” This was thought of as a discarnate entity we had previously spoke of as an “influence” or discarnate. So this was a new term. It was at that time they also said we would experience more “bombardment” from this “booger” and that if we felt it was too much to handle we could ask the Next Level to hold off some. Bombardment came in a number of ways that related to our personal challenges to being in the classroom. For instance for someone who had left family behind bombardment might be dealing with memories of them and being worried about them or feeling responsible for them, thus could include guilt at choosing to be away from them. Of course someone who disbelieves all this would probably say, “they should feel guilt of leaving certain parts of their family behind to join with this cult.” It's understandable that some will feel that. But they also weren't necessarily prepared for the overcoming task, so what we do when we leave all behind is not in their realm of acceptable choices. It wouldn't be a choice for these students either if they hadn't been given that computer like “chip of recognition” and they wouldn't get the chip of recognition if they hadn't had the genetic memory that was prepared to make sense of it enough to continue in a pursuit of truth. Therefore I would link this verse with the start of that bombardment lesson as there are not future tense verbs in the verse. I would guess this lesson step came in about 1982 as it was well after we had been living in houses (we called “crafts”).

One example of how these brethren (saints) are “accused... day and night”: Ti and Do taught, before falling asleep each night, to ask the Next Level to help you wake up if an “influence” (discarnate aka spirit) was causing you to be tempted to break a procedure or behavioral guidelines, e.g. vow of celibacy of mind and body. Ti and Do called ending our sexuality as, “regaining virginity” (see Rev 14:4). There were a number of times I felt stimulated at night. We were also told to throw the covers off ourselves as influences like heat and get up. We were not to sleep on our stomach's as pressure on our "plumbing" is also a stimulant and certainly don't let our hands go below the waste and even sleep with our hands outside the covers. At night, if we had the feeling of wanting to be held or touched or to hold or touch another, Do said it worked for him to think of holding his Older Member (who at the time was not in a physical body) while wrapping his arms around his vehicle as if giving self a hug.

Rev 12:11 And they ((846 autos= from particle au (perhaps akin to the base of 109 aer= through the idea of a baffling wind, backward; reflexive pronoun self used of the third person and (with the proper personal pronoun) of the other persons, her, it(-self), one, the other, she, those, together)) overcame ((3528 nikao= subdued, conquered, prevailed, get the victory)) him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word ((3056 logos= (Holy) Mind/Spirit, something said (including the thought), sayings, reasoning (mental faculty) or motive; by extension, a computation, work)) of their ((846 autos + 1438 heautou (contracted)= themselves)) testimony ((3141 marturia from 3144 martus= evidence given (judicially or genitive case), record, report, witness)); and they loved not their ((846 autos + 1438 heautou (contracted)= themselves)) lives unto the death.

The first "they" in this verse is not the contracted "them-selves" used in two cases later in the verse. As it speaks of overcoming "him," the Luciferians, by the "Lamb's bloodshed," it's referring to the returned student body, now incarnate in new human bodies who were physically with Jesus and who gave their lives then. In other words it is determined these have conquered (overcome) the Luciferians enough to "inherit" a Next Level incorruptible Body, one that could not return to human behaviors and ways because their new vehicle is not equip to reverse metamorphose as Adam's vehicle did, to fall from the degree of Next Level vibration he had. Thus this verse is further describing these "brethren" as the returned "saints" aka "angels," said elsewhere who are present during this end time season to graduate the human kingdom and begin to serve the Next Level in an adult capacity. Before this end time season they served in more of a Next Level child (son of God) capacity as were the Luciferians they would be replacing.

revealed sometime in late 1984 to early 1985 when Ti informed those who hadn't yet met the minimum criteria for graduation what they still needed to work on overcoming that otherwise would “keep them off the spacecraft.”

I have already listed the three things she wrote to me in a note but they all added up to an inflated ego even though it wasn't that apparent to me until about ten years after I left. That's when it was blatantly obvious and I could see the evidence throughout my 19 years with the group. It's not that this is uncommon. After all “pride” becomes a major stumbling block. For me it wasn't so much that I was full of myself - it was that I desired to be full of myself. I wanted to be “SEEN as something special” and “I was a little too PLEASED with SELF,” as Ti said and that became expressed when I was working an “Out of Craft task” (job) with humans (those who were not in the accelerated program to overcome their human world).

Now I can't prove this but I suspect that some of my classmates may not have had anything on that list or had less or had less significant things relative to the requirements for our Mind/Spirit Birth into Next Level adult membership that would enable joining “Ti's Crew.” I doubt anyone got a clean bill of health as it's the nature of Next Level members to always see in themselves ways they can improve relative to their Older Member and if we are asking our Older Member to show us where we can improve, they will see something to give to us as there is always room to grow for everyone. As Jesus said, we are not perfect but are seeking to be perfect and our measure is our Older Member who doesn't think they are perfect because they are measuring against their Older Member and so on. It would be several years later that the proof that some had “overcome sufficiently” would be expressed by Do:

On May 27, 1993, in the “USA Today” newspaper, in both the national and international editions on that day, entitled: “UFO CULT” RESURFACES WITH FINAL OFFER, Do writes about his students:

“This changeover (sufficient “overcoming” to inherit Next Level bodies) has been completed, and before they return, they are instructed to share this statement with you.”

Since in Rev 12:10 the person's are reported as; “the Kingdom of our God,” where usage of “God” indicates the Father (the woman in this chapter) in how it goes on to describe this individual as having “the power of his/her Christ,” the only one who has an “anointed one” (Christ) as a Christ is a task in her/his (The Father's) employ, and the “brethren” are included who return with Them being those who were incarnate with Jesus with His and their “Father” (Grand Father).

As shown the “brethren” overcome the dragon and his angels (fallen ones) through the EXAMPLE (of what they too MUST DO to be added to Their Family) beginning to meet the graduation requirements via the teachings of their Older Member while incarnate as Jesus, who laid down his life for his “sheep,” what Jesus said was the demonstration of the greatest love one can show another. These are the souls that were with Jesus and gave their lives on behalf of him and in their delivery of the information he brought that revealed to others the Kingdom of God/Heaven's physical reality and the requirement to go through a step wise OVERCOMING FORMULA. One doesn't overcome the Luciferian Space Alien influenced human world of behavior, ways and attachments unless they do what they are given to do with each stage. It is apparent that John presumably learned from Jesus that:

1John 5:19 And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness ((4190 poneros= hurtful in influence of us, degeneracy from original virtue, (passively) ill, morally diseased, culpable, derelict, vicious, mischievous, malice or guilt, bad, lewd)).

And the last instruction Jesus gave his disciple to do was to:

Mat 28:19 Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost:

Mat 28:20 Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.

That's hardly just “belief.” Teaching would be baptizing them because if they believed and applied what he was teaching they would be “cleaning” their house, purifying their behaviors and ways to make their vehicles into a “temple” which must include communicating with others (“word of their testimony”) that would also face them with their loss of life (“they loved not their lives unto the death”) as he faced and experienced. All of this is part of the overcoming aka conquering and also known as “prevailing against” which is the meaning of the word, “israel” - “he who prevails as Jehovah” spoken of here that is being said they accomplished because Jesus showed them the way by doing the same things that included willfully subjecting himself to those that hated him so that they would become the tool to shed his “blood.”

Do writes in USA Today Info Ad (paraphrased):

Do indicates 2000 years ago when they (he with his disciples then) the Luciferian controlled world of humans killed their vehicles to “cleanse” the world of their blasphemy but all it did was provide them with their ticket onto the Next Level spacecraft and their return to their Kingdom of God, Do compares to the Star Trek “enterprise” seen by humans perhaps as a cloud of light. Do says that same thing about his coming out as the returned same Older Member who was incarnate in the name Jesus and how it might result in the same type of cleansing enacted by the lower forces of the planet. He says that would be a way to look at the scripture as the “days being shortened.” At the same time their doing so would destroy their own last chance to evolve beyond the human kingdom.

This description of how they had “overcome” the Luciferian space alien fallen angel (dragon) at that time with Jesus was not yet the full completion of their overcoming of the entire human kingdom level of life. Giving your life is a huge piece that gets you to be kept/saved and even issued a “white robe” - a physical vehicle to use to perform what Do called a “domestic” level of service I believe equated to a task as a “watcher” and/or perhaps a “messenger” based on the Older Member's assignments. These assignments continue to be lesson material that can show to whom we wish to give our total allegiance as shown by the fact that some in times past “fell” from a similar condition, or so it seems, though I don't know if they gave their lives in the way these “brethren” did to get to that position of service. I don't doubt that position also has variances. Actually it's possible some even about half of Jesus disciples had female vehicles.

Just because the ones that got the most attention were documented as male vehicles doesn't describe their relationship with their same Older Member. For a woman today to read the scriptures, they will find Peter talking about females being “subordinate aka to obey their husbands” (1Pe 3:1). For whatever it's worth, I have a male vehicle and for 15 years after leaving Ti and Do's group I was near totally subservient to my female partner. I used to joke with her about it and call her the “boss,” which she hated. She was a CFO in a big NYC based clothing manufacturer. But I spent 19 years in Ti and Do's group where often those with female vehicles were given tasks that brought them closer to Ti and also Do and I could see many of them were better examples of Next Level behaviors. They didn't seem to have ego battles. I suspect that was the case because they had overcome that human vibration that is often even expected of a male to have and show. Jesus disciples seemed to show that characteristic which may be why they had to confront it by taking male vehicles then. Some may have overcome it then so took female vehicles this time.

So I suspect that all had experiences with vehicles of both genders during their incarnations. With that view, if we accept our “lot” as Peter also talks about then we are moving ahead. I'm not saying “lot” means one can't do this or that. I believe it is based on the society. During Jesus time a woman standing on the street talking about Jesus would probably be arrested or dragged away while a male with a sword in his sheath might be more tolerated and even listened to. Learning how to be a follower is a very important lesson. I believe that's why the Lord told the children of Israel to accept strangers among them and if they had a slave that was really like having an employee you could depend on staying with you, yet you had to offer them their freedom after 7 years and they were treated the same as you'd treat any others. They simply are paid in food and board and whatever else was agreed upon and it enables them to have something in life they otherwise wouldn't have had. Of course that was a civil society where the slavery in most other cases is often brutal and cruel and even abusive.

The part saying that they “loved not their lives unto the death” is a key element in one's overcoming that demonstrates what talk alone can not, that is, the degree of one's commitment to that Older Member. This is not to say, it's easy to be willing to deliver the information, knowing (which you should) that it will be met with more opposition than acceptance so that it may lead to one's end of their life by the hands of someone who hates to see the information distributed or for some other reason they are led to “pull the trigger.” It's not a martyr trip though. One doesn't assume they have to be killed by another. Obviously all humans die. However, some who came from the Next Level left with the human bodies they occupied while here. There were recorded as Enoch, Moses (Ti and Do said), Elijah and Jesus, all of which had also overcome the human vehicles they occupied or they wouldn't have changed their vibrations to exit in the way they did. As a side note, Ti and Do believed all along that they and/or their students might not die to return to the Next Level. Dieing they always stated as “if the Next Level requires it of us.” They said one doesn't have to die to go to the Next Level and these examples prove it, that is for those that believe that record.

But humans don't have eternal vehicles. Despite what some want to think and believe, spirits are not eternal either. For those that die from something other than an angry disbeliever/accuser, they are as Jesus said, “judged by their works (what they do)” and receive the promised reward accordingly which until a final graduation is possibly a task as a messenger or watcher with the promise to bring them back to have the next graduate classroom literally with the next Older Member's incarnation.

Christians who think overcoming is accomplished simply by believing in Jesus and that he died for us so we don't have to die for him or die having overcome by adhering to all his teachings are being tricked. No one could overcome their humanness had not Jesus and his Father provided the way, the PATH which is the “OVERCOMING PROCESS,” exempling it by living with the students and giving their lives totally. For the Kingdom of God/Heaven fostering the death of one's body, WHEN IT'S INSTRUCTION FROM THEIR OLDER MEMBERS, is moreorless like changing clothes, though some exits of the old clothes may happen with more or less pain and suffering according to tasks each student signs up for. It's not mandatory to get oneself killed but it is mandatory to provide service to one's Older Member that at some point probably will result in dying while in their service.

Overcoming is a difficult process and absolutely needs the hands on direction from an incarnate Older Member. Those that become monks and nuns and yogi's and devotees of this or that teacher, who become celebrate and do good works for the poor, I'd bet do in fact attract the eye of the Kingdom of God/Heaven so will be given the opportunity to migrate to the area where the Kingdom of God/Heaven is planning to have an Older Member incarnate, so they can have a chance to literally be in their path and adhere to their teachings to enter the overcoming of their humanness program. But if they believe and/or are satisfied with their “path” thinking it's the ultimate they can achieve/be a part of, or be provided (as there are Works involved) then they being satisfied will not even recognize the signs of the Kingdom of God/Heaven's physical Representatives and travel to that geographical area to become their student leaving their old “family of fellow believers” behind while telling any who look to them what they are doing and why so they too have that choice. In this scenario, all their celibacy and helping the sick and poor may be for naught as far as the Kingdom of God/Heaven is concerned because they prefer that life and comfort level as having some spiritual grandeur and praise from others instead of being with a totally Above human evolutionarily, biological new Family. Then they fall into the category of those who say:

Mat 7:21 Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

His will when a Rep is physically in-carnal is to literally “follow” him everywhere he goes to the degree he provides for you to do. Now, understood it is often not clear to some that there is such a Being incarnate but then that has to do with whether or not in some way you are seeking to understand more about your ultimate purpose in some way, knocking on new doors of the mind to open new opportunities and coupling those with asking to do the will of our “heavenly Father” in some way. I'm saying, “in some way” as to not think any of this must be associated with a religious or spiritual quest though one may move through a number of them on their path to the greatest overall truth.

If the way you communicate is through a stock prayer or mantra or affirmation and/or you don't have a sense of that “Father” in the heavens being an individual you can talk to, as it said, someone who is LIVING as Jesus said and someone who EXISTS as Moses said was the meaning of the name Jehovah then your concept doesn't include Living Beings. Your prayers may still be heard but you may not see/hear the hint that says.... “I wonder if I should check this story out” when you see a newspaper story or watch television or internet news shows. You will miss or easily dismiss the very indications of an answer to your prayer.

When a returned Rep comes when technology has grown in these ways, because that Rep doesn't want to take a chance and miss someone, working with their Older Member and Crew, seen or not, they see to it that it becomes a big news story and even several times over the course of their mission. This is in part why there are TWO harvests depicted in Rev 14. The first fruits are so prepared to be waiting for the return, though not necessarily consciously, so that the return announcement is a wake up call that they immediately feel called to. The second harvest at least this time seems to be a larger group who will believe in degrees, that need some proves to take bigger steps in belief and petitioning for service from those who fulfill the Two Witnesses task.

This again, like the Rev 14 two harvests indicates that all these “brethren,” “loved not their their lives to death.” In other words they physically die while serving their Next Level Older Members thus can also be spoken of as the “dead in Christ” slated to “rise again.” And they do rise again as depicted here where they prevail against the “Slanderer/Accuser” (Devil).

Note it is after this first harvest that the dragon and devil (the Luciferian Space Aliens) have full reign over the Earth causing trouble (tribulation) among humans, thus all who think the tribulation occurs after Jesus comes are in a sense correct as the One who served incarnate in the vehicle named Jesus is one of the Two Witnesses so it is after They exit. If we can see aspects of that tribulation, in earnest then we have to accept that the one called Jesus has already returned and exited his new incarnation. But what is called the “tribulation” or time of great trouble not seen since the beginning of the world is only showing it's tiny beginning as it refers to what takes place in the United States. Outside the U.S. has been experiencing a relative time of great trouble that will continue to escalate after the Father and One who was Jesus and crew of saints exit their incarnations. Ti and Do taught that the U.S. was mostly protected from any significant internal troubles like wars, etc. so the “classroom” could proceed from the mid 1970's until their exit and in part thereafter to allow for the freedom to believe in them to be largely unhampered by governments and the religious leaders - (the false prophets, false Christs, Christians). I believe this is why the military draft was removed by Nixon in 1969 that became a lottery draft system as then the Next Level could more easily keep those humans they were working with from being threatened by forced military service. The World Trade Center attacks ended that just 3 1/2 years after Do and Crew exited in March of 1997.

This arrival of the Luciferian Space Aliens and the departure of the first harvest is also depicted in Rev 11. One can see their reference in Rev 11:2 and Rev 11:16 that these saints spoken of as the “42 affirmants” (month as Greek meno ALSO means an affirmant during that 1260 days of the Two Witnesses prophecy period) and the “four and twenty elders” as in this verse (Rev 12:10-12) are with them. Also it states in Rev 14 that these “hundred and forty and four” and a myriad of thousands end up encompassing the entire group that follow the lamb wherever he goes just as they did when His job assignment was Jesus, just as when His job assignment was with Moses, just as Jesus said was required to be his disciple as described when the rich man asked what more he could do and Jesus said, paraphrased, “if you have adhered to all the Moses instructions and you want to proceed, you need to “give away all your riches and literally follow me.” Jesus disciples didn't go home to their human family every night, nor back to day jobs as tax collectors, etc. They became a transient commune, though at that time no doubt they had certain supporters that provided their quarters and some of them were probably the residences of some of the 144+* disciples.

* I am saying 144+ because we know there were at least 82 (12+70) at one point, before Jesus execution and it seems these were all males, as if females and males were seen together and were not husband and wife, they would have had many more problems among the Jewish hierarchy as they were reported by their congregations, as these were traveling from town to town sharing what Jesus gave them to share. However when looking to the Apocryphal non-canonical text as in: “The Sophia of Jesus Christ” begins: “After he rose from the dead, his twelve disciples and the seven women continued to be his followers and went to Galilee onto the mountain called 'Divination and Joy'.” However there are a number of other mentions of women disciples/apostles but the total so far is 10 which brings our total before the execution to 92 but there were also “many more who helped with food, etc.”

No we didn't see 144,000 following Do, (who was the Lamb) everywhere he went while one of the Two Witnesses, nor after Ti left for his second phase of coming that was led by the students in the meeting schedule (as Do gave no more public meetings - the students only gave them as his prophecy period was over after he performed it with Ti for 1260 days). The way that number is worded is interesting as the first phase “rapture” where people left their human lives behind (life in this context being what they did as a human until then) ended up being just about 100 students. (I remembered being in a Laramie, Wyoming University classroom where Lggody had arranged as a meeting place while we were living in the wilderness east of Laramie when Ti and Do had us count everyone and I am fairly sure it came to 96, but there may have been a few not there as Do wrote later that it was “under 100.” Then the amount of students who remained in their last days before they layed down their lives were 38, but at least 4-5 exited in a similar way afterward sighting they were doing it to go with Do that all occurred before the year 2000. That brings us to 1-2 short of 44 and perhaps there are two more who could be considered to be included in that number. In any case it seems close enough that it might be considered as a fulfillment of that part of the prophecy. So then what of the 1000's which I say is a “myriad of thousands.” We don't know if this will be the number of Souls saved by the Next Level brought back to find vehicles this time who will only come into belief in Ti and Do after their exit, thus a part of the second harvest phase of Rev 14 described as the “winepress” that is comprised of the “great tribulation” that is only getting underway seemingly with the arrival and installation of the 4th horse of the Apocalypse of Rev 6:7-8 - the Green Horse translated as “pale horse” in most versions except literal Greek translations. To follow suit that would seem to be referring to the next U.S. President and Vice President, perhaps represented in many ways as “green” and “pale” respectively. That will be further presented in the section covering Rev 6 and 7's Seven Seals that will conclude this little book.

Rev 12:12 Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell ((4637 skenoo= from skenos 4636= to tent or encamp, to reside)) in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

Ti and Do told us the Members of the Next Level who live (dwell) in the heavens would actually have a ceremony for the new graduates. They don't have any particular dwelling places. They live on the go according to the assigned tasks they choose to do. The Greek “skenoo” primarily refers to tent living though there are no tents in the Next Level. Like Jesus said, their dwelling places are many and are spacecrafts and laboratories, even inside of planets. The aspect of being a tent that they live in points out the their Bedouin lifestyle which corresponds to Jesus saying:

Mat 8:20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

Like Moses and the Children of Israel in the desert for 40 years, they were always on the move and lived in tents. Ti and Do took us to the wilderness in Wyoming and for 3-4 years we lived in tents, going to Texas in the winter and up to Wyoming in the summer in accordance with the seasons.

After about 3-4 years in houses we sold everything and bought four 40 foot travel trailers and Ti and Do had a smaller trailer. We lived in them in Amarillo during one winter in 1983. We sold them and moved back into houses and in 1989 had estate sales in our three large “crafts” that were all fully furnished and looked “normal” for realtors, owners and workers to not raise suspicions about how many people were there and what we were into, not that we did anything illegal or immoral or violent or abusive to anyone. There was none of that ever.

About the strangest thing we did was to wear light grey polyester baggy jumpsuits, like yoga pants and a sweatshirt with a hood. Additionally, we had separate hoods that totally covered one's head, having a rectangular chrome screen that was one way to see through. That was to help us stop judging what we would think, say and feel about another, because of what we visually perceived about them. Looking at someones face and eyes is very influential. We started wearing these hooded jumpsuits while still living outdoors. We would take our hoods off when a airplane or helicopter came overhead which didn't happen that often.

So once we moved into houses we still wore them unless we had to go outside and that was an assigned task the same people did so the neighbors wouldn't see too many different faces as the first house we were in was in Wheatridge, Colorado in a development. We had vans that we put tint on the windows and would only come and go through the garage that we had openers for. Most of us seldom went anywhere and we would duck down as we got close to the house.

At one house in the south Texas area some locals took an interest in us and spied through a window and I guess saw some wearing hoods and called the police who came to the house and I don't know how it was resolved but they didn't find anything suspicious happening. I think most of us hid when they came. After that Ti and Do brought in an audio/video alarm system with lights that would go on if a motion sensor was triggered and someone would talk to whoever tripped it. Rkkody set them all up and we had an assigned task as a lookout night and day that partnerships performed in one hour shifts.

Years later after Ti left, we returned to living outdoors in Phoenix area. We had both tents and pop-up trailers and a couple forty foot trailers again. We sold everything again to outfit ourselves to live outdoors again. We set up camp west of Phoenix in the desert and then moved closer to Yuma, Arizona.

Soon after that we took the trailers and moved into warehouses, first in Las Vegas and then in Orange county, California in Laguna Hills and San Clemente and for a short time in trailer parks in Anaheim and San Diego areas while looking for jobs. Thus we were always like tent dwellers. even when we were in houses we never stayed in the same place for longer than a year before changing houses even in the same city area so we could keep the good jobs we found. Moving around was a protection as there were at times investigators and relatives of those in the group looking for their relatives in the group. We learned that at least one time an investigator went to a house we lived in a short time after we moved out. Whenever we moved we never told our employers where we were going so we wouldn't leave a trail. We often didn't know where we were going until we got there so we couldn't slip up. An x-classmate in a documentary had a big laugh at how Ti and Do were security minded saying Ti and Do were paranoid. I guess he didn't know about these incidents and the network of parents that wanted to know were people were.

Getting back to the verse, the inhabitants of the Earth are humans but the inhabitants of the sea, I believe are referring to those humans and/or human equivalents, the descendents from previous civilizations who the Next Level allowed to escape a partial recycling of the surface by living under the sea. The word sea is related to the word salt. If these were Souls as Do said all space aliens were, then they at one time were considered to be the salt of the earth, though now they have lost their "Savior."

I don't know if the Saltan Sea became an entrance to an underground area where a type of base was once set up. There is considerable evidence that both the Artic and Antartica have underground lakes, actually recently discovered. Just like humans have built submarines humans in a previous civilization, like as legend says were named Atlantis or Lemuria (Mu) could have easily developed technology like humans have now and perhaps even more. The word sea can also mean on the sea or at the seashore and I suppose the ice caps being constructed of water in large parts would also be considered sea. And these can easily be humans from this civilization as well as there has been considerable evidence that some Nazi's constructed a base off the coast of Antarctica where they found an entrance to an undersea "fortress" as was expressed by a German admiral to Hitler in public, saying he had secured it for the fuhrer.

On July 4, 2016 I came upon a report of someone who had been examining Google earth, the telescope satellites trained on earth linked to google.com, where he saw what looked like a pyramid shaped object that was illuminated on the ocean floor in the Pacific ocean off the coast of Mexico.

It is a woe to all because everyone will be subject to the Luciferian space alien races "rush to "blow smoke," stimulate the passions, become indignant and to sacrifice anyone" physically and mentally to their agenda as they recognize they are soon to be dissolved in the Lake of Fire. Here's what Do said in the USA Today Info Ad:

-The Luciferians are about to be "recycled" (annihilated) at the same time as this human civilization is "spaded." They know that "rumor has it" that their days are numbered. They refuse to believe it and are desperate to recruit souls from the human kingdom into their "Heavenly Kingdom." There are many "counterfeit" heavens, and each "heaven" is at this time collecting "names in their book," forcing a stand of allegiance, polarizing each individual's commitment to his chosen "God."

-When members of the Level Above Human are physically present, the opposing forces work the hardest against them in order to support their own position. They do almost anything to keep humans from following the path toward the true Kingdom of God. They "turn up the heat" at this time in the area of mammalian behavior, primarily sexuality. This has become such an overwhelming presence in the Earth's atmosphere that even some of the crew that came with us were lost to its temptation. Don't forget that when the Luciferians were expelled, in order to support their own desires, they had to condemn the true Kingdom of God and see it simply as another path inhumane and radically uncompromising.'

Rev 12:13 And when (the) dragon ((1404 drakon= most likely from an alternate form of derkomai (to look); a fabulous kind of serpent (perhaps as supposed to fascinate))) saw that (he was) cast unto (the) earth, (he) persecuted ((1377 dioko= a PROLONGED AND CAUSATIVE form of primary verb dio= TO FLEE via his pursuit to cause her to suffer)) (the) woman (1135 gune= most likely from the root of ginomai 1096= to cause to; “gen”-erate, be assembled)) which ((3748 hostis = any that)) (brought) forth ((5088 tikto= are produced from seed, are born, be delivered, are in travail)) (the) man ((730 arrhen or arsen= strong Minds to be lifted up)) (child).

Again the Luciferian space aliens, now restricted to the Earth, it's atmosphere and it's near space environment are furious with those some of them know are representatives from the organization that has them under lock and key. So they mount a bigger attack on these Two which can't help but fall most on the Woman to CAUSE HER A PROLONGED SUFFERING.

Two things stand out that that would easily qualify as Ti being subject to (caused) prolonged suffering.

1) We had returned to an area where we had camped a year before called “Cave Without A Name” in Boerne, Texas. During the previous year that I suspect was about 1978-9 we seemed to experience some Next Level physical closeness. We had long been having a nightly watch of the stars - partnerships taking one hour shifts throughout each night watching the heavens and logging anything out of the ordinary. One night some lights were reported to have come down behind a bunch of trees. The next day, some examined the area that was a cleared field but could only find suspicious looking small holes in the ground as if some soil samples were taken. There was nothing conclusive, but the next night after that during my nightwatch my partner and I saw some lights that seemed to be moving through the wooded area at ground level behind some trees in a different direction from where the previous nights lights were sighted. All I could see were the lights flashing for a few seconds and moving quickly so it lasted for maybe three or four seconds. Perhaps there was a road in the direction of the lights but in looking around the next morning I couldn't see a road. That was all there was to that.

Having returned, Ti told us we were going to prepare for the pickup on a certain night. I've already reported that no spacecraft showed up and Do told us Ti felt like she “had egg on her face.” After all this was also about 5 years after they first obtained students in April of 1975. Back then, when they were pressed for when their followers would be picked up by the spacecraft, I believe they admitted telling them, “not more than five years” from that time. Ti and Do regretted giving them that time frame but then it seemed after this pickup didn't happen, in the next year or two a number of students left, namely Dymody, Jssody, Trsody, Shlody (shield-ody), Wndody and Flxody, Echody, Arrody, Jllody and Rkkody, though Dymody, Trsody, Wndody and Rkkody returned some years later. I have no way to know if this was why these left. I did know that Wndody was working at a Denny's restaurant as a waitress when she left after meeting a man who she ended up marrying so it seemed she her sensuality was behind her leaving, though who knows if it was also related to that 5 year time period not proving to be the case. I do believe that had something to do with Jssody's leaving.

So I suspect that Ti did have to persevere through a significant attack from the lower forces because of that.

Come April of that year we moved back up to Wyoming and got hit by a huge snowstorm. We were about a mile from a paved road living on some private ranch lands leased from a rancher we had leased from before. Ti and Do walked out and came back to say the paved road was cleared. It took us a number of days to dig out as we had no snow tools and it seemed to be a couple feet with bigger drifts. We used cardboard boxes to dig a path a car could get through. For most of that time we were living off of pancakes and spaghetti. Instead of waiting for the snows to melt, we packed up and traveled by convoy and ended up in Mississippi for a short time and then Kansas for a short time and then back up to a Northern Colorado ranch area and what I didn't know until later was that we were running out of money. We somehow ended up in the mountains south of Provo, Utah setting up camp in the National forest and got hit by a heavy snowfall again but again it was the early spring so part of the group went back to Texas and some of us stayed behind and went to a lower altitude campground and got jobs in Provo. I quit just a couple weeks later and we ended up moving into houses. I may be mixed up on the order of some of this but thought the first two houses were in Wheatridge, Colorado and then Evergreen, Colorado come winter but then down to Texas where I took a job at a Pizza Hut in Kerrville, Texas.

Apparently when we moved into houses this troubled Ti a great deal as she saw moving back into a populated area to get jobs as going backward back into the world to a degree. Therefore again, this was an added stress onto Ti.

Rev 12:14 And (to the) woman (were) given ((1325 didomi= adventure, brings forth, ministers with, offers, commits, delivers, gives to someone, grants, makes, shews, sets)) two wings (of a) great ((3173 megas= big, (+ fear), exceedingly, greatest, high, large, loud, mighty, sore afraid, X to years)) eagle ((105 aetos from the same as aer 109; winglike flight and/or the way she cares for her young as an eagle takes her young under her wings)), that ((2443 hina= because, to the intent, so as to, in order that, for the purpose of)) (she might) fly ((4072 petomai= middle voice of primary verb; to fly, flying)) into ((1519 eis= among)) (the) wilderness ((2048 eremos= desert, desolate, wasteland, solitary)) into ((1519 eis= her ((+own)) place ((5117 topos= particular locality, spot of limited occupancy, room, home))), where (she is) nourished ((5142 trepho= strengthened to support, feed, give suck to, fatten, to bring up, nurture her “son” and their “children” [the rest of the way to their “spirit/Mind Soul Births”])) (for a) time ((2540 kairos= an occasion + 1563 ekei= there, in or to that place)), and times ((2540 kairos= occasion, season, due measure, measure of a large or small portion of time, the right time, a fixed and definite time)), and half ((2255 hemisu= partition involved in connection, semi)) (a) time ((2540 kairos= occasion, season, etc.)), from (the) face ((4383 prosopon= (outward) appearance, visage, presence, before, fashion, person)) (of the) serpent ((3789 ophis= sly, cunning, artful, malicious, sharpness of vision, a snake)).

Ti and Do indicated how the better choices were frequently revealed by trying certain things and thereby learning what not to do. For instance when feeling to move the classroom, they might have a feeling about a certain area so would travel there without the class and in the process learn it was not a place to move the class to, but that in taking the action something else came more to light. The Luciferians have convinced some Christians and others that feelings are not to be trusted and that someone who changes their mind can not be from the Kingdom of God/Heaven. They will say, 'you need to just trust the “word” - it's the word that you put your faith in and it's the word that is the only way to have true communion with the Lord'. And that's true that what an Older Member leaves behind after their exit, whether written by the Older member or by his students does become what we need to look to for the details of what to adopt in new standards of behavior and ways, so we, “our souls” and the vehicular genetic structure can be ready for the next stage when the Older Member returns with further lessons.

But really, it's the relationship with the Next Level Older Members that we seek to have apart from what was written, through our private communications that when brought together with that written word helps us open up to the most accurate way of seeing the written record. Then the third most important aspect to growth towards a true spirit birth when the Older Member is or isn't incarnate is in our application of what the Older Member gave us to do upon his exit and to include our adaptation of all the behavior and ways taught to whatever the degree we can, knowing that we must work up to the full degree and not judge ourselves as failing when we fall short. There can be a type of negotiation with our vehicle. A cube of sugar and they don't buck you off their back. When the Older Member is incarnate they choose when and how and where and the type of sugar our vehicle's get.

Ti and Do right from the start spoke about how we were developing our “feeler” and they even said it was related to the solar plexus area of our vehicles. Re: the Bible which they referred to as the “records,” they felt the reliable part was what Jesus said that one would find in a red letter edition as they knew there were parts of the record they didn't think reflected Next Level activity. They also felt like the Old Testament Moses classroom was for the primitive society so to try to apply things said in it that were not things Jesus referred to were geared for “toddlers.” Luciferians take advantage of this to program humans to focus on anything but what Jesus said, as he also did in anticipation of Jesus incarnation re: the Moses and other records that were preparing for the Jesus classroom. The Luciferians see to it that the religious who would be the group who one would think should be most receptive to the returning Older Member are so glued to the records that he worked hard to distort that they miss the signs of the next incarnate representative even if he is standing right in front of them.

Joh 5:39 Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

With this said, the Woman is clearly the Father incarnate having returned, awakened along with awakening her “son” to as Ti said “get you going,” on his current task; to gather their “children” once again in the 1260 day prophecy period to then take them to a wilderness place to battle the Luciferians (dragon and his angels, the fallen ones). This Older Member (Father) doesn't need nourishing then and doesn't need nourishing now as said in this verse. SHE PROVIDES THE NUTRITION FOR THE ENTIRE CLASSROOM. She is the primary nutrition her Son draws from her to give to their student body. SO SHE IS NOT BEING “GIVEN” ANYTHING. SHE IS DOING THE GIVING.

Now an eagle is used in a number of cases to describe Members of the Kingdom of God whose service it is to care for the young. They are not described as angels because angels are those that have at some point graduated to at least a domestic type of service in the Next Level. So their battle with the Dragon's angels is depicting battling some who once had that degree of service (watchers) and were operating from the heavens, the lower heavenly realms, the sky and atmosphere of earth and perhaps to some degree into near space. And they are battling against Micheal's angels. I suspect we are referred to the Archangel Micheal to link us back to Daniel's prophecies and show us that Michael is the name used by the Member of the Next Level to relate to Daniel and to tie in with this verse in Revelations, who then came incarnate in the vehicle named Jesus. These names and prophecies are planned to work together to provide consistency for our benefit to shoot down the Luciferian lies or tendency to ignore the truth when it's before us and challenging to embrace.

THE DRAGON - LUCIFER AND HIS FALLEN ANGELS ARE IN JAIL BY BEING RESTRICTED TO THE EARTH.

According to Ti and Do, Next Level student members, who had not yet graduated to full fledged adult membership, were brought to earth, because it had been set up as a jail for those that rebelled against the Next Level. Lucifer and those that fell away with him were insistent on trying to establish their own kingdom on earth which was against the assigned tasks they had been given by the Next Level Older Members. After giving them many chances to choose to get back on track, since they didn't choose to do so, they became restricted to the earth and it's immediate atmosphere and perhaps to some distance into the planet's near space because they had become an interference to the Next Level. The Older Members of the Next Level, as is their way to take every negative and use it for a positive decided to subject others who had an equivalent level of growth as these renegades, to the renegades in their jail. By their conquering the renegade influence on them to fall they would strengthen their Minds to be on solid ground as trustworthy adult members of the Next Level. Adam was the first experiment in this regard and he succumbed to the vibration of Lucifer and doing so caused him to lose his ability to see things he had been able to see before. It was a type of reverse metamorphosis. He now saw things in more of an animal way. In other words, in a short time it stimulated his digestive and reproductive systems and that was the beginning of the species called human as he began to reproduce with Eve. That's why human is considered a fallen species. It didn't exist before then unless the Next Level had another jail but Ti and Do felt it was not something that existed anywhere else in this area of the universe if anywhere at all. Adam did not recover so died and his Mind remained in the human earth environment but was able to incarnate into the vehicle named Enoch, the 7th generation from Adam and overcome the still present Luciferian influence to where he regained his former Next Level awareness and position taking the changed over Enoch vehicle with him into the Next Level.

THE FOUR LIVING BEINGS/CREATURES (mistranslated to Beast):

Rev 4:7 And the first beast ((2226 zoon= Living Being/Creature)) was like ((3664 homoios= similar (in appearance or character, manner, the same)) a lion ((3023 leon= great strength, Lucifer and Christ are referred to as a Lion)), and the second beast ((2226 zoon= Living Being/Creature)) like ((3664 homoios= similar (in appearance or character, manner, the same)) a calf ((3448 moschos= probably strengthened for oschos (a shoot), a young bullock)), and the third beast ((2226 zoon= Living Being/Creature)) had ((2192 echo= be (able, X hold, possessed with), accompany, conceive, diseased)) a face ((4383 prosopon= from pros 4314 and ops (the visage 3700) the front, appearance, surface, outward appearance, countenance, person, presence)) as ((5613 hos= which how, about, after, like)) a man ((444 anthropos= countenance, man-faced, certain, human being)), and the fourth beast ((2226 zoon= Living Being/Creature)) was like ((3664 homoios= similar (in appearance or character, manner, the same)) a flying eagle ((105 aetos from the same as aer 109= (eagle from it's wind-like flight)).

With the same kind of reference to FOUR LIVING CREATURES:

Eze 1:5 Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man.

Eze 1:10 As for the likeness ((1823 dmuwth= resemblance, concretely, model, shape, manner, similitude)) of their faces ((6440 paniym= endure, fear of, accept, against, at battle, before time)), they four had the face of a man ((120 'adam from 119 adam= ruddy, mankind, of low degree)), and the face of a lion ((738 'ariy= from arah' 717 in the sense of violence, pierce (from the margin), to pluck, gather)), on the right side ((3225 yamiyn= from yaman 3231 right hand or side, the stronger and more dexterous, locally, the south)): and they four had the face of an ox ((7794 showr= from shuwr 7788 a bullock (as a traveler), cow, ox, wall, to turn, go, singular)) on the left side ((8040 smo'wl or smosl from same as simlah 8071 ideal of wrapping up, dark (as enveloped), the north, left hand)); they four also had the face of an eagle ((5404 neshar= unused root meaning to lacerate, eagle or other large bird of prey)).

In the Rev 4:7 verse below, the English word BEAST is NOT accurate to translate to “beast” as these are not poisonous, deadly, bestial humans, as used elsewhere in these Revelations though many translators don't differentiate between and others translate to “animal” even though the only relationship to animals is saying they are LIKE certain animals because of the characteristics of their rise out of the human evolutionary kingdom.

We know Members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven have physical bodies and that humans were made from their appearance not the other way around. Man was created in the IMAGE of the Elohim not visa versa and image as shown before has to do with their shape or form, their physical vehicle. Plus in all the depictions of beings from the Heavens they are always mistaken for humans because they look similar so to call them animals is a Luciferian way to try to deceive us. Ti and Do never ruled out that the Next Level could create humanoid vehicles that had wings like a bird but they still would not be Members of the Next Level as they don't need wings to “fly” and actually as far as I can tell don't fly around the way birds or insects fly or like Superman or as spirits. They have physical spacecrafts for transportation though Ti and Do said those physical spacecrafts can actually be Living CREATED Beings as well. I have chose to include the most well rounded translation in this context.

These two verses describing four beings/creatures that include verses that also describe them as having the likeness or countenance of a man and extremities (wings) - 6 each in the case of Rev 4 and 4 each in Eze 1.

These two sets of verses don't match up exactly but are close enough that they seem to be related and especially surrounding the depiction of a Lion, Ox or Calf, Man and a flying eagle. In trying to learn what Ti and Do would say this is, it occurred to me that these are describing each Being as having graduated various grades in the human kingdom school:

First the lion, that part of us that wants to be special, a leader that shows great strength as in the way Lucifer is depicted as a “roaring lion” in 1 Pet 5:8. In Eze 19:1-2, among other parts of the records there is the use of the terms; lion, lioness and cub talking about the princes of Israel, to where princes and sons are equivalent Also a whelp is often used with lion as an indication of youth, but as “sons of pride” or “proud beasts.” A lion is also associated with great predatory violence.

Sodom was destroyed by God because of their pride, arrogance, satisfaction with themselves and their sensuality and disregard for the laws Moses gave. The Great Flood was brought about by the Next Level because the result of the former “sons of God” (princes) had produced children with the “daughters of humans” and these offspring were mighty and filled with violence. This is apparently what happens when individuals receive Next Level Mind from the Older Members and revert back to animal behaviors and ways and go against the Older Member's kingdom and efforts on Earth to provide an avenue for new members to gain the needed strength to conquer that Luciferians influence - that negativity becomes significantly enhanced as even a type of self destruct mechanism.

Thus the use of Lion as descriptive of one of these Living Beings/Creatures shows they have conquered those characteristics of the human kingdom which they are then examples of to those humans who are upcoming into membership in the Next Level. After all, this is a jail for those renegades and as explained by Ti and Do, to take advantage of their rebellion, to make it into a positive they are used to put tests to some who were already beginners in the Next Level, as Lucifer and his angels were to even take their places in the tasks they once had, which they resent and want to prove the Next Level wrong about. Those who are brought to this earth “garden” did not come up through evolutionary processes on Earth. Earth was never an evolutionary developed garden. Ti and Do said there are gardens where the life forms do develop from some equivalent to a “speck of dirt” but Earth isn't one of them. What humans see today and think is normal is a “facsimile” of natural evolutionary development as stimulated by the Luciferians who wanted to be the leaders and kings of their own kingdom in competition with the Next Level. So the ones who are brought here to go through the jail to gain strength from the experience are first and foremost having to learn how to identify the Luciferian mindset and then to have the strength to resist it's influence. Some of the characteristics of that Luciferian mindset are in the description of a Lion.

So a Christ is as Jesus demonstrated as the first Christ in this civilization on earth, is referred to as the “Lion of the tribe of Juda.” Juda in this context refers to the tribe descended from the first created by Jehovah aka Adonis/Elohim, the fallen by succumbing to Lucifer's influence incarnate as Adam, redeemed by conquering Lucifer's influence incarnate as Enoch, in service as Moses, then Elijah, then Jesus to prepare for the student graduation through Do, awakened by Ti, his “Father”/Older Member. But more literally translated Juda would mean, “to use the hand/power” or more accurately to “give our hands/power,” to Jehovah's service, thus someone who gives to Jehovah's hand/power which is the One given to mankind who was/is Jehovah, the Father's right hand (power) 2000 years ago incarnate as Jesus, then as Bo and then as Do.

It's interesting how a “Yhuwdiy” is a Jew as a descendant of Jehudah (Yhuwdah) and Yhuwdiy is pronounced, “yeh-hoo-dee” so similar to the last name of all Ti and Do's students of “ody,” pronounced “o-dee.” Another of the hundreds or more clues of who Ti and Do were/are as for anyone else that was trying to be them in prophecy, they likely would not have chose a variation of the Hebrew form of the name. All the many false prophets as we see in the Abrahamic Judeo/Christian/Islamic heritage stick to the original language forms, though westernized through Greek and Latin into the English language.

This starting place to conquering the Luciferian Lion vibration is likened to a new birth of a seed in the human vessels taken by these returning “children of God” in the jail with it's inmates. The overall birth proceeds as the trimesters of a human body's birth. The first trimester is equivalent to a “shoot” coming up out of the soil into the daylight for the first time. That is the definition of a “calf,” in the Greek 3448 moschos thought to be probably strengthened for “oschos” as “a shoot,” or a young bullock and we remind that the calf or in the Old Testament also referred to as an “ox.” This first trimester representation in the garden's time line started in earnest with the Jehovah/Moses and Aaron as primary helper “experiential classroom” with the primary lesson of “following instructions” and the involved the beginning of weaning them from the human fallen condition in behavior and ways by adhering to all rules and regulations provided from Jehovah through Moses. This can be thought of as a “toddler” stage of development that included rules to instill “order” amidst former chaos, thus commitment to one spouse was a primary lesson step. Humans not killing humans for any reason was another and we all know the rest of what became known as the “ten commandments.” (note the Lord could kill humans and could instruct his servants to do so as humans were even designed to die. However, the Luciferians stepped in to give other humans his justifications for killing humans. After all he believes himself to have the authority to do so and so humans under his programming take on that same sense of authority).

The second trimester is represented by the students taking on the “face of a man” which meant shooting to rise out of all animal behavior entirely which included ceasing to identify as the vehicle and with the vehicle's root system (family) nor all the behaviors and ways of what is otherwise thought normal but which are really carry overs from the animal kingdom. Raising families and community participation and development are all positive steps in the school but Jesus was primarily focused on preparing those that were coming into the twelfth grade for graduation from the school so they had to adopt more of the behavior and ways of Members of the Next Level. Those students were taught that there was no marriage in the Next Level so they were not going to be married in his classroom either. There was no sexuality in the Next Level so there was no sexuality in the third trimester classroom either. They were actually building their new “mind/spirit” body by the adoption of all Jesus was given to show them. At the same time Jesus was preparing those that were not yet in twelfth grade for their future in the twelfth grade upon his return, though no one is held back from adopting the entire twelfth grade curriculum. Graduating the second trimester meant being willing to sacrifice one's physical body via performing service to the Next Level by spreading Jesus teachings. This would show the Next Level older members you have bonded with them enough to trust that you would not actually be dying when you lose your physical vehicle. Of course the Luciferians jumped in to program people to believe that's the case for everyone and especially for those that seek spiritual enlightenment and that no one actually died as their spirit/Soul would return automatically until it had learned all it's lessons and then would become part of the hierarchy So this was a facsimile of the truth though the hierarchy consisted of he and his other fallen angels and their “heaven” was hardly able to be extended off the planet though he would teach that one can fly anywhere they want after death. And most of all, all this could be achieved by adopting certain rituals and practices and beliefs that mimicked Next Level behaviors and ways in terms of control over the vehicle and it's sensuality, peaceful and loving ways, and for those that wanted to go all the way, entering a monastic order and/or becoming a humanitarian under the guise of giving up self.

However, by giving up self without actually giving self to an Older Member from the Next Level, one doesn't get the “boarding pass” for the “bus” that actually provides entrance and physical transportation into a totally new kingdom level of life. Thus Luciferians facsimile becomes a dead end as all his students believe they have found the ultimate path. Ti and Do said that all paths can lead to the top of the mountain but only by bonding with someone who is from and has access off the mountain (the human kingdom of perennial seed bearing temporary life forms) can someone graduate the mountain of the human jail. The inmates don't have the real keys to Heaven's Gate.

For some the third trimester is represented by the “flying eagle.” In every trimester there are some that are moving faster and/or had more experience. Some of those that graduated the second trimester are awarded physical vehicles that have some characteristics of full fledged adult Next Level members but still have the capacity to engage a reverse metamorphosis. Up until the start of the third trimester they are given service in the Next Level but to fully graduate must be willing to sacrifice those vehicles by returning to the human kingdom to take vehicles and rendezvous with the Older Members to serve their needs that will in turn strengthen them to the full graduation requirements. Not only are the students being strengthened by adhering to all the twelfth grade lessons provided by the Father through Jesus, they are literally changing out all their programming of the human kingdom, replacing it with Next Level programs through the newly incarnate Older Members instructions step by step. I suspect that those who received physical vehicles of a Next Level type upon graduation from the second trimester are referred to in the records as the four living beings and the four and twenty elders.

I believe these are the primary crew members that came with Ti and Do that stuck with them no matter what, though there were/are a number of others who left with them and can still graduate into their next step towards full fledged adult Next Level membership. I believe these 28 did not need to “lay down their lives” to return to the Next Level as Ti and Do first said. But they wanted to do so because of how they genuinely loved their Older Members Ti and Do and wanted to serve for the maximum positive that could come by their “laying down their lives” for their neighbor, in this case all who would witness their doing so as they have become “eagles” and their “wings” were their “hands” in service to their Older Members that care for all the new baby “eagles” to be.

* RELATIONSHIP OF LIVING BEINGS WITH WINGS OF AN EAGLE:

Rev 4:8 And the four beasts ((Living CREATED Beings)) had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, LORD God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

Rev 4:9 And when those beasts ((Living CREATED Beings)) give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever,

Rev 4:10 The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

Rev 4:11 Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

In this context these FOUR LIVING CREATED BEINGS work DAY AND NIGHT, thus they don't sleep because they are not human. However, for this task it appears they too come incarnate:

Rev 5:8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts ((Living CREATED Beings)) and four and twenty elders fell down ((4098 pipto= akin to 4072 petomai= the idea of alighting; to fall (down))) before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full ((1073 gemo= to swell out, be full)) of odours, which are the prayers ((4335 proseuche from proseuchomai 4336 from 4314 pros as motion towards, accession to, or nearness at + 2172 euchomai as ones will and wish to work for (worship) “God” - one's Older Member, aka Heavenly Father)) of saints.

All 28 of these have “instruments” which are their “vehicles” and they have “vials” which are “containers” that are their Souls, what Ti and Do called a “pocket,” or a “container” at one point and that container is as the Greek verb “gemo” means IN THE PROCESS OF BEING “FULL” AND “SWELLED OUT.” This goes along with the way Do described the human body as a glass vase and the mind of the vase as a balloon coming off of the head and the 2nd Balloon being the Soul pocket also coming off the head with the metamorphic (overcoming/conquering of humanness) process of building that new Next Level body being to empty the balloon with the human mind in it - getting rid of most all one's human programming and roots, etc. while filling the Soul container balloon with the Mind of the Next Level received from one's Older Members who gets it from their Older Member in a chain of Mind to the Chief (as Ti and Do called the Oldest Member). This would be equivalent to how Jesus said, “when you make your eye single, your whole body is filled with light.” That body is this “golden vial” - Gold because the result of the OVERCOMING METAMORPHIC PROCESS is purging all the impurities from our vehicles, the elimination of our human mind that leaves us with a new Next Level vehicle that is described as a GOLDEN VIAL. And Gold is clear when it's pure so one's Light would then shine very brightly.

Jesus also compared this Soul container/vial to a NEW WINE SKIN each student receives that they fill with NEW WINE - MIND/INFORMATION. (Even still, filling that Wineskin can cause the vehicle's mind balloon to in a sense pop, which is why Ti's vehicle broke down with cancer in her EYE as she took in a great deal of “light” through her singled minded Minds Eye that included her vehicle's eye that Jesus called the “lamp” of the body. That Mind that fills the new wine skin, being etheric is depicted as a incense or fragrance that comes about by conquering the flesh's desires as also shown in the burning of incense with each animal flesh sacrifice in the Moses classroom.

As it describes all 28 as “alighting, falling down in view (before) the Lamb” it shows who these are. These are all those who were physically with Jesus and gave their lives in Jesus service.

-“TWO” HELPERS are given/prepared, tasked, brought forth by Ti to Do

These four and certain of the 24 were referred to in Ti and Do's classroom as “helpers.” Moses had Aaron and Miriam, Joshua as primary helpers. Jesus had John, Peter and James as primary helpers, the three he took up the mountain who experienced seeing the Two Beings and experienced Jesus transformation and recognition that it was time to set up his exit. And Ti and Do had their helpers. Different students had helper roles. Having a “helper” role did not necessarily mean you were an advanced student though it did present one with greater tests as expectations were higher for those that had more direct responsibilities assigned by the Older Members. However, there were also those who were being given helper tasks because of it's practicality and to give them the opportunity to advance in their service to the Older Members. Many who held helper type tasks dropped out.

For instance, to start, there were some that traveled with Ti and Do in 1975-76 doing public meetings. They didn't ride in the same cars. Ti and Do always had their own vehicle to drive place to place. It doesn't mean they never were in the same car, but in the camp Ti and Do had their own tent they both stayed in but in their immediate camp there were student partnerships each with their own tents. The remainder of the students were always at some significant distance from where Ti and Do and Helpers had their camp. There was only one time I saw Ti and Do and their helper partnership's encampment. It was at Cherry Creek in the Denver area not long after we did the 6 meetings around Colorado, that students gave and new followers were then invited to one meeting Ti and Do gave at Arapahoe Community College. In that camp Ti and Do's tent was a short distance from the helpers tents but they had no cover so was in view of one another. I'm only saying this because Ti and Do most always kept their distance from the students, whether they had the assigned task of helpers or not. Many of those who were their original helpers became helpers because they were their first students.

As the group grew and there were probably up to 6 or 7 groups traveling the country counting Ti and Do's group and each of those besides Ti and Do's group had a "helper" partnership who Ti and Do's helpers communicated with in order to have an cohesive organization. When the entire group came together in the Wyoming wilderness area totaling just under a 100 students each of the groups were not in view of other groups but that was so it wouldn't look like we were one big group to the infrequent inspection of the ranger who occasionally would drive around there. So each day the Helpers from each group would drive to Ti and Do's encampment to give reports of anything that took place in the camp and to get new instructions for the day that Ti and Do might want them to take care of. Some months after the 19 students were sent away from the classroom, groups were discontinued so there were no more Helpers because Ti and Do purchased a very small travel trailer they pulled with their car and would park about 40 yards from the student encampment and they set up a communication system called "central." Central was a task all partnerships took part in on a hourly schedule and it coincided with the opportunity for students to have tasks by four going to Central every 11 minutes to stand there for 1 minute, in which time if Ti and Do needed something done, they would hold up one or two fingers in a certain window of their trailer the two on Central were required to constantly watch. One finger meant send one student to the trailer and two, send two. We learned to be quick and would run to the trailer and sometimes they would ask to have someone in the camp sent to them so they could talk to them about a note they wrote. The first time Ti and Do would signal they were up and about by shining a flashlight at Central notes would be delivered to them. No students ever went in their trailer and all students were prohibited from doing anything around the backside of the trailer unless they received a specific instruction to be there.

In about 1980 when we moved into houses, Ti and Do at first still had their trailer. At the Evergreen, Colorado Craft they parked it outside the house. It would be years later that Ti and Do would split the students among two Crafts and they would have a third craft. We had “central” in the crafts for a while. Ti and Do lived alone in their craft and assigned a group of students to primary communicate with to keep the structure working smoothly. Those different crafts ended up being called “satellites” and Sat 3 became a group of maybe 10 or 12 students who served as “central.”

I remember being jealous of those who worked in Sat 3 but knew this was something I needed to overcome and just when I took a stand against allowing those jealous thoughts, I was assigned to be in Sat 3 and it did boost my ego. I can honestly say that many who served in Sat 3 also had an inflated ego issue and most of those ended up leaving as I eventually did, though I was the last of the so called old timers to leave. I guess technically that is not correct as Rkkody left sometime after I did I guess though Rkkody had left and returned maybe three times before then.

Ti and Do tried a couple times to reside in the same craft with the entire student body but it was always short lived. The first time students got to spend time in the same craft with Ti and Do was when they started up the Blackhawk craft in Colorado. They took two partnerships to live in that craft with them and the rest of the students would travel there from their crafts in Amarillo, Texas on a retreat schedule to spend two nights there. There would be one group of 6 students who would travel there Friday night and return Sunday who had Out of Craft Tasks and a second group of 6 during the week who had “in craft tasks.” Thus there were 3 nights a week with no additional students sleeping over.

The partnerships that stayed there around the clock were called “helpers.” They were Innody and Lvbody who were partners and Lggody and Dncody though there were a couple others tried out. The Blackhawk craft started sometime in the early summer of 1982. These retreats started in July of 1982 and were discontinued on December 10, 1982. By July of 1983 we were all living in South Texas, the entire student body in Austin at first with Ti and Do in a separate house in the Lakeway area but by July Ti and Do moved to Houston where we had a retreat for a while. Before moving down to the Austin area, while still in Amarillo is when Ti had her eye removed as it was diagnosed with cancer. Considering that the Blackhawk move was the first time students were living with Ti and Do in a craft and that two of those who served as helpers ended up moving into the craft Ti and Do had in Dallas on White Rock Lake to take care of Ti in June of 1985, two weeks before Ti left her vehicle as the cancer had spread to her vehicle's liver and they were Lvbody, who's vehicle had been a registered nurse and Innody, students with female vehicles who ended up becoming Do's primary “helpers” living in the same “craft” with him over the years that followed, I am suggesting their preparation for that task of assisting Do started in Blackhawk and is described by this Rev 12:14 verse.

ADAPTING THE INTRODUCTION OF HELPERS (LVVODY/JNNODY) THAT WOULD BECOME USEFUL FOR THE REMAINING OLDER MEMBER (DO) AFTER TI LEFT, TO HELP HIM DIRECT THE CONCLUSION OF THE CLASSROOM BY:

This Woman (Ti) (with her “son” (Do) and their offspring (children), the Brethren) is the primary recipient of the attacks from the Luciferian space alien fallen angels (dragon/serpent) “face,” shown in how hate is generated by and through humans in thought and deed, namely from families of the student's vehicles and all of society, which is depicted here as PERSECUTION, IN PURSUIT OF, PRESSING (PRESSURING), CAUSING HER TO SUFFER BY. This persecution of her and her Son is easily documented since Their coming public in 1975 and was still very evident in 1982 with the grade B made for television movie, “The Mysterious Two” that depicted Ti and Do as equivalent to the Jim Jones murders/forced suicides that happened in 1978.

Thus in this verse it shows how she (Ti) GIVES, OFFERS, GRANTS, SETS, (instead of translated to “given”) ACCOMPANIMENT (kai) for her “Son” (Rev 12:13), (Do), (unbeknown to her consciously but in apparent anticipation of her upcoming exit of her incarnation) TWO LIVING BEINGS (Great Eagle Wings) incarnate in human (mammalian) vehicle, trusted MINDS FROM THE NEXT LEVEL (Lvbody and Jnnody) to serve as HELPERS (wings= extremities/arms (HANDS AS SERVICE)) that are to serve/care for and HELP the remaining incarnate Older Member (Do) (in Ti's pending absence) to manage the Throne Task by himself.

-“eagle” in this and a number of applicable contexts in the records is the greatest “windflyer” (from Greek aetos from aer= air) whose abode is on the highest peaks on earth and thus as a figure of human existence. Using the eagle not only represents the Biblical depiction of God's care over his people but is likened to how it trains its young (*Exo 19:4; Deut. 32:11, 12) to fly like Ti and Do were teaching, even using the butterfly analogy that ended up really catching on as a significant sign of the 60-70's awareness heightening. And Eagles really have “eyes to see.”

Blackhawk was also the least populous city (rather than town) in Colorado with 118 people in 2010 and was founded in 1859 during the Pikes Peak Gold rush. Five years later in 1987 we had a craft up Boulder Canyon on Lost Angel road. The property had an apartment over the separate garage that was built directly over a gold mine. Like Blackhawk it was a time of an extraordinary growth period. It is where Do exposed us to the recently published book, “Crash at Aztec” that contained Leonard Stringfield's publish of the reported alien body autopsies that Do made required reading. As strange as this could sound twelve years into being part of the UFO Cult, this was when it dawned on me for the first time that many of the alien crash reports were real. I hadn't joined with Ti and Do because of the UFO aspect of their information. It just made sense to me that biblical depictions of clouds of light or whirlwinds of fire or chariots of fire were what Ti and Do said they were - depictions of Next Level spacecrafts. I can't say I even read any of those scriptures yet it's like I thought, “of course they are spacecrafts.” However as with so much of what Ti and Do taught, as with what Jesus and Moses taught there were layers to peel back to see more of what's in the core of the information kernels.

*Exo 19:4 Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I bare ((5375 nasa' or nacah= to lift, bear up, carry, take)) you on eagles' ((5404 neshar= to lacerate, eagle)) wings ((3671 kanaph from 3670 + extremity, edge, border, corner (of garment) skirt)), and brought ((935 bow'= bring forth, carry, employ, fetch, take)) you unto myself.

This demonstrates the way the Eagle's wings are described as helpful - "bearing them on her wings":

Deu 32:10 He found him in a desert land, and in the waste howling wilderness; he led him about, he instructed him, he kept him as the apple of his eye.

Deu 32:11 As an eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young, spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings:

Isa 40:31 But they that wait ((6960 qavah= look for, hope, expect, to be collected, bound together)) upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

In this context Jesus indicates WHERE he will return to, the place is going to be where the "body" - the student body that is, comes incarnate...the U.S. so that is where the Next Level Highest flying beings will be collecting the student body classroom:

Luk 17:37 And they answered and said unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Wheresoever the body is, thither will the eagles (be gathered) together ((4863 sunago= to lead, collect, assemble together)).

REFERENCES TO THE TIME FRAME STARTING AFTER TI SETS UP HELPERS FOR DO UPON HER EXIT:

Dan 7:25 And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing ((partial)) of time.

Dan 12:7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and swore by him that liveth for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished.

So as said, this verse could be depicting the provision of Lvvody and Jnnody to provide Do (Ti's Son) with help so she can “fly” (her Soul/Spirit body) into the WASTELAND (WILDERNESS) of the spirit world, where she will go TO PROVIDE FURTHER NOURISHMENT to Do and the graduation classroom for the period of time remaining for the task where she can be more effective being out of the firing line of the Serpent's face (humans who are used to send her negative thoughts that are what she must battle but that take their toll on her vehicle as Do said was the reason the cancer developed. She had burnt out the vehicle dealing with all the negativity of this world against the Next Level she and Do represented but which she, being the Oldest Member received the greatest measure of.

As is the way of the Next Level there are additional evidences of this translation/interpretation in the way Lvvody's vehicle was a nurse and with Jnnody were groomed to assist them that ended up becoming the close assistants to Ti when she was exiting. It's like the Next Level planned to have a skilled nurse on the crew and to also take female bodies as both Lvvody and Jnnody had taken. The two other most consistent close helpers to Do were Lggody and Jwnody so I believe these four may be the Four Living Beings and also the Four Living Creatures described in Ezekiel. It's not important whether they are or not, but what could be important is to consider just how detailed and practical the Next Level Older Members are in their plans. It may not have been accidental that Lvvody chose the name Live, possibly implicated as one of the Four Living Beings.

This time of the preparation for Ti's exit also entailed Ti and Do starting a project they called “Astrologics” which was like a “new age center.” They rented an office space in Amarillo, Texas and were going to offer Ti and Do's teachings though fitting the mindsets of the people. One of the services we offered the general public was astrology. Snnody and Dncody did natal charts. Srrody and I and I believe Rthody were assigned to do progressions for the public. The three of us never met clients. Cddody interfaced with the public and communicated with the three of us and took our work to the client to help them understand what I wrote. I just did the 6 or 12 month progressions by various methods.

Also in Astrologics Mrcody was given a task to do stained glass work.

Prkody started making Christian crosses out of wood that later Srrody and I joined him on, using exotic woods in different shapes and inlaying stones. Ollody was busy air brushing the drawings he'd made from Ti and Do's input for the movie he and Cddody and Dncody had written with Ti and Do's guidance. We also gave talks to the public on various subject matter. Srrody and I gave a talk on ghosts. We had a small amount of visitors. And we had a little meditation chapel. I don't recall any paraphernalia. There were no pictures but I don't really recall what was in the room besides chairs that were facing a table as if it were an altar. There was some decor as it was considered to be a public space, though we could use it when we were working there. This is where we also started to sing Christmas carols in four part harmonies. Mllody played the piano. Ti wanted us to sing under Do's direction to help us look to Do better. All of this was in an office we leased in Amarillo. It lasted maybe three months before we closed it down and moved away. In total we were in Amarillo for about 1 1/2 years.

-“that (for the purpose of) she might fly” - She gives these TWO Helpers to her Son “for the purpose of,” that is, “in case” she “fly's into the that solitary location fly is listed as subjunctive mood verb which means that it “may or may not happen.” It's a potential, thus the inclusion of “she might” correctly in the translation. Now “fly” is also from 4072 petomai which is a middle voice indicating this flying is on her own steam and/or choice.

-“wilderness into her place” as a wasteland could easily be referring to the way Jesus was said to have descended into hell for three days and three nights after his crucifixion, that is before he healed his body and received the changeover “in the twinkling of an eye” that enabled his vehicle to be touched, where he preached to the dead. That would be the spirit world aka hell because once in the spirit world there is no getting out. That is why one needs to choose who to show our allegiance to BEFORE we drop our vehicle so the Members of the Next Level will want to be present when we exit our vehicle so to take our spirit or Soul body to wherever they choose to for safe keeping until the next classroom starts up. However, this location seems to be a very specific place that was prepared for her ahead of time. And since “her” is actually a contraction should be “herself” or “her own” locality (place) possibly referring to as having been her choice, perhaps set up before she actually came incarnate, which Do indicated was what happened with Ti. In other words, she set all this up (working with Do), even to the degree of only feeding her incarnate self with just enough information to do that task in a step by step way according to human responses.

-“where she is nourished” - indicates “which ever spot” her Son and the graduate first fruit student body is located and in need of her new position of strength in their support. Nourished is a passive voice indicating she is the recipient of the action of taking a support role with a new strength. In other words, she would be considering exiting to be able to finish the task from a position of considerable more strength. I believe Do did indicate that Ti, by leaving had a greater capacity to help him with the remainder of the task than had she stayed incarnate.

-“for a time (“occasion there” or in that place) and times (occasions) and half (partial) a time from (away)” - This is consistent with what Do said about “time” in the Next Level. They don't actually have time. He said “events are their time frames” and of course this is evident in all the Jewish festivals in how they are timed to the phases of the moon as events. Thus it seems it's an open ended time but within a definite fixed measure. (It will be shown that “time” in this application could be a literal, but approximate 3 1/2 year period).

-“Half” is also translated as “divided” or a “part” which is worth nothing as then it's a match with the book of Daniel's prophecy of the same depiction. This can easily refer to the time when the sheep and goats are separated or “divided,” the judgment time verses the first fruit harvest time. During the first fruit harvest time the Souls are not judged. Human vehicles are judged except in how they are taken over by Souls (who Ti and Do referred to primarily as Minds) which does provide the criteria. In other words, those who act against the Next Level in such a way that try to keep other souls away from taking over human vehicles by using misinformation to persuade them to deny the Next Level or see the Next Level as an illusion or state of mind as opposed to Living Above Human Beings who Created everything. Ti and Do said the Next Level Older Members actually give all Souls many chances to choose, though each time we choose to go against Them the next opportunity becomes harder. They said this was what happened to Lucifer. He was given many chances to change but began to grow in this independent way that subtly drew him further and further away from having even the degree of Next Level consciousness he once had, until he was so far gone there was no return. He had become waste though the Next Level still used him to provide his choices to others.

I could be wrong about this but wondered why the Next Level allowed some of the dropouts from Ti and Do's classroom to exit their vehicles. For instance, Dncody, Echody and Prkody. I don't know about Prkody exactly but Dncody appeared on a couple talk shows after the groups 1997 exit and I believe publicly spoke about Do as having gotten off track. What occurred to me just now was that he was allowed to exit his vehicle to give him another chance to get back on track by finding a new vehicle to take over and bring that vehicle into belief in Ti and Do and showing his efforts in that regard as this time period now is providing just those sorts of opportunities for Souls that did not make it the first time around, in addition to Souls that were not ready to be in the graduate class. Had I not taken the opportunity to return to service to Ti and Do in the year or two before 2000 when I was having many dreams helping me re-gain consciousness, perhaps my vehicle would have died to provide the same chance. I suspect it has to do with whether or not I publicly went against Ti and Do in some way and to what degree, that would be some of the criteria of whether or not someone who fell away could still return into service. In any case as long as we are in human vehicles we still have the opportunity and are therefore also being judged and have the option to turn away from Ti and Do's allegiance and service. That is always an option.

-“from the face of the serpent” - the space aliens and humans who know it or not are vibrating and acting on behalf of Lucifer and his fallen angels. When a face is depicted it's indicating a “mind” or Soul, that can come through a human and/or equivalent vehicle or not, such as a Luciferian who no longer has the vehicle they had when they fell.

Our being influenced by spirits is not at all limited to certain people, nor are they isolated cases of spirit possession. We are all constantly infested by spirits. All human beings are actually biological computer systems, the primary ports of which are the eyes, ears and the nose and mouth - frequency passage ways via light/sound and breath/air mediums that are always receiving input. A spirit is the genetically saved data from a life of that input and responses - output to that input that is sort of digitized in the genes that keeps it's charge even after the body has expired. Thus when a spirit seeks to interface with a human we potentially receive their entire database which is based on what we have programmatically accepted and rejected from birth that is seeded by the genes we get from our vehicle's parents. As early as 1982 Ti and Do were talking about this genetic programming and how we could change that programming by changing the content of our mind, (repentance actually means to change our “mind” - Who knew it was literally getting rid of the Luciferian programming (mind) and changing it to Next Level mind) the way we think and about what, our memories that stimulate previous ways of thinking and all go into stimulating our behaviors and ways that either raises or lowers our vibrations and thus what we are literally able to see and understand and change about ourselves. People get to the point that any suggestion that they are in the dark can result in their getting physically violent to extinguish. Ti and Do said that what a human being is, that is going forward, is the “decider” of what to expel and what to accept.

Thus this “face” is anyone with or without a vehicle that portrays the Luciferian vibrations that in this verse, this “woman” chooses when to flee from.

But overall, it seems this “time and times and half or partial time” marks the remainder of the first fruit classroom period in which Ti will be outside her vehicle to help provide nourishment for. Using the formula of a time = 3 1/2, thus times = 7 and a partial being anywhere from a half of a time, 1 3/4 onward one comes up mighty close to the 12 years from when Ti left her vehicle till when Do and their student Crew exited their vehicles - 1985 to 1997.

From this time on, Ti is not in a physical human vehicle yet is still the focal point of the classroom til then so takes the brunt of the further attacks from the Luciferians and the best way Lucifer and company can attack her is by attacking her offspring - Do who actually representing Ti just as Jesus was representing the Father and Moses was representing Jehovah.

II.A.5.g.i. SHOWS HOW REV 12:16 DEPICTS THE WAY THE WOMAN (GENERATOR OF LIFE) (TI) EXITS HER VEHICLE BECAUSE OF HER OWN CHOICES RATHER THAN BEING KILLED, WHICH IS THE INACCURATE TRANSLATION OF “APOKTEINO AUTO” FOR THE METHOD OF EXIT BY THE TWO WITNESSES THAT SHE IS ONE OF

Rev 12:15 And (the) serpent cast ((906 ballo= a primary verb; to throw (in various applications, more or less violent or intense)= arise, cast (out), X dung, lay, lie, pour, put (up), send, strike, throw (down), thrust)) (out) of his mouth ((mouth = 4750 stoma probably strengthened from a presumed derivative of the base of tomoteros 5114; the mouth (as if a gash in the face); by implication, language (and its relations); as a figure, an opening (in the earth); specially, the front or edge (of a weapon)= edge, face, mouth)) water ((5204 hudor from the base of 5205 huetos= rain, especially a shower, fig. of many peoples [their constant thoughts, words, actions and overall vibrations])) as (a) flood after (the) woman, that ((2443 hina= in order that, intending)) (he might) cause ((4160 poieo= to make or do, abide, agree, appoint, band together, bear, raised up, spend)) her (to be carried away of the) flood ((4216 potamophoretos= absorb or assimilate or digest the burden of the current, to bear or wear as clothing or as a constant accompaniment, be overwhelmed by)).

As depicted by the “serpent,” the Luciferian Space Aliens deluge the incarnate “woman” (Ti) with the flood of lies against her, that takes a great toll on her vehicle to combat as the human suit she took and prepared for the task could only stand so much, in combination with the quality of mind she had to draw into the vehicle to ward off the deluge as depicted by the Luciferian space aliens compelling humans from every walk to be against her (and him), the Two Witnesses when they begin to talk publicly about who they are and why they have come and when they will leave.

Thought bombardment isn't restricted to a discarnate (spirit)'s delivery. Do said the Luciferian space aliens do bombard those they are trying to influence with their thoughts. I don't know their limits in this regard. Anyone who is a student of the ancient records has read where there were a number of times someone would say they heard a voice from the sky. It was hard to know whether that was audible or something heard within someones own head, except in some of the accounts in the Moses camp and in the Jesus records some of those humans who were standing by said they heard words and understood them perfectly while others just said they heard thunder. So the technology exists and we understand from the Book of Enoch that the fallen angels were working for the Kingdom of God/Heaven for a time as “watchers” thus could have had that technology on their spacecrafts when they decided to stop looking to the Kingdom of God/Heaven Officers they worked under. However, it could be that their sending of thoughts might be related to the stories of ascended masters in meditation, sending certain thoughts to humans. Those ascended masters at best are the Luciferian Space Aliens who took over human vehicles they programmed to do their bidding. So they were like today's contactees and Christian and other religious or academic, scientific or intellectual preachers/teachers.

Additional evidence that the space aliens have such communication technology is in the account of Saul/Paul of Tarsus where he said he heard a voice come out of this light or simultaneous to it that those he was with also seemed to hear to some degree that told him it was Jesus. I don't know if that was made up as a part of the plan to infiltrate the budding Jesus movement. After all, Saul/Paul was an active Pharisee and knew his Torah, so knew of those reports from Moses and others literally hearing Jehovah's voice and understanding what he said from the mountain.

Then there are all the abductee and contactee reports that related events with space aliens to where they saw no evidence of a mouth moving yet heard their thoughts and they knew what they were thinking too, so this entire idea as depicted here of this incarnate member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven being flooded by human thoughts is completely feasible and one can not assume the physical body/brain this Older Member had taken didn't grow weary dealing with this "burden" called a "flood" just like someone with strong mental stress gets tired and can have headaches and the like from thinking or combating certain thinking. For some humans they can only take so much before the stress can cause their vehicle to break down. But this is a member of the Next Level occupying that vehicle so there is no telling how much they can take and whether they choose to heal the vehicle or not. Channelers are also evidence of how thoughts can be sent to humans, whether it's via a discarnate or via some kind of computer and/or radio wave transmission scaled to a thought frequency.

There has been a big critic of Ti and Do who says he listened to many of the meeting tapes Ti and Do made in the 1980's for the student body they were with, who says that Ti spoke about how she could easily beat the cancer she had in her eye. I haven't located that spot. However if that was all there was to that statement and considering that Ti's vehicle did die from a cancer of the liver close to two years after she had her eye removed from having contracted cancer in it, this person determined that she was wrong. He assumed that because Ti might have said she could beat the cancer or that the cancer in her could be cured that she would feel to do so. In her regular communication with her Older Member who was not incarnate she might have felt to let the cancer run its course. Of course this person thought that was an excuse of an answer but that's because he doesn't know who Ti was/is and who she was/is connected to in the chain of mind to the Chief of Chiefs. (Do referred to her as "Chief Administrator" of this Earth garden project).

In other words, it was known by the Next Level well ahead of these Two Older Members coming incarnate that they would encounter the Luciferian (serpent) attack. But they left it open ended whether Ti as in receipt of the greater part of this attack would lose her vehicle from it. The evidence of this is in the record as the Greek word translated to "cause" is actually of the "subjunctive mood" which as was also the case in Rev 12:14, adjusts the verb, "cause" to it being a "possibility and potentiality" so that "The action described may or may not occur, depending upon circumstances," thus justify the word "might" added to "cause."

So she "MIGHT fly into the wilderness" and she "MIGHT absorb or assimilate or digest the burden of the current, to bear or wear as clothing or as a constant accompaniment or be overwhelmed by (of the) current (flood)." This would suggest that she didn't have to lose her vehicle in that way. In other words the bombardment would certainly come but she might absorb it, bear its burden, wear it as clothing as a constant accompaniment or even become overwhelmed by it. She chose to let it overwhelm, not her Mind but her vehicle. It wouldn't overwhelm her Mind as it more likely could a far younger member or student member because even with a portion of her entire Mind, upon awakening that vehicle had no desire to vibrate on a human level even though she was willing to stoop back into the human kingdom to take on a human vehicle to perform the task she wanted to perform for her Older Member, Do's grandfather, so to speak.

It's important to note at this point that the use of the term "woman" wasn't just to depict the gender of the vehicle she takes. Greek "ginomai" is actually a verb so depicts the ACTION OF GENERATING that is being highlighted, which automatically includes her "son" in His birth to the throne and Their students birth into Next Level adult (Young) and brand new membership.

Thus the flood of thoughts and negativity from the Luciferians and human kingdom is an attack on the entire Next Level incarnate Family that Ti is the head of.

Rev 12:16 And (the) earth ((1093 ge (pronounced ghay)= earthly, soil, region, solid part of the globe, human kingdom (the occupants as a whole))) helped ((997 boetheo= from boethos 998= to aid, or relieved, succor (assist))) (the) woman, and (the) earth ((1093 ge= human kingdom)) opened ((455 anoigo from ana 303 and oigo (to open); to open up)) her mouth ((4750 stoma probably strengthened from a presumed derivative of the base of tomoteros 5114; the mouth (as if a gash in the face), a sharp cut)), and (swallowed) up ((2666 katapino from kata 2596 and pino 4095; to drink down, devour, drown, swallow)) the flood which (the) dragon cast out of his mouth ((used language/words, thoughts to provide a burden)).

We know the “earth” isn't a person so doesn't help someone directly but as Greek “ge” includes the occupants, the human kingdom and human nature, we can see that it was to be characteristics associated with things natural to humans that become the instrument of the Woman's exit, that provides the help, relief, aid, assistance against the Dragon's flood of hatred towards them.

Thus Ti allowed her vehicle to break down just at the appointed time. It was her choice and she wanted to get back to her place, her station to help finish the task. Thus the “earth helped the woman” was not just helping her but was also helping all the participants. AS it turned out the Earth could have “helped” them in two different ways. They could have been helped to get out of the Serpents firing line by the human earthlings being motivated to take them out (kill them) as Ti and Do first thought would be their exit method (as they said in 1976, if it was necessary) or they could exit by the break down of their human bodies from disease or by stimulating their own disease as Do and the Student body eventually chose using strong barbiturates to gently put their vehicles to a permanent sleep, termed death. They were not going to meet an accidental death because they had Next Level helpers to see to their safety providing they didn't do things that could challenge that help. And the idea of waiting for each to exit from diseases of old age was out of the question quickly though Do did entertain the idea to be sure he wasn't opposed to what Ti would have him/they do.

So their exit method was on their terms and planned to be all at once for these

FIRST Fruit harvest graduates, rather than a long and dragged out exit as for these students, this was a different modus operandi from 2000 years ago. Most if not all of these had Souls that came back having in times past given their lives during service to what Jesus taught and/or even before that as I've already provided evidence to while some were with Moses. They didn't need that exact experience again to measure up for their ultimate graduation. What is not readily seen by most is that the Next Level is real and they do grow Souls in human vehicles and those Souls literally live and are given new physical bodies, grown for their use to operate through doing various degrees of responsible Next Level tasks. Thus they were in no way really dying. But to come to that knowing means having enough of our Older Members reality in our own Soul container so it's not just a fleeting or convenient form of a wishful thinking kind of belief - so it wasn't taking a chance on the idea that they would not be actually dying except to their human existence physically and mentally.

Older Next Level members are never actually comfortable once they incarnate in a human vehicle so there comes a time when they definitely want to leave by any means so the idea of even healing the vehicle doesn't come up as why would they want to prolong living in an environment where they have come to be miserable within because it is filled with human beings that by in large have little true recognition of how they all came about and the amount of work and opportunity they are given to outgrow their humanness. Ti and Do always compared being on Earth to being in a “snake pit” and just not enjoying snake companionship and activities. Sure before they awakened, they were like any other humans who don't know any differently. But they now knew differently.

So the event of the “earth helping) the woman's,” as said, included helping all whom the Woman was the generator of. And the method of that help was via “the nature of the human earth body to break down and die” and especially so when put through out of the ordinary stresses.

Saying the “earth (human) opened (again) their own (her) mouth” - as a figurative describes a re-opening (in the earth or by humans); specifically the mouth as the front or edge (of a weapon) as in the face - in other words from what is said or “swallowed” (consumed) which is done because of the Dragon's flood, comprised of all the negative thoughts sent their way whether verbalized or not.

Further it is an expression that it is by the Earth's human nature that someone goes to their grave - returns to the dust of the earth, but in the case of Ti and Do and their crew of overcomers, by their own choice to lay their bodies down, but for the sake of the Kingdom of Heaven's requirement, illustrated by the “mouth” opening, because the mouth in it's Greek origin refers to the EDGE OF A SWORD, the instruction aka commandment that one is required to make that self sacrifice. As this is relative to Ti's exit, where her vehicle was diagnosed as having died from cancer to her vehicle's liver, that we know began to show itself significantly some two years before as great pain in her eye that was removed by 1983 and was also diagnosed as cancer then, which she subsequently did nothing to try to fight. Of course one can see it any way they choose. Some can think she was in denial as the reason she didn't make an effort to fight it - no change of diet or doctors visits for chemotherapy or radiation treatments as were the common approaches. The doctor that diagnosed cancer in her eye and it's removal even said to her, “the cancer is probably throughout your body,” which Ti reprimanded him for saying to her, no doubt his thinking he had to face her with the inevitability of her death or as motivation to seek the treatments. I don't know what his motivation was but the way Do reported it, which was after her vehicle expired she didn't think it was justified to have said. As Ti's vehicle had become a professional nurse, no doubt she had her reasons to take to task what the doctor said.

Later on Do said she died because of the stress her vehicle endured, being that she was Do's Older Member and the way that works is that the Older Member up the chain of mind takes on the “sins” of all those who in any way, shape or form send her negativity, whether they do so consciously or not. It's just the way it works and a big source of that is shown as a “flood” cast after her vehicle/mind by the serpent:

Rev 12:15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

Thus her vehicle going into it's grave - returned to the dust of the earth. Do said she asked that her vehicle be cremated and said he, with Lvbody, Innody, Lggody and Jwnody (who I suspect were the Four Living Beings) had a little ceremony as they spread her ashes into White Rock Lake in Dallas, Texas that would have been very close to the 1985 June summer solstice as her vehicle died on June 19th and there was no delay to the cremation.

Therefore it can be said that Ti also “exited by dying herself” (Greek, “apokteino auto”), (though less directly applicable) as was said would be the exit method/task of the Two Witnesses in Rev 11:7 to endure, as opposed to being murdered or dying an accidental death or minimizing one's stress to reduce one's vehicular breakdown or by not taking on the fight against the Luciferians in the first place when the handwriting is on the wall. She didn't have to choose to take on the stress of dealing with the man who had been her vehicles husband and eldest daughter Terri by not leaving her human world behind in the first place or by going back to that human world. It was her choice to accept the task from her Older Member in the first place which is that “edge” of the sword of the mouth that “cuts down the stalk” of one's physical body that then harvests that Soul Body from.

The more one separates from human behaviors and ways the sooner the vehicle deteriorates physically, though that breakdown can be prolonged, which seems to be part of why Do instigated many health orientated dietary programs to be sure their vehicles were in the best relative condition they could be in for as long as their classroom was needed to continue. I believe Do once said that participating in human sexuality is actually healthy for the vehicle, so since there was no sexuality permitted in the classroom, in thought or deed that would be one way the vehicles would deteriorate because of.

The translation/interpretation of the depiction of the Older Member having a “mouth with a two edged sword” would be because it is by their mouth/words that they give their students the requirement to “separate from one's human roots” - to follow them literally when they are incarnate, which also must take place after they are incarnate, though not in the same way, as there is no Older Member incarnate to literally go with, but one can follow all they taught and stand for them, which will also cause a separation from one's humanness. The other edge is “standing for the Older Member,” knowing those that hate the Next Level and in particular our Older Members, when they were incarnate, will also hate us for trying to represent all they represented on earth.

The verse says “and the earth opened her mouth,” where opened is from Greek “ana” and “oigo” where as a contraction “ana” has to do with repetition and/or intensity and/or reversal in that “opening.” Before going into that further, I'll provide a little background on the history of the phrase, “the earth opened her mouth.”

In the three examples below this has to do with someone literally dying physically. But before substantiating that idea with additional verses, the Greek definition of stoma has in it's roots something being “cut” as in cut down that has to do with a mourning - beating the breast out of grief that is what was associated with the lament in someone's death. Thus this Woman appears to be helped by death - the death of the physical body she incarnated into that was taking the brunt of the beating aka persecution from the beast as she was essentially the Mother Scarab pulling her young with her everywhere she went, into the wilderness and through the first stage of the overcoming process that her offspring (son) would take over and bring to harvest/completion for each of their student body, which is depicted in verse 17.

With that said, here are those scriptures that also depict this phrase as referring to someone's death:

Here, it's clear that Cain slew his brother so that his brother Abel was not to be physically found. It's expressed that the Earth “opened her mouth” because it was a human condition of jealousy/envy that caused Cain to slay his brother, whose gift the Lord accepted, while Cain's gift was not. Cain had the bigger test and thus opportunity to grow, but gave into his human impulse to get even with his brother:

Gen 4:8 And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him.

Gen 4:9 And the LORD said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not: Am I my brother's keeper?

Gen 4:10 And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground.

Genesis 4:11 And now art thou cursed from the EARTH, WHICH HATH OPENED HER MOUTH to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand;

Next we have a most interesting story from Moses that appears to demonstrate that the literal ground, opened up and swallowed up 150 people and their tent homes and all, which sounds like a very localized earthquake as others watched it happen. This is the literal “earth open her mouth”

Num 16:28 And Moses said, Hereby ye shall know that the LORD hath sent me to do all these works; for I have not done them of mine own mind.

Num 16:29 If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men; then the LORD hath not sent me.

Num 16:30 But if the LORD make a new thing, and the EARTH OPEN HER MOUTH, AND SWALLOW THEM UP, with all that appertain unto them, and they go down quick into the pit; then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the LORD.

Num 16:31 And it came to pass, as he had made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground clave asunder that was under them:

Num 16:32 And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their goods.

Num 16:33 They, and all that appertained to them, went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation.

Num 16:34 And all Israel that were round about them fled at the cry of them: for they said, Lest the earth swallow us up also.

And here is just another reflection of that event just depicted:

Deu 11:6 And what he did unto Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben: how the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and all the substance that was in their possession, in the midst of all Israel:

Thus the way the Earth is aiding this entire generation's (woman's) “Family” is by their saying enough to the burden they are bearing as they are the targets because of being the fruit about to be harvested from the Earth. They initially chose to see if the lower forces would expedite their exit which would have also been in accordance with the layout in the prophecy - “exit by dying,” dying to their humanness in every regard as Jesus always directly stated was the overcoming process. The lower forces make that seem like a “death wish” but it's in actuality a “life wish” because by dying to humanism they get to live for the Next Level where LIFE really begins as humans are at best highly temporary life forms whether in flesh or in spirit, unless they graft to the genuine Older Member vine of the Evolutionary Level Above Human, a choice all are given over generations to date. As the civilization becomes flooded with dis/mis-information this option becomes less and less commonsense to the masses no matter how sophisticated their credentials. Humans surround themselves with layers upon layers that are like insulating a magnet so it's force is all but non-existent relative to what it could be.

There is no indication in anything Jesus said that indicates any of the physical bodies they take upon their return during this End Time are taken into the Next Level as occurred with Enoch, Elijah, Moses (as Ti and Do believed occurred, and no body was seen or bones found since) and Jesus. And considering that this woman is the Father incarnate and one of the Two Witnesses/martyrs (giving their lives in service to their Older Members from the Next Level), thus as “Christs” to include completing their overcoming process, it doesn't seem there is any plan for either of these Two Christs to ascend into heaven the way in which Jesus did, as some say the Two Witnesses must to prove they are the Two Witnesses though all the indications are for a “spirit/Soul body,” thus invisible ascension only. Jesus even said it would be the false prophets that would show signs and wonder that could trick even the elect. He wouldn't confuse us by also performing such “signs and wonders” at this stage and it was actually very few who got to experience first hand the way Jesus ascended with his vehicle.

Rev 12:17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant ((062 loipoy masculine plural of a derivative of leipo 3007; remaining ones= other, which remain, remnant, residue, rest)) of her seed, which keep ((5083 tereo/teros= keep their eye upon to guard from loss, as a figure to fulfill or maintain a command, keep unmarried, hold fast, serve, watch)) the commandments ((1785 entole from entellomai= an order, command, charge, precept, injunction)) of God, and have the testimony ((4141 marturia from martus 3144= give evidence, records, report, testify, witness)) of Jesus Christ.

This verse is evidence of what takes place AFTER the first fruit harvest, AFTER the Woman's generated Family of God exits their incarnation as that is the only interpretation of the use of the “remaining or remnant” in prophecy. Further, it shows a second battle (war) of the Luciferians (Dragon and his angels), but this time not related to the battle fought in the mental sphere, the airwaves of the media, all described as the “heavens” that could also include the “elevated areas” of the high plateau of Wyoming where Ti and Do's group starting their overcoming battle in earnest, the “war with Michael and his angels” in verse 7. Subsequent to that battle Lucifer's angels were disallowed from having any claim on their former abode in the “abode of God” layer of the “heavens” in verse 8 and were cast to the earth in verse 9, which before then was yet another chance for them to re-enter the overcoming process. That was the first war began at arrival time in the late 1940's and early 1950's, the time of Ti and Do and crews arrival by intentionally crashing some of their primitive spacecraft models in the U.S. Southwest, followed by battling against Ti and Do when they came into the public eye as Bo and Peep, the UFO Two in 1975. In that battle the Luciferians prevailed in part by shooting any notion that Bo and Peep were from Heaven down, at least for the general public while they did not prevail against stopping the overcoming process that began with that student body in the “wilderness” of Wyoming. This second battle time seems to be what was referred to as the Dragon Powered Beast that is actually only just beginning:

Rev 13:7 And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

Further evidence of this is that it shows a focus on what Jesus taught and prophesied that still needed to be shown as fulfilled or to be shortly fulfilled, that uncovers the last mysteries held back and described as the job of John, so to speak, though belonging to whoever the Next Level gives the task to, as John in this context is an Active Student, trusted disciple of Jesus and therefore also includes all who choose to assist with that task assigned to John as a primary for. That task entails the dissemination of the entire BOOK throughout the world that includes the “back side” of the BOOK of prophecy of the REVEALINGS of all remaining secrets. That BOOK is described with a frontside and a backside in Rev 5:1 and regarding it's BACKSIDE as the Little Book in Rev 10 to be made manifest in the days of the voice of the seventh angel's trumpet sounding. That sounding seems to have been made evident by the international broadcast of Natural Geographics channel's “Final Report: Heavens Gate” broadcast in early 2009. Thus this “remnant” are the Souls who did not or weren't ready to take over a human vehicle to overcome it's humanness to graduate with Ti and Do's first classroom in 1997 but who either have reconstituted their belief and desire to be in Ti and Do's service or in some cases exited the human vehicles they had while in the first classroom and are finding vehicles they can use to begin their metamorphosis to Next Level membership now via “standing up in defense of who Ti and Do are,” the instruction Do and Crew left for those remaining after their exit, to adhere to, to be counted worthy of the opportunity to grow towards their own graduation, whenever that would take place.

According to the Revelations prophecy, if some are willing to give their human lives in their service they too will be awarded a new physical body and service on board a spacecraft in a “domestic level” of service as some of the “Watchers had” to prove their trustworthiness and to be in line to come back to the next earth classroom that seems to be slated for 1000 years after this tribulation/judgement phase is “done” and the garden has been spaded, pulling up of all the weeds, sending the BEAST into the Lake of Fire and shutting up the Luciferians once again in their bottomless pit prison for the last time before they are released one more time and then also cast into the Lake of Fire. More on all that will be described later.

II.A.6. THE “TWO WITNESSES” DESCRIBED IN REVELATIONS 11:3-6 ARE TASKED TO DELIVER THEIR TESTIMONY (SACRIFICE THEIR LIVES STANDING UP FOR THE GOD OF THE EARTH) AS PROPHECY FOR 1260 DAYS REQUIRING PHYSICAL HUMAN BODIES TO SPEAK THROUGH

(The entire Revelations chapter 11 is analyzed in section III.D.)

To prophesy means to SPEAK WHAT GOD HAS GIVEN THEIR SERVANT TO SAY. All the prophets had physical bodies to speak through. These can be no different as without a current physical body that has the same kind of language and cultural interface and understandings humans can not learn more about the reality of the Kingdom of God/Heaven so could not be brought to their “mind/spirit/Soul birth” as Jesus said would occur after his disciples are “born again of flesh.”

These passages in the records have been combed over for thousands of years and yet about the only interpretation that has not been considered until the arrival of Ti and Do is that these TWO are the same exact ones to fulfill the RETURN Jesus forecast that has been called the “Second Coming.” This is because this reality was hidden in plain view before this time which is why Jesus return was considered a REVEALING of the truth to further demonstrate what is REAL about it all to help wean people from thinking only spiritually about the Kingdom of God/Heaven.

Luk 17:30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.

1Pe 5:1 The elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed:

Something that is “RE-vealed” is something that was apparent before that is being made apparent again. The Prophet Daniel was told to “seal up” what he was being shown “until the time of the end.” And John was also told to seal up this part of the revealing until the time of the seventh angels trumpet sounding, which took place starting on October 17, 2008, some 11 1/2 years after Ti and Do and Crew had all “separated from their vehicles by dying themselves” - the true meaning of Greek apokteino in Rev 11:7 mistranslated to “kill them.” (That Greek word can mean different things pertaining to death of the vehicle, which is why the context is so important to the most accurate “revealing” that has been hidden until now. Ti and Do's first fruit students didn't need to see this degree of revealing as they were prepared from the birth of the vehicles each of those returning souls took for their task of overcoming their remaining humanness. Today there are many who were also prepped to SEE who are unconsciously waiting to SEE this truth.

The context of this revealing will be further revealed in the larger section having to do with the entire re-translation and re-interpretation of Revelations chapter 11. At this point, it's enough to stick to the part that describes these Two Witnesses:

Rev 11:3 And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy ((4395 propheteuo= speak, teach, refute, reprove [bring updates about], admonish, comfort others by divine inspirations)) a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

One prime definition of prophesy is that of “speaking.” Speaking requires a mouth. A mouth is part of a head and body, thus these two BOTH have physical bodies and they talk publicly, another definition of prophesy, for 1260 days. From examining all the references to time periods, it seems when a specific number of days are given, they seem to be accurate though the days are given for the task sake of demonstrating the fulfillment of prophecy NOT as instructions the Older Members must try to force. The Older Members know this and therefore don't try to be exact UNLESS it is their instruction to do so at the time. They wouldn't think ahead of time how they can make the prophecy come out exact. Their true "fruit," the ones given the preparation never care to see prophecy fulfilled to believe in them. Like said it's more for those who were of an upcoming grade in school to see how the prophecies are fulfilled and if they require exact irrefutable proof of their fulfillment to believe then they are simply allowing justifications to not believe because of how upsetting belief can be.

Now of course there will be some that lacking the desire or willingness to consider the most applicable literal interpretation of this representative and largely figurative written work of Revelations, will have all sorts of reasons why this doesn't have to boil down to TWO people walking around and talking with their mouths, even though that's the way all those in the past who had something to say related to the Kingdom of God/Heaven did and even said upon return of the Kingdom of God/Heaven would be the way it would happen (as documented in "Who Returns." Yes, there is symbolism galore, but even the symbolism is translatable to something literal. It's simply a matter of a desire to see and a willingness to understand, a thirst to know and most importantly a tendency to not fear changing our mind and opinions when the evidence shows another viewpoint to be potentially more accurate. Seeing the most literal application has to do with timing as especially with the kind of information being given in the past for applicable in the future, the events of which will mostly be evident after the fact, while there will always be what are seen as equivalent events that can be matched up with those depicted future events. But then this provides choices. It's like when NASA sees a very unusual event in outer space, something that seems to defy a previous understanding of physics, etc. For instance, recently three objects were seen in space orbiting a fourth object, while the object being orbited around is significantly smaller and by it's spectrogram analysis of less mass than the objects encircling it, something not thought to be possible UNLESS there is something, so called artificial about it, though what is artificial to humans often is not at all artificial to the Creator Kingdom of God/Heaven.

Another example of demonstrating the willingness to change one's mind is in the way the Hale/Bopp comet was initially reported by alternative news sources as having a companion object traveling with it. Those who were in touch with all the news of the comet and who had a mind to think outside the academic orientated main stream box that included a number of amateur astronomers worldwide were challenged in how to think about it. Just considering that challenge, these show a willingness to change from what might have seemed impossible before to being something possible now.

As it turned out a professional Japanese astronomical team photographed the two objects and made those pictures were passed around. They determined the alleged companion was NOT A STAR, as some in the U.S. tried to say to a photograph taken by an Hawaii observatory that was leaked and then covered up by software or airbrush of some kind that eliminated the evidence of the object as NOT a star. The evidence had to do with the oblong shape of stars due to their greater distance away from the comet and the companion object. After the comet went behind our Sun, the companion was no longer visible but instead showed three tails. Even though this was largely hushed up or preliminarily explained away as plenty of people are satisfied by almost any explanation that allows them to no longer be so challenged, scientists even today hold regular symposiums on just the Hale Bopp Comet data and they do acknowledge this unusual phenomena, thinking of the comet as having two nuclei that were even reported to be revolving around one another. The earlier reports that indicated this comet was changing speed and direction can have what are considered to be conventional explanations of course none would hint at being intelligently directed.

When you actually pull apart every syllable of the term “prophecy” in it's simplest form it is to provide Fore(pro) knowledge and information that bears forward, brings forth, teaches, reveals, provides light (understanding, realizations) from the Kingdom of God/Heaven to those on Earth. One major litmus test of whether or not someone is a prophet comes from Moses:

Deu 18:17 And the LORD said unto me, They have well spoken that which they have spoken.

Deu 18:18 I will raise them up a Prophet from among their brethren, like unto thee, and will put my words in his mouth; and he shall speak unto them all that I shall command him.

Deu 18:19 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever will not hearken unto my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it of him.

Deu 18:20 But the prophet, which shall presume to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die.

Deu 18:21 And if thou say in thine heart, How shall we know the word which the LORD hath not spoken?

Deu 18:22 When a prophet speaketh in the name of the LORD, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously: thou shalt not be afraid ((1481 guwr= continue with, gather together, stand in awe, remain with)) of him.

Thus the key point here is that what a true prophet from the Kingdom of God/Heaven says will come to pass so will be true and based on reality, thus someone to be in awe of because they are serving as a genuine instrument for the Older Members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven.

For reference here is a difference between someone considered to be a prophet and someone that is a faithful servant as Moses and as Jesus were:

Num 12:6 And he said, Hear now my words: If there be a prophet among you, I the LORD will make myself known unto him in a vision, and will speak unto him in a dream.

Num 12:7 My servant Moses is not so, who is faithful in all mine house.

Num 12:8 With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even apparently, and not in dark speeches; and the similitude of the LORD shall he behold: wherefore then were ye not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?

(This was said in response to Miriam's criticism of Moses)

The key here is “mouth to mouth.” In other words Jehovah at the time of Moses must have at times been able to actually talk to Moses directly via spacecraft, from within cloud covering or in the place called “the Holy of Holys” as there were other indicators that there was an actual Being in the camp with Moses at times.

This designation of the difference between a prophet and faithful servant does not evidence pertinence to these Two Witnesses just because it is said they “prophecy” for that “thousand two hundred and threescore days” period. These Two are described as the Olive Trees and Lampstands or Candlesticks that are delivering prophetic (inspired by God, forward thinking updates and application) information. However the biggest clear cut difference that sets them apart from both “prophets and faithful servants” (though they certainly fulfill both roles) is the fact that there are TWO who are INCARNATE, a huge difference from both the tasks of Moses and Jesus who in both cases had their Older Member (Lord/Father) with them but not actually performing the task with them mouth to mouth, hand in hand, though in each of their cases were very clearly present and even physically at times in Moses case, while in Jesus' case there is only one record of someone visiting with him physically at what was called the “transfiguration” mountain, though in both their cases on a number of occasions voices were heard by Jesus and/or Moses and some of their students/disciples.

The Lower forces have programmed certain ones that “dreams” (night visions) is not a way in which the Next Level at times chooses to work with some, when they are not incarnate. Ti and Do taught that we do get lesson preparations from dreams but we would not receive information in dreams when we are with our incarnate teachers and if we are coming into belief in them after they have exited their incarnation we will not get new information via dreams or specific instructions unless it's in response to our direct question to Ti and Do our only current Links to the Level Above Human. Even still we need to be on guard against Luciferians and discarnates trying to masquerade as Ti and Do. Knowing them from a personal eye to eye experience and getting to know their Minds for a time is a huge help to recognizing them in dreams and not falling prey to Luciferians and discarnates. One can always double and triple check by asking Ti and Do directly by use of those names, for clarification. They will never tell you what to do IF you haven't asked them for service and still usually occurs with options that are left up to us to instigate, while looking for signs of how to implement answers to questions.

In the Two Witness's case, we have an even bigger miracle (gift to all involved) in that the Father (previously named Jehovah) had taken the same incarnate role as those to whom were in the Father/Jehovah's faithful service providing the additional legitimacy that Moses and Jesus were both given to teach their students, that of having a witness to what we think, say and do, especially when it comes to information that is “above human” in it's content. The Luciferian influenced humans rarely have two such leaders in virtually any organization whether religio-spiritual or secular/atheistic and especially two that claim that one is actually their “Father” (Older Member) and that it's the younger member making that claim of the other and the other never talks about it.

The closest humans come to this are with presidents and vice presidents, etc. though if this was in the way the Kingdom of God/Heaven was demonstrating by sending TWO, when the president would give a speech, the vice president would also be present on the podium and would also be expressing himself. In other words they would work as a partnership when it came to the delivery of information which would provide that much more confidence among constituents in what they say and mean. With each of the tasks that Moses and Jesus performed, they did have Kingdom of God/Heaven designated partners, Moses having Aaron and Jesus having John the Baptist, with both having select students that served in primary positions with them. To role arrangements were never exactly the same, yet boiled down to providing a type of witness to what each was saying. Thus in this third trimester, the ultimate witness comes on the scene in a way that can not legitimately be denied (though plenty would deny it anyway as that is the choice provided by the Kingdom of God/Heaven to humans). This is why Jesus said, he didn't come to do the judgment of anyone as they would be judged by their “works,” what they say and do for or against the Kingdom of God/Heaven.

HOW BO (DO) AND PEEP (TI) FULFILL TWO WITNESSES PROPHECY TIME PERIOD:

Ti and Do set out from Houston, Texas to begin to deliver their prophetic message publicly on January 1, 1973 feeling forced out of Houston because of Ti's vehicle's x-husbands threats against Do, thinking they, then Marshall Applewhite (Do) and Bonnie Lu Nettles (Ti) were having an affair. Before then they got a court order against Bonnie's x-husband's coming close to Do. Ti and Do were always strictly platonic in their relationship, neither being attracted to the other in any physical, sensual or sexual way. They went to Boerne, Texas for just under 6 weeks to learn exactly what their mission would entail as they only at that point knew they had something big to do together. In Do's words from the 88update, speaking in the third person about He and Ti in Boerne, Texas, he wrote;

“While spending almost six weeks in painful, Soul-searching isolation in a Texas hill country ranch house, they began to respond and identify with more of their “Next Level” mind. They consciously recognized that they were sent from space to do a task that had something to do with the Bible, an update in understanding, and prophesy fulfillment. Having divorced themselves from their human lives, they struggled for some time with the conflicting duality of their bodies' memories and thought patterns and their Next Level identity and purpose.”

Do said he and Ti had met about nine months before they left Houston, which would have been approximately April of 1972 and after a few months started two centers, one called The Christian Arts Center and the other a few months after they lost their location called, “Know Place” that also only lasted a month or two. However, both projects were the result of their feeling inspired and compelled to work together full time to do what they believed was their Heavenly Father's work, to share with the public what they knew was adding up to a most extraordinary understanding and perspective.

After They left Houston in a whirlwind, they began to feel flooded with new information about the Kingdom of God's reality and felt drawn to travel west, working odd jobs along the way until they arrived at Gold Beach, Oregon where they experienced a major part of their awakening, realizing they were to fulfill the Revelation Chapter 11 Two Witnesses prophecy task. They traveled more sharing this perspective wherever they went until they were invited to talk to a meditation group in Los Angeles area in which over a dozen listeners wanted to be with them. Though uncomfortable with the idea of followers, they accepted the idea and with these followers began holding public meetings in the San Francisco Bay area and then into Oregon. People were leaving all behind to follow with them. One couple arranged for their two very young children to be left with their real dad nearby and this was relayed to the press which started a police investigation that turned into a nationwide manhunt and mystery of who these Two were and what all this talk about UFO's had to do with going to heaven.

The story dominated the front pages of most national media when Walter Cronkite announced their human identities. Their story continued in the press as they and their students continued holding public meetings all over the U.S. and Canada.

It was at a public meeting in Manhattan, Kansas college auditorium on April 21, 1976 that Ti announced that “the 'Harvest' is closed.” They then instructed the six groups that were in different parts of the U.S. to finish up the meetings they had already scheduled and then await further instructions. It was mid June when the groups were done with meetings and it was July 4th 1976 when all had arrived at Medicine Bow National Forest, in the Vedauwoo rugged camping area, where there were no facilities but camping was allowed. By this time there were a little under 100 students who had stayed with them through this period of their public prophesy.

I have not found a way to document to the day, week or month exactly when they first uttered words that others would recognize as “prophesy,” that is “new information and/or perspectives with a sense of the future inspired by and pertaining to the Kingdom of God/Heaven,” as that would be subjective and relative to the listeners hearing and understanding. But it can be documented that sometime late in 1972, Ti and Do felt they were receiving new information they felt was coming from what they started describing as the “Level Above Human” in what they knew was a new more generic and thus non-religious vocabulary and therefore more accurate to a factual (true) way of describing what was known as the Kingdom of God in the literal heavens, as a physical, many membered, even “The Evolutionary (non-Darwinian) Level Above Human.” And we can also see that this continued out of there mouths until April 21, 1976 when Ti called off their “harvest” effort so that the entire prophesy period was over by mid June of 1976. (I say mid June because Ti and Do upon closing the harvest instructed the small groups that had been holding public meetings to finish their scheduled meetings. It generally took several weeks to travel to an city, find a place to stay, camping or whatever, get donations of posters and a meeting room, communicate with the local media, put up the posters and then follow up with any who expressed interest which sometimes required waiting for them to tie up the loose ends of their lives. Ti and Do always said don't leave a mess, though also act quickly, taking just 2-3 days to sort things out and inform others of your choice.

For those that think this quick departure was uncalled for, I remind that Jesus told one person who said he wanted to wait to “bury his father” and Jesus said, “let the dead bury the dead.” Jesus could not have been inferring that the person was wanting to stay around for a funeral. Jesus use of the term “dead” had to do with those who turned away the Kingdom of God when membership was offered. They would be “dead” as the only way to “live” is to join with/follow with literally the Older Member which extends to after the exit of their incarnation, except then we can't literally follow him in his incarnate physical body but still can follow his instructions for us and his example of behavior and ways which always involve degrees of separation from our human attachments whether in relationships with human family and friends and lifestyles and the things we like to do. It's always up to us how much to give and we are rewarded accordingly. But it always entails “giving our life” to the service of our Older Member from the Level Above Human.

Do wrote about He and Ti's awakening time to their task:

“About nine months after they first met, they left Houston, because their lives, which were crumbling around them, made it impossible to concentrate on what was actually happening to them.”

“For about a year before they met, their lives seemed to encounter severe upheaval and personal confusion, later recognized as the human body's response to the entry of the minds from what “the two” referred to as the “Next Level,” or the physical level above human. About nine months after they first met, they left Houston because their lives, which were crumbling around them, made it impossible to concentrate on what was actually happening to them.

Most of their friends and associates thought the two of them had lost their minds or were being duped into a relationship by the other. The only relationship they shared, certainly having no physical attraction toward each other, was the compulsion to discover what had brought them together and what might be their purpose. They had little in common other than strong personal relationships with their Heavenly Father.”

Regarding their leaving Houston on January 1, 1973: Do told us that he and Ti were working hard to move everything out of the upstairs of the house they lived in that was where they had set up the “center” they called “Know place.” He said he and Ti were carrying a piano down a flight of steps and didn't know how they did it, feeling that they must have had angel helpers with the heavy weight of that piano. Do also said they were finished unloading this house on the evening of December 31st so that they drove away right at midnight of January 1, 1973.

Ti and Do told us a number of times over the years that they were in Boerne, Texas in January of 1973 where they described a very difficult time adjusting to the information they'd been receiving that had begun before then. Do therefore talked about the timing as in the 1970's. He and Ti never showed concern for matching up numbers in any terms to the fore mentioned or prophesied numbers and dates, but it can be stated with sufficient circumstantial evidence that their realizing that they had come from the level above human began in 1972 and took more than a year to fully realize. This was also reported in the New York Times Magazine Section article entitled “Looking for: The Next World” by James S. Phelan, Feb. 29, 1976.

Thus as they left Houston on 1/1/1973, and Do said in 88Update that they met “about nine months before they met,” they met in about April of 1972. To bring more facts to that, Do said in the book, “UFO Missionaries Extraordinary” by Hayden Hewes and popular science fiction writer Brad Steiger, that they started two centers for learning, the first they called the “Christian Arts Center” that Do said, “It was not what we were all about. It was a stepping stone to get our eyelids open” and lasted for “a couple of months.” Then after that they, “moved out in the country to a little place called Knowplace where we had classes in metaphysics, theosophy, astrology. But this was very short lived—It lasted only a month or two.” So that's on the outside 4 months. I know it took time after meeting to get to want to organize these two centers and it was reported during that time that Do's vehicle gave voice lessons to one of Ti's vehicle's children. Nine months was a type of gestation period for the two time periods in which the group held public meetings, first starting in August and ended in April of 1975 and then again starting January 1, 1994 and ended in early September of 1994. Plus many things are begun by the Next Level at or near the spring equinox that is most often on March 20th and/or at the following solstice in June. The second equinox was in September and it's solstice in December. Something Ti taught us was that, “What the New Moon promises the full moon fulfills.” Plus Ti always felt it was during the solstices was when we started our biggest steps.

If we back up from the actual point that Ti and Do stopped giving their own public meetings 1260 days, as prophesied we come to November 13, 1972, which would be during the period of time Ti and Do had “Know Place” as Do said in interviews to Hayden Hewes.

If we calculate the time frame from the other direction, thus add 1260 days to the date we know they left Houston to officially begin their prophecy period, even though they still had been receiving info, (actually throughout their 24 years incarnate), we come to June 14, 1976 which could be to the day of when the last public meetings were wrapped up, which was the instruction Ti and Do gave to do after Ti announced the End of the Harvest on April 21, 1976.

At that time, having been on the road for months with my partner Dandy (who later received the name Dndody and left the class a few years later), not in contact with any of the groups, until we happened upon them in Oklahoma City, (days after I screamed to the Heavens on what to do next) where Ti and Do were speaking at a library, we were assigned to a group of students that two students named Mrcody and Jwnody were the designated “helpers” (of Ti and Do) for. We held a meeting at the University in Ft. Wayne, Indiana and then scheduled our last meeting in Fayetteville, Arkansas when we got word that Ti made this announcement and then instructed the groups to finish up the meetings they had already scheduled. Our group was camped in the area of Cape Geradeau, Missouri and Mrcody and Jwnody left the group to have Jwnody's baby delivered by midwives in an Arkansas family they had met that wanted the baby. Jwnody didn't want the baby because she was committing herself to Ti and Do who she joined after she became pregnant. Arrody and Brnody were assigned to take their place as “helpers.” We still had not publicized the meeting in Fayetteville so one carload drove down there to put up posters as was our routine which was no more than a week or two ahead of the meeting. I don't recall the meeting date but would estimate it to be sometime in May. I don't know what other meetings were scheduled as there were three to four other groups who had meetings to finish.

After the meeting we returned to our camp at Cape Geradeau and were joined by two new members - who would later be named Pypody and Anyody who had joined us from a previous meeting. Maybe a week passed and we got instruction from Ti and Do for each student to spend most all their time “pulling” from the Next Level (Kingdom of God/Heaven) for our next step and to help us become pure for the Next Level. This period of time lasted for about a week and Ti and Do called that time, “tomb time.” Afterward, we were instructed to meet at the Veedavou rustic campground area in the Medicine Bow National Forest, located about 20 miles east of Laramie, Wyoming. I recall noting how we were at that camp by July 4th, 1976.

Therefore, Ti and Do more than sufficiently fulfill this major prophecy of the Two Witnesses spreading their prophecy (speaking their information) for 1260 days. The Kingdom of God/Heaven organization is anything but static in adhering to exact time periods they lay out in their blueprint but depending on when one starts counting it certainly can come out exact.

Also for the record, the next time there was any public offering of information, Ti was no longer incarnate, so the fact that Do and students had public interface in the 1990's doesn't alter Ti and Do's Two Witnesses prophecy period of 1260 days fulfilled.

Some say that the fact that Ti and Do were public with their information (prophecy) for these 1260 days was because they planned it to conform with prophecy. However, if that was the case Ti would have said their prophecy was over on exactly the 1260th day from their leaving Houston on January 1st 1973 the date they always used as their primary start date. But Ti and Do were never led by prophecy though they saw those records as tools and clues to better understand their task by.

.”..clothed in sackcloth...”:

As with all prophecy multiple layers of meaning figurative and literal usually apply. For instance when clothing is spoken about as with “sackcloth,” it often is referring to the human body a member of the Kingdom of God chooses to “wear” (to “wrap around” their Soul, take over, incarnate into, overcome and conquer it's human mammalian characteristics. It's also referred to as a “horse” they, the Soul learns to take control over (tame/ride), or is referred to as their “house,” that they sweep clean the mind of by not permitting certain thoughts to linger, kicking them out as soon as they can and stopping certain actions that their Older Member instructed them to also kick (sweep) out and cease their acting them out. This is essentially sweeping out the discarnate spirits from ones consciousness, behaviors and ways which is also written as “washing” their body/mind clean. As toddlers in Mind development as in the Moses camp one of the first instructions that came from the Lord to Moses when he went up Mt. Sinai, was that the group needed to prepare for the Lord to speak to them directly by “washing their clothing” and “not coming into their wives.” Washing their clothing was early preparation of the thinking that would become cleaning out one's robe/house/mind.

A member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven, in their normal environment doesn't have this kind of task as the physical body they occupy, drive like a pilot, use to perform physical tasks is described in the record as being “incorruptible.” In other words, it does not even have the facility to return to mammalian behaviors. However they are still real beings as opposed to being exclusively “spirit” or exclusively “physical.” But each members physical body, though constructed by their own flesh equivalence, perhaps like plant construction, is not necessarily the same as human flesh. The biggest example of what makes a Kingdom of God/heaven physical body incorruptible is in the presence or not of reproductive organs. If it had these organs, then technically, if they chose, they could return to human behaviors that use that facility. But since the Kingdom of God/Heaven members don't reproduce like mammals but instead acquire new “children” from the Soul births from adult humans, as they have no need for human vehicles young or old, any who evidence still having a mammalian reproductive nature are not graduates into an incorruptible new body, which is what seems to be the case with the Luciferians. They had physical bodies that could still desire and enact human mammalian behavior, as documented especially in Genesis, Chapter 6. However, here is what Paul said about the difference in physical bodies and considering that this way of thinking is not evidenced anywhere else in the record, Old or New, though with some hints in materials not included in the so called authorized record of the “Bible,” it seems likely that Paul received this understanding from one or more of those who were literally with Jesus, who most definitely would have been the original source.

1Co 15:38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

1Co 15:40 There are also celestial ((2032 epouranios= above (epi ep-ee') air, heaven, sky)) bodies, and bodies terrestrial ((1919 epigeios ep-ig'-i-os= above (epi ep-ee') Earth/human (ge ghay))): but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

The terms “glory” sometimes translates as a brilliance, brightness or intensity of light (energy) which is what powers a physical body and for that matter all elements animate or not are infused with electromagnetic charge, however small.

Thus the body these TWO Witnesses wear is a plain/ordinary appearing physical body - in other words not born into a human kingdom royal family as well as not arrayed in fancy clothing* flowing white robes, putting on the garb of governmental or spiritual hierarchy, thus consistent with what Jesus said about “raiment” (actual clothing we put on our body) not representative of true “stature” or “glory.”

*clothing as the outer wear of one's physical body:

Mat 6:28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

Mat 6:29 And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

Ti and Do's literal clothing was quite ordinary and not such that would depict a highly religious or spiritual person, as wearing a white robe would do, nor the kind of attire someone who was trying to impress another would wear as in those running for political office do in a business suit nor like those who are seeking to attract others with their clothing choices. According to New York Times Magazine Section article: “Looking for: The Next World” By JAMES S. PHELAN, Feb. 29, 1976, they wore slacks and windbreakers that can be seen in pictures taken of them over those years that I can attest to and especially applicable during the time of their most public prophecy period from July/August of 1975 until April of 1976.

.”..Two Witnesses...”

“Two Witnesses” - 3144 martus= of uncertain affinity; a witness (literally (judicially) or as a figure (genitive case)); by analogy, a “martyr”= martyr, record, witness.

What's most interesting when considering the entire meaning of the Greek root to the English word "Witness" is how it should really be translated to say... "I will give my students TWO EXAMPLES OF HOW TO GIVE ALL OF ONE'S LIFE, (even physically dying while) BEING THEIR REPRESENTATIVE PUBLIC SERVANT OF THE OLDER MEMBERS (FATHER(S)) IN/FROM THE KINGDOM OF GOD/HEAVEN."

After all to whom do these TWO bear testimony, provide record of, establish the truth that provides a criteria for one's self to judge whether or not they seek to be "for or against the one true Kingdom of God/Heaven or Mammon," to be a witness for Their Older Members who parented them into membership x garden projects ago in whatever part of the universe they took their Soul birth, harvest and/or graduation from.

Isn't this fully consistent with what Jesus said was necessary to have one's name in the book of life- to not just be willing, but to actually stand up for One's Older member knowing that to do so, will eventually lead to one's physical human demise. This is the essence of "take up one's cross," while is also a huge denial of one's own human based will to life and thrive, in "deny self" and is essentially what comes to pass when we leave all behind, ie., family, friends, homes to instead follow along with someone who most would consider a dangerous cult leader, certainly being a new "culture" and certainly being "dangerous" to the maintenance of any human life style and/or purpose.

Thus this is certainly an exercise in a type of martyrdom and is why it is spoken of as a sacrifice on the altar. Our species was taught early on that for the Kingdom of God/Heaven's representative the sacrifice of our humanness is not only justified but necessary because otherwise the Kingdom of God/Heaven doesn't trust us to really want what they have and have offered. It's when we have enough of their mind within our Soul pocket that it makes sense as we can embrace a recognition of Their reality that equals "faith," though far from a "blind faith" though those who don't embrace it will think it's blind, yet will be threatened by it, because they will be led to believe that when others open up to it, they acquire some of the same and this could lead to their departure from their "cult" however traditionally or institutionally, secular or religio-spiritually popular or accepted.

Rev 11:4 These are the two olive trees, and the two candlesticks ((3087 luchnia from 3088 luchnos= a lamp(light)-stand)) standing ((2476 histemi= abide, appointed, present, set up)) before ((1799 enopion= from 1722 en= in the presence or sight or face of)) (the) God ((2316 theos= a deity)) of the earth.

On top of the fact that they are literally SPEAKING (prophesying), thus requiring a mouth in their delivery of that PROPHECY, the rest of the verse adds considerable additional evidence of their physicality. The word CANDLESTICK is the same as saying LAMPSTAND OR LIGHT STAND, which is actually a clearer translation as a CANDLE STICK OR LIGHT STICK without a way to prop it up will not actually work. And a lamp, that which gives off light also requires a stand to function. Thus saying “candlesticks stand” as stand is a needed part of the candle or lamp is being repetitive, which leads one to believe the intention was to say these candles, sources of the light are standing on their stands, the physical bodies they have incarnated into. This also applies to the depiction of these two as “olive trees.” A tree depicts a family and olive the vehicle that when pressed (killed) produces oil that can be consumed to produce energy/heat/light. Thus these two are the tree that all who are branches grow from the physical bodies they takeover, borrow, incarnate into for their task of prophecy. Thus taking a “stand” is both depicting again their incarnation into a physical body, but also depicts that they are “standing up for something” kin to “living for something,” kin to being appointed and the setup to perform their task that includes “abiding” by the instructions that go with the performance of the task (standing up for) AND making their physical, yet temporary home, literal “dwelling” in both a human vehicle and in it's human environment.

Now, saying that these two STAND (abide/live/dwell) and do so BEFORE (in the face of, in the visual presence of) the God of the Earth is consistent with their being physically incarnate and also not at all inconsistent with the premise being played out that one of these Two Witnesses is actually Jesus' “Father,” also returning as Jesus indicated They would.

Joh 14:21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will MANIFEST ((1718 emphanizo from 1717 emphanes; to exhibit (in person) or disclose (by words)= appear, declare (plainly), inform, (will) manifest, openly, shew, signify))

Joh 14:22 Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest ((emphanizo)) thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

Joh 14:23 Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and MY FATHER WILL LOVE HIM, AND WE WILL COME UNTO HIM, AND MAKE OUR ABODE WITH HIM.

A Lampstand is a container/pipe - a vehicle to burn oil within, oil that gives off light, light that yields understanding, perception, impetus to address challenges and confidence of help by the asking, etc., The bodies these Two take is to them as a suit of clothing, they temporarily put on and wear for this task. An Olive tree represents THE Tree of LIFE, The Kingdom of God/Heaven's Above Human membership and literal common "blood" family that Older Members are branches of and younger members potential new branches and new prospective members, Soul seeded human beings (man) They cultivated genetically are as leaves and upon graduation, harvested fruit (qualifying membership on one's Older Member's (Heavenly Father's) crew.

The fruit's product(oil) is the life giving "blood" or symbolic wine in the grape/wine example of the entire Tree. It is living Kingdom of God Mind which also carries a heightened electromagnetic charge, just like a computer's current or the current carried by the blood of an animal, as every element carries it's charge. This Oil (Kingdom of God/Heaven Mind) contains knowledge, awareness, consciousness drawn by the carrier that describes Their reality and is provided to new members when they draw (thirst) for it and when applied by giving of service to the Older Members and is carried over Spirit/light frequency waveforms, throughout all branches (Older Members) of the Next Kingdom Level (of God) as they perform tasks that require their trying to be as pure or perfect links aka pipelines they can be, which adds oil (Mind) to their container (lampstand) aka Soul container.

When we are with a physically incarnate Older Member, such as the Father and/or Jesus and we seek to draw their mind, thinking, understandings, behaviors and ways to us, which practically speaking occurs when we simply ask in person or in silence how to go about doing any task and then try to implement what we believe is their guidance or instruction, be it from remembering a past instruction, commandments or by their being with you physically and actually telling you what they would do in that circumstance, the most reliable communication and one prime reason they come incarnate as human. The more we do this the better without making it trite and vain by needless repetition, as religionists do with prayers and meditations, however not knowing better may be the best they can do, but when approached with more understanding if they put it off, then it's then that they've made a choice for or against the Kingdom of God/Heaven.

When we receive assigned tasks from our Older Member and we seek to perform them as They would we are burning (exercising) our mind by drawing to it Their Mind and that process actually depletes our Older Members of energy, even if it's done without Their knowing about it. This is what Jesus meant by instructing his students to eat his body as it literally consumes (burns out) his flesh/energy, though he will be restored when he then seeks to draw his Older Members mind. In fact, our drawing from our incarnate Older Member's mind, actually assists in Their drawing from their Older Member's mind as after they given us that portion of their mind, they are opening up their pocket to refill. Drink his blood has a similar application but has more to do with being willing to also shed our vehicles blood for the Kingdom of Heaven's sake, for our Older Member, for the task given us that ends up supplying students with both the example and a bit more of our Older Member's Mind.

Every member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven wants to be the best possible link to Their particular Older Member who wants the same, on up the chain of mind to the Chief of Chiefs, the Oldest Member, whom we can understand more about once we are members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven. Older Member's also consider themselves pipelines for their Older Members and want to be clean pipes which to them means that when they are delivering the most accurate information they can to their student body, not tainting or diluting that “mind” by putting in their own interpretation. The task is what is important, not the ego or satisfaction of the one executing the task.

But the Kingdom of God/Heaven doesn't want puppets or robots on their crew. They can create such easily. Nor do they want new members who think they can see a better way to do things so They set the membership bar very high to become essentially like children trusting totally in their parents, but in this case the parents don't want “yes men” or “puppets,” though from the new members perspective they would want to be puppets. Thus the Older Members give all the tasks they could do quite well themselves to the younger members to do, so they can come into their own experience by learning why certain things work well. Meanwhile the Older Members observe and hear the reports and together with the younger members seek to improve any and all aspects of the tasks they are given. But as to becoming “like” children:

Mat 18:3 ...Except ye be converted and become as little children (simple/trusting), ye shall not enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.

re: Human self importance:

Mat 3:9...God is able of these stones to raise up children to Abraham.

Mat 6:22 The light ((lamp)) of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

Mat 6:23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

Light is energy. Oil is that light providing energy we exhaust with all our physical, mental and emotional actions.

When we exhaust energy/light in human ways we lose our life ever so slowly. If we restrain expenditure we build up our mind muscle and have more power to both push and pull. The ultimate forms are pushing through all new challenges and pulling for more Older Member Mind, Ways and Service.

Though we become more childlike in ways, containment of our life force builds power. Luciferians teach to channel that power back to SELF called Tantra which OMs from Kingdom of God have no use for so let's them, the Luciferians and those they have spawned, perish without a future.

Older Member's effort (work) and SELF-sacrifice (because they don't have to do it) demonstrates the required WAYS we need to recognize and adopt so when they physically incarnate we SEE Them and look to Them to pass thru the Heaven's gate.

That's why the Christian idea that Jesus will show up in the clouds and believers will physically ascend to meet him in the air is illusionary. It's not that that's not possible for the Kingdom of God/Heaven to orchestrate but one must ask, why would they want a bunch of humans who have not learned how to act with a member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven, that they can only learn how from when they are with that member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven when they are incarnate, the reason those in the first harvest must “follow the lamb wherever he goes” (Rev 14:4).

To literally be with our Older Members in their environment, in their crew on board their spacecraft or within their laboratory, We ALL MUST both extinguish our flame/sensuality however we express it, that is in part the overcoming of the world process that includes physically dieing;

Joh 12:24...If a corn of wheat doesn't fall to the ground and die, it abides alone:but if it die, it brings forth much fruit.

Luciferians convince many Christians that certain things Jesus said applies to them: (It's not that it can't or won't ever apply, but it's all in degrees according to the lesson step of the student. If for instance we are not asking to be in Their service 24/7 and to become aware of exactly how to apply what they are provided after that, which required continued regular asking and taking steps as they might seem appropriate, then we will not move at the pace of learning our lessons that someone might move at and visa versa.

Joh 6:50 This is the bread which comes down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof and not die.

By “not die” he is referring to one's Soul. The physical body must die to be harvested. So what does He mean by EAT?

Joh 6:51... the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the LIFE ((Life as a member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven)) of humankind.

He's saying we must Give our flesh as He gave His. The Soul is what we need to preserve and that's built by not only belief but trusting the formula (the way) the Older Member demonstrates to us when we are physically face to face with Them and by seeking to be their student even after they have left their incarnation while we can still count on the information they left behind.

Here's what a Kingdom of God/Heaven messenger (angel) told Old Testament prophet Zechariah about the TWO Olive branches (family), Candlesticks (pipelines) (bodies) that house one's Soul):

Zec 4:11 Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof?

Zec 4:12 And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves?

This is supportive of the idea that there are the Olive Trees, the mental and physical genetic/Soul lineage of the Kingdom of God membership and branches, the Older Members of the Eternally Living Tree and the two golden pipes are a member's vessel (now gold because all impurities have been purged out of the base mankind metals (dust of the earth), through a process of “fire” - having in their birthing into Kingdom of God/Heaven membership snuffed out and redirected their mammalian passions and allegiances), these two branches use to empty their oil (blood/mind) out (giving it to their young) to birth/graft them to their branch of their family tree of LIFE.

Here is the verse that supports who the Two Witnesses are described to be:

Zec 4:14 Then said he, These are the TWO ANOINTED* ones (the meaning of the term Christ, thus these two are both Christs), that STAND BY THE LORD OF THE WHOLE EARTH.

*Anointed in Hebrew = yitshar= pure oil producing light, a CHRIST, thus one who's whole body is filled with light. Interesting that it could correspond to the term “enlightenment” said to be representative of the Buddha's desired station.

So these two anointed/Christs according to the angel's message to Zechariah referencing them as Lampstands and as Olive trees that John recorded, are in human being form (incarnate) and are who literally and as a figure STAND BEFORE THE GOD OF THE EARTH, the exact same wording as John used in Rev 11:4.

Another indicator that these two are Christs and actually the Father and Son (Jesus) returning to incarnate into new human bodies is related to Rev 12 where Michael appears to be the one to battle the Luciferians right after and during the birthing of the male child to the throne by the one depicted as the woman who is king over 12 kings, of which one in the name of Michael is the chief and serves as Moses and then Jesus and now one of the Two Witnesses with the Father.

DETAILS HOW THE ARCHANGEL MICHAEL IS DESCRIBED AS BOTH A “CHRIST” (ANOINTED) AND A PRINCE (SON OF GOD)

Here's where Michael is spoken of as a “chief prince,” that the context reveals is not a human prince:

Dan 10:13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

Here Jesus Christ is referred to as the “prince of the kings of the earth”

Rev 1:5 And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

Links of Christ as the Prince of the covenant, messiah Prince and Prince of Princes and Prince of Hosts:

Here a Luciferian is magnifying himself to the Prince of the host. That host represents the host of angels the Prince is in charge of. Thus Lucifer is in competition with the one who was Jesus, the Messiah.

Dan 8:11 Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of the sanctuary was cast down.

Here the Messiah is compared to a Prince and also the one who is confirming the covenant:

Dan 9:25 Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince ((5057 nagiya= captain, commander, excellent thing, governor, ruler)) shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.

Here he is referred to as prince of princes, in this verse speaking of Lucifer standing up against him:

Dan 8:25 And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand.

Here he is referred to as the prince of the covenant:

Dan 11:22 And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflowed from before him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince of the covenant.

Here we see how prince referred to someone of each tribe that was “lifted up” called a “prince” or Captain or some such term to indicate their task of helper to Moses. Here one is chosen to represent each of the tribes of the children of Israel:

Num 17:2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and take of every one of them a rod according to the house of their fathers, of all their princes ((05387 nasiy' or nasi' from 05375= one lifted up, chief, prince, captain, leader, rising mist, vapor)) according to the house of their fathers twelve rods: write thou every man's name upon his rod.

One can think...see, John was making this up, but that's someone who fears seeing it for what it is. The Kingdom of God/Heaven doesn't choose messengers that are not equip to relay the kind of information they want to relay to future generations. They picked John because he demonstrated characteristics and scriptural understanding that would provide consistent depictions. Why? Well, because the Kingdom of God/Heaven wants some to figure it out and see the links and so called coincidences. They want there to be some who dig into what it all means because in doing so, there stands a chance for some who read it to awaken to the reality it ultimately depicts, who thereby might be perched for their next best “leap of faith.”

Literally, it indicates these two have human bodies as otherwise they would not be depicted as STANDING as that is a bodily position. While at the same time as a figure as these two are witnesses giving their testimony/experience in the Next Level, they are also TAKING A STAND for the Next Level.

“Standing”- 2476 histhmi= a prolonged form of a primary stao (of the same meaning, and used for it in certain tenses); to stand (as a transitive or inas a transitive), used in various applications (literally or as a figure)= abide, appoint, bring, continue, covenant, establish, hold up, lay, present, set (up), stanch, stand (by, forth, still, up).

Since in this context it is talking about Two People as they have to be able to deliver prophecy for a time period you could say they: ABIDE before the God of the Earth and/or are APPOINTED before the God of the Earth (which relates to their being Christs who are “anointed, appointed, approved, authorized, enlightened ones” and/or have a COVENANT before the God of the Earth, a contract, a task to perform and/or STAND BY/FORTH/STILL/UP before the God of the Earth.

Anyway you swing it, they are evidently very present as opposed to being mystical beings. Also another indicator of how they are present:

“Before”- enopion neuter of a compound of en 1722 and a derivative of optanomai 3700; in the face of (literally or as a figure)= before, in the presence (sight) of, to means “in the visual (opt) FACE of, in the presence/sight of the God of the Earth.”

And because one of those two Souls could have been the Father then that Soul could be the GOD OF THE EARTH who is showing this vision/dream to John.

Another of many clues to who these Two are. Remember they are talking about the two people, the incarnate members from the Next Level (authorized, approved to perform this task on Earth). So They are in human bodies, just like the One who incarnated into the body named Jesus and the One who incarnated (took over) the body named Moses at the burning bush, etc. the way members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven always come to Earth to nurture their seeded strain of humans they created to bloom into flowers, to offer new lessons to their prize human “stallions.” They come in the flesh as Moses said and as Peter quoted Moses to say and that Jesus said was absolutely necessary to achieve a Soul/Spirit birth:

Act 3:22 For Moses truly said unto the fathers, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.

Jesus would be an Israelite (brother) which means a “prince of God” thus someone who is slated to become a king and is not a king yet. A king in this sense is as Jesus said, Greater than all humans, though could be least in the Kingdom of God. Scripture indicate that being an Israelite was really being an overcomer of humanness, our human roots and ways that are inherently mammalian, like a caterpillar who is caught away (raptured) from the human kingdom to be brought into, raised up into the Kingdom of God/Heaven's (on earth) cocoon (type of cloistering which these Two Witnesses stimulate.

When these Two Witnesses start talking about the Kingdom of God/Heaven in plain and bolder new terms that depart new revealings about the true real nature of the Kingdom of God/Heaven, some who hear this will recognize the bottom lines and will want to follow with them “everywhere They go” which will begin for them a type of experiential classroom in a type of protected environment. They will have to leave their former human interests and relationships behind thus they will have been plucked out of, or taken away from their normal world to be with these Older Members. Since the Woman Older Member (Rev 12) leaves before the harvest these new followers continue to “follow the lamb wherever he goes”(Rev 14) to learn their remaining lessons that would yield an overcomer or conqueror of the human world. When Jesus said he had “overcome the world,” world meant the human world which is actually kin to the Earth since the Earth is the environment for the human kingdom's development, thus the stepping stone into the Kingdom Above Human but the characteristics to overcome are the human root system. To conquer such means you are not held back from being with your Older Member aiming toward harvest (graduation) the result of the Soul becoming a new viable being that is “Above Human” in which one reward is to receive an issue of a new physical body that is not cyclic, doesn't die (unless there is reason for it to die, like to sacrifice it, to get a better model as on a task as it seems the Son of the Father is depicted as doing in Rev. 12.

To members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven, since they know without a doubt that They do not die by the loss of the physical body they operate, they do not fear instigating the taking off of their vehicle should the task require their doing so. Although this may sound strange to think about, since the Kingdom of God/Heaven is made up of real being with physical bodies, and since for their task on Earth among humans they need to wear a human vehicle, they also need a way to take off their existing vehicle. In some cases they may put that Kingdom of God/Heaven vehicle in the equivalent of a closet. But if they are seeking to graduate to a new more functional model, they would be willing to “sacrifice” their existing vehicle. It's quite possible this is what we saw demonstrated in the Roswell and Aztec and other so called Unidentified Flying Object (UFO) crashes that mostly took place all around the United States during the late 1940's and 1950's, though some may be facsimile stories to try to confuse.

Again regarding the return of Jesus the forecast of incarnate is again emphasized by saying .”..this Prophet would be...like me” (the word “to” was added by translators to round out the sentence and even though it does seem to help translations it can often be misleading), Moses was quoted to have said to those the Jesus disciples considered to be their ancestral “fathers,” namely Aaron and Miriam.

Deu 18:17 And the LORD said unto me, They have well spoken that which they have spoken.

Deu 18:18 I will raise them up a Prophet from among their brethren, like unto thee, and will put my words in his mouth; and he shall speak unto them all that I shall command him.

Since BOTH of these witnesses (olive tree/lamp stands) are Anointed/Christs this must be a description of the NEXT coming of The Kingdom of God (as the idea of this being a second coming of only Jesus, is not founded in scripture and is a way to detract from the fact that the same crew of Kingdom of God members stay with their gardening task to harvest, in this depiction the Christ or Christening task (as every student is being provided with a hands on face to face mouth to mouth demonstration of what a Christening entails, with the ultimate proof provided in TWO this time and none other than the Father and Son coming together, this time both in physical bodies to give us that much more validity in a world that has become that much more complicated and confusing, though many don't want to admit it as they found some comfortable mindset to limit themselves to, often titled a religious institution with all the same secular rules and regulations that steer people to think if they are not a part of the said institution, at least in practice but more so in tithing and donation of time, taking the bible study's reading all the theological books, going to all the charity events then they are not in league with God and are either lost or condemned.

Of course claiming to be The Two Witnesses and in this case both Christs while not demonstrating fulfillment of ALL the other prophecies, behaviors and ways consistent with the progression of ways from Moses to Jesus reveals who the many false prophets are, though they still fool many, the way many religious feel they have found their ultimate path when there is a huge step yet to take. The false prophets are humans who have been given the Soul chip that attracted the Luciferian Space Aliens, “fallen angels,” seeking to rob from those they consider to be just another outer space based race they are in competition with for ruler ship over the Earth and it's lifeforms.

Having been students to an Older Member from the Kingdom of God, previously, before “falling” away from that allegiance, Ti and Do said they learned a great deal about how the Kingdom of God works, the way they grow the souls on the garden, what is required and something about the timing, or order of that progressive program/process. So they instigate mimicking events and inspire/direct humans to declare themselves the guide of such events and when they are proved to be frauds or charlatans or of compromised character, they cheer because of all the people that witness such and say, “see it's those religious that are the worst culprits and “sinners.” How many priests and evangelists rose to some level of prominence only to give into sensuality with prostitutes, children along with financial and political frauds, bigotries, etc. even creating of cults that forced people to obey them and forced people to kill themselves and others, whether as an institution as in the crusades or in a cult like Jim Jones and the Solar Temple for example. So then when the real deal comes along, and they start “blowing their trumpet” announcing their arrival and why and attracting a few followers, pretty much everyone has become jaded and suspicious and disbelieving and even hateful and geared to put a stop to anyone and everyone they lump into the same category because they don't conform to the tame institutionalized spiritual, religious and/or secular society.

However, this doesn't fool everyone. The few that were prepared for the next coming who see through the religious folly (though at other times when the member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven is not incarnate participation and exploration into various religio-spiritual organizations and mindsets can serve as one of many types of stepping stone pathways up the mountain, so to speak. However, when these Two Witnesses are present it will be time to give some a chance to get off the mountain, speaking of the “mountain” as the human earth based evolutionary plant like perennial condition. So all those who by then gravitated to this and that religio-spiritual said pathway, will have to break their ties to that pathway. If they had incorporated that pathway into their lives in a way that yields them certain prestige, egocentricity, well being and even profit, it will be all the harder to SEE these Two Witnesses as yet the “highest path” and to therefore break those ties.

PEOPLE SAY THE TWO WITNESSES ARE SOME COMBINATION OF MOSES AND/OR ELIJAH AND/OR ENOCH are three good choices in my opinion because according to scripture they'd all be partially correct as the Souls, whose names we don't know before They incarnated as the Two Witnesses also are evidenced to be from the Kingdom of God/Heaven because they were taken while still in their physical bodies, though Moses we don't have evidence of:

Joh 3:13 And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

Re: Enoch:

Re: Moses:

Deu 34:4 And the LORD said unto him, This is the land which I swear unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, saying, I will give it unto thy seed: I have caused thee to see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not go over thither.

Deu 34:5 So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD.

Deu 34:6 And he buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, over against Bethpeor: but no man knoweth of his sepulchre unto this day.

Deu 34:7 And Moses was an hundred and twenty years old when he died: his eye was not dim, nor his natural force abated.

So here the Lord could have taken Moses physical body or may not have. But we do know that Moses had a unique relationship with Jehovah in that only he could talk face to face with Him. However it wasn't literally face to face as Jehovah said he would die if he saw His (Jehovah's face) so showed Moses his shoulder. However Moses was the recipient of direct communications with Jehovah, while those considered prophets received communications primarily in dreams. Thus this seems to be an exception of Moses qualifying to be among those considered to have come from the Kingdom of God/Heaven.

Deu 34:10 And there arose not a prophet since in Israel like unto Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face,

Re: Elijah:

2Ki 2:9 And it came to pass, when they were gone over, that Elijah said unto Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken away from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, let a double portion of thy spirit be upon me.

2Ki 2:10 And he said, Thou hast asked a hard thing: nevertheless, if thou see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so unto thee; but if not, it shall not be so.

2Ki 2:11 And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that, behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.

2Ki 2:12 And Elisha saw it, and he cried, My father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof. And he saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and rent them in two pieces.

2Ki 2:13 He took up also the mantle ((cloak)) of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the bank of Jordan;

I suspect the reason no one seems to suggest this possibility of some variation of one of them being Jesus is largely because they didn't think of the Father as another being, nor that Jesus would come with one of those other historic figures, primarily because as illogical as it is, the Luciferians guided certain humans to organize those groups who had become believers in Jesus into politically minded organizations, based today in the Vatican but whose influence has spawned all Christianity to teach/think of the Kingdom of God/Heaven as ONE God in three parts, called the Trinity while what that more accurately describes is the structure of the Kingdom of God where there are OLDER MEMBERS (Seed Giving parental like FATHERS) who usher into the kingdom new members from a human or equivalent kingdom level of life they designed for this purpose of upward development, who then become YOUNGER MEMBERS (SONS), who by their desire to serve their Older Members might they themselves become an Older Member (Father) to a new litter of Souls planted at the human kingdom level. While the Holy Spirit was both representative of the MIND that is common to every member of the Kingdom of God, though each member has different degrees of that MIND, as Mind in the Kingdom of God is like Mind in the human kingdom, except the two don't mix, which is where the wineskin/wine parable plays) so the effort to be born into this Next "Above Human" Kingdom Level requires getting rid of one's human MIND, in essence even the memories that only stimulate the past ties and binds and addictions to the human family tree that are a real unseen root system as with any plant. Jesus did at times compare humans to plants, wheat, leaves, etc. and then fill the new container they are given by the Kingdom of God/Heaven secretly (the vehicle doesn't know it's happening when it does), that's like a chip, that has a special set of programs to enable this kind of thinking as normal, while those without it think it's all insane, that thereby by thirsting to know one's Older Member's mind, the ways they do every little thing even, fills that pocket, a container, Soul chip set to a point that the Kingdom of God/Heaven considers to be viable to be born, at which time they one way or another stimulate the exit which is always a cutting down of the plant as depicted in Revelations chapter 14 with many Jesus and Peter quotes to confer that a Spirit/Soul birth does require the death of the physical vehicle being used to accomplish the overcoming and new bonding to the new family Tree.

It was very clear that Jesus was talking about the Father as another person entirely, though he wished to do only the Father's will. Even the Lord that was guiding/directing Moses had a physical presence at times in the "Holy of Holys" or inside one of those clouds that guided them in the desert. Jehovah spoke words that many in the group heard when Moses first came to deliver the basic laws, what Jehovah required in return for freeing them from Egyptian enslavement. Some just heard thunder which is interesting in light of modern day science that explains how our capacity to translate sounds into language has a center in the brain that if damaged or underdeveloped or unprepared will not work or requires extended effort to re-develop.

Rev 11:5 And (if any) man will hurt ((91 adikeo= do wrong to (morally, socially or physically), offend, injure, be unjust to, take wrong)) them, fire ((4442 pur= firey lightning)) proceedeth (out) of their mouth ((4750 stoma= mouth, language, "opening in the earth," edge)), and devoureth ((2719 katesthio= to "eat down," as a figure devour)) their enemies: and (if any) man will hurt* ((do wrong to (morally, socially or physically), offend, injure, be unjust to, take wrong)) them, (he) must (in this) manner ((3779 houto= AFTER THAT, to follow; in this way, on this fashion, in like manner)) be killed ((615 apokteino= taken off of or away by dying/death)).

Now here I address this idea that these who cause this offense against these TWO results in the offenders being “killed.” This doesn't square with anything Jesus taught, EXCEPT in terms of how all who are not in the “book of life” by the “End of the Age” (that began with the Adam/Eve experiment), “End of time” (the current civilizations time), “Judgment time (period)/day.” Thus it does jive with the way all those who cause offenses are by doing so bringing upon themselves their own judgment Remember how Jesus said, Luk 6:37 Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven:

Joh 12:47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

And here is where Jesus is saying that the WORDS BECOME THE INSTRUMENTS OF JUDGMENT That's not because he says something like, “you are sentenced to this or that punishment or reward.” It's OUR RESPONSE to his words* while his words contain all the new information, the reason he comes incarnate to deliver. OUR RESPONSE must boil down to choosing who our “master” is and we can't pick and choose what to accept and what not to accept AND THEN EXPECT that we are showing our “love” (allegiance) to Him.

Joh 14:23 Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

The words he speaks to us are what become the instruments of our decision of who to give our allegiance to, thus is how “fire proceeds of their mouth, what they say” that becomes the basis of our decision (judgment) of who we wish to look to thereafter. And when we follow in his footsteps starting with belief and the expression of that belief by telling others about HIM/THEM (The Two Witnesses in this case), we are going against the grain and that becomes an action that jeopardizes our life, in both the sense of how we exist in the world and even in the loss of our physical body in His/Their service. As we express our beliefs, the discarnates and space aliens who don't like what we have to say, with those humans who have accepted that associated programming then influence those humans we are in contact with to not befriend us or help us. However, the Kingdom of God/Heaven crew, at the same time see to it that we have what we need to live, while we provide service spreading their information and some humans are not in as much league with the space aliens or programmed discarnates so they do befriend and help.

Joh 12:48 He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.

“Manner” is the self pronouncement of their own fate that will come AFTERWARD which will actually result in their “spiritual death” spoken of as the “second death” which is when their actual spirit and Soul (if they have one), is literally dissolved in the “lake of fire,” seemingly the heating up of the planet that includes vast lava flows that somehow affects the dead as well as many or most of the humans living at the time.

Thus as so many verses of these prophecies, even though the translators miss the mark, in terms of the detail, the bottom line usually has it's form of accuracy, yet not always. Often times the way these prophecies are given provides options to the Kingdom of God/Heaven incarnate Older Members fulfilling them, for the sake of the student body they are bringing to their graduation (Soul birth) aka harvest. However, from today's vantage point the translators could have done a better job but then they would have been primary targets of the Luciferians, which are not without powerful influence to steer future seekers to any thinking and behaviors but the most contextual intended application. The Kingdom of God/Heaven saw to it that enough of the truth was in tact because their Older Members scheduled to come incarnate needed very little of the record to awaken the vehicles they planned to take to enact their task through. And the student body, made up of the returning souls, those who showed their allegiance to Jesus, even to their giving their lives in service then, also need very little scriptural record to recognize the Older Members when they come public as they will know enough of the Mind (voice) of the Older Members (shepherds) to where their words/Mind is clear. Thus the primary benefit in have a more accurate translation of terms and ideas and mindset, behaviors and ways according to the process provided by the Older Member to overcome the human kingdom, is geared to the ones who come to believe in the Two Witnesses after they have left their incarnation. Some of these need the most evidence and not only for them as some of them will not need any more evidence than some in the first fruits harvest, but for the sake of those who have human vehicles that were in line to have the opportunity, essentially those who were raised in some Christian framework.

But nowhere in Revelations does there seem to have been a greater effort to distort the full story. It was not able to be distorted entirely but as will become evident in this Rev 11 re-translation and re-interpretation that follows, a key term is the word translated to “kill” that we just examined as it could have been translated to other words that would have not required the several additional words the translators added to round out what they thought was being said.

For instance, re: the Greek word translated to “kill” in this verse is “apokteino” which is a combination of two words/ideas that isn't at all expressed in “kill” by itself.

Case in point is that apokteino is translated in the New Testament to “kill” 55 times and “slay” 14 times and “put to death” 6 times, yet never once even called by what the prefix APO* brings to it.

*575 apo a primary particle; “off,” i.e. away (from something near), in various senses (of place, time, or relation; literal or figurative)= (X here-)after, ago, at, because of, before, by (the space of), for(-th), from, in, (out) of, off, (up-)on(-ce), since, with. In composition (as a prefix) it usually denotes separation, departure, cessation, completion, reversal, etc.

When we look at kteino, a verb, to slay, or to kill with the implication of any or all of the meanings of the prefix “apo” it still holds the essential meaning of the separation of something literally or as a figure or both at some point in time. Whether it's the separation of a spirit or Soul from a human body or a separation of someone from their mission or a separation from the Kingdom of God/Heaven, which is the death of a Soul, spoken of as the “second death,” all of which have the connotation of happening immediately and/or in the “hereafter” as in the “second death” - a spirit or Soul's death. In the more figurative forms, it's being taken “away” from what they were doing and/or their existence (as in life itself). If what was in motion was a bringing to others, “Life” as in the Kingdom of God/Heaven's definition of Life, as a Soul that is given “eternal life” as a member of their Kingdom, (life being both a physical (biological) and a separate mental (spiritual) condition), then that “life” is being taken AWAY or taken OFF from any potential future, the base meaning of the Greek prefix APO of apokteino. In other words they are removed from the “book of life” and thereby experience the same fate as all others who are not in the “book of life” - the lake of fire:

Rev 20:15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

All the plants in any gardeners garden don't survive. Do we fault the gardener for that or do we celebrate that the gardener try to help all their seeds survive, which includes being strong enough to PUSH towards life as opposed to just letting the chips fall where they may. Jesus said that one needs to take the Kingdom of Heaven aggressively. That's what the idea of salt with it's saltiness is. The saltiness is what generates THIRST. That's the seeker, the one asking, and the one who is not satisfied with anything status quo, the questioner, someone who never really settles down until they know they have found something that continuously challenges them to build more thirst and then only as long as that continues to supply it's quenching.

Here are some examples of where APO is a prefix that shows it's influence over the full meaning of the word it is a prefix of:

609 apokopto = to cut off, amputate

851 aphaireo= to take from, take away, remove, carry off, to cut off

660 apotinasso to shake off

631 apomassomai= to wipe off, to wipe off one's self, to wipe off for one's self

659 apotithemi= to put off or aside or away

554 apekduomai= wholly put off from one's self, denoting separation from what is put off, wholly to strip off for one's self (for one's own advantage), despoil, disarm

Additional point of view of the ramifications of the interpretation of apokteino and other words in this verse:

What if someone says something that wrongs these two witnesses, are they then to be killed by what they say somehow? I guess it boils down to what they do to “wrong, injure, hurt” them. And what's in the “manner” of the “hurt”? Let's say they hurt their feelings, then is the “manner” the feeling part, or if it's done with words then with words they will be killed. Jesus talked about people who said things against him would be forgiven, but would these Two Witnesses change that principle?

Mat 12:31 Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.

Mat 12:32 And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.

After all the penalty prescribed in this verse is that they will send “fire out of their mouth and devour their enemies.” Fire out of the mouth would be saying something that would have a purging affect - that would cause them to feel their heat, their power, their knowledge but would it kill their physical body? Well, actually one could take that to mean that if someone goes against them, they will eventually die or be killed as a weed would be killed and/or then NOT BE SAVED from the destruction that all in the garden must eventually experience and which some will experience as their “second death” where there is no chance to ever be a member of their kingdom, (despite what many paranormalists and new agers and religionists think and say, these will have no future, not physically and not spiritually.

It seems that especially in this verse, “killed” used by itself, as I have pointed out in many, many instances was wholly inadequate in providing the reader with a decent shot at understanding what's being said. What was this seeming infatuation with keeping the translation text short and sweet and in perfect sentences? I know exactly what was going on behind the scenes as most often the translators are doing the best they can, though may not be consistently asking help from their Heavenly Father along the way, thus opening the door to the bombardment of the Luciferians as those doing the translating were probably English scholars and the idea of not doing a smack up grammar job would be unthinkable, not realizing that they were chopping up the content that would more easily lead people astray (the only unforgivable sin) or to not pay much attention to any of it at all, thinking if it's this contradictory, how can it be from God? In any case, enough was there that they didn't manipulate and people ignore that too, so go figure. I am constantly told by Christians what this or that means that is filled with reasoning that I see as filled with assumptions. Well, one way or the other the Luciferians would capitalize on human frailties that they consider strengths while the Kingdom of God/Heaven then counter capitalizing on it as they always do, to use it to further sort out the strong who don't give up until they know the truth, which they never stop searching for as even if they are with the Older Member from the Kingdom of God/Heaven, there are aspects of what they say that makes them wonder and question and see in a deeper and deeper way. A deeper way is not a more mystical way, nor a more esoteric, secretive way, nor a more symbolic way. It's a plainer and more straight forward way, more direct and to the point, simpler and more literal.

And to show consistency with this view, here are some examples of what Jesus said, in addition to the Mat 12:31-32 just listed, to those that brought about offenses:

Luk 17:1 Then said he unto the disciples, It is impossible but that offences will come: but woe unto him, through whom they come!

Luk 17:2 It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.

Luk 17:3 Take heed to yourselves: If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him.

Luk 17:4 And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

Luk 11:52 Woe unto you, lawyers! ((3544 nomikos= an interpreter and teacher of the Mosaic law)) for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.

Mat 23:13 But woe unto you, scribes (1122 grammateus= clerk, public servant, recorder, interpreter, teacher of finer points of the Mosaic law)) and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.

Mat 18:7 Woe unto the world ((human civilization)) because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that man by whom the offense cometh!

Mat 23:15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.

These poor translations can be misleading to many. Let's say someone witnesses someone railing against Two that claim to be the Two Witnesses and nothing happens to that person, one could think...well I guess they weren't the real Two Witnesses as the one doing the railing wasn't killed. Luciferians use anything they can to entrap someone to look erroneously or not look at all or to expect something other than what is real to be the return of the Kingdom of God/Heaven. However, the reason the Kingdom of God/Heaven permits this, is as it tends to help each of us (their plants in their garden) push to the sun to get more light/nutrition, to grow stronger to then become stronger beings that can fight off anything that would otherwise dissuade us from seeking that source for help and strength.

But before concluding this re-translation and re-interpretation of this verse, here is a new translation I found that I find a breath of fresh air to providing yet another vantage point from the hundreds of translations that hardly do:

This is from "The Literal Translation of the Original Greek New Testament":

Rev 11:5 And if a-one to-them it-determineth to-have-un-coursed-unto, a-fire it-traverseth-out-of out of-the-one of-a-mouth of-them and it-eat-belongeth-down to-the-ones to-en-enmited of-them; and if a-one it-might-have-determined to-them to-have-un-coursed-unto, unto-the-one-this it-bindeth to-it to-have-been-killed-off.

The last word is the literal translation of the Greek word, "apokteino." Note that it talks about how the person who "to-have-un-coursed-unto" (will hurt), "it-bindeth" - (manner - determines) "to-have-been-killed-off," which shows that word "off" as in killed off, which is right in line with what I came up with through hours of study and asking help from our Heavenly Father, but could not find this clear a translation of as "killed off" is what is depicted as the angels removing the "tares" (look alike wheat plants) in the end days. Thus these are binding themselves to that fate by issuing what to the Kingdom of God/Heaven would be considered "hurt," which is their words/actions that could turn others away from, in this case, the recognition of the Two Witnesses incarnate as fulfilling the promised, forecast return of the Kingdom of God/Heaven's Older Members, the Father and Son.

Rev 11:6 These have power ((1849 exousia= ability, choice, strength, capacity, competency, authority)) to shut ((2808 kleio= to close)) heaven, that it rain not in the days ((2250 hemera= to sit, a period of time, the age, judgment, dawn to dusk, 24 hour period, hour)) of their prophecy: and have power over waters ((5204 hudor as a figure= “many peoples”)) to turn ((4762 strepho= to twist, convert, turn (again, back again, self, self about))) them to ((1519 eis= by)) blood ((129 haima= fig.; (the juice of grapes), bloodshed, kindred)), and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

It doesn't say when, where and that they have to use these listed powers. It is simply saying what their powers are so we can identify who they are and who they represent (The One True Kingdom Level Above Human(God)).

These statements are also reflective of what Moses and Aaron did to Pharaoh (water turned to blood, and bring plagues) and in the previous verse “fire send down from heaven to destroy one's enemies,” from the record of Elijah, except with Elijah it wasn't fire from anyone's mouth. In any case, these are the prime reasons some think the Two Witnesses are Moses and Elijah, together with the record that Elijah was “taken” so did not physically die, which is a criteria that Jesus said, identified him as a Above Human Being from the Kingdom of God/Heaven, while Moses' physical body was never found nor seen to be taken anywhere, thus could have been taken as well. However, it doesn't say whether or not they use these powers - just that they could.

They have the power to bring about drought during their prophecy. Now this might apply most to the area where the Temple/Altar are located geographically, but it might also apply be globally. Their prophecy is recorded as the time period of their talking but would that not include time after they do their talking when what they said is still being broadcast in some ways large and small. Doesn't their prophecy continue past their literal speaking to as long as their words are broadcast/repeated. Thus this would certainly not be limited to the 1260 day period in which they actually BOTH talk. Plus we have no idea for how long others will carry their message in which time they could still use drought as a tool. This is simply showing how humans can identify the Kingdom of God/Heaven, through these two witnesses action. One must take notice to the phenomena called “global warming” or the “green house affect.” The Earth and/or parts of it certainly is a “greenhouse” in that there are many plants that are in the form of having fibrous bodies verses flesh and bone bodies.

Waters often represents people, so to turn them to blood is saying they have the authority to bring about bloodshed among the people. Let's face it, these are the ones who represent those who literally designed and developed our entire reality, physically and mentally. They are Above us in no less a way than the way a Farmer is above the seeds and plants planted. Thus anything that can hurt the seeds/plants that farmer considers to be the fruit/veggies the garden was created to bring to harvest is a weed and weeds are killed with no remorse.

Plagues could extend from insect to microbiological organisms but does the Kingdom of God/Heaven actually foster these. Perhaps, but most often it seems they allow them as they are often stimulated by humans just as humans have made life without electricity much harder when people don't know how to keep cool while facing difficult heat. And people can get sick from all sorts of reasons and blame the Kingdom of God/Heaven but most often it's because of human tampering with natural systems that create the bigger problems.

Isn't it interesting that many humans will say humans are the main cause of global warming and this and that, even earthquakes while cursing the Kingdom of God/Heaven at the same time. And cursing isn't saying a bad slang or four letter word. Cursing is getting angry with the Kingdom of God/heaven and/or talking against Their existence and superiority so that what is said might influence others to think/act like them, thus turning someone else away from their own potential relationship with the Kingdom of God/Heaven. That's moreorless the definition of a weed in the garden though it's still not up to even the potential fruit to make that determination and to seek to eradicate such weeds, though there have been times in history with the physical presence of a trusted servant of the Kingdom of God/Heaven that to set up a next phase in the overall garden/fruit's development towards harvest that the students were used to clear part of the garden for their usage. However this would not be appropriate to instigate without a genuine member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven incarnate calling the shots based on instructions received from their Older Member who has the overview.

II.A.7. THE OLDER MEMBER FROM THE NEXT LEVEL WHO LAST PERFORMED THE TASK INCARNATE AS JESUS, THE LAMB, IS TASKED BY HIS OLDER MEMBER (FATHER) WHO COMES WITH HIM INCARNATE TO “GET HIM GOING” TO “OPEN THE FIRST SEAL” WITH A “ROAR (THUNDER)” AS IN REV 6:1, BEING THE “LION OF THE TRIBE OF JUDA” IN REV 5:5. THIS “OPENING” IS AKA HIS “REVEALING” ACCOMPLISHED BY SPEAKING - BRINGING UPDATES TO THE BIBLE AND PROPHECY FULFILLMENT AS THE TWO WITNESSES, WITH HIS HEAVENLY FATHER, INCARNATE IN A FEMALE VEHICLE (WOMAN), BIRTHING HIM TO THE THRONE BEFORE RETURNING (REV 12). HIS NEW VEHICLE IS DESCRIBED IN REV 6:2 AS A “WHITE HORSE,” A HUMAN VEHICLE (BORN OF FLESH) HE MAKES PURE (LIGHT/WHITE) TO SHOW HOW AND HIS “HEAD AND HAIR” ARE COMPARED TO “WOOL AND SNOW” IN REV 1:14. TO “SIT” ON HIS PREPARED “HORSE” IS TO USE IT TO PERFORM HIS TASK. HIS “BOW” REPRESENTS HIS LITER OF SOULS (RETURNING SAINTS/ANGELS) BEING BORN OF MIND/SPIRIT BY THEIR ADHERENCE TO THE COVENANTS BEGAN WITH MOSES AND STRENGTHEN WITH JESUS. HE CONQUERS AKA PREVAILS AGAINST, OVERCOMES HIS WHITE LUCIFERIAN PROGRAMMED “HORSE” AND THE HUMAN WORLD (THE DEFINITION OF A TRUE ISRAELI AS ONE WHO “PREVAILS AS JEHOVAH”) AND IN SO DOING SERVES AS THE “MIDWIFE” FOR EACH OF THE “SAINTS” TO ALSO CONQUER THEIR HUMANNES. THEREFORE, THESE VERSES ARE DEPICTING THE PART OF THE TASK THAT MARKS THE FIRST FRUIT HARVEST IN REV 14:15-16

The older member who was last incarnate as Jesus, who laid down his life for his Father and sheep, as the sacrificial Lamb opens the first seal:

Rev 6:1 And I saw when the Lamb opened ((455 anoigo= re-opening, reversed)) one ((3391 mia= first)) of the seals* ((4973 sphragis from 5420 phrasso blocked up, silence, stoppage of understanding - making of mystery)), and I heard ((191 akouo= be reported, understand)), as it were the noise ((5456 phone= disclosure, tone, address, saying, sound, voice)) of thunder ((1027 bronte= to roar)), one of the four beasts ((2226 zoon= living being)), saying, Come ((2064 erchomai= accompany)) and see ((991 blepo= take heed, regard, perceive)).

*seal = 4973 sphragis probably strengthened from phrasso 5420; a signet (as fencing in or protecting from misappropriation); by implication, the stamp impressed (as a mark of privacy, or genuineness), literally or as a figure= seal.

5420 phrassofras'-so apparently a strengthening form of the base of phren 5424; to fence or inclose, i.e. (specially), to block up (as a figure, to silence)= stop.

5424 frane most likely from an obsolete phrao (to rein in or curb); the midrif (as a partition of the body), i.e. (as a figure and by implication, of sympathy) the feelings (or sensitive nature; by extension (also in the plural) the mind or cognitive faculties)= understanding.

context: 1) a seal 1a) the seal placed upon books 1b) a signet ring 1c) the inscription or impression made by a seal 1c1) of the name of God and Christ stamped upon their foreheads 1d) that by which anything is confirmed, proved, authenticated, as by a seal (a token or proof)

THE SEAL IS ON THE BOOK:

Rev 5:1 And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals.

The Father/Jehovah has the position (sat) as chief administrator (throne). What's in his "right hand" depicts the task he is giving to his "right hand" - "son," his firstborn as was the instruction and practice of the early Hebrews to bless their first born using their right hand, the blessing to inherit the father's domain, in this case to become the chief administrator over the Earth as depicted in Rev 12:5. (The practice was to use one's left hand for the next born.) All these practices are provided to the selected genetic strain of the human kingdom early on so they will all provide proves for the END TIME revealing that we are talking about the same Kingdom of God throughout. This is the point of the seals, to keep reality hidden until the timing to reveal their meaning is apparent

The content of the book is spoken of in Rev 5:4 as being "read" ((314 anaginosko= to distinguish between, to recognize, to know accurately, to acknowledge)) and “looked on” ((991 blepo= seen, discerned, of the bodily eye, perceived by the use of the eyes, discovered by seeing with the mind's eye)) and in:

Rev 5:5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed ((3528 nikao= overcome, get the victory, conquered))* to open the book, and to loose ((3089 luo= unbind and set free those who were bound by the Luciferian fallen angels space aliens)) the seven seals thereof.

*a conscious fulfillment of prophecy is provided by Do and his student crew when they laid down their human lives in 1997 by all wearing new Nike tennis shoes/sneakers indicating they had “overcome death” by self sacrificing their lives in this world to take up their new lives in the next. (This is NOT a promotion of human suicide. Just killing one's own vehicle gets a human NOTHING more than they had while living. If the human had not overcome the world while living and proved it to their incarnate Older Member, they would be no better off after shedding their human vehicle. It can't be used to escape the overcoming process of dealing with the difficulties of human life. Those difficulties are in place to help human rise out of their humanness that is only possible by reaching up to the Next Level Older Members for each step and then performing each provided step. When there is no incarnate Older Member, then the fastest way in which a human can accelerate their overcoming is to disseminate all the information of the last and thus most current incarnate Representative from the Next Level (Kingdom of God/Heaven). In so doing they will eventually lose their human life in that service and their Soul will be advanced to their next station towards graduation into the Next Level.

THE OPENING OF THE SEALS PROVIDE NEW REVELINGS OF THE TRUTH AND REALITY OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD/HEAVEN, THE METHOD OF WHICH IS BY LITERALLY SPEAKING TO PEOPLE (DISCLOSURE BY VOICE, (MISTRANSLATED to NOISE) FACE TO FACE AS IN PUBLIC MEETINGS AND VIA THE MEDIA. As a result those who come to believe in the information and therefore the ones providing the new revealings become their student body, the human vehicles the returning saints/angels take over, STAND UP IN, as their RESURRECTION TO overcome (conquer) the humanness of. For this

student body, staying with their Older Member is tantamount to learning all the lessons the Older Members bring them and this yields their Christing/anointing, aka, “RESURRECTION TO LIFE,” eternal life in the real Kingdom Level Above Human. For those who are not quite ready to graduate at exit time, at the very least are guaranteed further opportunities to serve their Older Members and graduate thereafter.

Because hearing these words that are for most quite challenging to receive, let alone understand and implement, for those that do and stay with the opening also becomes a seal in it's context as a “mark (signet) on the forehead (mind)” a declaration and affirmation confirming their allegiance and determination to complete their graft to the Older Member's Level Above Human “heavenly” family. For those that go so far as to give their all, who are slain as depicted in Rev 6:9, with slain= 4969 sphazo indicating they die by violence against them because of their testimony for the “Word of God,” the new and updated information about the reality of the Kingdom of God/Heaven, provided by the TWO WITNESSES (Ti and Do) in the Seven Roars (Thunders) they are not only “sealed” but are awarded “white robes,” new physical vehicles, because of being “separated by death” from the human lifestyle they sacrificed to perform their unpopular task and the vehicle they were using in that service to their Older Members.

This is part of the overcoming/conquering process all must eventually come to during a time period “in a human flesh body” (born of water). It was spelled out by Do and Crew in multiple writings starting in early April of 1996, that includes the overall condition for being “saved” as “disseminating” Ti and Do's WORDS. Their words, as updated information are 100% consistent with all that representatives from the Kingdom of God/Heaven taught since the start of the civilization.

The mistranslation of the Greek Zoon to “beast,” because of a comparison to their being “like to”; a lion, calf, flying eagle or with the face of a human doesn't take into account that these four are in constant service to the One on the Throne, so are by far not ANIMALS, as humans are, that are not in progress to graduation from the human kingdom school:

Rev 4:7 And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

Rev 4:8 And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, LORD God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

Such “beasts” is the translation of Greek 2342 therion, metaphorically a “bestial man,” savage and ferocious, the way many humans and governmental bodies think and act, despite their sophistication and politeness when their behavior and ways are not challenged. Thus these four are four “living beings.” A living being from the perspective of the Next Level is one that is part of the Next Level family as Life to the Next Level is most accurately their condition of eternal life regardless of whether or not they change physical bodies, unlike the human evolutionary (not Darwinian) level, their essence, their Soul never has an end. It is said they have no beginning and no end, not because they never had a beginning but because they are no longer “born” once they are members of the Next Level, where humans need to be “born of flesh” a number of times to arrive at being “born of spirit/mind.” (As explained in the introduction, this is not “reincarnation” as taught by eastern religions but is where the idea came from, but like with all Next Level information, once delivered to the human kingdom loses it's most accurate meaning).

One of these Living Beings then says, “come and see,” which is a personal admonition to arise, come into being, show themselves, find their place (in their “lot,” as it was said to Daniel), even “fall into” and follow and discern with their own eyes and own perceptions.

Rev 6:2 And I saw, and behold (a) white*1 ((cleaned, purified - full of light, Enlightened, Christened)) horse*2 ((human vehicle)): and (he that) sat ((was tasked)) on ((1909 epi= over, have charge of)) him had ((2192 echo= held/possessed ability to keep/reign/return and use)) (a) bow*3 ((5115 toxon based on tiktw= BEAR, BE BORN, BRING FORTH, DELIVER, BE IN TRAVAIL, related to the Old Testament's Covenant/Committal (as in Rainbow))) and (a) crown*4 ((made into a King to take the throne as Chief Administrator)) (was) given (unto) him: and (he went) forth conquering, ((G3528 nikao= CONQUER, OVERCOME, PREVAIL, GET THE VICTORY)) and to conquer ((ditto nikao)).

Throughout the records the word “white,” goes hand in hand with and stems from the word “light,” in the sense that it is in the absence of the frequencies we recognize as color, thus is why it is also considered to represent purity. So overcoming the human evolutionary level that advances one into the evolutionary level above human, by the WAY, of adhering to and pleasing the Older Members who administer the program, the teaching and demonstrating of the behaviors and ways, brings each student to their own conquering all that otherwise reduces that “light” within them. Without overcoming via pleasing one's Older Member one remains in a weakened and vulnerable to influence human condition that is what a human is, as the hue of man as described in Genesis, having succumb to the influence of the Luciferian fallen angel space aliens the Next Level provides to set up a free will testing environment.

White is used because when one's body is full of light, because they have become christened (anointed) having gone through the violent PRESS that extracts the oil from the vehicle (the olive) by the self sacrifice of restraining all the ways in which a human being expels their “oil,” instead keeping it in their “lamp” to see by, as Jesus compared to the virgins waiting for the bridegroom's return best do, enables them to SEE/recognize the Older Member incarnate. This filling one's body with light is an ongoing process necessary to becoming “born of spirit” and such a being thereafter exudes “light,” that is white, which seems to be why ancient paintings of Jesus and his saintly disciples often had white auras around their heads.

Personal note: Even though I was not someone that saw spirits or other highly controversial things throughout most of my vehicles life and certainly not before meeting up with Ti and Do, (except through the use of hallucinatory substances at times mostly in my high school and early college years), having met Ti and Do at 25 years old, I do recall on two occasions at public meetings they gave in which I was among the audience seeing not only aura's around their heads but also extended all around the stage where they sat when they talked and even throughout the room in the Waldport meeting and the Arapaho Community college lecture room and then thereafter around classmates when they were talking publicly about Ti and Do. I haven't seen anything like that since, though in the last five years there was a small period of time where I saw “spirits” in three totally different settings while awake and alert, though at night in dimly lit rooms. These things though have no bearing on my belief in Ti and Do. That was strictly a matter of recognizing them at the Waldport meeting as being the “equivalent of Jesus,” whom at the time I was not consciously awaiting the return of, nor a believer in any organized fashion nor really that aware of what all he taught. It was as if, they had said, “follow me” and I knew I must, though they didn't actually ask anyone in specific to follow them. They simply said what they knew and were open to those that sought to follow them.

White is also the way Members from the Kingdom of God/Heaven appear to humans when they do certain specific tasks on Earth that they want certain humans to observe which is most rare and serves a very specific purpose (See the story of Lot and the story of the two “men” seen and heard at Jesus' tomb and the two seen and heard when Jesus ascended up into the cloaked spacecraft behind/within the cloud and the two who spoke and were seen by James, John and Peter when Jesus took them up the mountain to receive his confirmation of the timing and way in which he would be exiting - voluntarily “giving his life/laying it down (which today would be seen as suicidal) in turning himself in to be murdered to show the students the way he would follow his Older Member (Father's) instructions and in so doing would also be showing his “love” for his sheep (his dedicated disciples, who also knew sharing their experiences with him would also get them killed for doing so). All of these and in the many depictions of messengers (angels) in the Book of Revelations, they are “clothed in white” as well as the new graduates of every experiential classroom, who have overcome their human world, are described as receiving a “clean white” new physical, but “celestial” model vehicle (body). This overcoming is from their effort but can not be successful without their Older Member's necessary tutoring/midwifing, which they administer during their incarnate period that also serves as a starting point for new believers who by following will be brought back to have an interface with a human vehicle again that they will be able to learn to take over to eventually have their own “spirit birth” aka graduation into the Level Above Human.

“LIGHT” IN YET ANOTHER ASSOCIATED CONTEXT IN HINDU/BUDDHIST RECORDS:

Jesus said he had another “fold” he said he was going to after he left his disciples in the Palestine area:

Joh 10:16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

This combining of folds did not occur in the new world (The Americas) until the late 1800's with those that eventually became known in New York City as the Theosophical Society founded by Madam Blavatsky that became the impetus for the 1960's merger of Eastern Religious thought/practice with European/American Religio-Spirituality. In this thought, Jesus became one of many “ascended masters,” which like Christian thinking was largely misinformation but served the Next Level to open many minds to the direct similarities of the need to renounce worldliness and separate from human familial norms to begin to move into the new Next Level Family of Mind Jesus taught.

As Jesus said:

Mat 6:22 The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

This is the same idea rooted in Hindu/Buddhist records, but popularized, as the Luciferians instigate with all things from the Kingdom of God/Heaven into becoming “enlightened,” (filled with light). The idea of “white light” has also been turned into a paranormalist characteristic and/or tool as a white light worker being a good, so called witch or warlock vs the dark (absence of light) worker being the evil one. This does have it's founding in truth as if we were to see a discarnate Luciferian fallen angel (space alien) outside their use of a human vehicle they would appear like a shadow, completely dark. Ti came to me in a dream and awoke me to see such a dark figure glide by me in a dimly lit room. It was quite clear and real to experience and from that point on the idea of spirits as real became experiential as I also was permitted to see many spirits in the days thereafter. Since that brief several months time I have not seen anything. I believe Ti was helping me recognize the realism to the belief so I could relate to others who have had similar experiences to date and in the records.

A paranormalist or in days past, before the more popularized use of the term “spiritual” was called a “spiritualist” being one who calls upon dead human “spirits” for whatever purpose, who also may talk in terms of protecting oneself by surrounding themselves and/or others with “white light.” Just because different people with different beliefs, cultures, histories and expressions all use moreorless equivalent terms and applications of the words “white” and “light” doesn't reduce the meaning the Kingdom of God/Heaven intends with the use of those words, most importantly where they come from and their highest purposes. Many Christians will hear these words used in certain context associated with certain group identifications; paranormalist, Spiritualist, New Ager, Pagan, Eastern Religious' and disqualify what is potentially real about what those terms represent across the seen and unseen spectrum of how humans relate to and identify with the realities set up by the Kingdom of God/Heaven.

In other words, if Jesus himself came to any of these in person looking like any other person and was talking, say at a library where he had set up a meeting, having advertised his talk, and he used the words “white light” or spoke about “light” as a boost in awareness for the entire globe, many would automatically disqualify him as really being Jesus newly incarnate as many have been taught those terms are heretical and pointers to witchcraft and to thereby consider anything that person says thereafter as allowing oneself to potentially become in league with the devil/Satan, the Luciferians.

Yet there are two sides to this perspective of being influenced by the Luciferian camp as most who would use these terms in the ways just depicted probably are doing so on behalf of a Luciferian camp, because the Luciferians take everything the Kingdom of God/Heaven says through their incarnate representatives and twists and distorts in the most subtle of ways to confuse and mislead. Going to such a meeting not knowing for sure whether or not this is a facsimile (false prophet) “Jesus” or not, is taking a chance on a positive is what a true “seeker” of the total truth feels self compelled to do. Like Jesus said, one must be thirsty - must knock on doors, ask questions, seek to know more, observe all things being said and done, wanting to learn as much as possible about what is real and what is illusionary. And in so doing, they will eventually become exposed to the highest truth which has to come from a source off the planet, though through a human interface.

TI AND DO SAID THE SPACE ALIENS ARE THE “FALLEN ANGELS” and other things they said seemed to indicate the ones in physical bodies to date are largely the descendants of the original “fallen angels,” though they don't think of themselves as such any more than many humans think of themselves as descendants of the fallen angels. But Jesus indicated that the devil sowed his seeds in the garden among the seeds sown by the Next Level. This is seen in the parable of the Wheat and Tares.

But even the fact that the Kingdom of God's Membership abide in the literal heavens, thus outer space has become confused with thinking the reported “space aliens” are the gods or Elohim in Genesis.

We can see what happens when a space alien just shows up and takes a human on board their spacecraft. The human, often drugged in some fashion becomes so mystified and overwhelmed with the supernatural nature of the experience that they leave mesmerized into becoming their spokesman as we can see in the hundred or so abductee/contactees and many more channelers of whom they each believe are “gods” from outer space, which seems to be the likely source of much of Roman and Greek mythology.

The problem is the one true real Members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven don't drug and mesmerize humans into their belief as they designed the human kingdom to be a free will arena for choices. Therefore the Next Level members are very, very particular about how they allow themselves to be seen at times and by whom and for how long and with what evidence and I believe I can add that they don't show up physically to anyone that still has the potential of believing in them, especially during this time of the third trimester when everyone has the chance to graduate to their next station, that is according to what they do during the time of their occupation of a human vehicle.

Where some of the traps ensnare is when those same seekers settle for any one defined avenue of “seeking or pathway” that doesn't satisfy ALL of what they believe to be the root system to their thirst. They will never actually be satisfied, but when they find the real deal, they will see how it is set apart from ALL the others that will include their continuance with their seeking answers as no one ever gets answers to all things until they take steps to prove how much they want them and deserve them as it's beyond an intellectual pursuit. Gathering data about how to drive a car is far different from getting in the drivers seat and experiencing the application of that data. Thus to go to a meeting or read a book or listen to an audio or video or even to participate in any organization is never a problem for the true seeker in and of itself. It's when they settle into one comfortable “path” that doesn't promote constant challenges that includes new behaviors and ways, in thought and deed with constant examination and re-examination of how to “grow” in their new ideas that they are potentially falling into a trap.

Even Ti and Do said, if anyone could show them things they didn't know or how they were wrong about something, they wanted to hear and see what they have to say and would stay with anyone that kept bringing them new information they didn't know for as long as they kept providing. They were forever thirsty for TRUTH and REALITY and UPGRADES TO THEIR BEHAVIOR AND WAYS. They demonstrated this mindset throughout the time they were incarnate, bringing to the group books and occasional visits to certain groups, while incorporating techniques to help students take full control over their human vehicles, though not ritualistically as we see in all the religions and spiritual pursuits as they lose their thirst and source of updates and upgrades, so instead settle into making tools their staple of belief, rather than the Minds that originated those tools.

Meditation, prayer, mantras, psalms (songs), chanting and other mental and physical disciplines and exercises, along with belonging to groups who have certain belief systems, religions, etc. in addition to humanitarian, environmental, social efforts and activism all have their places but also become pitfalls when one adheres to them so much that they have settled into their “path” that makes them characteristics of a trap to keep you in the mindset that WAS once a path towards more enlightenment but then turns into a path to an artificial enlightenment if one stops their seeking and searching of all that becomes available.

Once someone has found certain successes with techniques to reach a peace of mind and/or the praise of like minded humans, whether we know them personally or not, and especially if we become a teacher of these so called spiritual arts and even build our direction into an organization or business such a Soul can easily become entrapped. They would have a very, very hard time changing so they cease remaining a true seeker of the ultimate truths because they become convinced they have found it or at least enough of it, so they simply turn off their receiver antenna to what more there is. They see what else there is as a distraction or as a threat to the satisfaction they arrive at in having “found” their path and purpose, yet it's never the ultimate or highest purpose, so they most often miss out on becoming all they can become, while thinking they have it.

Even so when the Kingdom of God/Heaven incarnate representatives announce their arrival, those they prepared recognize their “voice,” their words and then have a chance to break away from any entrapments. However a genuine Representative from the Next Level is still challenging to follow because they keep raising the bar on the behavior and ways we must adopt sufficiently to qualify for membership on their crew. What a genuine representative for the Kingdom of God says and does will STAND APART IN MANY WAYS FROM ALL ELSE that's been available to date which is why most don't gravitate to them as they were either not prepared for that stage of discipleship at that juncture in their lives or what they say and do doesn't make any sense to them or they can only find fault with them and might even wage a campaign against them.

Now leaving the general usage of the terms “white” and “light,” as in this verse, “white” can mean anything from a characteristic of appearance, as color (lack of in the case of white) to behavior that is absent of humanness. Humanness, being a Kingdom of God/Heaven behavior being non-human, non-seed bearing, non-self-centered, non-predatory, non-deceitful and non-sexual, non-violent (except in spiritual warfare against discarnates and the Luciferian space alien fallen angel mindsets that never entails physically or mentally harming to any degree any human being) thus termed “pure,” though mostly that is written as “clean white...,” or as one having a “washed robe” pertaining to students who have done their cleaning/washing - stayed active in the program provided by their Older Members to overcome the human world. Such a cleaning is also depicted by “sweeping out one's house”*, where one's physical body/mind is one's house.

Mat 12:44 Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished.

Mat 12:45 Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.

Yet “White throne” has more to do with ones purity for someone who is already a member (king), an Older Member in the Kingdom of God/Heaven. On two occasions there is a “white horse” depicted. Well, the Kingdom of God/Heaven Members, incarnate or not are not talking about the literal riding of horses. A horse is a tool, a vehicle for function and transportation that in this case is describing a living human vehicle that to the Kingdom of God/Heaven Members is like a horse they incarnate into (take over) (sit on) to use to demonstrate to the other human horses how to do likewise - take over for their task. Humans are prepped often from birth to be receptive to the sounding of the voice (words) from the Next Level Representative coming incarnate so they might become a prospective candidate for membership. Those not prepared think all this talk is plain ridiculous and made up to con people into believing something.

HE COMES WITH A VEHICLE THAT HAS A WHITE HEAD AND HAIR AS COMPARED TO WOOL AND SNOW SO IS A REFERENCE TO VISUAL COLORATION

However, considering how many of the references to White in English appear to be indicative of the visual characteristic of a lack of color, there is evidence of a potential Caucasian relationship in some cases. There is one scripture in particular that seems to identify one's physical body as having a lack of colored pigment in the outward appearance of their “head”:

Rev 1:13 And in (the) midst (of the) seven candlesticks (one) like (unto the) Son (of) man, (clothed with a) garment (down to the) foot, and girt about (the) paps (with a) golden girdle.

Rev 1:14 His/Her(45) head and (his) hairs (were) white like ((as if)) wool, as white as snow; and his eyes (were) as (a) flame of fire;

Dan 7:9 I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire.

“HIS HEAD AND HIS HAIRS WERE WHITE LIKE WOOL AS WHITE AS SNOW”

That's hard to see as anything but a coloration depiction. Note how in crucial descriptions the Kingdom of God/Heaven gives multiple examples that really to make it hard to dispute. Of course they can always be disputed. For instance, we all can look at wool, as from a lamb and see that their wool/hair is not pure white as we'd see if something was stripped of all coloration, like what bleach does to fabrics, etc. And snow will have degrees of particles in it so technically will not be pure white, yet for all intents and purposes for 100% of the the viewing public, snow is white (lacking color).

Yet an earlier depiction John may have been drawing from:

Isa 1:18 Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

However whether or not this depiction of the new vehicle that is “like the son of man” is lacking color, thus appearing “white” is irrelevant to whom He is offering His information/help to overcome their humanness to. In other words, it appears that the returned representative would be incarnate (like “son of man” (Jesus) was) as a Caucasian as these are the only race that are spoken of and generally look “white,” as was said of His “HEAD,” not just his “hair.”

This DOES NOT mean Caucasians, “whites” as a racial category are individually special or one iota better in any way shape or form than any other racial category.

The Kingdom of God/Heaven does not care one iota for the human vehicle's skin pigment coloration, nor ethnicity. Any human vehicle can become the container that has the ability to become the chrysalis for the metamorphosis (transition to birth) of a new being, in this analogy a butterfly (a member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven). So they see the human kingdom as a “stepping stone” in evolutionary development. But what they want to see developed is our Minds, but NOT in terms of intellect, academic data accumulation and application, social sophistication, skills, talents, leadership, etc. These are all part of the human kingdom to experience and can end up being catalysts, by allowing them to be whittled away from us to become of value to the Kingdom of God/Heaven. Therefore the Older Members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven provide humans with a significant challenge when their representative comes incarnate and publicly announces they are present from outer space (heavens), but from the Kingdom Above Human, a Kingdom of Gods (Elohim) that's plural because they are a many membered kingdom while each is a king/god to even the greatest human, because of the chasm or realm or evolutionary gap between Them and the human kingdom in all ways, including the biology of their physical bodies. These remain “kings/gods” for as long as they remain connected to that Family tree. If they left that family tree as Lucifer and others did, then they would no longer be above human kings, except in how they might be permitted for short time periods to manipulate humans and to directly or indirectly appear to them as kings or gods.

This is the new nation(people)* Jesus said the Kingdom of God/Heaven would be given to. It was taken away from the primary race of humans in the middle east and given to a race they at that time did not know of.

*Mat 21:43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

Moses references the same idea:

Deu 28:49 The LORD shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth*, as swift as the eagle** flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand;

* “end of the earth” - seems to be referring to the end of the age, end time, end days that are in progress now.

** as swift as an eagle - U.S. uses the eagle as it's symbol as was the military insignia of the Holy Roman Empire.

Jesus also said Jerusalem shall be left desolate, the depiction of what to the Kingdom of God/Heaven would become waste and what do we see since Israel has become a member nation but constant waring and to date escalating into a bigger and broadening conflict that no doubt will result in a near total devastation of those lands and peoples. the Next Level doesn't have to use their hand. The tares themselves will become the instruments of one another's devastation. Any that are awake and aware will seek to escape that area by whatever means they have. All have had decades to see the handwriting on the wall. The United States of America has been the biggest force of escalation of that devastation in both their support of both the Israeli's and the Arab nations with all manner of military and increased reasons to hate anyone who is one of their allies as is Israel. There is no righteousness among any who are engaged in the oppression and/or annihilation of others.

Christians and Jews and Muslims are all targeting one another, while none of these doing the targeting or provoking of hostility are innocent nor are actually adherents to the teachings of Moses whom all three say they believe was a prophet from the same God who commanded against humans murdering other humans and stealing from.

These lessons from Moses were meant as toddler lesson steps, they have not learned yet they seek to pretend they have the authority to murder and steal from one another, claiming each is blasphemous so trying to apply the laws and penalties Moses set down that were hardly evidenced as implemented. Christians and Muslims who both claim Jesus was a prophet have no excuse for killing and stealing, because Jesus taught an adolescent step of “turning the other cheek” and forgiveness of even those who transgress the Moses laws because a more advanced student of the Kingdom of God/heaven knows that what they are trying to preserve is their Soul as the vehicles all die, so if we die in the Lord's service, that is supporting the most recent teachings then we don't really die.

Christians have the least justification to behave the way they often do and that is because they are not really related to the one called Jesus the Christ or they would not be able to break all his commandments with justifications of self defense of invading sovereign countries and escaping prosecution because of all the support and benefit such an invasion provides. All will receive their just “reward” for their actions and it will not be by human hands that the Kingdom of God/Heaven provides any support of. It will be like Jesus described related to those who chose not to follow him when they were “chosen” as letting the “dead burying the dead.”

All this information will take further shape upon examining what the Kingdom of God/Heaven is depicting by use of the word, “horse” in English.

*2 HORSE = 2462 hippos hip'-pos of uncertain affinity; a horse= horse.

In this application, what is being described as white is the horse, thus a mammal. It's very obvious throughout the records that the Kingdom of God/Heaven often compares animals with humans. Those who Jesus is looking for are “the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” Goats are considered to be those who are not either believers in or followers of Jesus, thus not sheep. Serpents (reptiles, snakes, etc.) are considered to be Devils, Satan (adversaries of the followers of Jesus). Birds tend to be mammals or reptiles that fly which seem to be depictions of the Space Aliens who have transportation the way today's humans do...e.g. airplanes, rockets, space shuttles and according to the myriad of reports over the last 60 or so years unidentifiable "craft," caught on film going back to the 1940's and 1950's with crashed craft found, mostly in the southwest United States of America.

In this verse's usage of "horse," it's very clear that it's not a horse as in the mammal humans used regularly then to plow fields and ride in equestrian shows or that the Pharaoh's and other ancient armies used to pull chariots and to ride for battle and transportation. Some might say, but why not, why couldn't it be a horse as some things in Revelations might be literal, to which I agree but not in this context.

However, since there are some that do expect Jesus to return riding a literal white horse, here is scriptural evidence that "horse" is used symbolically and can be discerned from the context and when the context leaves one unsure, as in this Rev 6:2 verse, considering the entire Book of Revelations is constructed from representations, it's certainly not to be taken as literal. It's a typical Luciferian ploy to turn people away from the literal when it suits to distort Jesus words/intentions and to turn clear representations to a literal expectation, which in this case means those expecting Jesus on a literal horse will never recognize Jesus next coming. For those who need evidence that "horse" is not literal, there is one sure way to prove "horse" in this context is a representation:

John is being shown things pertaining to the future and by the dating of the papyrus and manuscripts copied from the papyrus humans have dated his writings to about 70 AD. Therefore one can consider that this could be a depiction of someone coming riding a literal horse as horses were certainly used by people during the time after 70 AD.

However, Jesus indicated his return would not be until the "end of the world" which is another of the many confused terms the translators neglected to differentiate between using the term "world" for three distinctly different meanings:

Here we don't get a specific idea of when this will be though the Greek word “aion” is generally thought of as a long period of time, based on contextual definitions to include; eternal, evermore, unbroken age, for ever, perpetuity of time, while in other cases Jesus spoke in “hours,” “days” and in the Book of Revelations in “times.” With the word “end” in the next verse to lend another time indicator, it's at the “completion, consummation, or end of the “age,” time period:

Mat 24:3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end* of the world**?

*end = 4930 sunteleia= completion, consummation, end

**165 aion= for ever, an unbroken age, perpetuity of time, eternity, the worlds, universe, period of time, age

Note: In this verse there is a possible indication that “sign of thy coming” may be one event, that coincides with His coming that may have it's own time period AND the “end of the world,” another event that may have it's own time frame, though they both can occur during the same overall time period, but most likely would span a particular generation, as Jesus indicated all things would be finished within the generation* of those who witness his listing of signs and events:

Luk 21:31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.

Luk 21:32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled.

Here is the second of three usages of the English word “world” yet meaning something unrelated to time, but included here to be thorough in the usage of the term:

Mat 16:26 For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world*, and lose his own Soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his Soul?

*world = 2889 kosmos= an apt and harmonious arrangement or constitution, order, government, ornament, decoration, adornment, i.e. the arrangement of the stars, 'the heavenly hosts', as the ornament of the heavens. 1 Pet. 3:3, the world, the universe, the circle of the earth, the earth, the inhabitants of the earth, men, the human family, the ungodly multitude, world affairs, the aggregate of things earthly, the whole circle of earthly goods, endowments riches, advantages, pleasures, etc, which although hollow and frail and fleeting, stir desire, seduce from God and are obstacles to the cause of Christ, any aggregate or general collection of particulars of any sort, the Gentiles as contrasted to the Jews, of believers only.

Finally the third usage of the English word “world,” which does have a strong indicator of the time period of the return of the one called Jesus, his crew (the third trimester graduate Saints from the Kingdom of God/Heaven, and all who are already members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven who are assisting), and actually led initially by the one called the Father.

Mat 24:14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world* for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

*world = 3625 oikoumene= the inhabited earth, the portion of the earth inhabited by the Greeks, in distinction from the lands of the barbarians, the Roman empire, all the subjects of the empire 1c) the whole inhabited earth, the world, the inhabitants of the earth, men, the universe, the world

In case one doesn't think this application is talking about the primary definition of “the inhabited Earth,” considering it could have been just referring to the area inhabited by the Greeks and/or Roman Empire, here is the same idea expressed in a different way:

Mar 14:9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole* world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

*whole = 3650 holos= all, whole, completely

Thus Jesus is aware that what he is saying will be preached throughout the whole world.

Further evidence that Jesus intended for his disciples (those who were with him and to include new comers) to preach throughout the whole “all” the world before his return. This was recorded after he had risen out of the tomb following his being executed without a charge, when many reported him living, talking, eating, walking with them and proving to them in many ways that he was alive again:

Mar 16:15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all* the world ((kosmos)), and preach the gospel to every creature**.

*all = 537 hapas= quite, all, the whole, all together, all

**creature = 2937 ktisis= the act of founding, establishing, building etc, the act of creating, creation, thing created, of individual things, beings, a creature, a creation, anything created, after a rabbinical usage (by which a man converted from idolatry to Judaism was called), the sum or aggregate of things created, institution, ordinance

And in this verse even more clarification as to Jesus intention as he says to preach the gospel (truth about the Kingdom of God/Heaven as He told it) to every “creature”* - in this context referring to “beings” and animals are not beings because they can never “be” in the context of becoming an “I am,” or “I exist” which is the name Jehovah gave for himself while working with Moses, upon Moses request and the kind of existence every member who is harvested/graduated into the Kingdom of God/Heaven is rewarded with.

*Creature according to Easton's Bible Dictionary: denotes all of the creation in Rev. 5:13 and the entire human race in Mrk 16:15

Thus it's not just the Romans, or Gentiles or Greeks or Lost Sheep of the House of Israel to which Jesus intends for his new information to be preached.

Now exactly when Jesus' information would be considered to have reached that goal of being preached to every creature/being is anybody's guess but suffice it to say this wouldn't have been accomplished before wide spread to every corner of every country, thus part of a global disseminating communication/transportation, that is if the Kingdom of God/Heaven wants to see a thorough job performed. Therefore it wouldn't have been accomplished when horseback was the principal transportation therefore this horse is clearly a representation not a literal horse.

Having past this hurdle, then what does the term “horse” represent?

There is considerable evidence that the representation that horse intends is actually a human being and that in this Rev 6:2 verse it's a member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven whom is sitting upon that white horse. As the “horse” is the physical body, the Soul from the Kingdom of God/Heaven chooses to take it over for his task, what has been described as an incarnation that became confused with reincarnation, another Luciferian play on words to steal away some who otherwise could become prospects for membership in the Kingdom of God/Heaven.

By saying “take over” that's not to imply that it's against the will of the human “horse.” They don't just take over a human unless they are invited, though if a human body is as a baby determined by the Kingdom of God/Heaven to be primed or not able to survive, then the members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven may choose to take over, or at least sufficiently “tag” it for future usage, as a vehicle for their task, this way not interfering with a vehicle that otherwise might have it's own chance to grow towards closer relationship with the Kingdom of God/Heaven through it's incarnate Older Members. A horse is a mammal as are humans. Since the human condition is the stepping stone into the Next Kingdom Above Human, a horse becomes one of the best ways to show John something we would later realize the meaning of.

“Horse” therefore says that a member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven incarnate needs to overcome the mammalian nature that is still prevalent in human beings and when they do will be given a new type of physical body referred to as an article of clothing such as, apparel, raiment, fine linen, white robe, etc. referring to a Kingdom of God/Heaven issue of a MADE (not begotten) physical vehicle/instrument, body. A human body (horse) is taken to provide that Older Member all the same opportunities and challenges the humans will encounter when they follow Him, so when He overcomes his vehicle's human characteristics, habits and addictions, he is demonstrating that it can be done, why and how. This is why They come incarnate. If they came as they really are, they would overwhelm humans, even cause them to die because of the literal power of their minds, the reason at times in the records humans would fall down, face down, prostrate. Later humans mimicked the falling face down as a ritual show of reverence, misunderstanding, as true reverence is shown by listening to and following the behavior and ways taught by the Kingdom of God/Heaven, in the order in which they teach through their incarnate representatives over millenniums of human years.

Here are some Old Testament scriptures where a horse represents a human. For instance, a horse that talks. A talking horse is in cartoons or movies and television but not in reality and this was reported by Zechariah whose time came before Jesus came incarnate:

Some of the Jews who were expecting the “messiah” were not expecting him to come incarnate, which is the way many Christians think now, yet the evidence is that they most always come incarnate:

Zec 1:7 Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,

Zec 1:8 I saw by night, and behold a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in the bottom; and behind him were there red horses, speckled, and white.

So we have 1 rider on a red horse and then red horses, speckled and white without riders mentioned. So there are at least 1 rider and 3 horses, 1 of which is red-ruddy and the other ones red-ruddy, speckled white depending on the comma placements.

While we are at it, I believe when a horse is used to indicate a human physical body as in the few scriptures cited here, and of course Revelations chapter six, a “rider” is a Soul as to ride one's horse (vehicle, physical body) was/is to be in full control of it and that is a big part of what a Soul is taught how to do to be worthy of membership on a Kingdom of God/Heaven crew. That control is what has been referred to as having “Overcome or conquered” one's humanness (world) but that the Luciferians distort into technique of “self” advancement as opposed to doing so for our Heavenly Father, an Older Member in the Kingdom of God/Heaven serving as our parent/midwife for our Soul's birth into Their Family membership.

The overcoming, conquering process is also our “prevailing as God” which is the true definition of an Israeli (an overcomer of our human mammalian condition/kingdom). Our “self” doesn't disappear easily and especially when the Luciferians attempt to dissuade people from the prospect, as if the Kingdom of God/Heaven are a bunch of megalomaniacs thriving on the domination of others, to want mindless followers which is certainly not at all the case. In actuality humans in comparison are the mindless followers of discarnates, other humans they look up to and though they don't know it, space aliens, but don't know it as they are mostly unaware of how many discarnates set up shop in/with our physical bodies and in the occupation of our minds, as software sharing our resources like a host computer/server does. Thus we must gradually grow to recognize the true nature of the Kingdom of God/Heaven so that we will, upon receiving more and more of their mind, by living by their behavior and ways honestly wanting to overcome the world for/on behalf of, because our Heavenly Father asked us to when we sought to know his will for us. This is why the Lords Prayer as it came to be known says in it, “thy will be done on Earth,” and why Jesus said to be his disciple we must “deny self” (ourselves, our own desires and pursuits, etc.) which is why various religious pathways, though they look good don't work because the giving of one's will is put to the test the next time a member from the Kingdom of God/Heaven comes to be with the selected Souls who will be directed to take over selected human (horses) and we are ready, willing and able to recognize them despite Their looking like ordinary humans, because of the quality of their minds that will make it seem quite natural to leave everything of our human kingdom participation til then BEHIND to “follow the lamb wherever he goes,” as it says in Rev. 14.

Now this idea of a rider being a Soul, some could wonder about, as are not all humans Souls or so we're told? But if all humans were souls then why did Jesus differentiate humans that received “seeds” from those who had not, “to those whom much is given, much is required” (some aren't given as much) and of course in the parable of the Kingdom of God/Heaven as a seeding operation Jesus is describing how some seeds are devoured by birds and some fell on rocky soil and some yield fruit. In other words, seeds are souls given to some as a gift that they must have been asking for somehow as the Kingdom of God/Heaven created free will so we'd be the chooser, what to ask for, what to seek, what door to knock on and with the hope to find, as Jesus said was the “way” we get on the receiving end of such a “gift.” If all had souls already where would be the need to plant seeds and what would become of those that don't take full advantage of that gift. After all, what made Adam into a “Living Soul”? It was the “breath of life” that was given to him to breath in though his nostrils that came from his Lord (Jehovah) God (Elohim)*. Notice in the previous chapter of Genesis, “The Elohim created man, male and female and said be fruitful and multiply and subdue the Earth”**, which means conquer/overcome their human earthiness animal nature, but many think it only means conquer the earth in geophysical and mammalian ways.

*The first Soul was created during the seventh day:

Gen 2:7 And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living Soul.

**This creation of human (man) male and female was done in the sixth day, while Adam was given the breath of life during the 7th day and Eve was taken from Adam after that.

Gen 1:26 And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

Gen 1:27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

Gen 1:28 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish* the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

Gen 1:29 And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat.

Gen 1:30 And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.

Gen 1:31 And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

* Note how “replenish” implies, “making plenty again” as if there were humans populating the Earth before them/then.

The Kingdom of God/Heaven members are as ranchers who round up a group of wild horses and offer them a chance to be in their services, that entails a training program. Those that take to the training are kept and assigned various tasks. The rest are let go and unless they choose to ask to be back in the program again never have a relationship with a higher, more evolved kingdom level. So the Kingdom of God/Heaven are the ranchers and humans are like horses. The Old Testament Prophet named Zechariah or Revelation's references to horses as human beings.

And here is the indicator that these horses are depictions of humans:

Zec 1:9 Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And the angel that talked with me said unto me, I will shew thee what these be.

Zec 1:10 And the man that stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, These are they whom the LORD hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth.

Note: Zec 1:8 said “the man riding upon a red horse” was the one standing among the myrtle trees. When he says, “These are they whom the LORD hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth” he is referring to the ones behind him, the “red horses*, speckled** and white”***.

Zec 1:11 And they answered the angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest.

These are sent by Lord to walk through the earth, and They “answered the angel and said...” which is talk, thus not realistic to expect they are horses as in the animals.

*red = Hebrew 0122 'adom= red, ruddy (of man, horse, heifer, garment, water, lentils)

***white = Hebrew 03836 laban or (Gen. 49:12) laben= white

For any that think making reference to Zechariah are questionable data to quote, it's always to be taken for what it's worth. We do have record of Jesus referring to Zechariah and how he was stoned to death due to his work for the Lord. He was visited by messengers among which we get the TWO olive trees and TWO lamp stands which are said to be both “anointed ones” which is one of the definitions of a Christ, thus the Two witnesses are both Christs (anointed), thus are the next or so called second coming of the task assignment called Christing or Christening.

That task entails teaching youngins how to become a “Christ.” It is task that is never accomplished without an existing Christ taking us through the difficult birth canal of cutting all our Earth/Human roots, likes, dislikes, etc. and is never a task we then are assigned to perform for others until we have worked for a long time in various apprenticing positions to gradually prove our trustworthiness. (So I am not saying any student is at this time a Christ. That's not at all mine to determine or even know about. I am simply trying to demystify the task. It's a task, an important one and a huge one for a huge HOLY Minded Soul that wants to someday perform in such a task capacity thus must meet the strict requirements of their Older Member who had performed such a Christ task many times before to which they graduated to being a “Father” from which is depicted in Rev. 12).

Here Moses is compared to a “horse in the wilderness”:

Isa 63:11 Then he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of his flock? where is he that put his holy Spirit within him?

Isa 63:12 That led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting name?

Isa 63:13 That led them through the deep, as an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble?

Here men are depicted as horses rushing into battle:

Jer 8:6 I hearkened and heard, but they spake not aright: no man repented him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? every one turned to his course, as the horse rusheth into the battle.

Here the Goats are punished, which must be humans as Goats don't have free will so can not miss the mark (sin). And students from the house of Judah are compared with being from a "flock." This also shows that the humans are made to be his "goodly horse in the battle."

Zec 10:3 Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I punished the goats: for the LORD of hosts hath visited his flock the house of Judah, and hath made them as his goodly horse in the battle.

Here a horse is depicted with "astonishment," the Hebrew - 08541 timmahown'= also defined as, "bewilderment, stupefaction." Since it's a "smiting," astonishment hardly seems the best choice and yet can a horse be "stupid." Bewildered, perhaps, but not astonished and/or stupid. They he says he will "smite every horse of the people with blindness." To put this together then, one can see that stupid and bewildered and blindness (as a figure) all add up to something it seems would be experienced by humans:

Zec 12:4 In that day, saith the LORD, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness: and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

Here the only other depiction of the return of the one called Jesus on a white horse:

Rev 19:1 And after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:

Rev 19:2 For true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

Rev 19:3 And again they said, Alleluia And her smoke rose up for ever and ever.

Rev 19:4 And the four and twenty elders and the four beasts (LIVING beings) fell down* ((Self Sacrificed their humanness for their Heavenly Fathers (Older Members whom birthed them into membership)) and worshiped ((worked for, provided service to, gave their will and allegiance to)) God ((Kingdom of God/Heaven as represented by the project leaders, Older Members, the Father (who has a new name) and the new named one who was Jesus)) that sat ((sit)) on the throne ((position of power as the authorities/kings)), saying, Amen ((so be it, your instruction is what we implement in our service on your crew)); Alleluia.((our pleasure to serve))

* fell down = 4098 pipto; (which occurs only as an alternate in certain tenses); probably akin to petomai - 4072 through the idea of alighting; to fall (literally or as a figure)= fail, fall (down), light on.
4072 petomai or contracted ptaomai middle voice of a primary verb; to fly= fly(-ing).

As elders these are those who served the Father/Son crew before and gave their lives, leaving their human desires and activities and relationships behind (denying self) to follow the one called Jesus everywhere he went and then told others about Jesus until they were apprehended and lost their physical lives while engaged and/or because of performing that or some equivalent service. (Like for John the said author of the Book of Revelations, there is no record of how he died. He had been banished to the island of Pathmos where he allegedly wrote the Book of Revelations, so may have died there. Each has their own story).

So, since there is much evidence in this Book of Revelations that these twenty four elders and the four living beings are in 100% dedicated service to the Kingdom of God/Heaven through those they consider to be their Older Members, Father (Adam, Enoch, Moses, Elijah, Jesus and finally the one with yet another new name as one of the Two Witnesses) and Grand Father (Jehovah of the Elohim, then Father then with a new name as one of the Two Witnesses incarnate in a woman's vehicle), how could they “fall” one of the primary definitions of the Greek “pipto”?

Well, the first definition given is to “descend from a higher place to a lower.” Since they were received into A heavenly dwelling upon the loss of their physical body 2000 years ago, having become “dead (to human behavior and ways) in Christ then, as well as having demonstrated their loyalty before that, since the Jesus record suggests the Father gave these Souls to Jesus, thus they had to have found favor with Jehovah before meeting up with Jesus (again, as they would have actually been the most dedicated of the Moses camp). Since the origin of this word is “akin to 4072 through the idea of alighting,” these first two definitions correlate. Their being “elders” means they were working for the Kingdom of God/Heaven. That doesn't mean they had graduated to a Kingdom of God/Heaven “celestial” vehicles yet, but were as it seems at their final trimester as depicted in the Rev 14 first fruits harvest. As it seems the Kingdom of God/Heaven provides physical vehicles for those who give their lives, so they can perform certain services as “watchers or messengers” that will help the Older Members recognize if they are truly Kingdom of God/Heaven crew material, since Lucifer and his bunch when afforded the same opportunity chose to rebel at approximately the same stage, they would have still been “full of light” so much so that their descending to Earth from wherever they were, for instance in one of the upper chambers of the “Temple” they would be “alighting upon” those human vehicles they began to interface with to “take them over” to overcome them and thereby graduate.

Still this doesn't address the aspect of “fall.” Descent from a Heavenly abode to an Earthly and whether or not some type of “death” was involved as the parts of the definition that say “falling dead suddenly” or “to be thrust down,” “fall out/from,” to be “removed from power by death” strongly suggest. Now this is not to say all these applications of “pipto/peto” must fit, but as keeps coming up, most if not all of the most prevalent definitions always seem to, to cover both a literal and figurative interpretation as is common with these translations of what the Kingdom of God/Heaven provides us.

To the Kingdom of God/Heaven membership, student or graduates and Older Membership, “death” of one's physical body isn't something feared and avoided at all costs and nearly as important as the death of a human's physical body, yet humans in actuality put less importance on a human's life than do the Kingdom of God/Heaven's membership. But the idea of sacrifice of the physical and what is most valuable to us was being taught by Jehovah through Moses in what were called “sacrifice,” then of animals, that they at times consumed and at other times didn't, thus to those in the camp, a strange happening to let perfectly good “flesh” of some animals at some times be burned instead of consumed. But in terms of being willing to give up what is very valuable to us, as possessions and as status, which livestock were both would be a big step towards not only selflessness, but to instill that there are things that are more important than food, as Jesus reiterated later telling them not to worry about where they would get their food, because that's where "faith" enters in. If it was having faith in a false god, then they would not gain any faith, but the difference between a fake and a real member from the Kingdom of God/Heaven is that what the fake says doesn't happen so one can't trust and therefore have faith in, while the Kingdom of God/Heaven always fulfills their helping their own as they ask/seek and do so by applying the lessons they give along the way.

Then of course Jesus taught his students that even his own human vehicle was not important to keep at any price, even indicating that one would be better off to even get rid of a hand or eye rather than allow that body part, referring to the self control of that body part cause one to lose their way and not stay in the overcoming program to graduation. And he also illustrated this idea in saying that one would not be out of place to consider "making oneself a eunuch (a castrated male)" all importantly "for the Kingdom of God/Heaven's sake," that is for the sake of that students making graduation into the Kingdom of God/Heaven.

Finally, Jesus was very clear that to save one's human life which can mean anything from staying in a marriage, keeping after a house, raising children, working a career to forward one's value, wealth, stature among other humans would NOT gain one membership in the Kingdom of God/Heaven.

Therefore, a big part of the entrance requirement is to exit the vehicle when it's called for by the strategy delivered by one's Older Member. Now this may seem far fetched but deserves careful consideration. We know Jesus said that the Saints would be returning with him, their being his former disciples, their Soul bodies as they each exited their physical human vehicles. We also know that the Kingdom of God/Heaven, when they receive into their dwellings a new member which would include a student member, one who had not yet graduated but showed commitment to the Older Member leading them through their "birth canal," they at times provide a body these upcoming members can "wear" in order to provide them with certain tasks that will further prove their loyalty to their Older Member as they only operate without a body or with a body that can alter it's vibratory pattern so to appear invisible to a human when doing an undercover task among humans, as those who had operations within the “temple” grounds, where one or more had taken over a physical human vehicle but where the others serve as their support team as in the “Comforter” or “Holy Ghost” aka Holy Spirit.

Thus, as some are assigned tasks as watchers or messengers, while having assigned physical bodies to wear, taking off that body to perform yet their next stage in their overall progression to graduation/harvest program could very well entail taking off that existing “suit of clothing” (the new physical body in which they were assigned. Now there may be many ways to “take it off,” but which method may depend on whether or not they are striving to receive a “Kingdom of God/Heaven “celestial” type of body that is no longer corruptible. Lucifer and company must have still had an assigned corruptible human body or it could not have had sexual relations with human women who had never been implanted with a Soul implant/set of programs. But since these who were still students, however “elder” meaning third trimester students as opposed to first or second trimester students, they still need to prove their allegiance and that would also entail giving up the comfort level the occupation of any physical vehicle provides as it is like a security blanket or one's favorite outfit. One doesn't want to take it off, unless they are accustomed to doing so, in which case it may be no effort at all. But to these students who had not yet fully overcome their humanness, there is a challenge to taking off a vehicle as the vehicle has to cease functioning to release the software (Soul package). They have to “sacrifice their physicality” which demonstrates their trust in their Older Members, that they will still live afterward, something human or equivalent vehicles don't automatically know because they are not eternal in their design.

When the event occurred in Roswell and the other in Aztec, New Mexico that involved the crash of two spacecrafts that left 4 bodies in the Roswell crash and 18 reported by the FBI in the Aztec crash a year or so later, we come to the number 22. Then there had been a crash in 1998 in Texas where 1 body was found and buried and another in Pennsylvania where one body was discovered in the early 1960's. If one tallies all the crashes worldwide with some 95% of the ones with bodies reported, there are about 100 bodies that were reported, all except one occurring between 1947 and the 1960's. (I don't care to be 100% accurate here. The number count is close enough and the most important years were from the Roswell and Aztec crashes and the data can easily be found on the internet). Some of the bodies when examined by human scientists that were eventually leaked demonstrated that at least one body only resembled a human vehicle in that it had a head, arms and legs, feet and hands but with a different finger configuration. Internally this one had no digestive system nor reproductive system so some thought it was a robot as most human organs were absent. Another had what appeared to be an atrophied reproductive system of a male, a very small appendage. One could suggest from this that the one with the atrophy looking reproductive system may very well have been an assigned vehicle given to a second or third trimester student who still needed to show more loyalty to the Next Level but who was assigned a vehicle that could still return to human behavior, what Adam's physical body seemed to be capable of as well. Where the one without any signs of reproductive or digestive systems would be a Kingdom of God/Heaven "celestial" vehicle as even if it's occupant Soul wanted to could not return to human behavior, though it wouldn't want to but is proposed for sake of the illustration.

Therefore, this "fall" as usual has several applications, literal, in mental and physical ways, even repeatedly during the three trimesters towards their birth. In yet one literal sense, the Kingdom of God/Heaven, needed a way to provide some of their student members, (but with the Older Members, as in Father and Son with Saints (active students nearing graduation) an opportunity to graduate to a new more advanced than human or space alien physical body, the difference being even greater than that between a Model T automobile to a Space Shuttle in it's capacity and functionality and would be incorruptible and eternal (unless they had reason to give that one up to receive yet the next higher functioning model, which there is technically no potential end to). This puts the entire idea of one's physical body on a par with a suit of clothing sort of the way a human puts on a diving suit to dive underwater and a space suit for activity in space and another type of protective suit for working in a radioactive environment. One can imagine that the Kingdom of God/Heaven has a vast array of different types of vehicles and some even perform transport and other functions that a crew needs so is driven by a Soul that wanted to experience the service that task offered In this way one can imagine there being many departments of task assignments a new member might choose from upon graduation from the human kingdom level of life. This is a very exclusive membership and the criteria is to sacrifice everything we've become, whether it was seen as humanitarian or spiritual by fellow humans, to prove one really had taken in Their Mind (holy spirit) to qualify for their graduation, so they could then begin this new life with a new family with new tasks and challenges.

With this many faceted “falling” in mind, here is the verse that describes Lucifer's fall out of service to the Kingdom of God/Heaven:

Isa 14:12 How art thou fallen* from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning!
how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!

Isa 14:13 For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north**:

Isa 14:14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High.

Isa 14:15 Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit.

*05307 naphal a ancient root= to fall, lie, be cast down, fail, as in a violent death or to fall prostrate, prostrate oneself, attack, desert, fall away to, go away to, fall into the hand of, to fall short, fail, fall out, turn out, result, to settle, waste away, be offered, be inferior to, to lie, lie prostrate, to cause to fall, fell, throw down, knock out, lay prostrate, to overthrow, to make the lot fall, assign by lot, apportion by lot, to let drop, cause to fail (fig.) to cause to fall, to throw or prostrate oneself, throw oneself upon, to lie prostrate, prostrate oneself.

**north - It is interesting that the Caucasian development of the human species in large part took root in the northern territories of the planet, with a few exceptions. Looking at a map, during the time period after Jesus left his incarnation on Earth, we see the various human governmental power structures moving north as in the Germans (so called Holy Roman Empire that replaced the southern Roman Empire), the Russians and finally the North American's. This is not to suggest Caucasians are Luciferians but it does suggest that they (the Luciferians) followed the direction the Kingdom of God/Heaven was taking in preparation for their last trimester in birthing, aka harvesting, aka graduating their newest student souls. In other words the new nation (genus of people) was being moved from the genus known primarily as Israeli. Isaiah provided a number of forecasts of thinking and events that have shown application for the Jesus incarnation as well as the Two Witnesses incarnations.

Note how close the definitions of the Greek “Pipto” (above) and the Hebrew “naphal” even including the “lighting” down upon. This is not to equate the potential “descent” of the 24 elders and 4 living beings with Lucifer and his angels that sided with him and their “fall” as with Lucifer's case he was described as being in direct competition with the Lord and his fall was to “hell” which is what becomes of all those who refuse to take notice of the real Kingdom of God/Heaven when it's offered them. Hell is basically the location of no return to any degree of life, not even a spirit type of existence as the spirits are also periodically recycled and replaced as needed with a new crop of Luciferian equivalents who become the footstools* for upcoming graduates of the human evolutionary condition.

*footstool has two applications: 1)* The Earth, but more precisely the Human Evolutionary Kingdom Level of Life that the Kingdom of God/Heaven created and has managed/developed to be a “stepping stone” for Souls to their birth, aka harvest aka graduation. 2)** The Enemy, being the satanic (assigned adversaries), the Luciferian Space Aliens (dragon, serpent, devils, renegades, fallen angels, false prophet stimulator, etc.) as they seek to turn the eyes of those being elected and electing to overcome the world (human evolutionary kingdom level, aka strata aka chasm of life) by tempting them to ignore and/or go against the Kingdom of God/Heaven in direct and indirect ways. By doing so they are providing a type of fertilizer to the plants, stimulating them to grow stronger as they seek the Kingdom of God/Heaven's help to get through the difficulties and lures to make wealth and abundance of pleasures their passion to acquire (make their “god”).

*Isa 66:1 Thus saith the LORD, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?

*Mat 5:35 Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great King.

**Psa 110:1 The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool.

**Mat 22:44 The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?

With this said, it's also altogether possible that separate from a descent by members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven's crew there is a subsequent Luciferian descent to where they may or may not have actually crashed but were simply relieved of their assigned task that also provided what powered their spacecrafts that they then needed to find themselves on Earth. With this thinking they influenced human leaders to mine gemstones and minerals. They simultaneously sought to have humans driven to develop technologies they wanted to bolster that led to nuclear energy systems and spacecrafts they could then use to try to escape the prison and impending hell they know they are otherwise restricted to.

It's interesting how there is so much evidence of these points of view. Today, a leader named Rael says he is a contactee and a Christ and/or Maitreya (Buddhist styled Christ/enlightened one) who was contacted by those he calls Raelians, like Ray Aliens, Ray perhaps being a play on words they had no control over but that the Kingdom of God/Heaven saw to, as a ray of light, as in the name Lucifer:

01966 heylel from 01984 (in the sense of brightness)= Lucifer = “light-bearer,” shining one, morning star*, king of Babylon and Satan (fig.), 'Helel' describing the king of Babylon.

* morning star - this is being confused as Lucifer

This is referring to the Older Member who was Jesus and then after that fulfills the role of one of the Two Witnesses as depicted primarily in the section that includes the 7 angels with trumpets and the Two Witnesses:

Rev 2:28 And I will give him the morning star

The name Lucifer means brilliant star, a title given to the king of Babylon (Isa. 14:12) to denote his glory.

Rael of the Raelians (a space alien based religion, that they don't realize was stimulated by Luciferians trying to second guess and become a look alike of the Kingdom of God/Heaven, thus false prophet, false “god” that there are many very clear proves of) says in his free online book that he met someone named Lucifer and another named Satan who actually war against one another at one point. (Of course it's always possible some took such names and there have been a number of reports by space alien contactees that they (the space alien groups) war with one another (another evidence of their being human or human equivalents as the Kingdom of God/Heaven membership don't war among themselves at all. The only war's they instigate are wars where words are their weaponry, with the exception of taking care of the genetic strain they cultivate to become the vehicles for those Souls they are nurturing toward birth, aka harvest aka graduation. It may look like war, when they stimulate the recycling, weeding of the planet but there is no contest in this respect. It's really like a farmer pulling up all the weeds and/or killing all the pests that could interfere with their plants production of fruit. Thus if a tribe of humans are interfering with the human vehicles they have planted souls within or are planing for a future planting, then they use what others want to do anyway, be they young students or not, to perform some of the work in the garden they have a need to get done. That doesn't mean they go to some leader and suggest waring with someone else as we see occurring all throughout human history we know of. That's not their modus operandi, though it may be on the table if needed.

And it's curious that they say they can construct human vehicle with a computer that takes DNA as input but has limited life span though longer than humans on Earth, of about 700 years.

And Rael with his Earthly Kingdom of some 65,000 or so members, they report are all about fixing the global warming problems by development of technologies and cloning animals. It would not be at all surprising to learn that they want to clone animals so they can take that technology to their underground hiding area and hope to survive the upcoming spading they are anticipating but think other space aliens and/or humans as causing to escalate.

Thus we see technology and space aliens as their god's. The Kingdom of God/Heaven has no need for technologies. Even the most advanced human systems are trivial to the Kingdom of God/Heaven, who know how to float planets into orbits and such.

So even though Rael purports a few of Jesus quotes that among humans gives him Jesus styled credibility with those from a Jesus centered upbringing, he is doing and teaching anything but a new age/atheistic approach to the Kingdom of God/Heaven as if they don't exist as persons, only as an etheric group or universal or cosmic mind/consciousness, etc. that the space aliens share in thus they get to feel that there are no people they have to admit are over/above him/them which we see mimicked among many humans because they are for the most part the new leaves off the Luciferian stimulated genetic tree, the one's Jesus called the "tares" who are the weeds trying to inhibit the growth of the wheat, which is the illustration of the Kingdom of God/Heaven fruit.

Next some examination of the only other verses that use the image of "white horse(s) with rider" and their context and added re-translation and re-interpretation:

For context refer to Rev 19:5-10.

Rev 19:11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

(See further context in Rev 19:12-16).

Rev 19:17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls* that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

*fowls = 3732 orneon from a presumed derivative of 3733;; n n= a bird

Rev 19:18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

These fowls are not literal birds eating humans though may be precisely what John was shown. The Flesh of Kings would be the allegiance of the ones who had come from the Kingdom of God/Heaven as near to graduate students who were influenced while incarnate to give their allegiance, directly or by adopting their mindset to one or another Luciferian Space Alien group. These aliens are depicted as flying because they do have spacecrafts, however limited and their vehicles are turning to various degrees reptilian, at least behaviorally as predators. Their consuming is their taking souls away from the Kingdom of God/Heaven and their seeking human DNA, eggs, sperm, hormones, etc. in which to try to preserve and sustain their own species by, probably also the reason for the rash of cattle mutilations that occurred in the 1970's.

Rev 19:19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

This seems to be depicting all the bestial humans with their weaponry gearing up to fight the space aliens. Some think these are the “bad space aliens,” told that by some of the space aliens. The bad aliens are said to be little grey robots, (because in the autopsy's of found/captured space alien bodies, one or two (I'd guess but at least one, didn't have an organ structure anything like human. There was no digestive and no reproductive organs whatsoever, while at least one other had a near atrophied reproductive organ, from not being used). His Army are the students that were the ones beheaded for Jesus, whose Soul bodies were brought back to take over a prepared human Soul, that they were to conquer it's mammalian ways and use that vehicle to give their all to their also incarnate (in carnal) Older Member (heavenly Father who last was Do but was before that Jesus).

Rev 19:20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshiped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

Rev 19:21 And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

*3 BOW = (usage):

Many Christian writers assume this was a bow as in a bow and arrow the hunting or military weapon. Why? Well, one can bet it's because this one who sat on the horse “went forth conquering” so they determined he had a weapon of physical war as that is the only conquering the Luciferians want them to consider as then they won't anticipate working the standard formula to be a prospective member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven. And this goes hand in hand with the choice of “conquer” as opposed to OVERCOME or PREVAIL, which would have at least been more consistent with the Hebrew form of the meaning of an Israeli as “one who prevails as God (prevails).” Note how in this verse there is repeated “conquering” with a final conquest. This seems related to the idea that the LAMB, aka the Shepherd, aka the Son of Man, aka the only “born human” only begotten (born/incarnate) Son of God had students aka disciples aka those SAINTS (who gave their lives for Him), He was bringing to their “spirit/Soul BIRTH” which then begins to make more sense of this verse and thereby also relates to the overall picture.

To be born into the Kingdom of God, in which one receives a crown as then compared to humans one has become a type of king from the Kingdom of God/Heaven's perspective, (as overcoming their humanness, marked by their harvest/graduation time is obtaining the position of King over humans, though not as humans are Kings as there is no “Lording over” anyone), they must, while under the direct via incarnate direction, that they desire, thirst for and repeatedly ask Him for must conquer, overcome, prevail and get victory over their entire human mammalian nature. Thus in a real way He, the one in this verse who is the Soul that “sits” (holds the task assignment/position) on the “white horse” was acting as the midwife in each of his students spirit/Soul births into their own kingship. Therefore “he went forth conquering,” something he had to do for each student thus a repeated endeavor and when he had delivered all these new births, then he had victory in the entire task that had been in motion for at least the last 6000 years that his Lord, the one who was Jehovah, then the Father and then incarnate as Ti, the Woman was the equivalent of the Admiral of the entire operation.

Now bow* in the Hebrew is what many Christians think is intended though the Greek word is much different. However, if we were to say that the Hebrew word was closer to the original intention that John was describing then as this would certainly be a time to look for the representative meaning, it would be “rainbow” or a tool of battle, but as always in the Kingdom of God/Heaven context a battle for the allegiance of Souls to God vs Mammon, to the Father/Son team or to the Luciferian influenced human beings. Thus all definitions should work. Rainbow even works in the context because what is the rainbow in the records but a “covenant” between the Lord and Noah and Family, who at that point represented the restart of the civilization that had the promise of showing allegiance to Jehovah to reap the benefits of being granted membership in the Lord's Family.

That covenant expanded in the Moses “classroom” to abiding by the commandments Jehovah provides to Moses on Mt. Sinai, to not murder/kill (fellow humans), not steal, not look to or serve “other” gods (false gods), not covet what others have, abide by the sabbath rules and be honest and respectful towards one's parentage. To Jehovah these were baby steps and appropriately so as these Souls with human vehicles were the equivalent of babies or toddlers at best at that time. The covenant continues to expand in the next experiential classroom administered by Jesus when he required of his disciples that they “deny yourself, take up your cross and follow me,” leaving behind all their human family to then prepare to “drink the cup of his blood” which is what “take up your cross” also means which is “laying down your life” for your Older Member, in Jesus case, his “heavenly” Father (as he was not incarnate with him then) whose instruction is to “feed my sheep” which will entail laying down their lives for the sheep because they will be hated for what they say that provides for the sheep.

Finally, these same Souls are returned to strengthen their covenant even further. Ti and Do called it a “committal” and Ti instructed the student body to make their commitment to Do. Ti also was the one who stated early on in their “classroom” that we needed to “give us your will,” that shocked several students I'm sure. Do later told us, after Ti left her incarnation that she thought they might lose “half the class” by saying that. Even though it didn't happen right away the details of how to “give your will” gradually came about and throughout the next 17 years or so, the numbers did drop to 24 from then being somewhere around the 48 mark. (I'm not claiming it was exactly half, but it was very close.)

Then the covenant expanded to the ultimate qualification of even being willing to voluntarily lay down your life, not necessarily by being killed by someone who hated what they were saying and doing but by their own hand in what the world would see as suicide. Thus these covenants all told demonstrated the students greatest love for their Older Members by “giving all your heart, mind, Soul and strength to the Lord,” what Jesus and Moses said was the “greatest commandment” which they had entered into covenant with.

Being a child of God, is simply a step. It means that human was tagged for the opportunity to have a closer face to face relationship with the next incarnate representative, but if that child chooses to go against that sent representative actively or by ignoring them, as if they don't exist then they are cutting themselves off from that Family unit.

*bow = Hebrew 07198 qesheth from 07185 in the original sense of 06983 of bending= bow, (for hunting, battle), bowmen, archers, bow (fig. of might), rainbow

In any case, the covenant was the agreement for prospective “tagged” children of God to COMMIT to looking to the Lord in all ways (that has to be taught gradually for humans to honestly embrace what it entails). That covenant/commitment was continued with Moses as the incarnate representative when He was given the prime rules/commandments that were the start of the qualifications to stay in the Kingdom of God/Heaven's Overcoming program. Thus this Soul sitting on the white horse had that commitment, but it's not until we look at the Greek word “toxon” from the base of “tikto” that in it's simplest form has to do with “fabric” possibly the fact that all those who conquer get a white garment, raiment, robe to wrap around Their Soul (wear)*.

* bow = Greek 5115 toxon from the base of tikto 5088; a bow (apparently as the simplest fabric)= bow.

5088 tikto= a strengthened form of a primary teko (which is used only as alternate in certain tenses); to produce (from seed, as a mother, a plant, the earth, etc.), literally or as a figure= bear, be born, bring forth, be delivered, be in travail.

Examples of the “fabric” implication in the Greek “bow” as the reward for students who conquer, overcome:

Rev 3:4 Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.

Rev 3:5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

Rev 3:18 I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.

Rev 4:4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

Rev 6:11 And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

Rev 7:9 After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;

Rev 7:13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?

Rev 7:14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

However, the primary definition of the Greek toxon/tikto has to do with motherhood, producing as in “bearing young,” “bringing forth.”..“being in travail” and includes “being delivered.” In other words, both this One who is sitting on the White Horse conquers (overcomes the human condition(world) again, as the same Soul did every time He fulfilled the task to incarnate to aid the next experiential classroom of his prime student body) which is equal to being “born” into his next station of service in the Kingdom of God/Heaven which is accomplished by his serving as the midwife to deliver his own young, equivalent to providing the hands on example his students need to be “born” into their next station of service in the Kingdom of God/Heaven, the reason for His conquering - bearing them to their harvest/graduation.

This conquering process is the same as teaching his children to wash their robes, a requirement of the overcoming process that is making one's eye single and is aka “giving one's all to the Lord thy God” which can only be accomplished when that individual is “born of woman” as a “son of man” to demonstrate (the Way) the self sacrifice of all our human passions, but transferring them to the establishment of a bond/graft to the Lord's family tree ("no one comes to the Father except through me" as opposed to holding onto one's human family tree. Jesus was not actually a human family man as well depicted in the gospels by Jesus:

Mat 12:46 While he yet talked to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him.

Mat 12:47 Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee.

Mat 12:48 But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren?

Mat 12:49 And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!

Mat 12:50 For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

Some, in not all of his disciples left all they had to be with him, a big part of the overcoming process that shifts one's allegiance from the human family to the Kingdom of God/Heaven family:

Mat 19:27 Then answered Peter and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore?

Mat 19:28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Mat 19:29 And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

Luk 12:51 Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division:

Luk 12:52 For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.

Luk 12:53 The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother in law against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

Luk 14:26 If any man come to me, and hate/detest not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.

I know some translations say in place of hate, love less, but there is no evidence of that and the Greek word used “miseo” is used many times and has nothing to do with “loving” as we are seeking when He is physically with us, to give all our love to the Lord, thus will be seen by everyone that doesn't believe as duped by a cult leader as Jesus clearly was in His day. However, by hate does not mean you don't honor the family you must leave behind when the representative isn't physically present, which He/They is/are not now. The biggest honor you can show them is actually to give yourself to the Lord as completely as you can. And by Hate is also not meant we hate them personally. What we hate/detest is their desire to pull us away from what we feel we must give our all to. They can't be blamed for feeling that way, so it's understood but they don't know that they never owned their children, spouse, relatives, parents, siblings just because they were leaves born off the same branch. Humans do not create any life. They simply facilitate the carrying forth of the life processes that were established and provided. The human family has it's value but no longer for those few, when they know they have been called to leave it. Then it becomes a detriment to forward motion as just like a root system the plant can feel like you have cut off an appendage.

Now, the Luciferians create facsimiles of what they know the Kingdom of God will require of it's own when they come. Thus we see all sorts of groups spring up claiming to be Jesus or some prophet but there is only one from the One True Kingdom of God and you can know them by their fruit, which is everything they say and do that is “Above Human” in even an evolutionarily kind of way. Everything they teach will have consistency with everything that was previously taught by the previous representatives, that includes consistent upgrades. The Jews by in large have problems thinking Jesus was from the same Kingdom of God/Heaven that Moses was from because Jesus brought upgrades that they didn't see as upgrades because they were not the product of the same genetic branch that experienced understanding and dedication to the rules Moses was given.

Moses was teaching a certain grade level in the Overcoming of Humanness school. Jesus was teaching above grade school. Even human youths can do better with stronger disciplines, until they learn the reason and value of them, at which point they can be trusted to exercise better judgments. But those who become invested in the grade school program, by having others look up to them, giving them stature have little to no desire to alter that status by shifting their belief and program to someone who brings updates, thus they remain stagnant and instead seek to destroy that which they see as threatening their hold on others, a hold they feel is God given and was, though they misinterpret its implementation. An example of this misunderstanding is the penalty of throwing stones at someone to literally kill them for certain offenses seen as heretical. Stoning in that sense was probably a shunning, though on the books it may have been more than that, that is when they have the overview of a member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven incarnate with them. But even if the rule was to stone someone who is teaching some to follow “other gods,” we'd have to trust that the Kingdom of God/Heaven whom have parts of their crews in observance of those who are seeking to live by their ways, would dissuade them from carrying out such an act or even stop it altogether unless they really were intentionally leading others to follow a different “god.” It does get very difficult to understand when millennium has past and one would think that when the next rep comes to bring updates the updates would not be too far afield from the initial laws.

Furthermore, this entire premise of this being Jesus sitting (incarnate) on/in the white (pure, full of light, thus enlightened) human vehicle, bearing young and because of being born to his next station, has a major correlation to the fact of this “birth” and catching up to the throne (seat) of the man “son” as depicted in Rev 12:1-5. (See section II.A.5.g. REVELATIONS 12 for detailed interpretation of these verses)

Here after he is “born” into his next station, he goes on to conquer by winning the war against the dragon, Lucifer and the space aliens that are seeking his allegiance:

Rev 12:10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

Rev 12:11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.

Some, Christians believe, are being taught and now teach that this one who is sitting on the white horse isn't the returned Soul who was Jesus. Part of why they say this, is because he has the "bow." To them the bow is the tool of war and Jesus doesn't fight wars with human military weapons. When he has a sword, it's always made clear that his sword is his tongue, the information/words he expresses that has a cutting down or a harvesting affect. This is of course true. The one called Jesus wouldn't shoot a literal bow and arrow at anyone. So again a Luciferian twist of what this verse depicts, turning it upside down to where the entire representation is distorted into not being a representative from the Kingdom of God/Heaven. Thus when this verse is played out in the society, by the Two Witnesses, all those who have this interpretation will once again miss how this prophecy will be fulfilled by Them (The Two Witnesses).

This is how the Luciferians trick even those who are in line to be counted worthy of Kingdom of God/Heaven student-hood towards membership and the reason there is benefit for each of us to remain keenly observant of all things that occur in the news that could demonstrate the arrival of incarnate members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven. And this would include really getting familiar with the core teachings of Jesus while not so easily accepting someones interpretation with little to no reasonable and cross referenced scriptures, as demonstrated by those who discount this white horse sitter as someone other than the returned Soul who was named Jesus 2000 years ago, all because of a mistranslation, misunderstanding and/or wrong assumption to the definition of the term "bow" and all it's ramifications as outlined here.

*4 CROWN as in; "crown (was) given (unto) him"

To receive a crown has to come from being given one, which is initially depicted by:

Rev 12:5 And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up ((plucked out of his human life)) unto God ((The Father incarnate (the Elder of Two Witnesses))), and to his throne ((The Father's the one on the Throne, the Son is being awakened to. This is the one who served last as the lamb in the vehicle's name of Jesus but would have a new name this incarnation, of course with a new vehicle as described having white hair and a white head standing on firm metal legs)).

But he doesn't re-earn his crown yet, which is characteristic of the growth experience this task is for even the Older Members. They must conquer the world all over again, even though they have done so even many times before. And this time the conquering is that much more difficult because of the work the Luciferian space alien (fallen angels) have been allowed to do, to commandeer the minds of the entire civilization on Earth to a significantly distorted view of reality and in particular to the record of the last stage in the Kingdom of God/Heaven's overcoming of humanism program, termed the “garden” in bringing seeded/planted Souls to fruition, a harvest and also a graduation of the school like program, also termed a literal Soul birth as that seed is nurtured to literally grow through the overcoming of the human vehicles that serve each of the returning saints to take up from where they left off 2000 years ago to themselves overcome their remaining human attachments (roots of the human tree) that includes human behaviors and ways.

He receives this crown by his battling the lower forces, depicted as the dragon during the time he and his Older Member have fled after their prophecy period into a desolately populated area, a literal wilderness area together as at this point there is no indication these Two have separated and it's during the 1260 day prophecy period that they collected the human “horses” deposited with their own Soul seeds that the returning Soul(saints) had been able to, with the help of the Older Members catch away from their human lives to bring them into the overcoming program:

Rev 12:6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

Rev 12:7 And there was war in heaven: Michael* and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, Rev 12:8 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

She is the one doing the nurturing She doesn't need to be nurtured She is God the Father incarnate which should not be that strange to hear as Jehovah had some physical presence with Moses, as has been documented in this writing, so won't be duplicated now and as also was documented Jesus said his Father would also be making his “abode” with him upon Their return, so this is depicting their start and the battle that ensued, which the Two Witnesses chapter of Rev 11 provides the detail of the 1260 day period which is all the process of catching him away to this throne - the leadership role the Father is coaching the Son in performing that will yield his also being a Father with his own litter as has already been interpreted from Rev 6:2.

*Michael = 3413 Michael of Hebrew origin= “who is like God,” the first of the chief princes or archangels who is supposed to be the guardian angel of the Israelites

There are a number of scriptures that indicate that this one called Michael was as all a student and not yet a “God” thus “like God,” but who rose it standing to Archangel and the Son of a King is a Prince and this Michael is depicted as a chief prince thus a primary “son” to Jehovah, the I Am, the Existing One, the Father of Jesus and incarnate in a Woman's body as one of the Two Witnesses coming with the One who was Jesus.

Ti and Do, as claimants of being the Rev 11 Two Witnesses show two more potential fulfillments of prophecy from Rev 1:14 having to do with the returned NEW, LIKE, “Son of man” (incarnate/Son of God in flesh) having a “white head” and “white hair” and White in the name of the physical body he and Ti said he'd incarnated into:

- 1) The human vehicle Do said he borrowed for his midwifing, aka Soul birthing task of the returned “saints,” was born Marshall Herf Applewhite and was racially “white” as in “head and hairs white like wool.”
- 2) When Do met Ti in 1972 he was about 41 years old and already had whitish hair as in “hairs white like wool.” The alternative way of reading verse Rev 1:14 would be that his head was white like wool and his hair was white as snow. In either case Do, with his vehicle Marshall Applewhite evidences fulfillment of two characteristics of prophecy.
- 3) Furthermore the name of the human vehicle he chose to incarnate into was last named “AppleWHITE,” while being the son of a Presbyterian minister who traveled around Texas building churches, not the buildings, but the congregations. It's clear in Rev 1:14 that it is color that is being addressed here by the word “white,” comparing it to wool and/or snow.

To show proof of Do's hair being White when they started their prophecy period, here is an excerpt from an interview of then called Bo (Do) and Peep (Ti) with New York Times reporter James S. Phelan, published in the New York Times Magazine section, article, "Looking for: The Next World" on Feb. 29, 1976:

"The Two, as their followers refer to them, proved to be a pair of middle-aged Texans. Bo, a soft-spoken, highly articulate man of 44, was born Marshall Herf Applewhite. Peep is a matronly woman of 48, the former Mrs. Bonnie Lu Truesdale Nettles. (In the interview they referred to each other as Bo and Peep.) They were wearing slacks and windbreakers and, except for Bo's distinctive thatch of near-white hair worn in a "with it," over-the-ears cut, they looked more like a pleasant suburban couple-next-door than creatures from a distant galaxy."

Note: "...Bo's distinctive thatch of near-white hair worn in a "with it," over-the-ears cut..." and it only got whiter from then on as evidenced by the video's he made in 1991-2 called, "Beyond Human, The Last Call" when he first began to come out as the return of the same Older Member who had been incarnate in the task and vehicle named Jesus the Christ. He always said, he wasn't Jesus because Jesus was the name of the vehicle though it was 1987 that he first expressed feeling a need to come public as the same Mind that was in Jesus vehicle.

Incidentally, for the sticklers that would say, his hair wasn't white as snow or wool if it was just "near white," the prophecy of the Two Witnesses is the time both come public. After Ti exits her vehicle, is when Do takes his stand as "who he was" last incarnate as the "son of man's" return when he posts on the world wide web the document, 'UNDERCOVER "JESUS" SURFACES BEFORE DEPARTURE' that was followed in 1997 by his exit videos that broadcast his vehicle's face (and totally white hair that was cut very, very short) all over the planet for weeks before the story left the national press. (It actually never left entirely. After their dramatic exit there were many documentaries made and all manner of spoofs and claims of his being a sociopath that continued to provide his vehicle's white head and white hair to view.

Verse Rev 1:13 establishes that the vision is of a human being termed "son of man(human)." In other words he was born of a woman. He was not a spirit or idea or “made” as Adam was.

This horse/vehicle demonstrates white (light is the same word here and has to do with the idea of shedding light on a subject, not with the white light some humans use in certain spiritual practices. The Kingdom of God/Heaven members consider “White magic” just that magic and “tricks” that distract one from the reality of the Kingdom of God/Heaven when it's provided to us by the face to face Older Members and/or by the information they leave behind if they have already exited their “in-carn(al)-ation”) characteristics, literal and figurative. The crown which is depicted in Revelations 12, is given to him by the other of the Two Witnesses, his Father as a result of leading each of his student body to their conquering. He officially becomes a Father by the birth of these FIRST fruits and those that come later as the LAST fruits.

II.B. WHERE ON THE EARTH THE RETURN IS MOST EVIDENCED

II.B.1. JESUS INDICATES THE KINGDOM OF GOD WILL BE GIVEN TO A NEW NATION (ETHNICITY) AND GEOGRAPHIC AREA DESCRIBED NON-PHYSICALLY WITH SODOM, EGYPT AND WHERE THE LORD WAS CRUCIFIED

Since Jesus is very clear that the geographical location and it's people, the descendents of Israel, where he came incarnate before WOULD NOT SEE HIM DIRECTLY AGAIN*1, HAVING REJECTED HIM*2, we have to look to NEW*3 geographic areas to see where he does come to*4.

*1 Mat 23:37 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!

Mat 23:38 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.

Mat 23:39 For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

*2 Kingdom of God TAKEN FROM YOU AND GIVEN TO A NEW NATION(PEOPLE)

Mat 21:42 Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes?

Mat 21:43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation ((1484 ethnos= nation, people, tribe)) bringing forth the fruits thereof.

*3 Comes to a NEW JERUSALEM

Rev 3:12 Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.

*4 A clue that the HOLY CITY is TREAD UNDER FOOT of the Gentiles - the non-believers and/or those that populate the HOLY CITY, the returned "saints":

To give an in depth analysis of the verses that provide the primary clues to the geographical area in which the Kingdom of God, Kingdom of Heaven comes is described in Rev 11:1-2 that leads up to the Two Witnesses beginning their prophecy period. It describes the TEMPLE, the ALTAR AND the COURT of the HOLY CITY which is depicting the geographical area where the Two Witnesses, the Father and Jesus come incarnate to perform their revealing of the whole truth about the Kingdom of God/Heaven in new plain (generic) bold (direct) no parable terms summed up as their prophetic testimony. These verse decipherings don't end the evidence of a NEW geography for the manifestation of the Kingdom of God/Heaven. A great deal of evidence is found through each of the Seven Angels who sound their "trumpets," the sixth of which includes the Two Witnesses coming public. Also four of the Seven Seals further demonstrate evidence of this new geography. Each of these two section of the Book of Revelations will be deciphered in their own sections to maintain consistency while everything is interrelated.

These two verses simply provide a start to the way in which the location for the return is described that is linked back to the origin of the terminology in the Moses "classroom." In that Moses classroom these terms represented physical locations in the encampment which was a city to itself with at least 600,000 occupants.

Rev 11:1 And (there was) given ((1325 didomi= adventure, tasked to take and commit, have power over (prevail/overcome/conquer)) me a reed ((2563 kalamos= water-plant ((Jesus calls humans a water birth and also refers to humans as plants with the garden/fruit analogy)), stalk ((the body of the plant versus the head as the flower that contains the genetically encoded seed that develops as a Mind aka Spirit)), branch ((off the human tree)), pen ((body as an instrument to use to convey communicate with (task of an “angel”))), bone ((physical body)) like ((together)) (unto a) rod ((4464 rhabdos= staff, branch, authority)): and the angel stood, saying, Rise ((1453 egeiro= awaken, rise (again) from sleep, sitting, lying, disease, death and/or from inactivity, obscurity, ruin, nonexistence, stand)), and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and (them that) worship ((serve the Lord (Older Members from the Kingdom of God/Heaven))) therein.

Re-translated and re-interpreted with upper case suggestions and elimination of the previous translators “readability” insertions that I put in single parentheses, (though not counting anything in single parentheses outside the actual verse or within the double parentheses, that demonstrate the Greek and/or Hebrew, etc. translation options:

Rev 11:1 And...

...given ((1325 didomi did'-o-mee a prolonged form of a primary verb (which is used as an alternative in most of the tenses); to give (used in a very wide application, formally, or by implication, literally or as a figure; greatly modified by the connection)= adventure, bestow, bring forth, commit, deliver (up), give, grant, hinder, make, minister, number, offer, have power, put, receive, set, shew, smite (+ with the hand), strike (+ with the palm of the hand), suffer, take, utter, yield))...

...me ((3427 moi= to me, I, mine, my, ((John as the representative of the student body))))...

...reed= (Greek) 2563 kalamos= reed, pen, staff, measuring rod, writers pen/reed.

Also using the same Greek word in these verses, Kalamos is translated to “pen” in only one verse and one must confer with the context here:

3 Joh 1:13 I had many things to write but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee:

This is clearly a literal translation whereas the Book of Revelations is filled with figures, though they will all boil down to a literal interpretation that will only be revealed during the time of the 7th angel with trumpet, thus after Jesus and his Father have exited their incarnation and that mystery will be related to all of the prophecies of the Father/Jesus' "servants the prophets" (thus as depicted in the record of the testaments):

Rev 10:7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

In the following verse Jesus compares John the Baptist to a "reed shaken with/by the wind," thus referring to John's body as the reed, which is more in line with the Hebrew "qaneh" that is defined as: 1) reed, stalk, bone, balances 1a) stalk 1b) water-plant, etc. (below). Bone? and a Stalk is what a physical body is compared to, as with a "stalk of wheat" that is cut with a sickle in Rev 14 for each of the hundred and forty and four (from out of the twelve tribes, an alternate meaning for the Greek word for "thousand") harvest.

Mat 11:7 And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

Then these usages as a branch also in line with the Hebrew translation but in this context some type of stick:

Mar 15:36 And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone; let us see whether Elias will come to take him down.

Mar 15:19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshiped him.

Here it's like the staff a shepherd had and that the Lord gave Moses and Aaron, which is kin to a "rod" as well:

Mat 27:30 And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.

But in these it is a measuring tool:

Rev 21:15 And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

Rev 21:16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

Here Ezekiel is given instructions to do some measuring using a reed:

Eze 42:16 He measured the east side with the measuring reed*, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.

Eze 42:17 He measured the north side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.

Eze 42:18 He measured the south side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed.

Eze 42:19 He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.

Eze 42:20 He measured it by the four sides: it had a wall round about, five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, to make a separation between the sanctuary and the profane place.

*reed = 7070 qaneh from 'qanah' (7069); a reed (as erect); by resemblance a rod (especially for measuring), shaft, tube, stem, the radius (of the arm), beam (of a steelyard)= balance, bone, branch, cane, reed, stalk.

7069 qanah a ancient root; to erect, i.e. create; by extension, to procure, especially by purchase (causative, sell); by implication to own= attain, buy(-er), teach to keep cattle, get, provoke to jealousy, possess(-or), purchase, recover, redeem, X surely, X verily.

...like ((3664 homoios from 3674 homou= SIMILAR IN APPEARANCE OR CHARACTER, LIKE MANNER, TOGETHER, AT SAME PLACE/TIME))...

...rod ((4464 rhabdos= staff, walking stick, twig, BRANCH as in OFFSHOOT, tribe, rod, USED ON A JOURNEY, TO LEAN UPON, used by shepherds, AUTHORITY AS A RULER of the people is like their shepherd))...

Rod is used often in the Old Testament as a tool that establishes an instruction, commandment and authority:

Exo 7:17 Thus saith the LORD, In this thou shalt know that I am the LORD: behold, I will smite with the rod* that is in mine hand upon the waters which are in the river, and they shall be turned to blood.

*rod 4294 matteh or (feminine) mattah; from 'natah' (5186); a branch (as extending); as a figure, a tribe; also a rod, whether for chastising (as a figure, correction), ruling (a sceptre), throwing (a lance), or walking (a staff; as a figure, a support of life, e.g. bread)= rod, staff, tribe.

John is the student instrument used to write down the program surrounding the resurrection (stand up/rise again) of the returning “saints” (those who gave their lives for Jesus' teachings sake) who are as a student body (church, but more accurately and in now undistorted non-religious plain/generic terms thought of as a “classroom” who are assigned a human body (reed) to awaken/rise into. This human body is compared to a plant “reed,” though one that is prepared to serve the Kingdom of God/Heaven in two ways. First and foremost this human body will become like a cocoon in which the Soul, having been seeded by the Kingdom of God/Heaven at some time previous, even while at the baby stage which includes some of Their “Holy” (pure) Mind/Spirit, containing an actual set of programs that provide recognition that the Kingdom of God/Heaven is real and obtainable and knowing that the members of the kingdom operate on a service model rather than competitive leadership model which all add up to providing that Soul with a very real interface that can recognize another who shares the same Mind characteristics.

Then when the incarnate Older Members come public with the information of Their being from the literal heavens (outer space), perform Their task of “prophecy” actually non-mystically bringing thinking and behavior standards that provided updates from the record of what the last Representatives left behind (i.e. Jesus, Moses).

For those prepared who make physical contact with the Two and their information (that presents totally NEW thinking about what's in the records though totally consistent with in a progression of schooling with new terms/language as Jesus said would be the case) they choose to literally leave all behind to follow with that Older Member (as was the modus operandi with Jesus to require to be his student (disciple)). Therefore they are beginning the process of forming a type of chrysalis condition to result, if successful with their birth into a new creature (that Soul seed growing inside them) kin to a butterfly, growing figurative “wings.”

The human vehicles (bodies) SHOWN/assigned each returning Saint/student, who are equivalent to disciple John depicted here in their progression towards their “Soul birth” into full membership of the Kingdom of God/Heaven will be picked by each returning student under the close guidance from the Kingdom of God/Heaven's Older Members (Heavenly Father(s)) so that the human “plant” each chooses has the characteristics of humanness each student most needs to overcome to be ready to graduate (be harvested, into membership in the Kingdom of God/Heaven). For example one student may not have overcome having a quick temper and angry outbursts at times when they are upset while another may still have a strong addiction to sexuality while another might be attached to their human family and the companionship of a spouse. Another may have a weakness of over consuming of foods for the sensual satisfaction such can bring while another may think themselves intelligent and thus as a leader while another may have a deceitful side, a jealous of others side, a desire for wealth and easy living, or feeling depressed and/or ugly - all examples of characteristics in the human kingdom that don't have a counterpart for Kingdom of God/Heaven members so needs to be aborted from their consciousness, to be building a healthy and viable new Soul that can be placed into a Kingdom of God/Heaven “made” (not begotten) vehicle (body) clean white suit of clothes/garment, robe, etc. that they then can also be assigned to certain tasks with their new body, real tasks that all members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven thrive on learning and serving by performing for their Older Members.

Thus this is both an adventure/journey and mission as the second aspect of service is to perform whatever tasks the Older Members assign to the best of our ability, which while still incarnate starts by spreading what the Older Member has given the students in understandings of the reality and overcoming program and how it's a physical kingdom, as opposed to the lies taught that render it a spiritual float on a cloud existence.

What is most crucial to each student is to have that face to face interface with their Older Member or for those who were not among the first fruit classroom then having the direct teachings provided that are still fresh on the disciples mind which remains fresh as long as the disciples live and seek to serve by passing on what they experienced while with the Older Member. Thus new believers in the Older Member who has exited His/Her incarnation takes the form of seeking out any “active student” one who did have a face to face relationship with the Older Member and is still actively seeking to be in their service even though the Older Member isn't incarnate as by having access to someone who is an active student can be a big help for new believers who want to learn as much as possible about the Older Member's behaviors, ways, overcoming process and graduation requirements.

The “rod” has to do with the kind of authority one needs to rise to take with their own human vehicle they are awakening within. This is why a “horse” was depicted as a human vehicle by Isaiah, Zechariah and in Revelations chapter 6, 14 and 19. The rod is compared to “rules” because it is by the rules or procedures provided by the Older Members, also known as instructions where commandments were more the terms for the less evolved students with Moses who needed a more commanding tone with their human vehicles. It's like a parent speaking firmly to a toddler so they know the seriousness of what they should do or don't do. Once they grow up, the parent can relax the way in which they teach as they can begin to reason more though the student would need to apply firmness with their own vehicle/horse just the same as per the example of the Older Member with them and Their own discipline over the human vehicle they have taken over.

...and angel ((32 aggelos= be, INDUCE BRING FORTH as messengers, CREW MEMBERS OF KINGDOM OF GOD\HEAVEN))...

...stood ((2476 histemi= ABIDE, APPOINTED, COVENANT, CONTINUE, ESTABLISH, LAY, SET(UP), PRESENT, STAND BY, FORTH, UP)),...

...saying ((3004=to “lay” forth, relate in words set discourse))...

...Rise ((1453 egeiro= COLLECTING ONE'S FACILITIES, TO WAKEN, ROUSE (FROM SLEEP, FROM DEATH), RAISE (AGAIN, UP), (a-)rise (again,up), stand, take up)),...

A Crew from the Kingdom of God/Heaven, is appointed to ABIDE according to the covenant established to continue in the next phase of bringing the student body to their harvest ability. These crew members are taking a stand, in other words working in relationship with and literally through particular humans who sought service to the Kingdom of God/Heaven, who through thoughts/words relate instructions that will serve to help wake up (rise), provide “smelling salts” to offer arousing of those receptive human vehicles that in actually are in being given this closeness with returning Souls are actually “tagged” to be of service to the Kingdom of God/Heaven by becoming instruments for the returning “saints” that in so doing also establishes themselves as new “children of God” that are being introduced to the Kingdom of God/Heaven program to become an adult member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven upon graduation at some future time and place.

This is describing what was called the “resurrection of the just” in the last day, the saints coming back with their “Christ” anointed to as coworkers, as all students also serve in the mission. This is happening in the 1960's - 1970's which is apparent by the huge amount of birthing of what was called the New Age movement. This is not saying all those movements were Kingdom of God/Heaven movements. They were stimulated by the “light” brought by the Kingdom of God/Heaven a large part of which is the response of the Luciferian Space Aliens working on humans to try to create facsimile “Gods,” thus “false gods” and “false prophets” in an attempt to show signs and wonders to even distract the the “elect,” those vehicles tagged by the Kingdom of God/Heaven to be potential recipients of that “light”

...and measure ((3354 metreo= to measure (metre) (literally or as a figure); by implication a limited portion(degree), ascertain in size by a fixed standard, mete))...

...temple ((3485 naos= from naio (to dwell); a fane (church, wherever the body of believers are gathered together, (not a building)), shrine))...

...God ((2316 theos= deity, magistrate, supreme divinity))...

This crew also has the task as it performs the initial “smelling salts” to the population in this particular geographical area, of ascertaining the literal area where the student body of incarnate returned “saints” with their teachers incarnate will circulate for the years they are in what would be described as an “overcoming classroom,” which is spoken of as Their “Temple of God”

...and altar ((2379 thusiasterion= from thusia; a place of sacrifice literal or figurative))...

When any members, even student members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven come to be in a “classroom” with the Older Members, whom are their “heavenly Father”(s) (as Jesus and His Father were also both our Father's, even though technically the one called the Father, to the “saints,” the first or second fruits is like a “grandfather”), they are sacrificing their comfort level, position, and their existing physical vehicle they were last assigned to inhabit, “wear,” that was rewarded them when they graduated to their next station in the Kingdom of God/Heaven, whether that is still a active student station or an adult “younger member” station or an Older Member's station, each of which can have more or less advanced physical vehicles to operate through.

As described earlier, the sacrifice of their physical vehicles occurred primarily in the 1940's and 1950's in the areas primarily of Texas, New Mexico and Arizona with the first on as described as Aurora, Texas in April of 1897 and perhaps the last ones in the 1960's or early 1970's potentially. Thus the altar is specifically these areas though the overall temple is much larger a geographical area as depicted by the size laid out of the New Jerusalem which appears to calculate to be some 1378-1420 miles square thus extends that far in all directions starting on or under the earth. On the ground this is considered the Temple but is actually simultaneously spoken of as the City of God and is also considered a localized “heaven” as opposed to the “many mansions, dwelling/abiding places” Jesus spoke of, throughout the literal heavens.

This would also be the area where they give their lives upon their exit from their incarnations which would be equivalent to the last location where the Kingdom of God/heaven parked their “city of God” also termed New Jerusalem but with a new geographical city name it is stationed above that 2000 years ago was called Jerusalem but Jesus said would be moved to a new nation and thus would have a new name as well.

...and worship ((4352 proskuneo= prostrate oneself in homage, do reverence, fawn (attempt to please))) therein ((1722 en= for sake of, because of)).

Worship is really only one thing... “service” to the Kingdom of God/Heaven through the incarnate or if that incarnation is over through the establishment of contact with the Souls that took over human vehicles for Their task. It's described as prostrating oneself, because that service always entails sacrifice of one's mental and physical humanness. This is why when the real genuine Older Members come and “blow their horn,” those that hear it and see it, are required to leave all behind to join with them which is their first stage of “giving their life.”

It is noteworthy that there are many depictions of Old Testament prophets and disciples of Jesus who upon experiencing an Older Members presence as they are, as in a spacecraft or within a burning bush or cloud of light or in physical vehicles that dazzle with their brightness, for example on the “transfiguration mount” as it's been called, that they who experience this fall down, become “prostrate.” This is often expressed as “fall down on their face” which is in these depictions literal because of the near unbelievable power they are witnessing, which is kin to what is depicted from UFO sightings as well, that is when there is significant closeness. (this can be confused with space aliens but we must also note that space aliens are the ones who fell away from the Kingdom of God/Heaven's service, or are their offspring, and these were assigned spacecrafts for their watcher tasks and those spacecrafts can also be equip with a dazzling display of power, hence what happened to Saul of Tarsus to become Paul of Tarsus). And with that understanding of going prostrate, as is always the case when referencing the Old and New Testaments, we see how what was given to the student body during those times when an Older Member was incarnate, was instrumental to bring those students to their third trimester and preparation to actually be born/graduated to their next station, be it to become an elder student or a young member of Their Kingdom.

I am therefore relating this verse that speaks of the altar and worship (prostrate), as what become the normal modus operandi for student and adult members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven to be of service to their Older Members on these kinds of tasks on Earth for the new prospective members. In other words, to the elder student and Older Members, to worship in this way always seems to entail going prostrate but specifically has to do with “giving the life of the current physical vehicle they have” by “falling down,” aka “falling down upon their faces” and doing so of their own volition. It has been programmed that for soldiers to give their lives for the greater good, even if the greater good in the human case is evil minded as is most always the case, that's a technique in that case that the Luciferians amplify as good service, but that idea of “giving one's life for one's sheep,” or in other words “dieing following an Older Member that assures new fruit (believers),” IS GOOD and good equals having USE for the Kingdom of God/Heaven in their gardening/birthing of new Soul efforts.

Of course the Luciferians try to make it seem like giving ones life for “God” is either fanatical or fanciful unless it is as a part of an institutional religious devotion. The Luciferians also try to prepare their mis/dis-information campaign to make martyrdom into an expression of spiritual devotion even though it is often engaged as a political act as with those Buddhists who would light themselves on fire to protest wars. Then there are those that some praise as revolutionaries because they become suicide bombers, not far different than those who were known to take on a military mission that was sure death. These are all disinformation to think of them as honorable to the Kingdom of God/Heaven though if one is with an Older Member from the Kingdom of God/Heaven who is incarnate and they are ready to exit that incarnation and it doesn't look like it's going to be taken care of for them by someone who hates what they say when they speak publicly, then they would take it upon themselves to exit and those students that had become of one mind with that Older Member would naturally want to follow suit. This is largely what too place with the Heaven's Gate group under Ti and Do initially but then finished by Do incarnate alone.

The world watched in horror not having hardly a clue that this really could have been a genuine Older Member instigating such, as it of course does become very confused when the Luciferians mix in all the facsimile “gods” to try to stimulate humans to act out that same modus operandi, whose human leadership always show many signs of human mammalianism that discredits their being from the Kingdom of God/heaven. Most humans don't know how to distinguish from the ONE(S) who really are from the Kingdom of God/Heaven and they are not necessarily supposed to be able to distinguish until it's presented to them more in the way they are expecting so they do have an opportunity to have their chance to see the truth and decide to STAND for or not which is what determines whether their Soul will be “saved” for the next planting or not.

The Kingdom of God/Heaven doesn't harvest groups or even couples or families but adult human individuals that have given their all to the most current representative Older Member as best they can. Then when it's harvest time for each trimester it's when the student body will leave their physical bodies (as even after Jesus demonstrated living again after having his physical body killed was to show them at that stage that they by dieing would not be dieing really, but would be given another physical body to wear sometime after). But they leave by loss of their physical vehicle the same way a stalk of wheat when it's cut, dies delivering it's fruit to the gardener, while the fruit, the head that has within it the kernels that are the prize are what is harvested for service. In this civilization the loss of one's physical vehicle is due to the adversarial efforts to halt anyone from speaking the truth, Truth is what is most factual and thus real - it's not a philosophy, though understandable philosophies develop trying to get at the truth but they never do entirely UNTIL the Kingdom of God/Heaven wants them to be deciphered as this is one of the ways the Kingdom of God/Heaven can filter those humans who evidence being ready to become a host for a returning Soul from those who are not. They literally select the ones they want to reveal more to. And that of course looks elitist for the ones talking about it that were selected but the truth is that anyone who comes upon the picture has at that moment the same chance to begin to gravitate to the same station as it is a higher than human station to reach for because the Kingdom of God/Heaven are "Above Human" in every way. They are even above elitist attitudes as they measure themselves against their Older Members who they know are very young in comparison.

In another case as depicted in the end of this chapter 11 in verse 16, like Jesus, the graduating students "fall on their faces." Again, they are falling prostrate by "laying down their physical body" for their incarnate Older Member who is never manipulative. In fact the ones who are the real Older Member(s) are so against manipulation they make it very hard to convince Them to be Their students. Like in the human world, anyone can make application, by their responding to their public message delivery and leaving behind their old world to literally follow with them. But they know that some will have "aces in the hole" of that world they left behind. An "ace in the hole" would be like a plan of what to do if this doesn't work out. They just won't know for sure which ones hold those "aces" and are willing to allow them to learn for themselves whether or not what They offer is for them at that time or not and that can take many years for even the student to come to terms with what they understand about the program they are in and want.

But before the Older Members come incarnate and gather their flock, the Luciferians set up facsimiles of human leaders who draw people in the same way, touting that they need to leave all behind and even become willing to give their lives. The Luciferians don't have any problems using others to give the appearance of the Kingdom of God/Heaven. After all the Luciferians objective is not only to simply be adversarial towards the Kingdom of God/Heaven, but is to steal away Souls hopefully to have some in their own court soliciting supporters if for no other reason than to thwart the Kingdom of God/Heaven's efforts, or so they think. But even though they succeed to capture some away from the Kingdom of God/Heaven, it's not the last opportunity for the souls they steal away. The Kingdom of God/Heaven allow many chances to see through the Luciferian disguises and get out of whatever group they have gravitated towards. These, if they are part of the stock human plants that the Kingdom of God/Heaven nurtured to be prepared to meet up with and who recognize the “holy” Mind of an incarnate Older Member will see through the disguise. But even if they remained fooled and die having had the best intentions to be in service to the real Kingdom of God/Heaven, those in that Kingdom would have had ways to monitor those Souls desires and can simply take them into safe keeping in the equivalent of “paradise” where Jesus said the “thief on the cross” would be going, simply for believing. There are no guarantees in particular circumstances, at least that I can see, but it seems to be the general way it works.

Most think such talk is religious talk and granted it's become religisized which is a big part of the facsimile so the Kingdom of God/Heaven doesn't determine whose spirit or Soul will be “saved” and whose will be left to be recycled until they feel confident all have been given many opportunities to see the truth and respond to it yea or nay (as Jesus also said). Thus people are really judging their own future and those that say nay to the ones who demonstrate being from the real Kingdom of God/Heaven simply get what they believe - something other than the real Kingdom of God/Heaven. For instance regarding getting what one believes when we die, if someone believes they go to heaven when they die, they will, except it depends what they think that “heaven” is. If they think it's where God or Jesus is, but they don't associate that with the current teachings that bring more accuracy to it's reality, then their "heaven" may simply be the spirit world where others that died before them who believed the same generality might be waiting for them.

If heaven is the "light," they will probably experience that in some form, like perhaps towards a light source that might dissolve their "self," like a moth that is drawn to the flame. If they don't believe they will go anywhere, they won't. They will simply hang around those humans they were gravitated to be around when they died, often their human family and they may help or hinder them in various ways usually unbeknown to the ones still living. If they think they will be with Jesus, it may depend on what Jesus is to them. If it's a painting depiction, or a statue who knows if there will be some spirit that died and thought they were Jesus who looked like that or not. I don't think it will really matter as the nature of a dead discarnate human is that they no longer have eyes anyway, so they pilot themselves and can only experience what they had experienced. In other words, I don't think they can SEE anything that's not in their Spirit memory that was logged in their brain cells before they died. The point is that all these sort of sort themselves into buckets so to speak according to what their beliefs boil down to and the Kingdom of God/Heaven can then choose what to do with each bucket when they are ready to refurbish the garden. Many will be simply recycled.

SPEAKING OF "BORDERS" WHETHER OF THE TEMPLE OR COURT, BRINGS UP SOME EARLY LESSON STEPS TI AND DO GAVE THEIR STUDENT BODY WHEN THEY GATHERED IN THE WYOMING WILDERNESS TO BEGIN AN ACCELERATED "OVERCOMING OF HUMANNES."

It was in the first days of July that we all had arrived in the Medicine Bow National Forest, some 20 miles east of Laramie, Wyoming in the Veedavou Camping area. It was a zero facility camping area. The sign at the dirt road entrance was the only indication that it was a camping area. One just drove down the dirt road and chose to stop and/or pitch a tent anywhere. There were no out houses or plumbing or waste water dump station or concession or gates or recreation. It was many square miles of high chaparral lightly forested land. There were significant patches of very small evergreens and medium sized rock formations that were climbable without gear. And there was sage brush and clay like soil and no water to be found.

Ti and Do had scouted out a number of areas in the trees where groups would locate themselves, putting up tents in such a way that from the dirt access road they could not be seen. Even though it was legal to camp there, there was a limit to how long. Since Ti and Do didn't know how long they would feel to be there, they wanted to remain hidden from the occasional ranger that would drive by whom I never saw.

Everyone had already been split up into groups and partnerships with a few threesome partnerships when the numbers didn't come out even. There were about 100 students split up into maybe six or seven groupings. I was not privy to the exact number of groups though I knew there was one that just had six students who had their tents set up in the same area where Ti and Do had their tent. They were called "helpers." And each of the six or seven other groups had a partnership who were also called "helpers." The helpers from each group would have a daily morning meeting at Ti and Do's camp and would report the previous days concerns and would deliver solutions to problems that might arise. The group I was a part of had no more than 6 or 7 tents thus up to about 15 students each.

Every 2-3 days, Ti and Do would hold a meeting in person with the entire student body. They would find a location and we'd all drive to it in coordinated shifts so not to have too many cars visible all at once in case one of the rangers who occasionally patrolled saw us and were alerted to the fact we were staying in the forest for months as opposed to weeks. We had specific times to depart our camp so that there would never be more than a few cars driving at any one time. It was easy to drive off the few dirt roads. One just had to be careful of rocks and of course trees. It was moreorless flat and barren territory. It wasn't long before Ti and Do arranged for us to meet at the University of Wyoming in Laramie in an actual classroom which I was surprised by but being with Ti and Do was always filled with surprises. We probably had five or six of these meetings in the University facility.

Using our minds and a physical representation of craft borders. note how whenever Jehovah gave Moses instructions to do anything there was both a mental and physical component. this was all to begin to introduce those chosen humans to the physical reality of the next level. members of the next level are souls who have filled their soul container with mind from their older members but they use physical bodies to perform their tasks though.

We were instructed to establish the perimeter of what we called our “craft,” short for spacecraft by meting out boundaries. We did this by laying down sticks (dead branches) touching one another all around the camp with pathways to the next group's camp maybe a hundred yards away that was also lined with sticks. We were encouraged to walk the perimeter of the stick walls as often as we liked silently telling the discarnate “influences” to stay out of our craft. I wonder now whether this was kin to the function of the overall geographic area designated by the Next Level as the “temple” and/or the courtyard grounds and actually the overall “city” as a city is defined as a walled in area, the New Jerusalem.

Another lesson step i recall was related to how we approached others in the camp. We were instructed to place our tents in such a way that we had some distance between and yet could see if someone was approaching the front side of the tent. If someone had something to say to those in a tent, they would never assume the residents could be interrupted. Ti and Do said that even if they were seen from a distance to be preparing food and not talking with one another, it wasn't a Next Level way to assume they were open to an interruption as many times they would work on things in their heads so they would seem not to be busy but still were. And this was to be applied to all. So the procedure would be to walk up close enough to the tent to where the occupants could see us and wait. If we got no response or they looked at us and did not motion for us to come up, then we would go away and come back later. Fellow students didn't really have reason to not wave us over but it was the practice of that consideration that was important and to not be upset if we were not acknowledged.

ANOTHER LESSON WAS THE “A TONE” - LIKE FROM THE ALPHA AND OMEGA - ALPHA = GREEK LETTER A:

We were to get acquainted with the A note. They did this by providing tuning forks to each of the groups of students, that sounded the A tone at 440 Hertz. The “helpers” of each group had one tuning fork. Anyone could request it's use from them and then return it to them for availability to others. We would hit the tuning fork and then put the prongs to our ear and sing the note aloud and/or in our heads. We were tuning our minds to that frequency but was without further explanation except that it would help us have a focal point to go to so we could more easily abort thoughts of the past or thought about human behaviors and ways. This was an individual thing to do, not in groups. There was never any chanting as individuals or in groups just like there was never any group prayer. The closest thing we had to group prayer was when we were given some “meditations” and a time for everyone in the craft to employ one. It was about 1984 when we started some individual optional meditation times when we were in Amarillo, Texas. Some times we had a room that was set up as a meditation room and for a short time in 1985 we had a required group meditation.

Curiously A-tone-ment is the time to clean one's house of ways we have “missed the mark” (aka sinned) aka cleaning our house for the Lord. Also on this note, AU is the code for the element of Gold, as in Aurora and Gold in the Bible is the pure metal always used in building certain things and especially when they are to be used related to the Day of Atonement.

ADDITIONAL PERSPECTIVE OF THE GEOGRAPHY OF THE TEMPLE*:

The Holy City is the dwelling (mansion) SPACECRAFT the Kingdom of God/Heaven maintains as a local to the Earth “garden” headquarters, and staging area for their activity on Earth. This craft seems to include parts where Spirits to be saved, as Do called, “on ice,” (not literally) for their next opportunity for their next grade in school towards graduation (adult membership in the Kingdom of Heaven). Jesus is translated to refer to this location and condition as “paradise*,” where a believer's Soul is taken when the physical body dies, which is why people in general, who considered themselves believers were taught where they would go to heaven when they died, saying this is what Jesus promised. Jesus did promise that of believers in him which included belief in ALL he taught which includes SHOWING THAT BELIEVE, as disciple James said, “faith (belief) without WORKS is dead” and Jesus was clear about in saying:

*paradise reference:

Luk 23:39 And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us.

Luk 23:40 But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

Luk 23:41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds:

but this man hath done nothing amiss.

Luk 23:42 And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

Luk 23:43 And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise ((3857 paradise of Oriental origin cf 06508= a garden, pleasure ground, grove, park, part of Hades which was thought by the later Jews to be the abode of the souls of pious until the resurrection.))

Mat 7:20 Wherefore by their fruits ((2590 karpos= resulting work, acts, deeds, utility, labours)) ye shall know them.

Many Christians have been taught that this “work” and “labor” is in the spreading of the word, that includes any and all of the Bible. This, as all things become subject to misinformation. First off, it's the “work” Jesus gave, which can only be found and depended upon by studying every word attributed to Jesus and would include everything Jesus said and did, not only the parables and miracles that are most often what are repeated and taught in church groups. As preachers construct their sermons they adapt them to their congregations and end up diluting and distorting what Jesus actually taught that thereby begins to represent a false idea of who Jesus was making that “Jesus” a “false Christ.” For instance I heard a preacher telling his congregation that they needed a flashlight to see in the dark, comparing it to having the Light of Christ in their lives, referring to how Jesus said a man needed to not hide their light under a bushel basket. Although that can have it's accuracy it's not directly to the point of what Jesus was saying in his intended context. The “light” was all Jesus taught. If we keep that hidden from others, it is a disservice to the Kingdom of God/Heaven and Jesus and his Father.

Teaching ALL Jesus taught would mean also repeating the “hard sayings” most of all and “work” as “fruit” also entails the embracing of the behaviors and ways that were given as the will of the Father to help us grow closer to our graduation/harvest.

Mat 7:21 Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

Mat 7:22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

Mat 7:23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

Such belief in the current representative always requires extraordinary leaps of faith at that time, because of what every new incarnate representative will say and do that will challenge all seeming norms of thought, behavior and ways to include what the religious say about the past lesson steps provided by the incarnate Older Members and their active students, some of which may have performed tasks recorded as some of the Old Testament prophets.

After the incarnate representative leaves the Luciferians move in to distort and water down the teachings by promoting misinformation and thus a religion develops that promotes some of what the incarnate Representative said and did while mostly leaving out the requirements for discipleship of DENYING SELF, TAKING UP YOUR CROSS (giving one's human life in service) and when He is incarnate literally FOLLOWING WITH THE OLDER MEMBER (leaving all behind) and when He's not incarnate following his most up to date teachings of his Kingdom's behaviors and ways and instruction to provide service by “standing up for Him/Them” knowing it will result in our separation from our roots and life in the human kingdom because of how few will side with us.

The new religion as seen in Christianities formation of a new image of Jesus that builds into a “false image or false Christ,” mutating into a “path” to practice and think one reaps the reward from following just by believing alone. It is true that those who adhere to the path could still reap the full reward, that is, if they keep the commandments as best they can and continue their lesson plan when the Older Member comes incarnate when their Soul will also be brought back to take over a new human vehicle again.

However, for most it's about the best they can do to embrace and abide by what the last incarnate Older Member provided even with the dilutions and distortions that the Luciferians insert again immediately after their incarnation exit, the forerunner to the religion.

In the case of Jesus, after he left in the “cloud” it seems the Next Level sent certain of their advanced student crew members who gave their lives in his service after he left, to have a task to interface with humans again, perhaps even incarnate into a human vehicle again to remind people of the core truths Jesus taught. Ti and Do indicated this kind of task becomes additional training for them to grow into performing their Older Member's task some time in the future and these make an unusual mark on history. After Moses left these were recorded as Old Testament prophets.

After Jesus left, I suspect the one called St. Francis of Assisi could have been one such student Soul using that vehicle. I say that primarily because Ti referred to an individual she sensed was with her - before she awakened fully who she called “brother Francis.” I suspect the name came from St. Francis because of how Ti and Do had their classroom watch the movie, “Brother Sun, Sister Moon” that was about St. Francis. However this is not to say the one helping Ti was the same Soul who took the human vehicle called St. Francis. I believe that would be a human way of looking at the way the Next Level operates as it's not a kingdom where any one member is designated to any one task. It's about the task itself and who the Older Members assigns to perform that task which can be given to any number of different individuals.

“Brother Francis” could have been Ti's Older Member who both Ti and Do acknowledged was overseeing their task. I suppose this Next Level Being helping Ti could have even been another part of Ti's own Mind since Do did indicate that Ti had grown in the Next Level to have the capacity to perform more than one task at the same time through different vehicles as I understand it. Do said when his Older Member who we are calling Ti came to do this incarnate task to “get Him (Do) going” He (she) didn't need all of His Mind to perform the task, while for Him, He did need all his Mind to perform his task because He was younger than His Older Member. Note, Ti didn't refer to this Individual as “Father” but instead as “Brother” indicating some equivalency to Ti in a Next Level station. Do did talk about how Ti had arranged the strategy of their task and how they would awaken and when before They awakened in their chosen human vehicles.

Obviously one can not follow the most recent incarnate Older Member if He/They have left their incarnation, though they can follow instructions they left behind for new believers and can adopt all the Older Member's teachings and in that way seek to bond with them from a distance, but they will not be able to complete their transition to Next Level membership without the Older Members actual physical presence incarnate in a human vehicle with them.

Today's Christianity reflects little that Jesus actually taught about the total separation from our human worldliness. Even though priests and nuns leave their human family and take vows of celibacy, so have separated from those human roots and behaviors, they then replace those human characteristics with their religiosity and often have a contentment and bolstering of self, taking on a piety and role of shepherding others which is in affect a bigger demon's mindset to embrace as one must disconnect from their true Heavenly Father to maintain. It's no different in the other religions where certain hierarchies developed be they referred to as “ascended masters” incarnate or not. The evidence is in what they say and do. For instance the Pope doesn't teach separation from the world. He teaches staying in the world and being a good human which now includes his traditional interpretations of what Jesus taught in a purely “spiritual and mystical” setting. It's not that his flock should all leave all behind to become Jesus disciples. They are not automatically ready for that step and it must be a voluntary act. That's not to say anyone couldn't go as far as they could go to seeking the will of their Heavenly Father that might take shape in their breaking away from their human roots and behaviors and ways. Do said that if many made that choice the Next Level could certainly handle them. For instance Do said that if Adam didn't separate from his Older Member and the Next Level wanted to put another Soul to the same test they could have just “MADE” another physical vehicle or for that matter many new vehicles. The Next Level isn't dependent on human reproduction for vehicle manufacturing.

The Roman Emperor Constantine's seeming embrace of Christianity which started in approximately the year 300 AD formalized the changing of Jesus teachings into something more kin to what Paul of Tarsus wrote. This is when the story of Jesus became something more comparable to a mythology that gave rise to a pseudo and/or intellectual belief that dominates today's Christian Jesus mindset today that also fuels a large part of the atheistic movement that tries to foster the entire historic record as a fabrication. This “Jesus,” the one morphed into mythological proportions presents a distorted picture of what he said and did, surrounded by controversy about the authenticity of the records themselves that includes all sort of seeming contradictions that moreorless became a very confusing and even delusional belief that is what all Religions have formed into and continue to maintain from. For example today's Jesus is a near totally acceptable figure to think we believe in or not or in pieces. If you go virtually anywhere and say you believe in Jesus, you will do yourself no harm and even find camaraderie galore. This is because of how the Luciferians have succeeded to instigate among humans a twisting of who he was, what he said, what he required to be his disciple and how he taught what new disciples needed to do to break ties to their human families to begin a new bonding to Him and his Father's new family contrary to today's focus on Jesus as a "focus on the family," which is true, but just the wrong family. He was all about cutting human family ties (especially while he was here incarnate and to be his disciple after he left). It was not to be a rebel or to shun responsibilities nor to say we don't care about those in our human family, but because, such a Representatives rare physical incarnation among us can only be fully taken advantage of when we give all our mind, all our body's efforts, all our Soul (said spiritual development) and all our strength to grow this new bond to His family which is a family of like believers.

This is not to say everyone in the human kingdom would feel compelled to separate from their human ties to embark on disseminating his message as most are not prepared by the Kingdom of God/Heaven to do so.

Joh 6:44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

One must be "drawn," which is the way Jesus was talking about the delivery of seeds in the parable of the wheat/corn (good/useful to the Next Level in the production of fruit/works(service) seed) and tares (evil (troublesome, deceitful, manipulative, predatory) seed). Ti and Do spoke of being drawn as preparation provided to the human vehicles they and the returning students were to take over - incarnate into - STAND UP IN AGAIN (resurrect) to use to build their Next Level Mind, the metamorphosis of the new creature to be "born of Mind (Holy Mind)" through - the "overcoming process" that entails severing themselves from all human relationships, behaviors and ways and grafting to their Older Member's Next Level family by abiding by their Next Level behavior and ways. Service to the Next Level though the Older Members, according to their will is "worship." Do called worship "work for."

Ti and Do said the human bodies they were to take were “tagged” as babies, what ends up being a type of homing “device” to both keep an eye on them and that provides them with the “program” to seek out their Older Member. There was a movie Ti and Do had us watch called, “Questor” that I believe demonstrated this. Also some human vehicles are given what they called a “deposit” of which there are a couple types one for returning Students who had begun their metamorphosis before, with Jesus or before then. And the other type for first time Next Level students that was described as a pocket and/or a chip (as in computer chip) (but is not to be mistaken with the Luciferian space alien fallen angel discarnates and descendents “implants,” which are a facsimile of what the Next Level does naturally and does no harm to the human vehicle.

Ti and Do were often asked what would happen if everyone left their families and a reproductive lifestyle to seek to overcome their human mammalianism. Do said, “that's not going to happen” and “it would deplete the human kingdom if that happened and the human kingdom is a stepping stone into our Father's Kingdom.” At another point Do addressed what would happen if humans stopped reproducing as mammals. He said, “If the Next Level wanted human vehicles, they could make them” (like they did with Adam and Eve). They don't need to have humans, though because Adam and Eve chose to not follow their instructions they stimulated a type of reverse metamorphosis and thus began the civilization experiment to provide a way for them to learn their lessons and as Minds be born into Next Level Adult Membership. The Next Level only gives out so many deposits (seeds). A human that doesn't get that deposit would be highly unlikely to gravitate to the Older Members teachings while incarnate and perhaps not even after the incarnation. I believe Ti and Do thought it might still be possible. On and off they expressed that some in the class may not be returning students, so may be first time students who are growing very fast. The Next Level doesn't limit how fast someone grows but all must complete their coursework as provided by the Older Members to graduate and receive a position on a Next Level crew with the Older Members on their spacecrafts and in their labs. I believe Ti and Do did indicate even the human gnome contains some remnants of Next Level Mind.

*Temple= 3485 naos from a primary naio (to dwell); a fane, shrine, temple = shrine, temple

Also defined through context in various scriptures, “the spiritual (not dense physical) temple consisting of the saints of all ages joined together by and in Christ”

The Temple is also spoken of as a “spiritual” abode, which has its validity in that it is not visible to humans. It's an undercover operational headquarters. However it is spoken of as able to move as Jesus said:

Mat 21:43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation ((people)) bringing forth the fruits thereof.

Here - a nation (people) with a new tongue (Mk 16:17) these Israelites don't understand from the “end of the earth” - end age, end time, and/or last empire and land mass to become the last empire:

Deu 28:49 The LORD shall bring a nation (1471 gowy= massing, a foreign nation; hence gentiles, people, heathen [tares?]) against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand;

Here is yet another indication that the middle east area where Jerusalem is will not be areas where the Father will be worshiped

A woman at the well drawing water while Jesus is there says:

Joh 4:20 Our fathers worshiped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

Joh 4:21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.

Joh 4:22 Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews.

People will see this and think, but God the Father is still worshiped in Jerusalem as there are countless churches and mosques and synagogues and temples that all have worship services and are praying to the same God or so it seems. But to Jesus worship wasn't holding a meeting and have group prayer or baptizing or burying the dead or marrying couples and the like. Those are all human devices that give the impression of worship as they quote scriptures during and talk about the meaning of scriptures. Since many of these traditions came from the original teachings from Jehovah/Moses to perform in those ways can be seen as being in service, that is until the update comes. Then to continue those practices and expect the new Professor to mimic them is to expect that the same grade in school needed repeating. So upon arrival of the next Older Member the old lessons take a back seat to the new lesson steps. To Jesus worship meant as Do said, “to work for.” One can only work for someone, like an employee, which Jesus did compare the Kingdom of God/Heaven to, IF they are doing the things the employer instructs. Also it's not going to be working for the Father if we don't acknowledge His current Representative, insisting on looking to Moses instructions, as a previous Representative of the Employer the Father/Jehovah. Thus the Jews during and after Jesus left “were as a HOUSE” left desolate because those that remained Jews who refused to consider Jesus as the one Moses said would return “just like me,” from among you, from your lineage, humanly incarnate.

Since Jesus was speaking of the future and doubtful the immediate future as as long as he was incarnate and there were witnesses to his incarnation talking about him, that is evidence of service (worship) which was ongoing thereafter but what has changed was that the location where some still think Jesus must come to, does not see him in the new human body he takes and since he will at that time be the current Employers Representative, if we don't seek to work for him then we are not serving him and that's only going to happen in the area prepared for the return which is clearly primarily the United States of America mainland.

Thus today the only way we can worship the Father and the One who was Jesus is to give our service to Ti and Do doing what they would have us do, which was spelled out as to “disseminate their information.”

The Kingdom of God/Heaven doesn't encourage students to bow and scrape, have ceremonies and perform rituals and group lesson time. That's because as the students “souls” get older (more experienced working with Older Members, they do less and less of this representative acknowledgments of the reality of the Kingdom of God/Heaven and more and more of the nuts and bolts performance of the tasks the last incarnate representative left for us to perform. That's why Jesus told his disciples that IF they loved him they would “keep my sayings,” His commandments, instructions, viewpoints, thoughts, behaviors, etc. and in doing so, which would include big time the task of telling others exactly what he said, then they would be “worshiping” Their heavenly Father in the human body Ti took.

Since it is the staging area as depicted and a place, abode, dwelling*, (like one of the many dwelling places Jesus said he was leaving to prepare for his disciples.

*Joh 14:2 In my Father's house are many mansions ((dwelling places)): if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

His Father's house is the literal “heavens,” outer space, the universe, but wherever They have a base.

This “temple” houses membership of the Kingdom of God/Heaven plus those that are their upcoming offspring, being prepared to become adult members to work with them on their crews and it can be moved, as it was also seen “descending” while it is quite large, 1378-1420 miles long, wide and in breadth (depth). As it is described as being seen from a high mountain coming down towards earth its size must extend a long way throughout the Earth's atmosphere into near outer space. This description indicates it has 12 gates, 3 on each of it's sides which seems to be part of what Enoch reported being shown:

Rev 21:10 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,

Rev 21:11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;

Rev 21:16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

Rev 21:17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

Therefore to think realistically about this “temple” would equate it to a huge invisible spacecraft, as it occupies space and moves so is a craft and houses people who work within it.

This explanation would also be why it's referenced as “heaven.” When someone dies, whom believes in the Kingdom of God/heaven by the Older Member's standard, not from human judgments or understanding of scripture, they become in the Kingdom of God/Heaven's keeping, so are in their heavenly (sky) abode but doesn't mean they will be taken into Their outer space "abodes/mansions," that is until they have overcome/conquered their humanness during the direction of an incarnate Older Member and thus received the full benefits included in their crew membership of eternal life as they would no longer be leaves on the perennial human genetic tree but now bonded/grafted to this new Family Tree of LIFE.

It is also spoken of as a city in Revelations and has within it areas where only the Older Members and the elders are permitted, namely the area where the "throne" is*. This is probably what stimulated the Star Trek depiction of the "death star" though I don't believe the Luciferian Space Aliens have this kind of globe sized "mother ship" or even close, that is according to thousands of reports over the last 50 years from contactees, leaks, practical analysis of records, etc. Calling this the "death star" may in fact have it's accuracy though, as crafts of this size are depicted in the book of Revelations as the Kingdom of God/heaven side of the "city of God," the New Jerusalem. But the Kingdom of God/Heaven has no need nor desire to try to frighten humans. Sure they tell the truth - all humans will die and many of the spirits will also be dissolved in the "lake of fire" while some of the genetic strain may be preserved for the next garden planting after the surface is, so to speak spaded and that will bring an otherwise untimely end of life for most while some of the Spirits and/or Souls they planted will be kept for the next "human overcoming classroom."

Thus this "death star" and the depiction of Darth Vader as the evil empire with the Luciferian fellow his Lord can have it's form of accurate depiction as Darth Vader was "turned," which is what happen to the group that rebelled against the Kingdom of God/Heaven. I would imagine there was a previous crop of Luciferian styled space aliens that "turned" this latest group of which the name Lucifer is not listed by Enoch. But of course what is being told to humans now is that the Reptilian space aliens are coming with their "death star" to take over and/or destroy the planet and human kind, when in fact it's the Kingdom of God/Heaven's armada and large base craft that at some point will be nearby visible by human eyes or equipment or not, which is after the Two Witnesses have finished their work with the first fruits graduation of the student body.

It's a Luciferian tactic to promote both fear and joy so we see some humans emphasizing the end of the world and looking forward to disasters and wars and such while the other side of the coin, that is even the same side really is saying that yes, the Earth is going through "birth pangs" - some even thinking the Rev 12 woman represents the Earth or the Church, though they can't square that with the rest of the chapter, but that it is ushering in the new world and one with peace and love so it's of no concern - just try to live our lives and not pay too much attention to all the horrible things, assuming or holding out for wishful thinking that they will in fact be spared from it. And some of these probably will, that is if their asking for help from the real Beings that created it all, rather than treating them like a blob of intelligence or a cosmic consciousness without any related physical relationship to what humans can most relate to as reality.

With all that said, it's true that if one is a "weed" in the garden, a "tare" and the Kingdom of God/Heaven has a team that are weeders then to that weed these weeders would be evil. This is depicted by Jesus as the "tares" being removed before the good wheat can be identified and "sealed," which is all a part of the period of time I am calling a second harvest as shown as the winepress in Rev 14 because those that work for Ti and Do by disseminating their information will if they do so continuously as more and more prophecy is shown as fulfilled be more and more targeted so they aren't influencing their parishioners away from Christianity. Thus it will be the Christians that seek to do in those working for Ti and Do. However, there is also a growing evangelical type of movement of atheists that may also be some who look for any who they consider to be religious to stop them. Many of these are being led by discarnate and space aliens while they have in their genetic lineage the memory of being persecuted by religionists so are delivering their karma.

*Area where the throne is, has limited access:

Rev 4:4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

Rev 21:27 And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, niether whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

It is referred to as a Temple because this is the base of operations for members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven, who includes prospective new members who are in various stages towards membership. It's where they "worship" the Kingdom of God/Heaven. But to them, as has been said, worship is "working for," not for listening to sermons, though they do hold briefings, not for singing songs, though they may at times do so, while their most pertinent singing is in their "performance" that can be a vocal performance when they have tasks to provide information to humans by voice.

As said, this Temple is also a sanctuary for all students and student workers who would at various times work on the planet. And for some that are very near graduation, they can be given a physical body that isn't an adult Kingdom of God/Heaven non-mammalian body, so it can still resort to certain human behaviors. These would be given tasks that would not interfere with potential fruit in the Earth humans. A task as a "watcher" would be such a task as they would have no communication with the Earth humans. They would simply observe what they are instructed to observe and report their observations. This is what the crew spoken of by Enoch were engaged in, before they decided to leave the Kingdom of God/Heaven's service. They decided to cease their observational tasks to instead mingle with and impregnate human women while also teaching the humans things the Kingdom of God/Heaven's Older Members were not ready to teach them, things that today many would say were admirable qualities in regards to the sciences and use of herbs and so forth. In the process they were equating themselves to the Kingdom of God/Heaven membership. These "fallen angels" were not yet members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven. They were souls that had reached a considerable degree of maturity, so when their bodies died, by whatever means their Soul's were kept and to provide them more lessons opportunities were issued new physical bodies. However, these new physical bodies were still equivalent to Earth human bodies in that they had the capacity to function as the mammalian humans to include reverting back to offspring reproduction. But having souls that had degrees of advancement above human, they had an advantage over humans so could easily woo or manipulate humans to be subject to their desires and needs, which was depicted in the experience with Adam and Eve and in Genesis chapter six. If humans become accomplished in the manipulation of spirits to perform certain “tricks” that wow fellow humans, they are put on a pedestal for no real effort of their own, except as they have become a host for discarnates to work through.

However, the idea that those in this Temple often have work to do, is a normal way of thinking about being in Their kingdom abodes and keeping. An early example of this “way,” as introduced to the humans who the Kingdom of God/Heaven chose to nurture early on in the civilization, as a first trimester is reflected by the way those in the Moses camp were given many tasks that had precise instructions to carry out and there were many procedures developed as situations arose, aka rules of behavior and ways established to solve problems while at the same time providing examples that taught the ways of members of the kingdom. It was to gear the student “souls” and their human gnome, with which Souls work through, to build strength, in abiding by the ways of the Kingdom of God/Heaven that simultaneously teach them to follow instructions that aid their growth towards new membership. For this reason, doing things that incorporate working with or through the human discarnate spirits, the dead humans becomes prohibited, as one of those rules as doing so fosters a distorted understanding and a false sense and capacity of self that results in more self reliance that looks good on the outside but is not what the gardeners can use, in membership on their crews, so it counter Their program. In other words, the Kingdom of God/Heaven gardening effort is kin to a astronaut training program in which crew members are expected to look to their commanders, knowing that it is through their far greater experience that the tasks/missions can be best accomplished. These new Kingdom of God/Heaven astronauts (holy angels) are not without their own expertise and sense of fulfillment, as they go about their assigned tasks than we see in all manner of human organizations where there is a hierarchy of command/management structure, though in terms of the Kingdom of God/Heaven they are made to look like mindless robots by the Luciferian distortion of the training program, to try to woo Souls from engaging such a training program that any incarnate member from the Kingdom of God/Heaven instigates towards a graduation. Thus the point here is, that there is a complete practical reality and functional value to the entire Kingdom of God/Heaven human Soul growth development (garden like) projects and the Temple is like the command center for the operations in the Earth experiential classroom, which is the “Altar.”

THE ALTAR, LIKE THE TEMPLE HAS A TWO FOLD REPRESENTATION; IT IS THE GEOGRAPHICAL LOCATION WITHIN THE TEMPLE GROUNDS, ACTUALLY THE PART OF THE TEMPLE GROUNDS THAT IS LITERALLY ON THE GROUND WHERE THE SAINTS OFFER THEIR MENTAL AND PHYSICAL LIVES (GIVE ALL THEIR MIND AND ALL THEIR BODY) TO THEIR OLDER MEMBER FROM THE KINGDOM OF GOD/HEAVEN. So during Jesus time it was the vicinity surrounding the “holy city” Jerusalem, potentially all of the area called Judea, as the heavenly temple abode (space craft) was in that same vicinity then.

The difference between the Altar and the Temple is basically altitude as the Kingdom of God/Heaven workers are not in dense physical bodies, as they are in their “home” environments on space crafts, in labs inside of select planet's, and/or moons*, though it's not that they are floating around either. They can still have dense physical bodies but can keep out of the way of humans, whether humans are walking around, or in the sky/atmosphere, etc. They could be in some types of transportation that can be on the surface of the planet or above it, the way humans fly in airplanes to where they know how to stay out of the way of the humans and their devices, not having the same limitations humans do. However, having moved from the middle east previous temple/altar location, the evidence strongly suggests the new area is within the mainland United States of America, which is in Revelations spoken of as the “New Jerusalem” and “Mystery Babylon.”

*Moon as a base depicted here:

Rev 12:1 And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:

Thus the Altar is where the sacrifices are offered and take place:

This is the altar for each of the Older Members' students, aka the Saints, those who are “following the lamb wherever he goes,” who have washed their robes and who no longer marry or are given in marriage and who don't have sex (have regained their virginity)(39) and have no guile (deceit) in their hearts or minds, who give as their final act of whatever trimester in which they are engaged, their physical body that is the epitome of the Kingdom of God's, through Jesus' stated requirements to be his active student (disciple), spoken of as, “denial of self” as “thy will be done on Earth as it is in heaven,” having faced the prospect of being killed for their belief while serving as mouthpieces of the truth they witnessed and experienced in times passed, as their Older Members (Jesus/Father - Jesus was spokesman for the one called The Father) then said they must do to, “take up your cross” - as they would be hated for the same reasons their teacher/example Jesus was hated, when he faced the entrenched religious with the truth of where their religion originated, also spoken of by Jesus as to “drink from the cup that I (Jesus) drink from.” Their willingness to speak the truth and take the consequences is authorized by that present Older Member, which is a degree of voluntarily self sacrifice of their humanness as manifest in the physical life of their body (vehicle for the Soul to learn to drive 100%) which is always a stage in the final pulling up of the roots of their humanness.

It seems to most all those who are not in the program, and even to some in an earlier trimester, this willingness to die for something no one can prove, is insanity. There are actually always Soul's experiencing degrees, like grades in school, of aspects of each of the three trimesters. Since this “giving all” is taught even in the first trimester, with increased ways of implementation, it does not take students by surprise and there are different ways in which this graduation qualification (giving one's life) is implemented, so it's natural for some to have misgivings, which again is their physical vehicle's fear and dread, not the Soul that's drawing from the Mind (holy spirit) from the Representative from the Kingdom of God/Heaven, which they, the Souls need to learn to override the vehicle's human mammalian mind on. However, that learning to override is at the student's pace, though the Kingdom of God/Heaven does step up the pace at times, sort of the way a gardener does by giving seed/shoots stronger soil and environments to press through with more fertilizer while still keeping balance on pests (discarnate influences) that would if left might/would decimate if left unattended.

The key that makes the giving of one's life a realistic and acceptable, however still challenging to implement such consciousness (as no human vehicle is of it's own eager to have confrontation to the degree that could result in it's death) is by arriving at a genuine recognition of who it's really for, while a tiny few, if any humans who are in observance of those engaging this process will agree with their allegiance and dedication but it's simply the biggest hurdle within the formula of becoming a member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven.

However, regarding this choice to sacrifice one's humanness, to include all mental allegiance and physicality, it's important to actually be with genuine Older Members from the Kingdom of God/Heaven, whom the student Souls and even the genetic structures, they occupy for their overcoming task have come to know and love over millennium. (This can seem illusionary because in this third trimester for a tiny group of students, especially, there are all sorts of facsimile Kingdom of God/Heaven "false prophets/gods," who look like sheep (kind/gentle seekers) on the outside (garb of religion and/or spirituality) but are on the inside predators (like wolves), though they don't think of themselves that way as they seek to woo Souls away from paying any attention to the REAL overcoming process.

It may seem that it's unfair when certain Souls (those with a genuine Kingdom of God/Heaven consciousness, in whatever language/culture) are wooed and even may give their lives in the process, (i.e. Jonestown, though many, even most were tricked, because they had such a drill a number of times not knowing it was a drill where poison was not used so no one died from it, thus on a subconscious level some didn't have reason to believe this too wasn't a drill. Others were traumatically pressured, even at gunpoint and with Jim Jones verbal admonishing the group over their public address system, this after a shooting in the airport that some may not have known about, but some thinking that Representative Ryan had cleared them of any wrongdoing, even though two families sought to leave with Ryan, which no doubt would have resulted in bringing to light some of the Jim Jones highly questionable alleged behaviors, like disciplining children by hanging them by their feet in a deep, dark well for some time. These allegations that have substantial evidence all show the way the Luciferians influence humans to talk like lambs and sheep while act like wolves and vultures. To all those who did consume the poison, it doesn't mean they, their Souls are lost, as the Kingdom of God/Heaven can be present in an unseen way to take those Souls to their Temple to be saved for a future opportunity to have a new human experience with the next genuine incarnate member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven.

However, some do become entrapped as within any organization, spiritual based or not, but that is part of any gardening project - that the strongest press towards the sun to survive and thrive. It's simply not for a human to judge for others who is gravitating to a genuine incarnate Older Member or not unless they have proof of abuses as were found at Jonestown and in the People's Temples in the Los Angeles and San Francisco bay area before Jonestown.

The tendency among those who don't believe in the Earth and all it's life forms being part of a designed program for Soul Gardening, is to look upon those who do have such a belief as duped and hoodwinked and/or naive and insecure as the reason for such belief. In this case, some talk about one's concept of God as if this God or Gods were villains seeking to control and punish those that don't obey and who allows atrocities and disasters to kill thousands. Of course there are those who do place themselves in what they think a “godly” position whether in government or Corporate or Scientific foundation or religious order or spiritual elite or space alien so called “space brothers,” or the like. And yes, for time periods these are allowed to thrive but what is never really spoken about is how the Kingdom of God/Heaven helps those who ask for their help, though if the asking is in word only and has had no manifestation in deed and change toward a deeper bond with the creator's kingdom then they may not be kept when they lose their physical body. The bottom line is that no human can ever assume anything about themselves or another when it comes to their relationship or lack thereof with the Kingdom of God/Heaven.

The signs are often quite evident, of who is a false prophet and who is not, but when it comes to leaving one's human family behind and disconnecting from any worldly pursuits to be with someone who the media is broadcasting as a dangerous cult figure (the leader(s)), that may result in a lose of life, it's near impossible for those who are not so drawn to a “give your all program” to recognize any value to the socially condemned leader(s).

Any harvest of fruit requires a sickle to literally cut down the stalk (body), which kills the plant, or in the case of a fruit tree, for example, the stalk is the stem that supplies the fruit's development while the fruit, when ripened is taken by the farmer. Jesus illustrated this process to the growing of wheat (a corn or kernel of wheat). In this case the farmers are the Kingdom of God/Heaven Older Member's crew. The stalks are the “plants” off the human tree The flower is the Mind/Head of the stalk and the fruit is the grain, which in themselves are also the seed or Soul that is what the farmers grow the garden to obtain which to Them are the way in which they beget/birth into their Family, offspring, though invisible to human eyes. But like Jesus said:

Joh 12:24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

Joh 12:25 He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

Joh 12:26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

This is the basis of what one can think of as “self sacrifice.” One must sacrifice (give) their “life in this world,” which generally only works for those that are not pleased by their life in this world, which can be an idealistic displeasure of seeing through so much of what others deem worthy to give their lives to - treasure, wealth, self worth, power in the support or guidance, ruler-ship and management of others. It's a “sacrifice” only because there is generally a part of us, the human part of us that has grown comfortable with even very difficult life challenges, health complications, disabilities, etc., or even a degree of comfort in even the seeking process. One can become a perpetual seeker that never takes it past the intellectual stage. Thus a sacrifice is really a willingness to change to something that is not as clearly stable. As humans, it's not important what we get into. What's important is what we get out of. To make the grade in a Kingdom of God/Heaven program with an incarnate Older Member at the helm, one must get out of all things experimented with, regardless of whether they were good or not so good for us, as they are all what got us to the ultimate program.

For those humans that don't exist at the time of an incarnate representative, they can still be selected by the observing crew of Kingdom of God/Heaven membership, who are not apparent to humans, to have a future opportunity when an Older Member is incarnate while if they have not been given a Soul seed, can still add to that part of the human tree that produces leaves (human bodies/minds) that become the future hosts for a returning Soul engaging their next trimester towards birth. Thus nothing is lost. Life in the human kingdom and all kingdom levels that are less evolved all have a temporary experience.

To live for an hour or a day or a year or 120 years is all a gift. Had the Kingdom of God/Heaven “creator crew” not designed, developed and maintained the Earth and its garden plots that includes all the life forms, even permitting the negatives that convert negatives to positives (recycle) then none of us would have any opportunity to live. Of course it's easy to become blinded to this and especially so when we are the product of genetic seed that rebelled from this reality that Jesus spoke about as the "tares" who look like wheat but are not, but are actually weeds in the garden, though permitted as a fertilizer.

(See examples of harvest, the cutting of the wheat at harvest time in the Revelations 14)

The idea of sacrifice is made to sound barbaric and satanic but that is because the Luciferian Space Alien (fallen angel) descendants who have been allowed to be present on and off in degrees and influence since the Adam and Eve story have distorted the Kingdom of God/Heaven's garden plan in the minds of many humans, especially at this time of third trimester harvest of the souls the Kingdom of God/Heaven has nurtured since their beginning. Those Luciferians seek to make it barbaric by having such become a ritual among some or to have someone more or less force someone else to kill themselves or another (sacrifice another human to the "gods") or to guilt someone into doing so. Only the Kingdom of God/Heaven sees to it that, when their student membership are working up to giving their lives in whatever way that might be instigated, that it's fully voluntary to where each student must actually over years time prove they are of a clear mind wanting to take this leap of faith (It's a leap of faith because the physical vehicle doesn't want to die or lay down its life and especially when the vehicle is generally happy).

The entire overcoming process involves the sacrifice of our human nature and roots to graft/bond to a new family of The Kingdom of God/Heaven and to do so voluntarily/willfully by our effort under the close direction of the assigned Older Member(s) (Christ(s)) that is engaged over up to ~7000 Earth years for each garden planting to harvest cycle.

Each phase spoken of as one of three trimesters in that birthing cycle results in the vehicle used dying (as all do) but at first while believing in the Older Member in our charge, thus Moses who was Jehovah's instrument to deliver the initial criteria instructions (laws) to be willing to try to follow aka "commandments" (without the Luciferian imposed meaning of condescension) that must be adhered to and are a type of degree of sacrifice of our otherwise animal instincts that brings the species into a more civilized behavior and preparation for the next trimester. Jesus required his disciples to have yet a higher standard which included telling others about Him after he left, which He knew would be their sacrifice of their physical well being, as they would be hated as he was hated by all the status quo religious, spiritual, paranormalist, secular humanist and atheist.

The third trimester adds on to the two previous trimesters but instead of having another be the instrument of our self sacrifice it is possible that those first fruits who gave their lives one or more times during past incarnations, whether those with Jesus or before, serving, for example as an Old Testament prophet, we would need to be willing to lay our bodies down for our Older Member even without the lower forces through fellow humans providing the mechanism as occurred with Jesus. Jesus knew how to hide so could have done so for who knows how long and even could have decided to travel away from that area to start anew. So he voluntarily subjected himself to a rather unpleasant death which took the idea of self sacrifice to it's next level. Thus with that example students in the third trimester would at least have in their consciousness the need to “give their lives” and even to be prepared to voluntarily and even literally lay their physical lives down. However, none of this is of value as a practice. It is only of value when we the Soul has had a face to face relationship with an incarnate Older Member who we learn to look to for everything, that comes with gaining the perspective of why - because we genuinely “love” them with all our being which includes trusting that individual. This will never look legitimate or godly from just anyone's viewpoint. Someone outside this mindset will certainly not condone it, but someone who, though may not be ready for the third trimesters lesson steps, may in fact accept it as a formula that they might grow into or may feel it was a right choice for those who feel so inclined, possibly souls who were congruent with second and first trimester Soul growth respectively.

This is not related to what people think of as martyrdom as much of martyrdom is still a about the “Me Me MY MY of it, that one feels puts them into a heroic or holy status. The only reason to participate in this serious self sacrifice is because we love and want to give to and serve the Kingdom of God/Heaven through our present Older Member. In other words then we have become a significant degree of a pure instrument equated to a pipe that has no obstructions in it to slow down or distort/pollute the flow of pure Mind through, or as strong links in the Kingdom of God/Heaven's chain of mind, Older Members to Younger members that is what it takes to have a viable spirit/Soul birth that actually holds the energy/power/light that drives the new vehicle the Kingdom of God/Heaven will issue those that overcome their humanness.

Rev 11:2 But (the) court which (is) without (the) temple leave out, and measure it not; for (it is) given (unto the) Gentiles: and (the) holy city shall they tread under foot forty (and) two months.

Re-translated and re-interpreted in the same format as described above:

Rev 11:2 But ((2532 kai= AND, but, also, so then, that, then, yet)) court ((833 aule= a yard (as OPEN TO THE WIND/AIR)))...

“Court” having no walls is not a protected environment as the “Temple” grounds with “walls” (barriers/gateways however undetectable to humans and instrumentation, similar to the overall Earth's “spirit world” (electromagnetic field, environmental platform, not far different from a computer operating system platform/structure, where humans are the hardware/firmware part that the software (spirits) run on as they can't run without). Thus in this or these geographic areas, being open air (no containment walls) there is no facility to keep discarnate spirits away from humans (unless the Kingdom of God/Heaven specifically designs something for particular humans they have an interest in helping keep certain spirits/discarnates away from periodically), so the classroom of students (the returning Saints, those who gave their lives on Jesus behalf by sharing his teachings despite knowing they would eventually have their human vehicle's (body) killed for doing so, as He was and as He said they would be, which is all part of their “drinking from the same cup”) can have an significant chance of completing their overcoming of their humanness by their learning to LOOK TO and FOLLOW 100% the personal efforts of the incarnate Older Members they are about to meet up with face to face as they all, (these Two and their returning Crew) take over (literally a type of capture of) human vehicles that are the footstool instruments to build the strength of will/mind through.

By in large, this “court” is still a defined area and/or areas and might be considered the English speaking areas of the world primarily which of course anyone in the world can eventually gravitate to. This is because of the way the Kingdom of God/Heaven designed the moving of the temple/court and “holy city” from the middle east area where it was located during the Jesus/Father and student crew second trimester phase in the Soul birthing program. However, by the time of the second harvest as illustrated in Rev 14, where the stalks (human vehicles) are subject to the “winepress” it may be that any human to be considered to be part of the fruit to be harvested would have migrated to the continental United States though there may be outposts throughout the world right up to the literal “last days” on Earth for the current civilization to operate before being recycled (literally turned over/under).

...which (is) ((3588 ho= the, this, that, one, he, she, it, etc.)) without ((1855 exothen= EXTERNALLY, OUT(-SIDE, -WARD), (FROM) WITHOUT)) (the)...

The context is being OUTSIDE is the Court Yard, which is outside the Temple grounds. These depictions in terms are describing the actual physical geographical environment where the Kingdom of God/Heaven is focusing their primary efforts in this next stage (from the Father/Jesus based second trimester stage), the third trimester for the Saints (who graduated the second trimester by providing service to Jesus after Jesus exit despite knowing they would be bumped off for doing so) which each stage ends up being a simultaneous preparation for the next trimester according to each Souls growth grade in school, speaking of younger Souls but also the human genetic strain that become the containers for any returning Souls to interface “together” with, as depicted in Rev 11:1 interpretation, which is in large part how this process has become distorted and misunderstood as “reincarnation” the way it is generally taught, debated and often assumed.

The only REAL genuine re-incarnation is when the Kingdom of God/Heaven brings back a previously “saved” Soul for their next trimester and they must interface with (and take over (capture/catch away (the real “rapture”)) a human body who was also prepared by being given a “Soul pocket/container (Chip/Tag/Seed that itself can be grown by the Older Members hands-on (incarnate) tending (as it can not be done without Them, not by following some “path” of practice or technique (meditation, etc.) except when the Older Member Representatives come and give the program to those they are face to face with and that becomes the criteria for future generations of humans (alongside the distortion into religion provided by the renegade discarnate souls for a full free will provision) but that the Souls in the “classroom” largely see through upon their next trimester).

...temple ((3485 naos= from naio (to dwell); a fane (church, wherever the body of believers are gathered together, (not a building)), shrine))...

As stated before, this is the geographical area where the Kingdom of God/Heaven is staging their Third Trimester return that will birth the Souls of the “Saints,” the “holy ones” addressed later in this verse. It is their actual dwelling and is kin to when Jesus said he and his Father would make their “dwelling” with you. This is all in the context of Their return to the Earth, though they also have dwelling places off the Earth on their spacecrafts wherever their crews are stationed as they are not limited to terrestrial living and are the physical bodies are not mammals* either so they don't eat food** or have sex. This is why Jesus said in his Father's home environment there are many dwelling places that are compared to mansions in size and facility - highly technically advanced and even “living” spacecrafts, biologically designed craft that one could think of the way one thinks of a whale*** but with a star trek modern and streamlined look/feel/function (plus a whole lot more).

*evidence of different body example:

1Co 15:38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

1Co 15:39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

1Co 15:40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

**evidence the both food (it) and the belly will be rendered idle as well as sexuality though at this stage it was just breaking the sexual laws given previously that Jesus updated but Paul doesn't seem to express:

1Co 6:13 Meats ((1033 bromas= food)) (for the) belly, and (the) belly (for) meats: but God (shall) destroy ((2673 katargeo= render idle)) both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body.

***whale example:

Mat 12:39 But he answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas:

Mat 12:40 For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

...leave ((1544 ekballo= eject, bring forth, cast (forth, out), drive (out), expel, leave, pluck (pull, take, thrust) out, send away)) out ((1854 exo= away, strange, out(-side, of doors))) and measure ((3354 metreo= to measure (metre) (literally or as a figure); by implication a limited portion(degree), ASCERTAIN IN SIZE BY A FIXED STANDARD, METE))...

This isn't the measuring or judging of people but stating the area where the taking of a "reed" body is slated to occur, that goes hand in hand with a process of sizing up which humans to deposit with seeds (Soul implants (not to be confused with Luciferian space alien implants reported since the 1950's). These "reeds" will "rise" - be awakened when the also incarnate Older Member, Two Witnesses come public (blow trumpet of Their prophecy) that will be the wake up call, spoken of in Rev 11:1 messengers instruction to "rise" after "standing up again" (resurrecting), thus is when the returning Souls try to "capture" (catch away) their chosen vehicles (body/reed) that is from the Rod(tree/branch) prepared. That capturing is accomplished by the "word" being spoken, which is imbued with power, being the unvarnished truth in plain/bold terms/language (non-religious/spiritual gloss) as prophesied by Jesus he would be delivering which will resonate with the human beings because they will have been gifted with Their seed, even at their birth (water birth). However not all "caught away" which includes their leaving all behind at that time to include family, homes, careers, favorite pastimes, habits, addictions, sexuality, friends, possessions (other than what the Two Witnesses instruct to bring with you). It doesn't mean those we were related to can't go too. But they would have to know that it wouldn't involve a continuation of their same relationship as this time it was about learning to give all ones mind, heart, Soul and strength to these Two, though essentially the One who was last in the role of Jesus, though working as a team with His Father this time.

Prophecy is always about the Souls who are given tasks from their Older

Members and the humans they are to form Kingdom of God styled relationships with (like a rider to a horse) that provides the best “match” of Soul go body so that the human vehicle is by it's specific characteristics providing the older returning Soul with similar enough or MATCHING CHARACTERISTICS that tend to demonstrate what both (the Soul and the human) need to overcome/conquer, “prevail as Jehovah” (Israel) against to make the requirement to be included in the harvest call and be able to see it through to stick it out with the Older Members as they lead these through their overcoming of humanness program.

...it ((846 autos= THERE, THOSE, TOGETHER)) NOT...

So these two areas, Court and temple are not to be part of the same designations... “measure it not” or “mete these two area's differently,” which says enough, but then there is that “leave out” part, that doesn't make sense that the Kingdom of God/Heaven would need to say, as it could look like it's repeat that these two areas are to be kept away from one another. But what this “leave out” part may very well be saying is better translated to “eject or cast, drive, or pluck out” which may look like it's a negative, but to where something negative is used to help provide some humans the impetus to look for something more. This could come in the form of feeling compelled to go somewhere else for fun or for a career search or to escape something about where they are. During the Gold Rush of 1849, The first great wave of migration, beginning in 1848, brought at least 85,000 prospectors by 1850 seeking their fortunes mining gold. It was the largest migration in United States history. That was also the time of a significant UFO sighting flap in the same area.

(I don't think the former space aliens were allowed out of their “bottomless pit” at that time yet, so I suspect this large sighting “flap” was Kingdom of God instigated to begin to prepare the human mindset with the reality of beings that were from outside the Earth. Note how this mindset also became the beginning of significant sciences fiction writing that later was turned into cinema in Hollywood, the first “valley of vision,” one of the ways the Old Testament prophet Isaiah described Jerusalem.

In 1960's and 70's there was a significant so called “spiritual” impetus to trek from the east coastal areas of the United States to California. Could this have been happening by the Kingdom of God/Heaven's instigation of their Minds coming into this atmosphere and even more so, by crashing some of their more primitive spacecrafts in Texas, New Mexico and Arizona that whether people knew it or not, became a beacon of light that was “drawing” people to those states/areas.

...for ((3754 hoti= BECAUSE, AS CONCERNING)) given ((1325 didomi= ADVENTURE, OFFERED TASK, ministry, SHOWN)) unto the Gentiles ((1484 ethnos= race (as of same habit) i.e. tribe; specially, a foreign (non-Jewish (overcomer), by implication, pagan, heathen, nation, people))...

Then adding “BECAUSE OF AND CONCERNING THE GENTILES TASK.” In other words, this separation of having two areas is in affect also establishing Two “harvest” periods and peoples to where one group are where human's are drawn to host the potential “first fruits,” that is the Temple area, whether because they were born in that vicinity from migrant parents, etc. or because they for whatever reason migrated to that area by the time of their adult hood and the second group are where the human's are drawn or who are the potential “second fruits.” Both harvests are depicted in Revelations chapter 14). The Gentiles are any who were not of the genetic strain of “committed overcomers.” The name and word “Israel,” means “one who prevails as Jehovah.” What they prevail against is the Human World as more and more over millennium is run by the Luciferian “Fallen Angel,” so called Space Alien's human and/or human equivalent offspring from mating with humans, who as they died populated the Spirit World that go on to greatly influence all human behavior and ways to their behaviors and ways and against the Kingdom of God/Heaven behavior and ways. It was in the 1950's in the U.S. that it seems the “bottomless pit” was opened, in which case those Luciferians who were able to continue their propagation and racial survival while locked up underground, using test tube baby and cloning technologies and various other vehicular sustaining technologies, were allowed to leave their locked down existence to once again more directly influence humans to their agenda of getting off the planet before another lock down. This temporary release from prison is orchestrated by the Kingdom of God/Heaven to also subject their returnee Souls to, as a test of their strength of mind and resolve to overcome all the Luciferians would do to try to sway their allegiance away from the Kingdom of God/Heaven incarnate Older Member Two Witnesses overcoming of humanness classroom.

...and (the) holy ((40 hagios= (to-hallow-belonged), sacred (PHYSICALLY, PURE, consecrated, morally blameless, saint, clean, innocent, modest, perfect, CHASTE, CHERISHED, UNDER TENDER CARE, kept warm)...

This “holy” is referring to people - Souls who take human bodies (on foot, footstool) who have been adopted by the Older Members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven, who had been nurtured from whenever they as seeds were planted into human vehicles to begin to grow to their graduation from the human kingdom. In times past they had “washed their robes,” “cleaned out their house,” become pure enough to be among those who are returning as the student crew to take new human vehicles selected for them to provide service to the returning Older Member's Two Witnesses task that will in so doing complete their overcoming of their remaining humanness to bring them to their harvest ability into “adult” membership in the Kingdom of God/Heaven, no longer a “child of God,” but then a “young member” of the Kingdom of God/Heaven, that each of which according to Jesus is “greater” than even the greatest human*. Jesus used John the Baptist as that example of the greatest human, though John the Baptist was one of these student “children of God” and no doubt at this time 2000 years later would have been included as one of these “holy” returnee Souls to finish up his overcoming to graduate the human kingdom.

*differences between greatest human and the least in the Kingdom of God/Heaven

Mat 11:11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

Luke 7:28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

...city ((4172 polis=town with walls)) (shall they tread under)...

A city is never holy in and of itself. It is just an area that enclosed with walls or calculated borders where dwellings for people are provided. If the people in it are “holy” (pure) then the city is a pure “Holy” place. That which is “holy” (pure) has NOTHING AT ALL TO DO WITH RELIGION OR SPIRITUALITY, except to the degree each member of any group adheres as best they can to the teachings, in this case of Jesus and in the way they provide those teachings to others.

Thus in this context, the ones spoken of as the Saints are the “holy” ones. They are the same Souls that were Jesus' dedicated student workers 2000 years ago who gave their will and physical life styles, relationships and even their physical body's well being and life To/FOR Him that included working for Him in the delivery of the information His “Father,” as He said, gave Him to share, suffering the consequences of a religious and secular public that didn't understand or like much of what he said and had all sorts of reasons to want to be rid of. The religious organizations now identified as Christian are not representations of the Kingdom of God/Heaven and none of those they designate as saints are saints despite their good works to fellow humans. If the Kingdom of God/Heaven sees any of them as a “saint” that's Their business and they make those determination on each of us according to what we think, say and do in our lives in relationship to the Kingdom of God/Heaven last incarnate Older Member.

OCCUPANTS OF A HOLY CITY ARE THOSE BROUGHT INTO THAT CITY BY THE OLDER MEMBERS OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD/HEAVEN:

Now “city” in the context of Revelations and especially when it's referred to with/as “holy” means the occupants are members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven, which includes those that are student workers, by student inferring that they haven't actually been graduated from the Human biological kingdom of life, a condition that can no longer “fall from grace” as the Luciferian Fallen Angel space alien ancestors chose to do that found them in prison in and around the Earth. Those Luciferians were thus also once “student workers” though because of rebelling hold the opposite status today.

THE DESIGNED CLOAKED NATURE OF THE PHYSICALITY OF THE HOLY CITY:

Thus this “holy city” has it's own physicality though to humans and/or human equivalent space aliens is cloaked and is what I am correlating with a geographical location on Earth, where perhaps it could be thought of as docked for the “end time/age task” operations. The proof that this is physical many will dispute but evidence is genuine as everything related to the Kingdom of God/Heaven throughout the records demonstrates Their physicality.

SPIRITUALITY MAY BE ONE OF THE BIGGEST WAYS THE LUCIFERIAN FALLEN ANGEL SPACE ALIENS AND THEIR SEED SEEK TO DISTORT (consciously or not) THE REALITY OF THE THE KINGDOM OF GOD/HEAVEN:

Considering that Jesus believed in the existence of “spirits” whom he most always referred to as “evil,” with the exception of “holy spirits” or “holy ghosts,” it becomes hard to recognize the difference as both are generally unseen by humans.

The primary tool to recognize the difference is to adhere to the actual teachings of Jesus, in behavior and ways, which human level discarnates (dead humans or dead human equivalents (so called space aliens) may also do to some degree but will also stray from considerably as we can see in the way the religions have grown up around the incarnation of a personality that became the founder to where they no longer have anything in common with that founders teachings except perhaps in similar terminology, where the original meanings of that terminology has become confused aka mystified or spiritualized aka cloaked. This mystification though is not through the efforts of the lower forces alone. The Kingdom of God/Heaven also promotes the maintenance of a certain amount of mystery until they see that the timing is right to reveal all former hidden truths. But the Luciferians never wish to unveil the truth. Instead they distort the truth and make up interpretations for the mysteries, of course doing so through susceptible humans to program them to reject the truth when it's revealed. However the Kingdom of God/Heaven knows this is their way, so they use it to filter out those that were given Soul seeds and have the root system to bring them to sprout from those that will fall by the wayside or upon rocky soil or to be eaten by the birds (the way space aliens are depicted in revelations).

But to assist students to learn the differences between the truth and the lies, the Kingdom of God/heaven provided from the first trimester period of Moses and Aaron's service to Jehovah concrete behaviors, ways, practices and activities that could be grown into a “recognition of the voice of their shepherd” as Jesus said of His sheep.

And this is why the Kingdom of God/Heaven doesn't generally teach their student body in unseen, spiritual ways, as in sending people thoughts as such, like what was done to Paul of Tarsus on the road to Damascus, but rather come incarnate to talk face to face with their chosen student body who then talk face to face to others. It is when these original witnesses to the physicality have left their physical bodies that the biggest distortions begin to take hold, though the seeds planted by all that face to face communication of the Mind of the Older Members continues to flourish in the parts of that human genetic tree that received it, to produce new leaves (humans) that then become the vehicles for the returning Souls that were those same students returning for the next trimester in their overall birth into adult membership in the Kingdom of God/Heaven's Family.

Thus with each incarnation of an Older Member, but to include those who are performing tasks in between Older Member incarnations, that often may be those students being groomed for the same kind of task the Older Members are doing in provision of their Holy Mind to a selected human populous, additional physical proves are provided to some, whether in the form of so called "miracles" as well as in very select circumstances visits from beings (with Lot) and hearing of voices from the sky (while John the Baptist baptized Jesus, at the transfiguration with James, John and Peter as witnesses), again characteristics of communication that is always accompanied by physical beings on the ground to support the idea that they are physical beings in operation, though in part in a cloaked way to the provision of interface to the human student body.

These experiences are all geared to provide degrees of recognition of the reality of the Kingdom of God/Heaven and with that recognition a sense of what we can trust. This is such a careful program administered by the Kingdom of God/Heaven so that each student is getting the most genuine experience rather than leaving them guessing or filling in the gaps of what this or that means. This is also why the Kingdom of God/Heaven would never seek the service of someone they have not groomed by their incarnate Older Member for a task of administering those same teachings to others, as we saw in the so called conversion of Paul of Tarsus into a self declared "apostle."

Paul's self declaration of apostleship would be like an enemy to one's government suggesting they were appointed to be a diplomat when they never knew the president that issues all the appointments. True that self declared diplomat may act the part and may even use some of the same terms but without the hands on instructions from the president who desires to convey a detailed understanding of what his administration stands for and wishes to promote, that self declared diplomat doesn't stand a chance of getting much right. And this is why we see the Christian religion so filled with confusion as they largely quote Paul and have little to no comprehension of much of what Jesus instructed and why except in general and they largely see as applying to when he is with them, which is actually not entirely inaccurate. After all Jesus was largely speaking first to those he said his Father gave him. It seems these were the 12 counting the one who fell away that seems to have repented of his action by taking his own life afterward. We don't know how much of his reality he shared with the seventy he initially had as followers that he sent out. But to the rest it seems he only spoke in story form and said this was the plan for various reasons being, they hadn't been prepared to receive more so it probably would have backfired and additionally they may have only had so many positions (seats) to fill, these were being prepared for. They are not being prepared to sit on a cloud strumming their banjo or bringing humans together in marriage (except in how they will be working towards providing the same gate they received to others that is depicted as a marriage to their Older Member (Heavenly Father)).

Thus it isn't until the modern day Christians hear the unvarnished truth and in their terms using the very same scriptures they hear and believe in that they will be faced with embracing the “real” teachings of Jesus that will in turn mean they will be faced with embracing the source of the unvarnished truth, the prophecy of the incarnate same Souls as Father and Son who served using the human vehicle named Jesus, the lamb for his self sacrifice of his human physical body that is always the way in which they are prepared to exit the incarnation despite the challenge that always presents as the body is a mammal that doesn't inherently want to die so has to be overridden to let it go or foster it's exit as Jesus did and would do again to demonstrate such to his student body litter he was delivering through their “spirit birth” through their flesh water body birth canal as he forecast he would do.

However, coming back to this talk of what is Holy and the nature of this “City,” I could see someone wondering about the Kingdom of God/Heaven's actual physicality before Jesus left by being raised or raising himself into the “cloud” (into the spacecraft that was cloaked by cloud cover) WITH his physical body. After all, Jesus said, that would be the only real proof given humans, all the events from his survival of a brutal death to all he demonstrated over 40 days time to his closest disciples to exiting by being physically lifted away. Apparently he didn't count the “miracles” as proof as he knew there were humans who were endowed with help from Luciferian fallen angel space aliens and/or Luciferian and human counterpart discarnates that could also wow people with certain healing and such but what none of them could do was “come back from a clearly dead condition” in a substantial way with considerable proof thereafter that he had clearly forecast.

As said, this included his “rising into the cloud” spoken of as his Ascension. It was not an accident nor a hallucination that many were provided witness to, that was also accompanied by two beings standing next to the dozen or so witnesses confirming what they were seeing as no doubt one would be mesmerized from such an experience. Before then Jesus proved he was physical in a partially changed body, as the disciples didn't easily recognize him, yet he had the wounds of his execution. And he ate with those 11 or so disciples and at least one touched his wounds and He spoke a great deal over those 40 days together. So then why would we think when he went into that cloud, he somehow changed from his physical state to some etheric state that would make more sense to live among the clouds without some type of craft? Just not knowing what happened was a justified mindset, that is before the arrival of air flight and myriad reports of space aliens in sightings that some of which seemed to depict all sorts of defying gravity maneuvers or reports of a beam of light lifting some in the air like in the Travis Walton case and others. This is not to depend on such reports being real and accurate because it's apparent that with technology anything Jesus or Moses did can be explained in scientific terms just not in the times they occurred, while attributed to the Kingdom of God/Heaven whom we know can wow us to no end.

But one must note that as far as the Kingdom of God/Heaven instigated events that are deemed miracles or supernatural (e.g. Jesus in the physical being lifted into a cloud) it doesn't seem They are really out to portray their power all too often or to stimulate human interest or to overwhelm their intended audience with what would be hard to believe. As wouldn't that be breaking the "free will" covenant? For instance it was reported that only the 11 disciples were present for most of the demonstrations and his physicality after bringing his human body back to life. Wouldn't he had made a much greater splash if he then hovered in the sky above Pilate and the Sanhedrin and Jewish High Priests that had him condemned and executed so all they and all the people could know he was what he said he was, even coming with his legions of crew members as he said he could summon while he was strung up on the tree? He could have of course done a myriad of things to, beyond a shadow of a doubt, display his power. But as it turned out, except for the healing and a few others mysterious events he only showed that kind of convincing power to those who didn't really need much convincing having already left all behind to be his disciple. Every detail of what he did and didn't do was carefully planned, with adjustments no doubt as he went based on the responses of his students, prospective students and those who hated him.

With this in mind all the effort he put out to show he had a physical body certainly leads us to surmise that he went into the clouds for a reason. After all clouds and cloudiness was the most consistent way in which the Kingdom of God/Heaven membership cloaked their physicality as depicted in the Moses camp over 40 years time of Jehovah coming and going and having all sorts of measures taken to insinuate that Jehovah ate and had a tent like everyone else so why wouldn't we consider that there was transportation in the cloud when it was often said God road a "chariot" or a "horse" or a cloth hut (tent) also called a tabernacle or something other than propulsion with wings or nothing evident for power generation. I suppose it's possible some members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven could fly or seem to human viewpoints as flying with or without actual wings, then not needing another physical object to travel/reside in. But then why would Jesus' "Father" as the commander in chief, according to Jesus have Him go through all that demonstration of his physicality, to then turn around and have him leave and become a spirit.

Sure Jesus said students that wish to graduate into Kingdom of God/Heaven membership would be born of flesh and born of spirit then explaining that by spirit he compared the "wind" and not seeing what it consists of or where/how it came about yet knowing it exists because you could feel it's physicality on our body. He's clearly talking about the invisible nature of "spirit," thus being born of spirit means one will be born in such a way that is invisible to anyone in observance and that actually means a person's physical body will die and their Soul actually will be raised invisibly as the spirit and/or Soul comes out or away from it's body. Jesus explained that someone who actually takes their physical body with them to exit, as was reported for Enoch, probably Moses, Elijah and Jesus is reserved for those who actually came from the Kingdom of God/Heaven, though they come invisibly, in an undercover way as well. (However the Kingdom of God/Heaven at least in the Jesus record, thought of as the second trimester towards birth for that one classroom of students, when he actually came completely into that vehicle named Jesus, it was something some could literally see as a "body" descending like a dove. Luke often displayed more detail in his account:

Luke 3:22 And the Holy Ghost descended in a BODILY SHAPE like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.

Mat 3:16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him:

Mrk 1:10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him:

Joh 1:32 And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

Jesus' "Father in Heaven" was so concerned with giving humans proves at that stage, that they often included something audible with the visual experience as in the voice heard at the appearance of the (holy ghost) "Body" descending upon Jesus after his water baptism, or the two beings on the transfiguration mount or the ones at the tomb and the ones at his ascension. Without this, one could think they were hallucinating, but then when it's accompanied by sound and description of what's happening and multiple people are witnessing it together, it's awful hard to deny as a real physical experience.

Jesus said in His Father's Kingdom there were many “dwelling places” or “abodes.” If they just floated around, do they need a number of places to dwell or abide in while they float around? Why did Jehovah let Moses see his physical shape on at least one occasion, if He didn't have one. For those that say Jesus didn't really rise from the dead, nor ascend physically, it's not like that was the first record of such. Elijah was witnessed by Elisha to have been taken physically. Was the angel that wrestled with Jacob etheric? If so, how could they wrestle to the ground. And when Jesus said he would return as a “son of man,” a reference to his being an “offspring of human” was he using that as an expression, and if so what? Wasn't it Jehovah that said to Moses he would talk “face to face” with only Moses at that time but that Moses couldn't look at his actual “face” or he'd die. So Jehovah did have a face that went with his physical shoulder that he did let Moses see. Why else would Jehovah insist on having a physical Tent (tabernacle) if there wasn't a lesson for the student body in his doing so? Couldn't he have just spoke out of the cloud that was often there at the doorway to the tent/tabernacle and that led them with light to travel during dark hours? And why did Jehovah have a table inside that tent and why was Jehovah brought food if he didn't eat it or want to use his receipt of it as evidence that he had the capacity to eat it? There are more of these very pertinent records that demonstrate the Next Level's physical reality but let me move into the “city,” that was defined by the Representative of Jesus to John as the “New Jerusalem”:

Actually in three depictions we can see the physicality of this “city”:

(1)Rev 3:12 Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the NAME OF THE CITY OF MY GOD, WHICH IS NEW JERUSALEM, WHICH COMETH DOWN OUT OF HEAVEN FROM MY GOD: and I will write upon him my new name.

“CITY OF MY GOD, WHICH IS NEW JERUSALEM”

This is described as “coming down out of the sky/heaven.” And it has a NAME as do the New Jesus and the New “Father”(God)! A city is basically defined as a “walled enclosure.” In Greek, it's “polis.” Is it any coincidence that “metro-polis” is a modern term for a large City for humans, so why would the Kingdom of God/Heaven use that kind of terminology and descriptions if they were not also talking about a physical city? Do they want to confuse us? Absolutely not but they do want us to have the option to disbelieve as then they can be sure when we do gravitate to them it's not out of an artificial belief because of being mesmerized or wooed or manipulated into belief as the Luciferians must do to steal souls to their camp as was done with Paul of Tarsus for example and with all the modern day contactees and the great evangelists who are glued to their perceived greatness, as for many in Hollywood fame or political fame or business and wealth fame, also glued to their achievements to where to even consider a belief that someone would come from some kingdom of God/Heaven and that to be in service to their program to apply for membership one must cash it all in, is literally beyond their capacity as demonstrate by the rich man and Jesus account:

Mar 10:17 And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?

Mar 10:18 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God.

Mar 10:19 Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother.

Mar 10:20 And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth.

Mar 10:21 Then Jesus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me.

Mar 10:22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.

Mar 10:23 And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

Mar 10:24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

Mar 10:25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

Mar 10:26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

Mar 10:27 And Jesus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.

Mar 10:28 Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

Mar 10:29 And Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's,

Mar 10:30 But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life.

Note: This is because once they become Members of the Next Level they will have hundreds of fellow members who will be their new family and will have many places to dwell, but also note persecutions come with it too. And Note the disciples said they had left all and Jesus addressed those who had left wives but didn't include wives among what they would have a hundred fold of.

Here is how Jesus thought about the power of riches speaking about how seeds in the form of words are provided:

Mrk 4:19 And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

Here's the second verse that equates the “city” with the name of the Human city spoken of as Jerusalem, again coming “down from God out of heaven/sky.”

(2) Rev 21:2 And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

Furthermore, in Rev 21:3 we see a further depiction that equates this “object” with a tent as a structure to inhabit:

Rev 21:3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle ((4633 skene= HABITATION, with Moses a tent)) of God is with men ((444 anthropos= man-faced, human beings)), and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

It's saying this HABITATION is with humans (men), dwelling with them and these who are present at this time in that area will dwell with the one(s) who the term God is representing in this verse, the Older Members, the Two Witnesses.

Of course some will be led to think this is anything but a literal depiction but the indications are that it is literal and of course also figurative (spiritual). If it was strictly figurative or spiritual what's the need for giving John the memory that he was taken up to a mountain? Why not just show him this New Jerusalem in the vision?

Then a clincher is how the Kingdom of God went through such pains to describe this city in so many physical terms and it in such great detail:

(3) Rev 21:10 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,

Now here we see Their use of comparisons... "her light was LIKE to a stone...":

Rev 21:11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;

Where here the structure itself is not equated with something physical (stone) but is even including measurements that is like someone describing the house they just built:

Rev 21:12 And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:

Rev 21:13 On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.

Rev 21:14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

Rev 21:15 And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

Rev 21:16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

Rev 21:17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

When it comes right down to it, when it dawns on each of us that They are REAL on our terms, but actually more so because we are temporarily real and they are permanently real, and they have physical bodies and transportation for their physical bodies, it becomes hard to fathom the distorted Luciferian projection that they are strictly “spirits” however Holy. Even in that spiritual sense they are far denser than a human or animal “spirit” - the electromagnetic, frequency, vibrational “echo” of a still temporary type of existence that was never depicted by Jesus as something Living. In fact Jesus referred to these “discarnates” as “dead,” because if they hadn't, while living caught the eye of a real member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven who considered them for their “overcoming program” then they are slated for eventual recycling.

Note: So how does one catch the eye of an Older Member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven, one reading this might wonder. Well, essentially, if you have heard about or met the ones who perform the task of the Two Witnesses, then your only chance may be to talk to them directly by using the names they used while incarnate. If you hadn't heard about Them or if you did, but didn't realize They were the Two Witnesses, then you can simply, but strongly, with determination and seriousness and the expectation of being heard:

PROJECT YOUR ASKING TO KNOW THEM, AND KNOW THEIR WILL FOR YOU, EXPRESSING IN YOUR OWN WORDS WHAT YOU WANT KNOWING THAT THEY AREN'T INTERESTED IN HELPING YOU BECOME A BETTER HUMAN OR TO TRY TO SAVE HUMANITY FROM THIS OR THAT DISASTER OR CRISIS OR TO SAVE THE PLANET FROM A BELIEVED MAN MADE CATASTROPHE. SEND YOUR PETITIONING AS FAR DEEP OUTER SPACE, THE “HEAVENS” AS YOU CAN IMAGINE, AS THIS WILL DO THE EQUIVALENT OF TURNING ON A LIGHT ON THEIR COMPUTER SCREEN, AS NEITHER THE LUCIFERIAN (NEAR) SPACE ALIENS NOR DISCARNATE SPIRITS AND/OR SOULS CAN STOP OR INTERCEPT THAT COMMUNICATION OUTREACH.

And if you don't see a response, ask again. Ask for help to become aware of their response. They will respond when they feel you are serious and it may take your own build up of seriousness to rise to their degree of knowing you are serious. Any other way or name taught to us to use, may or may not yield results from Them at this time. It's the same formula Jesus gave that was called the "Lords Prayer," but to repeat that verbatim, not even necessarily understanding the full gist of those words may not be a communication outreach they see as having the kind of effort they know you will need to truly join their team as a prospective student. However, it's up to them who they hear and respond to. The point to talking about it is to illustrate the ideas Jesus gave in this respect not to impose limitations to such attempts to communicate. Many will quote how Jesus told his disciples to ask:

Mat 21:22 And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

Joh 16:24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

James 4:3 Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss*, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.

*amiss = 2560 kakos {kak-ocē'} from 2556; TDNT - 4:1091,*; adv AV - be sick + 2192 7, be diseased + 2192 2, evil 2, grievously 1, sore 1, miserable 1, amiss 1, sick people + 2192 1; 16 1) miserable, to be ill 2) informally, wrongly 3) to speak ill of, revile, one 1Jo 3:22 And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

Note: John here is saying they ask and receive because they keep his commandments and please him. Thus how can someone who asks Jesus for this and that but doesn't even know let alone keep his commandments expect to receive from him. His disciples left all behind to learn what it meant to give their all to Him. That shows investment and serious interest and is seen as an extreme today or for a few "monks" believing that for others it's not required. And in a sense they are correct as to what is required as it depends upon what is given. As Jesus said:

Luk 12:48 But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

Note: Jesus is clear that just calling out his name doesn't automatically put that person in good stead with His Father. They have to do the will of the Father:

Mat 7:21 Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

Mat 7:22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

Mat 7:23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

Getting back to the physicality proves of the Holy City New Jerusalem:

If these perspectives have not perked one's realization that the Kingdom of God/Heaven is a physical above human level of real existence then consider further in this Rev 21 description of the New Jerusalem:

Rev 21:18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

Rev 21:19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;

Rev 21:20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolyte; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

Rev 21:21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls: every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

Understood, all this has it's representations, in other words are figurative or "spiritual," often pertaining to ones mental framework, BUT as seems to be the case in most everything Jesus said/taught and prophesied, all depictions also have a literal application and even layers of both figures and literal depending on the perception, awareness, connectedness with the Kingdom of God/Heaven of each human Soul and their desire to want to know more and be grafted to Their “Vine.”

These prophecies aren't primarily given for those who are the “holy,” the Souls that are spoken of as the “saints” or “angels,” the student crew members working for/on behalf of the Older Members (Fathers) incarnate or in their “heavenly (sky or outer space abode/dwellings). Those humans who responded to the Two Witnesses prophecy period had already been secretly prepared to recognize the Two by what they would say upon coming public. Though when these did study scripture was really only began again in the 1990's they certainly found much collaboration but would be unlikely to be a deciding point to follow them or not because of.

As Jesus said, his sheep would know his voice. That's the Mind that is behind the chosen words/terms used that will have a unique quality to them, to set them apart from all things previous yet be progressively consistent in their relationship with reality in modern terms yet also directly relative to all that Jesus and Moses taught. This is because of the combined preparation by deposit of a Soul seed in the body of a prospective candidate and that choice by the Kingdom of God/Heaven Older Member and returning “saint” (Soul)'s physical unseen presence with that human when they come in contact with the incarnate Older Members and/or their information that is spoken of as the instruction to “rise” in verse Rev 11:1. For these the Two Witnesses could just about recite the ABC's in their speaking tour around the United States over their 1260 days. This is evidenced by the gospels that more or less depicted a near automatic connection with Jesus with few words exchanged.

Joh 10:27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:
(There is a great deal of perspective in the verses before and after this one)

Joh 12:26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

Joh 1:43-51 shows Nathanael becoming a disciple of Jesus.

Thus these prophecies are essentially to help those humans who would become known as the “elect” or “remnant” (remaining after the first fruits harvest, the invisible ascension into their heavenly abode - the cloaked spacecraft assigned to pick them up when they exited their incarnation by “laying down their lives” (“fell upon their faces”*, what would be called suicide by those that don't know this would be one of the only Godly reasons for someone to take the life of their own vehicle). Another would be in the circumstances surrounding the Jews at Masada in 70 AD whom at the hands of the Roman legion who had surrounded them were about to be tortured, raped, and murdered while their children were made to watch and/or visa versa the common way the soldiers were commanded to act.

* Rev 11:16 And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God, Zep 3:13 The remnant ((remaining)) of Israel shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: for they shall feed and lie down*, and none shall make them afraid.

* lie down can be a reference to what Jesus taught as “laying one's life down for their sheep” which is what Jesus demonstrated which entails being willing to literally die while serving the Kingdom of God/Heaven, knowing that will be one's fate if they keep disseminating the last incarnate Older Members information that the religious of the time will hate to hear so will see to it that they are bumped off after the Kingdom of God/Heaven determines the lower forces to be allowed to do so. Note this verse is also demonstrating the same thinking about some of the qualifications for harvest ability as spelled out in Rev 14 pertaining to the 144 from the 12 tribes or the 144,000 accordingly.

These “remaining” would thus be termed the human prospective “Second Fruit” harvest, some of which will more easily than others believe in these Two, which as said would follow both Older Members and the first fruit student body's exit of their incarnations, also depicted in Rev 11 and 12 and 14 and in several other chapters in less obvious depictions. Some of these who had been “tagged” - given a chip of recognition, may have some programming to overcome, whether religious, spiritual, pagan, atheistic - it's all the same to the Kingdom of God/Heaven as these are all facets of human thinking with degrees of accuracy in the teachings, pathways, mindsets of each that were accumulated to their genetic tree branch over x thousands of years or more, from what was brought by the Kingdom of God/Heaven over those time periods that we are but “leaves” off those branches, that were mixed with the Luciferian fallen angel space alien programming that in most became a dominant mindset, though if each remained thirsty for what was most real and true about all the philosophy they could rise above to see the “light,” pun intended.

The Kingdom of God doesn't make this all easy because if they did, a Soul would not build their “mind muscle” to draw Their Kingdom of God/Heaven quality of “holy” Mind that in so doing would be as an addition to a database, accumulative that becomes a basis of “intelligence” of a different sort from what is memorized in any institution of learning or book study. It yields increased discernment so when things happen in the world or in outer space, there can be a “sense” of who is behind it, though may be only a sense, but that sense keeps the mind open to SEE what is not yet seen and to understand what is not yet understood, which to those who having drawn their Older Member's mind as much will look like quackery or spiritual hokus pokus or nonsense.

At the same time, some of what is considered as behind this or that is just that...hokus pokus either put out there by the Space Aliens in their mind manipulative thought projections on some or the mind manipulations of the humans, whether they know they are manipulations or not, or to what degree and/or what they are manipulating them towards. Now, I'd bet the mental sea is filled with all sorts of randomness as opposed to the physical particle and biological seas that are anything but randomly developing or degrading because with the elements it appears responses to stimuli, however seemingly randomly initiated have a limited number of responses to that stimuli to either cause the organism to experience destructive to it's life challenges or productive to it's life challenges, all in degrees. I may see this inaccurately but figured I'd throw it out there for consideration, knowing it's a large generalization.

What I am suggesting as “random” are for instance, a leaf falling off a tree and the path it takes when it lands. I don't suspect that is a design except in the limitations of the shape and weight of the leaf and the winds or other modes of transpiration that it might encounter upon falling that could transport it great distances even to cause this or that potential reaction where it does finally settle to decay. However I doubt that leaf would escape the Earth's environment unless one played out some rare scenario of course so in that way and probably many more, it's predestined to follow all the other leaves before it. And the same might be said of human beings, unless, they hook up with a being that has additional life experiences that could take that human even off the planet and even away from the human mammalian biological life forms to yet a next evolutionary level above human, which is what most accurately describes what in religious literature is called the Kingdom of Gods in the literal Heavens, or the Kingdom in/of Heaven.

Returning again to the Holy City New Jerusalem the overcomers will get the new name of, on the more literal side of understanding it's construction/composition;

It's constructed of gem stones, and metals that are of the highest quality elements for use in certain types of building. Gold, AU has an atomic weight of 1, like no other element. For anyone that has been a student of the Old Testament time of Moses with the student body's first trimester experiential "classroom," you will note how much detail Moses was given by Jehovah, in the specifications of the building of the "Holy of Holys," the tabernacle (tent Jehovah used), the detailed decor not far different than what is depicted here in character.

And even if one thinks, this is strictly representative and this writer here is off his rocker for suggesting anything literal about it, what does one say to the fact that it's size was specifically described as well?

The calculated size of this New Jerusalem is to be approximately 1378-1420 miles in all it's measurements - height, width and depth (the calculation is shown below), like the diameter of the planet Pluto (1473), or like a surface area on earth from the Mississippi river to the Pacific Ocean and from the Gulf of Mexico to Edmonton, Alberta, Canada and then 1378-1420 miles into the Earth's upper atmosphere which would be slightly further away than the most distant satellites, or so I'm told, which are located at a minimum of 200 miles and a maximum of 1240 miles from the Earth. Interestingly the difference would be about 124 miles. How close is that to a  $1/12^{\text{th}}$  so that the  $12^{\text{th}}$  level would be further than the furthestmost satellite. Move the numbers however slightly and one could equate this size with having 12 walls each as a gate with each of the 12 apostles as graduate first fruit souls in charge of each gate, as didn't scripture say the angels would be in charge of the decisions involving the gathering of the ripe wheat or also depicted as the "clusters of the vine of the earth":

Rev 14:18 And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

Could it be when it says “clusters” that the ripe grapes, being the ripe second fruit harvest prospects will be found in the “court” (rather than the temple) area but in groups, thus in a number of locations? And notice these are depicted as the “vine of the Earth; for her grapes” while in Rev 6:6 the mainly financial events that surround the Black/Blue Horse and it's rider who this author has reason to believe is President Barack Obama say not to hurt the Oil and Wine, the Oil being those who are serving in the delivery of the “light” following the Two Witnesses and first fruits exit of their incarnation upon their “conquering” their humanness (Rev 6:2) and the wine being those remaining second fruit who have not yet become servants but are in process of service as believers a type of fermentation of the grapes.

It's also interesting that the definition of Jerusalem is often related to being a “dual” or Two mountains or might be construed as Two Teachers as in Two Witnesses.

Here are the English to Greek to Hebrew translation options for “Jerusalem”*. (I couldn't help but relate it to the TWO Witnesses when I saw “dual” was more or less the first listed definition:

*Jerusalem = Greek 2419 Hierousalem hee-er-oo-sal-ame' of Hebrew origin (Yruwshalaim 3389); Hierusalem (i.e. Jerushalem), the capitol of Palestine= Jerusalem.

Jerusalem when broken down and considered as a figure seems to mean:

The TWO GREAT MINDS AKA HEAVENLY FATHERS AS IN JEHOVAH AND MOSES, THE FATHER AND JESUS, TI AND DO (Mountains), that TEACH, POINT, SHOW, INFORM, INSTRUCT, DIRECT THE WAY TO BE SAVED (from death), made COMPLETED, FINISHED, FULL (of light (Older Members (Gods) Holy (pure) Mind/Spirit)), TO MAKE GOOD (on our covenant), TO REPAY, TO MAKE AMENDS (for our missing of the mark (sin)), TO BE AT PEACE (with our chosen direction that encompasses all the ways of kindness, compassion, gentleness), that is PERFECT (As our Older Members (Heavenly Fathers)), TO PERFORM AND PROSPER (in service to our Heavenly Father), TO BE REWARDED, BECOME SURE (of our committal to our Heavenly Fathers).

Thus Jerusalem represents; “The TWO Older Members Classroom for the Overcoming of Humanness to become a Member of the Physical Evolutionary Kingdom Level Above Human. Humans are the result of a choice to break the instruction in the experiment that set up an experiment that many were added to, where they could experience lessons that when learned would provide the strength they needed to be on solid ground as a full adult Member of the Next Evolutionary Level aka Kingdom of God, Kingdom in the literal Heavens.

This came from Strongs Hebrew dictionary and relationship of all these terms to many of the lessons taught throughout the records of the “classroom,” as documented in the compilation called the Bible:

Jerusalem = 3389 Yruwshalaim occasionally Yruwshalayim; a dual (in allusion to its two main hills (the true pointing, at least of the former reading, seems to be that of 'Yruwshalem' (3390))); most likely from 'yarah' (3384) and 'shalam' (7999); founded peaceful; Jerushalaim or Jerushalem, the capital city of Palestine= Jerusalem.

3384 yarah or (2 Chr. 26:15) yara; a ancient root; formally, to flow as water (i.e. to rain); as a transitive, to lay or throw (especially an arrow, i.e. to shoot); as a figure, to point out (as if by aiming the finger), to teach= (+) archer, cast, direct, inform, instruct, lay, shew, shoot, teach(-er,-ing), through.

7999 shalam a ancient root; to be safe (in mind, body or estate); as a figure, to be (causative, make) completed; by implication, to be friendly; by extension, to reciprocate (in various applications)= make amends, (make an) end, finish, full, give again, make good, (re-)pay (again), (make) (to) (be at) peace(-able), that is perfect, perform, (make) prosper(-ous), recompense, render, requite, make restitution, restore, reward, X surely.

Then regarding it's physicality, again, after describing it's foundations and wall and gate makeup and comparing it to a tabernacle, dwelling place for the Lords and all the Saints, complete with the measurement of it's size the prophecies then point out it's environment and what it does not contain:

Rev 21:22 And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

Thus these Two are the “Temple mountains” and relative to this return another evidence that the Two Witnesses are the Father and Son (Jesus) returned incarnate together.

Rev 21:23 And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

And those who are “saved” from “hell” (lake of fire) walk in it's light.

Rev 21:24 And the nations ((1484 ethnos= people)) (of them which are) saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

The Kings of the Earth would be those who overcame their humanness and received a crown in the form of a new clean pure (white) robe (celestial model body) as in Rev 7, the first fruits harvested while those saved are those that have yet to overcome so are to be kept, some of which might also receive a body, if they served as Oil - shedding light to others and lost their vehicle's life in doing so also depicted in Rev 7 as the fellowservants.

Rev 21:25 And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.

Rev 21:26 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

However, establishing the HOLY City New Jerusalem's physicality, however cloaked doesn't demonstrate just how accessible it may very well be to students. This next verse addresses this in general terms:

Rev 21:27 And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

However in this next word in this verse, we see further indication of how these “holy” (saints) actually interface with this physical “CITY” spacecraft:

...foot ((3961 pateo= PATH from a derivative probably of paio 3817 (meaning a “path”); to trample (literally or as a figure)= tread (down, under foot), hit upon*)))...

*3817 paio= a primary verb; to hit (as if by a single blow and less violently than 5180); specially, to sting (as a scorpion)= smite, strike))...

This is descriptive of the actions of the Saints treading the path to the City, which requires them to “hit” the deck running when the Two Witnesses begin to blow the trumpet announcing their arrival and delivery of new information and upgraded requirements to be born into the Kingdom of God/Heaven's Family. Even though “foot” seems to be a definition by association with “tread,” if it is correctly included in the translation then it would be an indicator that these holy saints will be on “foot” on this path, which would mean “incarnate” as the only way a Soul can be on foot in a human way, the same as their incarnate Two Witness, Older Members must is by having a relationship with a chosen human vehicle that literally provides the “feet.”

Another reference to “treading or trodding” outside the HOLY CITY. This takes place after the first fruit harvest of souls. Being outside the CITY is an indicator of referring to the geographical area of the “court.”

Rev 14:20 And the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

Also in accordance with the manner in which each verse of these prophecies provides any number of fulfillments in the translation of terms, since “pateo” is as a “path” to “hit upon” for these purifying saints in the geography of the foundational “temple” part of the walled/gated dwelling (city) that has membership from the Kingdom of God/Heaven within, “hit upon” can also be a reference to the way in which they come to be on foot as if by a “single blow” or smite or strike which just might be reflecting the crashes of spacecrafts for their atonement styled (flesh sacrificial) arrival.

...forty and two...

This seems to be both referring to the number of first fruit students and the time period of their being treading the path by foot of the same area as the Two Witnesses for their being gathered which entailed the Two Witnesses public speaking and getting press because of how the students when they hear them “hit upon” Their “path” or “process” to capture the prepared human vehicles to complete their overcoming task through.

...months ((3376 and/or 3375 and/or 3303 men= ASSUREDLY, SURELY, TRULY, INDICATIVE OF AFFIRMATION or concession (in fact, CONFIRMED))).

This usage of the term “months” remained a mystery to my work to re-translate and re-interpret much of Jesus prophecy, until I noticed that there were several listings for the Greek origin “men” pronounced “mane.” 3376 simply says it is a primary word; a month. Presumably this is month as in the 12 months of the year as the translators agree.

However, as also discovered there was yet a second listing that is exactly the same as 3376 in every way except for the definition which is stated in the double parentheses above. This puts an entirely new light on the potential translation. It then appears to DESCRIBE those who were just listed as “holy” (the saints) - showing that these are “sure, true, affirmative” in their commitment to their Older Members. This definition is further developed in yet the third listing of “men” at 3303, though pronounced “men” rather than “mane” and different in the way the Greek word is written suggesting it as a stronger form of 3375's “men.”

With this translation the number “forty and two” would be describing how many “holy” are following these TWO Witnesses in The “Trek(tread) on the (foot)Path” to Their “City,” being the entire purpose for these “Holy” is to be “harvested,” born into membership in the Father and Son's Family who are the commanders of the HOLY CITY.

But this “month” may actually be meant as a time frame in which the “HOLY” will be engaging in this trekking around and in the vicinity of and on their way to the “=(New Jerusalem) “CITY” and could actually mean both that there are actually 42 Saints who have affirmed their commitment and are trekking around the area of the Holy City for 42 months as if to suggest they are doing so for the same amount of time as the Two Witnesses are giving their prophecy. But why then was it expressed as 42 months for the “saints(holy)” while for the Two Witnesses expressed as 1260 days, unless they had more to say in regards to the “Saints” in respect to timing and the number of “saints,” and their status as “affirmed” for the first fruit classroom about to begin with the arrival of their Two Older Member Teachers, while also stating their physical proximity to them (the holy city).

Here is the only other usage of the phrase “forty two months,” which may in fact be a time period and may also be applied to a testing period of these 42 “affirmed holy students,” as the word “power” here has to do with giving them the choice, the liberty to do as they please to provide what these 42 need to purge from their beings, thus to overcome:

Rev 13:5 And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months.

Yet a third way to see these two numbers of 40 and 2, whereas forty in Greek (tessarakonta) can also refer to four decades thus 40 years, (1 hour Next Level time), perhaps the Second or LAST “rapture”, WAVE that Do indicated started around 1994 when Do and Crew went public for the 2nd time that becomes the 2nd Resurrection.

Rev 14:7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

I suspect this period begins after the Two Witnesses exited with their First Fruit Harvest in the new millennium since many Souls would not be ready to gravitate to Ti and Do before then as they had a specific number of seats to fill in their crew that seems to have been 42 (38+4). This Second Resurrection would then continue until that Judgment hour is completed, when every Soul that had had a significant relationship with the Next Level decides.

Saying, “shall they tread under foot” actually is taken entirely from one word that is shown in the Greek “literal word” translation as, “thou should have had cast out” for the Greek word, 3961 pateo. Looking at it this way lends itself to the crashed spacecraft aspect as in “cast out”:

But taking it a step further considering all these Greek translations came from mostly Aramaic/Hebrew speakers, or Greek Hellenistic Hebrew, another variation used at the time can relate to the Hebrew: 7412/7411 rmah/ramah= to hurl, to shoot, throw, set, cast (down), figuratively, to assess (Judge) - perhaps as if “coming as/like a thief” (as Jesus said he would come as/like), “in secret,” in other words, what Ti and Do called coming “undercover,” - not to deceive but to be unnoticed by those who were not prepared to respond to the incarnation of the Two Witnesses, just like the way Jesus came firstly to those his Father prepared to give to him as shown in John's gospel, who he told more to, while to others he spoke in parables. This is the way the Next Level can segregate the grade levels as all leaves/grass - fruit doesn't grow to harvest at the same time, there would be some that are in the FIRST harvest and some in the Second WAVE up to, during and after the Tribulation Period of the “winepress” Rev 14 addresses.

So if they were cast down, not to punish them for breaking ranks with the Older Members as the Luciferians did, but in a sense suffering the same consequence in part, as being then forced to engage being subject to those very same Luciferian influences in the lower human evolutionary kingdom, as some of these returning students had actually graduated to a degree of membership perhaps comparable to what the Luciferians had graduated to (but now that Ti said there was a higher standard to arrive at), that puts them “on foot,” incarnate, which is their “footstool” to stepping up into the Next Evolutionary Kingdom Above Human by conquering. As Ti and Do often said, we came to “get our (Next Level) minds into our human vehicles” which requires eliminating “human mind” which is the same thing as Do called, getting rid of the “misinformation mind” (from the Luciferians), exchanging it for the “truth” - the Mind from the Older Members from the Next Level.

This is how Daniel's prophecy related to Ti, Do and Crew's arrival. I say it was the arrival because I don't see the way they “laid their bodies down” in 1997 as the same kind of interpretation, as this verse in Daniel also seems to be parallel to the Revelations verses said nearly exactly as these. (Rev 4:10) (By the way, that seems to be the plan to show that consistency. Of course the opponents can then choose to see it as John just taking Daniel's prophecy to build his own from. That is the way choice is always maintained in these interpretations. One can't see the whole truth if they are not given the chance and they take it and continue to take it.

Dan 7:9 I beheld till the thrones were cast down ((7412/7411 rmah/ramah= to hurl, to shoot, throw, set, cast (down))), and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire.

Thrones represent task positions of judgment as a king. Jesus indicated his disciples would have that task (In the gospels and in Rev 5:10) and that they would be with him where he was going upon his exit that they would also follow him to when they exited by drinking his same “cup of blood” - laying down their bodies, but in the way of telling the truth that they knew in so doing would get them killed as it had their master.

(There is currently a facsimile of this that some Christians are alluding to because of the minor violence against Christians in the Muslim countries and even whenever there is the slightest hint of violence because of religion with Christianity involved. But it's not at all the same thing as being killed for the truth. Christians by in large don't know the whole truth. They only have a little part. That little part can become a huge part if they embrace what Ti and Do taught, that is IF they heard about Ti and Do. If they hadn't which will be hard to imagine when all is “done” then they are judged by a different criteria by the Next Level Older Members and graduate Saints. But the most resent example of this idea that Christians are being persecuted (the way Christians and atheistic or spiritualistic nations do persecute those in other countries and look down upon those in other religions), is in the recent Oct 2, 2015 case of a mass shooting in an Oregon community college where 8-10 were killed and about that many were wounded by a gunman who as he was executing fellow students asked if they believed in God, or were they Christians and then if they said yes, but not all of the survivors reported this, he would shoot them, saying it would only hurt for a moment and that it was good they believed in God because they were about to be with him. Some in the comments see this as rage against Christians. They haven't read all the reports, so they are quick to judge it as the way they want to see it also assuming the man is Muslim. All sorts of assumptions are made by little tid bits like saying he hated organized religion because he wrote on a dating profile he was "not religious" but was "spiritual." Maybe more truth would come out about this case. The climate is very hostile at this time and this is happening right after the blood moon that follows the Ceres lights and Pluto hanger door looking "spots" that represent the Rev 6:8 Green horse and hell, (Ceres and Hades/Pluto). (For pictures of Ceres Lights and Pluto "spots": <https://sawyerhg.wordpress.com/2016/11/27/jesus-said-there-would-be-signs-in-the-sun-moon-stars-planets-comets/>). People in comments are threatening others who jump to these opinions. The world is being consumed by "fire," not only by literal heat and fires but by passions of anger and sexuality mixed together which is spoken about in the next verse of Daniel.)

Dan 7:10 A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened. (See Rev 5:11).

THE COURT IS THE GEOGRAPHICAL AREA IMMEDIATELY OUTSIDE THE TEMPLE AND ALTAR'S GEOGRAPHICAL AREAS, populated mainly by those who did not physically gravitate to the introductory new understandings and beliefs one will find more common in the Temple/Altar geographical areas. The basis for this is in the idea that the physical presence of the Older Member(s) MIND is a literal beacon of light and potential understanding that attracts anyone who has even a tiny amount of an interfacing mind within them and/or within their genetic makeup. Thus most seekers (but not all) would have traveled to and often moved to the Temple/Altar area where the source of LIGHT is most focused because of the Physical presence of the Older Members and their crew (saints).

Considering the Temple is described and calculated to be some 1378-1420 miles square (based on Greek and Roman systems at that time shown before):

Rev 21:16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

Considering the way the U.S. demonstrates various evidence of being the “new nation” Jesus spoke of the Kingdom of God/Heaven's next location, and how that would be an area where all nations and peoples and races and tongues would congregate*, the U.S. being known as the “melting pot” and how the U.S. has most filled the shoes of being the “greatest nation on Earth,” which all nations have financial relationships, often selling out their public interest to prosper by. This is kin to the Babylon** depictions in Revelations, and many additional indicators, it would seem the U.S. is where the temple and altar are relocated to from the previous area of the middle east.

*Rev 11:9 And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

**Rev 14:8 And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication*.

*fornication in this context is relative to idolatry in how and why people and their nation states become subservient to what Jesus referred to as “mammon,” what is wealth and treasure to the kingdom of human mammals but in this context for all manner of financial profiteering for any number of human agendas that are what have been called, “selling one's Soul to the devil” because of how one can easily begin to justify breaking the Kingdom of God's laws to have.

Examples could include allowing destruction of another country's environment, economy and/or political and/or social order, fostering distrust in one's government, stimulating anti government activity, in part to keep or replace leadership and/or sell weapons and military related technologies and hardware.

If one looks at history, (not limited to the U.S. alone, one will find the U.S. fostering unrest all over the world; moreorless starting in Cuba, Mexico, Hawaii, and the Philippines just before the turn of the 20th century to Southeast Asia (Vietnam, Cambodia and Laos) under Kennedy, Johnson and Nixon; South America and the Middle East under Reagan, H.W. Bush and continuing in the Middle East by Clinton, G.W. Bush, and Barack Obama, to name just a few of the waring escapades, while there are considerable trade wars that can also devastate nations like Mexico, Cuba, etc. There are no lack of examples of U.S. Governmental and Corporate world wide profiteering.

Since there is significant evidence that the temple/altar was relocated from the Middle East and the size is approximately 1378-1420 miles square an investigator would need to look for the indicators of where in could have been relocated to that is approximately that measure. To locate the Temple and Altar more precisely one must consider the United States geography and trends. Considering the way new trends began in the western United States and the Kingdom of God/Heaven's presence would no doubt stimulate advancements in all areas, the state of California certainly must be considered and especially having various social and financial tolerance, progression, degradation and distortions of all things related to the Kingdom of God/Heaven plus it is where people have been drawn for decades for various reasons with the only town in the United States named the, “city of (God's) angels” being Los Angeles, and the “city of sin” nearby as Las Vegas. Thus one can count the 1378-1420 miles starting from the Pacific coast then east which brings the end point slightly into the gulf of Mexico. So in general this temple area may have as it's eastern border using a Kingdom of God/Heaven made natural geographic boundary, the Mississippi river.

Now a seeker and a believer are not the same. The seekers are all those who genetically were prepared to become potential hosts for the returning “saints” aka Souls.

A Soul is actually a Kingdom of God/Heaven “seed” that has it's own frequency based physical nature that acts like a container or pocket to hold Kingdom of God/Heaven Mind, aka Holy Spirit verses “unholy” spirit, that mind that each human being actually fills their brain with as they accumulate information and experiences, thus is the content of one's brain recorded into every gnome of every cell. Kingdom of God/Heaven mind can only come into one of these “seed” containers by being received and embraced by the human being, though the reception and understanding capacity of the human brain. This is why a human vehicle(brain) needs to be prepared to receive a new dose of Kingdom of God/Heaven holy mind, that takes place over many generations of new human plants that the Kingdom of God/Heaven needs to add new programs to during the periods of time one of their Representatives is returning to incarnate to start the next phase or trimester in the overall birthing experiment.

Thus the returning Souls received their initial birth at some point when an Older Member came incarnate and in this current civilization started with the vehicle Adam's receipt of the “breath of life” (the seed of Holy Mind) that was then provided to the gnome of Eve. When those initial human vehicles died their Soul in the case of Adam and Spirit in the case of Eve (unless Eve was also given that separate Soul pocket) went into the spirit world of the planet, but being part of the Kingdom of God/Heaven's new experiment would have been kept in Their area (heaven) as called Abraham's Bosom and later Paradise and one of Enoch's seven heavens to be saved from “second death” the eventual fate of all spirits that die without having received that Kingdom of God/Heaven “seed” who are recycled at the end of the age.

Then according to the Kingdom of God/Heaven's plan those saved Souls and/or Spirits are brought back to interface with a next generation of human beings spawned from that gnome that had that Kingdom of God/Heaven interface before so their “programs” match in understanding and behavior and ways according to where each left off in their lesson plan.

Thus the humans at any given point who are observing everything they can, seeking to understand their highest purpose in life, not satisfied with the status quo climbing of this or that social, financial ladder, but want to make a difference, often considering dedicating themselves to the service of others, as in social/humanitarian, environmental and/or spiritual related causes, but can include even those who fail and even find themselves in prison. In other words those who don't feel they fit in to the majority lifestyle even to include those who get caught up in substance and sensual habits and addictions so demonstrate rebelliousness, while still having a sense of the existence of Beings that are Above Human as who designed the entire Earth system and life forms, no matter how they think and talk about that sense/belief, as most of these will not have found themselves at home in any regular religious group, except where they do so for whatever sense of community such provides, not knowing of anything better.

These seekers are prone to believing a great deal more about our reality because the possibilities have been seeded into their genome though mostly in their subconscious until something comes up in their lifetime to re-stimulate it to consciousness. These are primed for the returnee Souls to cohabit with, to use with their agreement and even by their request, to once again take over that physical human body and tame its urges under the hands-on tutelage of the Next Older Member who will come public at their assigned time to fulfill prophecy, what was called, blowing their trumpet on the temple mount, that the Jews expected of the returning Messiah but that they missed because though it may have been literal (Jesus may have blown a horn at some point in Jerusalem) it was a stretch most could not make to consider him the one they were looking for as he didn't abide exactly by all the Mosaic laws in the ways they thought he must and he wasn't doing anything to help them in Roman suppression of their people.

Thus seekers can then become believers if when they see/hear/read about someone saying they have come from the heavens, aka outer space, the literal heavens, they will not disqualify the possibility but will investigate and see what else they said. If they say they are here to fulfill prophecy then find out which prophecies and see if any of it makes sense. Plus pay particular attention of they use terminology you've not heard before or not in the context they are using it another big sign they are different from most if not all others. If what they say amounts to more reality and less mysticism, less supernatural depictions, you may actually be witness to the real deal as opposed to the many frauds.

Non-believers who are not really seeking, observing, watching for anything new, while open to fully investigating that which comes to their attention regardless of what others say about it, when it catches their eye/ear, even willing to change their life direction when they recognize their ideal in some fashion, can often miss the truth when it's right before them, even entirely. It's largely because they don't have enough of that genetic seed of recognition that there is anything to seek beyond a better human life which is what these seekers are no longer satisfied with. Of course seekers often end up getting comfortable and caught up in this or that pursuit that becomes successful enough to become like glue to keep them human as they will have a hard time getting rid of everything they value most, like the rich man that chose not to go with Jesus to literally follow him as required because he didn't want to give his riches to the poor, as Jesus suggested, IF he wanted to be in his crew and receive the gift of eternal life. This eternal life is actually a physical and mental/spiritual condition, similar in that way the human environment is both physical and mental/spiritual. (Spiritual is that which is pertaining to the unseen Soul, but in the last trimester this has become broadened to mean just about anything but the actual reality of the Kingdom of God/Heaven and it's Soul garden growing program). It's thought of as self improvement and practices with a sense of inner peace and satisfaction with one's life, often thinking that will draw more of the same to them (and it may in fact do that) but inner peace is yes, a way of life for the Kingdom of God. All it's members have a type of inner peace knowing who and to what they are connected to, but it would also be their nature to not be satisfied with their station, not as a way of increasing their self value but in giving thanks and participating in tasks that can help future missions.

Evidence for the approximate number of Souls to be expected in the first and second harvests:

Mat 20:16 So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen.

There appears to be a type of doubling with at least the second and third trimesters, pertaining to the number of Souls who are included in the first and second harvests.

For instance during the first trimester there were 70 elders, (that may or may not have included Aaron, Miriam and Joshua:

Exo 1:5 And all the souls that came out of the loins of Jacob were seventy souls: for Joseph was in Egypt already.

Exo 24:1 And he said unto Moses, Come up unto the LORD, thou, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel; and worship ye afar off.

Num 11:16 And the LORD said unto Moses, Gather unto me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom thou knowest to be the elders of the people, and officers over them; and bring them unto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they may stand there with thee.

Num 11:17 And I will come down and talk with thee there: and I will take of the spirit which is upon thee, and will put it upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with thee, that thou bear it not thyself alone.

Num 11:24 And Moses went out, and told the people the words of the LORD, and gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them round about the tabernacle.

Num 11:25 And the LORD came down in a cloud, and spake unto him, and took of the spirit that was upon him, and gave it unto the seventy elders: and it came to pass, that, when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied, and did not cease.

During the second trimester headed by The Father with Jesus incarnate, there were 70 “others” appointed. It would seem these are in addition to the initial 12 thus 82:

Luke 10:1 After these things the LORD appointed other ((2087 heteros= another, else, next, some)) seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.

Luke 10:17 And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.

This looks very much like a plan as Jesus was clear that he literally prepared a place for each of his 12 disciples. I don't think these numbers come out of thin air. Given my experience with Ti and Do I would guess that planting Soul seeds may be a measured task as there is a literal type of “tag” provided certain human vehicles who are determined to be ready to be a match for the incoming Souls (that are without physical bodies, having “died in Christ, previous to then).

I don't know if it's how many will make it to graduation. It's however guaranteed that those who don't go against the Kingdom of God/Heaven through rebelliousness against the teachings of any incarnate representative will be given continuous opportunities to make it to graduation though for those that fail at any point along the way, as depicted as “fallen angels” it becomes harder to regain old ground in which to then move a step further.

This is a natural ramification to having failed, but the key is to keep looking to the Kingdom of God/Heaven, asking for their help and for the lesson opportunities that will also be within the provision of service to the Older Members.

Part of the main point being made here is in how the Kingdom of God/Heaven programs have small numbers of participants. It is not like a religion or cult or spiritual or secular group/organization that thrives on the more participants the better, for both that sense of manpower, comradery and financial support.

In the third trimester, the time of the Two Witnesses (Father and Son) both incarnate there was the indication of 42 who are on “foot” on the grounds of the holy city:

Rev 11:2 But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months ((3376 men= new moon or 3303 and 3375 men= truly, certainly, surely, indeed)).

I figured rather than assume there would be two time periods that were more or less the same time period one spoken about as 1260 days and the other as 42 months which would also equal 1260 days in the Israeli way of counting dates of 30 days per month, it became apparent that the Hebrew word, “men” has three listings in Strongs. This gave rise to the idea that different ways of expressing it allowed for expressing two perspectives. In Rev 11:2 it seems like a way to say there are 42 who are truly, certainly, surely committed/affirmed.

Then in one of the last things he was recorded as having instructed, he says to take the information everywhere:

Act 1:7 And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

Act 1:8 But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

II.B.2. JESUS SAYS, “WHERE THE BODY IS THE EAGLES WILL BE GATHERED” - THE GEOGRAPHY OF THE TEMPLE AND

ALTAR WHERE THE KINGDOM OF GOD/HEAVEN REPRESENTATIVES COME TO IN THE NEXT AGE

Luk 17:37 And they answered and said unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Wheresoever the body ((4983 soma= body, slave)) is, thither will ((4863 sunago= to lead together, assemble, accompany)) the eagles be gathered together ((sunago)).

“They” in Luke's verse is referring to Jesus disciples who he was responding to about the time of his kingdom's return. Although there is a contradiction in what this verses depicts as it's also reported as:

Mat 24:28 For wheresoever the carcase ((4430 ptoma= a ruin from alternate of pipto 4098= to fall (down), fail, light on)) is, there will ((4863 sunago= to lead together, assemble, accompany)) the eagles ((105 aetos from same as aer= airers (referencing W&H Greek New Testament (Literal English, 2009))), akin to petomai 4072 through the idea of alighting; to fall (literally or as a figure) or fliers (from)) be (gathered) together ((sunago)).

By wording this as “ruined or fallen,” or even “body” leaves the option open to seeing this in accordance with whatever takes place with the Two Witnesses as they are either subdued and killed or subdued and they exit their vehicles by themselves as is shown in the Two Witnesses section dealing with verse Rev 11:7-8. Translating ptoma to “corpse” is quite the long shot as this was meant to be figurative for a reason as it's talking about the future so has some flexibility built in through it's terminology. Not being absolutely reflective of the literal death by murder as the translators chose to depict, perhaps not knowing any better, allows for the humans response to the Next Level representatives on the ground incarnate.

Here's an example of how it could have worked. Even if humans had chosen to kill the Two Witnesses so their “dead bodies” (ptoma) lay in the street literally, these verses can be referring to that event saying where that event takes place is where Jesus' kingdom has and/or will return to. I say “will” return to because it is still possible the literal one our records show as Jesus, since he took his changed over physical body with him could return with that same body and that doesn't negate the task of the Two Witnesses to provide the 6th closeness after Adam, Enoch, Moses, Elijah and Jesus, to reap the first fruit harvest and leaving Jesus to meet them in the air, in the cloaked spacecraft, that is if they have exited their vehicles so ascended with their “larva” condition invisible Soul body. Then these Two and the first fruits would by exiting in a secretive way would ushers in the Seventh closeness that includes Jesus in his vehicle that is “dipped in blood” as depicted in Rev 19.

Now if the Two are not killed but are subdued/overcome as verse Rev 11:7 states then “fallen” or “ruin” works perfectly as well. Then they leave by exiting their vehicles by their own hand or in the case of Ti because she chose to fulfill her task of leading the entire operation that included a constant barrage of negative thoughts against her that she had to fight off, that took their toll and resulted in Cancer of her eye. Remember how Jesus said the eye was the lamp of the body. It's a two way lamp as Jesus also indicates it's the way your entire body can become filled with light - the meaning of enlightenment and having become a Christ - anointed with oil, the fuel that when exhausted (burned) produces light for others. For Do and the remaining graduate student body, after the Two are subdued, a short time later 3 1/2 days, a Next Level short time in this case of about 22 human years, they exit by dying by themselves, of their own doing even more literally than in Ti's case.

Next the “eagles” who are additional “players” to those who have “been ruined, fallen (subdued)” represent all “airers” or “air fliers” - UFO's, but it really seems is referring to the promised return of the “unjust” who are linked in history to Rome, the Eagle, which carried forth into the Holy Roman Empire that became Germany and Hitler's effort to take over the planet or at least 1/3 of it. I don't think it's an accident that the swastika was an ancient Tibetan symbol that was seen on UFO's according to several UFO sightings to include Admiral Byrd in either the Arctic or Antarctic. Plus we see the Raelians using that symbol now and they are originally French which is mostly a secular anti religion country where the secular humanists are about ready to start a civil war to get rid of anyone and everyone that believes in Mohammad. Anyway that's for later, but the Eagle became the American symbol as the same Luciferian space alien fallen angel led human offspring who were behind the joint operations of Jewish and Roman's against the new Jesus believers are back by the continuation of their thought processes and their genes coded with various beliefs and non-beliefs as we all have in degrees to deal with.

And Eagles also includes Next Level crews who are also “air fliers” and are depicted as great birds in the way they care for their young, illustrated by “taking them under their wings.” This viewpoint is spoken of among Old Testament prophets and in Revelations 12 related to the “woman” who Do said was depicting Ti.

Yet another view to this verse interpretation that can demonstrate the location for the Kingdom of God/Heaven's RETURN has to do with the method the Kingdom of God/Heaven membership used to come to Earth from their former abodes on spacecrafts (translated to mansions by most Bible translators). It took time for Do to fully recognize this but realized that method was through volunteering to crash some of their more primitive spacecrafts on U.S. soil that was also a flesh sacrifice on the “altar” where the crashes occurred, which is also the ALTAR where they later “laid down the lives” - the human vehicles they became incarnate into. These were the crashes known as Roswell, New Mexico and Aztec, New Mexico and near Laredo, Texas on the Mexico border and Paradise Valley, Arizona all in the late 1940's and early 1950's and possibly Aurora, Texas in 1897 one of two crashes with only one body found that I suspect was Do's arrival as coming as the “bright morning star” (Aurora means the light/star's rising at “dawn”). The eagles as the U.S. government are those that swooped down upon all those crashes and confiscated the “carcasses.”

But then in Luke's chapter 21:6 Jesus addresses the question of when/how the temple they were talking about would be “thrown down.” (Luk 21:5-6)

He says “many” will come saying “I am” - inferring the RETURN. (Luk 21:8) No where has this happened more than in the United States.

He says they will be persecuted and betrayed by relatives and friends and some put to death and hated because of him. Since he is talking about the time when the temple is thrown down but relative to the end times (the temple was thrown down to some degree several times during various wars in the Middle East after Jesus left), this makes most sense occurring during the Great Tribulation because it is then that the 2nd Harvest of Souls takes place, compared to being put in a winepress that causes a great deal of bloodshed that lines up with the Rev 6 green/pale horse of the so called apocalypse. It's possible he diverted to talking about what would happen to his immediate disciples. And yet a third option is that these sayings will apply to both times.

Thus, the Kingdom of God/Heaven crew is not to mete out/provide a measuring criteria, what he is given to those in the court which is outside what will be the new Temple area as there is a new Holy city, City of Jerusalem. The city is the United States and since Ti and Do both began the public part of their task in Los Angeles area, the “city of God's messengers (angels)” and ended their task in the same general vicinity in coastal southern California in Rancho Sante Fe with their even bigger exit by laying down their physical human bodies, as most had prepared to do for many years and a few for about three years and one for about one year as the Heaven's Gate group I feel confident to say that Southern California but actually the southwest was the altar, where the Temple was west of the Mississippi River and the court is east of the Mississippi and some other countries to include at least, England, Scotland, Canada, Australia and New Zealand.

II.B.3. WHERE THE TWO WITNESSES COME INCARNATE INDICATES THE GEOGRAPHIC AREA ALSO DESCRIBED AS NON-PHYSICALLY; SODOM, EGYPT AND WHERE THE LORD WAS CRUCIFIED

The primary depiction of where the Kingdom of God/Heaven comes to is found in the location where the Two Witnesses come public, are subdued and eventually “exit by dying themselves.” The section on the Two Witnesses will more thoroughly show all the details in the re-translation and re-interpretation that describes the “subduing aka being overcome” stage in 1975 and their exit by their own hands in 1997. For this section on WHERE the Kingdom actually comes to upon their return, I have just focused on Rev 11:8's naming of actual geographic locations in the Middle East that are being compared with the NEW area. This is why the prophecy states that this new area will be the “spiritual, mystical, figurative, prophetic, symbolic” Sodom, Egypt and where the Lord was crucified - Jerusalem (wherever they choose to exit their incarnations from as Jesus chose) as they will be locations that are equivalent. They even have their equivalency in terms of their geography and the new leaves on the genetic human tree branch of the people in those areas then and perhaps along with the discarnate Spirits of it's people all brought with any Souls to the new land in the new time.

In short the evidence suggests the symbolic Sodom as Las Vegas, Nevada, the “burnt, desert area” where Ti and Do were when they were “subdued” by the BEAST's mouthpiece in the National Media in 1975. Egypt the Two Straights/Streets (paths/ways - FIRST and LAST) to Next Level membership and shown by the documentation of Egyptians in America, where a link is provided in the Appendix. Regarding the location where the Lord was impaled (crucified) - as Jerusalem, generally West of the Mississippi River to the Southwest California coastal vicinity where the Two Witnesses (Bo and Peep) gather students in N. Hollywood, Los Angeles - City of Angels.

II.B.4. THE GREAT CITY IS THE WOMAN NAMED AMERICA WITH IT'S PRINCIPAL TWO CAPITALS IN THE WOMAN NAMED LADY LIBERTY REPRESENTING NEW YORK CITY AND IT'S UNITED NATIONS NEW AGE ORDER AND WASHINGTON D.C. (DISTRICT OF (LADY) COLUMBIA). MYSTERY BABYLON IS THE U.S. SECRET GOVT DESCRIBED AS THE "BEAST" THAT CAME ABOUT FROM THE TEMPORARY RELEASE OF THE LUCIFERIAN SPACE ALIENS FROM THEIR "BOTTOMLESS PIT" PRISON. THE SOUTHWEST U.S. LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA VICINITY IS THE NEW NON-PHYSICAL (SPIRITUAL) JERUSALEM

- great city - In this Revelations context this is used to describe the geographical area and people (nation - because a city is nothing without people in it) where the Next Level primarily focuses their "third trimester experiential overcoming of humanness classroom" which is related to the equivalent area in times past where the first and second trimester lesson plans were staged - where the Older Members and Student Crew Members spoke to the public and were killed because of - namely Jerusalem and the province of Judea and vicinity in the Middle East, but at this time was moved to the southwestern United States mainland. So Texas is like Bethlehem and Los Angeles and vicinity is like Jerusalem with Las Vegas like Sodom. One primary example that shows this refers to Jerusalem having a new name:

Rev 3:12 Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new ((2537 kainos= +recently made, fresh, unworn, unheard, uncommon)) Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.

Another primary example of this describes the “non-physical, symbolic” areas of Sodom, Egypt and seemingly Jerusalem:

Rev 11:8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually ((non-physical, spiritual, mystical, figurative, prophetic, symbolic)) is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.

Note the examples are of a city known to be a place the Next Level destroyed because of their lack of paying attention to God's laws - called Sodom. And note it is also listing Egypt a much broader geographical area considered to be a “nation” and finally indicating the geographical area where a “supreme being was killed in such a way as to cause intense pain” (crucified), which seems directly applied to what Jesus experienced in the city Jerusalem.

From the history of Ti and Do, the Las Vegas, Nevada area would be a very clear prospective new rise of the Middle Eastern Sodom which means, “scorched or burnt district” and was a city near the Dead sea aka the Salt sea that is known for various human disregard for the laws of the Kingdom of God, though not necessarily much different from other cities in that way, as the entire planet is saturated with Luciferian misinformation and worship of inanimate objects - wealth, unbridled sensuality, etc. This is also where Ti and Do were when the U.S. BEAST (Secret Govt Mystery Babylon) national media “shot down” (subdued) the reputations of their physical vehicles they were incarnate in.

Also relative to the size of the area Las Vegas is situated between Utah's Great Salt Lake and California's now shrinking Salton Sea which I mention because the Middle Eastern Sodom was very near or in the Dead/Salt Sea and of course that is certainly a scorched burnt district overall. The Salton Sea even has volcanic mud pits that bubble up to it's surface because of the internal gases that are escaping.

Since Ti and Do were in Las Vegas, at the time when the National press stories broke and weeks later revealed their human identities to solve the mystery of who these Two were that caused dozens to leave all behind to follow with them to go to heaven on a UFO, while saying Do was a felon - accused to be a thief from a misunderstanding he ended up coping a plea to, because of how long it took to bring the case to the judge (6 months) so that if he pleaded guilty he would get out of jail with time served, which was after the rental car company dropped their charges against him, they felt “shot down by the press” and who can deny that on some level Las Vegas on some level may have been the modern day equivalent of Sodom.

Ti and Do said they were hold up in a Las Vegas hotel for 3 days feeling “their mission was dead,” they said but then felt compelled to press on to tell their students this seemed to be their being “shot down” as opposed to their being “killed” as most translations worded the fate of the Two Witnesses. At the time Ti and Do never indicated they knew the more accurate translation of the Greek, “apokteino auto” was “separate/exit, go away from by dying themselves,” (as opposed to someone else being responsible for the death of their vehicles as they first thought. Their changing the view seemed to become a filter of serious believers, to tell their students THE DEMONSTRATION (rise from dead as Jesus did) was canceled and can be seen as a strategy that those who could be in the LAST Harvest would not equate with the Two Witnesses because they would not have been ready to go the full distance to graduation and would have required that much more filtering. (I believe Ti and Do once indicated they couldn't imagine having a bigger class. They told us that every night Do would spend hours seeking his Older Members help with the progress of each student - how to help them grow their fastest. We were encouraged and even infrequently required to have regular communication with them through notes.

The next major clue to the location of the area most intended to be described by “great city” is described as “Egypt.” Egypt at the time of the Revelations writer was a province of the Roman Empire but is actually considered to be the first civilization or perhaps the remnant of the previous civilization on earth who are thought to be Assur, the ones referred to as “giants” - Nephilim in Genesis chapter 6.

It's interesting that the Egyptians were considered to be a white race as opposed to the Adamic (ruddy/red - blood in face race). Egypt is also defined in the name etymology as the “border” and/or “frontier.” The primary defining characteristic of a “city” is a bordered area and the western U.S. was considered by the original U.S. 13 Colonies as the “frontier” and that many ventured to the west in search of opportunity, even wealth in gold. Egypt as a country name is considered to be “black ground/soil because of it's very fertile soil along the Nile River. We know that California is considered to have some of the most fertile land in the U.S. Egypt also means, “home of the Ka (life-force and Soul (ba)) of Ptah” and the religion of ancient Egypt that is very much what is New age spirituality today where even the Space Aliens have become thought of as the “gods” and the “trinity” of the Catholics with the practice of “burial” - a distortion of the prospect of resurrection from the dead and obtaining the afterlife which is considered to be a spiritual realm only. Today religions evidence the same distortions to keep people from seeing the fact that the Creators are Living Beings who have overcome their humanness and are thus evolved above the human condition and are members of a kingdom and that their LIFE is a physical life. Even the Soul is a physical container that grows to be a bigger and more dense new creature that can alter it's vibration and that of whatever physical suit (denser body) They wear. I'm only describing this because of how apparent it is how Egypt is depicting the overall distortion of the Next Level's reality that has been evidenced in no place on the earth more than in the southwest and western U.S.

Finally, “great city” is described as being where the Lord was crucified which we know was Jerusalem but again in this end time the non-physical, symbolic Jerusalem, thus the vicinity where Ti and Do held their first meetings in the North Hollywood part of Los Angeles (city of God's angels) and where Do as the one who served as the Lamb with his 38 students exited from Rancho Sante Fe, near Escondido, California. Related to the FIRST and the LAST harvest periods during the 2nd 9 month period of holding public meetings, Do's students held meetings throughout California and it's possible that some of those new students would be among those Do said would have to return to complete their overcoming, but scripture seems to indicate they will be granted new physical bodies later, having been promised them for their self sacrifice, as shown in Rev 6:9-11's fifth seal opening/affirmation period.

Then 22 years later a short hop south of Los Angeles was where Do and crew exited their incarnations on March 21-23, 1997 while in Rancho Sante Fe, near Escondido. Going public was taking a “stand” which Ti and Do first both did in Houston, Texas, the middle or far side of the “great city” area.

The term “great city” also applies to where the Two Witnesses are “subdued” (aka overcome).

In Rev 11 since it depicts the “spiritual” (non-physical, mystical, symbolic, prophetic) Sodom, Egypt and WHERE LORD WAS CRUCIFIED (Jerusalem) as a parched area, the same kind of definition for Zion that has so many related names throughout Utah and became the home to perhaps one the biggest modern and most direct anti-Christ organizations, The Church of Jesus Christ's Latter Day Saints (LDS), aka Mormons, who had their counterfeit Two Witnesses visions given to Joseph Smith on March 26, 1820 in Manchester, NY which is above the finger lakes region of northern NY state.

Joseph Smith had subsequent visions of an entity named Moroni (where Morman comes from) when he was shown the whereabouts of “gold tablets” with Egyptian, Assyrian Chaldiac writing on them that Oliver Cowdery, who also experienced the entity in a later vision once, helped him to write down as he translated them using two stones also found with the tablets he called the Urim and Thumin. His translation was later compared with Egyptian language scholars who it was said verified Joseph Smith's supernatural translation ability and it became known as the Book of Mormon.

There are many indications in Joseph's depiction of his visions that sound like Paul of Tarsus vision and Joseph even compares them and they all sound so much alike to current space alien contactee and abductee reports. Somehow the LDS church came away from Joseph's first vision saying the two beings had “glorified bodies of flesh and bone; that mankind was literally created in the image of God.” However, Joseph describes Moroni as wearing a long bright white robe with no shoes and some exposure of leg above ankles and exposure of hands with some arm above wrists and the robe being open in the chest area so that the bosom was exposed. He says when the Two first came one pointed to the other and said this was my beloved son whom I am well pleased, seemingly exactly what a voice came from heaven to say about the incarnate Jesus. None of this matches the Two Witnesses description as coming in sackcloth. Also, they don't say anything with any new “plain” terms as Jesus said he would say upon return instead of talking in parables. Joseph says they said a lot of things he couldn't repeat for some reason nor wrote down and if anyone reads the Book of Mormon, it reads much in the same way that the Bible reads with a great deal of mostly Old Testament references so no new information as Jesus said his disciples couldn't bear at the time and no talk of overcoming the world as Jesus repeated in Revelations as the criteria to become a member in the Kingdom of Heaven.

This was clearly a Luciferian space alien attempt to supplant the Two Witnesses task, mimicking Bible prophecy in some limited ways. Moroni even quotes Malachi exactly but changes the order of verses as an attempt to steal souls planted by the Next Level. Some are stolen but they have a fair chance. This is depicted by Jesus in the Parable of the Tares in how the “birds” eat some of the spread seed. Birds in prophecy are space aliens of which all are Luciferian in their origin whether they know it or not. (Rael apparently met ones who said their names were Lucifer and Satan, perhaps pulling his leg). In any case, to them Lucifer wouldn't be associated with being a devil, except perhaps in how they might see a rebel against the Next Level as a justified devil (deceiver) or Satan (adversary). As Ti and Do said about Lucifer, he has a beautiful name as “light bearer” and was a student member of the Next Level who Ti said, the “Chief” still loves. However I believe they also said Lucifer can no longer change his behavior and ways so must be recycled shortly after the Next Level has made use of his own choices, to help upcoming students get on firmer ground than he was on, to take up membership in the Next Level - the purpose of the “garden” experiment.

The Heaven here sounds like the local “heaven” as opposed to the highest heaven of heavens in deep outer space as it's related to being separated in such a way that causes all manner of islands to be moved as these mountains and islands seem to be literal as is the heaven.

Ti and Do spoke about the possibility that the Next Level could have a spacecraft literally on top of wherever we lived, occupying the same space even to where Members of the Next Level could be among us and how they are physical beings but are not visible to humans unless the humans have raised (changed over) their vibrations through the present Older Member's (Ti and Do's) instruction, to literally SEE more. They said the members of the Next Level were physical so that if they allowed us to touch them we could feel something, (what I imagined might be kin to what Jesus said about the “spirit birth” being compared to the wind in how one could feel it so knew it was substantive, much different from discarnate spirits who are etheric and are not felt nor seen). One might play this out to wonder about ghost sightings since sometimes they are reported as seen. I suspect these are either the Luciferian space alien “souls” as souls may have a degree of that physicality, I suppose if they had grown to have received the type of “container” that would be to a degree more physical and/or tricks like Ti and Do spoke about - as They exemplified in the reported Fatima sightings of what was described by a group of Portuguese children as the “blessed virgin mary” suspended in the air surrounded by bright light appearing to them at least on three occasions and delivering messages, they called “secrets.” Do later referred to the Luciferian space alien souls as having the capacity to generate “holograms.”

With that in mind and considering there is to be a “new heaven and a new earth” in Rev 21, this could represent the removal of the heaven part and the start of the recycling to arrive at a new surface for the earth or part of it.

The timing of this event of this “heavenly spacecraft's” separation seems to be indicated at such a time when THE BOOKS ARE COMBINED - wrapped together which sounds like it's depicting the part of the book that is WRITTEN FROM WITHIN with it's BACKSIDE as first shown to exist in Rev 5:1 and Rev 10's “Little Book” that further indicates two separate books of the WITHIN and BACKSIDE that only come to the fore during the time of the 7th Angels Trumpet sounding, which is in progress. But how would these two books be combined, wrapped or coiled together which is done with this “little book” that seeks to reveal all things Ti and Do expressed but with a focus on prophecy fulfillment the book written from within the group didn't do. Some students wrote about things biblical but not as any proof of prophecy fulfillments.

The name of the “written from within (throne) book” is: 'How and When “Heaven's Gate” (The Door to the Physical Kingdom Level Above Human) May Be Entered,' (Purple Book).

It seems part of what may stimulate these physical recycling/spading events may be the coming closer of the spacecraft called the New Jerusalem that is described as about 1363 miles square as depicted as the “ark of his testament” (Do testified to this in several ways knowing that Ti's craft and crew was drawing closer and in his description of the possibility of an “Armada” of spacecrafts populating the visible heavens within eye-shot of all on earth. Note, he did say that as a “possibility” showing his recognition that even if it was a certainty, he didn't have instruction from Ti to express it as a certainty as otherwise he would have corrected himself right when he said it or in a subsequent Beyond Human video session, as he always went over in him mind everything he said. That was actually a procedure we had - that each night before falling asleep we were to “go over our day” - seeking to understand what we said or did that could have been said or done in a way more to the behavior and ways and accuracy of our Older Member's Mind. Maybe that finale event wasn't yet decided by Ti yet or wasn't to be expressed as a certainty yet or for whatever reason, but for us is our best shot as a clue to it's manifestation even as a mere possibility.

In any case this event of seeing the “ark of his testament” seems to take place after the “temple of God was opened,” which seems to have multiple stages of application. This prophecy was provided by Ti and Do before they came incarnate so are the same ones fulfilling the prophecy. The provision of prophecy interpretation using their testimony is always going to be the most accurate prophecy interpretation.

All others will be false prophets because even if they are accurate in quoting scripture and saying the Kingdom of God and Jesus are coming, even saying it's the New Jerusalem spacecraft and they have had the chance to look into how Ti and Do fulfill all the Jesus prophecies ignoring Ti and Do as the most current Representatives as the return of the Father and Jesus as prophesied is tantamount to the way the Jews even to date ignored Jesus as the expected Messiah despite the great deal of evidence. This is why even those who talk about Jesus as Lord at this time would not qualify as true prophets (speakers of the truth) because of their ignoring of Ti and Do who embodied the same “song of Jesus” and “song of Moses,” so if one didn't recognize the same “lyrics” to that song, the same Mind, the same INFORMATION of what it takes to apply for membership in the Next Level to include their behaviors and ways according to Ti and Do's teachings, then they never were actually acting on behalf of the real Jesus even though they can appear to - like the “wolf in sheep's clothing” having then become the manifestation of a “false Christ-ian” - the look alike wheat Jesus called “tares” planted by the Luciferian Space Alien fallen Souls.

Rev 11:19 And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail.

-Saying the “Temple of God was opened” sounds like the re-opening of the “HOLY CITY” (Temple) OPENING (The Heaven's Gate) we saw FIRST OPENED when Do and the 38+4 graduate souls ASCENDED after leaving their human bodies in March of 1997. This “holy city” - on the earth is referred to as the Temple. It's counterpart is the New Jerusalem (holy city). This is shown to be the case in:

Rev 11:1 And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

Rev 11:2 But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months.

Saying “they tread under foot” refers to those who “worship therein,” where worship according to Do meant, “work for,” in other words being of service to the Older Members they returned with (Two Witnesses and Saints) (Ti and Do and Crew) from having been with them, the Father (in the holy city then or on another spacecraft then) and the one incarnate in the name of Jesus. The idea they are “under” and “on foot” both indicate they are on earth literally beneath the hovering “holy city” and incarnate (on foot) using their human physical bodies as their “footstool” to “overcome it's humanness” through, in order to qualify to graduate the human evolutionary kingdom.

Note the “court” is left out. At that time up to and during the time of the Two Witnesses prophecy period and the period when the Saints come public in the 1990's are all under the FIRST period of time the HEAVENS GATE is opened. Thus the time period when the “gate” is opened again as shown in the consolidated event schedule of Rev 11:19 might be thought of as the time for the “court” stage of opening applying to those who are the “remaining” as shown in Rev 13 and whose harvest period is described as having it's main fruition during the 5th Seal's opening when some loose their human lives STANDING FOR GOD AND THE LAMB.

Note when an “and” is used in between events depending on whether each side of the “and” has it's own subject and verb, usually implies some years in duration between events because in the Next Level comparison of time to earth/human time about 2 years passes and is like 3 minutes to the Next Level. (It's similar to the way we talk about a dogs life being 7 years to every human year, comparing life spans. Except it's even more different than that because Next Level members no longer have a life span. (I don't know if their vehicles wear out but I do know they can outgrow a vehicle or change vehicles or even have more than one vehicle they operate, if they have grown to be as big/dense a Mind as Ti, according to Do).

-Then “seen in his temple the ark of his testament” could have been first demonstrated by the Next Level to us by these objects over the Sun on July 21, 2014 as shown in this video by a YouTube.com channel (I have no affiliation with) but like the way the one who has the channel, by the name of Jesse keeps up with the events witnessed by SOHO and other space telescopes and has software to dissect images. Here is one:

Two huge glowing (brilliant/glorious) objects over the Sun. In this video he doesn't start talking and scrolling up to show these two objects until the 1 minute mark and the object to the “right hand side” of T shaped object (no kidding) is only barely visible:

Huge Exceedingly Bright T shaped object on top of the Sun interfacing with it and another object near

http://youtu.be/FWf\_m9AhOdQ?list=UUxz5R9YQMRW5QqElbAlMqRw

Incidentally, fairly quickly after this began, NASA turned off the internet feed from the SOHO satellite telescope's camera pointing at the Sun, but not until a number of people who watch that camera had captured the footage and it made it's way to a YouTube.com channel called “bpearthwatch.” He says in the video he measured it, as he has all sorts of software, and it's the size of 109 earths from side to side of the top of it's T. It's a fat T that looks like a typical flying saucer inverted so the round part is the stalk of the upside down T. And it's pure white which is not what the Sun directly beneath it looks like. And it's centered on the top of the sun almost as if it was the Head and the Sun was the body which brings me back to:

Rev 12:1 And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:

The Woman (Ti) is described as “clothed with the sun” - in Next Level-ese that would be a way of saying Ti's light body was “wearing the sun,” had the Sun “wrapped around her.” And considering to it's “right hand side” is another huge object that we can't quite see the shape of but is comparable in size it seems, so to my way of thinking these are Ti and Do's spacecrafts or are put on the display so we could be alerted to how prophecy is being fulfilled. If you have read the analysis of Rev 12 in various places in this book then you will see the large amount of evidence that Ti was the One called the Father returned incarnate.

Plus describing the object as an “ark” is relative to it being a spacecraft that is going to “save” all the souls They deem still “alive” in their terms, meaning can be replanted brought back to have a new interface with a human vehicle they can choose to awaken at the time of the next incarnate Older Member so they can have a chance to become a Member of the Next Evolutionary Kingdom Level for new life experience on spacecrafts operating in crews of like minded people using physical vehicles grown specifically for their operation to serve in the furthering of planetary “garden” design.

Here is another depiction of the “great city,” the large high, mighty, strong battleground for the battle of Armageddon compared to a “woman” but defined in the prophecy throughout Rev 17 but ending as:

Rev 17:18 And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

The United States of AMERICA is the only empire reigning over ALL the kings on Earth, at least during the current civilization that we can see records of. That's not to say there aren't formidable rivals, like China and Russia, but the dollar has been the measure most if not all currencies measure against, and the U.S. has the most global reach with well over 200 military bases throughout the world and great influence most everywhere. Now this is changing into more of a global conglomerate, especially since the first fall with the 9-11 attack response and the second fall in the 2008 financial crises, both of which continue to reverberate.

Rev 17:1 And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters:

Rev 17:2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

Waters are people. The Kings of the Earth are all those who head the Earth's nations. Fornication in this context has to do with what it's leaders and people idolize - what are the FALSE GODS many "WORK FOR" (WORSHIP) regardless of what they say or the religions, spirituality, humanitarian, environmentalism they embrace.

Until now, all the beliefs and altruistic, philanthropic, charitable efforts could be seen by the Kingdom of God/Heaven as showing love in the giving but after the Two Witnesses, the Father and Son have been incarnate and each hears about them, the choice narrows down to showing our allegiance to them and their priorities or to their opposition who put humanism on the godly pedestal. That pedestal Jesus referred to as one's "master" includes all that humans consider to be their treasure, what Jesus called "mammon," be it, wealth in all forms; gold, money, jewels, art, intellect, scientific and technological achievements, religious and spiritual heightening of self, humanitarianism, environmentalism, socialism, etc.

Allegiance has to do with who we want to serve or better yet "work for" which is what Do said was the real meaning of "worship." Some say they work for their government, family, business, fellow man, for the earth and/or God, which are all of value as stepping stones until the time is here to decide whether to put one to the top of the list, frankly, those Beings who created it all, evolution, spirit, big bangs, the genetic code, particle physics, etc. For those reading this and hear about Ti and Do it's them we need to show our support to or not, so they can decide which "souls" to "save" for a future "classroom." Otherwise it's like the greatest professor in the world, who volumes of text books and journals and articles have been written about and awarded prizes for their achievement, walks into the room and doesn't seem to measure up in what he says now so we'd rather stick to what the books say about him before, when it's time to advance to the next grade in school to hear the new lesson step that was built by all the previous steps. Some keep up with the previous lesson steps and that's great but if they kept up with the ALL the steps given, at least understanding them then they would be among the ones who could SEE what Ti and Do bring as the fulfillment of their own next best step.

Ti and Do said that the Next Level creators didn't design the human kingdom as an evolutionary level for it's members to arrive at and become satisfied with, make into a “heaven on earth,” actually an oxymoron. They designed the human kingdom and the planets that serve for human development as a temporary environment pertaining to the potential future life of a Soul in their real physical Evolutionary Kingdom Level Above Human.

Ti and Do said on this garden life didn't come up from the equivalent of a “spec of dirt.” On some gardens it can start with that kind of beginning, just not on earth, though they said it wouldn't be a “spec of dirt” but some equivalency they didn't elaborate about when they said that.

This will be analyzed further and there is a great deal more evidence that the United States of America is the new Babylonian Empire, with New Amsterdam being it's first capital that became New York City, where the female symbol was used to represent the 13 original colonies; Columbia which is the basis of the District of Columbia (Washington D.C as the current capital city). Columbia was largely replaced as an icon by the Statue of Liberty while both Lady Liberty and Lady Justice remain on the New York flag and seal that matches a number of descriptions in Revelations prophecy. These two symbols have been the original signs of welcome to immigrants from all over the world seeking freedoms and with the United Nations defines the now global scoped “Beast” the U.S. government, it's institutions, corporations, foundations and organizations that most represent the human kingdom on Earth.

II.B.5. WHAT TI AND DO SAID ABOUT HOW AND WHY THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA WAS THE LOCATION FOR THEIR RETURN; WHAT LIFE IN THE NEW GEOGRAPHIC AREA WILL LOOK LIKE - I.E. NO WAR ON THEIR SOIL, GREAT PROSPERITY THAT ALL NATIONS ON EARTH LOOK TO AND PROFIT FROM, PROGRESS AND FREEDOMS IN ALL WAYS; EQUAL RIGHTS FOR RACES (ETHNICITY), WOMEN, BEHAVIORAL CHOICES, TECHNOLOGICAL ADVANCES, MORE FREEDOMS OF EXPRESSION (SPEECH IN RELIGION, POLITICS AND ENTERTAINMENT), SOCIAL ECONOMICS, HEALTH CONSCIOUSNESS, ALL TO PROVIDE A FULL FREE WILL OF CHOICES FOR ALL RETURNING SOULS TO BECOME EXACTLY WHAT THEY WANT TO BECOME, EVEN ALLOWING THEM TO GO AGAINST THE CREATORS OF THEIR ENTIRE REALITY OR

TO GRADUATE INTO THE EVOLUTIONARY LEVEL ABOVE HUMAN, THE KINGDOM OF GOD, KINGDOM OF HEAVEN

Ti and Do said that the entire reason for the development of the United States was to prepare a new location for the Next Level's return. It became the biggest “melting pot” because the “light” (Mind aka Holy Spirit) from the Next Level Older Members and their Crew (Captains (archangels), angels (messengers, watchers, crew members) was being focused on that area of the world that would also draw all the Souls and Spirits who had any relationship with the Next Level in times past. Jesus said this was what had taken place when he came that would also take place again, referring to his/their return. Incidentally Jesus also stated that it was not he alone that would be returning as his Kingdom of God would return.

Joh 5:28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

Joh 5:29 And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

So “resurrection” from Greek 386 anastasis according to the context referred to “rising again” as in taking a new human vehicle. It also simultaneously referred to their potential rising out of the human evolutionary “dead” condition if they are found “worthy” to obtain that everlasting life in the Next Evolutionary Level, the Kingdom of God, Kingdom of Heaven.

This is not reincarnation because the human vehicle itself has it's own spirit/mind, though is a product of it's past experiences genetically stored and passed on, combined with it's current influences throughout that human lifespan. The Next Level chooses which human vehicles to give the opportunity to house a returning Soul who would be potentially completing their metamorphosis into a new being in the Next Level through. A human who recognizes the voice of his Older Member when they come public with their true information is accepting the returning Soul assigned to interface with that human vehicle. The Mind of the human vehicle is like software to the computer hardware. When it receives another software package it is like receiving an upgraded Mind, an upgraded “program” that by enacting becomes a new creature/being - born of Mind/Spirit, the upgraded Next Level (holy Mind/Spirit) program.

Thus one who receives the upgrade is rising to life while all others who reject the upgrade rise to then be recycled, thus death.

The Next Level was building a new location they would be making into the next “overcoming classroom.” It would have to be an environment that provided the most free will of anyplace else, so the returning souls would have the full range of options to become exactly what they wanted to become which would boil down to for or against the Next Level accepting the MARK and allegiance on their mind and body to the Next Level through the most current Older Members or all things human. Thus it would be an area of more tolerance of differences as when the Older Members come public their new information and more plain way of directly talking about the Next Level would be tolerated and not condemned as heresy as it would have been in the old lands. And it would be a location that had much prosperity and peacefulness on it's soil, again to provide the choice to gravitate to settling into the comforts such bring or become an impetus to surface those that are not content with such so keep looking for what more there is, even without knowing exactly what they are looking for. Thus the land becomes a place for all things new and contains all extremes of behaviors and ways.

It's not that it hasn't had it's problems but the Next Level kept it from war on it's mainland during the 20th century which is when they did the larger part of their preparation for their incarnate arrival that was detailed in the Seven Angels with Trumpets. This was done to maintain the freedoms that would facilitate the ability to tell the truth about the Next Level that would gather the new student body for harvest. This is why after the Two Witnesses and crew left, the 9/11 conspiratorial attack was allowed to go as the humans planned it. As a result of the Older Members departure the followup environment has come to be that will serve as the “winepress,” an arena for the Souls that were not ready for the first fruit harvest to have a chance to have their own graduation to their next step in preparedness for a future overcoming classroom with an incarnate Older Member. That winepress is also spoken of as the Battle of Armageddon that comes to a head at the time of the 6th Angel's pouring out of the vial. The vial is a way of depicting the delivery of what Ti and Do called “medicine.” Plagues as a part of increased troubles, as the Next Level's pulling further away by the end of their Older Member and Elder Student incarnations significantly stimulate are gradually delivered starting with Signs in the Sun and Moon and from star-like objects -

Comets, Meteors, Asteroids, fireballs, etc.

II.C. THE RETURN IS FOR THE HARVEST OF SOULS - REV 14. THE KINGDOM OF GOD/HEAVEN'S QUALIFICATIONS TO GRADUATE THE HUMAN KINGDOM FOR THE 144 AND THE MYRIAD OF THOUSANDS. NO STUDENT'S PHYSICAL BODY WILL BE TAKEN AS THE "STALKS" ARE CUT DOWN. THE SONG'S OF MOSES, JESUS AND TI AND DO REFER TO EACH OF A THREE TRIMESTER MIND/SPIRIT AND SOUL BIRTH LESSON PLAN, WHERE THE FRUIT IS THE PRODUCT OF THE KERNEL/SEED OF GRAIN OF WHEAT AKA CORN, GROWN FROM THE HEAD/EAR (BRAIN) IN THE "STANDING UP" (GIVING) OF THE STALK (BODY) IN SERVICE TO THE CURRENT OLDER MEMBER

Ti and Do described the birth of a Soul to next level adult membership as scheduled in "three trimesters" just like the incubation stages for the birth of a baby human.

It was well after I left them and began to reconnect and desire to be in their service again, some three years later that I came upon the analogy of the harvest as the cutting down of the stalk of wheat/corn, (body) with it's Ear (Head) to harvest it's fruit, the Soul container made of the kernels of grain (Mind/Spirit), that also becomes SEED when disseminated to others who are thirsty, all as the basis of bonding/grafting to the Older Member's "holy" Mind/Spirit's Next Level Family (vine).

This analogy seems to correlate very well with Ti and Do's teachings of the three classroom periods during this current civilization, namely the Jehovah/Moses, Father/Jesus and then to date Ti and Do's experiential classrooms that led up to graduation (harvest) in the Spirit/Mind birth of souls as Jesus described.

Here is how Jesus described these three trimesters, as an analogy with plants in the development of the blade, the ear and the full corn/wheat (fruit) from the ear:

Mar 4:26 And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;

Mar 4:27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

Mar 4:28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade ((5528 chortos= a “court” or “garden,” herbage or vegetation: blade, grass, hay)), then the ear ((4719 stachus= a head of grain (standing up, held up, brought out from the stalk))), after that the full ((4134 pleres= replete, complete)) corn ((4621 sitos= (of uncertain derivation); grain, especially wheat)) in the ear.

Mar 4:29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

The preparation is the planting of the initial seed into the Earth. Adam was literally made (not begotten) from the “elements (dust) of the earth” but does not become a Soul until the “breath of life from the Elohim (Lord) is “breathed into his nostrils.” That breath is equivalent to “Spirit” which is synonymous with Mind that's given him as a gift that goes right to his brain as a program that enables him to SEE by and recognize he is a creature created by another Being he recognizes is much greater than he.

So that is the seed going into the ground (Earth) of Mar 4:26. This also begins the “school” as Adam and then when Eve, added as a “help mate” are tested by being subject to a Luciferian fallen angel space alien, who they are influenced by to break their instruction on what was to be food and what was not. Simple instruction but still a major test to follow for them.

Thus there was a need for a “sleep” time to allow a strain of human vehicles that had a portion of Next Level Mind in their consciousness, by what Adam and Eve shared with their offspring that becomes the subconscious mind of their offspring's offspring. Whether Eve mated with her sons or whether there were other human beings available for their sons to mate with or whether Moses who wrote Genesis didn't feel to list their daughters who their sons would have mated with is beside the point. There were other human like beings before then.

Here is the “sixth time period (day - if it was a Kingdom of God/Heaven day it was about 1000 Earth years long)” in progress:

Gen 1:24 And God said, Let the earth bring forth ((3318 yatsa'= bear out, begotten, shoot forth)) the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so.

Note how it states this stage as the “earth” bearing out, shooting forth in accordance with Jesus saying the Earth “bringeth forth fruit of herself” which can also be translated to “automatically” as the Earth's design was as a life producing garden. Before these verses it indicates the “waters” are what bring about “moving creatures.” The Next Level has programmatically developed the entire Eco and bio-systems to do a great deal without their involvement. Ti and Do said the Next Level have spacecraft as big as planets that are hollowed out and contain laboratories pertaining to the Earth development.

Gen 1:26 And God said, Let us make man in our image ((6755/6754= form, shade, likeness, resemblance)), after our likeness ((1823 dmuwth from 'damah' (1819); resemblance; concretely, model, shape as a comparison)): and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

A small adjustment in the translation and an entire new picture emerges. Now Members of the Next Level are not only humanoid shaped but are also CONCRETE and as a particular MODEL of a vehicle that resembles the physical models of vehicle they use.

Gen 1:27 So God created man in his own image ((6755/6754 tselem= form, shade, likeness, resemblance)), in the image ((tselem)) of God created he him; male and female created he them.

Gen 1:28 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

Gen 1:29 And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat.

This is a little different from what anthropologists have been saying about humans, how they were originally hunters and gatherers. There was no hunting spoken of here. They were strictly gatherers like certain other mammals but having a humanoid type of body. Image can also have it's place in this description in the way humans were designed with a “spirit” as well.

Other Hebrew words suggest “shade” is also listed as a “shadow.” A shadow is real but not of much density like discarnates. Ti and Do said if members of the Next Level were outside their physical vehicles they would still have a dense physicality to them. One time Ti and Do said there could be a spacecraft literally occupying the same space around the “house” that we called a “craft,” though cloaked, and Members of the Next Level could be among us to where if they let us, we could touch them and feel something. However, they said these members of the Next Level have instruction to not let us touch them or see them.”

TWO GLOWING WHITE PHOSPHORESCENT HAIRLESS BEINGS ABOUT THE SIZE AND SHAPE OF SIX YEAR OLD BOYS ARE SEEN INSIDE DO AND CREWS “CRAFT” (HOUSE).

One exception to the Next Level Members allowing themselves to be seen occurred in 1995 when the group was living in Tucson, Arizona. It was reported by a student named Neody in the book he wrote after he left the group entitled, “Beyond Human Mind-The Soul Evolution of Heaven's Gate.” He was the last student to leave the group, just two weeks before they laid down their bodies in March of 1997:

He said he had a dream of what looked like two little boys that were about six years old. They were hairless and glowed like white phosphorous that had a blue tint. They were wearing a one piece tight suit so looked like speed skaters. He referred to them as “Next Level Helpers.” They were walking around the beds with his classmates in them. He had the feeling they were checking their soul development and thought some were doing better than others and would look at one another nodding and smiling.

He said the next morning people were grinning and some were whispering with others. Do came over for a meeting and was also smiling more than usual. Do indicated he was pleased with their efforts to raise their vibrations and said three classmates saw these “helpers” from different angles. One was seen standing by someones bunk. Another who had got up to get a drink of water saw them crossing the hallway. Another saw them standing face to face next to her bed. Each described them in the same way. A total of three other classmates including him had dreams of them. When Do was told this he said these three probably saw them but were told to go back to sleep, then seeming like a dream.

He said a couple weeks later Do said he felt these Next Level helpers were seen to show a new student who was having difficulty accepting Do and the concept of the Next Level and the idea of ascension that they exist. That student had left the group about a week after this sighting. Neo recognized that for some even with proof it's hard to believe for some.

== End of Neo's book excerpt ==

Neo also had difficulty accepting Do, writing; 'I went along with the idea and possibility of DO being the "Second Coming" just for learning purposes. I knew that leaving the body behind was not for me but wanted to stay until the end,' and "I do not promote the doctrine of the group" and "I still had no evidence that a spacecraft was picking us up. In the beginning of the group, back in 1976, there was claim that a pick up was going to happen but never did" and "If this guy [Do] was a fraud or had a hidden agenda," and "why was this group supporting me when I am not working to bring in funds?" and "why would He [Do] not ask for money when joining?" and writing, "I'm not starting a cult to kill people" and that he's "against suicide" - as if he was unaware of how Do and Crew wrote being against suicide (though with a Next Level perspective) and there was certainly no one that was killed by anyone else. In 2007 he was quoted to say he had a constant "ticker tape" like information update he thought was from Do that indicated to him, such things as "Revelations was John's wild symbolic dream" (as if there was nothing of value in those writings) and that "9/11 was the start of the War of Armageddon" (when Do said Armageddon was a battle for souls that was in progress while Do was incarnate and I, before 2007, was writing about being the "great shaking (earthquake)" of Rev 11:13, kin to the way Christians are programmed to spin prophecy into their story, of late agreeing with me but then saying the 1st Seal opening by the White Horse, before 9/11 was Lucifer) and that the "Judgment" was more of a "qualification" (that implies no anger and reckoning for Souls and Spirits who go against the Next Level) and that the "cleansing" was "what some call global warming" that "we whom physically survive" (perhaps including Mrc/Srf) can "sew seeds of Truth, Goodness, Love, Understanding and Creativity for the next Civilization," a new age spiritual slant, a twist and dilution/distortion of Ti and Do's teachings just like Paul began after Jesus exit. (More on this in the Appendix "thefanzine.com" link).

But Neo's description of these two Beings was interesting compared to a number of accounts of TWO showing up at different times with similar description when Mary Magdalene, Joanna and Mary the mother of James and other women went to the sepulcher and found the stone rolled back.

Luk 24:3 And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.
Luk 24:4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining ((797 astrapto= to lighten, of dazzling objects, rooted in the Greek word aster translated to a star, thus bright like a star)) garments:

There are a number of examples of visits of two, or three beings clothed in bright white apparel that were seen at the time as physical beings.

But continuing from the little Genesis analysis, it was in the 7th day that Adam was MADE. He wasn't begotten like the previous humans were as shown with a translation adjustment that also makes more sense to the overall record. The way it was written can appear to be a recap but that is because of the use of the word “generations”:

Gen 2:4 These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens,
Gen 2:5 And every plant of the field ((to spread out)) before ((suspended)) it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew: for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground.

Because there was no rain yet, the PLANTS ability TO SPREAD OUT was SUSPENDED and also needed someone to be a husbandman, as it was said later someone to “dress” that garden which was a way to say groom or tend to that which was growing to bring it along.

Gen 2:6 But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.

Gen 2:7 And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living Soul.

Thus this man (adam) is MADE from the elements of the Earth and receives a “deposit” of Next Level MIND from his Older Member, one of the Elohim (Gods) that Do called a “container” that would only hold “holy Mind/spirit” (true information that provided an interface, comprehension and recognition of the reality of the Older Members from the Kingdom of Gods in the literal Heavens). Before receiving that Mind (breath) he was a model of vehicle that was probably different than the males and females “brought forth/begotten” in the sixth day, but without the capacity to become a Next Level Member. He needed to receive the gifted “Soul” to become a “child of God.” It's important to recognize that being a child of god does not mean they grow up to become adults in the Next Level. It's a starting place.

But no matter how the population of this particular strain of human beings increased, for the scoffers who don't believe any of this and just want to try to shoot everything down, there was no incest because even IF Eve was mated with her sons or they had daughters not mentioned who were mated with Adam and/or their sons, the laws against such that we call incest now were not yet given until over a thousand Earth years later by Jehovah through his servant Moses to those who were the descendents in this special strain of human beings. It's all the Next Level's design and they choose the laws and it's out job IF we choose to be their students to follow whatever rules they provide us. If we don't choose to follow their rules then they don't apply and those receive the resulting consequences however positive or negative to their way of thinking/living for whatever time they live. It's a free will system. Even one minute of life is a gift that no one earns.

1Pe 1:24 For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:

Ti and Do called the human being a “perennial seed bearing plant.” It comes alive for a season (as a leaf on a tree) - and dies, but returns the next season with a new leaf, a new body that draws it's genetic information from the same supporting structure and roots to the Earth. When each leaf (blade) dies it's mind/spirit as focused in the head (ear) merges into the spirit world, unless it is taken/saved by the Kingdom of God/Heaven to a place in their spacecraft for safe keeping (called Abraham's Bosom or Paradise or purgatory). The development of this human tree is the work of the Kingdom of God/Heaven crew led by the Older Members and those elder students themselves, who provide service as a part of their own preparation for their own harvest into adult membership in The Next Level Kingdom.

Continuing with Mar 4:28, the field of human bodies (blades of grasses) come forth automatically as shown by the original planting that was depicted in Genesis as the Earth “bringing forth by the reproductive method of begetting” creatures including mankind. Automatic does not mean without design any more than an automatic transmission on a car wasn't designed. The design is even apparent in the cell's nucleus gnome. It was even named, “genetic CODE.” It's programmatic and thereby must have a team of Genetic scientist at the helm. We just have not seen their labs and credentials yet. Following the sleep period where the blades are growing comes the First Trimester Experiential Classroom:

II.C.1. FIRST TRIMESTER: DEVELOPMENT/TAMING OF THE HUMAN BODY IN THE JEHOVAH/MOSES CLASSROOM DEPICTED AS THE GROWTH OF THE BLADE. LOOKING TO ONE'S OLDER MEMBER; MOSES, MAKING A COMMITMENT TO FOLLOW ALL THE COMMANDMENTS AND FOLLOWING ALL INSTRUCTIONS

The Jehovah/Moses and student experience was an accelerated preparation time of both the human gnome (blade and ear) that would provide vehicles that would be a match in experience for progressing Souls to incarnate into when they are brought back for each period when an Older Member was to be incarnate.

The EAR is describing the SPIRIT AKA MIND of the vehicle that is focused in the HEAD of the vehicle that is processed by the brain. Ti called this part of us our “computer.” The English terminology is interesting as without hearing one can not change the content of their Mind and hearing isn't limited to what comes through the ears as we also hear when we read or observe or for that matter think - it's just that the thoughts are coming through our eyes or “antenna,” perhaps related to the “third eye,” to form our own thoughts and pictures instead. A discarnate can transmit their mind to our brain if we allow it to register.

Ti and Do always said that we are not responsible for what bombards our mind, but we are responsible for what we allow to register and linger and become our own thoughts and associated behaviors and ways. We were taught to get ahead of the thoughts we did not want to register. A thought has registered if we heard it. One can develop enough forethought to where they can even “smell” a thought coming so that we recognize it's vibration and can choose to abort it before it's details (words) register in our brain. The way to start doing this may be familiar to most of us already. Whenever we hear a thought we don't like and we ignore it, we are aborting it. The technique works for anything and is even used to keep us asleep to further awakening of our minds. For instance when I talk to a Christian and I use the word "reincarnation" all too often their eyes roll up into their head and they don't hear anything I say after that or if they hear the words they have already decided they would not be words they want to pay any attention to. They shut themselves down to what that word actually means - "to take over a flesh body again." Carne is Latin for flesh. The way it was said long ago is to "stand up again" or "rise again" which is Resurrection. To re-surrect.

Ti spoke about "smelling" discarnates. It's interesting that people have sometimes smelled a cologne that they knew a deceased person in their life used to wear regularly. I don't know how the mechanics of that might work but it's also interesting that Adam was given the Mind of his Older Member, described as "breath" that he inhaled through his nostrils and we know that the nostrils is the most direct passageway of oxygen to the brain. Since thoughts are a frequency, it seems to be not far different from a wireless communication device to receive thoughts and understand them as they were sent. It's simply a matter of the transmitter and receiver having the same structural interface.

That's the basis of all digital communications. Streams of 1's and 0's as tiny voltages organized into elaborate structures that both sides understand the same way. It's been proven that thoughts have frequency as do all things we know about actually. That's what psychic mediums can become adept at, though usually with an assortment of clues in questions and resulting responses from their clients and then delineating a response that is general enough that it can be honed in on as a session progresses. So of course there are some who have more facility for this than others and the practice is filled with tricksters, but tricksters don't discount the reality of such communications. Actually Ti and Do called most shows of the so called spiritual arts "tricks."

Nonetheless, the truth is that if a discarnate is a composite of all the thoughts and memories of a living human, when they die they would have many things in common with those who are still alive which sets up a potential interface between them. It's like knowing someone so well that you can complete their thoughts or say the same thing at the same time, very common in partnerships. If we seek to draw certain things to us, it is like putting out a signal into the spirit world. If a spirit that can fulfill it responds they might whisper a request into another's ear to help you get what you requested and walla, we have the mechanics of the "Secret Video" that was very popular for some for a while as a mechanism to as they say, "manifest your own reality." Of course this would be limited to the human things that are possible and there are a number of factors at play for whether it actually works or not.

Thus a big part of becoming a student of an Older Member from the Next Level is deciding to try to abide by their standards of thoughts and actions. It's all about percentages. The idea is to reduce human thoughts, feelings and actions and increase Next Level thoughts, feelings and actions. This is given to humans in stages - trimesters as we have to be taught what Next Level thoughts are. Technically, if the Older Members told us to recite the ABC's, when we did it thereafter we would be taking in their Mind. It's just that real though they don't seem to ever do anything like that. However, they will perform their instructions whether they fully understand them or not. And that will often include changing things they said. Ti and Do often brought us a new understanding and said, "this works for now," adding that they expect updates and would fill us in as they receive them. They were not like a ticker tape machine in receiving instructions but they said they did know when they were receiving instructions. However, even still, they didn't trust their interpretation 100% so would go through a checklist to test it. I never heard them describe that checklist but I believe it would be largely examining consistencies with previous instructions while knowing what were human ways of thinking.

So the EAR or HEAD of the stalk is the that holds the balloon that is filled with human mind and for those given a deposit the "balloon" that holds Next Level holy Mind. Do use the balloon analogy with body being like a vase and the Soul being one balloon the Next Level inserts into the vase and the other balloon comes with the vehicle and becomes filled with human mind as the vehicle grows up. Overcoming humanness is emptying the human balloon and filling the Soul balloon.

The focus of this experiential classroom time was to "follow instructions." On a number of occasions all were challenged to make their choices. There were no walls on their nomadic community so if they stayed with Moses and did not abide by the commandments and procedures at some times and in some cases they were killed. This was as serious to the Next Level as for a farmer to allow weeds to infest and kill their prize crop. (However, it was also made very clear that plants did not have the right to decide which plants were really weeds to kill them. That authority was given to Moses alone, though Jehovah did the weeding directly while Moses tried to give certain ones who continuously wanted to kill him the chance to change.

By following every direct instruction from their Older Members the students learn to be trustworthy and how to consciously evolve their mind to higher and higher standards that separated them from many humans who still acted instinctively equivalent to animals. It is interesting how today there are many who believe in and abide by the instructions Moses and that student body were given but think those ways of thinking and acting came about automatically and/or by some random response to stimuli. Of course the entire premise that anything can come from nothing is absurd. Just because we don't know how the Universe started doesn't mean we can't logically realize that our world didn't start by random responses to stimuli. There are plenty of responses to stimuli, but those response mechanisms are programmed by the Above Human programmers in Next Level labs. The Earth itself is their laboratory.

So whenever someone had a thought or desire to break one of the commandments and they aborted that thought, they were emptying their human balloon of that piece of mind-substance while adding to their Soul's balloon that would end up accumulating as will power to continue.

II.C.2. SECOND TRIMESTER: DEFLATING THE HUMAN BALLOON (MIND), CUTTING ONE'S HUMAN ROOTS, GRAFTING TO ONES OLDER MEMBER; JESUS AND ONE'S NEW FAMILY OF FELLOW BELIEVERS; FURTHER UPDATING BEHAVIOR AND WAYS AND STANDING UP FOR JESUS KNOWING IT WOULD MEAN SACRIFICING ONE'S HUMAN LIFE

This took place when the Older Member incarnated into the body that was named Jesus that was specially prepared for that particular service of demonstrating the fulfillment of all previous prophecy of his coming and upgrading behaviors and ways and outlining further requirements to measure up to the standards that would find them in good stead to be “born of Spirit/Mind” during the Third Trimester.

To show that their graft to their Older Member's holy Mind was developing, those slated to be first fruits were required to leave all behind to follow Jesus. All in all some left, mother, father, sisters, brothers and even children, lands to begin to shift all their love by heart, mind, Soul and strength to Jesus, their Older Member and his Father whom they were still learning about.

As a final test, they were commissioned by Jesus before he returned to his spacecraft that was hidden in a cloud of light, to disseminate all he said and did knowing full well that as Jesus was hated, they would be too and as Jesus was murdered, they would be too. They would be hunted down by the religious Jews acting in the name of their god, a Luciferian fallen angel space alien.

Jesus had indicated that these who had gravitated to positions of authority within the Jewish religion, as high priests and priests of the Sauducees, Pharisees, etc. were the distant descendents of those in the Moses camp that had adopted the general ideas and laws and who probably tried to become leaders but who were not choosing to be genuine disciples of Moses or they would have recognized Jesus as the one Moses said would come again in such a way as to be, “just like me.”

Their forefathers were the ones who saw to it that any representatives sent after Moses were persecuted and murdered because they had settled into acquiring certain powers in the organizations that were threatened by the prophets sent. After all this is why Jesus was sought by the high priests to kill, because they feared they would lose their status with the Roman state if they lost their influence among the Jewish people to keep them from rising up against the Roman governing body.

Ti and Do said that at this time of their arrival with their crew, all Spirits and/or Souls who had any relationship with the Kingdom of God/Heaven since the start of the civilization would be back. Jesus indicated the same thing saying there would be a resurrection of the good to Eternal Life in their Kingdom and the evil to DEATH (recycling in the Lake of Fire).

The Luciferian strategy has always been to work all angles against the Next Level's program to influence humans to believe anything but the truth. One main method is to create facsimile beliefs, keeping the idea and name of the last representative in the forefront while diluting the teachings surrounding separating from the world, generating misinformation that becomes justifications for teaching even the opposite of what Jesus taught, while exaggerating and embellishing the mystical aspects as in the miracles. Do felt that 90% of what Jesus was said to have done as miracles became misunderstood or exaggerated. He didn't get into each instance.

Perhaps the biggest dilution of what Jesus taught and infiltration of misinformation came through Paul's letters. Since for many, even most Christians Paul's letters are thought equal in weight to what Jesus said and even more so as his writings are used to justify their movements against those in the so called LGBT community that Jesus failed to talk about. And he also said nothing about “abortion” or “euthanasia” or “stem cell research” or certain “four letter words” that have nothing to do with the real meaning of “cursing someone.”

Jesus didn't teach different roles for males and females or who could wear their hair long or short, nor how to dress or what words we must use to declare our allegiance to the Kingdom of God. Jesus did teach NOT to pray out loud, I believe referring to when others can hear us, so not to be stroking our spiritual ego by looking holy. Jesus example of prayer wasn't meant to become the “vain repetition” the Lords prayer has become. Jesus was clearly not a supporter of the accumulation of wealth in his or his Father's name as some Christians insist he would look favorably upon. It's not that he would say it was wrong to accumulate wealth. What he said that it would be next to impossible to get into the Kingdom of Heaven while monetarily wealthy. I know some think, when he comes they will be able to leave that wealth, but it rarely would work that way as seen by the example of the rich man. That wealth becomes a type of addiction and false security and an ego booster, all things we must overcome and waiting to the last minute will most likely be too late to change enough to leave it all behind. This is especially the case since one must have made some significant headway in the direction of overcoming such addictions to even be open to how to identify Jesus in the new vehicle he returns in.

Jesus didn't teach that anyone would physically be lifted up to meet him in the clouds and he didn't teach that abiding by his standards would not be “works” to perform, to show your genuine love for him. He said that belief in him would get you saved but that belief in him meant abiding by all he taught. He didn't teach that he overcame the world for us so we would not have to. He did not teach tithing and participation in a church group was worshiping him. He didn't teach to use the money system and not pay the government taxes. He didn't teach to lend to people and to charge them interest. He didn't teach that we each have different “gifts” of spirit as Paul said.

He did teach that membership in the Kingdom of Heaven can be so important to someone that they could be willing to castrate themselves rather than to lose out, though wasn't giving that as a requirement. Jesus did teach that adultery was being married and even lusting after another in one's thoughts and said the original intention for marriage was to have only one mate for life, though Moses made the exception in the case of unfaithfulness to which Jesus didn't disqualify as a reason for a divorce. Jesus believed in the Moses commandments from Jehovah to not murder/kill fellow humans yet how many Christians support the governments that stimulate and manipulate it's populace into wars. Even the current Pope answered this question:

“Do you approve [of] the American bombing?” This question is referring to the American response to the recent resurgence of Iraqi and perhaps Islamic militants taking over cities in Iraq that has followed the recent withdrawal of American armed forces in Iraq:

The Pope said, “Thanks for such a clear question. In these cases where there is an unjust aggression, I can only say this: it is licit to stop the unjust aggressor. I underline the verb: stop. I do not say bomb, make war, I say stop by some means. With what means can they be stopped? These have to be evaluated. To stop the unjust aggressor is licit.”

Is he trying to represent what Jesus would have people do? Jesus said to “turn the other cheek” on an enemy who struck you on one cheek. He also said to pray for those that persecute you and forgive those that even kill you. I know this is unheard of to consider for most but that is because few have the conviction that Jesus was teaching. But if the Pope, the so called highest position in the land in support of Jesus doesn't teach that conviction who could look to him for anything related to what Jesus taught? He is thus someone who is pretending to be a servant of the real Christ which makes him a “false Christ,” a phony yet doesn't know it because he's bought into the institution he heads that has seemed to take the place of his relationship with the One True Kingdom of God. Jesus didn't give any indication that would justify an international police force going all over the globe stopping others from their choices. After all what is an “unjust aggressor”? In the case of Iraq, the United States is clearly the “unjust aggressor” but I suppose this pope like the others is in bed with unjust aggressors galore.

Now for someone who does not believe in Jesus, whatever they do is their choice and as plants, the Next Level will spade them under and will even allow the weeds to assist with that spading of one another while even potentially assisting some who seek to escape such waring. Land and possessions and heritage and tradition are not important to the Next Level to have humans try to preserve, that is, except for the records of their sent Representatives. Without a human life one can not choose to give their life in service to the Next Level, which at least in this civilization is the only way one can eventually graduate the human condition.

Thus the prime lesson of the Second Trimester was to “give your life” (drink the same cup Jesus chose and was instructed by his Father to drink) in service to the incarnate Older Member which is a process that involves abiding by ALL Jesus taught and then sharing that with others which would be the only “works,” aka “working for,” what Do said was the real meaning of “worship” for the Kingdom of God from the literal Heavens. At that time those that believed but did not abide by all the teachings and/or did not give their lives in his service, would have their spirits/souls “saved” to be brought back for the next trimester's experiences. Most of these Souls/Spirits are likely present today looking for human vehicles they can take over as believers of Ti and Do and once again get to grow at whatever pace they desire which will begin their separation from their world to disseminate the new information Ti and Do brought that might even get them killed for. The object isn't to die. The object is who and what we die for, as Jesus said for either “God (The Father) or Mammon (humanism and all that is treasure to humans).

II.C.3. THIRD TRIMESTER: GIVING YOUR LIFE AND WILL TO THE INCARNATE OLDER MEMBERS WHO FULFILL THE TASK OF THE TWO WITNESSES. COMPLETING YOUR METAMORPHIC OVERCOMING OF THE HUMAN

EVOLUTIONARY LEVEL BY SEPARATING FROM YOUR HUMAN ROOTS TO GIVE ALL YOUR HEART, MIND, SOUL AND STRENGTH TO YOUR OLDER MEMBERS. PUBLICLY STANDING UP FOR YOUR OLDER MEMBERS, DISSEMINATING THEIR INFORMATION WILLING TO LOSE THE HUMAN BODY YOU OCCUPY BECAUSE OF. LAYING DOWN YOUR LIFE WHEN THE OLDER MEMBER DECIDES ITS THE INSTRUCTION TO EXIT TO COMPLETE ONE'S METAMORPHIC MIND/SPIRIT/SOUL BIRTH. THIS OVERCOMING/BIRTHING IS ALSO TERMED ONE'S CHRISTING OR CHRISTENING AS ONE IS BECOMING ANOINTED WITH THE OLDER MEMBERS MIND WHICH IS "LIGHT" THAT WHEN FILLING ONE'S ENTIRE VEHICLE YIELDS TRUE ENLIGHTENMENT

WHAT IS AND WHAT IS NOT THE GENUINE OVERCOMING/ENLIGHTENING METAMORPHIC PROCESS:

It's the process Jesus spoke of as "filling one's body full of light." At that point they are "enlightened" in a real way, not as the many think and talk about as a posh condition of having a certain degree of awareness, which is all a part of the Luciferian mindset as a facsimile of what real enlightening is. It is making one's every thought, feeling and action focused on abiding by and adhering to ALL the lesson plans provided by ALL the Representatives who came incarnate. This final lesson plan is most accurately described in the prophesied "new terminology (tongue/language)" and applied according to the lesson plan brought by the most recent Representatives, in today's task description serving as the Two Witnesses in the names of Ti and Do, the NEW SONG from The PHYSICAL, many membered, Evolutionary Kingdom Level Above Human.

Most humans who gravitate to thinking of themselves as "enlightened" (even though many would rightly say, it's a continuous process) and also think of themselves (and others, that aren't conscious of it) as parts of deity (God) justify their belief because it's now more apparent than ever that everything is imbued with energy, thus can be thought of as living and having come from the CREATION (God). Of course this is evident, but what they don't want to consider is how that thinking is a dead end road that leaves one with the illusion that they have arrived at the ultimate understanding of our reality, when the fact is, they have only arrived at a vast over generalization that in a sense rewards them with thinking, they are therefore eternally connected (in Spirit) because of belief and some minimal practices, with that “universal mind” aka “cosmic consciousness,” Godhead or Oneness that therefore makes them co-creator “Gods.” And of course there are a large variety of paths to achieve this same basic sense. This is what all the religions and sects have actually become though they are segregated into mystic sects. In Judaism it's the Herbalists and in Christianity the Gnostics. In Christianity many who are traditionalists and/or fundamentalists will talk about all genuine believers constituting “the body of Christ,” while Pagan sects tend to lean towards naturalist thinking of the Earth as that living “being” in which all are a part.

But regarding how this thinking promotes all to degrees of said, enlightenment, it's interesting how this is the same mindset as many religious hold and in particular many Christians, in considering themselves “born again” and therefore “saved” from spirit/Soul death and for some even believing from physical death in their “rapture” scenarios. But instead of coming to this determination from one's seeking the truth (what is most real about our reality and our part in it) at any cost, many follow in the footsteps of what they were brought up to believe, hardly examining what was really said by Jesus about who could qualify to be literally with him eternally in his environment/society (kingdom). It has become a talk of a savior who loves them so much, he decided to reward them for their belief and often lip service adherence to the first trimester, Jehovah/Moses, toddler lesson plan, expecting the grand prize of eternal life, without having to do the very hard work of separating from all their previous relationships; family, spouse, children, homes and their own will, while being seen by most all around them as belonging to a fanatical, maniacal cult and virtually hated by nearly everyone, topped off by giving their lives in service to that cult leader for the same reward, as taught in the Father/Jesus second trimester adolescent lesson plan. Thus, it's no wonder the Ti and Do lesson plan looks so bizarre. It's like jumping from addition and subtraction to advanced calculus.

It doesn't dawn on many in either of these groups that they have been hoodwinked with the overall picture but without hardly any of the absolutely needed, detailed and consistent effort that if maintained and pressed into with ALL one's energy, before, during and after a Rep's incarnation, to adhere to exactly what that most current Rep prescribed for the current classroom, that they might find favour with the Representative who will see to it that they will be provided increased opportunity to reap that said, “eternal life” reward. But the hard facts are that each must duplicate the degree of devotion the disciples of one of these incarnate Reps demonstrate. And in case anyone is wondering what that means, what it doesn't mean is that joining a religious order even as a monk or nun or their equivalent in whatever religion or spiritual path is in store. That can and often is as big a trap as acquiring great wealth and/or possessions. Instead of playing with boats and homes on the Caribbean or in lavish lifestyles or in the halls of the hierarchy of human governments and religious orders, one can hold up in a cave or monastic retreat and think they have found their bliss. But if that level of bliss is what they are after, then they should have it and will have their reward but if they want to join a crew of hard workers who love to serve their Older Members in physical and mentally challenging tasks, then the cave or religious pilgrimage or ascetic ways of life will be a distraction albeit perhaps a temporary one as many can be. This is not to say choices to follow such paths are any more or less equal opportunities with any others to experience the human condition. As Ti and Do said often, all paths can lead up to the top of the mountain (of the human condition), but only one can get you off (that mountain). That is only offered periodically and in stages by Older Members who come to take a classroom another step off that mountain. They are real living physical/mental (spiritual) Above Human (Supreme) Beings. I remind the Space Aliens are the remnant of those who dropped out of one or more of these Overcoming of Humanness Classrooms which is why they propose the same thinking as the so called higher echelon Mystic so called “ascended masters” that Jesus the Christ was mixed into to try to commandeer Souls that He was bringing up to get off that human mountain.

II.C.4. THE HARVEST IS IN TWO PHASES AND INCLUDES 144 AND A MYRIAD OF THOUSANDS. THOSE WHO ARE THE FIRST FRUIT EXIT FROM THEIR BODIES FIRST AND THE LAST SPOKEN OF AS THE REMNANT/REMAINING WHO BELIEVE IN THE CURRENTLY INCARNATE REPRESENTATIVES (THE TWO WITNESSES) AND STAND FOR THEM - EXIT THEIR BODIES DURING THE TRIBULATION PERIOD “WINEPRESS” THAT STARTS GRADUALLY WITH THE OPENING OF THE SECOND

SEAL IN REV 6 THAT IS HEADLINED BY THE “RED HORSE” WHO IS PERMITTED TO WAGE AN ENDLESS WAR

This FIRST part consisting of Rev 14:1 to Rev 14:13 largely speaks about who are included in the overall harvest. The number of 144,000 seems likely but remains in question, as there are several ways this can be read, some of which will be discussed later in this section. However, my best shot at how that number might be broken out would be that there are 144 and a myriad of thousands, which would be 12 from each tribe with a myriad of thousands. I believe the Kingdom of God knows how many Souls they deposit but according to Jesus many as seeds and even as shoots will be devoured by the lower forces so will be lost. I don't think They know how many first timers will survive but suspect they do know how many survived when the Older Member was incarnate in the name of Jesus because they saw to it that they were saved and brought back with them to incarnate to complete their third trimester, which is the first trimester for many. I'm not saying they don't know exactly how many Souls they saved that at that time 2000 years ago were first timers (seeds) or second timers (have not a good root), but they too can fall away as Ti and Do said this is a “free will” experiment. If they knew the exact numbers season to season it would like a manufacturing process of robots which would go against everything the Kingdom of God/Heaven is doing by providing a “garden” and opportunity to graduate the human kingdom.

However some are specifically counted because some have grown enough that they are ready for their third trimester as they, while incarnate during their second trimester tried to follow everything they were given by the incarnate representative (Jesus) and then carried forward by disseminating all he taught them knowing it would mean they would be apprehended and killed eventually because of how the religious in particular would feel their status as religious leaders is threatened, should their congregations believe in this new “cult” figure. Plus most of the relations of those who come to believe in Jesus will feel their loved ones are being duped, so would also find whoever was the source of that duping to try to stop them at any cost, even by having them killed. Therefore these by giving their lives as it says in prophecy receive a “crown” and a “clean white garment/robe” (physical body) and having made that grade, even if they dropped out of the Next Level's third trimester program and died, their Soul would be taken back into the safe keeping of the Next Level to be given a future opportunity to complete their third trimester when it's offered. These are the 144. I'm not making that up. Ti said "all who came with them would go back."

Incidentally, in the Jehovah/Moses classroom period, those who were the assistants to the High Priest, Aaron, were instructed to wear "linen breeches (undergarments)," not the fine or twisted fine, which had a great deal more thread. Do had spoken about how some who were permitted into membership in the Next Level but needed to still return to complete their overcoming, so would not qualify for an "adult" Next Level body but spoke about another Next Level body assignment appropriate to their tasks in the Next Level that Do called, "domestics," which I believe a "watcher" task might be considered to be. When Ti and Do set up tasks in our "craft," (what we called the house or camp we lived in, as in the Next Level it would be a type of spacecraft), those entering into a new task, were observers for a number of days before they were allowed to participate in the "experiments." Experiments were the way we spoke about food recipes as in the Next Level they would have more significance than just food/fuel for our vehicles so they used the food prep to simulate Next Level lab work.

Also, for a number of years in the beginning of Ti and Do's classroom, that is after we moved into "crafts" as opposed to being in camps or on private ranch lands living outdoors, we had a task called, "eyes." A partnership would be assigned for an hour and I believe most in the classroom rotated to perform the task. We each had a clipboard and we were assigned to watch our classmates and if they did or said anything we questioned or thought Ti and Do would want to know about, or broke any procedure we were to record it. Ti and Do would read these each day and based on their content would speak to individuals or put a new instruction in another book/clipboard called "IS" for "instruction sheets" that ended up being put in a book that was either for a specific "lab" (Nutri lab, fiber lab, yeast lab) or for the overall "craft" that every morning we'd each read before starting our day so we'd know of any changes to instructions. Some had to overcome feeling uncomfortable about being watched all the time while others had to overcome being preoccupied with what others were or were not doing correctly.

Also it's noteworthy that those who graduated their second trimester

Father/Jesus classroom, received a “white raiment,” not stating it as “clean” or “fine” or even “linen,” whereas those who are returning with the Older Member who conquered their human condition as of Rev 6:2 are returning in “fine linen, white and clean.” “fine linen” was consider worthy only for royalty. Jehovah instructed Moses to make the Tabernacle curtains from “fine linen” so it seems these had graduated to receive adult Next Level eternal bodies to wear.

Rev 19:14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

Rev 4:4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

As with all prophecy, in this case the numbers are only relevant to show the consistency with the records throughout the three trimesters of the current civilization that serves as further evidence of who are the genuine representatives. For instance, Ti and Do initially gathered “about 100” by the time Ti closed the harvest on April 21, 1976. I thought I remembered the number 96 when Ti and Do counted us in Laramie, Wyoming when we first arrived. However, Do said, “about 100” so either I remembered wrong or there were a few not at that meeting or Do was doing what he most often did with numbers and approximated, another reason to consider the thousands part to be an approximate rather than an exact number.

Those approximate 100 worked down to 24 by the early 1990's when Do had his student crew begin new public interfacing that escalated to their giving face to face public meetings for the second 9 month time period since the first was over in 1976. This was 9 years after Ti left her vehicle in 1985 followed by 3 years with most of the new students, (with the exception of one) with the numbers of those who stayed in Do's group going back and forth to end up with 38 who laid down their lives in March of 1997 but with 4 who laid down their lives over the next 3 years for a total of 42. I suspect this 42 are those mentioned in Rev 11:2 as “42 months” but the Greek word “men” translated to “month” also is spelled exactly the same but means “affirmations” which as it is speaking about those who are “on foot” in the “holy city” seems to be saying there are 42 of these and that they will be on foot at the same time and for the same time period as the Two Witnesses 1260 days which is 42 months but using different Greek words, because I suspect saying it the other way provides a dual accuracy in translation. Of course there would be no way for a translator to even look for this if they didn't have the experience of being with the ones who literally created those prophecies so they could fulfill them accurately.

If these numbers are in the ballpark then there are about 100 who might be included in the second harvest, plus the myriad of thousands of old and new believers at various grade levels. What is also apparent is how these numbers are in the ballpark of the numbers given with both the Moses and Jesus groups.

Moses had a core group around him to include his vehicle's brother and sister, Aaron and Miriam, Hosea, who Moses changed the name of to Joshua, Aaron's 4 sons, two of which fell from service and others. We know Abraham who fathered Isaac who fathered Jacob whose name became Israel when he battled a Luciferian fallen angel and succeeded, (Israel means, "he who prevails as Jehovah") went on to father 12 sons that became the basis of the 12 tribes. Then there were 70 Moses appointed as helpers throughout the tribes that numbered initially as about "600,000 men" though we know many of those were not active students of Moses. That was simply the gene pool at the time. Many thousands of these died as a result of rebelling against Moses in various ways throughout their 40 year long classroom.

Then with Jesus we know there were initially 12 disciples but there were at least 7 women that were just as much Jesus disciples, however not in the limelight, probably mostly for reasons that had to do with those times. One can not accurately assess which students were greater or lesser as to the Kingdom of God/Heaven the gender of the vehicle a Soul is assigned is part of the lesson plan that Soul needs to experience and that experience can not be judged in human ways of who is a better speaker or writer or fisher of men or of any other human criteria of judgment of another's value. If anything there is evidence to suggest some of the female vehicle disciples could have been more elder Souls who didn't need the same experiences exactly as some of the Souls who took male vehicles. Jesus assigned another 70 he sent out to tell about him which brings their core numbers to 82 - not knowing whether disciples with female vehicles were among the 70. Some of those 82 had had spouses that is until they chose to leave those human relationships to give their all to Jesus.

I don't believe those that were married would have gone through the divorce proceedings, as none of that took place with Ti and Do's disciples once they left all behind to give their all to Ti and Do. It doesn't seem at that 2nd trimester lesson plan that Jesus required all disciples to leave all behind to be with him. He addressed who would leave all behind as if it was an option then:

Mar 10:28 Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

Mar 10:29 And Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's,

Mar 10:30 But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life.

Note some Christians think this receipt or a hundredfold is justification for polygamy or saying in heaven they will have those relationships and possessions. What Jesus meant by that was that all fellow believers would become a family, so if they had a house it would also be open to their staying in it for a time as was required because as a disciple of Jesus, there was no longer one location one called their home. In this way they were homeless or Bedouin (desert dwellers) as Jesus indicated:

Mat 8:19 And a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

Mat 8:20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

Ti and Do said the population of the Next Level was in the thousands not the millions or billions as in the human kingdom. There was some indication in the records of 10's or 10 times 10's of thousands which wasn't giving a finite number and it's not at all clear that there was a multiplication implied as why would the Next Level give a specific number that required a multiplication that would arrive at a specific number anyway. It was just giving a general idea to show that just as there are a great many more plants than animals in the plant kingdom and a great many more animals than humans in the human kingdom, there are a great many more humans in the human kingdom than there are the Level Above Human kingdom.

Now it would be completely a human thing to try to figure out if someone is among the 144 or the myriad of thousands as it's not for us to be able to discern, not about ourselves or about anyone else and I believe that is without exception as until a human dies they can still possibility change and no one else but the Next Level could know and know whether it was a degree of change they would find as reason to save that Soul or spirit for a new opportunity as just words, do mean something but not a whole lot if not backed up by actions. On one's deathbed may be too late to show action but as Jesus was the example of, one of the thieves hung on the tree with him did say he recognized who Jesus was while dying and Jesus said that one's Soul would be with him in paradise which was the location where saved souls or spirits would be kept to have another chance to overcome the human condition.

Thus regardless of the numbers and when each becomes a believer the overall overcoming formula is laid out that demonstrates the basic requirements for the first fruit graduates that anyone can embrace to the degree of their choice and will be rewarded accordingly. All will be “giving their human life,” however the size of the steps they take and grow the strength to take in that process is entirely up to them and their budding personal relationship with their Older Member, who may or may not have already exited his incarnation.

However, I do believe that part because every student must STAND UP FOR their Older Members, which means tell others about them and who we believe them to be. Since that will never be popular the more we do it the more people will keep their distance from us, not because they are afraid of us as believers are all kind, gentle, non-manipulative Souls who don't care to impose on others their views. But those that become fearful to hear their beliefs will be those that also have discarnate influences that will either generally keep distance from or could actually directly oppose new believers out of fear of what they don't want to change in themselves.

For those that do continue to STAND for Ti and Do, they could lose their life because of doing so and especially as certain events take place in the next years that are part of the Next Level's forcing each human to choose who to give their allegiance to. And as one shares Ti and Do's info more and more they will also naturally want to increase their control over their human vehicle so some of their human activity could also fall away to where they may before their vehicle dies, “regain their virginity” by becoming celibate in body and in mind. They will also begin to cease manifesting what was translated as “guile” which has to do with being cunning and plotting which are forms of deceit that are common and even seen as normal and purposeful to many humans but are not characteristic of a Member of the Next Level.

Finally new believers will follow the lamb wherever he will go. Even though Do, the most recent incarnation of the same Older Member, who became a sacrificial lamb before, is no longer incarnate, we are still following him by looking to him as much as we like in our thoughts and we have all the information He and Ti provided in their combined 24 years incarnate. Do left lists of behaviors that were offensive to the Next Level and would by continuing keep one off Ti's spacecraft crew.

With that said, here is the verse by verse re-translation and re-interpretation of who the student body is and what are their characteristics to be graduates:

Rev 14:1 And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood ((2476 histemi= to stand as in abide, be appointed, fulfill covenant, incarnate)) on ((1909 epi= rest upon after)) the mount ((3735 oros= rise as an elevated area, [continent] and/or to “rear” (raise) spirits/souls (142 airo) as in bearing [of young])) Sion* ((4622 Sion/Zion= hill, mountain, elevated parched area [geography of new Jerusalem])) and with him an hundred forty and four thousand ((seeded human family representatives being brought to harvest)), having his Father's name written in their foreheads.

*Sion (aka Zion) = is depicting the actual geographic area in which these “STAND,” with again, standing meaning to both “take over a human vehicle” as their incarnation, to then direct it to “STAND UP” for the Older Members they recognize as their shepherds from their souls being with them 2000 year before with Jesus and with Moses before that. It's said as a mountain because the earth that is elevated out of the oceans is actually a mountain - one just can't see it's base because of the level of the ocean water. Further description shows it's a parched area which ended up being the U.S. southwest where Ti and Do came public and felt closest to their Next Level Heavenly Father and where they “gave their lives” in both some of the spacecraft crashes in the late 1940's and 1950's and spent most of their overcoming lesson time and where they laid down their lives to exit and leave their mark on the world as the Heaven's Gate Cult, what they called the “cult of truth.”

THE DEVELOPMENT OF PHYSICAL CONTAINERS FOR THE RETURNEE SOULS BEGINS BY A “TAGGING” OF HUMAN VEHICLES BY THE KINGDOM OF GOD/HEAVEN AKA SPREADING SEEDS:

For each of at least the last two of three trimesters, Human vehicles are tagged, sort of the way deer are tagged by human scientists, to study their behavior, but to the Kingdom of God/Heaven, to set up a circumstance for returning student souls (without flesh bodies) to have a “matching” body (to their needed “Overcoming Experiential Classroom” lessons) to work with/through their next appropriate grade in school. That tag includes some programs that when activated, the same as germinated, include knowing which way is up, how to grow towards the light (real and true information about all things) and the recognition that the Kingdom of God/Heaven exists, is real and obtainable by reaching for it, the terminology used by these at this point being unimportant. This tag or seed is what prompts those human being recipients to become avid seekers of more of what's real. They know it subconsciously without a doubt and is why Jesus compared such recognition to a mustard seed's faith:

Mat 17:20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

This doesn't mean one with that degree of faith will test it, as the reason it works is because of who such faithfulness is geared towards, the Older Members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven that provide the means to do virtually anything, though within their overall plan and the physics of the environment they designed, developing and maintain. Thus no servant of this organization would just move a mountain unless they felt it was the instruction for some reason, in which case they would say it for the sake of those they were attempting to stimulate to further growth. After Jesus said this, he followed with:

Mat 17:21 Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting.”

He said this pertaining to a healing his disciples could not perform, a big indicator that he was illustrating related to “faith” and it's power, but not in a static application as simply by a command necessarily, as is implied by this Mat 17:20 verse. The faith is really in the Father not in self except in knowing the Father and knowing one's service to that unseen Older Member.

These who are thus seeded, when germinated by hearing the voice/words of the Older Member, whether they are aware of it consciously or not generates their thirst to know, to grow and doesn't make them religious. They will likely explore religions, but will most often be dissatisfied with what they, the human organizations offer overall, though at the same time will recognize truth (in general) when they hear it.

For an accurate view of how Ti and Do thought about those who might come to believe in them in the future after they have exited their incarnation, here is an excerpt from a document entitled, "“Away Team” from Deep Space Surfaces Before Departure' written by Do's primary student spokesperson. Her vehicles face can be seen in the Beyond Human video tape series Do and students made in 1992. She was known publicly as “June” and internal to the classroom as “Jwnody.” She wrote this on April 8, 1996 and the full document is still freely available at:

Away Team From Deep Space Surfaces Before Departure By Jwnody
<http://sawyerhg.wordpress.com/2013/12/20/away-team-from-deep-space-surfaces-before-departure/>

In this paraphrased excerpt she brings her expression of what she received from Ti and Do as They were never interested in having students that were parrots, though did want students to draw from Their Mind because They knew all they wanted to do was draw from their Older Member's Mind. Some have criticized my expressing in my own words what I received from Ti and Do, while I too was in the classroom and had such writing tasks. There is a big difference though, as what I write now doesn't have the same kind of “checking” those who stayed in the classroom had because everything written was scrutinized by many before it was published. However, that doesn't mean Ti and Do would have me cease expressing myself as if I did have their checking. When they first sent us out on the road to hold meetings in 1975 all we had was their “Statement One” and there was no one to monitor what we said except for our assigned partner. In that way I have always welcomed anyone to offer me correction of anything I say.

You can trust all Jwn's words are from Ti and Do's mind. I am almost totally sure Do would have read it as well, as well as Do's helpers Lvvody and Innody and a crew of students before it would become a part of the information they left behind. Students were encouraged to put things in their own words. What was important is the pulling from the mind of the Older Member their intention, though of course that includes using the terminology the Older Member uses. But to just quote the Older Member wasn't the intention behind Student papers. It was also seen as worded in different ways as a provision of a broader interface capacity. Ti and Do taught that each of their active students, those with them and/or giving their all to their service actually had a relationship to their same genetic strain, thus are in a position of particularly helping those of their strain, which of course no one would be able to know who in particular was in that strain. It might be that someone just feels like they identify with a certain student's way. I've heard new believers in Ti and Do express feeling like they knew June in that way. However, that doesn't mean they then look to that student as their Older Member, even if they are an Elder student to them. All still would look to Do as their Older Member but can refer to him as Ti and Do as they are both our Older Members, though Ti is Do's Older Member and thus like our grandfather.

Here is the excerpt put into my words because in this case I have reason to distrust the webmasters of the Heavensgate.com website - whether they might try to have this book removed from shelves because of use of the classes published material that they copyrighted differently than was provided by Do and Crew. I'm not saying Mrc and Srf, those webmasters didn't receive instruction to include a copyright in the hard copy publish of Do and Crew's Purple Book, but it is apparent Do and Crew wanted a "Common Law Copyright", they spelled out as:

"This book is protected by Common Law copyright. Permission is hereby granted to reproduce this book, or portions thereof, as long as the content is unchanged, i.e., nothing added to it or taken away from it as long as it is for non-commercial purposes."

So anyone could freely reproduce the material as long as it wasn't for profit. And that's where the loophole could be as I am not a non-profit entity so will receive funds from the purchase of this book, though will be putting it back into the books promotion so is not actually for profit. After all, I was present for a huge percentage of the information within all that was written in Do and Crews anthology and even authored one or more of the posters for the 1994 public meetings so am an eye witness. But the one known in the classroom as Mrcody has shown that he would legally go after anyone that broke the copyright laws he saw fit to enforce, as he did against Rkkody even though Rkk was in the classroom for years and was also trusted by Do with some of the tasks they had to do after their exit in 1997.

I don't want to ask his permission either as he is not the only one that could try to bring a legal challenge against me and I don't know if he would change his mind even if he did give me permission. The Luciferian space aliens are working on everyone, which I'm trying to protect against as best I can:

The LAST fruit harvest:

All deposited Souls, (whether younger and/or older - perhaps first and/or second trimester) from this civilization are back to make choices again and some may or may not have had a chance to get to know Ti and Do and Crew before They exited their incarnations in 1997, but Ti and Do and Crew will recognize them, as they recognize the enemy who put out the lies that have become the mainstream mindset of this world. These still have a chance to leave this place by participating in disseminating Ti and Do and Crew's information.

Some symptoms of a deposit provided by the Kingdom of God, Kingdom in the literal heavens - the Next Level show up as an individuals lack of motivation or rebellion from the worlds ways. By world this is referring to what the human world's "system" offers. These who often don't know what else to do, not necessarily consciously recognizing why they are driven to do anything but follow the status quo can often turn to "corrupt devices" that "sooth" and anesthetize. That's why they will not be found among the mainstream righteous. They will be social dropouts and could even be addicted to any manner of substances and/or behaviors that can even be very destructive to the human vehicles they have had an association with. They could even be criminals - the "sinners" in society.

Another group of humans who show worldly dissatisfaction can show up among radical separatists and even be among patriot and militia groups that recognize the corrupt governments that are especially apparent in the western world.

(From Do's address of this same thinking in the Beyond Human Video tapes: Saying this about addicts, criminals and/or radical and militia groups is not condoning violence of any kind whether against self or others - it's simply explaining why some find themselves engaged in or attracted to such activity, thinking and groups.)

Ti and Do and Crew offer all these a way out of this corrupt human kingdom that was never designed to work or become satisfactory to remain in.

Now these are simply some general characteristics of those who were seeded ("part of a deposit... from our Domain"). Those seeds are germinated by hearing the truth from the mind of an incarnate Older Member, regardless of who serves as the instrument of that Mind (true information) during or after that Older Member has been incarnate. Whether those seeds survive and for how long depends on their individual will which is often related to how deeply they became entrenched in either seemingly positive or negative human behaviors and ways.

A seed may never die totally once it's deposited into a human vehicle but it could become so suppressed in one's consciousness that it would be all but dead to dislodge it to begin it's sprouting. In other words, someone may have become so successful with their pursuits that they surrounded themselves with thoughts and opinions about themselves, others and the world in general that become a filter keeping out anything that even could appear to challenge what they became. By doing so, they eventually lose* what that seed could have provided them so for all intents and purposes that seed is dead. Trauma often become the last ditch effort to afford these who were seeded the opportunity to awaken. This can happen by failures in relationships, business, parenting, health, wealth and of course in the witnessing of the destruction and/or abuse and/or loss of life.

*Luk 19:26 For I say unto you, That unto every one which hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

Here is the way Jesus described this process of providing opportunity “seed sowing” (deposits made) and the way in which life in the human kingdom provides a sorting out of those seeds who actually grow to yield fruit - service to the Kingdom of God/Heaven, through their “heavenly” Above Human/Mammalian Older Members: (Luk 8:5-12). This verse from Luke's gospel pertains to when the Older Member(s) share the information they bring publicity, referred to as “blowing their trumpet” (shofar (lambs horn) in Judaic terms, as on the temple mount the Jews were anticipating of the messiah. They in one way or another, via media or word of mouth hear about them and may or may not have some immediate recognition, but then experience one or more thoughts that provides them with an easy canceling out of much further consideration. Such thoughts are often stimulated by the media report itself as rarely is there unbiased reporting and these will never ever be seen by the status quo, mainstream or even much of the alternative communities as worthy to pay closer attention to, so one has many easy outs.

Luk 8:13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation (tests) fall away.

This is like the quote:

Rev 10:9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

Rev 10:10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

Luk 8:14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth ((traverse, travel)), and are choked ((crowded)) with cares ((distractions, anxieties, concerns)) and riches ((wealth, possessions, etc.)) and pleasures ((all forms of sensuality)) of this life ((human life)), and bring no fruit to perfection ((maturity)).

These are the tests that follow anyone who embarks to “follow the lamb wherever He goes” (Rev 14:14) which is what is meant by “goes forth” as with the incarnate Older Member, it's always a traveling experience. They don't settle down for any significant time period in one location to make roots. This is why Jesus said, don't believe it if someone is telling you, they can be found at such and so location. They will be Bedouin like in that regard:

Mat 24:26 Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.

Ti and Do compared humans to wild horses that were tagged/seeded (rounded up) by the Next Level Members who were like GOOD RANCHERS. They try to break their wildness and some take to it while those that don't, they let go back into the wild. Ti and Do sent 19 of their early believer/students back into the human world they left, against their will to leave actually. They did this by arranging for some in the group of about 100 students to go to one area to set up camp (as we lived outdoors in those days) and sent the 19 to another area. For a long time Ti and Do periodically kept up with the 19 as they were instructed to get jobs in a town to begin to take care of themselves. And most of those ended up going back to the lives they left behind when they joined with Ti and Do. Ti and Do eventually lost track of them as they split up, but a few were still wanting to reconnect and actually did seemingly accidentally and ended up returning to the classroom some years later.

So some of these “horses” go on to provide service to the Ranchers and in that way begin to evolve out of their strictly wild horse ways. They become more civilized and we call that “domestication,” though dogs were used by Ti and Do to demonstrate yet even a greater analogy of how a creature from one kingdom begins to evolve into the next kingdom. It never takes place without a member from the higher evolved kingdom taking in the member from the lower kingdom level. And it's the MIND/Spirit that is evolving not so much the physical vehicle, though the Mind must learn to control the physical vehicle as part of what their master teaches them and if they don't they likely will not be allowed to be in the master's quarters. So it is with the Next Level. They offer us the opportunity by sending one of their Reps and if we abide by all the rules, behaviors and ways and please that Rep then we are provided continuous opportunity to become closer and closer to that Older Member even to where they become in their same family and are given a physical vehicle of their same general model that in this example lives indefinitely and has many more capacities for function and service in/to their new Next Level family.

WHAT THE FATHER'S “NAME,” THAT IS WRITTEN IN THEIR FOREHEADS IS:

That name can't be “Father,” “pater” in Greek, 'ab in Aramaic and Hebrew, as when Jesus told his disciples to pray to Their Father in Heaven, he said that person's name was “hallowed be your name,” hallowed meaning, “to make one pure and holy,” basically name representing the Father's task to make disciples pure and holy. But then upon his return Jesus would have a new name because he will take, a new physical human body and considering his Father is incarnate with him this time as has been shown throughout this writing, that person known as the Father would also have a “name.” Since that person, formally the Father would be directly speaking to the students as already shown, they would have the chance to see for themselves the Father's Mind and come to KNOW them which is what is meant by having the name “written” on their “forehead.” The many evidences provided in this writing point to that name being Ti, pronounced “Tee.” However, here is a little more background on what “name” represents here.

AN ATTEMPT TO RE-TRANSLATE AND RE-INTERPRET THE LORDS PRAYER:

Our Father, who exists and abides in an elevated Kingdom above human among the stars,
Help make us whole, pure, to wash our human ways away, as You represent
Make your kingdom appear to us
Make your desire and will be known to us
Give us your behavior and ways as sustenance (bread to consume) everyday Forgive us our missing of the marks, the goals you have set for us, as we forgive others their faults against us
Lead us to say no to temptations.
But give us the strength to run off evil

SOME CLUES THAT RENDER THE STOCK LORDS PRAYER TRANSLATIONS FROM LUCIFERIAN INFLUENCES:

Whoever put in “forgive us our debts” was really influenced by the Luciferians as it so easily makes it sound like we are asking for financial relief. Jesus even said:

Luk 12:13 And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.

Luk 12:14 And he said unto him, Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?

Luk 12:15 And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

And why would we ask the Father to, “lead us not into temptation (tests)” when that was the whole arrangement to be presented with tests of to whom we would listen and put our faith and allegiance to. Isn't that what happened to Adam and Eve? Weren't they tested? Of course our vehicles don't want those tests but our Souls can not grow without them, since the object is to “take over” (overcome/conquer) our mammalian vehicle's desires and ways, so we call all the shots as provided by our Older Members. If any of us feel we are not all that tested by anything then we're either not asking the Kingdom of God/Heaven for more lessons and/or not trying to improve on what we know we can do better or we haven't raised our standards of what comprises a test. However, to ask our heavenly Father help to think/say "NO," to those things that tempt (influence) us in thoughts, words and circumstances so we can "change" how we act to abide by what the Kingdom of God/Heaven has already presented to us to do in the records would be something to petition help from the Father to do.

And "deliver us from evil."..well, that's not so bad to ask but it's really more like asking the Kingdom of God/Heaven to help us learn how to "run off" evil when we see it, not just be saved (delivered) from it, even though running those invisible influences OFF is being delivered/saved from what will result should we not run them off as that will eventually, by giving up be the "second death," that is the death of the Spirit/Soul. Remember Jesus said evil, an opposition, an adversary, a tempter all of which are offenses against us "must needs be":

Mat 18:7 Woe unto the world because of offences ((4625 skandalon= trap, snare, scandal, stumbling block))! for it must needs be that offences* come; but woe to that man by whom the offense cometh!

It takes force, energy in effort to continuously recognize "evil" and it's never 100% accomplished because for those who are wanting to be in Their program, each time a Representative is incarnate, they are assigned a "Satan" (adversary) to challenge/test/tempt us, so what we really need most is the strength to run off that trouble maker/deceiver (evil).

The Luciferians have many fooled into thinking God or Jesus did all the work for us so we just needed to believe and stay true to a few of the rules to qualify to be spiritually born into his everlasting kingdom. I hate to say it again, but it's the religious/spiritual that are largely the wolf in sheep's garb/clothing (their vehicle, it's religious position they count as an authority over others, claiming it's the word that has the authority and they are simply the instrument of it's delivery/exercise). This is what the "inquisitions" were about. These false teachers believe and even look and act the part and it's not necessarily their fault, that is until the truth is presented to them and they don't change or when they lead others and don't do their homework to examine what the real core issues are, then they are actually leading others astray, which is the only sin Jesus said was not forgivable, though it's not for we students to decide who is or isn't forgiven. What we can only do it point out what are less than correct understandings according to what Jesus taught and did, which will have their relevance to what Moses taught and did as well as what the Two Witnesses Ti and Do taught and did.

Next in that Lord's prayer is yet another misleading statement that asks to have our "daily bread." But Jesus said that the Father already knows what we need in terms of food and such, so why would he make a prayer that asked to receive literal bread to eat. However, what the Kingdom of God/Heaven wants to instill in us, which is accomplished when we understand Their intention is to ask to have daily sustenance which according to Jesus is the greater bread of life and water of life which is by drinking and consuming every word from the Representatives mouth. To consume it is to take it in and burn it - turn it into growth of our minds and will power to stay better on the straight and narrow path they outline for us.

The One whom Jesus was calling "Father" certainly has a Kingdom of God/Heaven name but it wasn't one that was given to Jesus nor His students to know according to the record. Such would have been in the record if it was important to be as the Kingdom of God/Heaven's crew work very hard to see to it that humans keep what they want to be in the record, though much of it eventually gets distorted. Some evidence of how the Kingdom of God provides a name when they want to is in the record of the name of the Older Member who was instructing Moses back in the first trimester who gave his name as "Jehovah" meaning "existing one" the same as saying "I AM" or "I Exist."

Interesting enough is the fact that Jehovah, though not incarnate was often physically present in the camp with Moses that all others in one way or another witnessed. They built a tent with special arrangements for Jehovah and had an entire system to accommodate Jehovah's presence, designed specifically by Jehovah through instructions to Moses. Jehovah and Moses had a face to face relationship, though that really meant person to person, as even Moses could not look upon the actual face of Jehovah as Moses occupying a human vehicle as according to Jehovah Moses would surely die from that experience. But the point is that when there is such a physical and personal relationship there is a name. However, with Jesus, there was not the same kind of physical representation of the one called the Father, thus no need for a specific name. It was enough to identify the person as our “parent” from the heavens, thus teaching students that they were bonding to a new family unit as Jesus illustrated.

Even if Jesus was visited by the Father it was not intended to be witnessed by all of Jesus students and the record only provides one example that may have been one such visit, called the Transfiguration Mount experience that John, Peter and James witnessed and is written about in Matthew, Mark and Luke's records. These records all agree that a voice they heard was the Father's voice because it said:

Mat 17:5 While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.

It will only be believers that have their Older Member's name on their minds because what goes with the name is belief in who they are, who and what they represent, so if someone hears the name they give but doesn't believe they are from the Kingdom of God/Heaven then that name isn't inscribed in it's full intended application on their mind - it's relatively meaningless to those that don't care or believe. Being written is not a casual memory - it's actually defined from the Greek as an “engraved” mark - as in “put into stone.” There is a solid representation even genetically upon the vehicle, to that term “written” that is backed up by the believers actions/works, being of service to that representatives instructions, etc. as otherwise it's of little if any value to just hear the name and remember it. Also, if the name of the Father was in fact “Father” then the messenger to John sent from Jesus would have said something like, “they would have Father as the name written IN their foreheads (on their minds).”

HUNDRED FORTY FOUR THOUSAND - (My translation preference splits this into two groups, the 144 and the 12 myriads (that may well be 1000 each).

First off, the term “Thousand,” in Hebrew and Aramaic is translated a number of ways to mean one of more of, a number, family or tribe or a myriad (undetermined number that references being many). For example this verse from Num 1:16 is referring to Moses and Aaron getting instruction from Jehovah to assign one son from each of the tribe elders to a leadership role as a prince. As there were twelve tribes involved in this assignment (Levites were not included), there were twelve elders and then twelve princes assigned equaling twenty-four:

Num 1:16 These were the renowned of the congregation, princes of the tribes of their fathers, heads of thousands ((H505/H504 'eleph= hence (the ox's head being the first letter of the alphabet, and this eventually was used as a numeral) as “thousands” or from "alph' (H502); a family; also (from the sense of yoking or taming) an ox or cow: family, kine, oxen)) in Israel.

Elsewhere in Revelations we see references to “hundred forty and four thousand” in groups of “twelve thousand” who are also sealed:

Rev 7:4 And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and forty and four thousand ((G5505 chalias from chilioi 5507; one thousand (“chiliad”)) of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

Since the context of the verse is referring to a “number” it does seem this was meant to represent thousands as opposed to “families.”

However, there is yet another usage of the word “thousand” in Greek when there is a translation of “ten thousand” where it actually means a “myriad” or indefinite number and/or very many as in:

Rev 5:11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand ((3461 murias= myriad, or indefinite number, innumerably many)) times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

In other words, the disciples of the Two Witnesses, those the Two Witnesses come to gather by incarnating and speaking face to face to were prepared to hear the updates and fulfillments of prophecy that are the promised revealing of Jesus promised return. They do this using their instruments - the human vehicles they are taking over (conquering, overcoming) as is their task in bonding with their Older Members. Overcoming includes service in cleaning out their human behavior and ways and replacing them with Kingdom of God/Heaven behavior and ways through the example and direction of their Older Members which is the process of GIVING THEIR WILL to the incarnate Older Members they have subconscious memory of having had a relationship and degree of overcoming and service with/for before.

This all relates to the Rev 6:1 opening of the first seal that is on the book described in Rev 5 that is described as a roar/thunder because the one opening it is the one who was the Lamb, incarnate 2000 years ago as Jesus, described as the “lion of Juda” (thus the reference to a roar, as there is a type of beware included - it's a serious time for the human kingdom.)

What is being disclosed by the voices is as prophesied to be spoken in “plain and bold” terms as opposed to parables/proverbs (stories) as Jesus did 2000 years ago so the people would have a chance of understanding a more realistic overview of the previous teachings. The book this returned Jesus, with his new incarnation and thus new name is the body of information that he and his Older Member deliver during their prophecy depicted as the Rev 11 Two Witnesses. The disclosures spoken of here are the seven thunders/roars shown in Rev 10 during the timing of the 6th angels trumpet sounding (voice, tonal articulation) which is also the time period in which the Two Witnesses come public and have the roaring of a Lion power, coming from the Lion of Juda, the same Older Member who served incarnate as Jesus and Moses before then which is what Jesus said would be he as the shepherd calling his sheep to “arise,” wake up and begin to sing the new song they deliver, thus these Two are joined by their student body, who become the first fruit part of the 144 with the myriad (thousands) of believers to come as part of the second “winepress” part of the two stage harvest.

Rev 14:3 AND (they) SUNG (as it) were ((G5613 hos=ABOUT)) (a) NEW SONG before* ((G1799 enopion= BECAUSE OF THE PRESENCE (SIGHT) OF, IN THE FACE OF, TO)) THE THRONE [The position (seat) of authority of the Father and Son aka Two Witnesses], and before* ((G1799 enopion= BECAUSE OF THE PRESENCE (SIGHT) OF, IN THE FACE OF, TO)) THE FOUR beasts ((not beasts but LIVING BEINGS)), AND THE ELDERS: AND NO man ((HUMAN)) COULD LEARN THAT SONG BUT THE HUNDRED AND FORTY AND FOUR THOUSAND, WHICH WERE redeemed ((ADOPTED/PURCHASED)) FROM THE EARTH.

*Usage by translators of the English word “before” in both cases; “before the throne” and “before the living beings and the elders” seems unlikely in a literal sense because no where do we see any indications that the Living Beings are physically incarnate or visible to anyone, as the Greek word, “enopion”* rendered by the King James translators as “before” has a strong visual component in it's meaning; “in the face of” and/or because of their having had a physical presence/incarnation (as pertaining to the incarnation of the two Christs in representation of the Two Witnesses prophecy (talking publically about the Kingdom of God/Heaven).

THE NEW SONG IS THE SONG OF TI AND DO.

It's a new song, that consists of younger members and/or active students (not yet graduated) “singing,” a way to depict their performance of tasks in service to the Older Members via their voices - spoken word, that also shows their appreciation of The Older Member's efforts to set up opportunities to learn the lessons that can be demonstrated by diving into Their service, which includes attempting one step at a time to conquer the innate and programmed behavior and ways of the human mammalian vehicle by the Older Member's specifications (Exemplified Ways) and in so doing would qualify some to graduate the human kingdom to join Their crew and Family as younger members.

What would be “NEW” would be both the human identities, including new names of the new vehicles (body, clothing, robe, raiment, horse) the Older Members as the Two Witnesses (Father and Son) who are incarnate would use and new more generic (and less religio-spiritual) terminology to more accurately describe what is really a non-religious and non-spiritual Physical Many Membered Evolutionary Kingdom Level Above Human with membership that literally live on spacecrafts large and small performing tasks pertaining to the entire Earth “garden” design and development to grow Souls within to yield new members. Thus the entire “song” will add a great amount of detail to explain all things that until now have been shrouded in mystery and thus considered philosophy and myth. The song will also demonstrate the fulfillment of prophecy all a part of the “REVEALING” what was hidden, by the former seal on this TRUE information.

Simultaneously, with every prophecy there are both physical and mental applications, even several of each. For instance, regarding the idea of a new Song, one might see music or tones in the Two Witnesses names. They might pick human vehicles that gravitate to musicianship. While incarnate and during their working with students they will literally sing just like Moses and Jesus did with some of their student body*. There might even be certain musical media used to help them awaken to their task. Moses and Jesus both experienced degrees of human normalcy before they fully awoke to their various missions.

*Literal singing: Mar 14:26 And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

IN ABOUT 1984 TI STARTED DO AND THE STUDENT BODY ON A LITERAL “SINGING” PROJECT. Do's vehicle having been an opera singer and professor of music and choral director as assigned by Ti to teach the student body to sing together. It was a lesson in following Do's lead. The songs were all Christmas carols like, “Oh, come all ye faithful,” and “Hark the herald angels sing” and “Lo how a Rose (Do's favorite),” and “Silent Night” and the “Twelve days of Christmas” and “Emmanuel” and a few others. Millody, a student who was never a “musician” in her human life, but played piano and read music was the only instrumentalist. Do was the director and he broke up the group into four parts and it was a lot of fun. Ti didn't come to our practices. I believe we first performed for Ti while living in Austin, Texas though we started to sing while in Amarillo, Texas.

IT WAS WHEN WE WERE BACK IN DALLAS, TEXAS NEAR WHITE ROCK LAKE THAT WE HAD OUR FIRST CELEBRATED CHRISTMAS DAY ON DECEMBER 25, 1984, ABOUT 6 MONTHS BEFORE TI LEFT HER VEHICLE. (We didn't know she was sick until two weeks or so before that June 19, 1985 exit). That Christmas, we had a tree we decorated with tinsel. I don't recall bulbs. And partnerships were given about $20 each to spend on gifts with the only instruction being that gifts were for the “craft,” not to one another, though some students, in a sense broke procedure and bought token gifts for Ti and Do. I say in a sense they “broke that procedure, but then again it really wasn't because the “craft” wasn't just the environment. The craft was the Admiral (Ti) and it's Captain, (Do). I'm bringing this up because in my mind I was surprised by the buying of gifts for Ti and Do as I guess in that way I would have been like a fundamentalist wanting to stick to the letter of the law and then missing the intent. Throughout the 19 years of my “Classroom” experience I'd say some of the students in female vehicles seemed to have the greater grasp of the intent. I'd guess they were the the eldest elders.

That Christmas, Ti and Do gave the “craft” a gift of a complete set for the near 40 of us of “gold trimmed” dinnerware, Chrystal goblets and gold embossed silverware. I remembered being surprised by that though I don't recall having a judgment about it but I'd guess some did. They didn't explain anything but as I later learned the caring for these required more careful handling and some who would break the goblets while washing or drying them were taken off of that task. In other words if they were on Nutri-Lab duty for what we called, “3rd Experiment” (dinner) when we used these when it came time to wash and dry these goblets, someone who had an unblemished record would step in to wash and dry them. Ti and Do also arranged for a special snack and dinner spread for that day and evening that included wine for the first and last time. We each had maybe an ounce of wine. Do later said, he didn't like how it affected his consciousness and so wouldn't be doing that again.

There are quite a few people who have listened to the internal meeting tapes Ti and Do had us make from around 1980 onwards. One critic recently said on my blog, something to the affect of, “what teachings were there, how to cook rice?” mocking Ti and Do and their students. This individual had listened to all the tapes that were available and he came away with feeling like Ti and Do were likable people, well intentioned but certainly not anyone to look up to in the ways we all did and some still do. He heard all the mundane talk about the equivalent of “how to cook rice” as worthless missing the entire point to what Ti and Do were doing. They were using the human environment to provide the program of overcoming of humanness because a huge part of the human mindset of each of us is our sense of individuality and ego, even if it's really kind of ill founded. I mean, even if someone has no so called human successes in their life, they can still have a strong ego - a strong respect for their own opinion and choices and often includes many judgments of others. That is ALL put to the test through the mundane and in Ti and Do's classroom it was packed with tests of all sorts.

We never sat down and took a test of what we could remember or anything like that. Actually we weren't allowed to take notes during meetings because Ti and Do learned that students would miss key points while they were writing, though they did encourage us to re-listen to the tapes to keep up better with the lesson steps that both entailed behavioral changes in the performance of tasks because it was just as important how we operated and worked together as it was to the completion of the task. Even if we were assigned to do the laundry, what we called the “Fiber Lab” keeping with instructions always had grey areas that would require partners to work it out and as anyone knows who has had a partner in the world, that can be very, very hard for people to do yet was crucial to the overcoming process because in the Next Level on board spacecrafts in close quarters operating as a crew, “crew mindedness” was essential and we all know how one who isn't cooperative can wreak havoc on that crews ability to complete their tasks. Thus before Ti was going to add anyone to her crew in the Next Level environments she was going to be sure they would not be a drain on them. It really is that practical and real.

Now keeping to a skeptic's criticism of all this, one might say: Just because someone chooses musical names, etc doesn't mean they are the Two Witnesses as False Christs could do the same thing. They could read it in Revelations and decide to take a musical name. To that I say, yes this is true and false Christs will adopt things they read in prophecy. The false Christs actually unknowingly are pawns of the lower forces, the Luciferian (as "fallen angels" currently hold the position of adversaries to provide challenges to upcoming graduates and do so voluntarily but because they can't do otherwise, having lost the recognition of the one real true Kingdom of God/Heaven). The Luciferians pick humans who are descendants of their seed when they and/or their ancestors engaged in sexual and/or artificial insemination of their seed with human females that resulted in a breeding of a certain perspective and skill-set that when exercised has significant magnetism (charisma) that draws other humans attention and as a result they meet with degrees of fame and fortune through whatever means, business, entertainment, politics, religion, new age spirituality, etc. This is what the Luciferians indeed want to see as it is through their popularity that they can spread their message that there is no REAL Kingdom of God/Heaven - it's all a story and for those that don't buy that, then it's related to Jesus, but they only talk about the more mystical sounding things Jesus said and twist his saying to support "heaven on Earth, an abomination to the Kingdom of God/Heaven and an oxymoron as heaven is the sky and literal heaven's, that Earth is a tiny part of, while the Kingdom of God while close bring their Heavenly abodes (spacecraft, aka Holy City (geographically the New Jerusalem), as it hovers over the new temple area and is the base "heaven" for the garden operations.

HERE IS A SUMMARY OF THE MEANING BEHIND THE "SONGS":

Rev 15:3 And they sing ((ado ad'-o)) the song ((5603 ode o-day', a chant, psalmos)) of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.

Song of Moses - The Jehovah/Moses and Crew Lesson Plan:

The primary lesson plan for the Moses encampment was to learn of the reality of the Kingdom of God/Heaven, to choose to give allegiance to the Lord, the person named Jehovah through the instructions provided by Jehovah's representative Moses, the name of the physical human vehicle Jehovah's "Son," also a member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven took over (at the burning bush) when Moses decided to accept the task of going to Pharaoh with Aaron. This meant for the students learning to trust Moses and that was accomplished by making a commitment (covenant) to follow all the instructions that were the basic initial qualifications required by Jehovah to remain in Their encampment, their experiential classroom taming/training their own physical human bodies to be obedient to their mind, but not their human mind, but the mind given to them that came from their heritage of original Kingdom of God/Heaven creation/development, brought current in the Representation of Moses.

Song of the Lamb - The Father/Jesus and Crew Lesson Plan:

The primary lesson plan for Jesus discipleship was a continuation of following all the instructions in the Moses camp, but according to the updates Jesus provided as Representing the instructions provided Him by the one he at this stage referred to as his Father in/from the heavens. Additionally the new aspect of the lesson plan was to increase the standards that the previous Moses lesson plan began which is all part of the Overcoming Classroom. Instead of simply abiding by the instructions that largely had to do with what the student body did physically - who they committed to as a spouse, what they did or didn't do on the sabbath, what they ate and how it was to be prepared, how they groomed themselves, how they treated "slippages" - breaking of instructions aka "sins" (missing the mark). Now with Jesus, part of the updates were that certain standards needed to be increased...the bar needed to be raised on those types of self discipline to where it was not only adultery to be sexual with someone other than one's committed relationship (which was geared to prepare them to become 100% committed to their Older Member, Lord, Captain (Jesus) and Admiral (Father)). If they even permitted thoughts that would be geared towards breaking that commitment, they were breaking the adultery instruction, though Jesus also updated the penalties, by essentially abolishing them and instead instilling the lesson of forgiveness, tolerance, non-judgmentalism and mercy as opposed to thinking more on the lines of justice, as Moses sought to instill by the instigation of laws that spoke of "an eye for an eye" a way to think fairly about offenses where Jesus was "turn the other cheek," "remove the log in one's own eye before attempting to remove the twig in another's eye."

Jesus ended that lesson plan with the recognition that just as Jesus was willing to lay down his life for his sheep, but based on the Father's instruction to do so, as Jesus also demonstrated looking to his Older Member (parent/Father) as he and Moses taught that students needed to learn to look to Them, though they didn't come right out and say that all that directly for some ears. For instance Jesus did say, "I am the way, the truth and the life." To be a Jesus disciple required one to think, and do and to perform tasks, the primary one then being to deliver the information Jesus bore. At his "laying down his life" they then realized they too would be required to deliver that information in the face of those that hated what He had to say and would seek to stop them from doing so, which would in many cases result in their being killed. This lesson plan took the idea of sacrifice of what's precious, as in the Moses camp, to the sacrifice of even one's physical life, all importantly "FOR THE SAKE OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD/HEAVEN THROUGH THE CURRENT INCARNATE OLDER MEMBER." The Jesus lesson plan also hinted at the next lesson plan with idea's of celibacy of mind and body - regaining one's virginity. The idea of a virgin has since been misconstrued to mean a person that never had intercourse. But what it originally meant was an unmarried woman, presuming that she would not have had intercourse until she was in a committed relationship (marriage). Thus should one give themselves totally to the Kingdom of God/Heaven, they would be choosing starting at that moment to act as if they had commitment in all ways only to their Older Member, the one assigned to represent the Father to disciples.

Do said, virginity means to be pure but not never having had sexual intercourse - It refers to one who has recovered their pureness (virginity).

THE SONG OF TI AND DO - THE TWO WITNESSES (Father and Son)
AND LESSON PLAN:

The third lesson plan (song, is yet a new one), continues all the previous notes on the piano roll, as if each lesson is a note on a piano or like adding onto the animal sounds in the song, Old MacDonald's Farm, repeating all the sounds with each chorus. The new parts are that students need to complete the lesson plan that was prepped for by Moses and then by Jesus, by giving our all that would include our will and finally our physical body but this time not instigated by others hatred of those that delivered challenging new information, but by as Jesus did, literally "laying one's life down" the ultimate self sacrifice but again at the instigation of the current incarnate representative. This would be seen as suicide by all those who have little to no comprehension or belief in the entire overcoming project. And it naturally goes against our vehicle's instincts to live, while the Luciferians will create facsimile in stimulating humans to commit suicide for one's nation as soldiers at times do and in the last days will be seen done by certain religio-spiritual based groups. But the real deal group, for those willing to examine it, will clearly be set apart from all other groups. They will be shunned or ignored or hated by virtually everyone yet for no apparent reason except that they do represent the ultimate truth that had by now become nearly totally masked.

II.C.4.a.i. SUMMARY OF THE (SONG) REQUIREMENTS OF THOSE WHO BECOME PART OF THE FIRST HARVEST; THEY FOLLOW THE LAMB (Older member) WHITHERSOEVER HE GOETH. They RECOVER their VIRGINITY FOR CHRYSALIS (CHRISTING) SAKE - BREAKING COMMITMENTS (MARRIAGES, ETC.) TO ALL HUMANS - CHARACTERISTIC EACH OF THE OVERCOMERS (TRUE ORIGINAL ISRAELI'S) MUST HAVE. THEY HAVE NO GUILLE (DECEIT) AND ARE WITHOUT FAULT. THEY HAVE WASHED THEIR ROBES ACCORDING TO THE INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE INCARNATE OLDER MEMBER THEY BOND TO

THEY FOLLOW THE LAMB (Older member) WHITHERSOEVER HE GOETH:

It is said as following the LAMB because it's not following Jesus as Jesus was the name of the vehicle he took that he also took with him but would not be returning to be used for a new incarnation, proven by there being a new name.

It is however the same Older Member who incarnated as Jesus that must be followed and he will be one of the Two Witnesses and as said will have a new name not determined when this prophecy was given. During the times (thousand of human/earth years) no representative from the Kingdom of God/Heaven is incarnate, there is no way to literally be physically with this individual, thus the best one can do during that time period is to follow their teachings, keep their sayings, adhere to their instructions that prepare us for the next incarnation experience. One primary instruction Jesus left with his disciples was to "love your neighbor as yourself." This prepares the genetic human tree further, as that instruction is spread, to where selfless behavior, the WAY of Members of the Kingdom Above Human is seeded. As applied such will then provide the physical vehicles for those Souls in the program having been saved from the human spirit world, instead taken to a Kingdom of God/Heaven resting place, to be brought back to find a vehicle to “take over” when they can literally have a face to face physical “personal” relationship with their Older Member. For some who are perhaps returning for a second time having perhaps been seeded and sprouted during the Moses classroom this third trimester is like their final exam.

However a final exam can only be administered by an incarnate Older Member, in fact by the returning Older Member Soul who was operating the vehicle called Jesus, following up with the task he began some 6000 years before. And that final exam will include literally giving one's total will to that incarnate Older Member. One can not give their will entirely to the idea or remembrance of someone and especially from a 2000 year old past. It would be like falling in love entirely with someone who you've never met, never saw, never heard their voice, never had a clear two way communication with that wasn't prone to one's imagination and never learned what characteristics they still had that they were holding onto, not knowing any better, but that would need to be addressed and overcome before that “groom” would invite that new “bride” into their home. Sure the Kingdom of God/Heaven extends a tentative offer but then we must prove to them, how much it means to us by how we think and act which requires that Older Member's physical presence. That's not to say one can't “fall in love” without their physical presence. They certainly can but that will be like a courtship that will over time prove how deep their love is. Love in this application and perhaps the most real application is in what we are willing to “give” the one we love. In the example of a Next Level “marriage,” the first step of having an attraction to one's Older Member can be thought of as “belief” in everything they say. This will be in degrees and will grow deeper and stronger the more we get to know and understand their “holy” Mind/Spirit (behaviors and ways).

Of course talking to our Older Member is crucial to that relationship and we show our “love” by “giving ourselves to them,” which is up to us, as to when and how much to give but must always be as they have disclosed to us not by our making up the “giving” as we see in the religions and spiritual movements where giving is often, so called “worship” gatherings, ceremonies, tithing to support the ministry or to charity. I know these are the terms and thinking that are prevalent among many Christian groups and no doubt there are those in these groups who just haven't heard differently which is certainly not their fault so they are doing nothing wrong by having gravitated to groups of like mindedness regarding what constitutes having a faithful relationship with the Kingdom of God/Heaven through the teachings of Jesus. But with that said, if they hear these perspectives and choose to continue in the same vein, well that's certainly a choice our Older Members want those to have but then to still expect the same results without CHANGING OUR MIND (repentance) when the opportunities are presenting themselves becomes a rejection of the real Jesus they thought they were worshiping because he has also changed and though he remains fully consistent with all he said and promised in the past, he expects more of us each time he comes incarnate.

One might say, "I wasn't there for his last incarnations," but in many cases that isn't true because of who/what we really are. We are each the most current manifestation (leaf) off the part of the human genetic tree that had it's beginning off the branch started by the Kingdom of God/Heaven or all of what is said about Jesus would be foreign. That's part of what Jesus meant when he said there would be a rising again of some to LIFE and some to DEATH in these last "judgment" days. Thus to be thinking we are to be a bride to the groom who was incarnate as Jesus means at the very least taking a good hard look at anyone who claims to be his return. We can assume nothing in this regard. Belief in Jesus means believing in ALL he taught and if we believe in all he taught as he and his disciples demonstrated then we can expect to recognize those same "fruits" in he his disciples return. Since I am saying Do was his return and Do's students the returning saints, you can not ignore all they said and did or just write it off as kooks or false prophets and expect to be showing him you want to be his "bride" if what is being reported here is true as I say it is.

However while an Older Member is not incarnate, one can certainly try to be all that Older Member would have them be, according to the instructions and guidelines provided by that Older Member and especially during the time right after an Older Member exits their incarnation, by whatever means they do so. They know who is gravitating to them and will bring a smile and help from them as they watch us from their spacecrafts and/or through those they assign to watch with their various technologies to do so with humans none the wiser.

But giving our total all (will and life, mind and body), without the Older Member(s) physically present is able to be accomplished only by following the service instructions of the Older Member(s) that they would have imparted before they left their physical body (or took their body with them, whether witnessed by humans or not). What they said will remain provided but over time will be changed but can be verified to some degree by understanding the intention of diminishing “self,” even the spiritual self. This can include “giving one's life,” that could include doing so in the same way the Older Member(s) did, “laying it down” for instance by offering our life by taking on the task of telling others about the most current incarnate Older Member(s) words, which will always be met with major skepticism and even hatred that could even result in attempts for some to try to stop you which could include having you shunned or banned or arrested and/or even killed because of.

As anyone knows from reading the records, this has been the case a number of times in the last 6000+ years, that someone sent by the Kingdom of God/Heaven to humans were at some point murdered to stop what they had to share. Usually this is done by the very ones who would say they believed in the same last incarnate Older Member's words, though had lost sight of the intention so didn't recognize a currently incarnate Older Member and/or had become so entrapped into their institutional position they saw someone teaching something new, however consistent with the former teachings, though with upgrades, as threatening to their “flock.” That's how it will be self justified and you will be called to them a heretic and could be killed in their God's name who at that point will be a false god they have become the pawns of. However, that will only accelerate one to further service to one's Older Member in the Kingdom of God/Heaven because at that point the vehicle we use is NOT who we are. We are the Soul occupying that vehicle.

For new believers this can be traumatic to think about, as we accumulate more of the (holy) Mind from our Older Member(s), as provided in the form of information and examples, provided by Them while they were incarnate, over time we also begin to think and feel as they think and feel (though we can't ever trust that we are thinking as they unless we have it in from their mouth or their trusted active students mouth and/or writing) as part of our tests are having even assigned adversaries in the unseen world to tempt us and try to dissuade us, all of which are never more than we can handle if we ask for help and employ the help we received largely by the examples and words from the last incarnate Older Member(s).

But it is through all the tests that we begin to know that we are not the body and we begin to know that often the way in which we exit our task is to either allow our vehicle to be killed by the opposing forces, as Jesus did, or if the Older Member's, like I said left evidence in their exit example and instruction that some could follow in their footsteps, then this would be the ONLY time it would actually be a positive to lay down one's own life, by whatever means the Older Members did, which to the humans who observe this would consider suicide and even a manipulation, when the Kingdom of God/Heaven never manipulates their membership whether younger or older.

The Kingdom of God/Heaven briefs Members on the task they are to perform, like the Older Member who incarnated into the vehicle named Jesus demonstrated, knowing it included laying down his human vehicle's life at some point, to be the example for upcoming students, who at a previous time, as Souls in human vehicles were also prepared to follow suit as service to their Older Member that would qualify them for the reward of a new eternal life in the Kingdom of God/Heaven family.

If someone takes what I am saying here to justify ending their human life, because they think by doing so they will be demonstrating heroism as a martyr or as a way to inflict pain and suffering on someone else, they are missing the point. The Luciferians love bastardizing what they know the Kingdom of God/Heaven is prone to do, so will stimulate humans to light themselves on fire to protest this or that injustice, or will make themselves into a human bomb to kill others too, thinking somehow that they are serving God, by whatever language and custom/tradition one thinks they are serving God. The Kingdom of God/Heaven would never condone such, mainly because it takes away another's life and thus the option to make choices that could bring them closer to the Kingdom of God/Heaven, especially during times when Older Member(s) are incarnate or left that exit method as an open “window of opportunity.”

Of course the Luciferians will point out to those that are looking to find fault with the Next Level and their incarnate Representatives, that Moses presided over the killing of members of his encampment. All I can say to that is that Moses was an Older Member from the Next Level acting on Jehovah's instructions so if he did preside over such a taking of another's life, it was with Jehovah's approval, which was during a First Trimester lesson step, when they would be students, even some of them being new Souls in those vehicles were not ready for the more advanced lesson so took on the "eye for an eye" lesson step that may have even been a result as Jesus indicated about divorce as given to them because of their "hardened hearts." Ultimately, all human vehicles are expendable - used like a caterpillar to engage one's stage in the metamorphosis into a new creature - a viable Soul Body (Butterfly). Someone who doesn't believe in the Next Level in any way, shape or form and who is on a campaign to justify their own belief (or call it non-belief belief) will harp on anything that seems like a contradiction, perhaps even unable to separate different lesson steps and the responses of the Next Level to their growing student body.

Anyway, for those that are Christians, they don't need to justify what Moses did or didn't do as it is clear that Jesus was bringing updates and certainly didn't condone any killing of another for any reason and his teachings are the criteria to follow most, that is until Ti and Do. Of course the Luciferians seek to build certain humans into figures that others might see as their god who then would seem to have the same authority Moses had. But these who the Luciferians commandeer into taking that authority clearly demonstrate many characteristics that are against the teachings of the Next Level, so those that follow them should pay attention to.

The Jim Jones and Solar Temple suicides are example of a Luciferian facsimile of what the Luciferians thought the Kingdom of God/Heaven Older Members might do upon exit, so they found susceptible leaders to entrap people into that thinking. People were directly and indirectly pressured into killing themselves and others, namely children who don't have the capacity to make that kind of final choice. The real Kingdom of God/Heaven representatives would never have children among their congregation at a time when members would have to "give their lives" to show their allegiance as children can't decide to make that kind of choice.

Again the exception was in the first trimester as was the case in the Moses encampment. Note there were no children spoken of with the disciples. The one instance where children were reported was in a public setting when Jesus was talking to some who had children. So if someone is saying they are representing the messiah or return of Jesus or even the Maitreya terminology and they suggest joining them and they say, you can bring your spouse or partner and children and parents, they are knowingly or unknowingly misleading you. Other adults whether in your family or not are free to join but not as your family member as all human relationships need to cease when joining with a real representative from the only one true Kingdom of God/Heaven. However should one get involved with one of these facsimile's not realizing at the time what it is, no harm is necessarily done any more than any harm necessarily comes from joining a religion or spiritual or paranormal or scientific group. It's all human experience and often we learn what is most true by recognizing what we are clear isn't true (real).

Sometimes the society has grown to become so rotten, that when the Older Members come incarnate, most hardly blink an eye to the few things they are told over the "state like" media and especially when the way in which the Older Member(s) and their students perform their prophesying sounds so fanatical to most humans, they are easily labeled a cult so even those who show interest have the deck stacked against them, though the Kingdom of God/Heaven always has ways to level the playing field and anyone who is fooled by Luciferians, as in the Jim Jones event, has their Soul saved and is given a future opportunity to meet the real deal.

When the Older Member is not incarnate, there are still adversarial evil (trouble making) spirits that tempt and challenge anyone that desires to serve the Kingdom of God/Heaven, but these largely do so by entrapping them into religious devotion which is continuously morphed into an illusionary service. For instance in the way such is made into a career choice to where they are at least among many put on a pedestal by other humans and looked to for advise on every front of life as if they were serving God when it's most often anything but. For some they enter in thinking they feel called to God's work and they do become strong proponents of some of the Kingdom of God/Heaven's ways and thus in line with what Jesus left examples of - helping the sick, the poor, the abandoned or victims of a society and/or predatory for material profit only mindset. These who keep looking to the One True Kingdom of God/Heaven are observed by those working in the Kingdom of God/Heaven and are given future opportunities to grow in their service to the Kingdom of God/heaven that eventually will take the shape of being offered a close personal relationship with the next planned incarnate Older Member. If they live during a time when there is no incarnate Older Member, then when they die, their Soul body, regardless of how young in their service, is saved and brought back for further opportunities.

But for many, religiosity of any kind becomes an entrapment as they can begin to think the “church” organization, their buildings, their priests, their curriculum, their holy days, their ways of celebrating or consecrating, or christening or baptizing or even excommunicating are THE authority of the Kingdom of God/Heaven's intention on Earth. Those individuals that are satisfied by that get their reward, whatever it is, but it's probably not a future opportunity to actually become a member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven. This is all going to be on an individual basis that fellow humans can not judge accurately. But for the hierarchy of such organizations, they know it or not are misleading others if they don't teach the core teachings of what is required to be considered an applicant to Kingdom of God/Heaven membership. If they do teach this they won't find themselves employed by these big institutional hierarchies very long.

When one is literally making their abode with the Older Member(s) then every aspect of life in that communal and Bedouin (“son of man has no place to lay his head”) type situation becomes a lesson that students can gain from, in degrees according to their own thirst and desire to BE (consume all) what that Older Member (contains/provides), in thought, words and actions. Thus one is replacing their ALL with their Older Member's ALL.

With the Older Member incarnate again, there is no question - nothing for students to debate much as when they come to points of disagreement, they simply, at first opportunity ask the Older Member face to face or by whatever means the Older Member provides to receive their mind or resolve problems.

Since the Older Members when incarnate always bring upgrades of what they brought before there is nothing in actual life experiences that becomes too little to draw from their minds, the way in which they would, think about and approach doing anything, though what they give us is never contrived either. In other words the Older Members are not going to try to make so many rules on how to do everything as a stock program organization. They evolve the lesson plan and it's not necessarily about the most efficient way of doing something because to answer they are drawing from their Older Member's mind and that can mean their answer may be exactly what might test a student to “change their mind” (repent), though as said the Older Member doesn't calculate what and who the tests would be most for. For instance they aren't going to think, how can I give an answer that will test the student as a human leader might do. They simply give the answer from the example that their Older Member had set for them, in the case of Ti and Do, when Ti was incarnate and served as a partner for Do, when he learned how she thought about many things. He would draw on that experience while keeping his mind open to what Ti might say in any one particular circumstance, since it could change from when he was incarnate but because of his desire to know the truth, then draws it from Ti's mind, while also remaining open to change it down the road as circumstances change. We were taught by Ti and Do that “flexability” was a Next Level member characteristic which made it impossible to second guess though the process for younger Members or Student members to try.

Being right is of little value. It's desiring to know how our Older Member would do it or have us do it and being flexible to change on a dime to Their way as opposed to holding onto our personal preference.

Examples will fill the time while a group of students are physically “following with” an Older Member in such an Overcoming Program. What one is overcoming is their vehicle's desires and habits, conquering that pull what is often deeply seeded in our brain/consciousness that often has become rigidity embedded.

Let's say an example is in how much toothpaste to use. This was one of many things Ti and Do provided instructions on because someone asked what they did and/or Ti and Do felt the group was using too much and it's a way of a Member of the Next Level to only use what you need and to never assume you will have an endless supply of what you need. Ti and Do said there are types of warehouses in the Next Level where there are tools and ingredients that those with assigned tasks that needed those things can go to get what they need for their task.

But in the example of toothpaste, one student observed a fellow student covering the entire length of the bristles with a big log of toothpaste and felt it was excessive as they were assigned the task of buying supplies and knew that the Older Members sought to be efficient and frugal with expenses and use of materials. So they wrote a note to Ti and Do as that was the method given students as if we happened to pass Ti and Do in the hallway, unless they instigated conversation students wouldn't try to ask them anything. There could be exceptions and Ti and Do would never actually stop a student from asking them a question in that way. They would respond and then afterward might bring it up as a lesson to go through channels of writing notes, that is unless there was some emergency. We would otherwise just pass them by with a smile if that's what we felt, not trying to take away from what's on their minds. I never saw them causally stroll around. There was no chit chatting in the classroom. Our instruction was to only speak to one another when we had something to talk about that was task related.

So the toothpaste amount question became an opportunity to see what Ti and Do would say. It's not the toothpaste in consideration here. It's the tool to change out our human mind and replace it with an Older Members mind which amounts to getting rid of our way and instead doing it their way which also tends to accumulate in those that harbor rebelliousness that can end up growing to a challenge to their continence in that overcoming classroom. Some don't have any problems with sensuality but can really be threatened by not being able to do what they want to do when they want to do it. Some get very claustrophobic as well. Rkkody had that problem. There was an ongoing joke that Rkkody might get an inkling for a pizza and couldn't stand not being able to just hop in a car and go get one. He ended up being in and out of the classroom perhaps 4 times because of this difficulty. Even though he laid down his life a year or so after the 38 other students did, he may still need to come back to a human experience with an incarnate Older Member to overcome that weakness. But every time he was outside the classroom he longed to be back in the classroom. I know this because I, with the group I was overseer of, with Chkody as my partner, stayed in the house where he was staying in Denver in 1994 when we started to hold public meetings again and he and I did some things together and he talked to me about it. Just some months before that he did rejoin when some others did. Do even gave him tasks to do while he was in the world. He was known by some UFO researchers like Bill Lear as Rick Edwards. Perhaps he can learn that lesson in some other way, but on a Next Level spacecraft, as one would experience even in a human corporate job or in the military, if you can't follow instructions you are potentially a problem for the crew and you can't be trusted. In the Next Level they would not keep you in a task where you could not be trusted unless they wanted to give you the chance to learn that lesson and they knew you couldn't mess things up too bad.

RECOVERING ONES VIRGINITY FOR CHRYSALIS (CHRISTING) SAKE - ANOTHER CHARACTERISTIC EACH OF THE OVERCOMERS (TRUE ORIGINAL ISRAELI'S) MUST HAVE. These characteristics are like the notes in the piano roll, the notes of the NEW SONG that only they and any who come after them will know how to sing:

Rev 14:4 These ((3778 houtos= same ones who)) (are) they ((1526 eisi= agreed (covenant) to dure (hard, severe, rough, toils))) which ((3739 hos= which, that, who)) were ((3326 meta = (accompaniment), “amid,” after(-ward), hence, hereafter, since)) not ((3756 ou= not, no longer, be unworthy)), defiled ((3435 moluno= also to, pollute, stain, contaminate)) with ((3326 meta= (accompaniment) together with, follow after)) woman ((1135 gune= (most likely from) 1096 ginomai= “to cause to be (“gen”-erate), be married)); for ((1063 gar= because, therefore, verily(truly))) (they) are ((1526 eisi= agreed (covenant) to be)) virgins ((unmarried, non-sexual, [uncommitted to human])). These (are) they which follow (the) Lamb whithersoever (he) goeth. These (were) redeemed from (among) men, (being the) first fruits ((first or beginning to reign and exit by sacrifice)) (unto) God and (to the) Lamb.

This verse provides some primary definitions of the behaviors and ways (fruits) this group of first fruits would maintain to graduate the human condition, depicted as a harvest. They were not going to be defiled aka stained or “dirty” to Their Older Member's standard. Moses as per instructions from Jehovah, had students wash their clothes to prepare for his return from visiting with Jehovah on Mt. Sinai, in addition to abstaining from “coming into their wives” - which I imagine most always involved intercourse. This seems to have been the first part of the lesson to eventually outgrow human propagation and the sexuality that goes with it along with the precursor to baptism, to wash one's physical clothing and body as would need to be done to “overcome their humanness” entirely.

They will have walked with the Lamb in white. This means in the maintenance of a sufficient degree of purity according to the standards of the Father (Jehovah) and Son (Lamb/Jesus. Another way to say this is that they have “washed their garments.” This means they would have cleaned out their old human self centered mammalian, seed bearing creature behaviors and ways in thoughts, words and deeds from the consciousness of their physical body/brain to include specifically no longer “staining their clothing (body)” with the accompaniment of a spouse (woman/wife, not meant to be gender related but has to do with procreating). In other words they will no longer procreate which was the entire point to the covenant called “marriage” in the first place. It was a way to teach us to have a commitment to one person who would also become our partner and we could raise a family with because in so doing we would have lessons to help us get out of our “self” to instead “give our lives” to the service of another, the spouse and the resulting children.

But by the third trimester in the growth of Souls and the human gnome (plants), because of the Luciferian fallen angel space aliens influence over people, starting with Adam and Eve, then throughout the Moses and Jesus trimesters, marriage, though still presents lessons almost completely misses the point of it's origin. People are fairly quick to get married and have children and sex has become seen as a way to keep the marriage together and as entertainment, as well as in the propagation of children. There are plenty of vehicles on the planet. The Next Level doesn't need humans to generate more vehicles yet many are taught in actually all the religions that having a family is God's will for most of us.

It's not that it's wrong to have children. It's certainly an option for the human kingdom but the time is at hand for some to decide between staying human or reaching beyond human, which a child can not choose to do, not having gotten into their humanness enough to recognize what needs to be overcome. Thus these 144 (thousand) who are considered worthy to obtain membership in the Kingdom of Heaven don't marry once they commit to following the incarnate present Next Level Older Member. Before they made this commitment they could have been married and could have had children but once they make that new commitment they wouldn't seek to be married or to have children and would from that point on be “virgins,” someone who abstains from that commitment and sexuality with anyone else giving themselves entirely to their relationship with their Older Member, whether he is still incarnate or not. He expects of his Active Students their faithfulness. That's why Jesus gave the illustration of virgins preparing themselves to meet the "bridegroom." That Older Member then becomes their spouse as it's not a gender thing any longer either as the Older Member, as a advanced Soul, regardless of the human vehicle he takes is NOT a male or a female and his Next Level body isn't either. We use the pronoun "him" mostly for the ease of speaking. Man actually means a "living human being." A human isn't living really if they have no Next Level mind in them. Next Level mind makes them a "living Soul" though they can at any time lose it if they so choose.

Luk 20:34 And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

Luk 20:35 But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

Luk 20:36 Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection.

Mat 22:28 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

Mat 22:29 Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.

Mat 22:30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.

Mat 22:31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying,

Mat 22:32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

The Kingdom of God/Heaven designed male and female creatures for a reason and obviously had in mind certain functions and thus lessons to learn from the execution of those primary functions surrounding propagation of the human species. By the time of the third trimester like so many lesson steps there will be no differences between what male and female* humans would be expected to live up to, to WASH THEIR ROBES AND WALK WITH THEIR OLDER MEMBER (LAMB) IN WHITE, etc. (This is why in the mid 1800's in the United States a movement came public to abolish inequalities between female and male and between people of color and what became known as “whites” as the Kingdom of God/Heaven was stimulating more equal justice among all human beings in preparation for the arrival of Their Representatives and student body return for their third trimester towards their Soul births).

*re: male and female, in the third trimester, from the “Gospel of Thomas” regarding when the disciple would enter the Kingdom of God/Heaven?

Jesus said to them, “When you make the two into one, and when you make the inner like the outer and the outer like the inner, and the upper like the lower, and WHEN YOU MAKE MALE AND FEMALE INTO A SINGLE ONE, SO THAT THE MALE WILL NOT BE MALE NOR THE FEMALE BE FEMALE, when you make eyes in place of an eye, a hand in place of a hand, a foot in place of a foot, an image in place of an image, then you will enter [the kingdom].”

After all this is the third and last trimester before actual Spirit/Mind Soul birth so students must be challenged to come further through the birth canal and that means stronger and stricter self discipline on the content and behavior of one's mind and body. This will entail getting rid of all forms of judgment of one another and bias so these will become both colorblind (in terms of thinking of and treating fellow humans with different skin pigments differently on the basis of skin color), and genderless in terms of treating male and/or females differently.

In Ti and Do's classroom if a task was better performed by a male for whatever reason, most often where physical strength was a factor the accomplishment of the task would take precedence over trying to be equal minded in who gets assigned that task.

Interestingly the first two points on regaining “virginity” (no longer giving allegiance to anything human, no human relationship, etc.) and following the lamb are both pertaining to what these 144 (thousand) would agree to do/maintain, how to behave and what kind of allegiance was necessary to measure up to being among the “first fruit” harvested.

It's impossible to know who will be considered part of that first fruit harvest following the Older Members exit of their incarnations with the primary first fruit students. It appears from this record of prophecy that everyone who abides by these standards provided and “gives their life” to the service of Ti and Do and who give their all to adopting all the behavior and ways of Ti and Do and Crew to the best of their ability might very well be considered part of that first fruit harvest which might entail a different “reward” (so to speak) than those that don't give their all. That reward appears to be a new clean white body, grown for them even though it would not be an Adult Next Level body as Do even indicated some who layed down their lives with him in 1997 will not receive what I am calling an adult Next Level body until they have more experience overcoming the human world which they can only do to the needed degree when the Older Members are incarnate and they are dwelling with them.

How much we give is up to us and we can count on being rewarded accordingly, even though, at least for me th e rewards never motivated me. Maybe had I been more awake, it would have motivated me and had me take certain lesson steps more seriously. It's not that I didn't take it all very seriously. I just didn't know how much I had to overcome which is exactly why the Older Members need to be with us to lead us through and even why Ti left ahead of Do, because then the Next Level could be more aware of what a student is knowingly or unknowingly keeping hidden.

Furthermore this is certainly not intending that “defiling” is only something these don't do when it's with females. Many Christians take it that way but they are not accounting for the progression of thinking and the higher standards each incarnate Older Member presents. If even desiring to be with a woman while married to another is also adultery but Jesus was giving that understanding to his closest disciples at that time he was incarnate last, not telling them much more about how/why they won't be marrying in the next trimester, can't it be expected that upon his incarnate return he would have more to say about it.

Ti and Do said adultery was now defined as “not becoming an adult” in the eyes of the Older Members, that is remaining only a “child of god” which is not guaranteed of becoming an adult though it is guaranteed their children will become adults if they stay in the overcoming program which is defined by the most current instructions given by the most current incarnate Older Member that will be consistent and consistently an upgrade in effort, behavior, ways and perspectives continuously. If we say we are looking for Jesus return and are abiding by all Jesus taught and then upon his return we ignore him because we are not willing to change our mind from the ways in which we became inaccurately programmed then, we are refusing to see him for who he is upon his return and are refusing to take the steps to becoming more of an adult in His Next Level eyes.

Thus in this light at this stage all marriage would be a contamination of the purity they are reaching for from their Older Member's examples and instructions on how to achieve that purity, as students need to qualify by giving their all or at least growing to that, though all determined by the Older Members. One can go off into a mountain and refrain from all sensuality and talk to God, pray to God in whatever language and be far from the completion of their overcoming because it is imperative that one gives themselves to their incarnate Older Member face to face or at least to him after he has been face to face and left record we can trust was from him and can see the face of that last incarnation. That would seem to me to be a start of a face to face relationship and I believe can be just as powerful, relative to what each student needs, as being with him face to face because just being face to face doesn't guarantee you bond with him as evidenced by all those who were face to face with Jesus and Do and Ti who dropped away and even went against him. (With Jesus we only have record of one, but I'd guess there were others in that group of 70 disciples he at the time had).

Being with the Older Member or to at least have his words to refer to is an imperative to overcoming because otherwise it becomes one's opinion of what to overcome and to what degree and they are not faced with the things the Older Members will be led to face their students with. That's why it takes a "personal relationship" with the Older Member. Christians who use the terminology of a "personal relationship with Jesus" have the intention right but that personal relationship, as said can only be had during the time He is literally incarnate and with that same individual. After the Older Member has left that incarnation the relationship is build with each student by the students desire to communicate "by phone," like "ET Phone Home."

The only way to have a personal relationship with the Older Member who served as Jesus to date is to seek that relationship with Do. He has ways to let you know he is considering you one of his children but how and when he does that is of their determination and doesn't reflect whether someone is doing well or not. Doing well is sticking with seeking his Mind and applying it as best we can.

Actually the primary reason these overcomers need to cease such activities as marriage before they qualify is because 1) it's their instruction and 2) those behaviors are like contaminants in the new "Soul body" they are filling with the Holy Mind/Spirit they are receiving from their Older member, incarnate and then after that Older Member exits, through abiding by all their instructions as best we can, not judging ourselves but also not accepting falling short as it is a Kingdom of God/Heaven way to expect of us a great deal so we can also grow to expect of ourselves a great deal but if/when we fall in some area, we try to also develop the resolve to build better armor against the lower forces that stimulate our falling short.

It's not a cop out to blame the discarnate lower forces. They are not alive and you can do them no harm and if for no other reason the thinking and approach works. It doesn't even matter how much we believe in the existence of discarnates. Theoretically they might also be thought projections, even from a Luciferian space alien spacecraft or a human counterpart. The point is, if it's a negative thought by Kingdom of God/heaven standards then put a label on it and send it packing to where eventually you don't even know the content of the thought - you can tell by it's brand (vibration) it's not a thought you want to entertain. But there will always be more tests and as long as we don't quit we build our mind from each battle that doesn't cause us to quit. Thus we can't judge ourselves either. Additionally as already said there is additional consideration to the translation of "virgin" to be described shortly.

Because Kingdom of God/Heaven behaviors and ways do not mix with Human behaviors and ways, any parallels are the result of the Kingdom of God/Heaven's program to prepare humans, specifically the branches of the human tree of Their choosing, to become the caterpillar/host's vehicles for the Soul Body's (seeds) sown (deposited) to make use of to complete their metamorphosis into Adult New Members (Butterflies) of the Kingdom of God/Heaven through their overcoming of their human mammalian based behaviors and ways that in so doing brings them to their Soul's birth, aka graduation, aka being harvested as "fruit" - having value to the Kingdom of God/Heaven as the "fruit" become in the process further fruit makers as seed spreaders.

-“not defiled with woman”

Some Christians will look at this analysis and think it's over analyzing, thinking this line in this verse about “not defiled with woman” strictly refers to not being an adulterer because according to laws Jehovah through Moses established for Their student group, when either party is married, vowed to be together or arranged by the rules Moses established, having sexual intercourse with someone other than their spouse is a “defiling” behavior. Other defiling sexual intercourse behaviors seemed to include anal intercourse, as will be shown seems to be what Moses was referring to and intercourse with animals and certain relatives, while Jesus ADDED to this list for those who want to be his disciples and then Ti and Do moved the bar even higher to consider any sex at all as defiling behavior for their Active Students to expect to be among those harvested. (And sex of course is not the only form of sensual gratification that needs to be outgrown but is what this verse is focused on.

As the Book of Revelations was written with an eye to the future following the Jesus incarnate task, what is “defiled” takes on a new scope appropriate to the third trimester first fruit, while demonstrating consistent increases of standards in that definition:

Defiled has to do with something being “contaminated, stained, polluted, dirty, unclean,” which in these terms would have to do with “not abiding/living in the ways given by the Kingdom of God/Heaven through the parts of the record that evidence coming from the Kingdom of God/Heaven through an incarnate Older Member, namely that of Moses and then Jesus and to date as must come from the Two Witnesses. Each have their degrees of updating the previous standards of that depicted cleaning, as they are NOT defiled. Bringing updates does cancel some of the old. For instance forgiving others their trespasses against us is an update for the previous “eye for an eye” justice as is “turn the other cheek” as is not stoning someone for adultery and how adultery is defined to start with.

There were many rules in the Moses camp that Jesus didn't enforce or indicated were a lessor priority or were given because of some of the students “hardness of heart.” For instance:

Mar 7:5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands?

Jesus points out to those that criticize his disciples how they are supposed to honour their father and mother but instead treat them as if they are gifted by what they can profit because of them, making the commandment of no effect and showing how they worship God in vain while teaching the doctrine of men. Then he goes on to explain where the real defiling of ourselves before God is expressed:

Mar 7:18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him;

Mar 7:19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats?

Mar 7:20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

Mar 7:21 For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

Mar 7:22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

Mar 7:23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

Moses did provide a number of instructions on what to eat and what not to eat. Those instructions were specifically tailored to that “classroom” though can still have their value today, though we don't know all the reasons for all the instructions. True Students shouldn't have to know the reasons necessarily as it was their lesson to trust Moses who was evidenced to them as being who Jehovah appointed them to listen to. The Next Level gives instructions according to the circumstances and what the students most need to learn. In Ti and Do's classroom there were a number of times when some suggested what they thought were more efficient ways of doing something and Ti and Do remind them that they weren't seeking to be most efficient. They were seeking to give the students what they felt their Older Members would give. I could be wrong but think I recall Rthody talking about the efficiency, who left the class a few years after he brought this up at a meeting and then went on record on Larry King live (that I think I invited him to do) and in other interviews speaking against Ti and Do after they left their vehicles.

Jesus updated the food instructions for his students because even though those instructions may have still had value to follow, they were not as important as what he was newly delivering. Coming with updates becomes a separator of those who are part of the distortion that develops after the Rep exits which is the same thing that has happened since Ti and Do and Crew came and exited, but this time these who are in greatest opposition to what Ti and Do taught are largely Christian leaders.

While on the subject of food, Ti and Do started out the classroom in Wyoming, living in tents hidden in Medicine Bow National Forest, in the Veedavou rustic no facilities camping area in July of 1976 with no specific food related instructions. They were actually giving groups money to split up among the partnerships in each group and instructed the group to go to the nearby city of Laramie, Wyoming to buy our supplies. They didn't say what to buy or what not to buy, except that what we bought needed to last a week and we had no refrigeration so we had to make up menus. Each partnership of 2 or 3 students did all their own cooking and cleaning at the same times each day so if Ti and Do wanted to hold a meeting food preparation and cleanup would not interfere. One might think, that wasn't very efficient to have around 100 students split into twos preparing about 150 meals each day. Even cost-wise pooling our money and efforts would have been more efficient.

But efficiency in this case wasn't the priority for the instructions Ti and Do felt they were given by their Older Members in the heavens to put into motion. If one thinks about it the purpose to being in the wilderness was to start the overcoming of our humanness. (See Rev 12:6). Anyone who has lived with another human knows that in many cases and especially when there may be little in common, problems most always arise between people. To further accelerate lessons, meaning to learn to deal with problems in a Next Level way, that Ti and Do would explain to us as circumstances came up, Ti and Do instigated a number of lesson steps. One was called called, "smooth whirlwind":

Everyday, I believe for all 50 or so partnerships, each would temporarily split up. One from each partnership would walk over to the nearby group and take the place of one who was leaving that group to go to yet another. In this way we were with a different person every day in their tent. The next day you'd return to your home tent and you'd have a different partner come visit your home tent while the partner who didn't switch partners and groups then switched and you stayed in your tent. Then it would take place between two other groups. (That's my best recollection of it and I don't recall if we did this that long so that we each were partners for a day with every student).

All the tents were set up in the same kind of way. Ti and Do had bought a bunch of camping gear when the group was first formulating and as needed thereafter. This largely consisted of a two person tent that was big enough to stand up in the middle of. On opposite sides of the tent each student had a cot that had a foam pad on it and a sleeping bag and whatever blankets we had with us and a pillow. In between the two cots on the sides was a folding table where the 2 burner unleaded gasoline powered cook stove sat. Each morning a sponge bath was required. We would either take turns using the tent or put up a sheet or blanket divider so there would be privacy and both bathe at the same time.

Males were expected to shave most everyday according to their beard growth. We tried to use a tiny bit of shampoo so there wasn't so much soap to rinse out of our hair. We had limited water we hauled from town in 5-6 gallon jugs. Each tent had one jug. A bath would not take more than a gallon. We would heat enough water for two every morning to use in the bath. We each had our own wash basin to catch the water in and we stood on a towel. We also used that basin to wash our clothing in. Every other day there would be a "water run" that each group scheduled at different times so at any one time there was less visible activity as we were staying in these areas way beyond what was allowed, though there were only a few rangers that would scout the area and we picked locations that were hidden in the trees. This was high chaparral desert land so was very dry with large rock formations spread around and small pine trees that clustered here and there. There were no roads so we'd just carefully drive in between the tree and rock clusters and sagebrush.

To compound our lessons working together to prepare the meals, clean up and do the bathes, etc. we were given the instruction to not talk at all. If we really got stuck we could write down a keyword. After about a week or two, they said saying a keyword was okay but as little as needed. So we did lots of motioning and shaking our head yes or no. It was always interesting and challenging depending on what we thought about each person we were with we'd have various degrees of awkwardness as there was no standard separation of genders. All gender consciousness was human and needed to be risen above. That meant not seeing a classmate by what their vehicle looked like or stimulated or repelled but only by their mind which in this case was a joint decision to try to make only the Mind provided by Ti and Do.

Since I started this description of that time with food in mind, one thing that seemed to start and spread throughout most of the camps was fudge making. I suspect some got carried away with the fudge. It seemed like many, many of the lesson steps we were given put some to the test of going overboard in one way or another which brought about more guidelines or the elimination of that activity altogether. Less than a year later, having moved south to Texas for the winter and then back up to Wyoming in the spring, Ti and Do started a supply tent and we were all in one area, actually renting space on a very large private ranch. We had a tent city of different configurations and we'd each get our food supplies from the supply tent. There was a crew assigned to distribute the supplies to each partnership.

Around this same time Ti and Do gave us what I thought was a huge hard candy ration. They felt we needed sugar for the changes we were experiencing to our thinking. That wasn't too hard a regimen for most to follow. We each had something like a dozen or so pieces of candy to eat daily.

A year or so after that time, we got two large tents, one for meetings and the other as a dining hall and some industrial propane burners that began what they called the "Nutri Lab" which stood for Nutrition Laboratory where we performed "experiments" that humans would call recipes. The lesson step was described as changing the way we looked at food to seeing it as "FUEL" no different than gasoline for a car, that objective. They even gave the instruction not to eat while doing anything else saying you don't fill your car with gasoline while driving the car. Of course I'd bet if some could they would, but that's how they explained it.

Ti and Do made the menus then. The "experiments" (meals) were posted as if the components were chemicals. Thus " $MP + CN = \text{Body Changes}$ " where MP=mash potatoes and CN=corn. I don't suspect many of us understood how they were "body changes" but we believed it. Later I realized that what made them body changes was "abiding by their instructions" as that was literally adding Their MIND (thoughts, words, ideas, concepts, awareness) to our MIND that was literally stored in the Soul pocket/container all disciples were given that was illustrated as the balloons in the vase I've detailed before. That's the body that was changing - even growing literally bigger and bigger or more and more dense perhaps - probably both ways. That Soul container was who we really were as we emptied our human behaviors and ways from the container termed our Spirit body that left us more and more like children because of.

To have an idea of what the experiments consisted of, they included spaghetti with meat sauce, beans, rice, cabbage and cornbread, mashed potatoes with gravy, corn and salad, scrambled eggs, bacon and toast, cream of wheat, malt-o-meal, pancakes, tuna or peanut butter and jelly sandwiches and deserts like jello or pudding or an occasional cake and once in a blue moon Ti and Do would bring ice cream into the camp. There was no coffee or caffeinated teas or beverages, except orange juice for 1st Experiment and usually apples and bananas were available as an in between meal snack. There were no times to eat besides the assigned times. No one went hungry though I'm sure some were used to eating more and certainly dealt with certain likes and dislikes that Ti and Do became the deciders of what should be tolerable.

The items were pretty generic and plain but always well prepared and tasty and portions were moderate. When we were consuming flesh foods, we'd only have them a couple times a week and in very small well done portions. Like maybe two small chicken legs, or what might be 1/8th of a pound of ground beef in a hamburger patty or two slices of bacon or two breakfast sausages with one scrambled egg (with grits and toast with a tiny amount of butter and a half teaspoon of jam for two slices of toast (for some examples).

I don't know if at that time they ate the same foods we were provided. I know at some point Do told us Ti could only keep toast and tea down but this was well after we moved out of tents I believe. If someone had a problem they could write a note and Ti and Do might exclude them from being required to consume that item or give them an alternate or take it off the menu.

Years later, after Ti left her vehicle, Do started us on a very thorough series of cleansing diets to include fasting and juicing that went from what could be called a strict vegan mucosless diet to live foods we grew ourselves (sprouts we'd blend into green drinks and wheat grass juice and implementation of various dietary health programs like from the Hippocrates Health Institute and Dr. Christophers mucusless diet program and Dr. Walkers work and several more.

Well before this we'd moved into houses we called our "craft" to sync with Next Level thinking. We ended up writing a book called, "The Transfiguration Diet," calling ourselves the "Littlegreen think tank." One of our resident artists drew a picture of a extraterrestrial who was not grotesque or insect looking and he was named "Dr. Littlegreen" and was the focus of cartoon like drawings throughout the book. For a short while we had a small organic food booth at a local California flea market and we called ourselves, ALERT standing for, "Advanced Life Extension Research Team." Little did the public know that what we meant by Life Extension was really not our vehicles. We never did any preaching during those 17 years. As we bought so much produce in bulk for juicing at the Los Angeles docks at that time, to help afford it we tried to sell some.

Do said, Ti didn't need this experience of getting completely flexible with what we put in our mouths, although it was also part of trying to find the best sources for good energy and clear thinking. We would be on one of these programs for months and then go back to a diet that included some flesh foods again for some months and then would try yet another program. All the while Do was monitoring the student responses and adjusting things accordingly as we went. Do thought after the fact that it was even helpful for the health of the vehicle to have lots of changes. We had next to zero junk foods for most of the 1990's with very healthy combinations and preparations but like said would go back to previous diets that would include deserts that we prepared from scratch most of the time.

But with all this said, here is how Jesus updated Moses food instructions though that's not to say they still didn't adhere to Moses instructions. They were simply not seen as big of a priority as Jewish leaders insisted they be. And that was understandable but still Jesus pointed out how they would bend over backwards to be sure to chastise someone for not washing their hands while at the same time would be breaking another Moses law at the same time:

Mat 15:17 Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

Mat 15:18 But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man.

Mat 15:19 For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

Mat 15:20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

But Jesus was fully supportive of all the “commandments” and actually didn't say not to follow all the procedures Moses gave. He actually told some they should follow Moses laws but didn't necessarily require it of his disciples because they were moving to the next lesson plan while others were not ready for that step yet.

In 1975 Ti and Do did tell some not to follow them as reported in the book “UFO Missionaries Extraordinary.” In the fall of 1976, they sent 19 students away from the larger group and told the larger group they “made the first cut.” They didn't think these were evidencing the kind of effort they thought would be needed to see the task of overcoming their humanness through. As it turned out it spurred about 4 of those to try to find the group years later which was no easy chore as for those years there was zero public interfacing provided, but they did return and did see it through. I am speaking of Drrody and Stlody and I don't recall the other two at this time.

After Ti and Do lost touch with the 19 they traveled to the town where they once thought they were, perhaps where they were instructed to go to find a house and get jobs, as the larger classroom was doing. Ti and Do said they walked past the very same street where they had a house. Drrody said he remembers thinking often around that time, wondering where Ti and Do were and that eventually prompted him to set out to find them, which he did in Amarillo, Texas when he walked into the Amarillo Hospital and Sngody was working there as a receptionist and Nrrrody also worked there. Ti and Do said they thought the Next Level was using the 19 as a test circumstance to see if they could grow without their Older Members physical presence with them, being part of the reason for their separation, as I understand it.

But whatever the current Older Members gives us to do, by our abiding by those instructions and procedures Ti compared to a “piano roll” - the notes of the piano that you keep adding to that ends up being the song. She also used the illustration of the song, Old MacDonald's Farm where the chorus keeps getting longer and longer adding new animal sounds to the list. We were adding “lesson steps.” Some other lesson steps and procedures included:

- talking in a whisper
- talking in keywords so not to be verbose
- no gossip
- walking softly
- closing doors softly, including cabinets
- prefacing a statement of facts that were judgments with “I could be wrong” so to breakdown the tendency to have false confidence in ourselves. For instance it wouldn't be necessary to see it raining outside and say, “I could be wrong but it's raining outside,” that is if someone asked you that question. But to say, “The cake is done” would be better said, “I could be wrong but believe the cake is done.” The idea was to develop crew mindedness which meant one didn't care to be right. They cared that the task was performed right according to the instructions from the Older Members so they sought their partners input as Next Level members most always work in crews of two or more. If they are assigned a task to do by themselves they would rather have a partner as they don't derive satisfaction from what they accomplish by themselves. They have satisfaction when their Older Member is pleased with the task they did and that includes the way they did it that is always part of the task. In this way, the Older Members can trust a task is done well yet as there are always new situations in every task, there are plenty of challenges and a need to make decisions without necessarily having a direct instruction to cover it and they don't always have their Older Member to check with when a decision needs to be made. In that way, they try to come up with what the Older Member would do and then check with them as soon as they can to see if it was. In all cases they learn. There is nothing stagnant nor boring about Next Level membership but one must be willing to erase their ego and follow their Older Member 100% to qualify as they don't need new members. That's why it's described as a gift to even have the opportunity as they make the “deposits” in certain humans they choose and then work very hard to try to give each potential student the maximum opportunities to complete their coursework to their Older Member's standards and that applies to people who begin to believe in Ti and Do right now as their presences is still accurately evident in the information they left behind.

“Defiled” is the generalization describing all characteristics a human prospective graduate from the human kingdom is given to meet. They are the behaviors and ways, in the form of thoughts and deeds that they are expected to grow beyond manifesting as otherwise, as Ti said, “would keep them off the spacecraft” and thus away from graduation. They are not pollution or contamination to a human that has not agreed (covenant) to be in such a “God Astronaut Training Program,” as Ti and Do sometimes referred to the overcoming process as.

Here is a list of areas aspirants need to avoid or restrain themselves from acting out to no longer be defiled. All humans are defiled. That's why it's said that all are sinners. It's impossible not to be because the Next Level behaviors and ways are not human mammalian behaviors and ways. It's like someone raised in France wanting to be accepted 100% in Spain so they can fully function in the Spanish society and not be seen as French any longer. They would have to learn to change everything about themselves that was French to pull it off. The reason many humans have some characteristics of the Next Level is because the Next Level Older Members have been introducing degrees of their characteristics to humans since the start of the current civilization. Yet, the Next Level do not want robots so they also provide those who hate the Next Level (the Luciferian fallen Souls) as if we choose to gravitate to them, then we are not prospects to be born into the Next Level though they may be seen as great humans, even saints and geniuses.

Rev 21:8 But the fearful*1 ((1169 deilos= dread, timid, faithless)), and unbelieving*2 ((571 apistos= (actively) disbelieving, incredible (beyond belief, deciding what is NOT possible/credible and therefore to them implausible))), and the abominable*3 ((948 bdelusso= to stink (rotten) (especially of idolatry (serving (worshiping) non-living people and/or things)), and murderers*4 ((5406 phoneus= intentional homicide, to kill (another human), slay, murder)), and whore mongers*5 ((With each trimester progressing to: giving self (body (sensuality/passion) and/or mind (head) to others for profit and/or advantage and/or satisfaction)), and sorcerers*6, and idolaters*7 ((With each trimester, progressing to: the giving of service to the “beast” (bestial humans and their organizations), those who choose to be MARKED in allegiance (head/mind) and on hand (who they work for) to false gods (human, wealth (money, fame, power, intelligence, self)), sensuality (human body))), and all liars*8, shall have their part in the lake ((liquid as in molten perhaps)) which burneth with fire ((heating up of the Mind (pressure, stress) and Body Heat from the Sun as drought, etc. and heat as in passions as sensuality; lust, anger, hate, jealously, coveting( envy), negativity)) and brimstone ((lava,molten rock/minerals)): which is the second death.

*1 fearful: The Older Members are looking for crew members who are not fearful of changing and taking on challenging tasks as such tells the Older Member they are not trusted to help them through any difficulty.

*2 unbelieving: When someone thinks they can know what's NOT possible, they are unable or unwilling to be wrong and therefore to change their mind and SEE/understand more about what they think is not possible. It is often out of fear and insecurity - not wanting to give up whatever they are clinging to that they feel gives them security. This is prevalent all through human society. Prospective members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven have to be willing to discard all their limiting fears of the unknown at least enough to at least project their asking to know the truth out into deep outer space where only Next Level Members receive such requests. Ti said when humans do this their request goes to where they are. If someone is unwilling to project that asking then they don't want to believe and the Next Level can't help them.

*3 abominable: “to stink” a primary definition relates to the decay of things living, thus that which is dead but is in the process of deterioration aka “waste.”

Mat 24:15 When ye therefore shall see the abomination* ((Idolizing (worshiping (working for)) humans as “false gods” - through technology, governments, sensuality, religions, spirituality, atheist, all human mammalian based behaviors and ways)) of desolation ((waste scheduled for recycling of the civilization to include those spirits not considered by the Next Level as savable for future opportunities in new civilization)), spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:)

Luk 16:14 And the Pharisees also, who were covetous ((5366 philarguros= loving money, avarice)), heard all these things: and they derided him.

Luk 16:15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.

This shows the aspect of idolatry as an abomination linking it to the love of money and the accumulation of wealth that becomes one's replacement for the real "God" that includes technology and intellect all combined as becoming one's "master," what Jesus referred to as "Mammon," which can also be thought of as all things human as humans are essentially mammals with the choice not to be, not to act like a mammal but to instead bond with the Older Members from the Kingdom of God/heaven who are "Above human," meaning their behavior and ways are of a much higher caliber that can be most seen as a distinction between operating on a "self" basis verses a "selfless" basis, someone serving humanity verses someone serving the creators of humanity who in turn at some stages have us serve one another (humanity) until we are grown up enough to offer some service to them which is for the benefit of humanity in enabling them to periodically outgrown their lower level of life as human.

*4 murderers - These would include all those who directly or indirectly believe in, support and justify killing another human being. It's interesting that among many Christians, killing an unborn human being falls into this category, though can not be substantiated in the biblical record as murder yet having soldiers killing in wars on foreign soils or police killings are seen as just. Ti and Do, were not pro abortion but they were for free will, thus in that way pro choice. Ti and Do were pro euthanasia. There is no commandment from the Kingdom of God/Heaven that makes it unlawful to take one's own life. The law against murder was clearly about taking the life of someone else because that interferes with their choice to live or not and unless someone is living they can't start a relationship with a Next Level Older Member. If Christians want to be in service to Jesus the Christ then they might want to consider sharing and living by what Jesus taught. And to count what Paul wrote as equivalent with what Jesus was quoted to say if there wasn't some strong reference to what Jesus said could be accepting misinformation and to teach others blasphemy. In any case, it's not for a believer in Jesus to cast a negative judgment against anyone in specific though Jesus gave many examples of how in general some were teaching misinformation, so to correct what is misinformation would be a Next Level positive to help others see the truth.

*5 whoremonger:

In all the Revelations translations to the English word “whore” or “whoremonger” the context has to do with a nation or government rather than a person. However, some think this translation is primarily related to sexual behaviors but a nation doesn't have sex and though nations as in governments of country's are ended, they are not judged as a whole. Individuals are judged when they choose to give allegiance (service) to those nations/governments as opposed to showing allegiance to the Next Level.

The Greek word used here for the English word “whoremonger” according to Strongs, which is preceded by references to the earlier volume of books considered to be the authority over translations in the Theological Dictionary of the New Testament (TDNT) defined it as:

4205 pornos from pernemi (to sell, akin to the base of 4097) A male who prostitutes his body to another's lust for hire, a male who indulges in unlawful sexual intercourse, a fornicator

Thus because of the Luciferian influence over our mind and flesh programming, who we are to push/press against, thus making oil (Kingdom of God/Heaven Holy Mind) that goes to building what Ti called our Mind's “muscle,” there is a literal battle of words/terms as it is a war in the ethers, in each of our minds, through our brain and the human vehicle's sensory system that we can come to “prevail as Jehovah” (the meaning of the word and family of seeded humans designated as Israel).

One prime example seen throughout the scriptures is how certain terms come to have certain interpretations and especially across languages and over time to where original meanings are often shrouded. I suspect that in the listed meaning of this word “whoremonger” this has been a case in point as it's listed as largely pertaining to the “male sale of intercourse,” “sale” coming from what Strongs is listing as a base for the Greek 4205 “ pornos” deriving the “selling” part as the Greek word “pernemi” that is quite elusive, not to be found in any Greek dictionary nor by it's spelling showing a linkage to the family of words of like spelling:

4204 porne - noun - generally the female person who engages in unlawful intercourse and/or sale of intercourse and/or serving idols*

4205 pornos - noun - generally the male person who engages in unlawful intercourse and/or sale of intercourse and/or serving idols*

4203 porneno verb - thus generally the act of unlawful intercourse and/or sale of intercourse and/or serving idols*

4202 porneia noun - illicit intercourse related more to adultery rules in Old Testament; not with animals, not with close relatives, not with divorced man or woman, not with Father's wife (presumably one's step mother) and/or also considered as serving of idols*

*serving idols; in the Old Testament paying homage to or working for inanimate objects made to represent or have a godly quality because of their value or thought of status as in statues made of gold (gold calf), etc. In the New Testament, this had to do with paying homage to or working for, giving service to (worshiping) “mammon” - Greek Mammonous, essentially Human as humans are mammals and thus serving humans as opposed to serving the Kingdom of God/Heaven, with the number one commandment according to Jesus being to “love the lord your God with all your heart, all your mind, all your Soul and all your strength. This however doesn't enter into the lesson plan except during the time the Older Member is incarnate, in which to serve the Kingdom, one needs to leave all behind to be literally “following/abiding with the Older Member. Upon Jesus exit he also gave the commandment to “love your neighbor as yourself” though that wasn't in place of the first commandment. It was speaking to how they should treat others in his absence. He also told them to spread his information far and wide knowing if they did that they would be taking on the same hatred and would be eventually killed for doing so, thus giving/laying down their life for the Kingdom of God/Heaven, their Older Members sake as he represented the Kingdom of God/Heaven at hand to them. It's very important to keep to that personal bond with the vehicle and of course the Mind of one's Older Member rather than moving off into a type of general idea of serving a Kingdom or a “Godly Mindset” (Godhead) as that easily morphs to the thinking of working for one's “higher power” or “cosmic consciousness” or “universal mind” or Kingdom of God or Kingdom of Heaven all non-personal relationships. Adopting these ideas can give one the sense that they are connecting to the Most High when it's becoming so generalized that it's like thinking by dialing a phone to a general government information number one will get to the president. They might get to him/her it's highly unlikely.

The Strongs listings:

4202 porneia from porneuo 4203; harlotry (including adultery and incest); as

4203 porneuo from porne 4204; to act the harlot, i.e. (literally) indulge unlawful lust (of either sex), or (as a figure) practice idolatry= commit (fornication).

4204 porne feminine of pornos 4205; a strumpet; as a figure, an idolater= harlot, whore.

4205 pornos from pernemi (to sell; akin to the base of 4097); a (male) prostitute (as venal), i.e. (by analogy) a debauchee (libertine)= fornicator, whoremonger.

Now if one looks at the Bible definitions from compilers who consider Paul's letters all on equal footings with Jesus, then one will have all these ideas of these words also referring to male and female homosexuals that Jesus wasn't quoted to address, yet has become a huge issue for many of today's Christians which shows some of who these are actually serving as if your not for Jesus you are against him so if he didn't say it then for us to pay much attention to something he didn't is going against him. Thus many Christians are being led to be Antichrist while thinking they are honoring Jesus. It's just by mouth alone that they honor him which he said he doesn't hear so is for naught.

The usage of this Greek word “ pornos ” in question as to it's intended meaning here is translated to the English word “ fornicator ” five times and whoremonger five times, where a fornicator is basically someone breaking the Jehovah/Moses instructions/commandments put forth surrounding sexual intercourse mostly for males but not exclusively, in particular as said, not with animals, not male with male* (which can only be accomplished comparatively through anal intercourse), not with a married or betrothed woman (falling under the adultery rules because of how one is interfering with another's oath/commitment (covenant)) with another, not with one's unmarried sister (perhaps with one exception), not with one's mother or Father's wife (thus stepmother). In the Old Testament the rules were a little different for males as opposed to females, but when Jesus came this playing field became leveled with equal responsibility and treatment of males and females.

*man should not lie with man as he lieth with a woman - the term “ lie ” was used in the context of intercourse many times in these verses of Leviticus.

Lev 18:22 - Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it (is) abomination.

Lev 20:13 - If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood (shall be) upon them.

These additional usage of the English word “whore,” but are referring to nations not individuals so are clearly referring to idolatry. However, worshiping (serving) one's physical body could easily be considered to be worshiping “mammon” - mammalian behaviors and not giving all one's love to the Lord, which of course is not forced on anyone to give but is the requirement to make a petition to the Kingdom of God/Heaven membership and especially when a Representative is incarnate. Then one must “follow the lamb wherever he goes,” “give all to the poor and come and follow me,” “deny yourself, take up your cross and follow me” all literal, as what Jesus disciples did so of course would be the same things the Two Witnesses expect and their first fruit harvest will automatically know is part of the calling when they blow the trumpet:

Rev 17:15 And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

Rev 17:16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

Rev 19:2 For true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

Additional usage of 4205 Pornos:

Rev 2:14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumbling-block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

Rev 22:15 For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.

All in all, it seems highly suspect that the Kingdom of God/Heaven at this point in the third trimester, given the progression seen in what Moses gave as instructions re: sexual intercourse rules and what was said about a male or female who exchanges intercourse for hire of some sort as depicted below:

Deu 23:18 Thou shalt not bring the hire of a whore, or the price of a dog, into the house of the LORD thy God for any vow: for even both these are abomination unto the LORD thy God.

And considering Jesus was even suggesting “making oneself a eunuch for the Kingdom of Heaven's sake” was an option which would mean no way to impregnate a woman which was the purpose of marriage in the first place as a lesson in commitment that would have to be expand to giving one's all to the Kingdom of God/Heaven incarnate representative, which is in line with adultery being expanded to even “lusting with one's eye” while married showing unfaithfulness, and in line with the section in Rev 14 that says they are no longer defiled, which pertains to all things that are “dirt” in the house of ones behavior and ways that are not what the Kingdom of God/heaven has taught through it's representatives. Plus saying that these who were to be in the first fruit harvest were “virgins” is kin to Jesus illustration that all who would be waiting for the bridegroom would be unmarried, the other meaning of “virgin,” though we can take that to an extreme and think that marriage is strictly taking an vow or signing a contract, when it really has more to do with how committed one is to another and faithful to one another in reality of mind and body. One can have the piece of paper but be an adulterer according to Jesus. And since Jesus said those who would be counted worthy will not marry nor give in marriage is saying those who seek to follow these Two Witnesses will not have made commitments that they intended to stick by til death, as they would have probably had in their minds a sense that their ultimate commitment is yet to come, so when the Older Members (Two Witnesses) come public and they hear their “calling” in the sixth angel with trumpets time frame, even if they are cohabiting and have families and children and have a marriage contract, they will break it, because their commitment will be greater to their relationship with their Heavenly Father.

So with all these considerations, the translation to “whoremonger” seems to be misguided as it's time to see ourselves as going a whoring or being a whoremonger if we are having intercourse with anyone at any time as it would be a compromise of giving our total love to our Older Members thus would be putting a “false god (idol) before” our Older Member (Lord) and would therefore be adultery to the marriage we would be seeking to have only with that Older Member which would as it says in Rev 22:14-15 keep us “without” the “gates to the city”:

Rev 22:14 Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.

Rev 22:15 For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.

It's not just going to be male prostitutes that don't go through the gates as everyone who is sexual will have sold themselves to their master in the worship of human sensuality in the form or human behaviors and ways.

Also, in the Old Testament the word primarily used to represent someone who is “selling” sex isn't as straight forward as it seems to represent now in what's called prostitution, which ties into how this family of words surrounding porne the shortest form that may be the root in also relating to “cheating on the Lord” which has already been touched upon. But what is being brought up now is how to be a harlot or go about whoring with the intention of “profit” from doing so, may be in large part what was intended in part by the “porne” family of words. This becomes kin to who we give our allegiance to, between the Kingdom of God/Heaven through the actual identification and following of the most recent incarnation of members from the Kingdom of God/Heaven as depicted as the Two Witnesses or giving our allegiance to the “bestial humans” (Beast) with the acceptance of it's “marks” in our head and/or mind or hand and/or by our service to. Thus to play the harlot would also be serving the Beast - selling our body in service and/or belief in and profiting by what that Beast represents and does. So if that bestial government is murdering people all over the world with it's military then all who are in allegiance with that action and/or are serving that effort are to some degree in allegiance with their murderous actions and will not be found worthy of entry through the Heaven's Gate as depicted in Rev 22. Now one can take this to an extreme and say that everyone who uses the currency of the U.S. for instance or of whatever country one lives within or under is participating in the activity that “Beast” is engaged whether they are a patriot to that country and their government or not as there are a multitude of taxes assigned to every dollar. Lets put it this way, each will be judged by the Next Level who knows how to sort the sheep from the goats.

Jesus didn't tell anyone to not pay their taxes or to not use the money issued by the government. He simply said if you are going to use the money made by the government then you must pay whatever taxes levied by that same government. Why? For two reasons. One is because it's the law and if you don't seek to cooperate with the laws you will find yourself before the judge and perhaps in jail and will pay dearly because of (and for his disciples could inhibit their ability to be of good service to the Kingdom of God/Heaven in the dissemination of the “good message” (gospel) any incarnate member from the Kingdom of God/Heaven delivers to be further delivered. It's not a moral or ethical reason as these governments were not formed by the Kingdom of God/Heaven. They were formed under the influence of the Luciferian fallen angel space aliens and their discarnate and living human soldiers since the start of the civilization. Ti and Do said Lucifer also likes “law and order” in his kingdom.

Defile is defined as 2840 koinoo= to make common, to make (Levitical) unclean, render unhallowed, defile, profane, to declare or count unclean

To make Common is interesting. The Kingdom of God/Heaven wants what they consider to be the cream of the human crop (plants). Ti and Do told us if we wanted to be ordinary following what they had to offer was not the path to take.

Regarding how Jesus would have qualified as “defiled”; It was in part when one was married, if they even lusted in their mind for another, they were committing “adultery” (adultery had serious consequences under Mosaic instructions, but Jesus indicated these were no longer to be instigated upon others by us, as he was also bringing an update of non-judgmentalism among one another as He brought updates to the Moses laws*). So defiled then can be within one's own head, a much higher/harder standard to measure oneself to. The reference to “defiling oneself with wife/women” is literal but hardly only applicable to what someone does with one's wife/women.

*Joh 8:4-11 describes how Jesus forgave a woman caught in the act of adultery.

One can see why the Moses based religious hated Jesus. He was challenging them to take their own leap, just as Christians must be challenged by what the Two Witnesses say and do.

Perhaps it's needless to say, but there's a great deal to be considered here in the translation and interpretations of this very key verse of Rev. 14:4* that literally describes the 144 (thousand). These are those who are harvested while millions of Christians have been taught they are all going to heaven (being harvested/raptured) essentially for believing in their Church or Christian Sect's Leadership and Congregations teachings about Jesus. They are encouraged to belong to a particular church group, paying their tithes and abiding by some of what became known as “the ten commandments.” It's understandable to be a part of a group of like minded individuals at times, but for those who receive a “seed deposit” in the Kingdom of God/Heaven's anticipation of their next incarnate Representative, they would come to recognize the vast limited perspective most groups hold onto that demonstrates a fear of change, while change is a must. Many think they know all they need to know to be “saved.” It's a tricky trap set by the ultimate source of all false prophets, the Luciferian Space Aliens, the fallen angels of the records. (largely but not exclusively found in Genesis chapter 6 and the Book of Enoch).

* curiously the key verse describing the 144 thousand is in verse 14:4, which could be a numerological way in which the Kingdom of God/Heaven crews might at times have a little fun with us using a harmless numerical coincidences, which is also seen in certain terminologies. 144 is actually said as 100, 40 and 4, like 14:4. It's not fun that belittles us. The Kingdom of God/Heaven doesn't have fun in that way at all. It's fun because it's like suggesting that They embed all sorts of clues that may or may not be intended, so it leaves us to wonder, but then of course such is at times made into a big deal, even a so called pseudo-science attaching various meanings and deciphering, regardless of whether they do point to something significant, and some even make such into a profitable enterprise, or favorite pastime and/or to think they can tell the future from, etc. which certainly would be frowned on by the Kingdom of God/Heaven - the profit part that is, but also thinking that we can tell the future of another human being. (One may accuse people like me who decipher prophecy as trying to tell the future, but note it's not pertaining to any person's future or Judgment of them in any way. It is trying to “watch” the “signs,” the “weather” conditions Jesus said we could learn to recognize.

But if bonding with an Older Member and His Family of the Kingdom of God/Heaven was as easy as these church groups make it sound, why did Jesus' disciples have to go through so much for the same reward? One can reflect on the parable that Jesus gave having to do with the workers who start at different times of the day all receiving the same wage, and that is true, BUT...they MUST ALL WORK and if anyone thinks it's work to belong to any religious organization, that is in the way Jesus spelled out, they need to go back to study everything Jesus said and all the implications and ramifications. Being engaged in an Overcoming Program as designed and led by an Older Member from the Kingdom of God/Heaven becomes the most difficult endeavor anyone could engage. The only reason anyone can be successful in that program is if the Older Members take them under their wing to spoon-feed them until they can be pushed out of the nest to try their wings. The Kingdom of God/Heaven won't let even one of those they adopt to bring into their Family be lost, though students always have the option and should never take for granted they are on their best track towards the application of the lesson plan (song) provided.

But what most congregations morph into is to largely ignore and/or have Jesus' harder sayings interpreted into a “spirit only” figurative meaning? I'm sure some would think or say, that millions couldn't have missed Jesus points or become deceived. However, it's very clear that in degrees most if not all have been deceived as have those in other religions and as are those in various spiritual, new age and atheistic organizations and/or mindsets. However, that's not to say the Next Level doesn't level the playing field so everyone gets a fair shot at succeeding.

The big question is, whether or not all these wish to stay deceived. It is always one's option, until they die, to accept changes, even those that greatly challenge all one had become till then. One can insist on remaining deceived if they refuse to open up to everything possible surrounding the Creators of the Earth/human gardening system, (and many others before Earth).

TALK OF “DEFILING” AND WHAT IS MEANT BY VIRGINITY NEEDS TALK ABOUT MARRIAGE and SEXUALITY as JESUS WOULD SAY:

This dedication to giving our all to our Older Member from the heavens is summarized by the term “virgin” which in the context used in Revelations means; “not giving self (body or mind) to anyone or anything but the currently incarnate Older Member” thus can only happen entirely when that incarnation is in progress which would include a time period after that Older Member has exited their incarnation, because the record of what they said and did has not yet become corrupted and They are continuously watching for humans who will call their “new” names seeking a stronger relationship and will seek to be in Their service.

In this real relative sense of what the Kingdom of God/Heaven brought to be, the term, “adultery” went from “no intercourse with someone who is married except with one's own spouse” as per Moses, to “no lusting in one's thoughts for another while married” as per Jesus to “not giving ourselves in any form to anyone else or anything else by the Kingdom of God/Heaven through their most current incarnate Older Member(s), which would of course include forgoing marriage (vows to a fellow human) and sexuality with anyone, or even with self in mind and/or body, to the best of our ability, which is according to what was said in Rev. 14:4 about the 144 (thousand) thus making the grade to become an adult, to stand/rise up out of human mammalian “mammon” behavior and ways to be harvested.

For all those who are already married when they become aware of these requirements for graduation, yet want to give themselves to the Next Level, I believe the overall formula is to put into motion what they provided as service - largely disseminating their information and accepting the ramifications. As you do this more and more while seeking the Next Level's help, for those that believe in Ti and Do, they can also ask for help to move closer to giving their all to start their metamorphosis, which will include separating from the human kingdom. At one point Do stated that one doesn't automatically have to separate from someone who is not interfering with our desire to be of service to the Next Level. That separation will be necessary when we are presented the opportunity to be with the incarnate Older Member in their classroom, that is if we feel compelled to do so.

Understanding that formula of total separation from the human kingdom is important and the more we engage that separation the more we are preparing to separate when the Older Member is incarnate with us or shows us the handwriting on the wall that I suspect is upcoming. I suspect somewhere during the time of the 6th Seal's opening, some, even many will feel compelled to leave all behind like Jesus said about how they were marrying and being given in marriage until Noah entered the arc. However, this does not mean anyone must wait to make that separation to perform the Lord's service and they don't need to wait to disseminate Ti and Do's information and they don't need to wait to adopt all the "Classrooms" behaviors and ways as best they can. What's most important to start to do or do more than ever is to seek the will of our Heavenly Father and I say whether we believe it or not, that communication goes to where Ti and Do and Crew are in the heavens on one of their bases of operation.

This process can be thought of as an overcoming process and has become extremely difficult to even consider let alone become a doer of, but certainly not impossible if one asks for Their help with it. The Kingdom of God/Heaven in each garden experiment have a predetermined number of new seats to make available on their spacecraft, which has to do with task assignments. Their organization is not like human religions or clubs, what the religions really are to date, where the more members the merrier, the more donations and thus the more outreach, etc., according to the plans of the board or directors or equivalent leadership.

This literal application of the overcoming process isn't something very many will gravitate to as the Kingdom of God/Heaven doesn't even offer it directly to many because otherwise if too many chose to overcome at the same time, Do said it would "deplete the human kingdom." However it is offered to everyone indirectly, which in large part is accomplished by the failures of the Luciferian space aliens fallen angels who influence humans in ways that stimulates reason for people all over the world to flee their "nest" looking for a better life, which can result in their finding their way to the actual geographical areas on the globe where more direct contact with incarnate

Older Members can happen or become more understood, considering that in the promised return of the Kingdom of God/Heaven Jesus said He/They (Father and Son) would come to a new land, spoken with a new tongue (language) and in plain terms not parables.

So the ones who do graduate, who are to be harvested must meet quite the rigorous requirements. The biggest requirement is to do our best to implement each and every step the incarnate Older Member gives us to work on. It's not really about accomplishments as much as tackling what we are given and doing so in the way the Older Members would do, which is why the Older Members come incarnate, so to show us the choices and perspectives and tools we can use to accomplish the tasks They give us.

We're not exactly earning our way into heaven. We who embrace Them, are actually earning the Older Members trust of us, trust that we will try our best to follow Their lead, Their instructions, Their behaviors, Their ways. Humans that instigate this kind of program or control surrounding their subjects does so for their career, their ego as an authority over others (of course justified for their own good) all degrees of a sense of power in themselves, that many times is expressed in terms of religious devotion to a Lord, unfortunately for a false Lord and their own preservation of investment in their modus operandi and those they have taken under their wing. It's many times less complicated in the Kingdom of God/Heaven. The person that becomes our incarnate representative and their Older Member are the ones we must bond with if we wish to join their Family.

To illustrate that marriage to another human, a woman, in this instance, that includes one's sexuality is to be overcome is illustrated by:

Mat 22:30 For in the resurrection they neither marry ((also commit, take vows (nuptials) to)), nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.

Here is a good example of how the Luciferians instigate a twist of a simple statement into reasons to delay or sabotage one's clear understanding of what Jesus is saying and their subsequent readiness to recognize his return by the same kind of thinking:

The English term “Resurrection” to most is associated with what has been called “Jesus' Resurrection,” referring to his “rising from the dead,” meaning the physical body He was using named Jesus, being alive again even after taken for dead. To many the term also represents Jesus' physical ascension into the sky, received by a cloud out of the dozen or so observer's sights.

That term “resurrection” is taken from the Greek:

386 anastasis= a raising up, rising (e.g. from a seat), a rising from the dead, that of Christ, that of all men at the end of this present age, the resurrection of certain ones history who were restored to life (Heb. 11:35)

Here is a nearly identical verse:

Mar 12:25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry ((1060 gameo= lead in marriage)), nor are given in marriage ((1061 gamisko= give themselves in marriage)); but are as the angels which are in heaven.

Again, “rise from the dead,” but no term “resurrection.”

So “rise” is taken from the Greek:

450 anistemi= to cause to rise up, raise up, raise up from laying down, to raise up from the dead, to raise up, cause to be born, to cause to appear, bring forward, to rise, stand up, of persons lying down, of persons lying on the ground 2b) of persons seated, of those who leave a place to go elsewhere, of those who prepare themselves for a journey, of the dead, at arise, appear, stand forth, of kings prophets, priests, leaders of insurgents, of those about to enter into conversation or dispute with anyone, or to undertake some business, or attempt something against others, to rise up against any one

These two, anastasis and anistemi are obviously closely related, with resurrection (anastasis) even saying it came “from 450”; “rise” (anistemi).

So for Christians that expect to be physically raptured, lifted up, ascended into a cloud with the Son of Man sitting on it as they interpret, which there is a great deal of evidence is NOT going to happen like that, because frankly Paul got many things wrong so can not be counted upon to base one's faith upon, though many, even most Christians consider anyone who suggests that a heretic for saying so. But I'll play it out further:

1Th 4:16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

It says the “dead in Christ shall rise first.” Okay then, playing this scenario out, these who are “dead in Christ,” whom many Christians say are all those who died after they became Christians and/or were “born again,” for those that use that terminology, when they “rise” they won't be getting married.

But then this idea conflicts with:

Luk 20:34 And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

Luk 20:35 But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

Luk 20:36 Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection.

There are two distinct different points in Luk 20:35:

The first point is that some must be “accounted worthy.” They are counted worthy of what, but to obtain “that world.” The word for “world”* is Greek for “forever,” “eternity” a world that goes on and on and on as opposed to the human and lower “worlds” that all have a limited life span for each of it's members, except in how their gnome has continence as a new leaf on it's tree with each new lifetime:

*world = 165 aion from the same as 104 also translated to: ever 71, world 38, never + 3364 + 1519 + 3588 6, evermore 4, age 2, eternal 2, misc 5 defined as: for ever, an unbroken age, perpetuity of time, eternity, the worlds, universe, period of time, age

This “being accounted worthy” is clearly a trial, a judgment time, a situation whereby there is a sorting out of who is worthy and who is not yet worthy or may never be worthy. It's when each of our actions are rewarded accordingly.

And what is at least part of the criteria for being “worthy,” is not to “marry” because one huge qualification is one's betrothal to the One called Jesus who by this harvest time has a new name being one of the Two Witnesses.

(Remember he said he would be returning as another “Son of man,” that's in a human body again, and the only clear accounting of that is as the Two Witnesses accompanied by His Father incarnate as well). In other words, we can't be married to a human and still get married to the Lord. Sure that works in the religions because humans like to attract membership. But even for the Catholics, who know it or not play the game of getting married to the Lord, but if he's not physically present/incarnate what kind of marriage is that if Jesus doesn't commit back to the alleged "bride" "I Do." It can't be assumed Jesus would say, "I do" as what if that person who is a priest or monk in a Catholic order isn't "worthy," because they have for instance, "defiled themselves with woman" or were deceitful (guile), but the biggest factor of not literally being able to "follow the lamb wherever he goes." If someone can't see him day by day to see when he walks here and there, how can they "follow" him. Naturally taking it to that degree may be silly, yet perhaps not, but perhaps it's one's desire to follow him "when he is physically present" that is the criteria, whether or not Jesus wants all his students following his every step.

It's very important to our sense of reality to think of Jesus being incarnate thus these characteristics of the 144 (thousand) being literally applicable as they were for his closest disciples 2000 years ago. They literally went where he told them to go to do what he told them to do, whether that was to buy fish or bread or to meet someone who would take them to the "upper room" where the last supper was to be held. These were with him moreorless 24/7, "following" him. Now, granted when he is not physically present through his incarnation into that human body called Jesus the only way to "follow" him is by following what he said, as he said to do in his absence, which would prepare for his return as the Bridegroom.

Now I can imagine someone saying, "those who are dead in Christ are not married," thus they are accounted "worthy" aren't they?" But if so, why even set up this criteria in the first place. Why tell us that to qualify we can't be married because when we're "dead in Christ" we qualify anyway? I suppose some could then say, that the not being married qualification only applies to those that are living when the Lord comes, in which case that would mean anyone who is married when Jesus returns will not qualify. And since his return date/time is unknown until he arrives, seems to me it would be better to stay unmarried if we expect to be, as Paul said, "caught up together with them (the dead in Christ) in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air" (1Th 4:17). I suppose if that sounds too strange then we can figure we simply didn't understand what Jesus was saying in Luke 20:34-36's ."..those who are accounted worthy neither marry nor are given in marriage..." and Mar 12:25's "...when they rise from the dead neither marry..." and in Mat 22:30's "...in the resurrection neither marry..." Most every word counts in these scriptural records. After all don't Christians in general believe the "rise" is the literal few moments in time when their Soul and/or Body and Soul are lifted up into the clouds? If so, then is it while they are being lifted up that they won't pursue a marriage or give themselves to another in marriage? That sounds preposterous but then what if that "rise" was actually a process that takes time, even years. Then these verses make sense with the fact that Jesus required his disciples to leave all behind, even their wives and children if they had those relationships to be with him 24/7 preparing for their own "ascension" - being lifted up - resurrection from Death to Life, so obviously weren't going to get married during that time. These are three very clear scriptural examples that with the ramifications put a major qualification on being as some Christians say, "raptured" - "to rise," "to meet the Lord in the air," "to be caught up in the clouds" as we see in this next verse of Paul's:

1Th 4:17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

By various parts of the book of the "Acts" of the Apostles (and Paul- a self appointed, thus false apostle as a real apostle is a "delegate appointment" by the King - Jesus), Paul apparently received all his information about Jesus from Peter and others who were actually disciples of Jesus and were appointed by him as his delegates to the "world," many of whom literally "followed Jesus everywhere he went." But for those that count what Paul says equal with everything else in the New Testament, are they sure they want to take a chance and stick with Paul, especially with such a blatant inconsistency and then what is even potentially much, much worse and even potentially an "unforgivable sin" according to Jesus is teaching people something that is against the teachings of Jesus, which teaching what Paul wrote, verse by verse might be if it can't be backed up by something Jesus was quoted to have actually said. I suspect there are a number of theologians who might agree however silently and of course some Christian preachers I'd bet don't agree with the way this idea of "rapture" has been popularized. Yet others are teaching their congregations that if they "accept Jesus as their personal savior and believe he died for their sins, they are "born again" and then are a disciple of Jesus so that when they die they are then “dead in Christ” so they, whether in their body or just as their Soul will be ascended into heaven to be with Jesus forevermore.

Because of those who have believed what their church leaders have told them, many think, they go to heaven when they die, that is, provided they have lived a good Christian life, though being a good Christian doesn't resemble or teach much, if any, of the formula of overcoming the human world that Jesus said was a must and that he came to demonstrate. Instead for many that formula became twisted to his doing it “FOR” us, as if we then don't have to duplicate His efforts, in other words, so we don't have to overcome/conquer the world of allegiance to humanness. Otherwise isn't this deal one heck of a piece of cake. It would be like having one's medical school professor take the final exam for us, so we don't have to, and we'd get to become a doctor on their coattails, their accomplishments, their understanding and their whale of an effort.

This is one of the “Abominations that makes for Desolation” (something detestable to the Kingdom of God/Heaven that erodes/robs one of LIFE (by Jesus definition, which is “eternal life as a member of He and His Father and the Other Membership's Kingdom (as all are actually by membership Kings relative to humans in the human Kingdom)...what have become of many Christians, perhaps even most, though for those that simply didn't know any better, they are not treated the same by the Kingdom of God/Heaven, that is until they actually have a chance to understand better and refuse to pay attention to it or demonstrate being against that which they will not be able to deny. At that time, they will be accountable to ignoring the Lord - Jehovah/Father/Woman and the new vehicle taken by the Soul who was Enoch, Moses, Elijah, Jesus and with the Woman one of the Two Witnesses.

To follow is a more pertinent way of looking at those two verses from Paul, that is, considering what can be referenced to what Jesus said, which is my criteria for validation that he received what he said from the Kingdom of God/Heaven:

So here is a preliminary interpretation of 1Th 4:16-17:

First off, it is clear that the same Soul who had the name Jesus would be returning and since that Soul, whose name in the Kingdom of God/Heaven

we don't know, we can safely say is who is being referred to as, “the Lord himself shall descend from heaven...” and it is clear that Soul does not abide/dwell on Earth* and if He is performing a task from a spacecraft and/or in some way in which humans can not detect, in either case it is a descension for Him as it would be like a human deciding to help gorillas, so going to live with them. Especially since he'd done this kind of task before, he would be temporarily descending from what he had at the time which is elevated in relationship to the Earth (the literal heavens) and in relationship to his station which is in reality kin to the only potential future any one human being can aspire to. It's even in comparison to human elevated in every way as human is elevated above the animal kingdom and animal is elevated above the plant kingdom and the plant kingdom is elevated above the mineral kingdom. And when he arrived, his purpose would be to gather the souls who had attached themselves by instruction from their Older Members, to certain human vehicles, that would provide a recipe of the lessons that Soul still needed to learn so to take them through their next lesson step before they would qualify for graduation, aka harvest, aka Soul/Spirit Birth.

*Joh 18:36 Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

Now it's possible that the Soul that took over (incarnated into) named Jesus was in the structure of the Kingdom of God/Heaven actually what we sometimes see depicted as an Archangel. I only say this because He may be the spokesman's “voice” that shouts and it may be that the “trump of God” is the Father's horn blowing that gets the show on the road, that the Son then puts a voice to. Because of that trump and voice, (Father and Son), Two Witnesses, those who gave their lives before then, for the Kingdom of God/Heaven's sake, thus are in Soul bodies, RISE in two respects. By These Souls being assigned a human vehicle to “take over” to operate through and use to provide them with the needed experience of taking a vehicle through the overcoming of their humanness, they are lifting that vehicle and it's associated Soul up out of it's normal human condition, had They never come. Rise also stems from “standing up,” so to get a human vehicle to stand up for the Kingdom of God/Heaven is a mighty chore as like in the horse analogy humans don't want such a program. The human body has a mind of it's own, as centered in the human gnome. Their second rise is when they graduate, in which they are again rising out of an otherwise “dead” future. In either case, they rise first. They take over a human vehicle first among others that are not at their same grade in school and they graduate first, as depicted as the First Resurrection that the Second Death has no power over. They are now members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven and will receive new clean/white bodies/clothing.

Then in accordance with 1Th 4:17, those human vehicles (bodies) who obviously never died for the Kingdom of God/Heaven's Older Member, last named Jesus, would have the opportunity to do so on Earth. This would only be the case if they had adhered to the Two Witnesses teachings as They would certainly be seen as a dangerous “cult of cults” so anyone in association with them would be also targeted by the Luciferians while the Kingdom of God/Heaven keeps them from harms way until the program needs to move forward. In any case when they die, if they have done so on behalf of the Kingdom of God/Heaven then they in Soul bodies would be taken into the spacecraft where the Older Member's reside. I suppose if these qualify then if the Kingdom of God/Heaven did want to stimulate their power, they could allow some of these who remained to have their physical bodies literally killed and taken up with witnesses. Thus they would be meeting the Lord in the air among the clouds.

However, according to the entire teachings of Jesus, the “Resurrection from the dead,” means an individual has “risen up” from their human perennial like “dead” condition.

All humans physically die. There is no scriptural evidence that any humans will be physically lifted up into a cloud. Just because Jesus was doesn't mean any of his believers will be taken into his presence in that way. And by the way, to think that the “dead in Christ” are those who became identified to other humans as “Christians,” when they do next to zero “Christing.”..

...the process of (overcoming human ways) pressing, putting out effort (according to the direction of the most recent incarnate representative, as opposed to efforts human's determine) the oil (like blood) out of the physical body (olive), to produce light from, to become enlightened by, an anointing).

...means the Kingdom of God/Heaven will work their technology in such a way as to reconstruct their physical flesh body from the rotten flesh and bones inside one's casket, six feet under, is of course a real stretch. No wonder there are so many atheists (not to justify their going to another extreme, to think these Christians represent anything Kingdom of God/Heaven related). Even practically speaking, Jesus body had hardly enough time in the tomb to become totally rotted and this would be a huge distortion to take the record that talks about "raising up children to Abraham by these stones," or "humans were made from the dust of the Earth" as such an indicator that this was to occur in the "twinkling of a eye" even, another misapplication brought to the record by Paul of Tarsus. Of course there will always be those that will say, "with God all things are possible" and to doubt that God can even do this, is just a lack of faith." But the BIG question is WHY would God do this kind of magic (even though the idea of taking genetic information and cloning a body from it, is not entirely sci-fi at this stage of human technological development, thanks to the Space Alien Luciferian Fallen Angel's teaching some of these things to humans and that the Kingdom of God/Heaven is about to cut short, less humans do get too much ability to mess with the Kingdom of God/Heaven's "garden and potential Soul fruit." They will be forced underground and/or to another planetary body to try to survive during the recycling of the planet's surface when the entire civilization as we currently know it taken more or less back to the stone ages, to set up a new garden plot.

However, back to this analysis of the idea of rapture and the "dead in Christ," etc.:

To the contrary of humans being physically taken, there are many direct scriptural record indications that everyone physically dies, even those in either "harvest." In other words, we all lose our physical body at some point. However what doesn't have to die is our Spirit and/or Soul. And this is where the idea of being "saved" comes in. During a life, if the Kingdom of God/Heaven has found favor with that person then when they physically die, their Spirit and/or Soul body is kept from "echoing" (a word Do used to describe the process in the continued existence of discarnates) into the "Spirit World." That Spirit and/or Soul body is in a real sense "put on ice" (not literally). It is kept in "limbo" (Do called it) an in between Heaven and Hell dwelling that was where Jesus said he would see the thief on the cross termed "paradise" because it is a Kingdom of God/Heaven safe keeping environment that in the Old Testament was referred to as "Abraham's Bosom," what the Persians defined as an enclosed (walled) “garden” maintained by the Kingdom of God/Heaven within the Earth Environment. From this safe place the Kingdom of God/Heaven will give those “saved” souls, who may have earned their being saved simply by demonstrating “belief” in a currently incarnate representative when most others found it hard to even consider.

But becoming a member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven as an equivalent to those that serve the Kingdom day and night, termed “angels” or “holy angels” to separate them from those who were angels to some degree but became renegade angels, requires overcoming one's humanness entirely. Belief alone, is of course necessary but it's not enough to prove oneself a beneficial (fruit bearer) to a literal crew of workers for the Kingdom of God/Heaven that Jesus would head. So the Kingdom of God/Heaven brings those saved souls back in coordination with the next time a member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven is incarnate and assigns them a prepared physical human body they begin to associate with as part of that preparation.

A big part of the preparation of the human vehicle for a returning Soul is by the Next Level giving that vehicle another type of Soul deposit designed for a returning Soul as opposed to a deposit for the start of a Soul.

Thus when the Older Members come incarnate and begins to speak publically the Next Level sees to it that the Soul and vehicle are given the opportunity to hear and see that Older Member and choose to become their full time student.

This is what is meant by being “caught away.” That living human is literally captured like a wild horse is captured by a group of ranchers interested in training horses for their ranch. The horse has no conscious desire to go with the ranchers, so even after capture, needs to be treated in a way the horse would identify as being desirable so it will take to the instructions that engage their training program. Horse that don't take to the program, in the case of the Kingdom of God/Heaven's program are sent back into their world where they sort of forget much of what they were given.

This modus operandi will in part identify the real Older Members from the Kingdom of God/Heaven's program from the many Luciferian stimulate facsimile programs, termed “cults” while the Kingdom of God/Heaven program will in actuality be like the “Cult of Cults.” The facsimile cults will want to constantly attract new members and may even make it hard to psychologically and/or physically leave them, while the Kingdom of God/Heaven's leaders will only seek the number they were planning for. When Jesus told his disciples he was leaving he said he had to go to “prepare a place for you,” which Ti and Do spoke about as a position on Ti's crew.

Ti and Do evidenced maintaining a type of vetting. Critics that are many site the things Ti and Do said that didn't happen as they first thought would, though always said, they received updates as they went which depended on the human responses and the growth of each student in their classroom. They never wanted any of their students to leave them but also didn't want students who were not pushing their taking full control over their vehicles (bodies) according to the instructions they gradually provided over the years. Do offered students up to $2000.00 if they wanted to leave, saying he didn't want anyone staying because our little commune had become quite a comfortable lifestyle and therefore a lot easier than struggling in the world. When they sent us to visit our vehicle's families on two occasions without supervision it was an obvious time that anyone could easily leave but none did, at least immediately. One at least did end up leaving because of the reestablishment of his relationship with his vehicle's brother during one of the visits. His group name was Rthody. I'm not saying he didn't have other reasons to leave but this to my memory was the biggest factor and I was assigned by Do to be his partner right before he left.

Then there were a number of half way kinds of situations Do set up and some that were sent to be in those half way situations, who got apartments with the groups financing, got jobs and some had relationships with non-class-members and from that one ended up not returning when Do asked them all if they wanted to return to the larger body of students. That students name was Cddody. He had joined from the L.A. group. He had worked for a film editor named Gary Kirsch who had a relationship with Stanley Kubrick office. He was instrumental in developing a screen play for a movie that was shopped a bit to Kirsh and I believe Kubrick but they weren't interested in.

Then there were the two times Ti and then years after Ti left her vehicle that they believed we should prepare to exit the planet. We waited up one night in San Antonio area in the early 1980's and the spacecraft didn't show up. Ti later told Do she felt like she had egg on her face. Note, she took responsibility for seeming to get it wrong. Note how many who make predictions end up having excuses of why they got it wrong rather than just admitting they got it wrong. It didn't affect Ti and Do nor their core student body but it's probable that some did leave soon after that because of that. The same kind of thing happened in 1989 or 1990 in the desert west of Phoenix, Arizona after we fasted on water for 13 days and the spacecraft didn't come to pick us up then either. Perhaps that was in part why Pmmody and then a year later Andody left.

When Ti and Do more or less canceled the “demonstration” in 1975, saying they were “shot down by the media and the mission was dead,” critics that hear that now assume it was a convenient way to get out of not fulfilling the seeming Rev 11:7 prophecy that they would be killed. Many years later, Do reported it a booklet called “88 Update - The UFO Two and Their Crew,” he and Ti's story to try to set the record straight, as the media had a little of the story and a lot of hearsay and outright misinformation. In it Do explains how he and Ti told their students of this change that canceled the demonstration and how they wouldn't blame them if they ceased to follow them as a large part of the mission was at that point founded on the idea of their demonstrating conquering death. It's hard to tell if anyone ultimately left them because of that change but I know their core students didn't blink an eye. They knew who they were, so they said something to the affect of, “okay, what's next then.”

A year or two after that, Ti told the class, “you need to give us your will” and told Do she wouldn't be surprised if they lost half the class for saying that. Many did leave soon after that so perhaps that was in play. So this and actually many other things all became tests of a students resolve so was a type of “vetting” with Ti and Do perfectly willing to have egg on their faces for their Heavenly Fathers instruction.

But regarding being vetted out of a Kingdom of God/Heaven group/program, who was more “blessed” by the Kingdom of God/Heaven, Cain or Abel? Most would say, Abel, because his gift was received by the Lord while Cain's was not. Do told us that Cain had the greater opportunity to rise up to a higher standard of what the Kingdom of God/Heaven was seeking to instill in them. It's the same as with the story of the prodigal son that Jesus told - a recovery from failure is perhaps one of the hardest lessons.

The facsimile programs will, of course, being they are “Above Human” look alike yet be a watered down, diluted version with pieces of what the real deal stimulated that they grew off of in the first place. Some will become non-profits, establish headquarters and try to survive and grow on donations, always seeking new membership. Meanwhile the real deal will have to live in the human kingdom as well, so will have to have a way to provide for the members needs but it won't be tied to expanding the organization in membership or acquisition of goods, properties, business ventures, etc. that requires hob-nobbing with, and appealing to various peoples who may be attracted to them, because after all, they each have little pieces of the truth and various realities of the Kingdom of God/Heaven, but simply don't apply the total picture. They adopt versions of that total picture which takes terminology and ideas and incorporating them in various celebrations and moreorless representative depictions of those once real ways and ideas. In so doing, the people gradually think they are celebrating this Lord or that Lord based on singing songs, chanting mantras, saying prayers, making affirmations, practicing meditations, doing good deeds where the most devout are singled out by appearances - wear habits, collars, robes, and/or a title on their name, etc. whom many people begin to "look to" to understand the now largely mystical/spiritual, figurative interpretations of what the Lord actually said. Pretty soon, the Lord himself could be talking to them through a human vehicle and they would not have prepared themselves to even know what the Lord would say, so they miss him, yet think that's preposterous, thinking he would certainly come to his "flock."

These facsimile groups will also begin to think about things long term as with investments and projects and such, while the Kingdom of God/Heaven group will be looking for how soon they can complete their task and exit the human kingdom. When Jesus said...;

Luke 9:58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

...he wasn't just referring to not having a home but to not feeling "at home," because he had the subconscious memory of what his home in the literal heavens with other members of the Kingdom of God/Heaven was like and knew this human experience didn't compare. He wanted to exit, though his vehicle certainly was not fond of how but he knew he had to demonstrate the authority in all he spoke about, and the way in which he exited his otherwise normal looking human presence, to include the short forty or so day time period he spent with his disciples would accomplish that as it was His Father's plan.

They don't like being in the human kingdom and environment so even the human vehicles they take over for their task will seek to leave by whatever means to include death of the vehicle if that's what the task entails. Jesus could have stayed around for years, but it wasn't deemed necessary and his demonstration of physical death overcome, the fear of it and it's actuality, was more needed, so he left after only about 3-9 years of public teaching. He gathered those His Father determined were the amount they had positions* for shared with them all the Father gave him to share, preparing both their Souls and their human gnome for the next trimester in their birth and then exited in the way they had planned - voluntarily "laying down his life on his Father's instruction on behalf of his sheep, the greatest love one can show another - arranging for his own physical demise - including his capture and then doing nothing to defend himself with the government, who had no evidence against him except for what the Jewish high priests claimed.

*Joh 14:2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place* for you.

*place = 5117 topos= any portion or space marked off, as it were from surrounding space, an inhabited place, as a city, village, district, a place (passage) in a book, metaphorically, the condition or station held by one in any company or assembly, opportunity, power, occasion for acting

The Kingdom of God/Heaven led group will in many ways demonstrate huge differences from ALL the groups that will crop up at the time They do, because that is the Luciferians ploy, to create facsimiles to draw as many humans away from the Kingdom of God/Heaven's program as they can and by whatever means. They try to create look alike groups, before their public trumpet blowing with humans talking about the end times, end days, end of the world, hell and damnation - all in terms that to the sensible look fanatical, to turn people away from the real physical Kingdom Level of Life Above Human. The Luciferians also foster the development of spiritual groups as opposed to religious, who dwell upon more mystical ways of looking at everything as then the real deal will look foreign because of how direct and plain and sensible the Kingdom of God/Heaven's last trimester language/terms will be, Their having more generic terms to bring more accuracy to one's understanding to rid people of all the superstitious aspects, which goes hand in hand with advancements in various scientific discoveries.

Continuing with the Rev 14:4 description of those among the 144 and myriad of thousands “not being defiled with woman” where woman= 1135 gune= most likely from the base of ginomai - ginomai 1096; a woman; specially, a wife= wife, woman.

1096 ginomai= to cause to be (“gen”-erate), i.e. (reflexively) to become (come into being), used with great latitude (literal, figurative, intensive, etc.)= arise, be assembled, be(-come, -fall, -have self), be brought (to pass), (be) come (to pass), continue, be divided, draw, be ended, fall, be finished, follow, be found, be fulfilled, + God forbid, grow, happen, have, be kept, be made, be married, be ordained to be, partake, pass, be performed, be published, require, seem, be showed, X soon as it was, sound, be taken, be turned, use, wax, will, would, be wrought.

This Rev 14:4 verse has always been problematic in that in it's description of the qualifications the 144 (and myriad of thousands - from the tribes) must meet to be allowed to pass through the heavens gate (Rev 22) described as the harvest depicted later in Rev 14:14 couldn't have a gender based application to “women,” especially in this third trimester when the Father comes incarnate in a woman's body and after Jesus said in the Next Age upon his return, the students don't marry and are not given in marriage and are like those with assigned tasks in the Kingdom of God/Heaven as messengers, “NOT MARRIED” because to qualify one needs to divert all their attention and love and energy to their Older Members as if they were marrying them as Jesus depicted in the “virgins with their lamps with oil ready and in observation of Jesus return, their bridegroom to which there can not be another in that relationship, accept in the way the entire student body can be “married” at the same time to their Older Member.

Remember there is no sexuality or procreation among Kingdom of God/Heaven members. That's why Jesus agreed with his disciples when they said as a question, “is it not good to marry” to where Jesus used the illustration of the Eunuch who castrated himself for the Kingdom of God's sake as an advanced viable option to consider if not doing so might threaten one's entry into the Kingdom of God/Heaven, the same as with a hand or eye that could not be controlled, restrained from “defiling” oneself by the full array of characteristics considered to be defilement.

Thus it would seem to be much more accurate and in context to what Jesus said to translate “gune/ginomai” to being married as in “to cause to be (“gen”-erate)” the entire purpose of marriage that those found worthy of the graduation can not do any longer, by their own agreement.;

And of course, the real members from the Kingdom of God/Heaven will not ever promote the human family the way many modern Christians make their biggest emphasis, (lacking any real Jesus emphasis because of how abhorrent what Jesus said has become), because that is the root system their upcoming membership must overcome attachment to, thus none of the members will maintain the relationships they once had before joining with the Older Member, and especially so in the third trimester. Thus if they were married and had children before joining, they must leave those family members behind, a major test for those it applies to. One must trust that their former family will be looked after by the Kingdom of God/Heaven. Yes, such action will most often be traumatic for all involved and most human vehicles that are prepared for this have already laid the groundwork for their separation, often having divorced and/or never had children or their children were mostly grown when they “left their world behind.” Of course this action will be seen as evil by those “in the world,” who have no belief in the real Kingdom of God/Heaven, who even may believe in some fashion in the idea of Jesus, but can not conceive His Family's return was in progress because they did not really study the records to see the same modus operandi being played out in the new society, as compared to all the facsimiles that portray themselves as that return.

However some, whether they agree or not with their family member or friends choice to join with what to them would be a questionable group could realize or come to realize that this was their choice and not automatically an inappropriate one, so might withhold harsh judgment despite the pain of the loss and/or separation at their departure from their human engagements. Those making this choice are certainly taking a “leap in faith,” though to some, it doesn't seem so, because it would include this sense of the ultimate destiny they had longed for, whether it had been previous to that moment of decision to join, been within their full consciousness or not. This has to do with the preparation each human vehicle has received which includes a type of “tagging” and/or “Soul” implantation/growth instigation, not to be confused with the implants space aliens are alleged to do as space aliens are human equivalents who are part of the various facsimile programs, but their interest in human subjects is based on their desires to have genetic materials - DNA, eggs, sperms, hormones, minerals, energy, technologies and facilities for genetic engineering, hybridization programs, cloning, space travel, environmental development to utilize in the underground bases they plan to escape into (that the Kingdom of God/Heaven knows, having no better survival strategy will become a secretive major undertaking, to some degree in joint cooperation with various governmental hierarchy, etc., which will all be underway before, during and after the Two Witness (Second Coming) has become public in a large way).

This is why, those who are accounted worthy will not be married. They will be changing their allegiance from the human kingdom to the Kingdom Above Human, like Jesus said, making their master, “God or mammon.” Next is some further examination of “marriage”:

Rev 19:7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

Here “made herself ready,” she is the bride, who in this case are many brides to one groom, the one who midwives them through their Soul's birth into new membership in the Kingdom of God/Heaven, means makes herself “worthy” by not giving her loyalty or passions in any sensuous form to another human (with a Soul or not) but instead giving their all to their incarnate Older Member in the face to face relationship they each have as it can't be accomplished in the Older Member's physical absence.

Rev 19:8 And (to) her (was) granted that (she should be) arrayed ((4016 periballo= wrapped around, as a body is a wrapping around a Kingdom of God/Heaven Soul))* (in) fine linen, clean and white: for (the) fine linen is ((2076 esti=made, the profit/reward))* (the) righteousness*** ((1345 dikaioma=equitable deed, determination)) (of) saints.

Rev 19:9 And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.

Regarding Rev 14:4's saying these same ones who are not defiled with woman are “virgins= 3933 parthenos= unknown origin; a maiden, an unmarried daughter”:

Mat 25:1 Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten ((1176 deka= A primary number)) virgins, which took their lamps ((torch, candle light)), and went forth to meet the bridegroom.

Mat 25:2 And five of them were wise ((5429 phronimos= From 5424 phren (to rein in or curb), thoughtful, sagacious or discreet (implying a cautious character (not as a practical skill or acumen or intelligence as a mental acquirement, or conceited))), and five were foolish ((3474 moros= dull, heedless, (morally) blockhead)).

Mat 25:3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil ((olive oil)) with them:

Mat 25:4 But the wise took oil in their vessels ((30 aggeion=From aggos= a pail, a receptacle)) with their lamps.

Mat 25:5 While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

Mat 25:6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

Mat 25:7 Then all those virgins arose ((1453 egeiro= Probably akin to the base of 58 (through the idea of collecting one's faculties); to waken from sleep, from death; from inactivity, nonexistence): lift (up), raise (again, up), rear up, (a-) rise (again, up), stand)), and trimmed ((2885 kosmeo= From G2889; to put in proper orderly arrangement, specifically to snuff (a wick): trim)) their lamps.

So these Souls in human vehicles (male and female) are consciously or not uncommitted 100% to whatever human ties and relationships they have, though may be going through the motions not knowing what else there is yet because they are not awakened yet. Their souls standing by their vehicles is ready to fully take over the vehicle when the Older Member comes incarnate blowing the trumpet - announcing their arrival to be recognized as the “overcoming process.” So they hear the cry and it becomes like a smelling salt and they know they must give their all to the effort the Older Members are incarnate to talk about, as they find themselves in the pathway of receiving - literally in or near each city where the Older Members begin to advertise their meetings. The lamp is the Soul deposit in their vehicle that the Soul standing by will need to enter into to continue their metamorphosis into a new creature using this new human vehicle as their cocoon and the vehicle is cooperative. Ti and Do said the vehicle simply agrees to step aside and observe and the vehicle can even grow to enjoy service to the Next Level but was prepared to give “all their heart, mind, Soul and strength,” as Jesus said was the first commandment, to the “bridegroom” they are waiting for, the same Older Member the returning Souls were with before when incarnate with Jesus.

Trimming the lamp is “snuffing” the fire, the passion, the sensuality in all its forms as the love of anything on the human level and especially their sexuality since the Next Level Members have no sexuality so would be members need to build their mind to be like theirs to be compatible to a Next Level grown vehicle that has no sexuality to experience a “viable” birth (as Ti and Do called it). It's interesting how trimming a lamp also can entail snipping or cutting off the part that prohibits the light from the flames greatest delivery of light, which is what Ti and Do said happens when one restrains their giving away of their love to other channels, especially with sexuality but to one's human family as well. This can even be applied to the way Jesus indicated one could decide to “make themselves a eunuch for the Kingdom of Heaven's sake,” as a number of Do's students did.

Mat 25:8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

Mat 25:9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

Mat 25:10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut ((2808 kleio= A primary verb; to close)).

Mat 25:11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.

Mat 25:12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.

In this parable it looks like the other “virgins” are those who were the “look alike wheat,” the “tares” planted in the Next Level's wheat field by the Luciferian space aliens to look like they are of the same Mind but are not.

Mat 25:13 Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

First off, it starts off saying the Kingdom of heaven is likened to ten virgins meaning that those who are found worthy to graduate into the Kingdom of God in the literal heavens are LIKE as in COMPARED OR SIMILAR TO “unmarried (maidens)” - as they have not entered into such a commitment (covenant) to anyone in the human kingdom that they can't break it off or recover from having help from the Next Level to break it off. This is not to say they aren't married in the sense of the meaning of the word today, with the authority of a State and/or Religious institutions. Those institutions are no more necessarily godly than each of it's members or for that matter anyone, so called secular/atheist or religio-spiritual. It has to do with to whom EACH PERSON LOOKS TO AS THEIR “MASTER,” their perception and understanding of their being a higher power and thus ultimate authority that is above and beyond humans that Jesus illustrated simply as between “God and Mammon.” This can be found in Mat 6:24, where Mammon is defined as all things that are WEALTH (what is TREASURED) by humans, which would include; materialism manifest in accumulation of money, resources, to power (as comes from fame and/or fortune), intellectualism in all it's facets (philosophic, scientific (mental or physical), etc.), religio-spiritual (belief systems both mental/spiritual (non-physical) or physical as in environmental, humanitarian (social), political activism) that all build ones human ego/self and are all a characteristic that has it's roots in the animal kingdom thus define an evolutionary level of life.

The Level Above Human is the opposite of doing anything to build SELF, which is why Jesus said to be his disciple one needed to “deny self,” which is kin to why the Lords Prayer included, “thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven,” which is kin to what Jehovah through Moses taught in Exo 20:3 Thou shalt have no other gods before me, and that the Father through Jesus taught was the greatest commandment in Mrk 12:30 as to, “love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy Soul, and with all thy mind and with all thy strength” which is kin to when Ti and Do told their early student body they needed to “give us your will” and Ti thought might become the ultimate cause of their loss of half that student body. Actually over the 17 or so years after that it actually did indirectly cause near half to leave, as the lessons that were provided and the length of time to endure, showed that many were not up to the standards and consistency abiding by those standards.

In other words, these “10 virgins” regardless of how they are involved in worldliness they don't have their full heart and mind invested in it. They may appear to or think they do, but again, when faced with the prospect of discontinuing what they got into, it doesn't destroy them, whether that comes when their Older Member comes public or before. I suspect they are just not driven to succeed at any cost but I could be wrong about that for some. I'm not saying they won't have successes in their life as that's a relative term, but they are not going to go all the way into any one direction because they would have been prepared both genetically and even literally during their lifetime to recognize that there is a great deal more to life than what they see around them. This will make them a seeker, though that doesn't mean they won't end up diving into something with their all.

The “lamp” is the “container,” candle, torch that is deposited in chosen human vehicles by the Next Level that makes them a living Soul. There is no telling how many of these souls are given out and exactly how they are deposited, but Ti and Do said the Next Level Older Members help each returning Soul, who had their first birth (deposit) while with Jesus and/or Moses choose which vehicle they will try to “take over” to overcome the remaining attachments and ways each of those Souls still has to overcome to be graduated to receive a Next Level vehicle and task position on Ti's crew. This stage is illustrated by:

Mat 13:3 And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, Behold, a sower ((4687 speiro= the idea of one who extends, scatters, seeds)) went forth to sow ((extend, scatter, seed));

The seed deposit is not empty just like any seed is not empty. It has the mechanisms (programs) to sprout a shoot when the conditions are right, which would be called “germination.” Do indicated this deposit serves as a tracking device so the Next Level can keep that vehicle safe. It also contains a “set of programs” and as there are literally Next Level minds close to the humans who receive these deposits, they come away with a heightened awareness or type of instinct to identify information as true. It stimulates the thirst of the vehicle for truth which is what drives these to search for more truth that brings them to examine whatever comes their way, but with a detachment until they “hear the shepherds voice” as Jesus said they would. This is why many say that certain belief and faith is a gift. It is but receiving the gift comes with no guarantee that the seed will germinate the new shoot.

The vehicle (lamp)'s “light” is their fire which is one's life force and passion. Human vehicles have a certain amount of this fire/passion automatically as it indicates in Mar 4:28. This “light” is equivalent to mind, synonymous with “spirit” that is what automatically grows within every human container and/or if it's from a Next Level origin fills a Soul container, since there are two types of Mind/Spirit, human or Next Level. Both are informational programming. Human mind/spirit is what all humans are seeded with genetically from the two parents combination of seed, plus what the parents and others in society show/teach each new human that they add on to throughout their life.

However the human condition is not a natural condition of life. It is a “fallen condition” because it came about as a result of breaking the instructions in the start of the experiment that Adam and Eve were the first participants in. Before that fall Adam was a “man kind.” The Hebrew word “adam” also means, “to show blood (in the face), “be made red (ruddy).”

Here is how Jesus talks about the content of one's vehicle (body) and how it can be “light” or “darkness” and how it's in degrees of light and darkness. And note that darkness comes from the Greek word: skotos which means “shadiness or obscurity.” In other words when Adam and Eve broke the instruction they did so by allowing themselves to be deceived by the “whisperer” (snake). It was a shady operation and they succumb to it so took on that deceit and then tried to hide from the Lord a deceitfulness about what they had done which made them a “shadow of man,” as darkness had entered their vehicle:

Luk 11:33 No man, when he hath lighted ((681 hapto= to set on fire, kindle)) a candle ((3088 luchnos= from leukos 3022; a portable lamp or other illuminater)), putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick ((3087 luchnia from luchnos 3088; a lamp-stand)), that they which come in may see the light ((5338 pheggos probably akin to the base of phos 5457= lustrous, brilliancy, transparent or well-illuminated)).

Luk 11:34 The light ((portable lamp)) (of the) body ((4983 soma= + slave [the Next Level overcoming program seeks to make the body the slave to one's Mind (instructions) from their Older Member])) is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single ((573 haplous, most likely from a 1 (as a particle of union) and the base of pleko 4120= to twine or braid, folded together [as in a graft to the branch of one's Older Member's vine] that relates to becoming CLEAR, sincere, bountiful, simple and liberal)), thy whole body also is full of light ((lustrous, brilliancy, transparent or well-illuminated)); but when thine eye is evil ((4190 poneros from ponos 4192= hurtful, calamitous; also (passively) ill, mischief, malice, guilt, grievous, harm, lewd, malicious)) thy body also is full of darkness ((4652 akoteinos from skotos 4655 opaque (nontransparent, CLOUDY, filmy, blurred [the opposite of clear], smeary, misty, hazy), SHADINESS, OBSCURE)).

Note how darkness = shadiness and is also clouded as opposed to light being clear and transparent, which one can related to being like a child as Jesus said graduates to the Next Level must become likened to. Also note that the English word “also” is used twice in this verse indicating both nouns, “eye” and “body” before it are full of light or darkness accordingly. Since “eye” is the lamp, which I am suggesting is the “container” and the body is also a container, but the container is either the receptacle (bag to hold the wine/mind) for the human mind or the container deposited by the Next Level that holds the “new wine(and thus Holy Mind).”

Luk 11:35 Take heed therefore that the light ((lustrous, brilliancy, transparent or well-illuminated)) which is in thee be not ((3361 me= not any, without)) darkness ((SHADINESS, OBSCURE)).

So this is indicating there can be a mix. According to Do, with the illustration of the clear vase that is the human body that all have one pocket in it like a balloon that holds one's mind - the thoughts and memories from birth, while for those given a Soul deposit have a second balloon that holds ONLY Next Level (Holy) Mind. Since the overcoming of humanness encompasses getting rid of one's human mind, deflating that balloon while increasing the Mind from our Older Members via adhering to all their instructions, behaviors and ways they teach AND demonstrate, (not like all the human leaders who often talk well but then are shown to be corrupt and hypocritical in the application, to which the religious among them just say, we are all sinners as if that's an excuse and that that's why Jesus came to die to save them from those sins as if that makes any sense whatsoever or as if that is consistent at all with anything and everything Moses and Jesus and their servants taught, which it's not. The only one they can point to for that perspective is Paul so wonder who influenced Paul in those subtle ways), at any given time that body that houses both those balloons of mind have percentages of human verses Next Level mind filling them. Since light in this context is Mind and Mind is information this is saying that the Mind that is light being from the Next Level really boils down to the TRUE INFORMATION THAT THE APPLICATION OF BRINGS ONE OUT OF THAT FALL AND SHADINESS, THE HUE OF MAN, while the human mind is MISINFORMATION as it keeps one thinking and acting as a mammal in that fallen condition.

This description of a mix is made more clear in the next verse:

Luk 11:36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

No part dark would mean there is no shadiness or misinformation, or opaque, cloudiness to one's sight/vision eye leaving one clear having risen out of that fallen state of obscurity. This would also be a state of true enlightenment - no human behaviors and ways, as Ti and Do taught and heard in this song they taught us that went to the tune by Beethoven, "Jesus Meine Freund," which is German for, "Jesus My Friend":

"Help me have no human ways, no thoughts of self, no faults to see, only the ways of space. Now I know my heart is fast, in my Father's path at last, only the ways of space, only the ways of space."

Also when both one's eye and body is full of light as remember the body becomes the slave of the eye (mind) so having it's human mind evacuated so that the pocket is near enough to empty means it's mind is also the Mind in that Soul pocket so it too has become enlightened. The process of accomplishing this is one's Christening, the Christing process and can also be said as the resulting Chrysalis that the new body emerges a butterfly from, when it is completed. We just can't see the birth of that butterfly as it's invisible to human eyes, but they would have a physical quality just not dense.

It was said in Joh 1:14 that the "word was made flesh" as it is the Mind of the Older Member that literally comes into the human vehicle to "take it over" (stand in it) for their Next Level task usage. Now depending on what Mind/Spirit is coming into that vehicle and the vehicles human mind/spirit's seizing of the opportunities presented determine how much of that Holy Mind/spirit is brought into their Soul (container) that is given to that human vessel ahead of that larger portion of their mind entering in. It's a container within a container and there are according to Do different types of containers as well as "tags" that Next Level installs into a human vehicle to reserve it and track it to keep it safe for future usage when it's awakening time.

So in this illustration the oil is that mind that when consumed as in put into action, exercised, applied creates that life force that all living things have degrees of because EVERYTHING has it's electromagnetic as Ti also referred to it as "frequency," force, power, energy produced by the burning/consuming of it's fuel which in this analogy is their oil. It's just that these human vehicles in particular are prepared specifically to be potential recipients of even a greater amount or quality of Mind/Spirit that can only occupy a container built specifically for it. This is why Jesus spoke:

Mar 2:22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles ((779 askos= a leathern or skin) bag)): else the new wine doth burst ((4486 rhegnumi= break, wreck, crack, rend, tear)) the bottles, and the wine is spilled ((1632 ekcheo= poured, shed)), and the bottles will be marred ((622 apollumi= destroyed, perish, lost, die)): but new wine must be put into new bottles.

As I've said, Ti and Do were NOT theologians and there was no evidence they spent any time laboring over the Bible records and certainly, never sat us down for a bible study, never quoted scripture exactly and certainly not by chapter and verse, though referred to what Jesus said and did fairly often. So how does one recognize that this parable is referring to one's Soul as a separate part of the body that is gifted to each human who receives it? I'm not saying they didn't get ideas from the record and even from current events, to include all the myriad of reports about space alien activity. In fact I think that is where Do first heard the word, "container" used. It was in that "yellow book" that Bob Lazar was allowed to read saying that humans were "containers." Ti and Do right from their awakening saw the human body as a vehicle, but that was not new thought as in many records from the Hindu the body was a vessel and Jesus referred to it as one's temple or house or clothing. But to come to know that the Soul was also a container that Do was calling a "pocket" before we ever heard the term "container." This was by far not a one time example as should be evident in this writing. You don't see evangelists or even cult leaders or Jesus claimants or contactees or channelers, leaders of churches and temples really coming up with any new perspectives, but even if they do stumble on a few, they rarely stand out in the crowd much, but with Ti and Do it all stood out in the crowd and they were not trying to do so. They just do.

This breaking of the container to where it's destroyed is also interesting in relationship to Ti's exit of her "borrowed" human vehicle. That's another term Do used in his last days before exiting. I have to admit, when I heard that, I thought, "borrowed," how is it that they borrowed the human vehicle, when they used it until they decided to lay it down to permanent sleep. I have to admit I felt that awkwardness that comes from doubting even to that degree. We don't need to fear that awkwardness but it does become a test for those that feel they recognize Ti and Do as their Older Members. The best place one can arrive at with doubts is to simply put it in the category of "I don't understand right now" while wanting to understand but not feeling moving forward is threatened by it. If the feeling of doubt lingers, treat it like a discarnate influence (evil spirit), label it and send the thought packing with whatever strength you can muster and move on to what else you are doing. I know many might read this and say...sure that's the brainwashing technique and they are right but what they don't often care to see is that we have to do the work of that washing of the human discarnates and Luciferian fallen angel space aliens out of our brain which is the same thing humans do when they don't want to think about something. So it's just a matter of choosing we don't want in our heads. That's why it was called "evil" really meaning "troublesome" and often deceitful and trickery and manipulating, all characteristics that are absent in Members of the Next Level.

I believe all who come this way, the way of belief and even Active Studentship of Ti and Do will experience this. After I experienced this not understanding and subtle doubt, while wanting to know, while referring to Do's use of that term again it occurred to me that Do and crew were returning their vehicles to their rightful, ultimate destination and origin of the Earth as opposed to taking the vehicles with them on board the spacecrafts as Jesus, Elijah, Moses and Enoch evidenced but was not part of their modus operandi this time.

They didn't think at first that they would be leaving their physical bodies behind and right to the last day they had in their plan the possibility that Ti, who was out of her human vehicle by then might take them with their human bodies even though the more and more one looks at the prophecy records the more it's apparent that the plan never entailed leaving with their physical bodies and that what Ti and Do were referring to by saying they and their students would leave with their physical bodies could easily be applied to the fact that they believed wholeheartedly that there was a Next Level body growing inside of each student which is whom they always were talking to all along.

Ti would frequently say, “get your Mind in your vehicle” and I knew what she meant but yet it was puzzling as well. She was talking to the returning Soul that was “borrowing” what I thought of as me, my human vehicle that I was agreeing to provide, not really knowing the mechanics of all that but trusting Ti and Do at least enough to not let not understanding become a reason to disconnect by. That Soul container or body is as real, if not more real than any human body, because it is capable of going on to live indefinitely whereas a human much denser flesh body obviously doesn't and neither does the human body's spirit, though Lucifer tries to make people think the spirit is eternal because it exists outside the body and may be allowed to continue or even thousands of years beyond the human vehicle it came from.

But getting back to Ti's exit. Do said Ti “burned out her vehicle,” which in light of this verse about the breaking of the wine bottle/bag, container, can look very much like that's what happened because “marred,” referring to the bottle, the vehicle in that illustration can also be translated to “die, destroy, rend.” Ti's vehicle was given a cancer diagnosis about two years before her vehicle was diagnosed as having cancer in the liver that killed the vehicle. That first diagnosis in about 1983 was cancer in her eye and she had it removed at that time.

This might be related to the way a new deposit, of the Soul type, which is what Jesus would have been referring to was according to Do and Crew a different type of deposit for a returning Soul which would have been what that portion of Ti's mind would have been like...a returning Soul. Do said the Older Member we learned to identify as Ti in the Next Level had grown so that he didn't need all of his mind to perform the incarnate task as Ti. He said his Older Member Ti could actually pilot, so to speak, more than one Next Level vehicle at any given time, while he felt like he hadn't grown that much yet.

TI'S VEHICLE WAS DESTROYED/DIED (BURST) LIKE A WINESKIN (BOTTLE) THAT HAD NEW WINE PUT IN IT.

But I imagine the Next Level knows how much “new wine” can fill whatever kind of container to decide just how much mind can be sent into a human vehicle to allow it to live long enough to not “burst” and “mar” the vehicle before completing the task. The evidence of that is how the vehicle named Jesus had to be specially prepared.

But Ti's vehicle “bursting” seems to relate directly to the verse that suggests the Woman (seed generator of life) of Rev 12 who Do said was depicting Ti, does indicate this woman is:

Rev 12:16 And the earth helped ((997 boetheo= from boethos 998= to aid, or relieve, succor (assist), cry for help, shout, “to halloo”)) the woman, and the earth opened her mouth ((4750 stoma= mouth (as if a gash in the face), as a figure, an opening (in the earth); specially, the front or edge (of a weapon): edge, face, mouth)) and swallowed up ((2666 katapino= to drink down, devour, drown)) the flood ((4215 potamos= current, brook, flood, water)) which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

The water the dragon casts out of his mouth as a flood after the woman are the myriad of human beings thoughts and reports in the media that crucified both Ti and Do. However, Ti took the most bombardment as if the Luciferian space alien fallen angels could get to Ti whom Do knew to be and trusted 100% as his Older Member (Heavenly Father) could be significantly affected in his completion of the birthing after Ti left her vehicle. This is because Ti awakened Do. Many in the media still choose not to look at that reality that Ti was the where it all started and carried forth but it was the plan for Ti to serve by being Do's assistant, to get him going and then leave so he could take the reign on the Throne in conquering all the remaining influences from the Luciferian space alien fallen angels and their minions in human vehicles and discarnate.

The negativity against her caused her body to break down. Note how her eye went first and the eye is the lamp of the body. A lamp both receives energy Mind and then gives it out so others can benefit from it.

So a “gash in the face” of the Earth looks like a grave. Ti requested her borrowed human vehicle be cremated and her ashes were spread over White Rock Lake in Dallas, Texas where the entire student body had a “craft” at the time.

TEN VIRGINS

It's interesting that Jesus stated this analogy as “ten” as it's a definite amount, though to take it 100% literal would be a mistake. The Greek word is “deca” a primary numeral but in the Hebrew equivalent that is most often where we find a broader meaning that Jesus would have probably intended, ten comes from “‘eser” which also means “ten times.” Perhaps Jesus chose 10 virgins as 10 relates to the ten commandments which were written onto two tablets and relates with the instructed design of the Tabernacle that was Jehovah's “tent” for his physical visits that only Moses went inside of for communication. That tent was made with 10 curtains coupled together in two groups of 5. There are no doubt many ways to reference numbers or anything for that matter in prophecy to the former records as the Next Level plans all this to show various consistencies as then anyone who really wants to see the truth will have a even overwhelming amount of supporting evidence to make his case by as it can all be tied into the Two Witnesses.

Moving on, Jesus says that 5 of these are “wise” which better translated would be those showing a thoughtful and cautious (prudent, curbing or reining in of behaviors and ways in their character as opposed to the foolish who are described as dull and heedless in the ways in which they exhaust their “light.” It's not that they won't experience life plenty until their potential awakening that takes place when the “bridegroom” comes public to “awaken” those that were prepared to awaken. They stand out because they haven't fully exhausted that ability to SEE by using up their force/energy by giving it to all the various human behaviors and ways. They still have a passion for what more there is to life that they are not conscious of except for the fact that they keep an open mind to. Keeping that open mind is what their light provides them. But it's not just an open mind to ideas and such but open to actually change whatever directions in life they are headed in to instead give themselves totally to their Shepherd whose voice (words/mind/spirit) they recognize when they are exposed to it.

It appears Paul got this part of the Jesus message correct and in line with the formula of growing to give our all to the Older Member as one's Bridegroom. Jesus didn't make a point to require celibacy from his disciples at that time, though Paul said he was choosing to be and Jesus had addressed how even desiring another while married is adultery and that:

Mat 22:30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.

1Co 7:31 And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away.

1Co 7:32 But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

1Co 7:33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

1Co 7:34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

1Co 7:35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

Finally, here is what Do said in the video, "Beyond Human - The Last Call - Session 3" on how the "virginity" spoken of by Jesus was one that is recoverable: (I am paraphrasing to be above question from those who might challenge this book's provision).

Do says "virginity," what people believe that word to mean is an incorrect definition of terms, noting how Lucifer has programmed many humans to think a virgin is someone who never had sexual activity and is pure. Do said it did mean pure in the physical sense but didn't mean it was someone who never had sexual activity.

He says that a human can "recover virginity." He even points out the logic in how someone who never had sex wouldn't even know what there is to overcome. He didn't think there were more than a few cases like that.

He indicates he's not sure the Next Level needs us to participate in sexuality and then to overcome it but says there is an assortment of addictions humans indulge in human will fall prey to.

He says when someone is confronted with sexuality over and over even lifetime after lifetime and you reject it, that effort to not experiment is less effort than getting into it and then removing self from that behavior.

The truth is that when you are confronted with it - if you are confronted with it - and then confronted with it, and confronted with it, even lifetime after lifetime, and you refuse it, the amount of effort it takes to not experiment is less effort than experimenting and then withdrawing from it. You don't develop the same "muscle" you would had you gotten into it, got addicted, and then asked the Next Level's help to withdraw from it, cease that addiction.

THEY HAVE NO GUILLE (DECEIT) AND ARE WITHOUT FAULT.
THEY HAVE WASHED THEIR ROBES ACCORDING TO THE INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE INCARNATE OLDER MEMBER THEY BOND TO.

Rev 14:5 And in their mouth was found no guile* ((1388 dolos= to decoy, trick (bait) as a craft, to deceive, subtlety)): for they are without fault ((299 amomos= unblemished, without blame, blemish, fault, spot, faultless)) before ((in sight of)) the throne of God.

Guile describes the ways and tactics of the Luciferian fallen angel Space Aliens who secretly as they are discarnate now, though operate through humans and human equivalent (near) space aliens to influence and prod humans to adopt their same behaviors and ways to both forward their agenda to try to escape the planetary prison and turn Souls away from Kingdom of God/Heaven allegiance to their allegiance. They literally bombard humans with their thoughts that both skew Kingdom of God/Heaven incarnate Older Member teachings into a false sense of connectedness to God and/or promote continuing to embrace human behaviors and ways which most are easily influenced to follow and seek to have for themselves.

These 144 (thousand) have become innocent and appear to others as naive, unsophisticated, non-intellectual:

Mat 11:25 At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes ((3516 nepios= from an obsolete particle ne- (implying negation) and 2031; metaphorically speaking; childish, untaught, unskilled))

These will seem to others to even be brainwashed and simple as they would have become AS children, as Jesus said would be the case:

Mat 18:3 And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Mat 18:4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

Mat 18:5 And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.

Mat 18:6 But whoso shall offend ((trip up)) one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

II.C.4.a.ii. THREE ANGELS HOLD THE DELIVERY OF THE “EVERLASTING GOSPEL” TO BE PREACHED THROUGHOUT THE WORLD THROUGH THE INTERNET, THE SECOND SHOWING THE “TWO FALLS” OF THE U.S. BEAST ESSENTIALLY INTO GLOBAL ENDLESS WAR AND GLOBAL ENDLESS FINANCIAL CRISIS AND THE THIRD THE JUDGMENT HOUR OF 40 YEARS WHERE PEOPLE ARE JUDGED BY WHO THEY SHOW THEIR ALLEGIANCE TO BETWEEN THE ONE TRUE KINGDOM OF GOD AND HUMAN OR HUMAN EQUIVALENT SPACE ALIEN (MAMMALIAN) FORMS OF WEALTH AND TREASURE

The kingdom of God/Heaven has very strict qualifications though everyone has an equal chance to gravitate to their program whenever it's revealed to them and it is always revealed to all who have that capacity to choose because the Kingdom of God literally gives out “Soul deposits” to many, which is termed their “calling” as it is because of receiving those deposits that they can “hear” and take notice when the truth is spoken by Representatives from the Kingdom of God, when they come incarnate. No one is prohibited from responding by seeking to know the pure (holy) Minds of these TWO and their student messengers even after they have exited their incarnations.

These TWO recognize that there are varied grade levels among humans. The overall requirement to have one's Soul/spirit saved (put on ice) from the coming Lake of Fire (Second Death that includes the death of one's spirit/Soul), is to believe in everything these TWO said and did and “stand for” them, and maintain that stand until their exit of their body, accepting the ramifications of taking that stand.

The speed in which each new student moves is of their own determination. There is no organization on earth that designs the standards or puts in place leaders or designs a “path.” Anyone can call on these Two in the names of Ti and Do at any time to have a real relationship with them that they will begin to recognize while always leaving each prospective candidate into their Kingdom the choice to disengage. Some may hear this information and feel compelled to accelerate their growth beyond just being “saved” for the next “classroom.” To do that means separating from all their human ties and binds, asking Ti and Do how to do that for each one's circumstance so to not “leave a mess” and begin to adopt all the behaviors and ways Ti and Do taught in their classroom that are Next Level ways and ways to break our addictions and loyalties to the human kingdom.

Rev 14:6 And I saw another ((243 allos= “else,” more, one (another), (an-, some an-) other (-s, -wise))) angel fly in ((1722 en= about, among, before, between (concerning))) the “midst of heaven”*1 ((3321 mesouranema= midheaven, mid-sky, midst of heaven)), having ((2192 echo= to hold, possess, ability, relation, or condition, be (able) accompany, begin to amend, conceive)) (the) everlasting gospel ((2098 euaggelion= good message, declare, bring, show [“new song” to include updates to the previous information, fulfillment of prophecy and a reinstatement of the truth Jesus bore])) to preach ((2097 euaggelizo= declare, bring, show)) unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,

Rev 14:7 Saying ((3004 lego= speaking)) with a loud*2 ((3173 megas= great, sensible, virtuous, important, intense, authoritative appearing)) voice ((5456 phone= disclosure, tone, (as a musical instrument, words, speech, language, tongue)), Fear*3 ((revere)) God ((Heavenly Father, [Older Member])), and give ((commit love/service to)) glory ((showing others his apparent reality, brightness in understanding (light))) (to) him ((her/them)); for the hour ((short period, [perhaps a ~40 year period based on 1000 yr. earth human time = 1 day Kingdom of God/Heaven time])) of his judgment ((2920 krisis= for or against, tribunal, justice, accusation, condemnation, damnation)) is come ((2064 erchomai= accompany, appear, bring, come, enter, fall out, go, grow, X light, X next, pass, resort, be set)): and worship ((work for, give service to, be employed by)) him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters ((source of Mind that does satisfy one's thirst to know)).

THE FIRST ANGEL:

*1 “flying in midst of heaven” - There are three examples of this exact phrase used in the Revelations and one of them pertains to “fowls” which I believe is how the Luciferian space aliens are depicted originally being the “fallen angels” of Genesis 6 and Enoch 7's descendents, together with souls they captured from plantings during the times the Next Level sent Representatives. They all “fly” but not with their own wings as in birds, though Ti and Do didn't disqualify the potential for humanoid beings having wings. When we heard reports of such a sighting while living in the San Antonio area, they said they don't know what all experiments the Next Level is engaged in. They only know about what they need to know for their task though they had suspicions.

In the two cases that refer to an “angel” or in this case a “wise angels” with a crew, it would be Members of the Next Level but the usage of “middle heaven” can seem to imply either they are operating physically closer to the earth than the “heaven” where Headquarters is and/or are working to help with the task of “harvesting for the middle heaven” and/or is a crew comprised of Student Members from among the 38+4 who exited their incarnations with Do. But it doesn't make sense to me, going by my observations of the organization of Next Level projects, as demonstrated by Ti and Do in my 19 years their student, that they would be Student Members without an assignment of an “elder” or even “wise elder” member that could be related to the position of, “captain of angels” (archangel) moving up in rank to take the position left open when the former archangel Michael advanced to the Throne and “fatherhood,” who in the records would be the One who came incarnate in the vehicle named Jesus (the Lamb) and then of late incarnate, in the name Do. Ti and Do said in the Blackhawk tapes some who graduated would be replacing Lucifer and those who fell away with him - the “third of the stars of heaven” (Rev 12:4).

So I think this “wise angel” was the first of the four Living Beings as shown in Rev 6:1 as saying “come and see” regarding what the One who had served as the Lamb (Jesus, now Do) when He opens that first and primary seal of mystery depicted here in Rev 14 announcing the evangelizing (preaching) of the “backside” - AFTER the FIRST book written from WITHIN THE THRONE (Rev 5:1) (as Ti and Do said and Do and Crew put to writing= 7 Thunders) that's about the BACK HISTORY of how Ti and Do's teachings fulfill all the prophetic history in the Bible and this is also called the “little book” in Rev 10.

This interpretation is shown in:

Rev 4:6 And before the throne there was a sea of glass like unto crystal: and in the midst ((3319 mesos= +among, before them, between)) of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts ((NOT Beasts - These are Living Beings)) full of eyes before and behind.

This “midst” refers to the “four Living Beings” who it appears are of a greater “rank” in the Next Level than the 24 elders, where their “eyes” are those described later as having “six wings” each which to me indicates 6 new graduates. (By the way, Ti and Do said that members of the Next Level don't do anything to show their rank. No insignia's or hash marks or letters after their names, yet the younger members know who the Older Members are).

Additionally, when the Throne, the Older Members are delivering their information it's said as a Roar (thunder) as shown in:

Rev 4:5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings ((to roar)) and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.

The roar is in association with how it's the Lion from the tribe of Juda doing the roaring and we see there are seven of these roars which are easy to align with the 7 times Ti and Do and Crew publicly delivered their information. Thus when Rev 14:1-2 say that the “...Lamb stood on the mount Sion with their Father's name written on their foreheads...” that is indicating the time starting in 1992-3 with the Beyond Human series that was first put up onto satellite broadcast (before there was a public internet). Also, to stand, means to be upright and as to “take a stand” which is what the mission entailed in 1992-4 that became 75 meetings in 63 cities around the U.S., where Mt. Sion from it's Hebrew origin means, “a parched place” and is often used for the entire city of Jerusalem and the dwelling place of God, which is where the biggest meeting effort started and was focused on and received the biggest response by individuals who wanted to join even without seeing Do in person right away.

When the Roar is spoken it becomes described as “prophecy.”

Plus it indicates the time when Ti and Do were “roaring” as was said in Rev 14:3 as Their students “singing” and had recovered their virginity (purchased by effort the oil for their lamps, as Jesus illustrated) (not defiled with women, meaning no longer partaking in procreative sexuality or committed relationships to women, because they were now committing 100% to the last incarnate Older Member Do).

Furthermore this “wise angel” flying in the middle heaven and from “amidst the throne” is “holding” (said as having) the “everlasting gospel to preach to them that dwell on earth” (I am suggesting is the Backside of the book/Little book) so it's not necessarily provided until the “hour of judgment” officially starts which I believe was stated in 2013, buy “signs” from the; sun, moon, stars and planets there is an increasing amount of documentation to prove.

Then a personal experience I had with a dream in 2014, ...I was meeting with four classmates, Lvbody, Jnnody and I think Chkody and one other I'm not sure of, that was a kind of briefing to the task at hand. A couple years before that I had a dream where I was sitting with Do and he was looking down on a board of some sort moving pieces around as a strategy and he said to me, “I can use you.” By the way that can change if I don't measure up or even if I get off track, the Next Level can still use us, so though it is a special blessing and honor to have a task it can never be taken for granted nor assumed one can do no wrong. In fact it puts more of the right kind of pressure on us to press to know each step our Older Member would have us take. He also said in an earlier dream when my human partner broke up with me after 17 years together and I was showing interest in another woman, “how about being loyal to me.”

Saying to those who “dwell on earth” is referring to living humans as opposed to spirits. Wording it as “gospel” (good news) points to it being a message associated more directly with the Bible terminology. And midheaven also has one more potential meaning - the internet world wide web, the way in which it is easily extended to “every nation and kindred and tongue and people” that in Rev 14:7 then relates to the “judgment hour” - the 40 year period after the Two and Crew have exited their incarnations. (I suspect there may only be 20 years from 2013 before all the plagues are done but the one that instigates the throwing of the BEASTS (US and EU) into the “lake of fire” by various means. This period seems to begin with the turn of the millennium with the first angel's gospel preaching as shown in the 2008 National Geographic channel, “Final Report:Heaven's Gate,” having international coverage.

And Do and Crew really got this “backside” going with the document posted to over 90 Usenet groups called, “Undercover “Jesus” Surfaces Before Departure” that is followed with the more generic version of language entitled, “95 STATEMENT BY AN E.T. PRESENTLY INCARNATE” as the Sixth Thunder (roar) that Jwnody wrote They felt was “premature” to post, based on the array of very negative responses. Thus the “mature” time to put this information out is now. They started this LAST wave and they are continuing it and some of us have the chance to bring it to people's view.

THE SECOND ANGEL in this sequence of Rev 14 says (affirms, maintains, points out with words, exhorts, advises, commands, directs) how the new Babylon, the U.S. falls twice (back to back) no separation of time between them:

THE TWO FALLS SEEM TO START IN 1997 (RIGHT AFTER DO AND CREW EXITED THEIR INCARNATIONS) BY THE THINK TANK, “PROGRESS FOR A NEW AMERICAN CENTURY” with their document entitled, “Rebuilding America's Defenses,” calling for the need of an “event like Pearl Harbor” to win the people to prepare to fight a “two front war” - signed by a number in the G.W. Bush Administration. That leads to a stolen election, a genuine Coup d'etat of 2000 when the U.S. Supreme Court steps in and rules that the Florida Supreme Court ruling to recount all the presidential ballots amidst many irregularities that became apparent is canceled, interfering with a sovereign state's decision that they didn't stand up to and Al

Gore and his Democratic party also caved to (and then went on to start a new propaganda campaign that still holds trying to motivate people to follow their lead to save the world and the human race by putting limits on our carbon footprint, spoken of as “climate change” that rates humans as the number one cause of. Many see through this charade but the plans seems to be to have reasons to develop alternative fuels and energy systems that are not as hard to sustain should the infrastructure dependent to them that generates them fall apart, like from the end of the world scenario to where they would then prepare to escape underground or off planet where they hope to maintain their needs using solar and/or wind and/or nuclear fuels.

Then there was the “like Pearl Harbor event,” the World Trade center attacks that are suspiciously seeming to be a mix of involvement in the plot and/or a looking the other way, divert attention tactics, then the “two front” wars in Afganistan and Iraq (with lies well established about Saddam Hussein having “weapons of mass destruction,” (that became the global war on terror) followed by the Patriot Act and Homeland Security to better surveil everyone and zero in on dissidents to shut them up or restrain them or get rid of them or make them look foolish as has been done to many whistle-blowers since then.

THE SECOND FALL BEGAN DURING THE BUSH ADMINISTRATION THAT BECAME KNOWN AS THE WALL STREET INVESTMENT BANK “GLOBAL FINANCIAL CRISIS” and was followed by the “Citizens United” Supreme court ruling making it legal to provide unlimited donations to anyone running for office that comes from a corporation because corporations were given the same rights only a U.S. Citizen was supposed to have under the Bill of Rights and U.S. Constitution.

THE THIRD ANGEL FOLLOWS and shows the basis for each of us to be our own judge as shown in Rev 14:9-10. This angel seems to coordinate with the time-line of the Rev 6:8 Green (harvest) or Pale/Green “horse” that shows relationships to the Lights on Dwarf planet Ceres (Demeter) and Vermont (Green Mountain State, with goddess Ceres statue on state house).

*2 LOUD usage: Where Rev 14:7 states that this messenger (angel) is speaking in a sensible, virtuous, important, intense, authoritative (loud) disclosure of words (voice) it seems to be directly akin to the Rev 8:13 “loud voice” that are part of the Seven Trumpets Soundings that are directly related to their descriptions of being like thunder or a ROAR especially in the 5th, 6th and 7th angel's trumpet soundings as “woes” that the Two Witnesses are the second woe of.

A “woe” is also defined from the Greek “ouai and “oua” as “alas” as an exclamation that comes as a surprise to the human kingdom and is something humans are concerned with and/or can be seen as an omen of coming sorrow or grief or even evil (trouble) such as a time of great tribulation when all humans are undergoing a certain amount of testing of to whom they are giving their allegiance, between “God and Mammon” as Jesus said.

*3 FEAR usage: And that's exactly what this messenger (angel) is saying. It's not telling people to fear God, that is unless the person has been breaking God's rules and interfering with the growth of other Souls, the only unforgivable sin (that is if they don't change before they die). For instance participating in the taking of another human's life is interfering with that person's chance to form a relationship with the Kingdom of God/Heaven as the truth about what is the real Kingdom becomes more and more apparent which is to happen to it's conclusion with this writings exposure that the Next Level will probably help use as they wrap up the project before recycling ends the civilization.

Fear can also be translated to “revere” and to anyone with their eyes open, they do revere the Next Level and there is a certain amount of fear in that because we can never assume we are where they know we could be at in terms of our growth so if we have a little fear of that, it can help motivate us to do better. It's just like training an animal with a little fear like a smack on the backside if they poop in the kitchen, followed by showing them the outside place to do their pooping. Or it's like setting rules with consequences for our children so before they do certain things they think about those consequences and may thereby not do those things.

The seven angels with vials to pour out that will be discussed later are just these kinds of “warnings” to shape up or miss out, regardless of what we think we deserve because of our affiliation with this or that church, temple, mosque, spiritual center, humanitarian non-profit, charity or other just cause. This is not to say any of those group affiliations are good or bad. It's just the fact that if each of us don't have an active conversation with the Next Level and show them who we want to serve, (as we have to serve someone, like Bob Dylan sang) then they are not going to help us as a Soul or Spirit to escape the spading under and recycling.

All of us will lose these physical bodies. And it's really not about seeing this as a carrot before the rabbit because there are many who will not respond to any amount of such carrot looking thinking. The ones that can respond are the ones that already have a sense of this truth and because they have this sense, they are more inclined to take ultimatums more seriously not so much because they fear death or the annihilation of their Soul or spirit, because that is largely subjective anyway. It's because they can't deny the truth when it's put in front of them so it becomes a matter of their choice to allow that truth to accumulate more with them so they can build the strength to ward off the influences in life that would have them compromise that truth.

A “FOWL” OR “BIRD” IN REVELATIONS IS USED TO ILLUSTRATE THE SPACE ALIENS. They are still mammals and have demonstrated this fact repeatedly, though they do not really circulate among humans, except perhaps in very limited ways, spending most of their time in their spacecrafts as they have no real homes besides the hiding places in the sea or under the Earth where they have been permitted to survive previous civilization destruction, as depicted in the Noah flood (and perhaps all the flood narratives in various cultures around the world).

Since “fly in the midst of heaven” is the focus of this verse for the unique perspective it offers, this next verse provides another twist. Instead of angels as messengers of the Kingdom of God/Heaven providing the disclosure (voice) to humans, they are speaking to the “fowls”:

Rev 19:17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in ((AGAINST those who are giving themselves wholly to those applying to still be harvested secondarily thus termed the)), midst of heaven ((3321 mesouranema= midheaven, mid-sky, midst of heaven)), Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

Rev 19:18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

Rev 19:19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

This is depicting the battle or Armageddon recorded in Rev 16:16. The battle is between the Next Level and the Luciferian space aliens (fowls) and their subservient bestial (mammalian) humans whether they serve their agenda willingly or by doing the same kinds of things to try to save their own. It is a battle for the allegiance of Souls and Minds/Spirits. Human beings are all under the very real and constant, even normal influence of dead (Spirits) who like living humans are directly or indirectly under the influence of the space aliens who are also under the influence of the fallen angels to include the one who was named Lucifer and those that sided with him.

This shows the final return of Do using his Next Level vehicle, perhaps the one he changed over that was named "Jesus" having returned in his "glory" - from his brilliantly white lighted "horse" with his "army" of the graduates in their Next Level vehicles and in brilliantly lighted spacecrafts instigating the "lake of fire" fate for the US and EU Beasts - in other words the governments are collapsed, even their "seats" of government destroyed, as well as the seats of the Christians as the "false prophets." And then the remaining people who were not to be saved became subject to the space aliens (fowls) for whatever use they had for them - DNA, etc.

II.C.4.b. THE “FIRST” FRUIT HARVEST IS COMPLETED BY THE TIME OF FIRST OF SEVEN SEALS OF REV 6 AS A RESULT OF THE TWO WITNESSES PROPHECY PERIOD OF 1260 DAYS THAT SERVED TO GATHER THE FLOCK OR RETURNING SAINTS, TAGGED BY THE MEDIA AS THE UFO TWO, FOLLOWED BY A TOTAL OF ABOUT 21 YEARS OF CLASSROOM TIME ALL BEGAN IN MARCH OF 1972 WHEN TI AND DO’S HUMAN VEHICLES MET IN HOUSTON, TEXAS AND WAS PRIMARILY CONCLUDED BY MARCH OF 1997 WHEN DO AND 38 STUDENTS LAID DOWN THEIR BODIES AS THE HEAVEN’S GATE GROUP AT THE TIMING OF THE PERIHELION OF THE MYSTERIOUS HALE BOPP COMET

Rev 14:14 And I looked, and behold ((an alert - announcing an IMPERATIVE for humans to see)) a white*1 ((3022 leukos from luke= light)) cloud*2 ((3507 nephele from nephos 3509; formally= cloudiness, covering [cloaking their transportation])), and upon*3 ((1909 epi= “has charge of” [as a captain of a crew], “because of,” with)) the cloud ((spacecraft/[crew])) one sat ((2521 kathemai from 2596 kata= to sit (by/down), remain, dwell, [has a seat as an assigned task/position])) like*4 ((3664 homoios from 3674 homou (as an adverb)= at the same place or time, together and/or similar in appearance or character and manner)) unto the Son of man (([reference to physical incarnation into a human body LIKE Jesus])), having on his head a golden crown (([reference to his authority])), and in his hand (([his task to implement])) a sharp ((KEEN, SWIFT, POINTED (? possibly related to being more “plain, bold” talk as another prophecy pointed out would be the focus of communication as opposed to parables, etc.?))) sickle((plucking)).

*1 White in the 25 times leukos is used with a couple exceptions, it is depicting a lack of color but is often expressed in that usage with further descriptors indicating brightness and/or brilliance, even as a star at times, while some depict purity in association with that whiteness. However, when used in combination with “cloud,” it holds further implications as either a mode of travel as in “cloud of light,” a cloaked by a cloud spacecraft.

*2 Cloud as hidden transportation that Jesus in his transformed physical “glorified” body reportedly literally rose up to:

Act 1:9 And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

Act 1:10 And while they looked steadfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel ((2066 esthes from hennumi= to clothe, dress, apparel, clothing, raiment, robe));

Act 1:11 Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

The Kingdom of God/Heaven throughout the records always cloaks their transportation's presence and at times, as in the Moses camp any physical presence in a way that protects humans from the full power of their nature as the human being can literally die should they see without the cover. But perhaps among the biggest reason for the cloaking is to not provide indisputable eye witness evidence and especially in the third trimester when, at least in this civilization's history, there are space aliens, many of which masquerade as “gods” to humans, though some of them say they are “space brothers,” the affect is the same...humans are in awe of them because of what they are able to do to create a facsimile of awe in their technology and their own cloaking and/or techniques to mesmerize or hypnotize or even drug humans while they perform their tests and try to extract sperm and eggs and hormones.

*3 In saying “upon the cloud,” I am suggesting the change to; “having charge of” matching his having a seat on this cloud(spacecraft) though “because of” or “on behalf of” provides continuity with the depiction of his being “like, + manner(ways of the Son of man),” thus not the same but a new “son of man,” in other words a new incarnation of an equivalent person (having a golden crown). In other words this person arriving or performing the action, having a crown has conquered/overcome, which is kin to:

Rev 6:2 And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him ((Greek “autos” also means “Them” which makes more sense here with the litter and the fact that he already has a crown)) and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

The “bow” is not as a “bow and arrow,” as many Christian writers/teachers think which has already been documented in this writing, but indicates his having a litter of offspring he is birthing (begetting).

*4 This can easily seem to match that this was one of the Two Witnesses as both were incarnate in order to perform their speaking testimony/witness (fulfillments) of prophecy.

After Ti left, Do always spoke of Ti coming to get us and how we were actually making our application to be “on Ti's Crew” by being in their overcoming classroom.

Rev 14:15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying ((2896 krazo= a primary verb; formally, to croak (as a raven) or scream, call aloud (shriek, exclaim, intreat, cry (out))) with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe.

This demonstrates that since this one who is LIKE Son of Man is the reaper with the sickle that he is bringing the fruit to ripeness but awaits instructions/signs from headquarters (the temple spacecraft) as to when to use the sickle.

Rev 14:16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.

An additional way to look at this, may seem unlikely but given the way the Kingdom of God generates prophecy that has multiple ways of making the same points, it's worthy of consideration:

To depict this “son of man” sitting on the cloud is simply saying he has a seat, a position, a task. And it's altogether possible that this depiction also works as a description of his incarnation, whereby the cloud represents his coming “covered,” because to humans there is no visible proof of his Kingdom of God/Heaven Older Membership. He is operating “undercover,” which is the way Ti and Do spoke of their operation, which is where the idea of his returning in secret originates, the same way he came as Jesus, Elijah, Moses and Enoch. All made a huge impression on the society of the day, at least pertinent to the area and “garden” the Kingdom of God/Heaven was cultivating towards harvest.

Following this thinking, then saying it was a white cloud, whereby white in that context would pertain to how we would SEE with our eyes, the coloration, or the lack of color as identifying the vehicle he takes as light or white, as opposed to light brown to black. This is not an out of the blue idea as the depiction of his riding a white horse, in the Rev 6 account, a horse is equal to the way the Kingdom of God/Heaven views human beings, as they are also mammals, and the overcoming process entails “capturing/catching” the desired horse “away” (real meaning of rapture) from it's otherwise normal human way of life, to “incarnate” (take over), by strength of mind/will over the vehicle's innate programming of desires, etc.

Rev 6:2 And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

We see that “he that sat on him had the bow,” his liter of those who had lived by the “covenant” (contract), what Ti and Do called our “committal” to Do, who were being born. Again “sat” indicating the position of rider or controller or in Ti and Do's terminology a “driver” like a pilot of that transportation, in Ti and Do's term, “vehicle” for the Soul, the container gifted to the vehicle that can grow into one's Next Level Body. Thus by saying it is “white” is saying that vehicle was made “pure” or “holy” having extinguished and converted human behaviors and ways to Kingdom of God/Heaven Next Level behavior and ways, and to boot, that human vehicle's coloration is described as “white” and to top it off, the name the vehicle is born with describes the process of taking a “fallen” vehicle, as represented by the Apple, and making it pure, thus white. Do's vehicle's last name was “Applewhite.” And by the way, his vehicle's first name was “Marshall,” like the sheriff restoring Next Level law and order to the garden corrupted by the outlaw whose name was/is Lucifer.

Here is another depiction of this new named “son of man”:

Rev 1:13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

Rev 1:14 His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire;

Rev 1:15 And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.

Rev 1:16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

An earlier prophecy describing characteristics of the returned Representative from the Kingdom of God/Heaven in the flesh:

Dan 7:9 I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire.

Special note to “Rev 1:14 His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow...,” thus his head was white, again referring to color, as snow isn't associated with the other usages of “white,” pure mind or bright countenance and/or star light, whether referring to a person in the Next Level (star) or a celestial body such as a comet, etc.

Because this is a depiction like a harvest of fruit, the fruit is the NEW SOUL being born - the kernel/grain that comes from the “head” of the stalk that is removed. This means the head/stalk is not taken, thus it dies. The students want to be harvested. That is part of their final exam so to speak to have demonstrated giving themselves entirely to their Older Members (Heavenly Fathers) from the Kingdom of God/Heaven.

II.C.4.c. THE “LAST” HARVEST IS COMPARED TO A WINEPRESS AND IS THE TIME OF GREAT TRIBULATION AKA FINAL JUDGMENT THAT BEGINS GRADUALLY WITH THE SECOND OF THE SEVEN SEALS OF REV 6 AND CONTINUES UNTIL THE SEVENTH SEAL

This new Son of Man, formally Jesus isn't the actual reaper in this depiction but gives instructions to the reapers thus this is pertaining to the second harvest that the angels (workers) orchestrate under the Older Member's instigation. These angels are the Saints, children/sons of God. For them to orchestrate this second harvest means they were born out of their childhood so they became adults that included being given “clean white clothes” - a new physical Kingdom of God/Heaven type of physical body and new task positions.

Rev 14:17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

Another crew from headquarters also has a pointed implementation of the actual reaping that also results in the death of the head/stalk of each fruit (Soul) being harvested. This reaping is accomplished however, by yet another crew (angel) who are based in the geographic area that is where the Souls/human vehicles to be harvested circulate and prove their worthiness by giving their life in service to the testimony of the Two Witnesses, just like the first harvest depiction. Giving one's life is the ultimate criteria that demonstrates the overcoming of one's human vehicle's innate nature to preserve one's physical life, thus is a willing sacrifice as taught initially by Moses and then demonstrated and taught by Jesus and followed suite by the Two Witnesses, the same Souls with new physical bodies incarnate for their appropriate trimester development of the children like Souls to be harvested.

Rev 14:18 And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

There is a different quality to these who are harvested described as the “clusters of the vine of the earth.” A cluster is a “bunch,” thus these may be growing in certain areas that have been gravitated to by the human vehicles that the remaining Souls looking for horses to take control over (with the horses cooperation, because the horse (human being with a Soul implant that enables the interface) will find the information the Two Witnesses brought to be “sweet to the taste, though sour to the belly because the invisible discarnates will have one feel a little sick at the prospect of what belief in this might mean to one's social life, etc. But when the info it delivered it's like giving a horse candy. They love it and then comes the work.

Rev 14:19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath of God.

The winepress is what has been called the “tribulation” time of great trouble that puts these to the test of their allegiance (not taking the marks and showing loyalty to the bestial humans in their governments nor religious/spiritual leaders as depicted by the “false prophet” depictions.

This tribulation time is taking place in earnest, though gradually to offer time for humans to consider the Kingdom of God/Heaven's plans unfolding, but essentially starting in the geographic area of the New City of God, the location where the New Jerusalem has been moved to from the middle east, according to this depiction after the first harvest.

This second harvest is signaled to start by the crew who are bringing heat and drought and the subsequent fires that burn up a great deal of trees and grasses, as the first trumpet blowing angel forecast would be taking place and the first vial bearing angels puts into action. During this time there will be a great deal of death that will include those who are part of the second harvest for believing and trying to work for the Two Witnesses who are not present, as the Woman Father left after she got her “son” born to his fatherhood task and he conquers for himself and for each of his offspring as depicted by the Rev 6 white horse verse and this is verified by the Rev 11 Two Witnesses, Father and Son, going back to their heavenly abode:

Rev 11:12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them.

Rev 14:20 And the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

Here we see the examples of how the “angels are the reapers in this second harvest”:

Mat 13:30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

In other words, the Harvest itself as depicted in Rev 14:14 is the result of those Souls who are gathered by the Two Witnesses prophesying that I am referring to as the first harvest while the Second Harvest are those who show their belief and service to those same Two Witnesses who have by then returned back into their heavenly dwelling/abode, aka mansion/spacecraft base from where they orchestrate the second component of this third trimester return, what has been talked about as the Judgment Day, preceded by the time of great trouble not seen since the beginning of this civilization, the Last Days. Of course there are many who scoff at these terms, saying the religious have been talking about them for a long time and yet the earth is still here. Perhaps needless to say, there is nothing in Revelations or the gospel accounts of Jesus' words that say the Earth will perish, only a large portion of the humans on it's surface plus it's not according to human time frame - it's according to Kingdom of God/Heaven time frame which is far different ~1000 years human time = 1 day Kingdom of God/Heaven time.

But since we are discussing use of an implement - an incarnate Older Member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven who by spreading Their information in words, when heard by those whom are thirsty for that quality of Mind They re-present it serves to assist them to cut away their own root system to their human kingdom level. And this cutting away becomes a war, but not a war for territory or wealth but a war over human allegiance.

That Older Member requires a student to give Them all their belief and trust and to literally go with Them when they demonstrate their arrival. The initial departure from the world and all the otherwise normal activities they once participated in, is the root meaning that the word "rapture" today pretends to represent, that's been made into some kind of inheritance, requiring next to nothing to receive. That initial "leaving all behind" to follow with that incarnate Representative is still only the first step, no matter what trimester towards birth one is within.

Those that stuck with Moses in thought and deed as best they could when many others hated him and sought to abandon or even kill him, were taking their first step of faith in Him as their contact and relationship with the Kingdom of God/Heaven. Then when Jesus came to a new generation carried forth from the ethnos of those in the Moses camp, He let his presence be known by what he said and those core believers who had returned in Soul form with Him, took their genetic match of a freshly seeded human body, thus given their own Soul to continue in their next stage towards eventual growth. As was required, they left all behind to follow with this cultist leader whom most everyone except the poor, sick and rejected hated, and that caused great division again. They were plucked out of their world to become his full time student. That didn't mean none of them never saw those in their human family tree again, but they didn't live with them. They didn't work for them anymore. They didn't fulfill their previous responsibilities to family, friends, society, at least not in the way they had before joining with Jesus.

At the second Return (Moses=start, Jesus=first return) or Third Trimester towards Soul Birth (another term that has been bastardized into nonsense) once again, this time, with Two incarnate, for various reasons but essentially because of how corrupted the record had become, evidenced by these ideas of rapture and born again lies, together with the new age, “everybody is deity” lies that stems from one little thing Jesus said that was taken completely out of context and misunderstood to boot, and the many, many other forms of manipulation of the languages and terms in the record and in the current language where these Two geographically surface. These Two must also insist that to be in their experiential Third Trimester “classroom” by whatever terminology they use, which is guaranteed to be far more generic compared to how religisized, spiritualized, mystified and mythologized the terminology and events in the Records have become will once again absolutely require those that hear their words, and want to give it their ALL, to leave all behind to be with them day in and day out. Thus they must be what today is called a cult while cults spring up all over stimulated by the Luciferians whom most don't believe nor take seriously to exist.

Leaving all behind, will be their rapture as those physical bodies were caught the way any fish can be caught. Notice the Jesus illustration as he said he was making his disciples, “fishers of men (humans),” by providing bait to the hook, the bait being REAL TRUE information that in their genetic past, rings true, though not necessarily consciously, thus it's bait because without there is no reason to leave one's world behind. They were prepared ahead of time in an invisible way even over thousands of years and unlike fishing it's not for the Next Level to consume that they fish. It's so the fish can have a chance to live beyond any fishes lifespan, caught or not. Plus these human vehicles don't really belong to us anyway - nothing does as we did nothing to have the life experience, yet what does belong to us, because the Kingdom of God/Heaven creators wanted us to have it, is the choice of what to do with our gifted life that they hope will be to give it back to them, the creators because in so doing those creators KNOW they will have more than ever could have dreamed of having in the human kingdom. That's why Jesus said, if you bond with his Family by disconnecting with your human family when the choice is given you will receive many fold more family in all the fellow members of the Next Level.

But that initial capture, as I've said is just the start of any Trimester. From there they literally need to cut away at all their preconceived ideas, likes and dislikes and replace them with the Older Members ideas, likes and dislikes. That can sound artificial to do, and it may start artificially but if one stays with the program the Older Members direct they will eventually be genuinely wanting to know each and every thought and idea and way of doing anything that Older Member cares to share with them. That's how one builds a real graft to a new Mind Source.

Mat 13:37 He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man;

Mat 13:38 The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one;

Mat 13:39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

Mat 13:40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

Mat 13:41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity;

Mat 13:42 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

Mat 13:43 Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

Another example of how the students/disciples (in first harvest, thus the 24 elders, etc.) are the same as the angel reapers of the second harvest:

Joh 4:35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.

Joh 4:36 And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

Joh 4:37 And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.

Joh 4:38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

This section will use the Book of Revelations structure to tie in relative Jesus prophecy in the “gospel records.” This will include parts of the Book of Revelations Chapters 1-5, leaving out verses that don't clearly delineate the return.

III. THE TIME LINE THAT REVEALS THE RETURN OF THE EVOLUTIONARY LEVEL ABOVE HUMAN KINGDOM OF PHYSICAL BEINGS (GODS) FROM THE LITERAL HEAVENS (THEIR ENVIRONMENTS IN DEEP OUTER SPACE)

The preparation for the Return of the Older Members and Crew from the Evolutionary Level Above Human (Kingdom of God/Heaven), the NEXT LEVEL, has been in affect from the start of their latest experiment approximately 5975 years ago as depicted by the Moses time line in Genesis, starting with the Adam and Eve account. (This was not the first human civilization on Earth, which the creation portion skips past except to say there were man-faced beings male and female created before Adam and Eve).

Of course the Next Level Kingdom's Membership have been designing and developing, thus preparing civilizations on planets for longer than humans can begin to calculate, so PREPARATION here refers to what began after the second trimester classroom administered and managed by the Ones called The Father, Jesus and their Crew.

As already described Jesus knew he and his Father's Kingdom would be given to a new people and territory, so they saw to it that humans would venture out to find the America's, settle there and draw millions to it's shores. That is the “regeneration” Jesus spoke of. It's a regeneration of CONTAINERS - the human vehicles the returning Souls who were to complete their graduation/birth requirements would have to take over that would become their chrysalis for their metamorphosis of the content of their mind/spirit from the human evolutionary condition to the filling of their new container (Soul pocket), gifted thirsty human vehicles with the new Above Human (holy) Mind/Spirit from the Older Members from that Next Level.

III.A. THE PREPARATIONS AS DEPICTED IN REVELATIONS CHAPTERS 1 TO 5

Rev 1:1 The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified ((4592 semeion= an indication, mark, token, miracle, sign, wonder)) it by his angel unto his servant John:

Jesus referred to his Father as God. God, in Greek “Theos” is a general name for Deity and is actually the condition of a being that is evolutionarily (not Darwinian evolution) Above Human Being, even though among them there are Older and Younger Members, aka one's Heavenly Father when they are not incarnate to where Older indicates they have become a parent (Father) to new members of the Next Level. In the Next Level's time frame, the Return was to come to pass, "shortly" after these revealings were given. The revealings are given via token marking signs that leave one wondering to experience. I believe these are mostly in the form of unusual comets that can be seen by the naked eye by most on the planet for an extended period but are not limited to such while are set apart from the kinds of ways the Luciferian space aliens produce facsimile staging of events as in many UFO sightings and abduction cases, the Next Level has no reason to do but allows to show the difference as people seek to understand and consider these realities among them.

Rev 1:2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony ((3141 marturia, from 3144 martus= giving one's life in witness, report, record, evidence)) of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

This is another consistency with the task of the Two Witnesses where the word Witness in Rev 11:3 is from the same Greek word, "marturia." All Members of the Next Level who come incarnate - taking over a human vehicle do so expecting to give the life of that vehicle as part of the task. Even so, it doesn't make it easy as when they come in Soul form and enter into the vehicle in a staged way to not overwhelm the vehicle's brain/mind they feel everything the vehicle feels and the vehicle does not easily come to terms with being harmed and killed. But once the Mind from the Next Level member has sufficiently entered into the vehicle, the vehicle has sided with that Next Level Mind. It is under the control of the Next Level Mind. Ti and Do taught that the human vehicle was designed to be driven like an automobile to where the driver is the Soul, whether that Soul was a first time Soul given to that vehicle or a returning Soul. Ti and Do called overcoming a "process" of getting Next Level mind as provided by the most recent Older Member into the human vehicle and in this way that vehicle becomes like one's horse, a living mammal that can even come to enjoy being of service to one they recognize as their master, the Mind from the Level Above Human.

Rev 1:3 Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

The time is at hand every time an Older Member from the Next Level has come incarnate and extends to after they have exited that incarnation. As Jesus indicated all those who came from the Next Level had their vehicle's taken by the Next Level, which is part of why Ti and Do felt Moses was taken, it was simply not part of the plan for anyone to witness it where as Elijah one was allowed to witness his being "taken" by the "whirlwind," a way of covering the spacecraft inside.

Rev 1:4 John to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne;

Rev 1:5 And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

Rev 1:6 And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

Jesus was first born of the dead because he overcame the world, (worldliness, the behaviors and ways of the human kingdom, attachment to his vehicle's family roots) and laid down his life on his Father's instruction for the sake of his student body, showing them proof that doing so yielded a new living physical body with none of the limitations of a human body. He had become a butterfly and could literally fly (See the miracle of walking on water and rising up to the spacecraft at his exit, both of which occurred AFTER he rose from the dead). All humans who don't begin their graft to his branch of his family tree are still in a dead condition as neither their Spirit, Soul or Body would enter the world of the living. So yes, he washed (baptized) them of water (by overcoming the human kingdom's ways subordinate to the flesh) and by fire in their self sacrifice of their own physical body by taking on their assigned task of disseminating his information that the religious Jews and others at that time hated to hear about as they feared loss of their own constituency that often included their own family members so justified killing them off. Thus it was by Jesus choice to have his blood spilled that made him their example, but then the Luciferians came in at his exit and through Paul of Tarsus changed the requirement of self sacrifice into "he did it for you, because he loved you so much, so you didn't have to do as he did,” an outright lie that became the basis of today's Christianity.

Jesus' students that abode in his “love” (showing this same love he showed to them that he had for his Older Member and for them whom he called his friends that he was willing to lay down his body for), as Jesus said was the “greatest show of love” one could show for another, became their advancement into their new Next Level family, making them in comparison to even the greatest human as Jesus illustrated would be the case, Kings and Priests - to further serve in the temple (on Earth where the Older Member and Crew incarnate to perform their task) to be born again in flesh (incarnate) to then be born again in spirit - baptized by the fire of once again laying down their physical body for him, the finale of that incarnation but also entails squelching the flames of sensuality according to the degree given by the incarnate Older Member that are not actually limited. In other words, Jesus taught that one would be required to restrain all their sensuality/sexuality upon their return in the regeneration of their genetic strain they as Souls would return to occupy, though they didn't have to wait to embrace that lesson step. This is why Jesus said that even “making oneself a eunuch for the Kingdom of Heaven's sake” was “for those who can receive it.”

Rev 1:7 Behold ((2400 idou= lo, see)), (he) cometh ((2064 erchomai= to come or go, appear, FALL OUT, X LIGHT, be set, accompany, bring)) with ((3326 meta= after, behind, among, hereafter, after these things)) clouds ((3507 nephele from 3509 nephos= cloudiness, (but from the Hebrew “a covering”))); and every ((all (manner of, means), whosoever)), eye ((eye sight)) shall see ((see something remarkable)) him: and all kindreds ((5443 phule= tribes (descendents from twelve tribes of Jacob (Israel)), nation, people)) of the earth shall wail ((2875 kopto= to “chop,” cut (off, from), strike, smite, mourn, grieve)) because ((1909 epi= about (the times))) (of) him. Even so, Amen.

As with most all prophecy there are a number of degrees of accuracy to many terms often including several of the translation options. In this case some of the combined options related to:

- “Behold cometh with clouds” - people being given an alert “lo” to “see.” We see many of these alerts, as with the “Seven Angels soundings of trumpets” and various voices (disclosures) of information said as “thunders”

(roars) and Signs in the Sun, Moon, (planets and stars) and that more traumatic medicine in the Seven Angles pouring out their vials that are plagues/calamities that actually come most upon those who do not give their allegiance to the BEAST (Governments and institutions that make up the establishment with their secretive agenda that came from dealing with the Space Alien presence among us) or IMAGE (Mental Idols - Spirituality and Religiosity that raises some to equate SELF with godliness and even to the worship of an actual Hologram like Fatima as God).

What people will be alerted to is his “FALLING OUT LIGHTING APPEARANCE from behind, among or even AFTER the example the Kingdom of God has given as with the cover of clouds, even seen as a LIGHT both literal as with some of the UFO crashes reported where there were observations by a number of witnesses to a “falling star” or “object appearing in distress,” even being pursued by government jets doing various zig zagged maneuvers as if to make it obvious this object is intelligently directed and/or trying to get attention to be sure they are seen.

One can investigate the Laredo, Texas UFO Crash for this example I've just described. The light can be literal light or figuratively speaking could be the form of the surge of awareness these so called UFO crashes stimulate among the population that some begin to relate to the Kingdom of God/Heaven.

He “appears” and is “accompanied,” since we know that it's never just one returning as all members of the Next Level work in teams even though only one Older Member may be incarnate at any given time.

However, HE is still not appearing in an observable way, that is in terms anyone's literal eyesight could discern. People will have to identify him by the recognition of his Mind, his thoughts, behaviors and ways, which will only be expressed when he comes public. Not coming in a visually observable way further substantiates his coming only seen through a covering. Like Jesus said, “the Kingdom does not come with observation,” it comes from “among you (within you)” (Lk 17:20-21), through a human incarnation in what Ti and Do called an “undercover” operation. This is also kin to the idea of his coming “as a thief in the night” and at an unexpected time. Night as the time of darkness is synonymous with the unseen world that is populated by discarnate spirits, though a Next Level member's Soul is actually not etheric as a discarnate, but change it's vibrations to be invisible to humans.

The reason this method of arrival works is because the human kingdom is prepared to recognize him, which is the point to the tasks of the Seven Angels with Trumpets to begin to lay out in new thoughts, concepts, scientific discovery and beliefs about the nature of our reality. This is done well in advance to produce a gnome that can result in children that become more and more open to thinking that is natural to Next Level Members Mind. For instance, the idea that there were people on other planets, air and space travel, invisibility, use of frequencies for communications, etc. are a few.

On a social level genderless consciousness grows, as Next Level Members have no gender to their physical bodies. This really can't seem normal as long as anyone of either gender thinks they are superior to the other gender. The same with racial, ethnic, religious, class, intellectual and health bias that people are often segregated by. Do actually said that those who were homosexual had overcome gender consciousness, though if they are still sexual have yet to overcome their sexual consciousness, another characteristic Members of the Next Level don't have, thus the reason an aspiring member needs to learn to abort that thinking and acting out of.

Ti and Do said that the entire planet is “stocked” (though they may have used a different word) with all the options a human could choose from. Perhaps they would consider these Seven Angels with trumpets an extension of that stocking program. They did talk about how the things They and the student body were thinking and doing and trying to overcoming were “sent out” as a signal that humans could tap into that can help them overcome the same things or increase their humanness or become more like the Luciferians. They said the campaign against smoking tobacco was one example. Examples can be found in the audio tapes Ti and Do had us record of most all the internal classroom meetings they gave.

One way of looking at the idea that he's COMING AFTER with clouds, again literal from among the skies could pertain to his return as depicted in Rev 16:15 and Rev 19:11+ where his spacecraft perhaps appearing as a large bright light or many lights as in an armada of spacecrafts, also depicted in Rev 19. Then every eye would see because it would be so obvious as all people followed the sight day and night. Even the blind would be told what others were seeing and what might go with it then is the signal of what they are seeing and might even relate to Ti and Do.

But yet there is another way to translate “every eye shall see him,” which appears to be yet another poor translation as EVERYONE is not seeking or knocking to SEE, nor wants to examine what's happening around the world and/or in the sky, near and outer space, so how can they all SEE.

This could equally be saying, “whoever (has) eye sight (to) see something remarkable and which pierced him... shall “chop,” cut down... their stalk, their human vehicle because everyone is put to the test of whether they will give themselves and die for (in allegiance to) the Level Above Human Older Members (Ti and Do for those who heard about them), for the One True Kingdom of God (if someone hasn't heard about Ti and Do) or die for any other reason.

When Jesus gave the illustration of the virgins carrying their lamps some don't have oil in their lamps when their bridegroom comes, so they miss out. They don't SEE. The translation is just as accurate to say “every one has the opportunity to see” as he sees to it that the opportunity is presented many, many times but again one must look.

However, if that was meant literally then I don't doubt the Next Level can do things so everyone will see, at least with their minds eye but then what they think about what they see is another challenge. Even if he came back in his spacecraft that looked like a comet how many people are going to say, “that's Jesus.” Even if he put up a big sign on the Sun or in the sky or projected frequencies to all our various media outlets, even directly to all the television sets and computers and radio's, etc. saying “here I am, I am Jesus for every eye to see,” I guarantee many would think it was a hoax or a government or illuminate trick. Many Christians who say they are looking for him have been blinded to his coming incarnate and/or cloaked or with a different vehicle or face to face verses hovering among the clouds so they will be as blind to his actual arrival as their ancestral Jewish leaders were towards the idea that Jesus was fulfilling their messianic expectations even though Moses said when asked that the returning one would be coming “just like me” - in other words face to face, incarnate. Of course most of the Jewish leaders knew that but thought that meant he would come through their priestly ranks not knowing that would be the last way he would come given they had long ago stopped abiding by what Jehovah taught through Moses and his Crew of upcoming students. So history once again repeats itself but now the religious are called Christians or Muslim or Hindu or Buddhist, etc. all having the expectation of a return of a master from the Kingdom of God/Heaven, though in each of these religious institutions most have long since abandoned the core teachings of their founders, replacing them with huge dilutions filled with justifications for their behaviors and ways that keep them blinded to reality.

In 1975-76 when Ti and Do had come public they were on the cover or on a story page of probably hundreds of publications; newspapers and magazines around the U.S. and Canada. The New York Times put their picture on the cover of their magazine section and that paper has huge pages so it was quite apparent to the millions of readers worldwide. Plus every network news television show posted their pictures and they were talked about for years thereafter with articles that kept coming out about them. There was a movie made called the “Mysterious Two” that was grade B at best and was full of lies and distortions but had John Forsythe in the lead role as Bo (Do).

But when it says the “kindreds of the Earth shall wail,” it no doubt occurred both in 1975-76 and when they exited by laying down their lives in March of 1997 as in both times relatives of those who had joined and had disappeared to follow them were significantly upset. And that is still somewhat the case today when someone writes an article about the Heaven's Gate group “suicides.” Yet, most Christian leaders did all they could to not talk about it with their congregations or just call it a new age cult that was led by Satan even though their exit was accompanied by the “lightning” (star like lighting) from east to west, as prophesied, in the perihelion of the biggest and brightest comet in history that also had a companion object photographed with it, called Hale-Bopp, coincidentally like saying “Hail Bo Peep,” the names Ti and Do first used when they came before the public in 1975.

And yet the final way it seems “every or all and/or any manner of eyes” could see him after his undercover coming, who will “wail, mourn and be cut off from” him (because of their chosen judgment of who he really is and represents that will not be apparent to their eyesight and understanding of what he was supposed to be), could be reflected in the forecast prophecy to occur when He returns with his graduate New Members of the Next Level all wearing “fine linen” (fine linen was a king's clothing as opposed other fabrics and even burlap (sackcloth) for those that are not royalty) all riding “white horses” which is the depiction of their bright light appearing spacecrafts. Ti and Do called our automobiles horses sometimes. For instance whenever a car was in the shop for repairs they would say it was in the “horsepistal.” And we would sometimes name our cars using colors such as, “blue van” and “green van.”

This last coming is NOT incarnate. It is his returning in “power and glory” with his Crew of new graduates to separate the sheep from the goats that includes the removal of the “tares,” the look alike wheat planted by the enemy, the Luciferian space aliens that leave the wheat to “inherit the Earth” as Jesus said would be accomplished by the “meek,” the kind, gentle and peaceful humans while those who recognize him bring his information to the public again that will be part of what the Luciferian space aliens hate to see so will mount an attack against. Thus he is once again coming as a thief in the final battle of Armageddon, which as always is a battle for Souls but as will be shown seems to also indicate the Manzano and/or Magdalena area in New Mexico. Ti and Do said the Luciferians can not make a Soul yet a Soul is what a human being is given that enables the expansion of their minds (in a Next Level fashion) in the receipt of Next Level information that is seen as valuable to the Luciferians as if they can turn a Soul into their disciple they have another that is like themselves and their physical vehicle also becomes of great value to them for their genetic engineering projects and to be diplomats to other humans as we see with the growing number of contactees and UFO religions like the Raelians. These are humans who are being tricked into worshiping the space aliens and they are not alone. Groups are cropping up all over and have been since the 1940's and 1950's which is when the Next Level sent it's members to “fall out” of the literal sky/heaven into human environments, sacrificing their physical bodies once again to finish their overcoming to receive a seat on board a Next Level spacecraft crew with a new adult Next Level body.

Rev 1:10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet,

Rev 1:11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.

Rev 1:12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks;

Rev 1:13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like (unto the) Son of man, clothed with a garment ((1746 enduo from en 1722 and duno 1416= sense of sinking into a garment, to invest with clothing, array, endue, have (put) on)) (down to the) foot ((4158 poderes from pous 4228= footstool)), and girt ((4024 perizonnumi from peri 4012 and zonnumi 2224; to gird all around, to fasten on one's belt, gird (about, self))) about the paps ((3149 mastos from the base of 3145 massaomai from a primary masso (to handle or squeeze), to chew, consume, eat, devour; the breast, nipples of a man, women)) with a golden ((5552 chruseos from chrusos 5557= through the idea of utility of metal) made of gold, golden)) girdle ((2223 zone probably akin to base of 2218 zugos from the root of zeugnumi (to join, especially by a “yoke”), metaph., used of any burden or bondage, as that of slavery, a balance, pair of scales, a belt, a pocket, purse)).

John saying he is in the spirit is a dream state as the Next Level doesn't do channeling or psychic communications because those are what Ti and Do called “tricks” they said the “lower forces” use, but they do use dreams as preparation for the next day's lessons, in this case the start of his assigned writing task. To John, it sounds like a trumpet yet he thinks of it as a voice and he understands what it is saying as it's a mind to mind communicative form the way Ti and Do said members of the Next Level communicate. In their environment and I guess in dreams they don't use vocal chords though Ti and Do felt there were some that had vehicles that still had vocal chords. I suspect the vehicles that had vocal chords were what Do called “domestics.” Ti had left her vehicle by the time he started talking about domestics.

Domestics would be the Souls who had not yet graduated to receive an adult Next Level body. They in a sense are still Next Level Members because to receive a domestic styled body still requires, at least at this time, through my understanding of the scriptural records, giving one's life to the Older Member and the tasks they provide. Do called them domestics I believe because they were assigned in his terminology, “elementary tasks.” In other words as they have vehicles that are more human like, I believe Do indicated they could be used for service directly relating to humans where an adult Next Level vehicle could not function very well or as long in a human decaying environment.

Ti and Do said Next Level members could perform tasks on the surface of the planet as needed. Taking soil samples was one example they gave, but they also felt like some of the reports of humans seeing or having interface with individuals who were dressed in a strange way and who they got a strange sense of, that had nothing to do with a UFO or other supernatural like situation, could have been Next Level members. Ti and Do spoke about how they might have clothing they would dress up in so they could blend in among humans. Like one account I believe Ti and Do mentioned was a report of someone stopping to pick someone up hitchhiking who was wearing out of date clothing and said things that were considered very unusual and made a deep impression on the person that this was not an ordinary person.

Ti and Do also said that some upon getting to the Next Level might still have the capacity to eat and might even have nutrition in the form of a pill or by spending time under some kind of light. For a short time, Ti and Do set up a couple stools and had us make a see through circular curtain around the stool and put a grow light over the stool and we had the instruction to sit under it for a short time each day. I doubt that lasted for much more than a weeks time. I don't recall them saying much more about it. They didn't tend to build things up nor try to explain things in a lot of detail if they didn't feel there was a detailed explanation. I don't recall them ever making up examples out of thin air. And when a student would have a general question, they often asked for the specifics before giving an answer. Now with overcoming, they got into every nitty gritty detail, though over time as things came up among students.

John is seeing a being that is "LIKE SON OF MAN." A Son of Man is a "Son of God in flesh." It's not clear who this is. One would assume it's Jesus or his Father but being described with the garment and the girt of the breast area relates to some of the garments Aaron was instructed to wear to perform his high priestly duties. He wore a long robe and had a girdle and a breastplate and a type of cloak and a couple head coverings. Now we know this isn't literal. After all the Two Witnesses come in ordinary clothing (sackcloth, what rice and beans were bagged by, that the poor made into clothing) and we know Jesus wasn't at all into dress up. He said that even Solomon with all this kingly appearance in clothing was not arrayed as well as the grass of the field. What I suspect this is saying is that he will come wearing a physical vehicle that has a priestly background.

Do's vehicle's human dad was a Presbyterian Minister. He actually was somewhat of a traveling minister as he set up new church groups wherever the Presby leadership sent him in Texas. Do's vehicle in his early adult years sought to follow in those footsteps. He went to seminary but told the student body he soon dropped out because they were not open minded enough for him. According to reports he remained a member of a Church in the Houston area close to when he met Ti's vehicle. For years he worked at the University of St. Thomas in Houston as a director of music. Shortly before he met Ti he had ceased being sexual though not for the Kingdom of God/Heaven, at least consciously. After meeting Ti and beginning to awaken by her initiative he remained completely non-sexual though I know his vehicle didn't stop trying to engage it's sexual habits.

Since this is presenting his arrival it would be accurate to say he had “girt his loins” and breasts which also was a way of saying his heart was also restrained from giving love and affection to anyone but his Heavenly Father who he came to know was Ti. But by saying the paps were girt and girt being in the perfect tense meaning it referred to an action completed in the past once and for all so not needing to be repeated. So this seems to be saying this individual had overcome human procreation as breasts relate to what the young feed/consume from in their early development. I imagine this could include this individual having overcome any relationship his vehicle had with the children he had fathered into the world before he had awakened, though they were not that young when he awakened and he had been divorced from his vehicle's wife for a number of years before awakening and their children lived with their mother. His vehicle had become homosexual. I don't know if that had something to do with their divorce. Everything he got into in the human kingdom can be seen as a help to all his students who had been into the same kinds of things, as the overcoming of humanness means getting out of all we get into, reversing all human desires, behaviors and ways and then replacing them with only Next Level desires, thinking, behaviors and ways. It is that effort to change that builds a Mind into one that can be born into a Next Level physical vehicle. I suspect the “twinkling of an eye” Paul talked about was how fast the actual birth is, though getting up to the birth takes quite some time and energy.

Here Daniel indicates the FALLING OUT as well, though it's translated as being “cast down” as if they on the thrones are the “fallen angels” that were in fact thrown down and out of the heavenly abodes they temporarily occupied for a while. This becomes apparent in Dan 7:10.

Dan 7:9 I beheld till the thrones were cast down ((7412 ramah corresponding to ramah= to hurl, throw, set)) and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire.

Further alignment of Daniels end time prophecies with John's Revelations show some defining characteristics of the one called the Ancient of Days.

Rev 1:14 His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire;

Rev 1:15 And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.

This description matches Do because Do's vehicle's hair was quite white when his vehicle was in it's early 40's when he and Ti first began to give public meetings in 1975.

Saying wheels as burning fire is quite close to “feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace”

Often I translate “voice” in these prophecies as “disclosure” though that is actually related to “speech” so it's the expression of sound as the word. But in this case, since his voice is being described as having sound, which is the same Greek word used and then to many waters where water is almost always referring to human beings, it seems this is depicting that he's literally got a great singing voice. Of course I would say that as he was a Baritone lead singer in many Operas for the Houston Grand Opera and taught voice and led large choral groups and was a pianist as well. I've never read that about his piano playing but one time in Amarillo, Texas when Ti had us start to sing with him leading us, he played a few bars on the piano and it sounded like a deep, serious classical composer piece. He led the classroom singing Christmas Carols like his favorite, “Lo how a rose.” Some others were, “Hark the Herald Angels Sing,” “Oh Come All Ye Faithful,” “The Twelve Days of Christmas,” “Oh Come, Oh Come Emmanuel,” “Silent Night.” We sang in 4 part harmonies and we sang for Ti. Millody played piano as accompaniment. Tllody had to eventually sit out as he couldn't hold a tune. Tllody got his name because he was 6' 5" tall, the same size as Lggody.

Dan 10:6 His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in color to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

My research on brass shows this reference is actually referring to copper as brass is an alloy of copper and zinc that only came about in the 13th century. I don't know if that is a fact. However, there was a time in the Moses camp where people were speaking against Elohim (God) and Moses because they had no bread nor water and they had come to hate the manna (light bread). So the Lord sent them "fiery serpents." The fire was from the burning effect of their poison. Many got bit and died so the people said they had sinned and asked for forgiveness so the Lord told Moses to make a serpent out of brass and put it on a pole saying if anyone got bit, if they looked upon and showed regard for the "brazen Serpent" they would live.

Jesus spoke this serpent on the pole and related it to his needing to be lifted up on the cross so that those who looked upon him and believed in him could be saved from perishing and have eternal life.

Brass/Copper is also referred to as representing strength and also lust so strength from conquering lust, what to the Next Level is filthiness as it's mammalian behavior they have evolved beyond. I believe Ti indicated at one time that Do was the same Soul who started the experiment in this civilization as Adam. If that is the case and Adam fell because of allowing himself to be influenced by his partner, Eve to eat what they were not supposed to eat - just that simple, whether it was an apple or not, then his giving his life was atoning for his own missing of the mark at that time. It was like putting the serpent on the stick to put him on the tree as he represented giving into the serpent. Do's vehicle was last named AppleWhite, yet another of the many types of prophecy fulfillment as it's like his vehicle represents his original "sin" (missing of the mark) that he needed to correct by making his vehicle pure (white).

Do was very straight with the student body that before he was awakened by Ti he had led a very sensuous life. He had a lot of "force" as he put it. Yet he found himself dissatisfied with relationships that didn't involve a commitment. He expressed this about his seeking that kind of committed relationship with another man. Rob Balch, the lead psychologist who as a young man infiltrated Bo and Peeps group in 1975 to do his term paper on them, believes Do's feeling troubled about his sexuality was what caused him to lead the group to suicide. That's the only explanation he can find as nothing else makes sense to him knowing the group as well as he does and how they don't fit any of the other cult models, that is, should he study it, the Jesus cult and the Moses cult. So yes, Marshall Applewhite was troubled with his relationships and perhaps his attraction to men but there is a ton of evidence that he overcame it all.

There were a lot of dropouts from Ti and Do's group over 22 years to include those who Ti and Do turned away from staying with them. I would guess the number would be at least a hundred and none of them have any stories that show one iota of hypocrisy in Ti and Do's behavior and ways. One complaint was that they didn't provide enough dental care. (However, I got a lot of dental care and most of it wasn't on an insurance plan). Another complaint was that they had too many rules and that they were insignificant rules. For instance, the direction in which a male would run the razor over their face became a "procedure" for shaving, so going in a different direction was breaking procedure and knowingly breaking a procedure was considered a serious offense and one could be asked to leave the classroom because of that choice. The way many of these kinds of procedures would come about was through students asking questions of Ti and Do, or by the surfacing of a problem that Ti and Do provided a solution to, and/or when Ti and Do wanted something done a certain way.

For example, following recipes for the making of "fuel" (food) to consume (eat) became procedures to follow and Ti and Do had us treat fuel preparation as an experiment as if we were in a lab and the task was life and death to follow exactly because then when we got on board a spacecraft in a Next Level crew, we would have the same kind of mental discipline to follow instructions we had while making bread or scrambled eggs. So on Earth all things were tools to learn to have focus and pay attention to detail, be responsible and how to work with a partner. In the course of doing all these things which included using certain terminology there was inevitable friction at times between partners and in crews, thus there were constant challenges to not respond in human ways with anger or emotions or making noise or gossiping or many other characteristics that are common to most in the human kingdom.

Now if we had a procedure and it caused someone a problem then there was recourse. One could write a note to Links, the title Ti and Do used for their partnership as they considered themselves links in the chain of Mind that goes from Member to Member up to the Chief of Chiefs, the Oldest Member. Ti and Do said we would understand more about where that individual came from when we got to be a member in the Next Level. They said the human brain isn't capable of understanding it and I can testify to that. If the individual had a problem shaving in the direction the procedure stated, then he should have written a note and perhaps the procedure would have changed for him and/or for everyone. There were many, many changes.

So my point is that in most all human organizations, you will find people who disengage having something to say that they didn't like or wasn't fair, etc. and in the many examples over the years we have seen that with spiritual or religious organizations the things that most all leaders are accused of and that there is often a great deal of evidence surrounds, sex and/or money and/or power and/or violence and/or deceit and/or cruelty and/or meanness and/or demanding and/or abusiveness and/or you name it yet, Ti and Do's dropouts have none of this to say about them except that students could not be with them and continue with their human relationships and behavior and ways but they could leave at any time and did and were even helped to leave. I was given $600.00 and a plane ticket to where I wanted to go and I left the day after I said I wanted to leave.

So, I say that having “fine or polished” brass legs/feet is saying that they have have worked very hard to make their vehicle into a very strong but still flexible valuable tool for their Older Member and that it came by overcoming all their human behaviors and ways that are all equated with being dirty to the Next Level. Now, not everything we humans do is dirty because there are many of the Next Levels characteristics that came about because the Next Level has been helping us instill their behaviors and ways over our otherwise mammalian behaviors and ways. Cleanliness, consideration of others, gentleness, kindness, compassion, helpfulness, carefulness, thoroughness, keenness, selflessness, cooperation, thoughtfulness, quickness, smoothness, quietness, fun loving, silliness, playfulness, honesty, giving, sharing, conservation, loyalty, humorous, positive, take the higher side, changeable, compromising, forgiving, generous, etc. However in each of these they can be applied in ways that reverse seeing them as Next Level based. For instance even those that act in troublesome evil ways towards some act kind and gentle to their own, as Jesus indicated. I just listed many of the characteristics Ti and Do portrayed and taught and they are not in any order.

In the verses regarding their hair; Next Level Members don't have hair so this is an Older Member in a human vehicle he is being shown as the parts that are to be more literally interpreted are compared with other literal things we can relate to; wool and snow, both of which are literally white in this context.

Dan 7:13 I saw in the night visions ((2376 chezev from 2370 'chaza= a sight, look and 2370 chaza'=to gaze, to mentally dream)), and, behold, one like the Son of man came ((1934 hava'= to exist, be, become, cleave, labour, walk)) with ((5974 'im= by, from)) the clouds ((6050 'anan= cloud covering)) of heaven, and came ((4291 mta' corresponding to 4672 'matsa= to meet, serve, present, ready)) to ((5704 'ad= for)) the Ancient ((6267 attiyq from 'athaq 6275= of days ((3118 yowm= time)), (and they brought him) near ((7127 qreb= a approach, come (near, nigh), draw near)) before ((6925 qodam= the front, aforesaid (him).

So Daniel received his prophecy via dreaming just as John. He also is seeing someone he is saying is “like the Son of Man” but this was long before Jesus. In other words, the one he is seeing looks like an “offspring of mankind (human),” which is also described as a “red or ruddy (blood in face) being,” the meaning of the Hebrew “adom.”

Rev 1:16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength

What an Older Member has in their right hand is one of his students. They become “stars” when, in this latest experiment graduate their Second Trimester that included proof of the truth about everything the Older Member said and did. They become “sons” and I don't think it's coincidence that “son” is so similar in size, spelling, sound and meaning because the Next Level literally gives them their “light” which is why Christing, Ti and Do's metamorphosis meant working (suffering as the Buddha taught) to overcome all our desires in attachments and desires of all kinds from the building of self into something we and others see as special, to adding stature to ourselves by financial successes, relative to that human kingdom and all that goes with that to include philanthropy, humanitarianism, environmentalism, social justice. It is true that these efforts are of great value to the human kingdom as the way they provide us with the choice of who to serve. But serving the natural world can also be a stumbling block in the way of following an incarnate Older Member from the Next Level when they have come public, during the incarnation and/or in the decades to follow their exit. The degree of our following is up to us. We can simply ask for baby steps, trusting them. I watched this happen in returning to service that keeps on increasing as I ask for help which they always provide us with the recognition of, though it's a subtle voice or feeling of knowing we are on track in a certain area. The end result will be on their track with everything about us. Again that we sculpted one step at a time. Believe alone is a step in that direction but we can also be deluded in belief, which we see all around us by most of the religious hierarchy to include all the foot-soldiers throughout the world.

The two edged sword is first the cutting of attachments in all forms to include family ties, relationships, activities, careers, forms of entertainment, sexuality, responsibilities and possessions. The second edge is when he says it's time to leave and you must give your human life in his service to graduate that second and then would be repeated in the third trimester. This second edge is depicted as a harvest in Rev 14.

In the next three verses he identifies himself with Jesus and gives John the instruction to write of all his experience physically with Jesus, the way things are at the time of this prophecy which one can see chapter Two and Three.

Rev 1:20 The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.

Before this He give the criteria of keeping all his sayings toward the needed goal of overcoming their humanness to reap the reward of eternal life in his kingdom. To the human kingdom it looks fanatical and unbalanced, even to the religious of the human kingdom.

Rev 2:26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

These will have to TRY to keep WORKING - doing all the good works Jesus specified. Failure is to not continuing to try even in the face of failure with any aspect.

Rev 2:27 And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.

Iron is the strongest metal. It has the least pliability. The Rule is standard he sets and instructs of his Overcomer student body to take note of for each Soul on Earth that seeks closeness in whatever terms and language from whatever nation or race or gender or age or past activities, (sins= missing of the mark). I believe this is referring to the time after their graduation thus post their incarnations but are what Jesus depicted as when:

Mat 13:41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity;

Jesus had said before this not to remove the “tares” because of how it could disrupt their “wheat/corn” fruit harvest. Things that offend are human vehicles that have no active mind from the Next Level evidenced in them and are therefore weeds removed to allow for the second fruit harvest of the righteous to shine.

Mat 13:42 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

Casting into the furnace of fire doesn't take place until all is done. When these vehicles die, which is what happens by their being “gathered out,” their spirits are simply not taken to a “safe” from “second death” area, so when it's recycle time they will be included in it.

Mat 13:43 Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

I suspect this is referring to those who Jesus referred to as the “...meek who shall inherit the Earth,” indicating that some survive the recycling and because they have not yet overcome their human condition will inherit another chance by their spirits being brought back to interface with new human vehicles that would arise. One could surmise that Noah's family was an example of some who inherited the reconditioned Earth and Earth also means “human kingdom.”

III.A.1. REVELATION 4: THE BRIEFING ON BOARD THE SPACECRAFT BEFORE THEY ARE TO STAND IN NEW HUMAN VEHICLES ON EARTH

John describes being taken up in spirit and shown a “throne,” a vessel (spacecraft as they don't just float around in space - they have “chariots”). And he sees “one sitting on the throne.” This is an Older Member, though after the first fruit harvest/graduation the graduates also are promoted to a throne position. This is why they are not only Kings relative to even the greatest human as Jesus said but also sit in judgment of humans working on their Older Members instructions as to the criteria, as they are then returning (not incarnate) to sort the sheep from the goats, also said as removing the “tares” from the wheat field the Next Level planted on Earth. Speaking of these graduates they are depicted as being four and twenty who are “All around” that throne and who have “seats,” meaning task assignments (positions) on what seems to be one of four crews working for the Older Members. These 24 all have physical bodies (“clothed in white raiment”) as they had by then, before final graduation, conquered their humanness enough to receive “crowns of gold.” Being incarnate (taking over human vehicles) with their Older Member, giving up everything to follow him and abide by all he teaches to the degree of taking on the task of delivering his information to a largely hostile audience and losing one's physical vehicle because of, is the criteria for receiving what is depicted as a “crown” in both a “seat” and a new physical body. These are “around” the throne which is different than being among those on the throne.

The Throne, what Ti and Do called “headquarters” as they hardly ever used Biblical words though certainly talked about all Jesus said and reflected on parts of the Old Testament as well, was where they said they were from. It was their “department.” There are other departments and they said they weren't given specifics about what other departments were doing, though they sometimes felt they got clues. The Throne sends out the SIGNS or MARKS, the events that prepare and help humans to believe in them in the form of “lighted objects” like comets, fireballs, meteors, asteroids. And they cause “thunderings” also translated to “roars” as related to a Lions show of strength and authority and power. With thunders they send out “voices” which are “disclosures of information/knowledge, concepts, philosophies, understandings, clues, suggestions, new updated behaviors, ways, terminologies, standards, concerns, etc. Disclosures are done with thoughts that humans put into words or words when they are incarnate to speak to humans face to face. Headquarters also sends out their crews designed as “Seven Lamps of Fire” which are the “Seven Spirits of God.”

In the presence of the Throne is a “sea of glass” compared to “crystal.” The sea is water. There were two kinds of water according to Jesus. There was water to literally drink and bathe in and there was his “living water” that is the only water that quenches the thirst of a Soul seeking to grow, one who is “thirsty.” When one drinks this second kind of water it makes one “clear” making their body like a crystal that is like a lens that can shine one's light in all directions to assist others in coming closer to their Older Members. The human kingdom is equated with “water” as a human baby is born of water. Jesus told his disciples to be born of Spirit they would first need to be once again, born of water, which means born of flesh which means their Souls would need to come back to incarnate (take over) a new human physical body prepared specifically for them. By returning they would enter a classroom with him to complete their overcoming of their remaining humanness and further graft to him as their “Father” who would then midwife them through their spirit birth canal.

In the middle or among the Older Members serving in/for Headquarters are “Four Living Beings,” (wrongly translated to Beasts in King James version of the Bible and many others that followed suit). These appear to already be Members of the Next Level as to say they are “living” is in Jesus/Father's definition no longer subject to temporary cyclic life of a plant, as humans were compared by Jesus and Peter as trees and grass. Death according to Jesus was not aligning with the current Older Member from the Next Level when we have the chance as then when we lose our flesh body we will not have got our name in Their book of life so they would have no reason to take one's Soul or Spirit to a safe place until it's time to return for a new lesson step towards graduation. These Four are said to be “full of eyes” before and behind and this is directly related to Eze 10.

Rev 4:10 The four and twenty elders fall down ((4098 pipto= though the idea of alighting, to descend from a higher place to a lower)) before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

Alighting is defined as the the way a bird descends from the air and settles. However pipto is also translated at times to “fall down” and “fail” and “fall.” Thus this looks a lot like the way at least three of the UFO - spacecrafts were observed to gradually zig zag closer to Earth to crash in 1897 in Aurora, Texas and then in the 1940's and 1950's near Laredo, Texas and near Roswell, New Mexico and near Aztec, New Mexico. They were not crashes that dove head first. They were seen by a number of people before they actually crashed.

These four and twenty by participating in this task to complete their overcoming must give their life in another self sacrifice. It's always important to realize a Soul is a very real being that needs to grow to a certain stage to be born but doesn't die at all by the death of the vehicle it came about with. A Spirit is also it's own entity. It's not a being. A being is someone that began to have LIFE, to Exist the definition of Jehovah as, “I exist” or “I Am” or “I Be.”

These alight down to Earth in view of (before) him that sat on the Throne and/or possibly ahead of when their Older Member alights down. Pipto is also related to “lay” as in “lay down one's life” or going from standing to laying down. To be sure we get the picture this verse also says they “cast their crowns before the throne” saying they feel honored to do so. When they do this, they proceed to be of service as they are not dead and these verses are actually depicting what Ti actually “remembered” that she called a “briefing.”

Do said the word “worship” really meant to “work for.” It's giving one's Older Member service. The service of an overcomer is to abide by all they are taught are the requirements for the stage of growth they are engaged that is different for each trimester or group of Souls enlisting in their program, in our current case after the Older Members have left.

Since the Four Living Beings were depicted to have many eyes, here are some tasks Ti and Do assigned the Classroom that seem to relate to that followed by some other lesson steps we kept adding to Song of Ti and Do - their entire lesson plan note by note, so to speak.

EYES TASK

In Ti and Do's classroom, they started a task called Eyes. I would be performed by one partnership at a time for a hour shift. Ti and Do determined who would be assigned the task. They would simply stand in the area where students were mingling doing their tasks and record observations on a clipboard that was of the type Ti used when her vehicle had the job as a nurse, where they would write doctors orders for the patients. We used it for the Eyes task and we had another called an IS standing for Instruction Sheets. The Eyes sheets were sent to headquarters every day. Ti and Do were headquarters. One would put the Eyes report and IS pages that were copies of new instructions that were put in various "procedure book" on a clip to go to Links (Ti and Do) in Central.

SLEEP TASK

Central was where the entire class would take turns in a shift, a partnership at a time. Their task was to sit at a desk and they had the phones during wake hours, though at several points we had people up around the clock living/sleeping in shifts, of 2 hours up to 2 hours asleep, that changed to a minimum of 6 hours sleep to a maximum of 8 hours sleep. For quite a while we had no choice but to stay in our bunks for 8 hours each night. Ti and Do felt we needed the sleep. Eventually they changed it to have optional "up time" and optional down time that had an hour span as long as you got a minimum 6 hours in one's bunk.

We were taught to sleep with our hands above our waist to keep the vehicle from a habit of touchings one's "plumbing" that could led to masturbation which was a breakage of instruction to allow to happen. We also were instructed to tell our vehicles at night to wake up if we were breaking an instruction. If we had a nocturnal emission that was not self stimulated it was considered "energy or force "off the top," like a steam valve. Do said we could actually stop such emissions with our mind and I believe it could be channeled out of the body though one's "solid waste" plumbing but I may have misunderstood that when it came up. It was also procedure to not sleep on one's stomach and we all slept with pj's and females had the option to sleep with their bra on or off but they wore a bra during all waking hours except for during a shower or sponge bath which we took everyday or more if we had exerted a lot of physical effort on something and we got really sweaty.

SLIPPAGE MEETING TASK - WHAT WAS BASTARDIZED INTO THE CATHOLIC CONFESSIONAL THAT BEGAN AS ATONEMENT

There was no reading or much of anything else one would do in the bunk except for what we would do with our minds silently. We were taught to not go to sleep at night without “going over our day” while laying in our bunk. We did that with a mind to what we could have done better. If we remembered we had a problem and we didn't feel we handled it as best we could, if it involved another classmate, we would go to that person or persons and express what it was we felt we could have handled better without pointing out anything about another's behavior. The sooner the better for making these types of confessions. We did have group “Slippage Meetings” where everyone (without our teachers) would sit in a big circle, though we had two circles at one point to expedite the task. Each person would say something. If they didn't have anything to report they just said that. We had a lot of rules for the conducting of this meeting. Students who listened could ask questions and make suggestions of how someone could have handled it better. The response to their suggestions was, “thank you” as it wasn't meant to become a discussion of the rights and wrongs of all the details of how anyone's slippage came about and how it involved others. The one stating the slippage would also state a “remedy.” There was to be no conversation or details or even use of the term “sex.” If the nature of one's slippage was sexual, they would simply say, they slipped in the area of sensuality and that they wrote a note to Links about it since that was a very serious slippage. One person in a meeting could volunteer to take notes on the entire meeting. They would then write it up on a report and send it to Links. This often became the basis for Links to call a meeting or create or change procedures and give more instructions.

III.A.2. REVELATIONS 5: THE BOOK CONTAINS THE NEW INFORMATION TASKED TO BE DELIVERED TO THE HUMAN KINGDOM WHICH INCLUDES REMOVING THE SEALS PUT UPON IT THAT THE PROPHET DANIEL AND JOHN WERE TO MAINTAIN IN THEIR RECORDING TASK OF THE PROPHECY OF

THE END TIMES

Rev 5:6 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

It appears these Seven Spirits of God, who were also described as “lamps” serve as mighty valiant helpers (horns) and observers (eyes)

Rev 5:7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.

The Father (Ti) is sitting on the throne at this point as it is not until Do is awakened by his Older Member (Father) Ti, after they had come to Earth, that Ti “births” Do to his next station serving on the Throne together with Ti as a partnership and then after Ti exits his incarnation so Do could finish his task of “midwifing” their student body - the returned Saints, who were with them when Do was incarnate in the vehicle named Jesus and before then.

After Ti left, Do set up a chair for her at meetings and he put his chair to the right of her chair. Knowing Do and having observed He and Ti for many years, I don't believe he did that because of scripture - at least not exclusively because of scripture or to be spiritually correct. If scripture played a role in his decision to place that empty chair next to his it would be the same way all scripture was in place as a type of confirmation of something they were already feeling to do. However, they did pay attention to their thoughts and feelings as they were putting things into motion, even things seemingly as small as the placement of an empty chair. I recall he said he was putting it there “in case” Ti might want to use it again.

I witnessed Do's close attention to his thoughts and feelings (feeler) as he was going about his tasks many times, for instance every time we set up a new camp while we lived outdoors on ranch lands or in the forest or in the desert as well as in the dozens of new crafts (houses) we lived in, where Do would even meticulously situate every tent or every piece of furniture - silently seeking to know what Ti would choose. We often would turn a couch this way or that way until Do felt it was right. Humans might call this fung-sway but for Do it was about function and perhaps other considerations that he was in the habit of running by Ti, what is natural for a Next Level Member to do. It wasn't like he had to have it a certain way. He was not like that at all. In fact, at some points he would say for us to just set it up and then that's the way it would be unless someone asked for him to double check it at some point. Then he would put effort into the placement. I never heard him talk to Ti out loud among us. I don't know what he did while in his personal quarters. We knew he talked to Ti often with specific questions along with feeling what he thought Ti might be indicating at other times. Sometimes he would say, "she wasn't answering the phone" on this or that question so he didn't know anymore than what he had previously understood on a topic.

In 1976 when they did the story in the New York Times their picture was on the full paper size front cover of the magazine section. In that picture Do is standing to the right side of Ti (his Power), thus Do was Ti's right hand. By the way, Ti never told Do who she was. Do learned it in their first year together around the clock awakening while traveling around the country and it was very difficult for both of them as they knew how crazy it all sounded yet could not deny what they were becoming aware of. But Do was dealing with exercising his mind at times when Ti felt what he wanted to do was not going to yield what they hoped it might. So Ti went along with Do and Do kept on finding out that Ti just knew better. She didn't have to turn over every rock of an idea to know whether it was a useful rock to turn over. Do began to see that in every way he knew Ti was his elder.

Rev 5:8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down ((alighted)) before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints.

Now this is depicting that all 28 of these layed down their lives via spacecraft crashes.

Rev 5:9 And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;

The new song is the new lesson plan and using the new terminology that helped the brain have a new perspective that didn't stimulate old programmings. One would be surprised how most anything can be as a pointer to a memory. How many people grew up thinking of a bed as a place to have sex equal to for sleeping. If that was the case whenever someone might say, "it's 10 minutes to bed time" or some equivalent using the word "bed" the thought could arise with a sexual thought and that can be like a trigger to memories of that sort that when allowed to exist in the brain stimulate that chemistry and when you've been maintaining celibacy of mind and body for years, one can become quite the sensitive time bomb to where even one thought can instantly cause arousal. And it's always harder reversing something that has reached that stage than "nipping it in the bud" as Ti and Do would say, which meant cutting that thought off even before it registered as a thought. I learned to do that. One could identify a type of thought even before it became a thought. Before that, one would hear the beginning of the thought and cut it short so the words actually don't finish in one's brain. Of course the stage leading up to that was to hear the thought and treat it like a mosquito - shoo it away or squash it flat. Ti and Do called it "putting up a blank card" and then moving one's mind into a more productive place instead of waiting to see if the thought comes back, as it often can try to do. Many thoughts are the result of a nearby discarnate. But one can also just pick up on thoughts another is having if it is a type of thought that interfaces with our brain well.

Thus "bed" was called a "bunk." A fart was a "poofufoofus." Yes, Do was silly at times and most always had a positive outlook and demeanor and countenance, though we had some sad times together as well, like when Ti left her vehicle. We even had some silly sessions where anyone who had something silly to say or perform would do so. By the way the procedure was to hold in a poofufoofus and get to a "bath chamber" to let them out.

Rev 5:10 And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

These "shall" reign because first they had to finish their overcoming to qualify for a new eternal vehicle and position.

Rev 5:14 And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down ((pipto= alighted down)) and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

The sums up the preparation up until their physical arrival. Upon arrival Ti and Do said each student was assisted by the Next Level to pick a vehicle that would serve as a match for the overcoming we still needed. Ti and Do said we and they “tagged” vehicles which was a way to reserve them which meant a Next Level crew would see to it they remained safe. Ti and Do said they tagged their vehicles in the 1920's and 1930's at their birth. Awakening is sometimes preceded by things in one's human life falling apart. Do felt this began to happen for him around 1970. He met Ti around the spring of 1972.

Rev 6 and Rev 7:

These two chapters to include Rev 8:1 begin the Opening of the seals on what was a mystery beforehand which is also the opening of the Book. The Book is the information the Father, Son and Crew are bringing to be delivered by the Father and Son together in their task of the Two Witnesses Prophecy. Rev 6:1 depicts the end of the Two Witnesses task and their first fruit harvest of all those who became students of the Two Witnesses and stayed with them in their Overcoming Program until their exit.

There is a great deal of evidence when looking at world events to substantiate the above claim but this will be shown after the Two Witnesses section is re-translated and re-interpreted since that is part of the evidence.

III.B. THE PREPARATIONS FOR THE SEVEN ANGELS WITH TRUMPET SOUNDING OF REVELATIONS 8

Rev 8:2 And I saw the seven angels which stood ((2476 histemi= abide, appoint, covenant, stand by)) before ((1799 enopion= in the face/presence (sight) of)) God; and to them were given ((1325 didomi= adventured, bestowed, commit to deliver)) seven trumpets.

When it's said that someone “stood before God” it means they literally physically abide in eyesight of “the face/presence of” (before) their Older Member(s) which can not happen unless those same individuals also, even a number of times past, “stood” in a human vehicle aka incarnate and gave their all in service to their Older Member(s) which includes, “standing by” them and abiding in their commandments (which by the way is their love in the provision of those commandments, instructions, teachings to us) to include taking a stand for them among other humans, even prepared to lose their human vehicle on account of.

This is depicting what Ti and Do would have called giving a crew an “assigned task.” It's a mission, an adventure to perform and it appears that it's not being performed incarnate or there would have been some reference to their performing the task on the Earth or by being cast down to Earth or by their “standing on the altar” as is seen in the next verse.

In this context, God (Older Member) is the One Jesus referred to as his “Father” in heaven (because he wasn't incarnate with him and he was in his own environment on board a spacecraft in the near heavens which included the Earth's atmosphere (sky)).

Ti and Do spoke of how the Next Level could have a spacecraft literally on the surface of the planet in such a way that a specific area, for instance the “crafts” (houses) we lived in, being the example they used was literally inside that Next Level invisible craft. They said members of the Next Level could be among us all the time and would be physical though not visible to us. They said if they allowed us to touch them, we would feel something, but they know how to stay out of our way. This reminded me of the original Superman television show my vehicle grew up with where in one episode Superman walks through a dense wall that a bad guy had constructed and when he went through it he had to have a special focus that if he lost could leave him embedded in the wall permanently. I have since wondered if this Next Level Spacecraft that Ti and Do said “could be” over/on our craft could be as large as the way the New Jerusalem is depicted which is about 1378-1420 miles square. This “holy city” is also said to have “walls” that are about 218 feet high and “gates” that open or close. In this way a whole new meaning can be considered from the depiction of the non-believers in the Next Level as literal Above Human Beings, written as “Gentiles” “treading under foot” in that holy city:

Rev 11:2 But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months.

Therefore I am suggesting that these Seven Angels are performing their trumpet task within their spacecraft(s) that are perhaps stationed in this “holy city” as opposed to taking human vehicles. These would be existing Members of the Next Level Ti and Do referred to simply as “Younger Members” but might also be those referred to as Archangels that the One incarnate as Jesus was the eldest and by returning was being graduated further. The point is that there is endless growth in tasks as a member of the Next Level and everyone gets to move into new tasks as they perform well the tasks they are at first given and Ti and Do also said “choose from” a number of options of departments in laboratories. To the Next Level's way of thinking the Earth itself was a laboratory experiment and within that experiment there are other labs like for instance a “weather lab.”

Rev 8:3 And another ((243 allos= more)) angel came and stood ((2476 histemi= abide, to cause or make a stand, put, set, set up)) at the altar ((2379 thusiasterion= place of sacrifice)), having a golden ((5552 chruseos from 5557 chrusos= a gold article to be utilized)) censer ((3031 libanotos from 3030 libanos= a specific container, made of gold used to hold the burnt coals from the flesh sacrifice in the Moses Classroom, that Frankincense was added to)); and (there was) given ((1325 didomi= adventure, bring forth, make, shew)) (unto) him much ((4183 polus= straightly, of a great age)) incense ((2368 thumiama= an aroma, to fumigate, burn incense)) that ((2443 hina= albeit, because, to the intent)) he (should) offer ((1325 didomi= adventure, commit, yield, shew, smite, strike)) (it with the) prayers ((4335 proseuche from 4336 proseuchomai= be of service (worship), supplicate)) (of) all saints (([those who had graduated a previous classroom])) upon ((1909 epi= about, at, because of, on behalf of, the space of)) the golden altar which was before ((1799 enopion= in the face/presence (sight) of)) the throne.

Rev 8:4 And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of ((1537 ek= by the means of (after), from, out of, because, by reason of)) the angel's hand ((5495 cheir= grasp, means, instrument)).

This verse is indicating all those (Saints) who chose to sacrifice their existing physical vehicles to re-enter the overcoming classroom literally with the Older Members. The, I would suggest is what is utilized for this as it will hold the intended burnt embers of the saints physical bodies that have accepted the task (adventure). It is their seeking to be of service to the Older Members that is the incense and it's a sweet smell to the Lord because of how it “makes them white” - which is what Frankincense represents.

Ti often compared the Overcoming process to “purifying the gold,” using high heat to separate impurities to result in pure gold, or by working (churning) the milk to make butter. In both examples fire or heat from friction, however slight, is needed to complete it's metamorphosis into a finer product.

Around the time Ti “remembered” the briefing (Rev 4) before coming, I believe is when Do talked briefly about how the Next Level at this time had brought together human equivalents from other planetary systems and offered them the chance to sacrifice their existing physical bodies by entering the upcoming overcoming program to fully graduate their humanness and receive a Next Level body that was eternal. He said if I recall correctly that all who were given the option did not choose to take it. But it seems this verse is depicting these and their choice. This differs from the way the Seven Angels with trumpets stood for their Older Member in that the location of the altar is provided as there is no temple (in the context of after graduation) or altar on a Next Level spacecraft (Rev 21:22).

This verse lays out the task that was assigned to Aaron and only Aaron in the Jehovah/Moses Classroom. Aaron performed the task of High Priest and he alone took the “,” the vessel that held the coals from the various flesh sacrifices and sprinkled Frankincense on them which produced the smoke that was said to be offering a sweet smell to the Lord. It was sweet to the Lord because they were following instructions and the Lord knew if they continued they would graduate what was actually a training program to enable becoming one of Them, having eternal life, a new Family and many challenging and exciting tasks to come. The Lord set it up this way so to gradually provide a little proof followed by instructions, then a little proof and more instructions, with the instructions leading to the “laying down of self” that was necessary to graduate as then the Lord knew they could be totally trusted to be on their crews and to not renegade like the Luciferian Space Alien fallen angels did.

A very valuable animal became the sacrifice, that is if someone owned animals. If they did not they were given to make grain offerings but would be aware of the animal offerings so were being shown indirectly that the destination was to be willing to do as Jesus did and sacrifice his own life upon instruction from his Father and having accepted and committed to performing that service before coming incarnate. After Moses and Aaron exited, Aaron by losing his vehicle and Moses by disappearing, whose body was never found and that Do said was because the Next Level took his body, the Luciferians began to twist everything Jehovah/Moses taught the same as what would occur after Jesus left through the initial encounter Saul of Tarsus had with the “angel of light” (Lucifer). Saul who then took the name Paul may not have known he was being used and by whom. There is evidence he was infiltrating the ranks of the real assigned task “delegates” (apostles) as we know goes on all the time in governments and powerful organizations to try to steal secrets and sabotage the oppositions progress. However he may have been naive to how he was changing what Jesus taught that resulted in the entire “saved by grace” movement that many, many Christians swear by and makes no sense at all to this being a training program to become a high functioning practical team player in a new society of non-mammalian, (non-seed bearing, as Ti and Do called Next Level members) Above Human Beings with physical bodies and tasks to be cogs in the many wheels that go into the building, development, maintenance and harvesting of Souls from garden like experiments as WORK was integral to EARN the promised rewards.

Now this offering is brought “before” - in the presence of the One Sitting on the Throne. That was also part of the one time a year offering called Yom Kippur or the Day of Atonement. In that yearly offering the censor was made from gold and so were other aspects, gold being what comes from the purification of one's body (elements) though one's fire flesh sacrifice. A huge part of that sacrifice is in sacrificing one's passion or drive to procreate or to derive pleasure from relationships with another human in various sensual ways as sexuality. That's what Fire also represented. The Fire of desire which is what the Buddha also taught to overcome. When a human get's aroused sexually, their body is literally heating up. Even in the Moses classroom they had times when married partners were prohibited from intercourse.

This Day of Atonement was a time for all in the congregation to seek forgiveness from the Lord for their sins (missing of the mark) even though they were taught to do so all year long. This was kin to getting a fresh start from the Lord, what became a baptism later on. So Aaron would take the censor of the coals of the flesh sacrifices offered to the Lord by the students and put the incense on these “golden vessels” and go into the Holy of Holys which was prohibited to all from entering.

The Holy of Holys was the inner most sanctuary (curtained off area to the far west of the Tabernacle, just as Rancho Sante Fe, California is in the far west of the “temple” whose doorway was Texas) inside the Tabernacle (tent) constructed for Jehovah where Jehovah was seen a number of times coming and going from via a cloud covering that would settle on the tents entrance. Thus the angel that is “standing at the altar” is probably actually the same Soul, (Living Being or Elder) that was incarnate in the human vehicle named Aaron. It is an actual task first and foremost so it could be whoever the Older Member assigns.

God is referring to the Older Member who was recorded as the Elohim (Judges, Magistrates, Supreme Beings, Creators of the Heaven and the Earth) and then Jehovah and The Father. Prayers are always in their highest form, seeking to know the will of our Older Member for us and for the strength to do the tasks they give us (to include overcoming our humanness) as they would do it, and in the expressing of our commitment (covenant) to them and thanks for all they provide us, from our daily needs to the very opportunities they provide to be one their crew.

When it says these prayers are raised up (ascended) to God it's because they are of a higher rank (so to speak) than us. “Before” indicates they are “in view of,” literally in the presence of the Older Member when they are making this offering. That little word “of” can mean a number of things but I would choose “because, by reason of, after as in relationship with or “by the means of,” which “of” says in a less clear manner, because then it is saying God is receiving these prayers because of the angel's hand and hand always refers to an “action” taken and is equivalent to saying by the messengers “assigned task” as hand represents using one's vehicle (body) to perform the service. In this case the service will be to strike the surface of the planet in a particular place to stir up some controversy while uplifting people's perspective, etc. and giving evidence of worlds beyond Earth.

III.B.1. TECUMSEH PROPHECY FULFILLMENT OF GREAT COMET OF 1811-12 AND NEW MADRID AREA EARTHQUAKES

I've included this verse, in this section having to do with the preparation for the Seven Angels with trumpets because of the depiction of what is happening from the “Throne” and “Before (in view of) the Throne” just like it's explained in Rev 8:3-4 to where the angel that is “standing,” “by, over, across, before” the Altar is operating “before the throne” or “before God,” and the Throne at this stage refers to the position/task (sit upon) performed by Ti and Do together, except in the process Ti would graduate (birth) Do to the Throne position (as shown in Revelations 12) that he would leave for him to fulfill. I'm not trying to suggest Tecumseh was Ti. Ti wasn't incarnate then but it does seem possible Tecumseh was like a modern day Old Testament Prophet participating in setting the stage and may in fact have been a Elder student Soul, like one of the 4 Living Beings helping Tecumseh just like the archangel Michael did for the Prophet Daniel and others. It's interesting to see how words can come about that can be taken apart even without evidence linguistically as Do seemed to do at times. In this case I would play with it as: "Te Cums (to) Say." (Initially we did spell our Older Member's name as "Te" or "Ti," but then Do settled on using "Ti").

Rev 4:5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.

It seems this prophecy of lightnings (comets) and thunderings (both shaking up of humans comfort levels and roars from storms and/or earthquakes) and voices are all reflective of the Tecumseh prophecy fulfillments:

I believe this "strike" shows some significant evidence that it became manifest as the Great Comet of 1811-12 that became visible on November 4, 1811 that was followed by four months of 1000's of quakes in what has since been called The New Madrid earthquake zone where the Ohio and Missouri rivers meet the Mississippi. Starting on December 16, 1811, the most violent destructive tremors ever to strike North America in recorded history with two quakes thought to be approx. 8.0+ with chimneys that fell all the way up in Maine. Until then this area had been devoid of any reported tectonic activity, including earthquakes. Since there were no fore-shocks reported to the first shock on Dec. 16th there has been speculation the earthquakes began as the result of a meteorite strike.

The first jolt of the 1811 New Madrid quakes were thought to have been centered near Marked Tree, AR. North of there is a swampy region called the Saint Francis Sunken Lands the quakes are said to be responsible for. This swamp area is supplied by the Saint Francis river. St. Francis Lake was said to be in the middle of the swamp that had a circular southern border.

There have been studies to determine whether the Great comet of 1811 was in fact a comet or not. There were 984 observations in consideration of the object as a comet. Some suggest it was a comet that split into two objects. There is some evidence of this. Napoleon marched into Russia with an army of seven hundred thousand. In 1811 a comet was sighted that developed a tail one hundred million miles long. As Napoleon overextended himself after Moscow he lost hundreds of thousands of men and it was said the “comet performed frightening acrobatics by splitting in two.”

The comet and earthquake were prophesied by the American Indian Shawnee Chief Tecumseh. As the story goes, Tecumseh was born the same night after his Father was looking into the heavens in prayer to the Great Spirit over a disagreement with other chieftains. He and many in the tribe witnessed a huge meteor suddenly plunged into the atmosphere and burst into brilliant greenish-white flame. It streaked across the heavens from the north in an awe-inspiring spectacle which lasted twenty seconds. So he was named after the event. His name meant, “The-Panther-Passing-Across.”

Tecumseh traveled a great deal from one Indian nation to another to try to unify the tribes. On Wednesday, August 11, 1802, he began telling everyone when the unification was completed there would be a sign given. He said, “in the midst of the night the earth beneath would tremble and roar for a long period. He said jugs would break by themselves and great trees would fall, though not from wind. He said streams would change their courses to run backwards, and lakes would be swallowed up into the earth and other lakes suddenly appear. The bones of every man would tremble with the trembling of the ground, and they would not mistake it. When this occurred they were to all drop everything and gather near Detroit to drive the white man off the continent.

In December he organized the making of slabs of wood having symbols on them which would guide them to the happy afterlife. There were symbols on the slabs with a double meaning so the white man wouldn't see them and know the true meaning. For the white men he described them as “heavenly sticks.”

The symbols, reading from bottom to top, were family, which was the most important single factor in everyday Indian life, the earth upon which they lived, followed by the principal features of the earth: water, lightning, trees, the four corners of the earth, corn, fowl and animals of the earth and air, all plant life, the sun, the blue sky and all of these things having to be experienced and understood before the people could reach the uppermost symbol, Heaven.

Wednesday, August 28, 1811, because of one Chief that did not believe the Great Spirit had sent Tecumseh to amalgamate the tribes, he said, "Your blood is white! You have taken my talk and the sticks and the wampum and the hatchet, but you do not mean to fight. I know the reason. You do not believe the Great Spirit has sent me. You shall know. I leave Tuckabatchee directly and shall go to Detroit. When I arrive there, I will stamp on the ground with my foot, and shake down every house in Tuckabatchee!"

On Sunday, November 10, 1811, Tecumseh told his followers, in six days a preliminary sign would be given to the tribes. It would be a sign under which he had been born and named. A great star would flash across the heavens and this would indicate that he was still guided by the hand of the Great Spirit. The sign would be clearly visible to all the tribes, and when it came they were to take the last red stick and cut it into thirty equal pieces. Each day thereafter, one of these pieces was to be burned in the light of dawn. But the thirtieth piece was to be burned in the midst of the night, and when the last of these had been burned, then would come the great sign of which he had personally told them all. And when this sign came, all who believed in Tecumseh and in the future of the Indian nation would take up their weapons and strike out at once for the British fort that was called Malden, located on the north side of the head of the lakes that was called Erie.

On Saturday, November 16, 1811 just before midnight there was a great searing flash from out of the southwest; incredibly bright with a weird greenish-white light, incredibly swift and awe-inspiring. Thousands of Indians from all the tribes watched its fiery progress across the heavens until it disappeared in the northeast.

It was on Monday, December 16, 1811 at 2:30 am. the earth shook. It was described in the south of Canada, in Iroquois, Ottawa, Chippewa and Huron villages coming as a deep and frightening rumble. Creek banks collapsed and very large trees fell continuously with many branches snapping. In all of the Great Lakes, the waters were very turbulent with very large waves but no wind. In the western plains came a grinding sound with shaking that they described as affecting their bones and teeth. Pottery broke and buffalo fell down, got up and stampeded. In the south and west huge rocks loosened and cut through trees. Streams stopped running, some went dry and fish died on land. In the south entire forests fell. Streams appeared. In the village of Tuckabatchee, every building shook and collapsed. To the southeast, lakes vanished while ponds appeared in large declivities which suddenly appeared. Birds flew off and cattle bellowed and kicked, fell down and could not regain their balance.

In Kentucky, Tennessee and the Indiana Territory, people were thrown from beds and cabins broke apart and bricks crumbled and caused clouds of dust. Bridges snapped. Glass shattered, fences and barns collapsed and fires started. Cliff in ravines filled their chasms, and there was a deafening roar all throughout the land. In the middle of all this, where the Ohio River meets the Mississippi, huge splits appeared in the ground and large parts of the land were swallowed up. Large sections of ground sank and became new lakes. One became called Reelfoot Lake. The Mississippi river flowed backwards for a time and heaved and parts sank while other parts were raised into the air. The town of New Madrid was destroyed and thousands of acres of land disappeared or were left austere.

This December 16 quake was just a start lasting on and off for two days; and filled the atmosphere with dust and smoke so that for a week the sunlight looked reddish-bronze through a thick haze. The second quake was on Jan. 23, and the third four days later. But on Feb. 13, came the last and worst of them causing grinding and snapping sounds for about an hour, doing as much damage as the other three combined.

INTERESTING LINKS TO TI AND DO AND CREW: This all took place in the area where four major rivers, the Ohio, Missouri, Arkansas and Mississippi converge, perhaps relevant to the four rivers in Genesis, the Pison, Gihon, Hiddekel and Euphrates. Ti and Do always felt the Mississippi River was a dividing line between the area in the west they considered to be where their main focus should be. They always felt more “in tune” with their Older Member while in the west. Ti and Do would every so often travel east and would experience this sense or lack of. In fact one time after Ti had left her vehicle, perhaps in 1987, Do moved the classroom to Atlanta. Some of us got jobs there and we leased three large homes in the Peachtree area of north Atlanta. We had five twenty four foot rental trucks puzzle packed full of the furnishings from the three houses we left in the Denver and Boulder, Colorado area.

Do was very upset in Atlanta as he said he couldn't feel Ti's presence with him. At a meeting after being there for two weeks, finished with most of the setup, he called a meeting. Part way into the meeting he was nearly weeping because he didn't want to tell us how he felt. He couldn't feel Ti's closeness and knowing the pains we all went through to give notice at our hi tech jobs in Colorado, disappointing all our employers, which I admit I always dreaded doing, carefully packing up the houses, renting and loading the trucks, moving and then going through the difficult process once again, as we did many times over the years together, looking for new jobs. The outlay of cash that was easily a $30,000.00 affair and that also weighted heavy on Do as he and Ti were always most careful to not run the "purse" so low that if the Next Level gave instruction to pick up and move again, to perhaps stay ahead of investigators, etc. we could manage it financially.

A number of students told Do it was not a problem and most of all we wanted him to have the contact with Ti he had grown dependent on and accustomed to keep the classroom moving ahead. I know it may be hard to imagine for many, as the exit video's Do created were to serve a specific purpose of warning all those who side with the lower forces that they were solidifying their own judgment and for those students that were on the fence to have a reason to get off the fence. Those tapes were of some equivalence to Jesus throwing over the tables in the temple saying the Lord's house was not a place for commercialism. But besides those necessary presentations to make a strong impression, Do in the teacher role could have not been better as was shown in the Beyond Human Series all anyone could imagine Jesus or the Buddha to be, minus the hype that religions have heaped upon them. He was never like the raving evangelicals, nor the nearly asleep looking guru full of contentment, as if contentment was an aim. Yes, he and his student body possessed a strong sense of peace and were always peace loving people as those are characteristics of those who evolve closer to Next Level behaviors and ways. But at the same time if one wasn't pressing to meet all that challenges them, cutting ties, discarding negative habit's of thought and deed, seeking to serve at any cost to self then they were not really the most active student they could be.

So those who had secured high tech jobs in Atlanta (me) quit once again and we packed up and moved back to Colorado and some got back their old jobs. I found a new job.

Thus I believe west of the Mississippi represents the new “temple” area and of course also because of the UFO crashes in the southwest also depicted the “altar” area in that “temple,” because that is where the returning students who had student level Next Level vehicles were sacrificing their existing vehicles via those intentional crashes that would free up their Soul Body to begin their next task steps.

When I saw the names of towns and the county and the lake in the area that was supposed to be where the epicenter of the earthquakes were, I had to include that data here. For one, there was the Lake named St Francis that some researchers suspected was the site of a meteor impact. Ti, before she had awakened told us while she was a nurse she felt the presence of a “guide” she called “brother Francis” whose name came from St. Francis of Assisi. Incidentally Assisi sounds/looks similar in part to Mississippi. Plus that name, Francis that comes from Frank which is the root of France and means “free” and it's relationship to the other side of that western land mass of San Francisco just seemed far too much to ignore considering some believe part of the lineage of those who were related to Jesus' vehicle migrated to France, though there is no evidence Jesus was among them and certainly didn't marry and have children with Mary Magdalene as was put across in the book, “Holy Blood, Holy Grail.”

There is too much evidence that Jesus did accomplish what is recorded in the four gospels, though when Do gave us that book to read, as an option, he said, it wasn't necessary that Jesus rose from the dead to believe he was from the Next Level. What he taught was clearly out of this world to believe and do, not something there is any evidence could have been made up. But I believe Ti and Do said there was a crew that worked on setting up these kinds of naming and word relationships.

Immediately north west of this lake, in the same county is a town named “Nettletown.” Ti's vehicle's last name was “Nettles.” This county in Arkansas was named “Craighead County,” Lggody's vehicle's last name was “Craig” which is yet another possible pointer to Lggody as once being incarnate in the vehicle named Aaron working directly under Moses for Jehovah as well as possibly incarnate as John the Baptist with Jesus. John the Baptist was said to be descended from Aaron's genetic line and Elizabeth, his mother was a cousin to Mary, the mother of Jesus' vehicle and Elizabeth and Mary visited one another before the births of their children, so it was not some distant genetic relationship. And, Lggody's vehicle's first name was "John."

Then there was the way in which Tecumseh was born under a comet or shooting star and given the name that starts off sounding like Te. Te was actually the first spelling we used and then Ti and Do settled on spelling it "Ti" but said either was okay. The fact that Tecumseh had these elaborate exercises involving sticks that all the tribes would use as a countdown to his fulfillment of prophecy was so similar to the detailed instructions Jehovah gave Moses to fulfill in building things, etc. The quake seemed to only affect that area around the Mississippi river and eastward, covering the entire eastern part of the continent. It seems Tecumseh was representing the Kingdom of God/Heaven in showing his people that they should resist the encroachment of the "bestial humans." The White settlers were in large part predatory in their spreading not only their physical presence and needs but also were judgmental of those who were there before them - treating them like savages while they were acting savagely. Tecumseh had to pretend to call his little talisman sticks "heavenly sticks" because it seems otherwise they would be seen as pagans needing to be converted or done away with.

III.B.2. THE CENSER IS CAST TO EARTH; 1897 AURORA (DAWN/MORNING STAR), TEXAS (CAPTAIN'S DECK) UFO CRASH WITH ONE OTHERWORLDLY OCCUPANT NEWS EVENT

Rev 8:5 And (the) angel took ((2983 lambano= accept, bring, have hold, take up)) (the) censer ((3031 libanotos= vessel for burning frankincense that creates white (purifying) smoke)), and filled it with fire ((what is being put to sacrifice)) of (the) altar ((geographic location for (the) sacrifice)), and cast ((906 ballo= strike, send, throw down violently or intensely)) (it) into ((1519 eis= to, FOR an action in the past that caused them to perish)) ((the)) earth ((1093 ge= soil, globe, human occupants)): and (there) were ((1096 ginomai= to cause to be generated, become, come into being, be fulfilled)) voices ((5456 phone= disclosures, sound, words/speech)), and thunderings ((1027 bronte akin to bremo= to roar)), and lightnings ((796 astrape from 797 astrapto from 792 aster= light, glare, bright shining light star shine)), and (an) earthquake ((4578 seismos= a commotion of (the) air, a gale or of (the) ground as a quake or shaking up)).

This censer is a vessel that is being violently/intensely sent/thrown down to Earth to be among it's inhabitants, previously stated as containing the frankincense "prayers of saints" that produces "purifying white smoke" in it's burning, as said because of the self sacrifice. A saint is someone who at a previous time did sacrifice their life for the sake of their Older Member who sent them to disseminate his information knowing they would be hated for it and often killed on account of. Saints are not yet members of the Next Level. They are in progress "sons" or students having shown their commitment so when they lost their vehicles their Soul was saved from otherwise merging into the human spirit world. Do called them being "put on ice" but said he didn't mean that literally. This vessel is being cast "FOR" the Earth's inhabitants as this action brings a great deal of Next Level mind to closer proximity for humans who are reaching to tap into to perceive things they otherwise could not perceive. It is also to the benefit of these "saints."

Thus the first event depicted is the casting of the censer.

1897 UFO CRASH IN DOWNTOWN AURORA, TEXAS WITH ONE BODY FOUND AND REPORTED IN THE DALLAS MORNING NEWS:

During the 1896–1897 time frame (some six or seven years before the Wright Brothers' first flight), numerous sightings of a cigar-shaped mystery airship were reported across the United States. Between April and May 1897, the airship sightings continued in more than 30 Texas counties reported by hundreds of real Texans.

Then on April 19, 1897 a crash of a flying "airship" occurred in downtown Aurora, Texas. A newspaper article of the event still exists, written by S. E. Haydon, reporter for the Dallas Morning News:

To paraphrase the report, it indicated the event of the crash happened about about 6 am and the crashed "airship" as it was called was suggested as seen sailing around the U.S. Before the crash it was seen traveling north and was closer to the earth than previous reports. It was estimated to be traveling 10 or 12 mph and was gradually settling to earth - described as sailing" over the town square to collide with the tower of Judge Proctors windmill which caused an explosion and many pieces of the windmill went flying and destroyed a water tank and a garden. The report indicated only a pilot on board the crashed ship. His remains were disfigured but apparently enough in tact to show he was not an inhabitant of this world.

The story never gained a lot of exposure at the time, but eventually it was commented on by UPI on May 24, 1973. (Note this report just happened to be filed just a few months after Ti and Do left Houston, Texas on January 1, 1973 at midnight under duress from their vehicle's families and friends because of their beliefs and where they spent the next “less than six weeks” (the way Do said it) in Boerne, Texas where they experienced their primary awakening to clearly recognize that their Minds/Spirits had come from “outer space,” here to “fulfill prophecy” and to “bring updates to the Bible”):

Here is the paraphrased UPI report:

It reports about the “grave” in the cemetery containing the body of an 1897 astronaut - not from this world. The article quotes Hayden Hewes, the director of a UFO investigation organization seeking to have the body of the otherworldly astronaut exhumed. Hayden checked the grave with a metal detector and gathered facts over three months and based on that thought it was a UFO with an out of this world inhabitant that crashed in Aurora, Texas on April 19 1897.

It is most interesting that Hayden was involved in this because of how Ti and Do went to visit him yet I never heard them talk about the Aurora crash but Hayden was very unusual in how he didn't automatically disqualify who Ti and Do said they were and became the co-author with Brad Steiger of the book, “UFO Missionaries Extraordinary” - all about Ti and Do from interview they gave in 1974-1976.

So Hayden's story put what had become a legend was back in the news! Only a couple of days later, UPI followed up the first report with another from Aurora. They had located a living witness to the event who was 91 years old but was fifteen then. She had forgot about it until she saw the story in the newspaper. She said her parents went to the crash site but she couldn't go with them. She knew that the remains of the pilot was buried in the Aurora cemetery and was a “small man.”

The Associated Press now filed a report out of Denton, Texas. (Note that in 1988 Do and the class moved maybe 10 minutes east of Denton, Texas and is where Do wrote the booklet, “88 Update - The UFO Two and their Crew” which was written to set the record straight on his meeting Ti to date, because there were many rumors that were not accurate):

The article indicated a professor found metal fragments where the crash had been reported to have occurred. One fragment was primarily iron yet did not respond to magnetism. The fragment was also shiny and malleable unlike dull brittle iron. The Cemetery Association successfully fought against attempts to exhume the body.

Additional 1973 MUFON investigations uncovered two new eyewitnesses to the crash. Mary Evans, who was 15 at the time, told of how her parents went to the crash site (they forbade her from going) and the discovery of the alien body. Charlie Stephens, who was age 10, told how he saw the airship trailing smoke as it headed north toward Aurora. He wanted to see what happened, but his father made him finish his chores; later, he told how his father went to town the next day and saw wreckage from the crash.

MUFON investigated the Cemetery, and uncovered a grave marker that appeared to show a flying saucer of some sort, as well as readings from its metal detector. MUFON asked for permission to exhume the site, but the cemetery association declined permission. After the MUFON investigation, the marker mysteriously disappeared from the cemetery and a three-inch pipe was placed into the ground; MUFON's metal detector no longer picked up metal readings from the grave, thus it was presumed that the metal was removed from the grave.

Now for the prophetic implications; Aurora is a Latin word that comes from the Roman goddess of the DAWN OR MORNING, and also relates to the Sun's rays of light SHINING on the earth as an Aurora Borealis. It also can refer to drying, or kindleing, the south wind or “to burn” and the east.

The crash happened in the “spring,” actually between the first two days of passover that year as is when the passover lamb is to be sacrificed. A Hebrew day is generally from 6pm to 6pm and the instruction was to make the lamb sacrifice “in between” the first two evenings of the Passover. Twelve hours from 6pm is 6am and this is also the start of the Jewish new year and moreorless dawn and just so happens to have been Easter Sunday that year.

Rev 2:25 But that which ye have already hold fast till I come.

Rev 2:26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

Rev 2:27 And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.

Rev 2:28 And I will give him the morning ((4407 proinos= from proi 4404 pertaining to the dawn)) star (792 aster= from stronnumi 4766 “to strew”)).

Rev 22:16 I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright ((2986 lampros= radiant, clear, gay, goodly, gorgeous, white)) and morning ((3720 orthrinos= relating to the dawn, especially early morning)) star (792 aster= from stronnumi 4766 “to strew”)).

Thus Jesus is saying upon his return, it will be evident as a first strewing of light, where light is both literal and figurative, light being in the bringing of an enlightening event as the people of Texas and of the U.S. and of the World could all come to see in their time.

However, as this book is all about the evidence that Ti and Do were/are the RETURN, They actually said their Souls didn't arrive until the 1920's to tag (pick/set aside) the human vehicles they were going to take to perform their task through, and they never made mention of this Aurora event, that I ever heard or read about, nor of anyone coming before the 1920's. Thus I wondered for a long time whether this lone individual found in this Aurora crash was a vehicle used by a Luciferian space alien Soul (fallen angel) or some type of robot or clone creating a facsimile of way the Next Level Member return might be staged.

Ti and Do did indicate that these Luciferian space alien souls did know how the garden was grown as they had advanced in their lesson steps enough to be granted a student model physical vehicle and primitive models of spacecraft with some of what Do called “elementary task assignments” I have equated to Enoch's “watchers” - observing being a first lesson step Ti and Do taught us we would be assigned at first in various lab tasks. A Lab to Ti and Do wasn't only a room filled with technicians performing experiments. Labs were experiential. An entire planet inside and/or out could be a lab where experiments are performed. Ti and Do initially said this civilization was an experiment, thus the earth is one such labs.

The Luciferians would have known about the reference to Jesus' return in the Book of Revelations coming as a "bright and morning star." They also could have figured out that Aurora was a town in Texas and what it meant in that regard. so might have staged that crash. After all when:

Luk 10:17 And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.

Jesus responded:

Luk 10:18 And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven.

This could also indicate Jesus, not in the vehicle named Jesus of course was a Member of the Next Level or at the very least a Student Member of the Next Level when Lucifer and his followers fell. He was also indicating that the lower forces, those who are adversarial, the meaning of a Satan, are not able to stand up against those who abide by the teachings, behavior and ways taught and demonstrated by the present - incarnate Older Members from the Next Level.

However, there was a problem with considering this Aurora crash the work of the Luciferian space alien lower forces, because this was well before the "bottomless pit" was opened as shown in prophecy in Rev 9:1 with the 5th angel's trumpet sounding, shown as taking place in the 1940's-1950's as Ti and Do indicated was also when many of their crew came by instigated crashes of some primitive types of spacecrafts. Since the Luciferians didn't know exact dates when the Next Level would instigate major events like this, though they could have guessed as around the solstices, especially the spring and fall as they line up with Jewish festivals, the Next Level changed up on that with some variances it seems by staging a number of the biggest events in the project in March and/or April, June and July, two of which were the crash at the Plains of St. Augustine in July of 1947, known as the Roswell crash and 50 years later Do and Crew's exit in late March of 1997. In any case it seemed there is more potential evidence this Aurora crash would have been stimulated by the Next Level.

Of course the Next Level could also stimulate the Luciferians to accomplish the same thing, though I don't know if they ever do that as I believe it's important to distinguish themselves from the Luciferians for the sake of the students. On that note, Ti once explained, when a human (I presume that they are watching) asks the Next Level for something human e.g., a new car, wife, husband, etc. the Next Level might see to it's provision by somehow sending them a human discarnate hoping that potential student, by getting what they asked for will come to recognize that it wasn't really satisfying the part of themselves that could be from the Next Level. This is not unheard of as the Next Level directly assigns certain “boogers” - Luciferian space alien “adversaries” (aka Satan's) to Active Students to test them. The Next Level regulates how much influence one of these “boogers” can have on a student and Ti and Do said if the student feels too under water dealing with the boogers vibrations; thoughts, feelings, temptations, etc. (called Bombardment) they could ask the Next Level to relax that degree of bombardment some and the Next Level would do so.

Thus I began to wonder if this lone crash was like the arrival of John the Baptist before Jesus? With that consideration and noticing that the next prophecy verse expressed how the Seven Angels with Trumpets would then PREPARE themselves to sound, told me this was the arrival of the crew that Ti and Do said upon arrival were helped to pick the human vehicles they would be tasked to “take over,” sort of like that movie the “Body Snatchers,” but without all those horror depictions as human vehicles are actually, according to Ti and Do, designed to be snatched by Souls or Spirits (discarnates) so that the overcoming process becomes cleaning them out of one's vehicular “house.” Ti and Do said that who we are, is THE DECIDER of which mind (thoughts and actions via spirits) we will allow occupy our “computer” (brain) and in that way become programming of our biological hardware.

Again, with this preparation in mind taking place after this Aurora crash as the verse states in the order, the “strike (cast) on the Earth,” followed by disclosures (voices), followed by thunderings aka Roars of authority as huge storms, and lightnings as comets and earth shaking (earthquakes), I looked for events that might match these depictions ahead of the vibrational uplifts aka soundings (trumpets).

As a result words/speech, disclosures of otherwise unspoken ideas (voices) are stimulated, so brought to pass. We can't see how the Next Level's physical arrival, say in the spacecraft sightings, that happened before the Aurora crash stimulated disclosures, but one has to admit if a spaceship of some type with an alien looking body crashes into our downtown bell tower and it makes it to the newspaper, a great deal of talk will ensue and that talk can't help but provide a great avenue to lift the consciousness of all who engage it and for generations to come. Engaging it will always be a choice and doing so then stimulates that attached strain of the human gnome to continue to evolve in their thinking so that they will influence others who will influence others and will result in offspring in some cases that have that more open minded thinking as a norm for them, so when more signs of disclosures occur, as with the "Seven Angles with Trumpet Sounding periods," it's almost automatic that they will be looking skyward or outside the norms for answers that becomes like a little beacon to the Next Level Crews assigned to watch humans and help those that ask for help.

These kinds of upgraded thinking, also results in new developments in all areas of society. So we see at the turn of the century the Wright Brothers successful aircraft flights. In April of 1902 the first movie theater opened in Los Angeles called the Electric Theater. I include this because of it's location and how Ti and Do said that the Next Level used the movie industry to stimulate thoughts. Sci-fi books escalated significantly from 1896.

Then for thunder also translated as to roar, brings to mind the prophecy:

Luk 21:25 And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;

The best candidate for this in my opinion is the September 1900 Hurricane at Galveston, Texas that killed 8000 people. Thunder and Roars are announcements of authority by showing us some of the power the Next Level has. Naturally I suggest this major storm event because of it's timing and the fact that it hit Houston, Texas near where the Next Level Older Members were to soon "tag" the human vehicles they would take over to fulfill their task with.

Events like major hurricane's, etc. are fear inducing. Fear is thereby used by the Next Level to stimulate changes when humans have become comfortable and mostly unaware of the real existence of the Next Level and what's entailed in becoming a member of their Kingdom. Ti and Do spoke a little about how tornado's are used that way by the Next Level. They couldn't figure out how some don't get the picture. When you live in an area that is frequently hit by hurricanes and/or tornadoes and/or earthquakes as the biggest examples, one can take that as a warning that there is more to come and they will get more severe as the time gets closer and closer to the end of the Last Days period as outlined by the 7 Trumpets, and 7 Seals and includes the 7 Plagues (vials). I think this is especially the case for anyone that believes to some degree, religious or not, in a Kingdom of God that created everything for a purpose - to grow Souls to Their Kingdom in the Heavens Membership. Others don't know any better so simply get the equivalent of what the animal and plant kingdoms experience. We in human vehicles don't know how to differentiate between those who are watched by the Next Level, hoping they will seek to grow closer and those who aren't specifically watched. Even if they say they are staunch atheists, one doesn't know that what they are rejecting about "God" is what Humans have shaped God into in the religions which is not an accurate portrayal so an atheist may actually be closer to the Kingdom of God than a devout religionist, Christian or any other.

For instance, if we were barraging the Kingdom of God, the Father and/or Jesus or by some other cultures name for deity, with requests or calling out their name constantly, it can easily become a shallow and frivolous request for help that the Next Level may not respond to, as Jesus said about using "vain repetitions" and "much speaking" and saying "Lord Lord" this and that, which seems to be related to the Jehovah/Moses commandment to not use the name of the Lord in vain.

With that said, "fear" is a way the Next Level helps to motivate us. It's no different with the way one trains an animal, except we have to come to ask for the training in some way, though in general the human kingdom has built in motivation by people getting sick and dying eventually and/or having stresses because of the presence of the lower forces. In a real sense it's like having an employer we know we must "please" or frankly they won't want to have us on their crew working for Their employer, in this case the Older Member's Older Member.

For me, I can't say I'm motivated by a fear of burning in hell or perishing though perhaps if I was it would help me to adhere more to my Older Member's teachings 100%. I do fear loss of my Older Member's Mind but it's a subtle fear that I only really recognize when I feel His mind is more distant, as when I act in human ways.

It simply feels like longing for a spouse, or other loved one, though if we don't prime the thirst pump because we are constantly spending our “force” on giving and receiving from other humans, and human behaviors like sexuality being a major “leak,” then any thirst to rise out of the human condition diminishes, as it also deflates our Mind Balloon and we lose what became “common sense” about what is reality and what is not and what we can do to grow closer. Even asking for help becomes harder as we can to some degree thrive even on pain. We can fear trying to get better, because of not wanting to change what we are doing, usually to satisfy some addiction we often don't think of as an addiction. We can become so attached to having certain foods, we don't want to even consider there are things we can do to change some disease condition by changing what we eat. We would rather run to the doctor to get a prescription and would even be satisfied with side affects that at times are worse than the disease symptoms the medications are designed to mask.

But the Next Level sees to it that circumstances occur that are traumatic to shake us up, so that we once again might choose to seek Their help. Some don't ever seek that help so they don't ever recognize that thirst and that real connectedness we have the opportunity to allow the Next Level to help us nurture.

III.B.3. LIGHTNING (COMETS) (Mat 24:27 and Luk 17:24), THUNDER/ROARS (HURRICANE'S/STORMS), VOICES (MEDIA) AND SHAKING (EARTHQUAKES)

Mat 24:27 For ((1063 gar= because)) as ((5618 (even, like) as)) (the) lightning ((796 astrape= star like object (noun) brightly shines)) cometh ((1831 exerchomai= spreads abroad, to issue, goes forth, proceeds)) (out) of ((1537 ek= from)) (the) east ((dawn, sun-RISE)), and shineth ((5316 phaino= to lighten, appears, to be seen, shines)) (even) unto (the) west ((sun-set, goes down, sinks)); so*6.1 ((3779 houto= after)) (shall) also ((2532 kai= both)) (the) coming ((3952 parousia= physical being near, advent, return, presence)) (of the) Son ((5207 huioi= offspring, foal, son, child)) (of) man ((444 anthropos= human, man-faced)) be ((2071 esomai= will be (exist), am, come (to pass), would follow, X sojourn, X FALL)).

Luk 17:24 For ((1063 gar= because)) as ((5618 (even, like) as)) (the) lightning ((796 astrape= star like bright shining object)), (that) lighteneth ((797 astrapto most likely from 792 aster= to flash or shine as a star)) (out) of (the one part) under ((5259 hupo= covertly, undercover)) heaven, shineth ((2989 lampo= gives light)) unto (the other part) under ((5259 hupo= covertly, undercover)) heaven; so ((3779 houto= after)) (shall) also ((2532 kai= both)) (the) Son ((5207 huioi= offspring, foal, son, child)) of man ((444 anthropos= human, man-faced)) be ((2071 esomai= will be (exist), am, come (to pass), what would follow, X sojourn, X FALL)) in his ((846 autos= their)) day ((2250 hemera= season)).

In the documentation throughout this book I show the evidence that Jesus was both generally and specifically revealing the methods (ways) they use to prepare, arrive and execute various stages and phases within their time frame, to include followup, conclusion and cleanup of their garden experiment. With that said, these next two quotes from Jesus for many Christians go the heart of how to recognize his return as most don't consider him to come incarnate again. I think they think all he has to do upon return is call his true believers to him and they reap the promised rewards. To them his required condition of overcoming is not having promiscuous sex, not directly stealing, not lying much, going to church (keeping the sabbath once a week or so for a couple hours or so) and telling others about a few of the things he said, translating the hard literal sayings into figures and the figurative things into their sermons so that everyone goes home feeling saved. Like Do said, "if it were only that simple.".. and for that they definitely would not have needed to return incarnate in the "snake pit" as Ti called this human civilization and spoke about.

In these two verses the word translated to "lightning" is generalized into an inaccurate portrayal of what it could have said, though is what most all translators choose. Here's why; It's listed as the Greek "astrape" which is rooted in "astr," (which appears to be where the English term "astronomy" comes from and it probably is) linked to the Greek, "astron," a STAR, thus the lighting, shining like a STAR so why not put the root word in the translation? This is how subtle changes seep into the records.

So it would be more accurate to say, "For as ((exactly like)) the ((that or one)) star's light shines from east and shineth ((gives light)) to the west...,” which is describing a star in traverse, something people see on occasion and call a “comet.” Lightning the way we understand it doesn't shine from east to west or if it ever does it doesn't seem to be consistent. Plus it's got to be something different and not that common otherwise it's not much of a sign. This is a typical example of what I have found throughout scripture. It's not that it's inaccurate in a general sense of a light shining, but it can be much more specific and literal while simultaneously having it's figurative or mystical interpretations as well, which also hold accuracy as “light” is understanding, enabling of vision and is representative of Mind coming to humans to enlighten them, that is if they choose to receive it.

In Ti and Do's first meeting, they described how this was a very special time when a “light” was shining on planet Earth from deep space that was enabling a window of opportunity to rise out of the human evolutionary condition. This really is not mystical talk and especially when one learns about all the electromagnetic particle components of light and how nothing would be animated without it, even in miniscule amounts carried by chemicals, etc.

Great comets are signs because that definition includes seeing it with a naked eye. However signs are never absolute verification of something in and of themselves. They are equally indicative MARKERS. It's our choice in how to see them, what they mark and to what they are a sign. Like Jesus often said it's “for those with eyes to see.”

Thus this “lightning” is describing comets that serve as signs and as is the Kingdom of God/Heaven's way, they give humans many such signs though each is special in it's own right. A Comet which is considered a GREAT COMET can be seen by the naked eye and possibly one that can be seen in day light, a day star and often displays a very long tail so it's very evident in the day and/or night sky and can be visible for even months in some cases. FOR ALL INTENTS AND PURPOSES IT IS A BRIGHT SHINING STAR CROSSING OUR PATH ALONG OUR EARTH'S ECLIPTIC SO LOOKS LIKE WE ARE SEEING IT STARTING IN THE EAST AND TRAVERSING TO THE WEST AS JESUS PROPHESED. And a comet is hard to miss so it's for “all eyes to see.” Even the blind can be alerted to what others are seeing so can see it in that way. If a blind person is thirsty, the Next Level will make sure they have an equal opportunity to understand what's happening.

In all the reports of “great comets” they become big events that stimulate all kinds of talk and even commercialism with people making jewelry that looks like a comet with a tail to descriptions of what they are made of and what they represent, etc. There are often comet parties or festivals, some of which continue to date from great comets past. All this further stimulates “light” as the delivery of further ever so slight degrees of “enlightenment” which simply means having a greater capacity among humans to understand more of the realities around us and their Next Level relationships. It's shining a light on the Kingdom of God/Heaven's reality.

Someone is not really enlightened if they don't acknowledge the existence of “Beings that are above and thus superior to human who literally created our entire reality.” If we think of them as simply a force or cosmic consciousness or universal mind, though those terms all have degrees of accuracy in describing them, it's a backhanded way of acknowledging their literal existence and administrative dominion over the planet and all its life forms. Thinking this backhanded way omits any sense of responsibility to anyone else for anything to do with us, giving us the sense that we are equivalent to that same force in the way atoms are in all things. It gives us the impression we are then co-creators of it all by a type of osmosis while the amount that we are a part is like the amount of wind produced by a mosquito's wings. But essentially this is a strategy to diminish the possibility of recognizing a Member from the Next Level when they come incarnate because they won't talk in those hyper-generalities as if they were ultimate truths to embrace. Again, they do have their truth to them but the problem is they give the impression of advancement but are dead ends to real advancement as the Members of the Next Level don't need independent thinkers on their crews. They would simply be in the way thinking they can figure things out for themselves when they are like the many humans who act like they are know it alls who criticize what they don't know as if it's not something of value to know as then they can't be a know it all.

As the time of the preparation for the seven trumpets if we examine the records we can see many comets mostly starting up in the early 1800's to the earliest 2000's. One can assume that ALL comets are directly scheduled by the Next Level to serve a number of functions, to include but not limited to; 1) the deposits of minerals/substances/frequencies into the atmosphere and to the surface via what is emitted from them, some of which can be seen in their long tails and 2) how they affect the people that become aware of them and correlate them to world events, as omens, warnings, alerts or as in the last three Angels with trumpet soundings as “woes” which are like “exclamation points” for each of these last soundings.

Ti and Do said the Next Level doesn't have time as we have it on Earth as they are no longer cyclic beings and they don't live on planets though a planet or body in space can be their terrestrial lab, though generally they are inside such a body. Ti and Do did indicate that a garden like Earth, depending on the behaviors and ways of it's human and/or equivalent occupants could be used by the Next Level as a “base” in which the humans would be aware of the Next Level members activity wherever that would be and could also know that they could evolve to be among them. I don't know how much interaction Next Level members would have. I doubt they would go to the same coffee shops to hang out, though as we have seen in the records, there have been times when Next Level Members were among humans and were indistinguishable from other humans. I suspect these are those who have those domestic styled bodies for that very reason as to not stand out too much so they can perform certain tasks for the Next Level. I believe Ti and Do indicated when they told us about this, when we were in Wyoming that humans now are far too hostile for the Next Level to use Earth as a “base.” This is why the space aliens don't really mingle either, aside from the fact that the space aliens largely view the humans as their slaves and genetic stock, though they refer to them via contactees as “brothers” which may be mostly a form of diplomacy, though Do did say that they sought souls to add to their ranks, a Soul being a human that had received a “deposit” of a container/pocket that can potentially grow to become a member of the Next Level - the seed Jesus illustrated.

Thus it seems that the “great comet of 1882” that was visible with the naked eye was a forerunner to the arrival of the “angel” who was serving in the preparatory role and that was followed by the great comet of 1901 called Biscara, that was a naked eye comet but as I've read and speculated had only a brief morning observational ability from parts of the northern hemisphere because it was a southern hemisphere comet discovered in South Africa and Australia at that time, which have latitudes of 15-30 degrees south. Since I am of the opinion that to qualify as a comet depicted in these scriptural records there has to be some viability at the time from the U.S. I compared it to comet Pan Starr that is still visible in 2014 having first appeared in 2013 that is also a southern hemisphere comet. Yet it has visibility low in the eastern morning sky at certain times of year in parts of the northern hemisphere so is considered in the U.S. as a “morning comet” that I equated with comet Biscara which may relate to the Aurora event (dawn/morning star prophecy of how Jesus indicated in prophecy would accompany his return) that I also am suggesting is the PREPARATORY PART of his Kingdom's return. Perhaps marking the end of one period and beginning another is a periodic comet named Borrelly that has an orbit of 7 years that was even allegedly visited by the Deep Space 1 flyby mission on September 21, 2001 while it was first discovered on December 28, 1904.

Incidentally, all the dates related to Ti and Do's mission that stand out the most for their various stages of both public and classroom events are: January 1st, March 21st and September 21st, while comet activity often correlates. However, there seems to be some patterns of a before and after combinations in terms of comets we can actually see with the naked eye and there seems to be 3 or 3 1/2 year gaps between pairs or even triads and quads of comets.

But there are no lack of comets as even though many are not ever visible to the naked eye, there has been a great deal of documentation in old newspapers throughout the world that are increasingly being digitized so are available on the internet that show that people in Australia for instance were kept abreast of comets they would never see with the naked eye.

And finally there is shaking and commotion of the air and a shaking up of people and no doubt will be accompanied by a literal shaking of the Earth as an earthquake.

All status quo thinking must be shaken to help open minds to more true reality. And literal earthquakes become an exclamation point that addresses our physicality. Thus in accordance with that time period and a certain role seems to manifest as a geological shaking as an earthquake in San Francisco in 1906, the end of that part one preparation period, though what's to come is still always more preparations:

The San Francisco earthquake of 1906 struck San Francisco and the coast of Northern California at 5:12 a.m. on Wednesday, April 18, 1906. Devastating fires broke out in the city that lasted for several days. As a result of the quake and fires, about 3,000 people died and over 80% of San Francisco was destroyed. The earthquake and resulting fire are remembered as one of the worst natural disasters in the history of the United States alongside the Galveston Hurricane of 1900 and Hurricane Katrina in 2005.

Los Angeles and San Francisco are like the “dual” rises out of the sea of humanity illustrated as “mountains” in the meaning of Jerusalem, also as the “city of God's angels” and the “city of peace” (salem) respectively. We saw how San Francisco became the prominent “city of peace” starting with it's Anti-Imperialist League agitation against the annexation of the Philippines at the turn of the 20th Century and in anti-war agitation during WWI, pacifist activism in WWII, strong resistance to the Vietnam War, Reagan's wars in Central America, both Bush wars in Iraq and the latter in Afghanistan/Pakistan.

Another observation of this pilot who crashed in Aurora, Texas was the reported observation that he was “not of this world.” Jesus also said he was “not of this world,” because he was from his environment that encompasses wherever their tasks take them throughout outer space, the literal heavens). By coming to Earth sacrificing his physical body, this individual was “taking a stand” for his Older Member, providing humans with a type of smelling salt at the dawning of the century in which the Older Members would come incarnate again. It was a huge step toward providing a reality upgrade to the entire human civilization, however gradual and according to the desire of each individual to know more of that reality.

There were already by this time popular science fiction writing about outer space and aliens, referred to as Martians and Venusians, though novels with these themes really took off come 1896-7 and thereafter. It's worth noting that just because an event takes place, doesn't preclude that the Kingdom of God/Heaven wasn't in close proximity for some time before any event, setting the stage for that event, which the entire development of the “new world” of the United States is evidence of.

In 1865, the novel, “From the Earth to the Moon” by Jules Verne was about shooting an aluminum capsule holding three passengers to the backside of the moon and demonstrate various technical discoveries to justify the feasibility along with certain scientific measurements debated at that time that had correlation with certain Albert Einstein ideas to test along the journey. Another published in 1877 was “Off on a comet” by Jules Verne. It was about a comet that collides with Earth and takes part of the Earth with it and some 36 people continue to live on the chunk that has a circumference of 2320 cm. Another published in 1871 was Vril about an antediluvian race that survived in an underground utopia via technologies. Another was Across the Zodiac by Percy Gregg published in 1880 about someone who travels to Mars and meets people there who don't believe anyone else lives in the Universe and think this traveler is just an unusually tall Martian. Then in the 1890's a plethora of novels about the Conquest of Mars, by Edison, Journey to other worlds, Journey to Mars, Journey to Venus, Two Planets, To Venus in Five Seconds, The Time Machine, The Invisible Man, Fighters from Mars, The Year 3000 and of course “The War of the Worlds” published by English author H.G. Wells in 1897, one of the earliest stories about Martians invading Earth.

An additional example of “voices,” that is more rooted as a “disclosure” is shown as being stimulated in the writing and expressions of Samuel Langhorn Clemens, a journalist and popular author known by the pen name Mark Twain. Here are some examples of why I say this as he was way ahead of his time and even predicted his death as synchronized with Halley's comet and wrote about traveling to heaven in the tail of a comet. (All advancement in all forms is gradual. For instance, Jules Verne wrote “off on a comet” in 1877, but it had nothing to do with “heaven,” nor did any other science fiction writings in my investigation talk of comet's, let alone to Heaven. It was about a comet colliding with Earth and taking a chunk with it into space with people living on it that returns in another collision to return the people 2 years later.)

Do and crew had their passports and $5 and three quarters on their person when they laid down their bodies in 1997. This was the fare to ride the comet's tail to heaven. It would seem he was given these insights by the Next Level in anticipation of the way in which Members of the Next Level come and go, as if a comet was a type of bus service. Here are some of Samuel Clemens's relative quotes:

“I came in with Halley's Comet in 1835. It is coming again next year (1910), and I expect to go out with it. It will be the greatest disappointment of my life if I don't go out with Halley's Comet. The Almighty has said, no doubt: “Now here are these two unaccountable freaks; they came in together, they must go out together.”

Samuel Clemens died on April 21, 1910, the day after the comet's perihelion.

Halley's 1910 apparition is distinct from the Great Daylight Comet of 1910, which surpassed Halley in brilliance and was actually visible in broad daylight for a short period, approximately four months before Halley made its appearance

Also in 1907, Clemens, as Mark Twain, wrote a short story entitled “Captain Stormfield’s Visit to Heaven,” in which the hero of the script exits Earth for an extended trip among the heavenly bodies on the tail of a comet. The hero has his passport on him, plus five dollars and three 25-cent pieces for the fare.

I suspect there are two reasons for this large uptick in creative thinking about human interface with other beings and traveling to their worlds. One, the primary one was the Next Level's closeness, even while not incarnate nor in spirit form in the environments of human beings. The other is through discarnate Luciferian Space Aliens and all those human discarnates who still believe the same as when alive so seek to do what they did as humans thus influence living humans to do their bidding. As humans gained more and more technology these discarnates would seek to spur them to further develop their ideas. And since the discarnate Luciferian space aliens were from an advanced civilization when they fell, they had a great deal of knowing what was possible so were eager to teach the technologies to humans so humans could help them escape and/or take over Earth or to build devices to escape Earth so to not be forced underground at the time of the next recycling. It would be another 40 years before literal space aliens would be allowed to leave their holding pen to begin influencing humans to more quickly adapt to their differences.

Thus all this with radio, television and movies would in affect help to realistically upgrade Human's mindsets about what was real beyond our little world. The one who crashed was now accurately seen as a being from outer space, the literal heavens. The pilot died and the body was “badly disfigured” allegedly by the heat/fire in the explosion, all implied by the town's name which, as a voluntary sacrifice was right in line with the entire idea behind the sacrificial lamb in the Moses camp performed on this very day in the passover. The censer was a bowl that held the coals from the burning of the sacrificial animal. The high priest (Aaron) had the task of putting incense into the bowl and it was talked about as providing a sweet smell to the Lord. The Frankincense actually made a white smoke.

Jehovah, by giving Moses instructions for Aaron to perform what they called “offerings” was teaching those human beings that what was most precious to us was worth sacrificing to please the Lord their God Jehovah who til then had shown them his power. Jehovah was showing them that they needed to “give” to receive further blessings (lessons). Animals were given to the humans for food (after the flood) and for labour thus represented what was most precious to them that was permitted to by the Lord to be sacrificed. A human can never sacrifice another human. The Luciferians have twisted this to make even the word sacrifice an evil word, but it's the entire basis of the loss of self that is also part of becoming a member of the Kingdom of God/Heaven, which in the next trimester Jesus taught as “denying self” to be his disciple. In this preliminary setting to that lesson plan, an animal provided the life to be sacrificed. In most cases they also used the sacrificed animal. This was also a change from the way some people were worshiping animals as evidenced by the golden calf worship. That too was a Luciferian distortion. We can of course be thankful for the service an animal provides and we can treat animals with respect and the care they deserve as Jehovah and Moses also taught those in that first trimester beginners overcoming experiential classroom.

This angel, as a student was a “lamb” self sacrificed their own physical vehicle by fire on the altar of the territory of the U.S. Southwest. By his sole example he was acting as the high priest Aaron was instructed, the only one who was given the task to present the flesh sacrifice as the coals from the burning of the lamb into the Older Member's quarters, the tent (tabernacle) designed specifically for Jehovah's physical presence. (He came and went via a column of a cloud (covering) of his light, what today if flying through the atmosphere would be called a UFO. (Space Aliens don't have these types of spacecraft - theirs look metallic). Thus this “angel” was representing an atonement for all the “missing of the mark” (sins) of the community of believers since the last offering made by Jesus himself.

It's not that all the saints were sinners needing forgiveness. It's simply that they had not yet overcome all their human characteristics (sins as human characteristics are beneath the Next Level Kingdom's characteristics). Overcoming is equivalent to conquering them which means they don't have a hold on us as the Buddha also taught suggesting that was the “fold” Jesus said he had and was going to after he left his disciples in the Middle East. As long as we are occupying human vehicles we will have the programming to behave in human mammalian ways. However, it is by overriding that programming according to the steps the Older Members give us during each experiential classroom that we take control away from our human vehicles habits and addictions, wants and desires so that it only gets what the Older Members prescribe. In this way we build the muscle of our mind, as Ti called it, which fills the content of our Soul pocket/container with the Older Members program and that begins to build us into a new creature. When we graduate into the Next Kingdom Level the vehicle we are issued doesn't have human mammalian characteristics thus we can't have programs that want to play out through them.

Ti and Do said it would theoretically “cause an abortion” to put a Soul into a Next Level grown vehicle that didn't have compatible behaviors and ways - a Mind/Spirit (program) that could not pilot it because it had not “Changed over” while still in the human condition. I believe I recall them saying, if it was possible that new Next Level member would be unsatisfied in the Next Level and would be looking for ways to act out the parts of the programs they did not overcome. I don't recall their saying this, but perhaps that's what happened to the Luciferians and the reason Ti said when she got back she would raise the bar on who could get into the Next Level. I don't think that means the Next Level messed up. Ti and Do always said we are never given more than we can do. But that doesn't mean it's not an experiment that can be improved upon.

The Next Level Older Members have countless experience behind their projects so make sure upcoming new Next Level members have adequately cleaned our human vehicles from all their human behaviors and ways that includes instilling new programs. Thus instead of wanting to give one's love to a spouse, they seek to give their love to their Older Member not through sensuality but through service to provide for others in the lower evolutionary kingdom access to their potential graduation. In the first trimester though, teaching to give oneself to one person as one's spouse is the lesson that prepares one's mind to give one's love only to one's Older Member in a subsequent trimester's lesson plan. That's why Jesus brought the update of "leaving behind" one's human family and lifestyle, possessions and giving (love) to all people in an equivalent way as we too want to receive.

A huge step out of self and away from our mammalian roots includes "giving our life," during the second trimester by telling others about their Older Member Jesus knowing those in the enemy camp, essentially in the religion that formed after the Last incarnation exited (Moses), would see to it that Jesus disciples are met with the same hatred and murder as Jesus was met with, which Jesus did explain to his disciples before he left.

Then by the last trimester one must focus on removing all our self indulgent sensuality again as a commitment to our incarnate Older Member and what went with that, at least in the example of Ti and Do's incarnation was even the voluntary laying down of the human vehicles they borrowed that further severs the roots to the human kingdom because the death of that vehicle didn't come from a force out of their control as it partially did when they were in the second trimester with Jesus.

In other words the prophecy was re-enacting exactly what was taught by Jehovah through Moses and Aaron. Thus it may be that this "angel" - casting the censer was actually the same Soul as the Soul who served in the vehicle named Aaron, who may have also gone on to perform a similar task as John the Baptist, once again giving his life standing up for his Next Level Older Member, according to that trimesters design. This also leads me to consider that this messenger with three other of Ti and Do's students may actually be the ones prophesied as the FOUR LIVING BEINGS. I would guess that Lvvody, Innody and Jwnody were the other three, incidentally all having female vehicles except for Lggody in a male vehicle.

This idea that classmates had been the same souls that were with the Older Members in classrooms past was never something Ti and Do spent any time on except that they came to know it was a fact. However some of students in the beginning seemed to get a little carried away with who they might be in the past. I remember being told by another classmate that one classmate in an older female vehicle was the return of Mary the mother of the vehicle Jesus. Her name became Flxody and she left the class before Ti left her vehicle. When I first heard her say that, it felt kind of weird, but in those early days of 1975 there were all sorts of people, mostly from California that touted being someone of stature. I remember one who said he had been John the Baptist. Another called himself Light born, not a bad name but wow did he have some ego and drive to be in charge. Another took the name Aaron and would joke about the time when he was one of the only ones who had met Ti and Do in a campground and he would walk around with a staff and felt like he was sort of in the Aaron task. None of these lasted even many months even in those first days while we were scattered around the country, some having lost any physical connection to Ti and Do.

Ti and Do always said that claiming to be some past person was like saying you hadn't grown as a member of the Next Level continually seeks to do. However with this said, there was one time, some years after Ti left her vehicle that Do actually gave each of us the name of someone in the Old Testament that was a lesson step our current mind came from. I don't know the names of anyone else as it wasn't posted. It was strictly something private between Do and each classmate to know and nor were we to linger on it. Do suggested we look in the Old Testament for the name and see what it says about the individual and then put no further energy into it. I only report this so individuals will have a broader scope in which to understand Ti and Do's task. Do wrote the name on a piece of paper that he handed to each student. Mine read: "Bezaleel." When I looked the name up it showed this individual was descended from the tribe of Juda and had the task of carrying out the instructions Moses gave for the building of all the parts of the Tabernacle (Tent of Meeting), the tent where Jehovah would descend to via a "column of cloud" and the Arc of the Covenant - the box that was designed to hold the stone tablets with the ten commandments inscribed on them and the high priests clothing and all the furniture and altars. This section of the records can be seen at: Exodus 31:1-11.

If someone hasn't yet overcome their ego, when they are told they are related in some way to someone in the records, it provides evidence of that "self." In this vehicle I have, I have that response and this isn't the only way it surfaces. Whenever I have the thought and feeling that I am something special in some way, it's that influence with me that is stimulating it. Ti and Do taught us that it wasn't important if it always was an actual discarnate or not. What's important is that when treating it as a discarnate it engages the mechanism to get rid of it or at least not give it any time in one's consciousness as it may never entirely go away while using a human vehicle. Thus when I feel my vehicle kind of gloating at the thought that I said or did or represented something special, I put a label on it, as Ti and Do taught to do and then send it packing - obliterate it from my consciousness instead of basking in self delight at the idea.

One technique for getting rid of discarnate influences' thoughts and/or feelings was to envision a "blank card," like a cue card with nothing on it, being put in your mind's eye and then move your mind to something else, even while holding that card up. Sometimes you will feel that influence right on the other side of that card knocking. You will not even necessarily have a thought about it but just the feeling of its presence. That's the objective to not hear the thought at all. I believe Ti called that "smelling the influence" - recognizing its presence without hearing its identifying thoughts and/or feelings. So my label is simply "ego get lost." I can't say I am adept in smelling it though I did experience that with sensual thoughts while still in the classroom. The Next Level regulates the strength of the influences who become our assigned adversaries. That's why, although I was able to "smell" those sensual influences at one time, when I asked Ti for a challenge like Do had, that being my "ego" speaking, as if my level of strength was up to par with Do's, Ti let me have it - she opened the door to a bigger "booger" and I fell flat on my face with what I had thought was good self control over sensual thoughts and feelings and I couldn't even generate the desire to want to get up or even want to ask for help, let alone put up a blank card.

Ti and Do taught that the Next Level is not an organization that puts individuals on pedestals. Don't get me wrong, they do praise and reward those that accomplish the tasks they are assigned, though during the classroom time, Ti and Do told us they didn't talk to our accomplishments as their task was to address those things about each of us that held us back from the goal. Some exceptions to their praising us, was when we showed our thirst as a unit. They always knew we were thirsty for next steps because they would get new information and Do especially would physically feel our "pulling" for those next steps. They always said that it was like their having to make room for a next step which took place when we took their mind from them in the form of listening and putting into affect all they had given us up until then. Another time that we received praise was upon return from our visits to the vehicle's family. It was never talked about but the fact that they had sent most everyone in the classroom to visit whomever they chose was opening a big door to some deciding to stay with that family who in most cases certainly wanted them to not go back to be with the “cult.” Thus returning was a show of having succeeded in cutting those ties although for at least one classmate, it ended up being the impetus of their later choosing to leave the classroom. I could just see and feel Ti and Do and classmates happiness every time a new group of visit returnees came in the door.

I also believe that some of the family members also succeeded in their own degree of classroom when they accepted the choices of their adult family members to continue with what meant so much to them even though it often puzzled and pained them to do. A case in point involved my vehicle's dad. He had a rough time with my vehicle's mother's desire to find me, telling her there was no use in trying to pull him (me) away from it. When he took me to the airport to return after the weekend visit he told me to “thank Ti and Do,” I believe for allowing me to visit. I think he said that mostly for my vehicle's mother's sake. Years later out of the blue, I had a very startling dream about my vehicle's dad. I sat up in bed suddenly having seen in a dream that he had died suddenly of a heart attack. I told Do about the dream and Do asked if I was concerned about it and if I wanted to call. I told Do I wasn't really concerned. A month or two later Do instigated calls for anyone who felt to, as had been done about once a year after the first ten years of no contact for most of us. The reason for the calls was to help relieve anxiety among those family members. The students would feel their anxiety at their absence just as if parts of a plant's root system was struggling to get nutrients. So I called and my vehicle's dad was fine. I learned on a call around a year later that some months after I had called, he died suddenly of a massive heart attack.

Ti and Do said upon return to the Next Level said there would be a major celebration. I believe they indicated it would include many or even all existing members of the Next Level who numbered in the thousands (not the millions) as in the human kingdom. They also said those who failed to succeed at their task would feel “embarrassed” (if I recall the word they used correctly) that they let their humanness get the better of them as it is a real environment but where failure can simply become the motivation to succeed next time as the Next Level doesn't give up on us but we always have the choice to give up on them and to even go against them. It would not be the other members of the Next Level that cause us to feel that embarrassment. It would come from our own disappointment with ourselves, which then can add to our determination to do a better job next time. So it is the assigned task from our Older Members that are the most important, not the individual who performs it. It's the Luciferian fallen angel space aliens that influence humans to worship those who were recorded as students of Moses or Jesus or of any incarnate Older Member from the Next Level, especially with statues and paintings, etc.

Because Ti and Do said they came from the Kingdom of God, the Kingdom of Heaven, that has many members, that makes each member one of those members to humans a “God” which of course is heard as an outrageous thing to say because of the way the Luciferians have made that seem impossible and polluted it's reality with the assignment of that term to almost anything and especially to those who fell away from the Kingdom of God. But to this perspective Do said, (paraphrased):

Ti and Do were saying they were from the Next Level, the Kingdom of God and how that Kingdom has many members. But from where Do sits he counts himself a “young'un because he doesn't relate to those who entered the kingdom later than his Soul. He is only concerned with those who are “up” from his relationship, therefore he considers himself “low man on the totem pole, though he's assigned to related with Souls coming through their own birth canal. He doesn't think that task to relate to souls coming into births is that unique a task. It didn't take a “high falootin' officer” to perform it. Do feels it possible there are many in his Father's kingdom who might qualify to perform this “midwife” task. However, that task was given to him and was also given to the “vehicle surrounding” his Soul. (end of paraphrased segment from Do).

Thus I don't have to be right about who was assigned to which task. However, I only bring it up because the Next Level does prepare students to perform more and more tasks and from my experience with Ti and Do, certain ones are assigned certain tasks for three reasons I can think of and not in any order. One, because the Older Member when they ask their Older Member who to assign a specific task to may receive the answer specifically, or the Older Member might say to the younger Older Member, "your choice," in which the Older Member, as is their way, would still try to come up with the choice they think their Older Member would choose and might still say to their Older Member, what about so and so? Second, which goes with the first is who the Older Member thinks can perform the task and along with that, third being who most needs that experience as a lesson step which can even be for the opposite of apparent reasons. I'm not implying these are the only considerations nor that these are all concrete ideas and considerations in an Older Members mind. I'm just giving some insights I feel I saw demonstrated and to some degree also spoken about by Do.

Lggody was perhaps of all the students the one who by human standards had the most overall success in life and thus the most to give up and lose, which he, like all who are choosing to start their metamorphosis are required to separate from. (There really is no "most to lose." We all must lose all and that ends up being equivalent for all). However, perhaps some who were more elder could better handle separating so took on more to be an example to others of the strength of mind required to make those separations. Another way of looking at it is that he needed that experience. One can't have too much experience as with each experience one only gets a stronger mind from accomplishing. It all works hand in hand. But Lggody's vehicle had a horse ranch (horses being one way Ti and Do and Old Testament prophets Isaiah and Zechariah illustrated as humans) and he was successful in business and had a sizable family with I believe 3 children (that I don't believe were very young when he separated from them in 1975).

Without even meeting the Two he left it all behind a week after being told about the Two knowing this was his calling. I could be wrong but like said, I suspect he had all that to be an example of someone who did have much to lose on the human level. I for instance had next to nothing to lose materially and even my relationship had become fractured in the months before joining that I recovered from so was like receiving Next Level help to detach from. What I was most leaving behind was my budding career in music, but it's not like I had a recording contract or degree I was pursuing so I hadn't really invested much in that idea of a career. I was simply a hippie type having fun with it while making a little money.

Lvvody and Jnnody were steadfast in their dedication and were consistently the assigned “helpers” of Ti and Do. Lvvody chose a vehicle that became a registered nurse before joining with Ti and Do which was the profession of the vehicle Ti took. When Ti went through her vehicle's last two weeks before it's death, because of the cancer that began in her eye nearly two years earlier, Lvvody was a key helper, though Do said Ti mostly slept through it. After Ti left her body as prophecy indicates was planned as depicted in Rev 12, Jnnody and Lvvody became full time “helpers” of Do. This meant they lived in the same craft with Do when Do chose to live in a separate craft from the student body. Whether he lived in the same craft or not was like everything Ti and Do did, changeable with no obvious patterns. Ti and Do always said, “change is the name of the game” and wouldn't you know that the term “repent” really means, “change your mind.”

Jwnody also had a lot to lose when she joined, if only in the fact that her vehicle was pregnant. Thus what she was giving up may not seem like much to many but nonetheless demonstrated her resolve to not let even that hormonal and emotional connection to one's baby stop her from fulfilling what she came here to do. In other words the Mind that came into her vehicle that had prepared that vehicle may have allowed a pregnancy as both a test of her strength of mind over that vehicles motherly instincts and to be an example to others of her resolve and a test of her trust in the Next Level and Ti and Do who said the baby would be well cared for and because of her choice to give her all to serve the Next Level would have a special opportunity to grow closer to the Next Level.

Jwnody had also served off and on as Do's “helper” as did Lggody at times. Jwnody was also a regular helper and overseer from the start and was the main “scribe” of the group, a “primary” in the student writing projects. I was her partner in some of those efforts as well as partner to Lggody in various tasks as were a number of classmates. After I left and the group exited in 1997 and I stood up for Ti and Do and Crew publicly by giving live interviews with the CBS show 60 Minutes and CNN's Larry King Live and ABC's Morning Show and Newsweek and Time magazines and many other Radio and Internet and Newspapers I began to be visited via dreams that helped me gradually bring back more of my Next Level Mind into the vehicle again. Eventually when those dreams led me to agree to be of service again which largely took shape after the 9-11 attacks on the World Trade Center and Pentagon, I was visited in dreams by both Lggody and Jwnody who had a very specific message. Lggody said nothing but just vibrated a knowing. Jwnody said, "It was worth it" to me, referring to laying down her life. And then she showed me what I thought were a line of what seemed like 3 - 4 other individuals who were serving the Next Level, suggesting I could also serve. (I'm not implying only 3-4 are in service to the Next Level - just describing the dream that was for me and I could have misinterpreted parts as well. Dreams are very interesting but influences can use them too so one shouldn't take them as instructions to act upon. They can simply offer collaboration to thoughts and feelings we already may have, so in that way can be helpful to consider)

III.C. THE SEVEN ANGEL'S TRUMPET SOUNDINGS IN REV 8-11

Rev 8:6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves ((1438 heautou from 846 auto, from 109 aer= others minds)) to sound.

To understand what is being shown John by these visions of these Seven Angels with Seven Trumpets to sound we need to reference the Old Testament records in Exodus chapter 19:

The setting is the third month after they fled the Egyptians. Moses goes up Mt. Sinai and Jehovah gives him instructions to remind the Israelites how He helped them and if they obey His SOUND, VOICE, what He "CALLS ALOUD" and they HEAR INTELLIGENTLY and HEDGE - guard/protect self from the thorns (the lower forces in the shape of thoughts and rebelliousness behaviors and ways) to keep in LEAGUE, COVENANT, COMPACT, CONFEDERACY WITH Him, they will be the Lord's special (peculiar) treasure above all people of the Earth that belong to Him. Moses returns, gives the message and the people agree. He returns and Jehovah comes to him this time from inside a "thick cloud" and says he wanted the people to be able to "hear him speak" and tells Moses to instruct the people to "make themselves holy, hallowed, purified" and to wash their clothing and that he'd come down from Sinai so the people can see him. He instructed a border to be made and that no one could cross that border to come up the mountain or they would die, but they would come up to the border on the "third day." On that third day morning came what was described as "thunder," from Hebrew gowl= "calling aloud, bleating, crackling thundering sound/voice,” a lightning from Hebrew baraq= “a gleam - bright glittering light cast forth” from a “thick cloud” upon the mount and the “voice” from the Hebrew qowl, or qol (kole)= “to call aloud; a voice or sound, aloud, bleating, crackling, cry, fame, lightness, lowering noise, proclamation, sing, sound, spark, thundering voice, yell.” It is further described as “exceedingly loud” so all the people in the camp trembled and shuddered with terror hence fear and in reverence of. The mountain was smokey and fiery like a furnace as the Lord came down and the mountain quaked (shuddered/trembled).

Exo 19:19 And when the voice of the trumpet sounded long ((grew more and more)), and waxed louder and louder, Moses spake, and God answered him by a voice ((or by “calling aloud a sound and/or proclamation)).

Moses was called back up the mount and Jehovah told him to warn the people against trying to get closer or they will die. Then he told him to come back up with Aaron and Jehovah gave them the ten commandments.

Later on the shofar (a trumpet made from a lambs horn) would be sounded at the start of every sabbath day when they would have a meeting, and at every feast day and during the “holy convocation,” the “sacred assembly” on the all important “day of atonement,” which is the main point we are at following the delivery of the censer by the angel I am relating to Aaron, the golden censer being the only time the gold one is used, on the annual Day of Atonement. The trumpet is sounded to bring together the people.

SO WHAT WE SEE IN THESE SEVEN ANGELS WITH TRUMPETS ARE THE ANNOUNCEMENTS OF ARRIVAL OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD, KINGDOM OF HEAVEN, LEVEL ABOVE HUMAN'S RETURNING MEMBERSHIP; Older Members (Jehovah/Father/Ti and Moses/Jesus/Do, the Four Living beings, the Seven Angels who sound the trumpets, the Seven Angels who pour out of the vials of plagues (that seem to correlate to the Seven Angels who Sound Trumpets), the Twenty Four Elders to make up the first fruit harvest of 42 Souls. Then there are those who did not come with physical bodies to sacrifice as they had not yet earned one. These have the chance to earn one as part of the second harvest.

Thus the preparation is the matching up of Souls to a matching genetic strain that starts well in advance of the actual tagging of the vehicles to be used. For instance Ti and Do felt all the vehicles they and their crew would take were tagged at their birth in the 1920's to 1950's. Ti and Do said each who came had help to pick their vehicles. Some might wonder then how some of the 38 students who laid down their lives with Do in March of 1997, whose vehicles were in their twenties at that time fit into all the tagging being accomplished during the 1920's to 1950's since some of their vehicles would have been born in the 60's and 70's.

I suspect some of these returning souls did not hold onto the vehicles they first chose. In other words, they were among the first ones to join with Ti and Do, who dropped out of their classroom so new vehicles were tagged. The Next Level keeps to their overcoming program's free will design to make our commitment with them so they don't know how many will choose not to see the classroom through, though they had a plan for the likelihood and they also knew how many SEATS they had in certain departments. (However, should more hit the deck running and succeed beyond their expectation, no doubt they would prepare some new seats accordingly).

When I first joined from the Waldport, Oregon meeting in September of 1975, before a week had passed, I was at the Colorado National Monument where we were given to meet. After a group meeting with Bo and Peep, Bo met with groups of 3-4 of the new students briefly. I remember he said something about this "process" (the metamorphosis) being the hardest thing any human could endeavor and that most of us would not succeed. Sounds negative right. I remember having several thoughts then. One was along the lines of "I can do it," though with not much strength and determination behind it as I really didn't have the foggiest idea what I would encounter. The other thought was simultaneous. I wondered why I seemed to have such a puny determination. Looking back, it would be hard to see what was motivating me. Yes, I knew this was for me and looking back on that day, every time I did over the years, it felt so fated, though not in any absolute way. It was like hearing stories of people who had a near death experience seeing their life pass before them in an instant, except my instant entailed a list of events from my vehicle's youth that all seemed like directed preparation. I know some could think Do's statement was calculated to be a reverse psychology motivational talk, which given my response seemed like I was also suspicious of, though not directed at Do. As time would soon tell we had to drum up our own motivation though they helped us learn how to do that. In fact that's what the Hindu and Buddhists call mantra's and chants, while the Jews, Christians and Muslims call prayer and psalms that have all become rote for many whether they know it or not.

Thus when it says these Seven “prepare themselves to sound,” I would change it to “prepare them to sound” where sounding is kin to “singing their song” and “playing their instruments (harps)” where their instrument is the vehicle they are matched up with to take over and overcome in service to their Older Members for their own “Soul (Spirit) births.”

This preparation can include working with specific families of humans who exhibit the characteristics that would be a “match” as Ti and Do called the objective, so each returning Soul will “match” the vehicle's human characteristics they need to overcome. It's tailoring a lesson plan to each student. For instance say one of Jesus disciples had a tendency to be hyper critical of others. Jesus indicated some had this to overcome when he said, some had a tendency to “swing at a gnat and swallow a camel” or to make their offering to the Lord when they had mis-behavior with a brother they needed to own before making their offering, or are “angry with their brother without cause,” etc. Even though that disciple with this challenge would have other strengths, he would have to overcome this weakness before he could graduate into “heaven” so the Next Level would be sure to help him pick the vehicle he was going to try to take over “incarnate into” that would face him with the same challenges.

As these would all be, to some degree seekers, one can see that the planning could get quite involved as it might require the study of individuals who are not yet migrated to the location where the Older Members would be coming public - the United States.

Regardless of whether the Seven Angels are also part of the crew who are about to incarnate and graduate, it doesn't seem they would be “preparing themselves” exclusively because their entire task is in the announcement of the “gathering” of returnees to include the just and the unjust, the graduates of the 2nd trimester and the Luciferians who are to serve as their adversaries, they build strength against. Announcing the meet-up is a significant task and probably includes a crew they are serving as a task primary on as these “trumpet soundings” all occur before and after their incarnation, if these were part of the incarnate crew. Even the Seventh occurs after those who come incarnate have laid down their vehicles lives (“fell on their faces” in Rev 11:16).

Ti and Do did say those returning would be picking their next vehicles to take, but would have help to do so. One can imagine that the “sounding,” however it translates to human recipients would have an observable preparatory affect. When new information is made available that brings more realism to what has been largely shrouded in mystery, those humans that gravitate to it, as Ti and Do indicated would light up a light on the board for the assigned not incarnate crew to handle. Some of those may be the ones who have their offspring monitored closely to then “tag” those new born humans for a later incarnation - taking over that vehicle.

However preparing those who are coming might be accompanied by some equivalent of blowing a literal horn as some humans today expect to hear. There is some history to people hearing loud booming sounds that sound like they come from the sky, though are not like sonic booms. Take the various depictions of people hearing sound from the heavens we saw in the movie, “Close Encounters of the Third Kind.” Reports of this kind have occurred in places in the world where it was before fracing or underground construction that today in the United States and abroad can certainly be responsible for various sounds we can't pinpoint the origin of easily.

But whatever the Next Level does always leaves the door open to explain it as something other than being a fulfillment of prophecy or as delivered by living intelligent beings we simply can't see. It allows for the clear separation of those they prepared and have taken to the closer to reality understanding of what the Kingdom of God/Heaven really is.

Incidentally, Ti and Do did bring into our camp a shofar at one time but we never really used it. A few students learned how to blow it. I don't think we used the shofar much. But speaking to the role of an instrument of sound in the call to meeting, Ti and Do did provide us with a bell we sounded. In the early 1990's Do had us ring a bell at the start of each of the “Beyond Human, the Last Call” video tape sessions.

However, around that time Do also brought in several new bible versions to include, Dakes, the Companion Bible, a Parallel of four versions, Youngs, the Amplified, a Revised Standard were among them along with a Strong's Concordance. That was also when Srrody started to learn Hebrew and some did some study of the Jewish feast days, mostly surrounding Rosh Hashana which happens to be the “Feast of Trumpets” that begins the Jewish new year and 10 days of repentance to follow and ended with the day of Atonement. Anyone could have tried to study Hebrew. None of the bible materials had any assigned readings, though Do did suggest to a few to examine certain things. For instance I was given a task to examine potential references to reincarnation in the Bible records.

This was also the time when we started watching many evangelists on their various satellite television ministries. Lggody, as the primary and Swyody as a secondary were assigned the project of building two portable stands for our two 8-10 foot wide satellite dishes. Lggody did the entire design. As a secondary my task was to use my “feeler” (sense of what Ti and Do might say and do about any step we would take) to be his check partner. When we began to fast in the Arizona desert just west of Phoenix in 1990-1 we ran these two dishes off a generator. We were back to living outdoors for a while and had another tent city. Having sold in estate sales all our furnishings for three large houses Do outfitted us with tents that were called “leisure ports” and they all zipped together. Do had us try different configurations. At one point we had two long corridors side by side with a connection in the middle so there were hallways with each two person tent along the corridor's length. We had had a similar setup in the late 1970's but this time more upscale. We had a couple large trailers, one of which was a fifth wheel type and both sides opened out to form a meeting room.

We were fasting on water only and we still had things left over from the estate sales some paintings and furniture to sell. We had our own Uhaul type truck so we would take it to Phoenix to sell at a big swap meet. I remember how slow we all moved around, though worked all day, loading and unloading the truck, working the swap meet. I remember the effort to climb into an upper bunk in one of the trailers where I curled up and thought...this might be it. Perhaps we might fast until we expire. Do's reasoning for the fast if I recall accurately, in part was in case the Next Level took us with our vehicles, we might want to have cleaned ourselves out some. When Do called off the fast after 13 days, we learned how not to break a fast.

We were near Yuma, Arizona and they have a huge crop of delicious tangerines. With all the impossible to digest bulk of a tangerine we were all quite stopped up and were trying every form of laxative to kick start our digestive/elimination systems. Some could look at this as another of the many so called “mistakes” Ti and Do made. But I see it as Do following his instruction from Ti who was by that time outside a human vehicle. And by his being willing to follow instructions by deciding how to break the fast, that he and helpers Innody and Lvbody studied for the way to break the fast, knowing how thorough Do was about everything, I believe Ti wanted to put us through that test. At this late stage in the classroom if anyone was finding fault with Do, it meant they hadn't conquered their doubts yet. A couple did leave after that and both ended up thinking the same thing, that Ti and Do were well intentioned but were misguided and especially felt that way after their exit.

Some of the criticism against Do being the fulfillment of the Jesus return is that the group wasn't giving to charity or helping the sick and poor and that is mostly true to which all I can refer to is that Jesus also demonstrated his priorities in that regard when he was criticized by a student because one of the students in a female vehicle was applying expensive oil to Jesus head, which they saw as wasting it, saying it could be sold to give to the poor instead. But the act was an anointing that was given by Jehovah through Moses to do to Aaron, who had the assigned task of primary high priest with his four sons as secondaries on the task. Jesus responded to the criticism saying, “the poor you have with you always” and that it was being done towards his nearing burial. When I see that story, it reminds me some of a degree of that same attitude that I had towards Ti and Do.

By the way, in the early 1990's some students who were doing a supply run, what we called going shopping for fuel (food) became aware of a family (mom, dad and kids) who were down on their luck and found themselves homeless, with no transportation or job, etc. Do had us give them a car and at that time we didn't have junkers. I don't recall what car was given away. For the record at one point we had a fleet consisting of a fairly new Cadillac that used to be Ti and Do's car. It was white so we called it “white horse.” And if it went into the shop Ti and Do would say it was in the “horse-pistol.” We had a nice Chevy conversion van, a big black pickup truck with a crew cab, we called, yes... “black horse” (having no knowledge of the black horse in Revelations unless someone happened to read that on their own), a Lincoln Continental, a Mazda van when they first came out, a Toyota Van and a few economy cars that “out of craft taskers” took to their 9-5pm office jobs everyday that entailed a lengthy commute at times.

While I had an out-of-craft task as a pastry chef in what was called the Bradford Hotel downtown Austin on Congress street. It was across the street from the Discolor, the hotel I was told where the U.S. President would stay when he was in Austin. When I started the Pastry making department having been hired as a dinner cook, but noting they had a full bakery but were using all frozen deserts, I suggested to the Chef I could use experience I gained to start our own pastries. He agreed and gave me a budget and I hired Jwnody to be my assistant. She would always want to bring samples of what we made back for Ti and Do who lived in the same craft with about half the students then. I would think there was no procedure to do that and it seemed to me to be human to be offering food to Ti and Do. But as Ti and Do taught sometimes you “take a chance on a positive” and respecting Jwnody I agreed. Ti and Do liked the gifts and joked that we might try a little harder to bring them back looking a little better as at times they got a little crushed. There were a number of examples like this and each time it seemed it was the 4-5 students in female vehicles that more naturally showed their love for both Ti and Do in ways I considered to be human and not procedure. Several times they bought flowers for Do. The more you love your Older Members the more you just naturally want to do things for the Older Member to include for the physical vehicle they occupy as that is the interface and their vehicle has also become of one mind with that Older Member's Mind. So Jwnody was an example of how a bride would act towards their bridegroom following the way that was depicted in the records.

Some evidence that these Seven Angels are preparing others is in the fact that this was the high priests job in the Moses camp to REPRESENT THE STUDENT BODY TO THE LORD. In Rev 8:4 it states his offering comes with the “prayers of the saints” distinguishing to whose benefit this is all happening for. Thus I believe these Seven are preparing these Saints as described by helping to prepare the genetic strain that will produce the vehicles they will incarnate into to overcome to graduate their human kingdom.

A BIBLICAL OVERVIEW OF THE SEVEN TRUMPET SOUNDINGS:

Each trumpet sounding according to Jehovah/Moses is a call for “repentance” which means a call to “change one's mind” which is what everyone must do to keep up, as more and more (holy) Mind/Spirit from the Next Level is provided to the human civilization. Each human, as they become aware of more of the Next Level's reality begins to fluff off the old ways of thinking which results in a stronger grasp on what is most real and thus true. The more we engage that thinking the greater our desire to also make our vehicles behave as the Older Members teach and demonstrate. On the other hand the more we distance ourselves from our Older Member's updated thinking, the less we see of the reality of the Next Level in the new information and terminologies provided by the Older Members and the less our behaviors follow suit. The “feast of trumpets” aka Rosh Hashana includes ten days of this repentance time period that ends at the “Day of Atonement,” the Final Judgment aka Yom Kippur that is also the official start of the new year when all are considered to have a clean slate (if they repented of all their less than “hitting the mark they were shooting for” according to the instructions they were given by the Next Level).

TIME LINE OF THE SEVEN ANGELS WITH TRUMPETS SOUNDING

With this said, I believe at this time that the 10 day long Feast of Trumpets can be seen as 100 years. It may not be a coincidence that according to Jewish word of mouth passed down in the Talmud, during these 10 days, 100 notes would be sounded. That would be 10 for each day of the feast time and I believe that can easily be translated in various ways as 100 years but seems to work best overall by starting in 1907 with 60 years (threescore in Daniel's prophecy) of preparation for the Two Witnesses, then from 1967 to 2007, the HOUR (Next Level Time = 40 years human time) in which The Two Witnesses come public and the new Babylonian Empire (The United States of America) gradually falls from it's previous good graces in world standing, starting with the war in Vietnam, Laos and Cambodia, that was a deceit to get into and a disaster for all (not that WWI and WWII were not equally so, but at least the U.S. wasn't the primary aggressor in those two wars).

Note how this new Babylonian like Empire - USA, for deceitful reasons topples the old Babylonian area, now largely referred to as Iraq, using as an excuse the mysteriously constructed New York City (new city of Babylon- Rev 17) World Trade Center and Pentagon attacks of September 11, 2001, via the coup d'etat securing of the presidency to fulfill the Revelations chapter 6 Red/Ruddy (Republican) "Horse" embodied by G.W. Bush who is admittedly a Skull and Bones Mason, then presiding over ENDLESS GLOBAL WAR (WWIII) as prophesied. This was the first of two Falls prophesied in Revelations chapter 14, while the curious NYC based Wall Street led global wide financial crisis of 2007-8 that was YOKED upon the Revelations chapter 6 Black/Blue (Democrat) "Horse," Barack Obama who presided over a seeming recovery from the endless global financial crisis as the second fall.

The Prophet Daniel's Two Sevens, I believe refer to affirmation periods when humans are sealed by their allegiance to the BEAST (The largely Secret Human Government and constituents that came about "out of," because of the way the Luciferian Space Alien Souls and hybridized human equivalent vehicles with primitive spacecraft (UFOs), described in Revelations chapter 12 as the Dragon and his angels, were let loose from their "bottomless pit" underground, under the sea prison cells.

These two SEVENS have overlap but are joined to the Seven Seal periods, before and during the Two Witnesses time, which is longer than their prophecy period and extends for 40 years (one hour), as the Seven Angels with Trumpets Sounding that is summed up as the opening of the first of Seven Seals with the 7th Trumpet sounding in 2007-8 (National Geographics Channel Final Report: Heaven's Gate in which it is suggested that Ti and Do were the Second Coming of Jesus and the 3rd Woe in 2013-4 with the Chelyabinsk Meteor strike, many Fireballs over the U.S. West and a Near Miss Asteroid and Comet Pan Starr, pictured with a companion object in it's front coma followed by more Fireballs along the Eastern seaboard U.S. Timed to the First of the year to the March solstice when Do and Crew exited their incarnate presence.

Then begins the Tribulation period and the Winepress and Wrath of God and Recycling Second Harvest Period that includes the remaining 6 seals that includes the Second SEVEN as the Seven Angels who pour out their Vials aka Plagues that have a double affect on the U.S. Territory and the E.U. Centered on Rome.

Each of these Seven Soundings are evidenced in the human kingdom by all advances and degradations that are apparent in a most accelerated fashion from what they were up until then. The developments in science and the arts, in the provision of information, entertainment, quests for power and all the social equal rights movements all are evidence of the literal closeness of the Two Older Members from the Level Above Human and their Crew and Student Body, the only real “church” (body of believers). Had the Next Level not come close and then let the space aliens out of their underground hiding places, so they could try to push their need for technological developments, humans would have remained in the same general mental and physical state as the couple thousand years before. The Next Level is never totally absent from their Garden but proportionately can only evolve at a snails pace without the increased acceleration put on by the arrival of the Older Members and Crew and especially true in the 1940's and 1950's when they literally came with their physical bodies to drop them and provide proof of their existence that released their Soul Bodies to find the human bodies they prepared to take over for their harvest tasks. Therefore I am not going to try to construct all the pointers to Next Level increased presence as they become a part of every aspect of society, even to the degree of unbridled hedonism all a part of the free will Garden like Earth school that provides the opportunity for those that seek to be students to graduate out of the human kingdom.

III.C.1. FIRST TRUMPET - 1900's - 1910's - REV 8:7 EVENTS THAT FOLLOW IMMEDIATELY AS PREPARATION LEADING UP TO THE FIRST AND LAST “WINEPRESS” FRUIT HARVEST WAVES & FINAL JUDGMENT HOUR SHOWN IN REV 16:2 CALAMITIES AND TRIBULATION (TRIAL BY FIRE (HEAT IN ALL WAYS))

Rev 8:7 (The) first ((4413 protos= foremost, beginning (Alpha), best, chief)) angel ((messenger)) sounded ((4537 salpizo= a vibration and billowing wave, (as from a trumpet))) and ((2532 kai= also, even, so then, too, both)) (there) followed ((1096 ginomai= to cause to be “gen”-erated, after, hereafter, to become, come into existence (to pass, to happen), arise)) hail ((5464 chalaza= “lowering down” of God's judgment(period) bridging the chasm/gulf between Kingdoms that includes calamities)) and fire ((4442 pur= lightning, passions in all sensual forms, love and/or anger)) mingled ((3396 mignumi= mixed)) (with) blood ((129 haima= bloodshed + as a figure the winepress of the Lord)), and (they were) cast ((906 ballo= to throw (violent or iiiiintensely, arise, pour, strike, thrust)) upon ((1519 eis= RESULTS, point reached, concerning)) (the) earth ((1093 ge= soil, occupants, region, land, globe)): and

(the) third (part) ((5154 tritos= third quarter of the earth)) (of) tree ((1186 dendron= most likely from drus= an oak tree [reference to the Israeli's as the "oaks of righteousness"])) (was) burnt ((2618 katakaio= light, set on fire, burn down)) up, and all ((3956 pas= all, any, every, the whole, all (manner of, means), alway(-s), any (one), every (one, way), as many as, X thoroughly, whatsoever, whole, whosoever)) green ((5515 chloros from 5514 chloe= green, pale as in new shoots)) grass ((5528 chortos= court, garden, blade, wheat, hay, human genetic strains that were not planted by the Next Level)) was burnt ((2618 katakaio= light, set on fire, burn down)) up.

Given the context following the Day of Atonement referenced casting down to Earth of the Golden CENSER by another Angel who comes ahead of these Seven, the HAIL is not only hail stones, as in ice balls, but as in the Greek, chalaza's main provided translation, "a lowering" of God's judgment. In the Moses camp a GOLDEN CENSER (the container that coals were put in from the burnt flesh offering that incense was added to and burned, that showed Jehovah (by the aroma) they were following instructions, as they probably didn't understand how that procedure and it's various symbolism would apply for the next trimesters toward their potential "spirit birth" - the overcoming of their human evolutionary level) was only used on the DAY OF ATONEMENT, aka Yom Kippur aka the the slate was cleared so everyone had a fresh start to show their allegiance to the Next Level, thus also a time period of/or "Day of Judgment" because it's the last TIME PERIOD anyone can change God's Judgment from their fated death (as all humans face) to one of a potential ETERNAL LIFE by atoning (repenting - changing one's mind) in the ways in which we have each MISSED THE MARK (sinned), in the year(s) before, set for us by ALL the teachings of the last incarnate Representative (Jesus), (since this is happening before the Two Witnesses come incarnate).

This SOUNDING is an announcement, the FIRST of SEVEN calls for the HOLY ASSEMBLY (holy convocation) of the returning Older Members (Father and Jesus) with their Crew - the Four Living Beings and the Four and Twenty Elders and however many younger student souls and even first time believers who graduated their relative grades in school during and since the previous incarnate time period. These Seven Soundings, the Next Level information they provide to the ethers around earth, can be drawn in by those who reach/seek their creators (heavenly Father's) holy Mind/Spirit) which becomes the basis of the Judgment Time/Period “Day” described as the Seven Seals (Opening of the book's mysteries through the revealing of the Seven Thunders (Roars) from the Lion of the tribe of Judah, who was last incarnate as Jesus but is in a new human vehicle upon return who becomes evident to some later on, in the new name Jesus said he would have upon his kingdom's return (and thus a new vehicle (body)) named Do. Incidentally, for the two most important feasts in the Jehovah/Moses classroom, the Day of Atonement and Passover, the first animal that was sacrificed was a bullock (beef, cattle), and Do's vehicle was born on May 17, 1931 under the astronomical sign of Taurus the Bull.

As in all seven of the offering assemblies (aka feasts or festivals) Jehovah/Moses gave to the children of Israel, there was to be a SACRIFICE BY “FIRE AND BLOODSHED” as depicted in this verse. For the Day of Atonement, a bull was sacrificed and some of the bulls blood was sprinkled seven times “before the Lord.” The altar was in close proximity to the tent that was designed as Jehovah's abode when He was in the camp. Inside the tent there was a veil creating a separate chamber called the Holy of Holys. This tent was also called the “Tent of Meeting” because it is where Jehovah would at times descend hidden in a cloud to physically abide to talk to Moses “face to face” (though not literally looking at one another's face because Jehovah told Moses when he asked to see Him that he would die if he looked upon His face. Jehovah then said Moses could touch his shoulder/side which he did, proving that Jehovah had physicality).

Thus this verse is telling that these assembly events were to come and the ALTAR would be the location on the Earth where the Next Level prepared for the Crew's arrival - what Ti and Do felt was primarily the Southwest of the USA for most of their physical presence - west of the Mississippi river, though extended through secondarily throughout North America and English speaking countries such as England, Ireland, Scotland, Australia and New Zealand but not ruling anyplace on earth out where someone might hear about Ti and Do and feel like their call was for them to seek out more information about that has been facilitated by the internet.

Ti and Do spoke about the timing and lesson plan part of this overall experiment as the Third Trimester stage of development of Souls which would be when a group graduated to receive adult Next Level bodies. Some in that group would still have to return to complete their overcoming of humanness lessons. As said in the Rev 14 section the remainder aka remnant who elect to take the plunge of giving their life into Ti and Do's hands by entering into their service, depending on them could fit into a first, second or third Trimester lesson plan to where the trimester was during the Father/Jesus classroom, while for some that never hear about Ti and Do but show the Next Level in whatever their terminology that they want to be in their service would be essentially starting the roster for a future first trimester classroom participation. Thus going forward anyone who gives their all now could lose their life in that service which is described as the "winepress" during the tribulation period that seems to have begun as of the last blood moon in September of 2015 (end of the previous "hour" = 40 year period) but increases precipitously into 2017 and beyond.

Luciferians instigated many twists of what Jesus said, by making thinking and talking about being "born again" into a club membership requirement because someone said they were born again by accepting Jesus as their personal savior, repenting of one's sins and letting Jesus blood wash away one's sins in what is called "grace" that Paul is most responsible for teaching, which was the Luciferian trick, but which we can see through if we allow ourselves to do so.

It's understandable for many to feel they have been "born again" by changing their ways as doing so can be a stage of awakening that in a sense can feel like a rebirth, but that's not what Jesus was specifically speaking to except it how it's all a continual process. Of course the entire idea of going to Heaven became the expected result of abiding by a minimum of commandments. The fact that heaven needed to be earned by pleasing the latest incarnate Older Member by abiding by all they give when incarnate, that updates, yet adds to previous lesson plans, for instance, as provided by Moses. The fact that work is required was also twisted into an abhorrence of the thought, because some Christian leaders say that would be like insulting Jesus who they say "died for us," an entire stream of lies and deceit that many have become programmed to believe as it's so very intoxicating to one's ego and sense of importance to consider self connected to the creators by belief alone. Belief actually included in it's definition, trusting our Heaven's Father which included abiding by what was given and working for the Kingdom of God/Heaven by doing what they gave us to do, not coming up with our own interpretations. Today many have been twisted all around so that they don't really have a relationship with their Heavenly Father. They have replaced him with the Bible, the word that to them is the way, missing the very important step of seeking the will of our Heavenly Father with our mind - asking for his will for us as often as we choose to and then paying attention to the signs of his answers. It's not that the "words" spoken by the Representatives sent by our Heavenly Father are not important. They are integral but without cultivating a real sense of connection with "our Father who is in Heaven" the words can easily be misunderstood as we see throughout all the religions pertaining to whatever they determine are their scriptures.

The seven feasts with all their characteristic representations were designed to begin to acquaint these people with the eventual requirement of their willing sacrifice of their own human vehicle that they grow to recognize as not their essential being but are given to incarnate into (take over) to overcome. In other words, Members of the Next Level, to include those coming through that birth canal to membership grow into not identifying themselves as the physical vehicle. They identify themselves as the Mind aka Spirit, like the pilot of that vehicle thus to sacrifice it, since it will not be their end is simply taking it off like a suit of clothing, hence the analogy used of the vehicle being a garment throughout the records. This awareness is started in an elementary way by demonstrating the authority and superiority of the teachers and through exercises that provide a mechanism of cooperation with the program - Ti and Do simply listed in the list they called "the seventeen steps" as "following instructions," which is actually exactly what Adam and Eve failed to do that began the experiment phase to help their offspring learn the value of doing so.

Thus, at that time of the First Trimester classroom and no longer applicable today, the sacrifice of something living (that is NOT another human) is equivalent to coming into recognition that in certain circumstances killing our carnal (animal) nature is part of the design, yet not treating that life with disrespect as to when, where, how, why and who but doing so in accordance with the stepwise instructions given us to follow instead of trusting our human judgment of rightness in so doing. I know there are many who consider themselves spiritual who abhor the killing of animals for food or for any other usage by humans and they consider that part of their spiritual evolution. Though these are showing compassion for the suffering of animals, it can also be yet another of the myriad of traps to keep us from seeing what's most real about our existence and ultimate purpose we can choose to grow into. Plants are also living breathing creatures. There is no question that all humans need to kill something to live. Even the alleged breatharians if any really exist have to get their nourishment from somewhere. Killing anything unnecessarily, I believe Ti and Do might say is the greater lack of compassion.

Ti and Do taught us not to use anything to excess. it's just a Next Level way. A tiny, tiny example would be how some would put a huge amount of toothpaste on the brush, along the lines of what the advertisements showed. Ti and Do were always managing our needs and excesses so made it a procedure to use just a tiny bit. I forget exactly how much, perhaps no more than covering 1/4 of the brush. There was no way to know if someone was doing that or not since bath-chamber use was private and doors were closed. Ti and Do told us that in the Next Level, there is no ownership of anything. When someone has a task and requires certain tools and/or materials, they go to where there is storage of such things and they are provide what they will need. Then it will be up to the crew to use those tools and materials in such a way to make them last for the task at hand. One doesn't just sign out something and assume they can waste some of it, thinking there is plenty more on hand. It's just a way of Next Level members to have that kind of conscientiousness about everything they do.

One time in the end of the winter of 1978 we moved our camp to the mountains south of Provo, Utah. We got there a day before it snowed around a foot in the National forest there. To set up we had to find spots for about 25 two person 9' x 9' tents, the kind that you could stand up in the middle of. Do went one by one to help determine where to set up each tent. He had several considerations. One was to make it not look like as big of a group as it was so he spread us out a bit and tried to be behind trees as much as possible. He didn't know how long we'd need to be there so didn't want to attract attention and get kicked out as there were rules on how long you could camp. He was very particular to not cut any branches that didn't need to be cut. I know as I was following his lead for each cut and when I made a cut or two that he didn't think was needed, I somehow knew I made a mistake though can't recall he actually said anything or gave me any kind of disapproving look or made any grunting noises. He and Ti always tried to leave every area we set up camp in as good or better than how we found it.

In our current society in most places in the world, killing someone is punishable by killing them as long as it's proved to be justified by the authoritative governing body, the state, King, Chief, etc., and in this case the Elohim (supreme judges aka Members of the Kingdom of God, Kingdom of Heaven). Of course in many even most situations today, the system is significantly flawed and the state doesn't have anyone they really answer to so are more or less free to wage wars of aggression even against the majority of the people's will often justified deceitfully. Also, those who still maintain what were lesson steps for relative toddler students in the Moses camp don't keep up with the new lesson steps as demonstrated by the Jesus experiential classroom as He further demonstrated our needed recognition that we are not our human vehicles, thus to be willing to sacrifice it by subjecting ourselves to a violent death by the hands of our enemy becomes our ticket through the Heaven's Gate, providing it's for the gate keeper whom we have come to trust and have faith in, by our accumulating repeated experience as a student in his classrooms over thousands of human years time. This is why He, our current Older Member who was last incarnate becomes the current gate keeper with the KEY that opens the gate by abiding by his instructions for entry. It's not just abiding though, as someone can follow all the commandments, instructions, procedures and ways and yet not literally "please" our Older Member which is the difference between an intellectual follower and one that also follows by giving all their heart, which is why it's also compared to becoming worthy to be His "bride."

Because Members of the Next Level don't relate to their physical body as who they are, knowing they could lose it and it wouldn't change who they know themselves to be, when they come incarnate with that reality in mind they hold this recognition. It's still hard to give one's body to be misused as was seen by Jesus example when he received the instruction to lay his body down and then struggled with doing so. It was recorded that he wept blood and asked his Father if that part of the task could be changed. He was coming to terms with what he knew he must fulfill and knew he came to Earth to do.

Overcoming our humanness and bonding to our Older Member starts by believing in all they say and recognizing they are from the kingdom that created all the life forms and universe and taking a stand for them and maintaining that stand until the exit of their vehicle however that might happen. That is the process of “giving one's life” and it is understood that it will eventually include giving one's physical body up as well, which can happen to some by the hand of someone else who sees us as an enemy to get rid of. All they are doing, if that should happen is accelerating our completion of that grade in school as we will not be dead. Also giving one's life entails separating from one's roots to the human kingdom. All this amounts to one's voluntary blood shed, even if the Older Member decides we have the right to lay down our lives. If it's done purely for them after screaming to them to know it is right for you then that's still within the ways of which we show the Next Level we want to be putty in their hands. Everyone is not ready to give their all in the same ways at the same time and there is no competition and it's not a race to die. Dying without having made a significant connection with our Older Members is a waste and that's personal one person to the next and not the business of anyone else to know about. Using death to escape difficult lessons is not of value to anyone. A difficult lesson could be the loss of a business or prestige or family or wealth or someones life that is precious to us which are all lessons to rise above rather than seek to escape by ending one's life. That is why the Next Level is against suicide, yet it's not a crime to do so, that is unless you wound or kill someone else by your suicide. That is against the Law of God, just like it would be against the Law of God to then kill the killer.

OVERVIEW OF THE SEVEN ANGEL'S SOUNDING TIMELINE AND EVENTS AND WHAT SEEMS TO BE MEANT BY WHAT “FOLLOWS”:

Having said these events would FOLLOW, likely also translated what is “to be generated,” the first angels trumpet sounding, indicated by the “and” that is in the manuscript coming after “sounded” and considering making a point to state what was to follow is grammatically in the active voice so is an action of sounding caused by the one causing the action, the “angel” (messenger/crew member), assuming the Next Level would not make a point to state the obvious as something naturally following and given the Next Level's time frame of a day in Next Level time frame equaling about a 1000 years earth human time frame, along with another big consideration, as I believe this is describing what is to come to immediately FOLLOW in a preparatory way up until the FIRST HARVEST WAVE and then in a conclusionary way in the LAST stage of the two harvest return, thus after the

Two Witnesses and first fruit graduation classroom has exited their incarnations.

Furthermore, it would make sense with the Next Level way, in this case not indicating what would and would not follow that all of what is said follows to have application at both stages as opposed to limiting it's application to just the time frame this verse is pointing to in the order of the seven angels with trumpets. In other words the placement is not an accident in the “first angel sounding.” I don't say that without further strong indications that will be shown throughout the remaining 6 angel's soundings. But the hint to what I refer is shown by the verses in Rev 16 of the seven angels who pour out their vials, each of which showing direct similarities of terms and ideas with these seven angels doing the sounding, which is evidence that what was to follow would have a direct correlation with the relative seven angels pouring out their vials.

It is also clear that the angels with vials only take place in the time table of the LAST of the two HARVEST WAVES. This is evident in Rev 16:2 that says the “plague/calamity” described by the FIRST ANGEL WITH VIAL POURING will only befall humans “which had the mark of the beast and upon them which worshiped (served) his IMAGE (false idols in all their forms but with an emphasis to aligning with the “ye are gods,” “god within us all,” thus all are god SPIRITUAL ILLUSION of the Next Level, the facsimile created by the Luciferian Space aliens, even in the form of a Hologram like Fatima). That JUDGMENT CRITERIA can only take place after the truth from the Two Witnesses has been told, the primary revealing of Ti and Do as the content of the “book” as described in Rev 5:1 and opened to start in Rev 6:2 associated with the FIRST THUNDER (ROAR) from the Lion of Juda (the one who served as the Lamb) in his new incarnation as the male vehicle part of the Two Witnesses task with the other being the one who was his “Father in Heaven” and with him as Jehovah when he served incarnate through the vehicle named Moses. And the first primary revealing of the book continued during the following 6 thunders/roars as described to occur during the time of the 6th angel's trumpet sounding which was when the Two Witnesses (The Song from Rev 14=Ti and Do) come public to deliver their prophecy - what is defined as what is done via the human mouth and words, as opposed to from their “lightning in the sky” return stage many Christians misunderstand because they don't have the “Do” key because that return is the one which is “in his glory, brilliance” following these 7 angels pouring out their vials as shown in Rev 19 when he appears to have the Next Level vehicle that was “dipped in blood” 2000 years ago.

Therefore I will attempt to show how each of these 7 Angels Sounding of Trumpets are both marking the stages leading up to the FIRST HARVEST WAVE brought about by the Two Witnesses AND mark their correlation to the LAST HARVEST WAVE spoken of as the “Winepress” in Rev 14 where it follows the First fruit harvest.

III.C.a. THE THIRD PART, GEOGRAPHIC AREA FOR THE RETURN AND THE RETURN OF THE HUMAN “LEAVES” (GENETIC RETURN) AND SOULS/SPIRITS FOR THE THIRD TRIMESTER TIME OF GRADUATION AND JUDGMENT

Before examining each of what was first depicted in Rev 8:7, here is an interpretation of what is meant throughout these seven angels with trumpets by the usage of “third” or “third part,” (“part” was added by the King James and other translators).

The clearest account in the records to describe people or a place as divided in thirds indicates it's referencing THREE divisions of a geographic area, and also references a THIRD GROUP (PART) OF HUMANS BEING NURTURED in and through those locations and then there is a reference to TIMES OF THAT NURTURING shown in Zechariah 13 following these seven important prophecies of Jesus' incarnation fulfilled:

- 1) He is not beget by a human Father and Mother (Zec 13:3). (The virgin birth that Ti and Do felt was some type of artificial insemination to better prepare his vehicle to receive more of the truth that was to be a big update to what Moses had recorded.
- 2) Those who count themselves prophets will be confounded by what he says (Zec 13:4). (The Jewish leaders tried to throw him off a cliff, stone him. They felt cornered by his responses, said he had a devil inside him and feared the people who saw him as a prophet so wanted him dead to protect their own flock and position within the government.)
- 3) He will say he's not a prophet but will refer to himself as a husbandman or shepherd, someone assigned to rear and care for others (Zec 13:5).

- 4) He will receive wounds in his hands.
- 5) He will be given these wounds via the house of his friends (Zec 13:6), (His own disciple, Judas Iscariot identified him for the Jewish Sanhedrin).
- 6) His enemies “smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered” as Jesus quoted in Mat 26:31 to result in the Lord turning his hand on his little ones (Zec 13:7). (The Lord turns his hand on his own to strengthen them just like the Lord allows them to kill Jesus all for the sake of those souls who would continue in their process of overcoming their humanness which is accomplished through conquering identifying only with the vehicle since it is the Soul seed implanted in a human vehicle that grows to become a member of the Next Level. The human vehicle is needed as the footstool, stepping stone but when each has shown the Next Level they have embraced the lesson plan then the Next Level allows them to be killed so they can exit that vehicle and be given a new student model physical vehicle as their reward they will have to give up so they can earn a new adult model Next Level vehicle.

The prophecy then references the division of the Twelve Tribes of Israel into three parts, two of which will be cut off thereafter. It's interesting that Moses recorded that there were initially 603,550 (plus the tribe of Levites that served as priests) men in their exodus from Egypt. Over the next 40 years there were thousands that perished by defying Moses and Jehovah so that Jehovah slayed them. Thus one third as 200,000 minus thousands slain may in fact bring the total of those the Next Level was planning to work with close to that “100 and 40 and 4 and a myriad of thousands number:

Zec 13:8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land ((776 'erets from an unused root probably meaning to be firm; the earth (at large, or a land, common, country, earth, field, ground, land, X nation, way, + wilderness, world))), saith the LORD, two parts therein shall be cut off ((3772 karath= cut down, destroy, fail, hewn (down), perish)) and die ((1478 gava'= to breathe out, perish)); but the third shall be left ((3498 yathar= exceed, remain, cause to abound, preserve, make plenteous)) therein.

So the timing noted here is what SHALL COME TO PASS - thus AFTER the Lords hand is turned on his “little ones.” Turning on his little ones means beginning to put them to a trial by fire as will be described more to come. For Jesus disciples this amounted to being willing and not trying to prevent themselves from being in the position to “lay down their lives” because of their being of service to what Jesus taught - accepting that they would be hated as Jesus was because of their saying the same things he said, thus were voluntarily choosing to die in his service. Jesus taught this giving their literal lives was necessary to prove to the Next Level that they had taken in enough of Jesus Mind (Holy Spirit) so they trusted they were not going to perish by losing their human vehicle.

All of Jesus' disciples were not necessarily far enough along in their graft to Jesus' family vine so they were offered proof of his Next Level origin when Jesus stayed around using his converted, changed over, repaired dead vehicle for some 40 days, that he took with him into the cloud covered space craft, WHERE ACCORDING TO DO, WHO REMEMBERED THIS, HE MOVED INTO HIS FORMER NEXT LEVEL VEHICLE. Do had said he left his Next Level vehicle in a closet when he came incarnate this time, so perhaps he put that vehicle named Jesus in a closet to potentially use later upon his return as hinted at by referring to it as having been “dipped in blood” in Rev 19:11-13.

What will come to pass takes place in ALL THE LAND, further defined as OVER THE ENTIRE WORLD (all the land/earth and it's peoples), saying that TWO PARTS OF THE EARTH'S PEOPLE SHALL BE CUT OFF then, which corresponds to what Jesus said about the Kingdom of God being taken away from Jerusalem and that ethnic group (people) in that part of the world and would be given to another people that can yield fruit, while also saying he had another “fold” to be brought together with this fold later, which we can see now as being in the Americas that became the worlds “melting pot”:

Joh 10:16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

Mat 21:43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation ((people)) bringing forth the fruits thereof.

Mat 23:37 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!

Mat 23:38 Behold, your house ((3624 oikos= dwelling, household, family, home, temple)) is left ((863 aphimi= say aside, put or sent away, forsaken)) (unto) you desolate ((2048 eremos= lonesome, waste, desert, solitary, wilderness)).

Mat 23:39 For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

As a city is nothing without it's inhabitants, Jesus' speaking about Jerusalem was speaking to the former genetic strain from the twelve tribes of Israel saying he wasn't returning to them, nor their home city so they would be LEFT ALONE, LONESOME, PUT AWAY, as one does to a spouse that has broken their covenant to their chosen spouse, in this case, to Jehovah and himself as Jehovah's current Representative sent to them.

Thus the THIRD PART is a reference to the GROUP OF ISRAELITE (OVERCOMER) HUMAN VEHICLES and the SOULS he would be nurturing (Body's and Souls) so the Souls could have physical bodies that would be a match for their degree of active studentship to, during his return, “stand up” in (take over) in the new geography (New Great/Large City, as described in Rev 11 as the non-physical, symbolic Sodom and Egypt and where they exit from which was Jerusalem) to accomplish their “overcoming of the human world” as he demonstrated to them and said in Rev 2 all must do to have a “spirit birth,” which is their “third trimester” graduation, described as the First Fruit Harvest in Rev 14.

Mar 13:27 And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect ((selected)) from ((among)) the four winds ((quarters)), from ((out of, off, away from)) the uttermost part ((206 akron= extremity, top, one end)) of the earth to ((as far as)) the uttermost part ((extremity, top, one end)) of heaven.

Saying the SELECTED are coming from both THE EARTH via the genetic offspring from the experience of the human “leaves” on the human tree from among the four quarters shows the start of the melting pot in America that began in earnest in the 1800's but in terms of migrating Jews in the 1900's, actually no longer considering themselves Jews having mixed with gentiles over generations past, all of which Jesus speaks of as a “regeneration”:

Mat 19:28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration ((3824 paliggenesia= new birth, reproduction, renewal, recreation)) when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

The scattering of Jews since the 7th to 5th century BC is referred to as the Jewish Diaspora (exile) that saw a return to Palestine and then they were incorporated into the Roman Empire around 6 AD and experienced the second exile surrounding 70 AD that resulted with many fleeing in all directions. It is well understood that a large population of Jews who were escaping Stalin migrated to Germany and other European states. Finally, largely because of wars in Russia and Europe many migrated to the U.S. in the 19th and 20th century and by then these had a very high percentage of mixed marriages. In fact those in mixed marriages often escaped persecution in Germany and were allowed out of Germany just prior to World War II while many others also changed their names to better hide their Jewish origin as they were then refugees throughout Europe so make up the majority of American Jews that would give birth to those human vehicles returning souls would take for their third trimester in America.

Saying they are also coming from the extremities of the heavens speaks to the bringing back of souls for their resurrection, meaning to STAND UP AGAIN), as Jesus said to be, “born again of water,” where water is related to the way a human is born in a water sack that the returning Soul will try to take over, the meaning of incarnation (carne is Latin for flesh). Ti and Do said these returning student souls would be participating in picking their human vehicle that the Next Level puts a “tag” on at their birth to set it aside to be watched to become their vehicle to take through their chrysalis - Christing, that completes their overcoming of the human evolutionary condition.

It's interesting that one of the translation options for the Greek akron is “top” or “top end” which perhaps can refer to the north (top) of the earth - it's two northern quarters as both an origin as shown by Europe to Japan as the third quarter of the earth and as a destination in North America the fourth quarter of the earth. The same could apply to “heaven” referring to the top extremity of heaven as Do said that Next Level was drawing from all those who had any relationship to the Next Level (presumably as souls) even /from other planets, to come to earth to choose to enter the overcoming process with the incarnate Older Members. That area of the heavens might 75416+be considered to be the third heaven. All who were drawn to the earth vicinity by the Next Level who did not choose to enter the overcoming process would be among those we call the Luciferian space aliens because by not choosing to overcome their remaining humanness they were siding with Lucifer and his associates so became grounded to Earth. (I don't think this was spelled out. The Next Level has ways to inform everyone of their intentions while leaving them the choice. So their choice had ramifications. Perhaps they were drawn to Earth by their failing planets and the Next Level's opening up of a black hole or worm hole, what Ti and Do called a "freeway" in the heavens back in 1975 before we really knew about black/worm holes.

These returnees would include Souls who occupied human vehicles (referred to as "leaves" sometimes in the records), who were "saved" in a chamber or what Ti and Do referred to as a "box" and as Jesus indicated for even the last minute believer in him, the thief on the cross, in "paradise," aka Abraham's Bosom, which appears to be the first of the alleged three heavens. I say alleged because I don't recall Ti and Do talking about how many heavens there are but they did use the term to describe how the space aliens take some to their "heaven" which I would say would be some location in the first heaven where a particular space alien group abides that I imagine can be associated with the earth as inside a high mountain location like the Himalayas, Etna in Italy, Mt. Rainier where Kenneth Arnold a pilot first reported and coined the term "flying saucer" and/or Mt. Shasta in California which Ti and Do had an experience with some humans there trying to lure them to stay there and be their leaders. But there could be many locations I suppose on the earth where some might have a base as also alleged about under Antarctica or as Admiral Byrd claimed flying into in the North Pole vicinity. The Nazi party's SS were said to rituals and links to secret societies and facilities to construct flying saucers that never succeeded.

Considering Ti and Do said there were Three Trimesters to a "spirit birth" with the first occurring during and after the Moses experiential classroom, the second during the Jesus classroom and the third in their classroom it might very well be that any graduates from each of those classrooms are taken to corresponding "heavens." We have had indications from Ti and Do that the first heaven may actually be a very large spacecraft that humans can't see that has very large gates humans can pass through with their airplanes and spacecrafts, potentially being 1363 miles square (the size listed for the New Jerusalem John describes in Revelations 21 that may start near the surface of the earth as he describes seeing it when taken “in spirit” up to a high mountain where he sees it descending and describes it in detail.

Meanwhile those “leaves” that went against Jesus would also be migrating back to seal their own judgment, which is why Jesus said of their souls or spirits:

Joh 5:28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

Joh 5:29 And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection ((386 anastasis= stand up again, [The process of standing up (taking over a human vehicle prepared to be a match for a returning Soul or spirit), abiding by and providing service to the Next Level Older Members most recently incarnate])) of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection (a raising up, rising (e.g. from a seat), a rising from the dead, that of Christ, that of all men at the end of this present age. the resurrection of certain ones history who were restored to life (Heb. 11:35))) of damnation.

Resurrection here is speaking to all those who have their names written in the Lamb's Book of Life as described in Revelation chapter 20 but concluded with:

Rev 20:5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

NEXT ZACHARIAH'S PROPHECY DESCRIBES THE FUTURE IN HOW THIS THIRD OF THE POPULATION OF THE INITIAL TWELVE TRIBES ARE TO BE REFINED:

Zec 13:9 And I will bring ((935 bow= to come, abide, apply, attain, X be, call, carry, employ, fetch)) the third part through the fire ((784 'esh= burning, hot, flame)), and will refine ((6884 tsaraph= to fuse (metal), cast, refine, pure, purge away, try)) them as silver is refined, and will try ((prove, tempt, trial)) them as gold ((to shimmer, as oil, clear sky)) is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is my people: and they shall say, The LORD ((Jehovah= self existing, eternal)) is my God ((Elohim= Supreme God)).

Ti always compared the overcoming “Process” to “refining of gold,” or “making butter from cream,” requiring the fire/heat that separates out the impurities that render pure gold transparent, equivalent to the force applied to friction in churning the cream. The Older Members when incarnate or even just in the Earth's vicinity, having minds that are clear and focused and actually light, where enlightened comes from automatically like a magnet both draws to themselves all lessor frequencies while putting out their higher octave frequencies that literally forces a response from all humans in degrees and in ways dependent on what any one human vibrates on. The humans automatically act out more of who they are, what they believe, what they want, how they feel, what they think. If a human has become someone that has justified doing violent acts against others they may seek to act that out, thus could become a suicide bomber or someone that shoots up a university campus or a drone operator or bombardier with no qualms about bombing a house or city or doing other acts of war justifying having civilian collateral damage, or as a police officer that uses their power to subdue or kill those they consider not cooperating or acting criminally. All receive this energy and some learn to restrain themselves and not act out whatever they are prone to acting out and look to the Next Level in whatever terms for help and thus grow their mind a little stronger which is the purifying process.

TRIAL BY FIRE BRINGS ABOUT MIGRATIONS AND REFUGEES AND MAKES FOR THE BUILDING OF STRONG MINDS:

Fleeing from the literal fires brought about by warring often means leaving one's roots to one geographical location, lifestyle, comfort level and family structure as often some in the family can't imagine leaving and would rather die there or fight opposing forces to try to protect or salvage their homes, possessions and lifestyles, so families become split which is part of what begins to happen for those that graft to their new Next Level family. The Next Level doesn't seem to stimulate the direct causes for war except in how they set it up by allowing the Luciferian space aliens to remain on the planet where they know they will try to foster their agenda through humans that causes all sorts of disharmony. Considering that the Next Level is growing the garden for the purpose of providing Souls with membership in their physical kingdom the human bodies become the way those souls grow from getting into humanness and then for some getting out of the humanness they got into which begins to graft instead to the Next Level's family tree. Yes, the human vehicles will experience suffering, but even within the human kingdom humans know that hardship is the greatest builder of mental, emotional and even physical strength. So wars, pestilence and cataclysm (plagues) become the catalysts to not only build minds stronger to deal with but promotes a migration away from affected geographical areas. The Next Level are not terrestrial beings. Their abode is wherever they are. Jesus indicated this modus operandi by saying “the birds have nests and foxes have holes but the son of man...” (referring to how his vehicle was born from a woman, (though not seeded in fornication, but by some other means perhaps like a test tube fertilization on board a spacecraft, thus a virgin birth)) .”..has no place to lay his head.”

All human behaviors and ways need to be purged out of any prospective candidate for Next Level membership though it seems to take several experiences in the human kingdom to complete and absolutely requires the incarnate presence of an Older Member who has been through the same process, even many times past. That's why some feel ready to leave all behind when they hear the call, while others don't feel strong enough to do so and seek more time and help from the Next Level to gain that needed strength. Others still don't yet understand the details of how all will be required of them. Some are living by the laws the Next Level has given through their incarnate Older Members and looking to the Next Level to their capacity can be appropriate for their station towards Next Level adult membership. But all three types, to eventually graduate into the Next Level must overcome the human kingdom and please the incarnate Older Member they get a chance to be with. The Next Level will know how to feed each of us the lesson steps we will need. Trusting them is crucial to staying in their Family.

Here's some examples of how this is spoken about by John the Baptist who was certainly of the same Mind as Jesus who Jesus said was prophesied to come.

Luk 3:16 John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire:
Luk 3:17 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.

Mat 11:12 And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence ((971 biazio from bios 979; to force, i.e. (reflexively) to crowd oneself (into), or (passively) to be seized= press, suffer violence)), and the violent ((973 biastes from biazio 971; a forcer, i.e. (as a figure) energetic)) take it by force ((726 harpazo from a derivative of haireomai 138; to seize (in various applications)= catch (away, up), pluck, pull, take (by force))).

Luk 16:16 The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth ((971 biazio from bios 979; to force, i.e. (reflexively) to crowd oneself (into), or (passively) to be seized= press, suffer violence)).

Mal 3:1 Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the LORD, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.

Mal 3:2 But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap:

Mal 3:3 And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness.

Jesus talks about this as coming into the Kingdom of Heaven via violence against his own and how the Luciferians (devil) are used to accelerate one's entrance into the Kingdom, which is why when it's our time we can accept what the enemy will do to us as it will simply be our ticket through the Heaven's Gate to have our vehicle even killed by them, as they could even see their actions as being in the name of their false God or whatever their false idol is as we become a threat to their and/or those they count their family or nation's perceived security and safety in the human kingdom. In this way any dissident or dropout from society can fall into this category of those sought after to purge out of their human condition, which can serve them as the Next Level pays attention to anyone who is not finding their place in the human kingdom - a sign they are becoming ready to exit and become part of a Next Level overcoming program then or in the future.

To date this purging out those who have not given their allegiance to the “BEAST” - the U.S. and E.U. governments and those in bed with the government is being talked about by Donald Trump who wants to send all illegal immigrants back from where they came, wants to stop all immigration of those of a Muslim faith, and wants to require all Muslims to be registered reminiscent of what Hitler did to the Jews and dissidents and what FDR presided against for the Japanese Americans in 1942 following the attack on Pearl Harbor in 1941 and what happened to many liberals, called communists by Senator McCarthy. With each of these actions those who were sympathizers with the groups were also targeted. That seems to be coming up as the situation worsens in America with both gun violence and bigotry and terrorism as the U.S. continues it's endless global (red horse) policy.

When humans and space alien human equivalents bring death to others they are unknowingly assisting the Next Level by killing one another as in their wars and the famine and pestilence (plagues) they cause as shown in Ezekiel's prophecy that seems to apply to the Kingdom of Israel after the Moses classroom but before the end time, though it can certainly apply to any time after Older Members like Moses, Elijah, Jesus and Ti and Do have been incarnate:

Eze 5:12 A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee: and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and I will scatter a third part into all the winds, and I will draw out a sword after them.

For one, the Next Level crew can determine who they will specifically help so they will not be subject to pestilence. They, not being as rooted in their humanness would be more apt to flee even their family and environments when they see certain signs to get out while they still can instead of standing their ground to protect their possessions, home, lifestyle, families. They become refugees to escape repression and war (“draw out a sword after them”) as they don't seek to hold onto or make relationships that side with oppressors (depicted in Revelations as “the beast” - the human beings who are aligned with predatory rulers who are probably descendents from the Luciferian space alien fallen angels. They'd rather flee than compromise certain standards in relationship to the Kingdom of God, however they believe. They don't take the various “mark's” of allegiance to whatever government or leader represents the “beast.” Their fleeing becomes the “scattering” both of these Old Testament prophets illustrate. It seems these verses are referring to the end times as there was no other time in the current civilization on Earth that people were compelled to migrate into “all the winds” - referring to the four corners of the Earth. And we can see in history that the Jews did continuously flee oppressors and in so doing mixed their seed with other peoples. Then the two World Wars brought millions of Jews and people ethnically related to the original twelve tribes, often changing names to hide their heritage, to the North American shores, the last continent (mountain) corner of the Earth to be colonized that provided hope for a decent life with opportunity and more freedom from oppression. This viewpoint and meaning of the thirds is further borne out by chapter 5 of Ezekiel as well as through other prophet writings.

Thus THIRD PART in this verse refers to the GENETIC STRAIN who will be prepared for the returning classroom and is also the geographical location where they must be further “tried by fire.” In the third trimester trial by fire, the fire doesn't initially refer to war, nor pestilence nor famine but to the conflict inherent among one's vehicle's family when these leave all behind to join what is seen as a dangerous cult and they go on to restrain their desires for mammalian behaviors and ways as the passions of sensuality, whether through relationships with the vehicle's family, children, spouse, kindred, sexuality, anger issues and desires to be special, powerful or enlightened, etc. - boost of self, like an ego issue they need to overcome for the sake of the Next Level Kingdom in the heavens.

Here is yet another of the few verses that illustrate to what “third” refers, in this case in reference to heaven, thus Members, as students who became trees (fruit bearing) and/or adult Younger or Older Members in the Next Level:

Rev 12:4 And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

Heaven is both a location as all elevated areas above the earth, thus sky to deep outer space as the abode/dwelling of Members of the Next Level who are beyond the limitation to any one terrestrial body and refers to the Next Level spacecrafts large and small within and among any bodies that can be made to be undetectable, partially detectible or suspiciously detectible as in a cloud cover to both humans and/or to space aliens. Therefore Heaven also refers to the membership and in all these depictions can be right in front of human eyes and telescopes in obvious ways as being inside any object with a crew or laboratory all of which can be thought of as the first and second of three “heavens” with the third or highest heaven for this solar system being where Ti and Do said they were from, calling their abode, “headquarters.”

Since the Earth school they set up is designed in such a way as to provide upcoming new membership choices of what they wish to become which can run the gamut from siding with the Luciferians or to becoming an adult member of the Next Level, the Older Members are not going to know ahead of time who will pass or fail the final exam they are administering, so to say that exactly a third of those who had graduated to some degree of heaven, referred to as a star could not be applicable to those currently coming through the “birth canal” unless by “third” it is referring to a part of the student body. As with most all prophecy they have multiple applications. In this case that student body can seem to be referring to a time in a previous civilization, perhaps when those spoken of as the Luciferian space aliens were drawn as a part of their lesson step that included or resulted in their being “cast” to the earth, perhaps in much the same way some of Ti and Do and crew of student members chose to be subject to the Luciferian “tail” - mammalian influence (draw) to remain in the human kingdom that entailed being sent to violently strike the earth with their spacecrafts to sacrifice their existing vehicles knowing the Next Level will provide them with new vehicles when they have complete their mission of taking a human body prepared for them and overcoming it's humanness under the Older Members incarnate hands on direction.

Ti and Do said in the 1982 Blackhawk tapes that those in their classroom were being prepared to take the positions of those (Luciferians) who fell which could then account for where that number reference of “third” came from, as the Next Level would have known how many fell or it was a framework used before that worked for today or as said it was a reference to the part of the student body the Next Level selected to give deposits of their Mind (seed) to that had their genetic lineage representation as well.

Ti and Do also said the entire Adam and Eve experiment was to bring tests to anyone who had not yet graduated to receive an incorruptible adult Next Level body, to see if they could be trusted, the lesson step both Adam and Eve failed that began the experimental new growth cycle on Earth. This test was the latest effort of the Next Level to improve their experiment by not allowing the repeat of the Luciferian experience which as Ti said “raised the bar” of even getting to the stage of development the Luciferians had arrived at. In other words, one would not even get as close as Lucifer did to Adult membership in the Next Level unless they proved themselves completely trustworthy. (I only say this about raising the bar because of how Ti at one time said there would be changes in the Next Level if some of the reports she was hearing about of things happening on spacecrafts were manifest by Next Level members. However, this was before Ti and Do fully realized that there were space aliens. At first they thought that all the so called “UFO” sightings and reported events were generated by Next Level members. And that actually wasn't inaccurate to say as they later realized that the space aliens were all “souls” deposited at some time past which gave them that gift that set them apart from humans who did not receive that gift. If during their chance to be in the equivalent of an overcoming classroom they succeeded to a certain degree before becoming a dropout then they would be referred to as “sons of God” - merely meaning “children” being adopted by Next Level Older Members, though would have a long difficult task to grow into becoming a Next Level adult, which Ti and Do referred to as a “Younger Member” that at least on this garden had an intermediate step of first becoming an “active student” member. That degree of membership is what all those reading this still have the option to apply for.

Those who are called the “third” never received an incorruptible Next Level body. An incorruptible body is one that doesn't even have the capacity to think and/or act in human mammalian ways any more than an animal can act like a plant. The gap or as said in scripture, chasm is too wide to cross, though that was said relative to the gap between the human and Next Level evolutionary kingdoms. Lucifer and any and all who fell with him therefore had a “heavenly body in the making” which is one that I call a student model that is still corruptible and most of all perishable, verses the eternal capacity of Next Level, let's call them adult bodies. Do talks about this some on the video tapes that have been transcribed entitled, “Beyond Human - The Last Call - Session 3” that still can be found on YouTube.com. Do also said adultery was “not becoming an adult.”

Do on that tape referred to this Rev 12:4 verse as if that third was the number of those who fell with Lucifer but he said, “according to the record” which to me means he isn't sticking to that as a number pertaining to how many fell with Lucifer or one of Lucifer's supporters. I say this for those that will criticize my effort here as if I was trying to replace what Do said, by adding some additional ways of seeing it based on the whole body of information Ti and Do provided in concert with what has come to the fore while doing this research and prophecy interpretation task. I don't have a problem with the criticism but then again, Do never said that every part of the record was to be counted on as accurate to the words it has been translated to today. In fact he and Ti said from the beginning that the part of the record we could count on was what was actually quoting what Jesus said. They referred to the red letters in a red letter edition. However, that too can be taken in ways to an extreme as Ti and Do knew they were fulfilling the Two Witnesses task prophecy though it was said by John to have mostly come from a messenger sent to John who was acting on Jesus' behalf, but then again we don't know that Jesus wrote anything. Do also quoted Paul a tiny bit, so we shouldn't automatically discard everything besides Jesus words in the official New Testament versions. In the mid/late 1980's Do actually brought into our library the “Lost Books of the Bible,” “The Essene Christian Faith,” “The Nag Hammadi Library,” and other non-canonized materials. I think it's like what Jesus said about John the Baptist when his disciples said John was teaching the same things he was; to the affect of, “if he's not against us he's for us.”

Another reason this Rev 12 verse refers to “fallen angels” as those who are cast to earth by the dragons tail, is because “tail” is an expression used in the Old Testament that boils down to Luciferian drawing some who had become student level members of the Kingdom of God away from their commitment through enticing them with mammalian behaviors and ways that could be summarized to include, propagation - building or sustaining a human family root system, sensuality in all it's forms, as sexuality or anger and/or in the self aggrandizement and false sense of security and self worth by obtaining wealth and/or power that any student, even who has graduated to being considered a “star” must overcome to qualify for adult membership in the Next Level, when they would no longer be able to fall back into the human evolutionary kingdom. Thus any classroom set up to come incarnate on earth would be accepting the task of being “drawn” (lured) by the Luciferian tail because the Next Level wants to try/trial us by that “fire.”

-THE THIRD TREE (stripping out the added words “part” and “of”) IN Rev 8:7, refers to both that genetic strain being prepared to generate offspring, as said, whose ancestors were that third group of the original Children of Israel who upon migrating to America become the parents of those who become the host vehicles for the returning Souls to the America's in the timing of the Third Trimester and also refers to the parts of the world where that Tree was most nurtured which is described as their being “burnt up” in their TRIAL BY FIRE that history shows examples of to be listed alongside each of these “THIRD” related prophecies deciphered hereafter.

As Tree translates to “oak,” it's interesting the specific prophecies about oak trees which can also be translated to “mighty men (humans),” mighty because they were given Next Level seed and schooling, refers to that particular human genetic strain the Next Level initially planted. Oak trees have a special significance in Old Testament scripture. Jesus upon his awakening went into a temple and began to read:

Isa 61:1 The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

Isa 61:2 To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn;

Having read this aloud to the congregation in the temple Jesus sat down and said:

Luk 4:21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

This brought comments which Jesus responded to as they saw him as one of them, a carpenter, Joseph's son, making claims they could not fathom which he spoke to and as a result they tried to throw him off a cliff but they were not permitted. He walked right through their ranks away from the cliff. I'd guess he and/or with his Father's crew's help ran off all their discarnate influences, so they just stood there baffled.

Do said he wondered if Jesus might have considered that a mistake to say publicly then, as if the Next Level didn't help him out of that, his mission could have been jeopardized. He needed to prepare his students and that took time with them. Sure his Father could bail him out as He apparently did, but a Member of the Next Level on such a task can never take that for granted, as even for Jesus his task was a growth opportunity. Mistakes can be remedied as the Next Level always does. By the way, even if Jesus did think it a mistake doesn't mean it wasn't part of his task as the task means doing whatever we feel our Older Member is giving us to think, say and do. However, members of the Next Level are far from robots. They are like undercover operatives with a very real form of communication that they can trust but must put into affect in respect to the terrain, the apparent mindsets of the people to which his task was to communicate, as his Father provided. He was like a translator from Next Level Mind to the human mind. He could have even been led to do that so Do would have the opportunity to use it as a lesson to show how he also had lessons. In other words he could have been allowed to stumble for his sake and then that get's used for his students, making a positive out of it. The next verse goes on to say:

Isa 61:3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees ((0352 'ayil= ram (the animal), pillar, strong man, leader, mighty tree)) of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.

Additional verses confirm that this is primarily talking about certain human beings who were PLANTED by the Next Level as opposed to the “tares” that were planted by the “enemy” that Jesus spoke of. They would be considered to be “stronger” than other plants thus equating them to oak trees, one of the hardest woods, though strength alone is a detriment to Next Level lesson steps as strength is also quite significant when a plant/tree can bend when confronted with adversity from the spirit world (winds). Ti and Do taught that “flexibility” was an important characteristic of members of the Next Level though that's not going to be advantageous with all challenges. Say for instance you were an alcoholic and wanted to stay off the booze and some friends ask you to go to a bar and you think to yourself, maybe I can be flexible in this case and go with them. Well, for some who may have maintained their self control for a while it may not be challenging but if they are new to the self discipline it could undo their desired sobriety so better in that case to not be so flexible and stay home in the environment where you can set up to maintain the control you want to have.

Now these “trees” in the Greek used here refer to the oak variety and one can't help but recall that Jehovah through Moses called the Israelites a “stiff-necked ((07186 qasheh= hard, cruel, severe, obstinate, hard, difficult, stubborn)) people” and wanted to “burn them up” (consume them) to build a great nation, which I don't think applied to all as I suspect this was referring to a type of pruning - cutting back the weak to help provide more “nutrients” to the stronger among them. We must not forget that even if the Next Level wipes out many human vehicles, they still can choose to save certain of their spirits or souls so nothing is lost but vehicles. Now that never gives any humans license to treat human vehicles, their own or others as if they had the judgment of who should die. I know this is a big source of criticism of the early Israelites who did quite a bit of warring but that wasn't initially by Moses instigation, though given the times and the circumstances where he was trying to bring certain lessons steps to what amounted to “toddler” level souls/spirits using human vehicles, he had to be “flexible” and allowed them to become the instruments to clear the way for their new land as there were always tribes that didn't want to yield to them. If they were better students they would never have pushed to becoming the instruments of wars.

The Next Level even proved they didn't need or desire for the Israelites to do the warring when they drove certain human tribes out of their lands via pestilence and other environmental calamities. Remember all of this belongs to the Next Level just the same way a farmer has a plot of land they work and they decide what gets planted where and what plants are interfering with the growth of the plants they want to nourish. But in terms of the rules within the Moses camp, any that were killed were by Jehovah through the instructions given to Moses, if that one event really happened as reported, as there is no guarantee that part wasn't tampered with by the Luciferians after Moses was gone. Of course even if there was no tampering certain ones who don't believe Jehovah and Moses were real and did represent the Next Level Above Human will perhaps never see that they had the right to do whatever they did as they were in charge of their garden experiment. After all, the lesson step of “an eye for an eye” was a toddler lesson that Jesus then updated to “turn the other cheek” when struck by an enemy though don't provoke it unless your given the task to do so, as Jesus disciples were given after Jesus left, which he knew would get them killed for, but then that was simply accelerating them to their graduation because it didn't harm their “fruit” their Soul body they were growing inside their human body. If we want to call giving testimony to the truth that they experienced with their Older Member a provocation then it was certainly only by words that caused a provocation because of those that wouldn't want to hear those words or have their congregations hear those words.

-The HAIL (LOWERING) with FORCE/PASSION AND LITERAL FIRE that has in the MIX BLOODSHED as a stage of the “trial by fire” process that will continue to nurture the genetic strain, said as the third who will pass on their experiences to prepare the way to provide human vehicles for returning Older, Younger and Active Student Next Level members from the heavens.

What is being called hail in it's multiple applications would then be the Next Level's lowering to earth their “holy” Mind that in turn stimulates humans to take their sides for or against the Kingdom of God and their taught commandments that for some will go against to justify war (fall by the sword), bombs being lowered, etc. that always includes throngs of “collateral damage” among civilian, men, women and children.

At the same time hail can also be manifest as frozen ice balls and/or the stones from an erupting volcano and/or from landslides and other characteristics of earthquakes and/or from meteor or asteroid or comet debris showers, however one wants to label them.

-“GREEN GRASS” in this context seems to refer to those humans who were also part of the genetic strain as those who were depicted as “trees” but were not yet showing fruit in their behaviors and ways. These would be like the sprouts that were coming up from the seeds the Next Level planted. It seems the seed planting has two stages and it's different kinds of seeds planted for each. For those that are returning, having had vehicles before that they began to provide service to the Next Level through, they are addressed as “trees.” Those that were planted to sprout after Jesus left, if they came up when Jesus disciples helped to awaken them would be considered the green grass. This also seems to relate to the two harvest periods in Rev 14 which Jesus also illustrated by saying:

Mar 10:31 But many that are first shall be last; and the last first.

Though as he also illustrated some who come LAST could still reap the same reward as those who come first. That is because the Next Level doesn't limit how fast someone wants to grow in their service. If as soon as it occurs to you that this is the call of the last trump and you give your all, you might be awarded with what those who were in the first fruit harvest received. Some could misunderstand that and think all they need to do is lay down their life like those with Do did. But that's not offering the Next Level service and it's in the service that we get our lessons and is what brings about that trial by fire, as Jesus disciples experienced when they starting telling others about Jesus. They could have just did what Jesus did and turned themselves in and lose their life that way. After all it's clear that some were apprehended and even stoned by Paul of Tarsus, moreorless the leader of today's Christianity because of how he was led to dilute and distort much of the truth. What Jesus said to do was spread his words far and wide, not just to the areas where the Jews were, where he did take his first student body from. He sent them out to basically seek out those who the Next Level sowed seeds within, who would recognize what was said when the disciples said their peace. These then who would hear what Jesus disciples said and believed in Jesus because of what the disciples said would be those who sprouted shoots and potential survived to become "green grass." Some may even become "trees" - in other words - leaving all behind to tell others what they had learned about Jesus.

These too though experience a trial by fire as believing in Jesus then would have been met with the same disdain believing in Ti and Do now brings from those who simply hadn't received that seed of recognition or chose to ignore it if they did.

On the other hand, the religious then and the strictly secularists, be they pagan or of some other mind would not qualify as either a tree or green grass. They would be like Christians or other religious today who say "Lord Lord" to things while as Jesus said, "he doesn't know them" because they are not making a connection to their Heavenly Father and thus him by their much talking about the Lord.

Each time the Older Member(s) come incarnate they become who we must graft to if we want to continue building a graft to their vine. Once he has arrived again and we've heard about him/them to insist on using what Jesus said as justification for one's actions would be the equivalent of how those who claimed to be Moses disciples, the Jewish priests and high priests largely responded to what Jesus said. They had become so sure they would recognize the returned one as Moses spoke about, they "couldn't see the forest for the trees" were in the way, as the saying goes which Jesus said to them:

Joh 5:46 For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me; for he wrote of me.

Joh 5:47 But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

We start that graft by calling on the final name he/they chose while incarnate; Ti and Do. There could be a great deal of resistance to using those names.

The solution to that problem is to either do it anyway, whether you know you believe in them or not OR project your asking for the truth about them out into the most distant heavens, even beyond the stars to whatever your concept is of the highest power and beings, aka Heavenly Fathers and they will then help you come to recognize Ti and Do, as that communication (prayer) goes to the same place - the crew that monitors all who ask for the truth and to be in their service.

FOR THOSE THAT HAVE FELT THEY HAVE AN ANGEL OR DISCARNATE SPIRIT GUIDE OR SPACE ALIEN OR PATRON SAINT LOOKING AFTER THEM:

The reason Ti and Do said to project your thoughts beyond the stars is to safeguard against masquerading space aliens and/or discarnates who actually think themselves your helpers, guides, teachers, masters and even god representatives and even gods all of which is their illusion. However, some of those who became our helpers, guides, etc. did help us get to the place we are at. It's just that at the point that you show signs of readiness for more, they must be left behind for you to move forward. Even if you thought they helped you out of many jams and even life threatening situations, you needn't fear not having them around for you, as a Next Level crew will then watch over you and can help you in ways no discarnate spirit or space alien guide ever can.

Here are a few examples of humans as “grass” and it's often also translated as “green grass”:

1Pe 1:24 For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:

And no doubt Peter was familiar with Isaiah which Jesus was clearly well versed in as well as the past teachings provide a help to the current representatives so they don't have to try to start from scratch to draw their (Holy) Mind into the human vehicle they take for their task:

Isa 40:6 The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the goodness thereof is as the flower of the field:

Isa 40:7 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: because the spirit of the LORD bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass.

Note how the grass withers and flower fades BECAUSE the Lord's wind/spirit Mind blows upon it. That mind's closer presence generates heat - greater tests, increased passion that each of us are challenged to keep in our vehicles and put to the provision of service to the Older Members while for many it burns them up or out as they don't redirect that passion stimulating energy up the chain of mind rather than into the human kingdom.

Job 5:25 Thou shalt know also that thy seed shall be great, and thine offspring as the grass of the earth.

Psa 37:2 For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.

As said the objective of the Next Level is to provide opportunity for Souls and for Spirits generated from each vehicle (leaf) on that genetic strain of that THIRD to gain strength of mind by drawing on Jesus' Mind/Spirit- behaviors and ways, when CONFRONTED WITH OBSTACLES (the trials and tribulations (troubles)) to doing so. TREES therefore are those that were beginning to be of service to the Next Level, meaning they were producing some fruit in the way trees spread their seeds by expressing and exemplifying what Jesus really said and taught and did however lacking in overview yet because it was in preparation for the last stage when the "plain talk" and revealing completely the truth and reality about the Kingdom of God/Heaven. Those seeds then could become the fruit of their efforts, being those that understood and became new GREEN GRASS shoots developing a foundation by adhering to some of the behavior and ways of Jesus though may not yet have begun to provide service in that regard.

Among the biggest obstacles is war. The Next Level provides wars indirectly by allowing the Luciferian space aliens to influence those they spawned to do things to stimulate them. The wars start when the lower forces mounted a campaign to discredit Jesus and his disciples in every way they could which also became a war against what the gentiles saw as a threat to their sovereignty and control over the people identified most as the religious that had been among the two thirds of the original tribes of Israel while the religious leaders were also at war to snuff out any remnant of what Jesus and his disciples said.

There is some evidence that Paul of Tarsus was actually acting like a double agent in this regard though it was probably not conscious on his part. A good double agent would have reason to show both sides his loyalty though would have justifications for doing so. Paul had association with both various government officials and high Judaic priests and with those who were actually active students of Jesus though he had an agenda to build himself up, but perhaps that was the best he could do, so it's not worth demonizing him. We just need to be careful to take what he says with as they say, "a grain of salt" - with caution. If what he says shows itself to be related to what Jesus said then it's more trustworthy but by in large Paul's testimonies are not needed except that they provide a way for those that choose to alter what Jesus said into their own religion as we see has occurred.

Because of the timing of the arrival of the Two Witnesses during the 6th Angel's Sounding of the Trumpet and the evidence that the 5th Angels Trumpet Sounding announces the space aliens emergence from the bottomless pit, where they were imprisoned by the Next Level, (though they may have thought of it as their place of hiding/escaping a previous global-wide calamity (like Noah's flood)), working backwards through history I tried to line up where in the timeline each of these first 4 ANGELS WHO SOUND TRUMPETS come manifest. Along with that consideration is the fact that the Next Level doesn't waste a word or an event. Since they know what to expect from the Luciferian fallen angels who are not operative through the ones still in the bottomless pit prison cells, (because they haven't been allowed by the Next Level to come out yet (however the Next Level does that)) that doesn't stop the Luciferians from influencing humans wherever they can, as they are in the discarnate world where Do said they teach dead human spirits how to influence living humans to their agenda. That agenda includes instilling their resentment of the Next Level in humans while trying to win over those who are seeded or in any stage of growth to both keep them away from becoming Next Level members and to instead win them over to their allegiance, as they can't actually make a Soul (the container that is given to a human as a deposit that is the start of a Soul's growth).

By they way sightings of UFO's that occurred before this time, in the 1800's and before, I suspect are either what the Next Level generates and/or are Luciferian space aliens who may have been allowed out of their “bottomless pit” but were kept away from having any influence over humans in the area of the U.S. where the Next Level was planning to stage their arrival. I know the Next Level is able to regulate this as they can also regulate where the Luciferian discarnates can go and even who they can influence. In 1977 and thereafter, Ti and Do moved the classroom around the southwestern states and said they felt the influence of different spirits in different areas, they felt the Next Level wanted to expose us to in dosages. They said this in regard to the very strong influences they felt in the Salt Lake City, Utah area where we spent a little time in those first 3 or so years on and off while we lived outdoors - the Rev 12 Wilderness time period. Some years later they also told us that the Next Level had assigned each of us, what I believe was one of the Luciferian fallen angels to be our personal adversary they termed a “booger.” I don't know how this is done, but it shows the Next Level has ways of controlling their experiment to maximize the growth of their “fruit.”

The Luciferians also want to stimulate humans to build their technological capacity as they don't like their condition grounded to the Earth. So they go to those humans who can be built up to become leaders to help them build their empires of conquest because in so doing they build both their needed allies and technologies to have an advantage over any other humans or space aliens to acquire the elemental resources of most value to them. They also want to teach humans to be self reliant as then they will be less prone to asking help from “God” (in whatever terms humans retain recognition of and/or belief in Above Human Beings, aka deity, creators or supreme beings. The Next Level always showed a certain amount of their power that included sending Older Member's student proteges called “prophets” to challenge those that were being led by the Luciferian space alien fallen angels.

The “third” as a group of souls that the Next Level saved from the genetic stock of the twelve tribes of Israel came from certain quarters of the earth because they as a people had been scattered by war, pestilence and famine a number of times since around 700 BC.

Act 1:8 But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part ((last part)) of the earth.

That last part would prove to be the Americas as these were the THIRD and TREES and GREEN GRASS doing the distribution - witnessing. The THIRD in terms of geographic areas of the world doesn't seem to refer to one contiguous body of land. It seems to include any areas of the world where this one particular THIRD were scattered to which seems to be mostly to northern areas of the world to include northern Asia (Siberia) to northern Europe and North America. Most of the Jews that migrated to Germany before and during the turn of the 20th century came from Russia - fleeing Stalin. Germany welcomed them.

LITERAL EVENTS THAT BROUGHT ABOUT BLOODSHED IN THE AREAS INCLUDED IN THESE THIRD PARTS OF THE WORLD (EUROPE AND THE U.S.) DURING THIS FIRST TRUMPET SOUNDING PERIOD AND EXAMPLES OF THE UPLIFTING OF SPACE CONSCIOUSNESS AND BEINGS FROM OUTER SPACE IN PUBLISHING AND AS TI AND DO SAID OPPORTUNITY FOR ALL LIFE FORMS TO MOVE UP, ALSO SEEN BY GREAT LEAPS IN SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY INVENTIONS. (The upgraded thinking and in some instances acting and inventions all contribute to the Next Level's upcoming "classroom" the FIRST with the incarnate Two Witnesses and the LAST as the Winepress tribulation period. Humans are not going to automatically believe in real members of the Next Level without authors and other forms of communication to stimulate ideas and inventions that will show what's not superstition to believe in. At this time there is so much of that proof of the Next Level's existence as the directors of all things on earth that it's superstition to think it all came about randomly without conscious intelligent direction.)

- April 7, 1906 — Mount Vesuvius eruption that killed over 100 people and ejected the most lava ever recorded from a Vesuvius eruption. It devastated Naples, Italy. Vesuvius has erupted many, many times but there are two pointers to direct stimulation by the Next Level to serve as a fulfillment of this prophecy. First it's location right in the midst of what used to be the Roman and Holy Roman Empires and second, though related to the first because this is where one could consider there to be many who have a genetic heritage connected to the Kingdom of God that would have included being many vehicles being seeded which makes some of them “trees” and/or the “oaks of righteousness” that one third of the Israelites that mostly migrated to northern Asia and throughout Europe's north country and extended into England and then over the Atlantic to North America. That migration began after the 2nd Temple in Jerusalem was overrun by the Romans and after Masada and continued in spurts with former Jews mixing their blood with gentiles that actually saved them from being rounded up by the Nazi's and that resulted in many changed names and migration to North America during and after the two world wars so that these who rose to the top of the government, entertainment industry, media conglomerates, banking and wall street and by then had largely been either Christianized or leaning to Atheism, Buddhism or took on what's called Rabbinical Judaism which no longer really looks for the messiah and virtually ignores most of Moses commandments and are today's G10 finance ministers - representatives of the rich families of Europe and the America's who now have neither a Christian nor Jewish or any other religious face as they consider themselves the elite on the planet, some having space aliens group affiliations while others are Masons and are spoken of in general as the Illuminati. - The 1908 Messina earthquake in Italy that triggered a large tsunami that took about 123,000 lives.

- June 30, 1908 Tungusta Comet/Asteroid/Meteor - a large explosion shook Siberia. Witnesses described seeing a fireball in the sky, as bright and hot as another sun. The explosion was in a densely forested area near the Podkamennaya Tunguska River in Russia. It is claimed to have been a thousand times more powerful than the bomb dropped on Hiroshima. The explosion leveled some 80 million trees over a 830 square-mile area. The trees in the center of the blast site were still standing but were stripped of their branches and were scorched. The trees around the perimeter were also scorched but were laid down away from the center area. People could feel the heat and see the glow from miles away. It caused dust over Europe that reflected light bright enough to read by at night in London. There were no fatalities and a nearby lake some 4 miles away may evidence being a meteorite crater.

The Tunguska event would seem to qualify as burning up a significant amount of literal trees and green grasses and scientists believe it had to be a comet or asteroid from outer space (the heavens) that then qualifies this event as the biggest literal application of the “sounding” part that even includes a reference to a “pipe” with sounds in accompaniment. Here is a synopsis of the event:

In the 1960s, it was established that the zone of leveled forest occupied an area of some 2,150 square kilometers (830 sq mi), its shape resembling a gigantic spread-eagled butterfly with a “wingspan” of 70 kilometers (43 mi) and a “body length” of 55 kilometers (34 mi).

Looking like a butterfly is a curiosity as the butterfly was the example Ti and Do gave of a human like a caterpillar leaving their caterpillar world to isolate itself to begin to create their cocoon that inside would be changing into a chrysalis (a Christing) that is an actual physical metamorphosis into a new creature, and this is the diagram etched into this apparent meteor, or asteroid or comet strike.

In the Sibir newspaper, July 2, 1908 was reported: 'On June 17th some observed an unusual occurrence. In the north west, rather high above the horizon, some strangely bright (impossible to look at) bluish-white heavenly body moved downwards. The body appeared as a “pipe,” i.e., a cylinder. The sky was cloudless, only a small dark cloud was observed in the general direction of the bright body. It was hot and dry. As the body neared the ground (forest), the bright body seemed to smudge, and then turned into a giant billow of black smoke, and a loud knocking (not thunder) was heard, as if large stones were falling, or artillery was fired. All buildings shook. At the same time the cloud began emitting flames of uncertain shapes. All villagers were stricken with panic and took to the streets, women cried, thinking it was the end of the world.'

This report of an event 13 days before the Tunguska event suggests it was more directed than most would otherwise consider but certainly qualifies as appearing to be caused by some type of solid object(s) from the heavens that caused a huge fiery explosion that burned up many trees and green vegetation (grass), though doesn't account for the bloodshed in the verse.

The firestorm burned over two days from August 20–21, and killed 87 people, mostly firefighters. It is believed to be the largest, although not the deadliest, forest fire in U.S. history. It was also the deadliest event for firefighters in the United States until the September 11 attacks. The summer of 1910 was especially hot and dry. By mid August, there were 1,000 to 3,000 fires burning. On August 20, a cold front blew in and brought hurricane-force winds, whipping the hundreds of small fires into one or two blazing infernos. Smoke from the fire was said to have been seen as far east as Watertown, New York and as far south as Denver, Colorado. It was reported that at night, 500 miles out into the Pacific Ocean, ships could not navigate by the stars because the sky was cloudy with smoke.

When Jesus said to one who said he couldn't follow Jesus because he wanted to wait until he buried his father, Jesus said, “let the dead bury the dead.” To Jesus even if the vehicle has life, if it's choosing not to move towards life when it's offered it's choosing to be destined to death instead of when they die, if they continue to bond with the more recent Older Member's mind, they are saved for a future classroom.)

AFTER THE ANGEL'S SOUNDING SIGNALS THE LAST HARVEST WAVE IS INDICATED TO START DURING THE TIME OF THE 7TH ANGELS SOUNDING AS DESCRIBED IN REV 10. Evidence of that having taken place is by the event that started on October 17, 2008 by the National Geographics Channel's “Final Report: Heavens Gate,” where it was suggested several times that Ti and Do's Heaven's Gate group was the “Second Coming of Jesus” that millions of people probably viewed. To follow that, which was also the 40 year anniversary of Ti and Do's second stage of significant awakening when they left Houston, Texas and headed for Boerne, Texas and left in mid February of 1973 KNOWING THEY WERE “FROM OUTER SPACE,” HERE TO FULFILL PROPHECY, AND TO BRING UPDATES TO THE BIBLE” came the Chelyabinsk meteor aka a near-Earth asteroid that entered Earth's atmosphere over Russia on February 15, 2013, that began a flurry of fireballs mostly in the United States followed by a large asteroid that flew inside the moons orbit, the closest call yet followed by a flurry of fireballs on a line through the Ohio Valley down to Florida by visible by many as far north as Maine followed by the very visible with the naked eye, Pan Starr comet that I have photographic evidence had a companion object, like the Hale Bopp comet that also came to perihelion in late March/Early April of that same year. Therefore I believe this was the 3rd Woe which would mark the end of the first fruit harvest time that all these trumpets were heralding.

The Events that FOLLOW during the LAST HARVEST WAVE referred to as the “winepress” (Great Tribulation (Time of trouble not seen since the beginning of the world (human civilization)) Judgment stage) are shown to have begun and are indicated as continuing through each of the successive angels with vials to pour out (hard last minute medicine).

-HAIL as a lowering down of the Next Level's time of judgment AND literal hail storms:

It's now very apparent that in the U.S. hail storms increased significantly in all ways (size of hailstones and frequency of storms) in the southwest U.S. with hailstones that weigh pounds each and are as big as baseballs and softballs destroying roofs of houses, mutilating cars and even causing some death's from concussions. These have increased in frequency mostly in Colorado, Texas and Oklahoma starting in earnest in the the 2000's where their characteristics are off the statistical charts and record books.

It may not be coincidence that “hail” is listed in the first angels trumpet sounding that is the “lowering” - bridging the gap/chasm between the human Kingdom and the Level Above Human kingdom, because of the Crew's close proximity and coming incarnate of the Older Members and student Crew and lowering of the Judgment time said as “following” the first sounding as shown then referring to the LAST HARVEST WAVE that was also heralded by the Hale Bopp comet and the first fruit harvest completion and how the last - seventh angel's pouring out of their vial shows a number of events that ends with hailstones that weight some 90 pounds each.

-FIRE as severe drought and frequency of forest fires:

The western U.S. is experiencing the biggest heat waves and forest fires that demonstrate all that was forecast would FOLLOW the first angels sounding.

-FIRE MIXED BLOOD(SHED) - Two applications - Passions and the response of the body mentally and physically to a culture that's both “drunk” on sensuality and by manufactured substances to largely put bandages on serious toxification and deterioration of the food, air and water supplies led by the medications referred to by some of late as “Big Pharma” - for profit corporate medicines.(Note how in Rev 21:8 some of those who take part in the “second death” are translated as “sorcerers” from the Greek pharmakeus from pharmakon which interestingly sounds a lot like, pharmacists, defined as “administrators of drugs and spell-giving potions, who prepare magical remedies” to include what is perhaps the most dangerous and being pushed the hardest, the nearly entirely mandatory vaccination program. To date in December of 2015 the Center for Disease Control (CDC) is circulating a form to declare oneself as “opting out of the vaccination programs.” This looks like a nice option for those that question giving 36 vaccine dosages to their kids from their first birthday to their sixteenth. It's not like there is not a heap of evidence that bring to question this as wise and prudent and/or health seeking for anyone, given the rates of brain disorders going through the roof in the U.S. however seemingly slight. The U.S. population is largely legally medicated while another large percentage self medicate.

The legal prescription drugs being heaped on the youth to treat anxiety disorders and depression all have side effects of the same symptoms they are designed to subdue. How any one person is affected can vary but if they go off the meds or alter other aspects of their lifestyle symptoms can waiver between bigger high's and bigger lows to where some have suicidal thoughts. It has been documented by one alternative health seeker web master that every mass school shooting in the U.S. involved one or more students that were on these meds.

School shootings essentially started in the U.S. in 1999 (the one before that was in 1966). That first one was in Columbine High School by two Caucasian American students who indicated it was in response to bullying, then in 2007 at Virginia Tech by an Asian American who was largely against women, 2012 Sandy Hook Elementary that killed many children (that some say didn't really happen. I believe it did but haven't really studied why some say this. They often have one or two inconsistencies some see in the reporting or video footage so they then document it on their blog claiming it was created by the government to have a case to take away guns from citizens and others pick it up and before you know it a percentage of the populous believe what they say), 2013 Arapahoe High, 2014 Marysville Pilchuck High and 2015 Umpqua Community College as the biggest ones. Since 2000 these and mass shooting have also occurred in a couple theaters, malls, churches, military bases and a bombing at the Boston Marathon (another false flag claim was made) and hundreds of smaller ones, with over 294 incidents reported in 2015 so far.

Note the verse wording says the blood(shed) would “rise, come to be generated (cast)” which is a much different slant to how and who is stimulating it. Though it's in the prophecy that's not saying the Next Level is behind it. It seems to be saying that they know this will arise because this is the direction a society goes when they have drifted further and further from having much Next Level consciousness. When there is so much killing, it is both, to some, appearing to solve problems so becomes justified to some while it creates hatreds at the same time because there is always someone who wants revenge on the killers plus all that goes into the unseen world of spirits, who then seek to play out whatever mindset they died with and from which can become like a haunting against those who are still living.

But the primary reason this violence has increased, especially since 1997 is because the Next Level Older Members and crew left their incarnate presence so the power of each of the literal “Mind” (holy spirit/mind, thoughts, feelings, will, focus) they contain is removed from it's human interface except for how they left behind the record of their presence, the words that describe their Mind. While they are present, even before their incarnations when their Minds were in the vicinity, even in the atmosphere still on their spacecrafts, those humans who can tap into aspects of their positive force for all things good and purposeful, had the opportunity to draw aspects of that Mind into their own consciousness, thought interpreted by their own “computer” (brain) and mind, not even knowing where certain ideas are coming from. Their Next Level minds contain anything and everything any human would need to solve any problem, if the problem is one the Next Level wants to provide help with. So a certain amount of their Mind is initialized into the Earth's environment to begin a civilization from. They allow the fallen ones, the Luciferian space aliens that became renegades against the Next Level to be influential in the Earth so humans can also draw from their misinformation mind that fosters continued human behaviors and ways instead. The discarnate humans are also available to help humans with human needs, which can result in humans recognizing some answers to their prayers. Ti and Do said the Next Level will sometimes give a human something they ask for that is “human” to help them have the opportunity to learn that they don't really want what they thought they wanted - often seeing that it's not ultimately what will make them happy.

What the Next Level does “cast” on the planet, and in particular to areas where they had come incarnate, is their provision of the truth and with it the mental “light” (clarity of truth their minds naturally emit) to see that truth by. Their mind like John the Baptist said is fiery in that it accelerates everyone to either propel their growth towards a purer vibration or to their becoming waste.

The man that went on a killing rampage in September of 2015 at an Oregon community college posted to his Facebook page that he knew he was succumbing to working for the devil saying that it was necessary because of what people had become so they deserved to die. While he was doing his shooting he would even say to some how it won't hurt for long.

-“FOLLOWED,” in Rev 8:7 seems to indicate both the timing of the calamities (plagues) manifestation as “caused to be generated,” and “to become, be brought to pass, be ended, finished” which indicates a somewhat gradual application that comes to it's full expression in the LAST HARVEST WAVE, after the FIRST Fruit has been harvested and shown in more detailed application in Rev 16:2 that seems to be related to human instigation with the Next Level allowance of the acceleration of dangerous chemicals in the environment to include further nuclear development but shown especially in the medical establishment through the pharmaceutical companies imposition of a mandatory (forced) vaccination program shown in the words of this Rev 8:7 prophecy as “fire mixed (with) blood” where “fire” relates to the elemental interaction in the body with heavy metals (lead, mercury, etc.) that can be described as burning inside the body, further described in:

Rev 16:2 And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore ((1668 helkos most likely from helkuo 1670= an ulcer (as if drawn together))) upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped ((give service to, respect as authority)) his image ((1504 eikon from eiko 1503= faintness as a copy, likeness, (literally) statue, profile, or as a figure a representation, resemblance, [Hologram like Fatima])).

The sores are actually translated as “ulcers” (a drawing together) which is the exact terminology used to describe lesions Dr. Wakefield and his eleven associate doctors documented among the ten autistic children that became his patients because of their all also having bowel disease. These lesions were throughout their intestines and measles virus they all received from the MMR vaccination was found in the lesions. From the intestines the virus and/or heavy metals and formaldehyde and other parts of many vaccinations, if not flushed out of the body, if they pass through the intestinal wall as is the norm these toxins enter the blood stream and travel all over the body to include the brain where mercury in particular could constitute a “fire” as these heavy elements are quite “hot” as electromagnetic conductors and the body's response to them can be inflammation - brain swelling - all together potentially destroying sensitive brain tissue and the brains neuro-transmissions, a typical symptom seen in Autism, Parkinsons, and many other diseases that are often in incubation for years before surfacing, so become near impossible to directly prove are responses from certain vaccinations and/or combinations of vaccinations.

So if this is accurate then only those that accept these vaccinations and medical establishment solutions, suffer most from the development of sores as they trust the associated government institutions and corporations and in this example, a big one of many, the vaccination protocol so would be those who have given their allegiance to the “poisonous deceivers,” who are thus “worshipping (Do called, “working for”) (his) image (false idols in all forms but aligning with the “ye are gods,” “god within us all,” thus all are god SPIRITUAL ILLUSION of the Next Level, the facsimile created by the Luciferian Space aliens, even in the form of a Hologram like Fatima).”

There are also many additional surfacing of “sores” coming about. Sores could also be referring to tumor propagation as in cancers and in the sores as rashes inside and outside the body as allergies and acquired immune deficiencies (AIDS). And there is also an application to mental illness in the way there is an epidemic usage of drugs to calm anxiety disorders and hypertension as ADD, ADHD and bi-polar conditions, diabetes related conditions, infections - the bodies reaction to foreign toxic elements in the blood, seen often as allergies bringing about inflammation (flame/fire), etc.

Thus this time period described as the dividing time is separating those that choose to give and show their allegiance to the Next Level (the One true, real Kingdom of God) and Mammon - humanism and all humans count as their treasure - wealth, intelligence, etc.

As I write in December of 2015 California just began their forced public school vaccination program written into law a few months ago. It was reported that they ran out of flu vaccine without mercury so they were using the flu vaccine with mercury even though its use was outlawed. These figurehead business and political and medical - scientific intellectuals are more and more becoming so intoxicated with their achievements as they see them, that they accept as collateral damage the thousands whose both physical and mental health could be compromised.

And they are completely blind in the same way to the bloodshed they are causing by their bombing and drone missile campaigns in Iraq, Afghanistan, Pakistan, Yemen, Libya and virtually wherever they deem terrorists congregate which they are stimulating and profiting by.

The third part in respect to this time to FOLLOW would seem to be wherever the descendants of that third of the tribes of Israel ended up in the world which is most indicated by the countries with the largest populations of known Jews though many changed their names over the decades. The U.S. with 6.8-10 million, Israel - 6.4 million and the European union - 1 - 1.5 million with smatterings most everywhere else to add up to about 20 million. This is most interesting because of how it looks like it's a somewhat 3 way division. The big difference in the range has to do with the way the survey was done with the smaller number representing the core and the larger the enlarged Jewish populations as of 2014.

The Trees and grass being burnt up would largely take place during the LAST "follow" stage in a much bigger way than the previous two times as pre-FIRST fruit harvest and then at the end of the first fruit harvest, beginning of the LAST starting around 2000 and then to finish with the pouring out of vials stage we are in right now in 2015.

III.C.2. SECOND TRUMPET - 1910'S - 1920'S - INCLUDES EVENTS IN FIRST HARVEST PERIOD THAT ARE MANIFEST DURING THE LAST HARVEST PERIOD SHOWN IN REV 16:3

Rev 8:8 And (the) second angel sounded, and (as it) were ((5613 hos= about, after, as, like, according)) (a) great ((3173 megas= big, (+fear) exceedingly, high, large, loud, mighty, strong, sore afraid) APPLICATION, LIGHT)) mountain ((3735 oros, most likely from an obsolete oro= TO RISE or RAISE or REAR perhaps kin to 142 airo= LIFTING UP [continent, government, empire])) burning ((2545 kaio= that sets on fire [provokes passion (anger/hatreds)] to kindle, that consumes, burns, lightens)) (with) fire ((4442 pur= fire, lightning)) (was) cast ((906 ballo= ARISES, POUR, send, strike, THROW (DOWN), thrust, cast (out), put (up))) into ((1519 eis= in, AMONG, at)) (the) sea ((2281 thalassa probably prolonged from 251 hals, the primary definition of SALT [as mankind (Jews)])): and (the) third part ((5154 tritos ordinal from 5140 treis= third as noun= a third part)) (of the) sea became ((1096 ginomai= cause to be GENERATED, AROSE, befall, be fulfilled, be brought to pass)) blood ((129 haima= uncertain derivation, literally of men or animals, as a figure the juice of grapes [LAST HARVEST WINEPRESS STAGE] or specially ATONING BLOOD of Christ and by implication BLOODSHED, KINDRED));

As a part of, throughout and after this Second Angels Sounding the prophecy indicates events that are compared to a MOUNTAIN, GREAT RISE OR REARING that kindles, sets on fire (literal and through passions (e.g. anger) (fire) that SEND, STRIKE, THROW and/or CAST OUT to RISE AMONG (into) the sea. The usage of “sea” as with all prophecy can refer to the “sea of humanity” and one specific to a number of literal bodies of water called seas.

The key indicator that this is not an object, as a meteor, asteroid, comet that is striking the literal sea is that it would say it came from heaven (sky to outer space) or was thrown by an angel as in the only place that does refer to this kind of event:

Rev 18:21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence ((3731 hormema from 3730 horme= a violent motion, impulse, hostile movement, onset, assault)) shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

Here it's a “stone” as shown and that is verified by the prophecy in comparing it to a millstone and saying it brings a violent impulse/motion, movement, assault, rather than an extended period of violence as in a war or social unrest. Plus the timing of this verse marks an event that takes place AFTER the “plagues/calamities/wounds (stripes)” which the Seven Angels with trumpets and the Seven Angels pouring out vials are referred to in a number of relative verses and especially in Rev 15:1 that announces the time of the 7 angels pouring out their vials as the “LAST plagues,” which as I documented for the first angel with trumpet FOLLOWS in the LAST HARVEST WAVE described as the WINEPRESS time of great trouble not seen since the beginning of the civilization (tribulation) which is after the Two Witnesses have exited their incarnation with their FIRST FRUIT “SPIRIT BORN” GRADUATE (SAINTS) and ascended back to their Next Level DWELLINGS.

Rev 8:9 And (the) third (part) (of the) creatures ((2938 ktisma from 2936 ktizo= thing founded, purchased, produced (created thing), original formulation, owned, possessed, provided, fabricated)) which ((that)) (were) in ((1722 en= instrumentality (medially or constructively); among, before, with, by, at, because of)) (the) sea ((2281 thalassa probably prolonged from 251 hals, the primary definition of SALT, fig. human masses)), and had ((2192 echo= be (able, held, possessed with), or had been counted, lacked relation or conditions to have)) life ((5590 psuche= breath, spirit, sentience, heart, mind, SOUL)), died ((599 apothnesko= died off)); and (the) third (part) (of the) ships ((4143 ploion from 4126 pleo= a sailor as someone plunging through the water in a vessel)) (were) destroyed ((1311 diaphtheiro from 1225 diabollo= to rot thoroughly, to ruin, decay, pervert, corrupt, perish)).

The Next Level sounding part could be shown in the biggest and most literal way by Mt. Etna's eruptions coming to a peak in the 1920's - in particular 1929 when the first population center was destroyed since the worst eruption in 1669. Given the way this prophecy is worded as: “great mountain burning with fire” it is interesting that it is considered the largest volcanic mountain in the world and has names from various cultures in the area, as from the Phoenician meaning “furnace” or “chimney” and in the Greek meaning “I burn” and in Arabic it was called “the Mountain of Fire.” In Italian some still call it “mountain mountain.” Another name is “who placates the fire” and Etna is one of the Latin names of the god Vulcan. The people of the Etna sometimes use a jargon term “the mountain.”

Again, there are multiple ways this comes to pass both at the time of the sounding in the 1920's, the lead up to the FIRST and then LAST Harvest applications in relationship to what a number of biblical historians, I contend, refers to the “Third” as those former Twelve Tribes of Israeli who were repeatedly scattered away from Jerusalem and the Middle East by the Syrians to mix with gentile tribes in Asia minor, northern Asian territories and eventually throughout Europe while the other two thirds remained in the Middle East and/or migrated into Africa and India.

It seems like everywhere these tribes migrated soon became war torn and linked to their presence as the Lord revealed as expressed through Isaiah prophecy saying they were deserving because of having mostly strayed from the Jehovah/Moses covenant.

Daniel 8 chronicles the earlier time of these migrations stimulated by wars, famine and disease that eventually brought one “third,” the cream of the crop so to speak from the Next Level's perspective as the genetic stock most removed from their human roots, yet also therefore most attacked by the unseen Luciferian discarnates as well so subject to more and more sorting out to prepare for the Jesus incarnation's “second trimester” and then the beginning of the establishment of the last continent in the Americas that was populated by people's from all nations, but most of which came from those fleeing various persecutions, warring, limited opportunities, stagnant corruptions of thought and ways that were reflected in the negative pole of the Next Level's magnetism by World War One in this part of the timeline, propagating further sorting to begin to cultivate the vehicular re-generation in the U.S. as preparation for the Two Witnesses, Ti and Do's incarnations for the THIRD and final trimester's graduation. The Next Level doesn't stimulate the wars, yet they know they will come about because they provide the Luciferian influence and the result is a further “trial by fire” all because of the Next Level's periodic closeness.

Here are a variety of indications of “sounding” - the delivery of the Next Level's mind seen as a science fiction explosion in books, movies, radio broadcasts spurred on by inventions and alongside that humans acting out their sensual passions according to their programming whether through the “roaring twenties” partying to those who sought to stop the partying through those religious periphery self righteous who largely still dominated government to foster prohibition of alcohol.

It's interesting how the terminology follows with the identification of this time period as a “roaring” twenties which becomes apropos in light of how both Jesus and Lucifer are compared to “lions” though Jesus to the roar while Lucifer to the whelp though culturally seen as the opposite. The roar for the Next Level is in their disclosure of what is true that stimulates the passions in humans to be played out according to each human's accepted programming.

This list chronicles some of the developments that reflect a heightening of Next Level presence - new ideas expressed about things in outer space, or things unseen, mysterious or spiritual:

- 1920 W. E. B. Du Bois publishes the short story “The Comet.”

- David Lindsay publishes A Voyage to Arcturus. (Note: Arcturans are represented on Earth at this time by at least one human contactee named Alex Collier who also seems to imply he is the returned Jesus preaching peace and love and changing the world by meditation along the lines of the 100th monkey delusion - as if the Next Level needs anyone to save the planet or others. The design is to bond with the last incarnate Older Member who teaches the steps to “save oneself,” though being peaceful and loving (giving) to others is Next Level behavior, it requires being agitated, like by salt to be a mind warrior to win battles against the lower forces on earth to graduate by and that's not what he is teaching which seems to make him into a type of “false Christ.”

- 1922 Mahatma Gandhi goes to jail. (Note: As Jesus said he had another “fold” he was going to after he left them in the middle east and as Do said he suspected the origin of Buddhism was a Next Level instigation because of how it's original focus was on “renunciation of the world” and having control over one's passions, etc., and since we saw in the 1960's especially an influx of both Hindu and Buddhist thought and practice, the U.S. being the melting pot for the return ground of the Next Level, Gandhi's action tailored to Jesus example of non-violence, exemplified as to, “turn the other cheek” to one's enemy, as he reported came to him from Leo Tolstoy's 1894 book, “The Kingdom of God Is Within You” - Gandhi seems to have drawn from that Next Level Older Member closeness at that time to apply it as he did.

- 1923 P. Anderson Graham publishes The Collapse of Homo Sapiens. (Note: Human is a fallen condition, because Ti and Do said Adam had a Next Level body made for him and by breaking his Older Member's instructions resulted in his giving into sensuality - acting like a mammal. Since Ti said he was also the Soul that incarnated into Enoch, 7th generation from Adam and was said as having “walked with God” which would be abiding by all his Older Member's behaviors and ways and was thus TAKEN with his body according to the Moses record, he must have overcome his human ways and thus recovered and graduated again, having graduated into the Next Level before performing that Adam task. I have wondered if he graduated during the same initial overcoming classroom as Lucifer attended, so as Ti and Do said, how the Lord used Lucifer's fall as a way to put others of his same level of growth towards Adult Next Level Membership to the test. I wondered if those others who would have been any who had received a Next Level made student model vehicle might have included the Soul who was given to incarnate into the Adam vehicle, though he could have already graduated to an Adult Next Level vehicle but to be of service to his Older Member decided to incarnate into the same kind of student model Next Level vehicle Lucifer and that other fallen angels had received. By failing then Adam had succumb to the same equivalent influence Lucifer fell because of. And then by recovering could be the hands on example to any who came after that were to be tested, raising the bar of graduating into that student level Next Level membership.)

- Ronald Knox publishes Memories of the Future. (Note: Ti and Do said the Next Level Above Human is the only realistic future for humans because their presence gives humans the opportunity to have a future. For those coming incarnate, they are stepping into the past, a relatively primitive existence.)

- H. G. Wells publishes Men Like Gods.

- Hugo Gernsback dedicates an entire issue of the journal Science and Invention to science fiction. This leads directly to the publication of Astounding Stories.

- 1925 Adolf Hitler publishes Mein Kampf (Note: Alongside the positive influence of the Next Level on humans, is the way the Luciferians stimulate the negative in what becomes a facsimile of what the Next Level does in sorting and testing that some humans become predatory on others because of their choices in response to the Next Level's increased “heat” (fire).

- 1926 Edgar Rice Burroughs publishes The Moon Maid.

- Charlotte Haldane publishes Man's World.

- Reginald Glossup publishes The Orphan of Space. (One could say the fallen angels became orphans from space when they rejected their Older Member)

- Robert H. Goddard successfully launches a liquid-fuel rocket in the United States

- 1928 E. E. Smith publishes The Skylark of Space.
- Victor Gollancz founds Victor Gollancz Ltd, which publishes science fiction from its very first year onward.
- 1929 Buck Rogers in the 25th Century begins publication as a comic strip.
- Hugo Gernsback coins the term science fiction.
- Kay Burdekin publishes The Rebel Passion.
- Jack Williamson publishes The Girl from Mars.
- S. Fowler Wright publishes The World Below. (A reference to how the Luciferian space aliens may have survived in underground bases - the bottomless pit - perhaps from the North Pole to Antarctica thus having no bottom which there is some evidence of being possible)
- Fritz Lang releases the realistic-looking film The Woman in the Moon. (reflective of how the Revelations 12 “woman” has the moon at her feet or as her footstool.
- The Wall Street Crash occurs.
- The Graf Zeppelin circumnavigates the globe.

As I was re-considering all of these Angel's with trumpet sounding interpretations just a week ago, Mt. Etna erupted for the first time in two years on December 3, 2015 which to me seemed like the Next Level was helping me see the start of this LAST STAGE part of this prophecy fulfillment that has included a continuous lava flow to date though has faded from the headlines, but I suspect is soon to really escalate in the timing of the Second angels pouring out of the vial (medicine in the form of calamities - to offer humans a time of last opportunities to put their attention to the genuine creators of the planet).

Mt Etna volcanic eruptions have been ongoing since 1500 BC according to the records accumulated but with some interesting patterns emerging in the many eruption dates. There was generally one eruption per century until the beginning of the last millennium when it started to escalate to 3-4 a century until the 1500's then increasing to one a decade with the 1700's bringing 2 a decade. The 1800's averaged 3 a decade.

The 1900's brought an average of one a year peaking in 1928 thus my reflection of the FIRST HARVEST WAVE approach as noted by this Second Angels sounding as then eruptions of Etna fell off in the 1930's then increasing again in the 1940's, 1 a year in the 1950's and then continuously throughout the 1960's to date in 2015.

Of course not all eruptions have large lava flows but it would appear in the application of this LAST or AFTER part of this prophecy a large eruption may be part of the cause of significant bloodshed because of it, which seems to also be related to the LAST HARVEST WAVE as described by:

Rev 16:3 And (the) second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became ((1096 ginomai= generate, arose, brought to pass, divided)) as ((after)) (the) blood ((bloodshed, (kindred))) (of a) dead (man)(:) and every ((3956 pas= all (manner of, means), any (one), as many as, whosoever)) living ((2198 to live, spirit, quickened)) Soul ((5590 psuche= breath, animal sentient principle)) died ((599 apothnesko=to die off, be dead, lie dying, be slain)) in ((1722 en=in, at, on, by)) (the) sea.

Pertaining to the timing of these 7 Angels pouring out their Vials, recorded as Plagues/Calamities, Revelations chapter 17 indicates their ill affects are to be applied primarily to the U.S. though are also DOUBLED so have two primary territorial and it's people applications. With that said, I would suggest that in the U.S. and North America there will also be eruptions that pour into one or more seas and the indications have been so far in the Hawaii island eruptions, Mexican eruptions and earthquake activity in Northern California but with Montana's Yellowstone mountain showing significant signs of an upcoming eruption. Thus the seas affected could be the Pacific ocean, but I wonder about most the Great Salt Lake not too distant south of Yellowstone.

-“caused to be generated (became) with all speed (as) blood dead” - or more easily understood perhaps as saying “dead blood” as the word “man” was entirely added. In other words it could be said that the blood in these living creatures was being caused to die so it brought about the death of these creatures.

-“every” - is not necessarily ALL INCLUSIVE and can be translated as “all manner of”

-“Soul” - is in contrast to the Greek “pneuma”= spirit and breath,” here instead referring to the “animal sentient principal that all living beings “breath.” Soul was not very well understood in times past. The word “spirit” was used coming from the Greek, pneuma for when Jesus spoke about his disciples needing to be “born of spirit,” which Ti and Do said was synonymous with “Mind” which is another translation to pneuma, neither of which are used in the translation of Greek psuche, so Soul therefore seems to be totally inaccurate to use here but could refer to the living who are breathing, that would refer to many different creatures in or on the sea.

Even during this LAST HARVEST WAVE there are no indications every living Soul or human living in and around this sea will die, though no doubt the eruption could pollute the waters to kill off all the marine life and destroy shipping as well in that “third area” of the world, presumably around the Mediterranean Sea and like said in the U.S. perhaps affecting the Pacific and the Great Salt Lake.

Plus it seems to be hardly coincidental that war in the middle east again has entered a new level with Syria the focal point of 4 great military powers doing frequent bombing raids against what is said to be groups calling themselves the Islamic State with various acronyms. The U.S., and now France following a mass shooting by so called Islamist terrorists in Paris that killed over a hundred in four locations one night have used the terrorist attack to declare war that ends up being against any one and any country that could generate such terrorists, thus against Syria even though the leaders of Syria are not reported to have had any part in the attacks. Plus Russia started bombing and now England is engaged. It's causing thousands of Syrian's to flee by boat across the Sea to find safety in Europe and wherever they can be accepted while in the U.S. front running Republican candidate for president in 2017, Donald Trump is calling for forcing all Muslims and likely Arab American's to register, which has stimulated a reflection to how Hitler forced all Jews to wear a patch identifying them as Jews and how the U.S. under Democrat FDR required all Japanese to be relocated to internment camps during WWII.

Thus once again the FIRES of anger are becoming further inflamed and regarding the way Third mostly applies to those who were originally of the twelve tribes of Israel, we can see how they were once referred to as a MOUNTAIN as a Kingdom, in the verse below to Babylon and shows how the Lord will make it a “burnt mountain” just like has been occurring in the Middle East, the U.S. and E.U. and countries touched most by them throughout the world.

Jer 51:25 Behold, I am against thee, O destroying mountain, saith the LORD, which destroyest all the earth: and I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and roll thee down from the rocks, and will make thee a burnt mountain.

III.C.3. THIRD TRUMPET - 1920'S - 1930'S - INCLUDES EVENTS IN FIRST HARVEST PERIOD THAT ARE MANIFEST DURING THE LAST HARVEST PERIOD SHOWN IN REV 16:4

Rev 8:10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell ((4098 pipto= alighting (down), light on)) a great ((3173 megas= (multiplied to years) wide application, exceedingly, great, high, large, loud, mighty, strong)) star ((792 aster most likely from the root of 4766 stronnumi akin 4731 stereos as steadfast, strong, sure, through the idea of positing, to abide, furnish, spread, from 2476 histemi= TO STAND, covenant, establish, set up; to “strew” as in spread as a carpet over the sky)) from ((1537 ek= because of, by reason of, abundantly above)) heaven, burning ((2545 kaio= to set on fire, kindle, light)) as it were ((5613 hos= ABOUT, after, HOW, with all speed, SOME)) (a) lamp ((2985 lampas from 2989 lampo= to beam, radiate brilliancy, give light, shine)), and it fell ((4098 pipto= light on)) upon ((1909 epi= about, towards, touching, have charge of)) the third part (([the group of a “third” from the children of Israel who were scattered])) (of the) rivers ((4215 potamos= current, flood, water)) and upon ((1909 epi= about, towards, touching, have charge of)) the fountains ((4077 pege= gushing plumply, to fix)) of waters ((5204 hudor from root of 5205 huetos= water, rain, a shower));

A Star in this case comes from the root of “aster” as in astronomy, so refers to objects in the literal heavens and saying it is coming from the Kingdom of Heaven indicates it's sent from the Older Members in that Kingdom, who abide in that outer space environment as Jesus indicated by saying there were “many mansions” in his Father's Kingdom.

So the biggest point to this verse is WHO is coming from the Kingdom of Heaven and to do what in the events of these last days before recycling. This “star” can be any object that emits light that is strewn across the heavens, but even if it was a comet - like scientists say, a burning ball of ice and rock (that has really been updated by landing on a comet and shooting a comet with a missile and observing up close photographs) that it looks like rock alright but if there is any ice, it's on the inside and is being spewed out from jets that are in various parts of it and they are often shaped like a rubber duck or uneven sided barbell. Even so, again it's what and who is coming with that comet if that is what best describes what we see most.

In this case this or these objects from the heavens don't have a literal arrival on the surface of the earth as the earth would have been referred to as is done in another verse (Rev 9:1). Instead this object "lights down or on" from Greek pipto translated as "fell" which is the "down" part which is again different from objects from heaven that are "cast" to earth where cast is the Greek "ballo."

Based on these big indicators this star like object is coming close to or passing by the earth, or ends up hovering or something like that, as opposed to landing on or crashing into or going inside the earth and/or sea.

We know there are one or more functions to what is depicted as arriving during this time period. It's providing a BEAM, SHINING, LIGHT (LAMP) that "SETS ON FIRE" and/or KINDLES AND/OR CONSUMES (BURNS) - LIGHT, so is very much kin to Mat 24:27 and Luk 17:24 that indicates a lighted star like object as a "sign" of the Son of man's coming - described as moving from east to west which is along the same path comets and the star scape, the sun and moon are seen traversing.

The use of "Great" further describes this "comet or spacecraft" SIGN of arrival, which by the way Jesus didn't limit to happening just one time necessarily. This use of "great" could also be exceedingly large and/or high, loud, mighty, (be) sore (afraid) or strong and applied to some multiple of years. As with most prophecy all interpretations have their potential truthfulness - depicting reality.

One that gives credence to this depicting Next Level Older Members coming closer to Earth, is in how Ti and Do said they arrived in the 1920's to "tag" the human vehicles they were going to incarnate into. It's not when they came to incarnate which could explain why it didn't say in this case that it was clearly this "great star from heaven FALLING TO EARTH. Greek "pipto"
